The 15th of March, Mr. David Baker was selected by Custodian W. E. Easton under an emergency provision of the State Civil Service to a janitorship in the State offices, located in the Union League Builing. Mr. Baker's appointment was only temporary at that time. At the end of three months, the Eligible List of State Janitors being exhausted, Commissioner J. M. Hunter called for a State Civil Service Examination. Forty men in Los Angeles alone took this examination, which is very rigid, three-fourths of them being Colored, and for the first time the race has a good number of eligibles on the list of State janitors. This State examination was held over the State an probably two-hundred or more applicants went in for the examination. The result is now known, and Mr. Baker standing SECOND in the list of successful applicants, the three highest being certified, the State Board of Control notified the Custodian August 17th of the appointment of Mr. David Baker as permanent janitor at a salary of $85 per month. The California Eagle predicted when Mr. Easton was appointed Custodian that Governor Hiram W. Johnson would continue to recognize Negro efficiency, in the appointment of Mr. Baker, the race has one of its best opportunity to prove efficiency because in the State offices of the Union League building, it has been proved that, side by side, doing the same manner of work, white and black men can work co-operatively, without friction and with the greatest harmony. Today, the State offices in the Union League Building, a creation of Governor Johnson, has demonstrated that the Negro is not to be "jimcrowed", as one half of the employees of the attaches of the Custodian's Office are Colored. Mr. Baker was highly recommened to the Custodian as one of his best janitors in the County's employ at the Hall of Records, by Head Janitor Robinson; and during his temporary employment in the State offices, Mr. Baker had the signal honor of having all of the departments he served in the State offices recommend him as the best janitor they ever had, this in writing to the Civil Service Commission, and asking for his regular appointment. A short while ago this paper chronicled the re-appointment of Mr. Easton as Custodian, the result of the certification of the State Civil Service Board of examiners, had Mr. Easton not made good with the State Board of Control through efficient work in his Department, he would have not been re-appointed. We as a race are fast passing the experimental stage when we are given an opportunity, side by side, with the efficiency of the white race to prove our own efficiency. This is the only kind of a show any people should ask for,—equal opportunity,—no more no less, and this is the very desirable kind of opportunity Governor Hiram W. Johnson is giving us as a race in California.

of effort the young men are playing an important part in the same and in the advancement along fraternal and business lines the appointment of A. L. Porter, a prominent young man of our city who is one of our energetic and wide-awake business men as deputy of the Malachites of this State.

This order is making wonderful strides in the east and south from the fact that it pays a substantial policy. Also sick and accident relief and it is a remarkable success.

Mr. Porter has been chosen to do the work of organization on the Pacific Coast. He is well connected and has a highly creditable record, stands high in church circles, is a member of Wesley Chapel, of Delta Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M. Also of Panama Lodge, No. 13, K. of P., of N. A. S. A. E. A. & A.

Mr. Porter is preparing to organize in every section of the State and all who are interested would do well to communicate with him at his address, No. 1476 East 23rd street, or ring South 4779-J. To set up new lodges, the order is offering a special dispensation within the reach of all. All persons between the ages of 19 to 54 are eligible for membership to this order.

BIG CAMP MEETING TO BEGIN IN PASADENA

Commencing Sunday a big meeting to be conducted by the famous "Fighting Parson", J. Gordon McPherson, in a huge tent, which has been erected at the corner of South Fair Oaks and Belleview avenue on the short line has been arranged. Hundreds will no doubt flock to hear the black Billy Sunday.

Rev. McPherson has only a short time ago closed in another city a most remarkable and successful meeting an in demand for his return has consented to run this meeting for thirty days. Everybody is invited to turn out and hear this great evangelist.

THE COUNTY AND CITY CIVIC LEAGUE OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY

The Great Work Accomplished by This Organization Throughout the Country.

The three "C's", County and City Civic League is destined to become the greatest political force in Los Angeles County and so fast has it grown and its influence has spread that it will no doubt become state wide in its scope.

The work has been accomplished under the leadership of C. H. Woods, at present president, with an executive committee selected from all sections of the county.

It is an arch enemy to graft in politics. Its purpose is to demonstrate the virtues of measures and qualification of men for public office on a high plane. In the pending primaries this body has endorsed a ticket, they are holding meetings, distributing more than 40,000 peices of literature in their behalf and placing other publicity on behalf of their ticket.

This work is indeed commendable and if carried out in the way planned it will be the greatest effort on behalf of the masses ever undertaken.

The following is a paragraph from their ticket which they have endorsed for the coming primary.

To the Voters!

This League has for its object the betterment of all members of the human race. It is strictly American in idea and fundamentally it knows no object with any intention other than that of affiliating with men and issues that tend towards the uplift and the true principle of American citizenship. We, therefore, after an ex-

A.M.E. ZION CHURCH NOTES.

Last Sunday morning Rev. S. L. Prescott of Chicago, a traveling evangelist, delivered a splendid sermon on the subject "Overcoming." The service was well attended and inspiring.

Sunday evening the pastor occupied the pulpit and delivered the sermon from the subject, "What a Cup of Water May Do."

The Fishermen club met in its regular meeting Monday evening and held a very helpful meeting.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will occupy the pulpit and deliver the sermon on the subject "The Yoke of Christianity." At the evening service the junior choir, under the direction of Miss Bertha Miller, will appear in a sacred concert. If you have not heard this choir you should by all means hear it next Sunday. An interesting feature of this service will be an address by Dr. J. T. Hill on the subject "Music."

Bro. C. E. Caldwell will entertain on the evening of August 22nd in honor of the Fishermen club at his home, 1224 Victoria street. A grand social time is anticipated.

Wesley Chapel

Things are pushing to the front along all lines in Wesley chapel. The pastor is in fine spirits and greatly encouraged as he is greeted from time to time with the splendid audiences at all of the services. Conference time is approaching and Pastor Kinchen is cheerful to find the membership co-operating to round out all reports for the annual Conference.

Last Sunday was truly a great day. The Benevolent society worshipped with us at 10 a. m. and listened to an inspiring message from the pastor on the "Genius of Small Things." At the evening service Mrs. Prescott, the blind evangelist, delivered a wonderful sermon to a large audience.

The church was crowded on Tuesday night to pay tribute to the memory of Sister Dolly Lewis, who died in Kentucky two weeks ago.

The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. Sunday, and at 3 p. m. he will deliver a special message to the 200 or more young people of the Queen Esther Circle, of which Miss Vassie Williamson is president. His subject will be, "Girded But Not Know It."

The church no doubt will be crowded Sunday night to hear the great choir, led by Prof. Howard, render the cantata "Cavalry," or "The Seven Last Words of Our Lord on the Cross." Everybody is welcome to this great musical feast.

Birch Street Christian Church

On last Sunday Bro. W. G. Hopper preached two good gospel sermons to his listeners, one on "Covetousness" and the other on "Be Sure Your Sins Will Find You Out." In both he plainly showed the folly of such living and how secret or even open sin would finally result in one's downfall. Bro. Hopper is well trained in the Christian faith and knows how to portray that doctrine to his people.

On the 26th. inst. this Sunday school, as well as the Sunday school Bro. Hopper has at his Mission on Santa Fe avenue, will give a picnic for the children.

Just one more Sunday and we are planning to be in our new location at 14th and Birch streets. We will then dedicate our remodeled church and invite the public to share our joys.

The Endeavor services which were held at the residence of Miss Gertrude Bright on Newton street on last Sunday, were a success and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Our church has taken on new life under the leadership of C. N. Moore and our Sunday school has increased from 5 to 25, and the B. Y. P. U. is also increasing in membership every Sunday evening. We raised $105.65 the first month of our new pastor's administration. Two new members Sunday, and we feel that God is blessing us, and the church is proud of the pastor.

Bro. R. Payne, a young man on trial for ordination, preached on Sunday morning. Rev. Duvall and wife were with us at the morning service, and the Rev. Duvall preached for us Sunday evening.

The church has planned for a thousand dollar rally to take place on the first of November. The plan adopted for this rally is to have the church membership divided into four states, as follows: Alabama, California, Georgia and the state of Texas, each state with a governor. Any person not a member of the church can become a citizen of any of the states, if desired.

The state of Georgia will put on a grand entertainment on the 29th of August and will give away five dollars. Do not fail to purchase your ticket for the contest.

Look out for something greater an auto contest, something worth while—a big 5-passenger auto contest, and it will only cost $2.50 to enter the contest, and somebody is going to get a fine car. Tickets will be on sale at all the public business places conducted by colored men and women. The pastor will take the car our twice each week for exhibition. Do not fail to enter this contest as some one is going to get a fine car and you may be the lucky one. For further information call at the office, corner of Crocker and Agatha streets. You can register and pay your contest fee weekly.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Educational day was carried out according to schedule last Sunday and two large congregations were inspired and cheered through the efforts of these special services. Mrs. Gould, our own peerless soprano, Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters of Bakersfield, Mr. Anderson of San Francisco, and Messrs. Seagre and Copeland of this city were soloist for the occasion, and with our metropolitan choir rendered such selections as can only be heard at First church. Judges Wood and Findylson delivered two practical and instructive messages, while Attorney Tyler presided with dignity and demeanor that is truly befitting a law student of Harvard. With the two class night accessions and the accessions on Sunday morning the the membership roll went up four notches higher. The offering was commendable.

"Dollar money" time is fast closing. Conference will be here and the report must be made. The pastor is very solicitous that every member will so royally rally to this benevolent claim that the Conference minutes can be referred to with just pride and stand out as evidence that duty was truly performed. Will you who have not paid your "dollar money" kindly do so at once and thereby relieve your pastor of all unnecessary worry? Only three Sundays more.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services Sunday. All are welcome to attend. Annual Conference convenes here at First church on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, September 6th, and continues with three sessions daily until Sunday night, September 10th. The public is invited to attend. Dinner and supper will be served at the church each day during Conference session. Grand public reception on Wednesday night, to which the people of Los Angeles and vicinity are invited.

Don't miss the grand piano recital by Mrs. Kelly's pupils at the church Tuesday evening, August 22nd. Refreshments.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall, Sts.)

Rev. E. P. Gregg, Pastor.

Sunday was a grand day at the People's Independent church, Odd Fellows hall. Both services were well attended. At the morning service the pastor delivered a most eloquent and soul stirring sermon on the subject, "Led by the Spirit," the text was Romans 8:4. So plain did he unfold the treasures found in this Scripture that even a small child could understand it. His sermon in the evening on the subject, "Weighed in the Balances," was equally impressive. The choir was at its best and rendered excellent and appropriate music. Mr. Rasmus Hall thrilled the great audience at the morning service, with his spiritual and emotional deliverance of his solo, "Forward." Although the weather was bad, the Sunday school was well attended, the lesson was very interesting and its discussion was enjoyed by all. The superintendent and the teachers are to be congratulated upon the great work that is being accomplished by the Sunday school.

The first quarterly conference of this church will be held Monday evening, Jan. 31, at which time the reports from the various departments showing the marvelous progress and spiritual growth of the church will be made.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Crar, Pastor.

Services Sunday were largely attended. The pastor occupied the pulpit and delivered two messages. The choir was at its best. Mrs. Mary Myrick, formerly a deaconess of Bethel A.M.E. church, Chicago, became a member here. The pastor especially invites the young people of the city to the morning service this Sunday to hear the sermon-talk from the theme, "Is the Young Man Safe?" At the evening service the subject will be, "Esther." All are welcome to these services.

The entertainment given by the ladies of the Mite Missionary society Tuesday night was a great success. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Feb. 1, at 2:30 p.m., in ladies parlor of the church. All members are urged to be present.

The Beacon Light society will meet Tuesday night, Feb. 1, with Mrs. I. Murphy, 1036 W. 35th St., at 8 o'clock p.m. The pastor will be present with business of importance to submit to this body and kindly asks each member to be in attendance.

The Trustee Auxiliary society will meet with Mrs. W. H. Leathe, 1263 E. 32nd street, Friday, Feb. 4, at 2:30 p.m.

The Bands of Promise will meet tomorrow, Sat., in the Sunday school rooms in the church at 2:30.

The Men's Co-operative club now numbers 72. This organization will give a grand concert soon and serve a sumptuous dinner. Messrs. L. G. Eggleston and R. Tasker will have charge of the program. Mr. Hicks is chairman of the dinner and supper committee. Watch for the date of this extraordinary feast by the men. Elmer C. Bartlett, president; J. Thomas Harris, secretary. All men are welcome.

Providence Baptist Church

Expectation to the last another grand crowds are attending the services at Providence church. Sunday morning the pastor will preach from the subject, "What is the Kingdom of God, Can We Bring it on Earth?"

Sunday night his subject will be "How to Count the Mountain or How a Drop of Water Brought a 1000 Foot Train Across the Rockies." The choir will render special music at each service. Mrs. Williams will render special pipe organ selections.

Tabernacle Baptist Church

NOTES.

Sunday morning Rev. J. D. Gordon preached a beautiful sermon, and many souls were benefited by it.

Sunday evening Rev. W. H. H. Dickerson of Pasadena preached, his sermon being greatly enjoyed.

Over 75 persons have made a special request for Rev. J. D. Gordon to start the Bible study again, which was such a spiritual uplift to those who listened to his wonderful teachings.

The Art guild met at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Gordon Tuesday and was attended by a large crowd. The guild is taking on new life; in fact the entire church seems to be taking on new life.

Special revival services began Monday and will continue indefinitely under the direction of Rev. Reed, formerly of Stockton, who is in every way prepared to do justice to these services.

Co-operative Club of the First A. M.E. Church Setting Pace.

Heretofore the women have set the pace in church work, but the men of the First A.M.E. church are about to set such a warm pace that the women will have to look to their laurels.

The men under the leadership of Mr. Elmer Bartlett, the organizer, have gone to work in earnest and the recarpeting of the church, which will cost close to $500, is well under way. A representative of the Eagle man visited the club a few Sundays ago, and believe us, we never saw such enthusiasm to do good.

WELCOME NEW YEAR

I welcome, you all along the way
As you are young and gay,
I only wish you could stay
And be just as happy and gay.

But I know you must grow old,
For your path is strewn with sorrow and woes
You must then pain on your journey go.

Traveling down alone,
As your journey has just begun.
When six months you have gone
You will have hair sombre and wan
And your face is getting pale and thin
But you have six months more to win.

You cannot stop for misery,
You cannot stop for pain
For you have just six months more to gain.

You cannot look young
You cannot feel gay
For the sorrow you have passed thru
Has taken it all away
When twelve months has passed you
Will be old and gray.

—Mrs. T. B. Stanford.

Second Baptist Church.

A large audience was out Sunday morning, at which time Rev. Williams of Providence Baptist church preached a splendid sermon. Rev. A. Moore preached the evening sermon. His subject was "Dry Bones." This sermon sure brought many things to the minds of his hearers. Rev. Moore will preach again this Sunday morning. Welcome extended to all. C. D. Allen, chairman; S. P. Johnson, Asst. Secretary.

RACE MEN SHOULD PRACTICE LOYALTY

We have no antipathy for anyone connected with any paper, black or white semi-colored or otherwise, but the principle of true negro journalism is against ownership of such journals by other than members of the race. And the fact that a white man can procure negroes with any degree of intelligence to play second fiddle for him, to rake chestnuts out of the fire for him, is an imposition on the race and this naturally indicates either disloyalty to race or sordid and mercenary motives.

The fact that negroes in this city who are loud in their manifestation for the race, will race around to this white man with his union shop, that your boys and girls are barred from, to have your job work done, in preference to two pure D negro shops don't speak well for your loyalty to race and your own institution. We know this to be true and we know some of the parties that are giving their work to this shop that has a great big line of denunciation against the race, only in so far as they can use it for self aggrandizement.

PIGTOWNISMS

Small Talks on Passing Points

"BEAUTY"

Beauty, conditioned by itself, is something which appeals constantly to our senses. It is of importance, then, if one would try to define it, to consider the forms, lines and colors.

The female form should show a soft and rounded contour, nothing harsh or angular. The lines which present the form to the eye should show the image of a succession of curves more or less pronounced. These curves should appear under the

The funeral obsequies which constitute our ideal of feminine beauty is rather. To be pretty a woman need not have an absolutely white skin, but rather one with warm and bright coloring as the warm and soft color of the Brittons and Greeks have. However, beauty is contrary to an earthy skin or one with a deathly shade which is generally due to some illness and which disappears with the cause that produced it.

Other points of feminine beauty are the eyes, the teeth and the hair. Keep the first clear and bright; the second, clean and white; the third, soft and glossy, and you will have a claim to that highly coveted charm of a "beautiful woman."

Don't forget to watch the paper for the date. What date? The one for the re-opening of the dances which you have been enjoying at Washington hall.

There can be no apology for breadlines in a civilized country, and yet it is gratifying to note that Atlanta has a very small per cent of that form of lawlessness, as compared with other states in the South. Statistics show that our state had only five of such cases last year. Let us hope that even that number may be reduced to zero, and that Alabama may stand at the head of the list of states for law and order.—Baptist Vanguard.

CANDIDATES, DON'T BE FOOLED!

There are now a number of so-called Negro newspapers, campaign sheets, being launched in this city for the sole purpose of holding up candidates for public office this Spring and Fall. Such unworthy sheets have neither a mailing list nor any home subscribers. This information can be substantiated by looking on the paper above the editorial columns for the printed statement that the paper has been established in the midst. If this does not appear, the paper is a fake pure and simple. Any money paid to such papers buys for you neither circulation of your printed matter nor the influence that is represented to go with it.

EDITORIAL

The proposition of members of the race making the rounds of prospective candidates has become a serious one, and reflects no credit on the race. The idea of the pinheads that are serve on the local political posing as leaders who can deliver the Colored vote is ridiculous. They cannot give a guarantee of their own vote, much less that of a race of people.

Governor Johnson has arrived in the city for a few days, and while here will occupy the executive office at the sub-capitol, Second and Hill streets.

Even though the Governor is here in his official capacity, his presence is of more than passing notice on account of the air being surcharged with political alignments and the possibility of the Governor playing such an important part in the approaching campaign in the cause. We do not know his aspirations, but we are glad to even have it a possibility that he will be among the leaders of a great amalgamation of all the Republican forces of which he is really one; for a grand and notable victory for Republican principles and a deliverance of the people from this great slough of discontent, unrest, and poverty which prevails under the present Democratic administration. We welcome the Governor at this time, and he is one of the lieutenants which the conference of Republicans will say to Chicago for the deliverance of the people. We shall be glad as a Republican to march to victory under his standard.

THE POLITICAL POT PIE

R. J. Delaney, the well known Machinist and a man who is well and favorably known by all classes has a strong following for Supervisor of the Fourth Supervisorial district, this district this large colored vote and no doubt Mr. Delaney will be heard of during the campaign, and all shall have a chance to look him over. The Eagle says her contributory is saying that he has the namesake of the right man in the right place if nominated and elected to this office.

Wm. Greenwood is looking with favor for a support that will carry him thru the hardest of the coming primaries.

Rubsole for Supervisor in the Fifth has announced his candidacy and it is said will make a hard campaign.

The plums and easy lives have already begun to make the existence of the candidates miserable by their efforts to elect them provided the candidate will cough up. Some of them seem quite free as to tell them if they will do certain things they will just turn over to them the whole colored vote as a starter.

Rev. A. J. Johnson is certainly an excellent choice of being nominated for congress from this district at the coming primaries and election.

Judge Rives has definitely decided not to become a candidate for the U. S. Senate.

It is said that Assemblyman R. H. Rosser will seek re-election to the assembly, as this declaration seems to keep the fate of whether or not several others will run.

It is said that the Rev. D. R. Jones, who has a charge at Salt Lake, will return and make the race for supervisor from the third district.

Ask the Eagle man about the great Get Together meeting which will be pulled off in the near future.

Capt. Crumbly says just let it be any old Republican I am for him to beat the present occupant of the white house.

There are already numerous colored men who are partaking of the political pot pie, as registration deputies for which they receive a per diem and so much per name, from some source or other.

No one seems to be breaking the traces to run against Woolwine for district attorney.

Councilman Langdon has shied his hat in the ring and will stand to be nominated for supervisor.

The presidential primaries, to elect delegates to the national conventions, will be held May 2.

Civil Service Examinations.

Our people should certainly avail themselves of the opportunity of taking the various civil service examinations, city, county and state; to the end that many at least have a chance for the various positions. If we keep on qualifying, it will be a very difficult job for either Mr. Dee or Doty, with their alleged unfairness toward colored eligibles, to keep them off. Watch the papers for the examinations; procure the necessary blanks and take the examinations, and in baseball parlance, remember the main thing is to get on. So do your part toward getting on the eligible list.

President Wilson is on his tour for preparedness. The only thing that the people want him to prepare for is to prepare to leave the White House on March 4, 1917, when his first and only term expires.

After all, the colored women may be spared the pains of organizing a protective association to save their husbands from the vultures of the opposite race. The fate of Dahlia may have its effect, and Judge will all conclude the game is not worth the candle.

No one should fail to read the article by Eugene Debs on The Commoner. His attitude shows him to be a man who stands for equal justice to all, and it is refreshing to a struggling race to know that it has such friends, who do not hesitate to denounce the wrong and uphold justice and fair play.

In the last issue of the local semi-negro journal, the editor published a very striking caricature of the editor of this paper; it was very charming, indeed, to us. The thoughtfulness of the editor from the East shall not lack appreciation on our part. We are, as indicated above, presenting one of him. This represents the distinguished editor, author and disciple of Dunbar toiling with the white man's burden; the white man is plying the lash and no doubt will succeed in getting more results from our distinguished editor and his retinue.

Restaurant Man Pays $255 for Refusing Meal to Negro

(Special to Illinois Star)

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 18.—For the first time in the history of the County of Wayne County a Colored man has secured a substantial judgment for being refused service in a restaurant.

On Friday last, the jury in the case of Clyde B. Hayes vs. Robert Day returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Hayes for $125. On the 2d day of last July, Mr. Hayes in company with another gentleman who was his guest and a white man, went into the restaurant operated by Mr. Day for dinner. After being ignored for some time by the waiters, Mr. Hayes was told by Mr. Day that he did not serve Colored people in his restaurant, whereupon Mr. Hayes commenced suit through his attorney, Francis H. Warren. The case was tried last Friday before a jury and a verdict rendered as above stated.

When last heard from, Mr. Day said he would pay the judgment without being troubled with a writ of execution, although he had consulted several attorneys with a view of attempting to avoid payment.

Put the Mob Down

A Negro was lynched January 16, 1916, at Rockville, Ark., for slapping a small white boy. After the mob had disposed of the Negro in its brutal and summary way, it burned down the Negro school-house. Why did the mob burn down the schoolhouse? Because, one may suppose, school education prepares him to resist insults, whether coming from white or colored, and causes one to denounce all forms of lawlessness.

Both Burns on this case—lynching a Negro and burning down a Negro schoolhouse—are of such common occurrence that they barely get a paragraph in our daily papers. If a Negro is burned alive, he may get two paragraphs, but no bitter denunciation in editorial comment. Should such a horror be perpetrated on the battle-fronts of the bloodiest war of history, now raging in Europe, our great American press would go wild in denouncing the barbarity, but if a Negro is mailed in a pine box, saturated with coal oil and burned to a crisp in Mississippi, the same civilization will tell the story simply, and the editorial page be as silent as death on this bit of Southern gentleness.

The mob in the South has grown and fattened on Negro blood, and now it threatens the business and conduct of the white man.

The state as well as the nation must take the mob in hand and punish it, whether it lynches a Negro or burns down a factory.—St. Louis Argus.

A Poor Rule

The news of the killing of a score of American citizens in Mexico by native soldiers or bandits, and the knowledge of the position taken in the matter by the Administration at Washington must bring to every thinking Negro one question which stands out above all others. It is not the question of whether the United States should intervene in Mexico or stay out of Mexico; the question is, "Why one attitude on Mexico and an entirely opposite one on Haiti?"

It was claimed that the cause of humanity demanded that this Government should go into Haiti and put an end to revolution and anarchy. The question naturally arises, "Have political conditions in Haiti ever reached such a low level as they have now reached in Mexico?" This much is true, that whether under one supreme government in Haiti or under two or three pretending governments, the salary of foreigners has been guaranteed and secured. If, as is true, this Government sent an army into Haiti and fought unequal battles with the ill-equipped natives, in which many of them have been killed, and took full control of Haitian affairs, because the Island Republic had been in a state of revolution for some months, what should it not do in the case of Mexico, where for a year and a half there has been no shadow of responsible government, and where American men, women and children have been killed by hundreds?

If intervention in Haiti was a duty in answer to the demands of common humanity, a duty the performance of which will result in untold benefits to the Haitians, why is not the same true of Mexico? These questions are sure to press themselves upon all thinking Colored men. They are bound to wonder if the difference between the cases of Mexico and Haiti is one of size or color.—New York Age.

Say what you will of the Northern Negro, he believes in equal rights and justice before the law, and he is never content enough to admit the law between his legs and lyingly deny it. There are many Southern Negroes guilty.—Dallas Express.

CITY BREVITIES

In the passing of W. Randolph former clerk man at the Palace hotel, San Francisco, is recalled the fact that he was famous as a man whose memory was almost supernatural. He absolutely could remember all faces and could pass out hats to thousands without making an error. He never forgot a face or name.

Another remarkable character of Oakland was Madison Toy, who recently passed out. He, although never aspiring to any heights, had a prophetic eye and was a walking encyclopedia, on any subject he could give off-hand correct information. It is said that he was an advisor of the highest officials where he resided. It was a common sight at any time to see the mayor or city attorney of Oakland pay a visit to Toy to get advice on momentous questions.

PERNICIOUS REALTY AGENTS

Lamar Stands Up For His Rights—Prejudiced Realty Firm Gets Set Back

R. G. Lamar, 1331 Central ave. some months ago thru his housekeeper rented the above named premises, shortly after they had paid their first months rent, without any apparent cause or reason the firm of Callender-Andrews Co who were agents for this property, served notice that they vacate said property, when pressed for a reason they told Lamar that the owner was going to use the premises for industrial purposes. When Lamar explained the inconvenience and expense which he had accrued they again accepted rent but a month later they served notice that the rent had been raised from $16 to $50, this being prohibitive, Lamar asked who was the owner of the property; they told him one of their rules was not to disclose the owners name of rental property. Lamar did not quit he went to the Hall of Records, located the owner, wrote them the facts. The result was that the owner took the property out of the hands of this firm, (thus indicating they did not approve of this unjust treatment) and placed it in the hands of another firm and wrote for Lamar to pay his rent as usual to another firm altogether. Thus giving a blackeye to prejudice hate and injustice.

Appreciates Eagle's Grand Work for the Races.

Editor Eagle:

As a medium the Eagle well bears the aphorism, "To love to do good is an inspiration to any man."

You give as much attention to the working man as you do to the professional man, and for this reason I have given considerable attention to the articles in recent issues about the Colored Workingman's club. In the issue of Jan. 22 you had another very interesting article. From that article I have allowed myself to meditate in behalf of my class, the working man. Does he appreciate your efforts, rather, in a broader sense, is he mastering his work, whatever it may be, or is he kicking for better, tho' not preparing for better, by mastering what he has?

We all have a job; our capacities vary. We are due at 8 but we awaken at 7; an unsanctified breakfast, for there is no time to tarry, and when our minds and bodies are adjusted for work, its 'nigh 11. From then until 5, or the time for our relief, its a headache, a grouch, or our joys of the night before; but leave it to us, we've done a day's work, is our true belief. It is the above repetition, from our debut to date, but every New Year we're going to do better—tho' 'tis left to fate.

At the social, card party, or most every place we meet, we've got a big line of "nothings" to talk; wine men speak. Its let's "have a drink," or listen to that "pi-ano"—or Ole Bill's new suit; we never think; "home isn't heaven," and the sweetest music is muffled with a mute. Then 24 hours have gone, nothing gained for ourselves nor the community. So goes the day, so goes the night—lost opportunity.

There are over ten million of us in this beautiful place, so I'm not talking to those who do things for the upbuilding of our race. Its for us teamsters, janitors, messengers—all work is honorable. Get on the job and master it—results are inevitable. Our leaders need help. Let's stick to 'em like glue. While they commercial our rights, we'll preserve 'em with efficiency—majestically, too. Unless we act, what can we expect or hope to be? Remember—"as a man thinketh, so is he."

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN

Aunt Jemima

Dear Aunt J——

I am a girl 18 years of age and in high school. I am well up in my subjects, and as far as my musical ability is concerned I believe that I am cope with the situation; but in spite of these facts I am discouraged and would prefer to stop school and go to work, but mother urges me on. I would like to have your advice since I am not in the right attitude of mind until I shall have made some sort of decision.

(A.) If you are up with your class work and your mother is anxious to keep you in school, unless you have some better cause than the instant above I see no reason why you should be discouraged and desire to quit. You are too young to feel that your education is completed. Every girl who hopes to become a wife, mother, or even business woman, needs a well-rounded education. However, if you would write me a little clearer as to why you are discouraged I should be pleased to advise you at length.

Dear Aunt J——

Will you please help me to decide my future? I am only 17 years of age and am being wooed by a man 40 years old, who says that he loves me and desires to make me his wife. He has a home of his own, and a good job. I like him because he gives me things, but my associates have always been young people, whose society he cares little or nothing for. Now, as much as I would like to marry and have a good home, I am not willing to give up my young associates.

(A.) Unless you are able to fully decide that your husband's happiness is your first duty, I would advise you to break away immediately.

Second Baptist Church Notes.

Last Sunday morning services were begun promptly at 11 o'clock. The organ pealed forth the solemn certainty of those hopeful lines: "The Lord is in His Holy Temple"

Dr. H. D. Prowd preached one of his customary sermons. The text a few short words of might is found in 2nd Kings, 10:15: "Is thine heart right?"

Dr. Prowd, after selecting his text, gauges the means of striking and holding the attention of his listeners, assisting each intelligence avoiding fatigue and weariness. His themes are developed by reserving the strongest words for the last. He shows a wonderful symmetry of ideas by his symmetry of phrases. Sometimes he guides the intelligence by a continuous series of contracts to the final image to which he directs the attention from the first. Sometimes he leads his audience to the close of a long flowery description and then checks him with a sorrowful phrase. The suspense at certain points in the development of his process and the production of effects reacts indefinitely upon the imaginary and reflective powers of the mind. He selects elegant and noble terms, rejects idle words and phrases.

In the evening the audience was thrilled by the lecture of Mr. George Barsong.

Mr. Barsong is a Christianized Turk. In stirring sentences he spoke of the Mohammedan idolatrous worship of his god Allah. All who do not bend the knee to this Allah of the Turks must be put to death. Seeking to save himself from the ruins of this imposed orthodoxy Mr. Barsong came to America where he has studied the Christian religion and has accepted the same.

RESOLUTION OF ENDORSEMENT OF E. F. MANN FOR CONGRESS BY THE PASADENA REPUBLICAN CLUB

WHEREAS, Edwin F. Hahn is a candidate on the Republican ticket for repreentative in Congress from the Ninth District, and is asking the support of the voters at the primaries to be held August 29th; and

WHEREAS, The said Edwin F. Hahn, having been a resident of this community for the past 25 years, is well known to us all as a sterling Republican, is a man of high mental and moral qualifications, and a representative citizen of the most progressive character; and

WHEREAS, we believe that this important district with its splendid and varied resources and especiall yits vast citrus production, should have ample tariff protection against foreign cheap labor; therefore, it is important to this end that its representative should belong to the great Republican party, which has always stood for the principles of protection:

NOW, THEREFORE, having confidence in the ability of Edwin F. Hahn, and believing him to be the proper type of man to represent this District, and obtain for it much needed legislation, we heartily endorse his candidatry and enlist for him the support of his fellow citizens at the polls.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PASADENA REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Hiawatha Wedding Feast

The big Hiawatha Wedding Feast, consisting of a Chorus of about one hundred voices of California's best singers, together with the dramatic scenes, promises to be the best ever staged in the city of Los Angeles.

Prof. R. G. Jackson of the Western University, Quindaro, Kansas, is a musical genius. He will arrive her ethe morning of August 23rd, will take the big chorus, train and dramatize the various characters for the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, which, together with other charming selections of the sweetest melodies, will be rendered at the Trinity Auditorium on the evening of September 5th.

Many of the leading Clubs of the city have already made reservations; and the calls are coming in all the while. Those who have seen the staging of the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, declare it to be the greatest scenical and pleasing stage affair that romance has arrayed o the eye of man. To love dreamers, it is a bubbling spring of laughter, and a rippling river of song. It is said that no other can stage it better than Prof. Robert G. Jackson; no better performers than those who are participants.

The following is a partial list of the clubs that have made arrangements for reservations:

Prof. and Mrs. T. A. Green, Mrs. Gottschalk, Mrs. J. E. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mr. Wm. Paterson, Mme. B. F. Spivey, Miss P. C. Vincent, Mr. Wm. M. WITH APOLOGIES TO A. BURROWS OF STOCKTON

For write-up of the Grand Session of the G. U. O. of O. F. recently held at Marysville, we are in receipt of many letters from all over the State complimenting the same for which we are thankful.

But we owe an apology to our friend and Brother, A. Burrows, of Stockton, as we inadvertedly got another in the office to which he was elected. Instead of H. E. Simpson being elected Grand Director, A. Burrows, of Stockton, was elected to that offie. Mr. Burrows is one of the young and entergetic members of the order and with his ideas for progress in vogue he will no doubt render the order signal services.

Off to San Diego for Athletic Meet.

After a course of training and physical examination by Drs. W. A. Twiston and Frank A. Gordon, on which the ligaments of the noted runner were thoroughly gone over, and to the treatment of these two succesful surgeons, Mr. Drew says that he has never felt in better shape than at the present, and he therefore left Thursday for San Diego to compete in the athletic exercises at the Exposition on Saturday. He will run in both the 100-yard and 220-yard events, and says that he has no fears but that he will be able to run in the old-time form and easily capture these two events for the L. A. A. C., after which he will return to the city and leave next week for New York, where he will compete in the big national events, and meet again all of the crack runners of the world.

Among those who left this morning to attend the State Grand Temple at Oakland, August 22, were Hines, M. Jennings, E. Willingham, D. Anglin and Missouri Busby.

POLITICAL POT PIE

E. J. Delorey is coming up to the home stretch with plenty of reserve power and will gallop down to the wire one, two.

Our Pot Pie man cannot see how the fighting parson can expect to drive in the wire of politics and make a success saving souls.

The meeting at the 14th St. school was intended to boost Dean at the expense of Woolwine. In this it utterly failed, it looked like a frame up and helped Woolwine immensely. Dean's generals failed him in this move and it resulted in a wave of sentiment that is helpful to Woolwine.

GREAT MEETING AT SANTA MONICA

The mass meeting at Santa Monica under the auspices of the city and county civic league was a magnificent success, many visitors from L. A. being present, among which were W. H. Saunders, R. G. Lamar, G. P. Brown, A. L. Gaines, and J. B. Bass. The people seemed much enthused and joined with the slogan get together. G. W. Smith was the chairman and J. W. Mitchell secretary of the meeting, which was held at the C. M. E. church on Bay street.

The meetings billed for next week are varied and many, and it will take much effort for the various speakers to make the same.

Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass will take the stump the next ten days for election as Republican Committeeman from the 74th Assembly District.

The meeting at the Colored Workingmen's Club on last Tuesday evening was a hummer indeed; enthusiasm ran high. The following candidates spoke or were represented: Ralph Graham for District Attorney, W. M. Greenwood by proxy, F. H. Monser, Senator H. H. Lyons, H. H. Boone represented W. H. Booth, J. H. Langdon and Judge Craig. On next Tuesday evening the concluding meeting of the campaign will be held; the Black and Tan band will play and Editor Bass will be the chairman.

The Booth Campaign Committee up to date has absolutely passed up the Negro journals insofar as any publicity matter is concerned, and the Johnson Committee has not been very prolific with publicity matter for the Negro journals, hence the dearth of information on the Senatorial situation.

The pin head Republicans who rage about somebody's loyalty will be the weights on the party's future success, they have evidently failed to hear of the re-amalgamation and celebration of the same on November 7.

Capt. H. Z. Osborne of the 10th district is making a strenuous campaign of the district and will render a good accounting on August 29.

The Eagle can never be accused of narrowness. We have given to every aspirant for political preferment a chance to get before our people if he cared to do so.

F. H. Monser, present assemblyman from the 74th assembly district, is one of the very best friends that the Negro race has ever had in the legislative halls of this State. On all matter affecting the rights of the colored people, the way he stood up for them you would think that he was one of them. Now some would have the colored people of the district to turn down a man like this. Watch and see. We want everybody to know that the colored people appreciate and will ever be loyal to their friends.

THE COLORED ATTORNEYS SUPPORT JUDGE JOHN PERRY WOODS

ENDORSEMENT

RECOGNIZING the importance of placing and keeping on the bench jurists of unquestionable probity and ability, holding firmly the confidence of the public and dealing justice to all men alike; and further,

RECOGNIZING that in the candidacy of the Honorable J. P. Woods, incumbent, we have the opportunity of retaining on the bench a man possessing in a large measure those most desirable qualities:

THEREFORE, We, the subscribed members of the Los Angeles Bar, do most heartily and unequivocally endorse the candidacy of Judge Woods for re-election to the Bench of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles.

SOCIETY

MRS. BLACKSHEAR - WALLER THE QUEEN OF ENTERTAINERS

Saturday afternoon, August 5, at her most beautiful home on 15th street, Mrs. Waller entertained about 135 guests with a reception. Many of those present were from out of town.

The house was beautiful in floral decoration and the plan of entertainment was up to the highest standard according to polite society.

The many guests present from in and out of town pronounced Mrs. Waller the queen of hostesses.

Chicken salad and assorted ices and cakes composed the refreshments which were served in abundance.

THE BIRCH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN THRIVING CONDITION

The members of the E. 8th St. Christian church, now the Birch St. Christian church, since they called their new pastor have taken on, as it were, new zeal and are making greater strides toward real advancement than ever before.

Considering that they have moved on for a number of months without a shepherd, these people deserve great praise for their stick-to-itiveness in their church circle.

Bert Williams, the world's greatest comedian, at the Angelus Theater this week.

Great throngs are filling the new Angelus this week to witness one of the greatest acts ever flashed upon the curtain. Bert Williams is the greatest his country has ever produced as a clean cut fun producer.

Messrs. Johnson and Williams, proprietors of the Angelus, deserve both credit and support for seeking such high class moving pictures for the people in this city.

Miss Mamie Cunningham entertained at dinner Monday evening, honoring as guests Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters, Miss S. Ellener McEllen, James Duncan, Louie White, and her brother, David Cunningham, an old fashion Southern dinner was served typical of that style of aristocracy.

MISS MAUDE ROSEMOND ENTERTAINS

At the cozy little home of her parents on E. 14th St., Miss Maud Rosemond entertained in honor of Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters, Miss Ethyl Miller and Miss Marie Ford of Pasadena, and Miss Cornelia Leggett; other honored guests were Miss Lillian Sampson and Mrs. Russell of Bakersfield. Miss Rosemond was queenly in a beautiful gown of blue chiffon, while Mrs. Winters was a dazzling oriental picture in a gown of imported silver. The other guests were a galaxy of the younger set, representing the elite of the city.

The house decorations were yellow and white, and the collation in tone of the season.

Miss Susie Lynch, who has been in Santa Monica for the last two months, has returned again to the city. She liked the beach city fine and was greatly benefited while there.

Mrs. A. Harvey and daughter, Mary, of Bakersfield are the house guests of Miss M. Rosemond this week.

Mrs. Leon Howard and daughter Erma of Bakersfield are the guests of Fenner of E. 21st St. this week.

W. A. TARLETON, M. D.

Who has made an enviable reputation in this city as a physician and surgeon of the highest rank. Has the distinction of rendering great service to Howard Drew, world famous athlete.

Dr. B. A. Jordan, dentist, who is located on the fourth floor of the Germain Bldg., 224 S. Spring St., has been in our city a little over a year and has proven to be well qualified in all capacities of his profession.

One thing in particular we must admire in our young dentist is that he is very conscientious and this with perseverance will make any being a successful conqueror.

On one occasion last week in less than an hour he had extracted 62 teeth from five different patients, and all went home smiling after taking the laughing gas.

Dr. Frank Gordon, who is a new physician among our midst, gave the anesthetic, while Dr. Tarleton assisted and helped conduct the operations.

ODD FELLOWS BANQUET DELEGATE

Los Angeles lodge, at their hall on Eighth and Wall Sts., gave a banquet in honor of their delegate, Attorney Alex McDowell, who represented this lodge at the recent grand session at Marysville.

It was a glorious meeting, Mr. McDowell's report was the feature and was highly praised by all. The evening was spent in speaking and the spirit of progress was in evidence, and all agreed to work for the continued advancement of the order in this section.

Geo. M. Warner presided with dignity and grace. It was indeed a great meeting.

MRS. PEARL LOWERY WINTERS

Famed contralto singer, who will be one of the soloists at the "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," at Trinity Auditorium, Tuesday night.

HIAWATHA'S WEDDING FEAST

Trinity Auditorium, Tuesday Evening, Sept. 5th, at 7:45 P. M.

Los Angeles's best and all the rest will be present at Trinity Auditorium next Tuesday evening to witness the great Hiawatha's Wedding Feast.

Prof. Robert G. Jackson has spared no pains in putting on that "all-star" finishing touch in preparing that "chanting crowd" of participants for Hiawatha's marmonia, ovation, as dramatized by Samuel Coleridge Taylor. Tongue cannot tell what ears may hear and eyes behold in the witnessing of the melodious music and the rich dramatic scenes of this Wedding Feast.

Immediate reservations should be made by phoning or calling at the address of any of the places where tickets are on sale. Such places, named under Special Reservation notice in other columns of this paper.

FRANK A. GORDON, M. D.

Although in our midst but a short time Dr. Frank A. Gordon has already demonstrated his worth in his profession. His treatise on infantile paralysis has attracted much attention, and he is rapidly forging to the front. He was also joined with Dr. Tarleton in rendering signal professional service to World's Champion Sprinter Howard Drew.

CLOSE OF WESTERN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION AND WOMAN'S HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The 25th annual session of the Western Baptist Association and W. F. and H. M. Convention closed last Sunday.

The entire session was largely attended by members of the Association and the citizens at large.

Some of the features of the convention was the annual address by the president, Mrs. S. B. Strickland, Prof. F. M. Roberts and Mrs. Wheeler, representing the California Dry Federation.

On the first day the welcome address by Mrs. Bronson on behalf of the Second Baptist church, the place of meeting, and the response by Mrs. Norwood of San Diego were timely for the occasion.

Twenty-five delegates represented twenty-seven societies properly, especially the Friendship and Second Baptist Societies, the former reported something over $70 and the latter $51. Within the past few years the societies have done excellent work under the direction of the retiring president, Mrs. S. B. Strickland, and it is hoped that the good work will go on at the same gait under the new presiding officer, Mrs. L. S. Moore, wife of Rev. Moore, pastor of the Providence Bapt. Church. Mrs. Moore, however, is new in this section, but she comes to us with a record of having done excellent work in the missionary realm from which she comes.

The other officers elected for the ensuing year were: Vice president, Mrs. C. Mae Harts, Metropolitan. Pasadena; recording secretary, Mrs. M. [illegible]ness, Mt. Zion; Mrs. W. M. Soloman, Friendship, Pasadena; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jennie Williams, Second Baptist; treasurer, Mrs. R. E. Dent, Friendship; chaplain, Mrs. W. C. Williams, Metropolitan, organist.

Don't fail to see Hiawatha's Wedding Feast at the Trinity, next Tuesday evening — a rare treat, regardless of price.

PROF. WILKINS' PIANO RECITAL AT 14TH ST. SCHOOL

Last Sunday afternoon, Prof. Wilkins in recital with his pupils again thrills the Los Angeles public. So charming has been the recitals given by Prof. Wilkins and his galaxy of pupils that whenever he sounds his gavel announcing to the Los Angeles public that he will appear in recital, the public stands on tiptoe with appreciation and so last Sunday was a revival of the fittest with this pleasing musician.

Those who were conspicuous at Prof. Wilkins' program at 14th street school last Sunday were Mme. Hagsley, Mrs. Lowery-Winters and Mrs. Brook of Boston and Prof. R. Jackson of Western University. Rev. Byers' remarks at the close of the program spoke in glowing terms of the service being rendered the Los Angeles public by Prof. Wilkins.

Don't fail to see Pansy Lee-wis flirt with the Indian maids at the Trinity Auditorium next Tuesday evening.

PROF. ROBERT G. JACKSON

Head of Musical Department of Western University, of Kansas, who has journeyed to Los Angeles to direct the chorus of "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," which will be produced at Trinity Auditorium, Tuesday evening, Sept. 5.

ONE OF WORLD'S GREATEST MUSICAL GENIUSES

Prof. Robert G. Jackson, dean of the musical department of Western University, Quindaro, Kan., who is at present in our city, having come here to direct the great chorus in "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," at Trinity Auditorium on next Tuesday evening, is without question one of the world's greatest musicians. As an organist he is without a peer. His performances on the pipe organ are indeed worth going miles to hear.

His service is in constant demand from all sections of the country, and especially so from the white churches and other musical organizations.

As a chorus director Prof. Jackson excels, and during the interim of his vacation his services are sought on all hands to direct choruses. It is said that he can get more music out of a body than any other living man.

He is enamored of California and its great climate, this being his third trip to conduct a chorus on the Coast, and when the ladies of the Allensworth Club sought his services in the production of "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," in preference to calls from Chicago, St. Louis, and other eastern points, he quickly decided to come here.

He arrived here last Wednesday at 7:10 a. m., and immediately plunged into the work of putting on the finishing touches of the great chorus. He complimented the preliminary work of Dr. W. C. Gordon to the highest, and the proficiency already gained by the members of the same.

Prof. Jackson is a product of the Blue Grass State, Kentucky, attended the Chandler Normal. Coming to Lawrence, Kan., he attended and graduated from the Lawrence High School. He attended the Kansas University and later took lessons from famous music masters. In 1902 he accepted the chair of music at the Western University with very meager facilities, and has a faculty now of four, with five studios and twelve pianos, which school has turned out hundreds of scholars, who are now located in all sections of the country, employed at their profession.

So truly with Prof. Jackson's presence in our midst a new impetus and inspiration should be ours, and with the mighty chorus which he is to direct on next Tuesday evening, thousands should turn out and give to him and to the members of the chorus an encouragement befitting their great effort and sacrifice for Sweet Charity's sake, as this grand event is given for the benefit of the Old Folks' Home.

First A. M. E. church, or better known as "Historic Eighth and Towne Avenue Church," where very comfortable arrangement is being completed for the entertainment of the California Annual Conference, from Sept. 6 to 10. This metropolitan edifice will be aglow with additional holy fervor, intellectual treats and business enactments with three sessions daily from the opening to the very close of the session on Sunday night, when the ministers will be given their "appointments" for another year. A grand reception will take place on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock and everybody is welcome to attend. Thursday night will be Educational and Pasadena night. The pastor and good people of "The Crown City" will come over en masse, and assisted by First church's metropolitan choir, they will render varied selections of a musical and educational manner as is seldom heard in annual assemblies of this kind. Great Missionary mass meeting and sermon by the Rev. R. R. Guy, of Sacramento, Calif., on Friday night. Thursday afternoon will be "Ladies' Day," when the noble women of the Mite Missionary Society will hold forth. Immediately at the close of the morning session Saturday, at high noon, appropriate Memorial Services will be held. Sunday will be a big day with divine services morning, afternoon and night. The public is invited to take in the whole affair from beginning to end. Dinner and supper will be served at the church daily, 25 cents per meal to all who are not delegates. Bishop H. B. Parks will preach here at First church, Sunday morning, Sept. 3, at 11 o'clock. Everybody welcome. Last Communion service of this Conference year.

THE PROGRAM FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT PUBLIC RECEPTION

This program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock:

1. Music—First A. M. E. church choir.
2. Prayer—Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor Phillips Chapel C. M. E. church.
3. Music—Choir.

15. Music.
16. Benediction—Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor of Zion A. M. E. Church.

Refreshments in the Banquet Hall.

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor of First A. M. E. church, where the California annual conference will convene. Dr. Craw and his loyal people as host to this august assembly will eclipse all former events of this kind held before. The various auxiliaries are rallying as one solid phalanx to the dining feature of this affair and sumptuous meals, well prepared, will be served to all alike. Every true member is doing his and her full duty. The "Dollar Money" roll is nearing its completion and will be read Sunday night, Sept. 3rd, at the evening service. Each member and all friends will have paid this benevolent claim by this time and the prediction is that First church will make one of the best reports this year that it has ever made in its organic life since the erection of its present magnificent structure, and the gathering together of so representative a congregation. The pastor and membership say: Welcome to everybody to attend the annual conference.

Dr. Eugene C. Nelson, Who Has Made Rapid Strides in His Profession.

After a year of professional activity in this field we take pleasure in chronicling the marked success of Dr. Eugene C. Nelson, who has built up a magnificent practice since his advent to Southern California. Dr. Nelson is splendidly equipped for his life's work and is endowed with an engaging personality that contributes in a great measure to his success. There is no more familiar figure on our streets than this enterprising physician, dashing about in his powerful Cadillac, making the rounds of his many patients. Dr. Nelson is a member of the American Red Cross and delights in alleviating human suffering. We wish him Godspeed.

Rt. Rev. H. B. Parks, of Chicago, Ills., and Bishop of the Fifth Episcopal District. Bishop Parks will preach at First A. M. E. Church, 8th St. and Towne Avenue, Sunday, 11 a. m., Sept. 3.

WARD CHAPEL CHURCH NEWS

Rev. F. A. Moten, D. D., the evangelical pastor of Ward A. M. E. Church, Channing Street, Los Angeles, who is winding up his second year's work at said charge. Rev. Moten has made many friends in the city. He will preach his farewell sermon, Sunday, Sept. 3. Annual conference will convene on the 5th. The afternoon services will be great, as Bishop Parks is expected. The pastors of the city and their congregations have been invited and will no doubt be present to say a few parting words to the out-going pastor.

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST INSTITUTIONAL CHURCH

Every department of the church is increasing. Our pastor preached an able sermon in the morning service. His text was from the 5th chap. of Gal. and the 1st verse. His theme, Christian Liberty. He exhorted the members to take a stand for the faith that was delivered to the saints.

Rev. Hughs, of Pasadena, preached for us the evening sermon, and he preached a good sermon. At the close, Sister Moore, our pastor's wife, who was selected and elected President of the Women's Convention, came forward with a beautiful basket of flowers which was presented her when she was installed, and thanked the sisters and the church for their appreciation.

Tuesday evening quite a host of people gathered at the church and a choice program was rendered by the Alabama Club, and Sister Ferguson holding the lucky number, carried off the $2.50 for one dime.

The church is serving dinner every Sunday. Come and be filled for only 25 cents.

The pastor organized a young girls and boys choir Tuesday evening, which will be the charm of the city in a short while.

For good singing, good preaching and good eating, come to Providence Baptist Institutional Church.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows Hall, Cor. 9th and Wall Sts.

Rev. N. P. Gregg, Pastor.

"The Necessity of Grace in the Christian's Life" was the theme of Pastor Gregg's sermon on last Sunday morning. In the evening his subject was "How to Obtain Grace." Both sermons were highly edifying and gave great inspiration to the large assemblage. The choir rendered special music and ably demonstrated that it is second to none and superior to most. At the evening service the congregation was favored with two excellent and well rendered selections by Mr. John W. Ferguson, a distinguished tenor soloist of Northern California.

A prominent visitor was also present at the Sunday School, Rev. Bence, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, made some encouraging remarks to the school and commended them for their work.

On next Sunday the pastor will continue his series of sermons on the subject of "Grace." Come early if you desire seats.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

The service on last Sunday morning was thrilling from the opening to the closing of the service. The great choir was in fine trim and the Scripture lessons bore a special message to the hearers. The church was crowded to hear a short message from Pastor Kinchen and to hear a report of the trip of Mrs. Pauline Brooks Daniels, who just returned from a tour through the South, where she was greatly blessed in the singing of her great songs. After the pastor had paid a tribute to the faithful service of Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, these faithful members were called upon to give a farewell message to the church that they had so faithfully served for nearly five years. They left on Thursday for their home in Texas with the prayers and best wishes of all the people who knew them.

The good people of this community are not able to appreciate the great work that Brother Wesley and his Gospel Team are doing in the Pullman car. Two of these railroad men were converted last Sunday afternoon, making a total of 49 during the year. The Brotherhood has begun street meetings on Sunday evenings at various points on Central Avenue.

Next Sunday is Holy Communion and Pastor Kinchen will preach at both services.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH NEWS

1406 Newton St.

Bishop C. H. Phillips, A. M., M. D., D. D., and daughter, Miss Lady Emma Phillips, will arrive Thursday morning and go to Santa Monica. The Bishop will preach at Phillips' Chapel, Los Angeles, the second Sunday in September.

The Epworth League and Sunday School Convention was a great success and well attended.

Services Sunday as usual. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.

The final session of the Quarterly Conference for this conference year was held Tuesday night, Rev. J. A. Stout, Presiding Elder, presiding.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Dr. Prowd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, rose on his theme's broad wings last Sunday morning, and grasping in his nervous hand the imaginary battle brand hurled defiance upon the tyrant foes of Christian living.

"Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus," formed the text from which so many logical and applicable deductions were made.

Dr. Prowd seems to be of the same belief as was the Apostle Paul. He has grown in the conviction that Christians must devise ways and means whereby they can touch the conscience of men; especially that common herd of men and women who doubt whether or not they ever had the spiritual spark within them. This conscience is nothing more nor less than the mind of Jesus telling one the good to be done and the evil to be avoided. In the measure and proportion in which this mind of submissiveness, humility, compassion, sacrifice, sympathy and condescension, one is enabled to reflect the Christ-consciousness and to rise in the strength of His spirit to resist those things that are unlike Him.

The choir was ably assisted in singing Sunday. The presence of Prof. Jackson and the rendition of the beautiful duet so artistically rendered by Mrs. Winters and Miss Young, accompanied by Prof. Jackson, was a source of inspiration to all present. The effects of the duet, "They Went Astray Out in the Wilderness," will not be forgotten for a long time.

Dr. H. D. Prowd will occupy his pulpit morning and evening of next Lord's Day.

CHOICE OF PLACE MADE

Washington Selected for National Race Congress on Citizenship Rights.

Indications Interest in National Get-together Meeting of Colored Americans to Make a Stand Against Prescription Points to Many Delegates From Many States.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 26, 1916.

The proposed National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress will be held in Washington, D. C., the latter part of September. After a canvass of the situation and receiving suggestions from many race champions over the country, Rev. Byron Gunner, of Hillburn, N. Y., president of the National Equal Rights League, which proposes and calls the congress in last keeping of it's annual meeting, announced the capital of the Nation as the convenient of speakers to hold this race congress on equality of rights. No place could be more fitting.

An Open Congress

This National Colored Congress is to be an open one, both to delegated persons and to individual representatives of the cause who attend on their own responsibility. It is to be free and open for race conference, action and declaration. The congress will organize itself independently. The Equal Rights League will call it to order and those assembled will then create the congress.

Aims of the Meeting

Racial fraternizing, mutual acquaintance, unity of spirit and of program, exchange of notes on local conditions, race unity of feeling and a future national working together for rights, a united declaration to the country of colored Americans on color proscription, are among the purposes of this gathering. No move will impress the white American public on our presence, numbers, capacity and spirit for equal rights like an actual national convention attended by large numbers of colored citizens from various states.

How to Get Up Delegates

Delegated representatives are quite advisable, and churches, civic and literary societies, fraternal organizations, political and other clubs are asked to elect and send delegates. The call asks that a Citizens Equal Rights Committee be formed by public spirited citizens in each community to work up interest, hold a public meeting and send representatives. Any person is at liberty to start such a committee. Act at once.

Secretary Wm. Monroe Trotter at 27 Cornhill, Boston, will be glad to receive suggestions and inquiries.

All together in 1916 and ON TO WASHINGTON.

SPEAR'S have moved from Spring Street to 309 South Broadway. Don't fail to see the new store.

Made A Fortune Shining Shoes

T. D. Walker, hale and well met proprietor of one of the leading tonsorial parlors of Sacramento, will tell you that he has accomplished all that he has by shining shoes, almost in one spot for the past years, and he is right there at the same spot shining until noon, in fact he proved to us while standing watching him at his work that he has shined the shoes of 3 generations of some of the families of Sacramento. And, today, besides other valuable property he owns one of the finest homes in a most exclusive part of the city, and while we did not get so personal as to ask him how much he is worth, we will say that his worth must only be estimated with five figures. Mr. Walker is a member of the Sacramento Lodge of Odd Fellows, and in every way is a progressive, wide-awake and useful citizen.

The Buffalo Brewery of Sacramento

One of the greatest industrial conceres of California is the far famed Buffalo Brewing Co., of Sacramento. They conduct a plant here that is a monument to the business growth of the Pacific Coast. It has been signally favored by having at its head men of the forward rype, men whose ambition has always been to have its product and plant the peer of any in the entire state. Therefore this institution is one of the fixtures of this section, and in the mighty march of progress plays an important part.

Under the management of Mr. Weil as well as his illustrious predecessor Mr. Seymour, this great concern is conducted along broad-gauged lines that commends the firm, as well as its products, to the highest consideration of its patrons.

E. C. Roeder, of the Ruckstuller Brewery.

Mr. E. C. Roeder, aside from the active head of this pioneer and well known firm, is one of the best posted men on current affairs along all the various phases of endeavor that it has ever been our lot to meet, and in the same there is always a hope an encouragement for the man furthest down. We appreciate such men as this and there is no story that we write with a greater alacrity than when we have the chance to write of such men as this. The great concern, of which he is the manager, is absolutely fair to its patrons as well as one of the spokes in the wheels of progress of this section of our great state. It has been a part and parcel of the progress of Sacramento, and has accomplished the same by giving to all absolutely a square deal.

DREW TO REMAIN WITH THE U. S. C.

Courtesy L. A. Tribune

The above is a picture of Howard Drew, champion 100-yard runner, in action at the World's Fair track last year at the great athletic meet at which time he faltered and failed to finish in the nnals.

The picture at this time is timely from the fact that almost the same condition overtook Drew at the recent meeting in San Diego, when he was compelled to quit in the finals on account of an injury to his back.

In an interview with the edjor of The Eagle last Wednesday, Mr. Drew stated that under the skillful treatment of Doctors W. A. Tarleton and Frank A. Gordon that he is feeling fine and that he would again be fit to run in the course of six or eight weeks; but that he in deference to the wish of his mother would in all probability retire from future competition. He says that he feels that he could never excel the mark which he has made and stands today as the world's record and that he will enter the University of Southern California and finish his law course. His native home is in Springfield, Mass., but he loves California and has made a host of friends who will be glad to read of his improvement and his intention of remaining here.

Mr. Drew speaks in the highest terms of the skill of Drs. W. A. Tarleton and Frank A. Gordon, under whose care and advice he has been for the past few weeks. As a result of the same he says that his physical condition was never better. His appreciaion for their services is noted by the praises for them that are ever on his lips.

FACTS ABOUT THE RAILROAD EMPLOYEES

(San Francisco News Letter.)

In the railroad wage arbitration of 1915, it was shown that the average pay of all engineers in all classes of service on western railroads was $149.61 a month, orat the rate of $1795.32 a year.

Today the enginemen and trainmen, 300,000, are demanding a wage increase of $100,000,000 a year for exactly the same work they are now doing.

If this money is paid, it must come from the public.

Is the public willing to pay a $100,000,000 increase in freight and pasenger rates to meet this demand of the already highest paid class of railway employees?

They constitute 18 per cent. of the total number of railroad employees.

Labor gets forty-five cents of every dollar earned by the railroads.

The highest paid railway employees are those in train service. Their average earnings are $1286 a year. They demand a wge increase of $100,000,000 a year. Almost every one is a railroad investor in one way or another—every savings bank depositor and every holder of a life insurance policy has an indirect investment in railways.

The Other Side of the Case—Sincerity Attacked

"The sincerity of this newborn and loudly proclaimed belief, as expressed by the spokesman of the railway presidents, 'We stand for the principles of arbitration for the settlement of industrial disputes,' is best shown by the attitude of these railway companies who are so loudly proclaiming the virtues of arbitration and their undying adherence thereto; by the attitude of those same companies toward arbitration on a long list of properties which they absolutely own and control, but which they have refused to include in the present negotiations and to the men on which lines they are refusing their "day in court," so feelingly referred to by the spokesman of the railway presidents."

Here followed a list of sixty-four properties, which the statement said the brotherhood officials sought in vain on June 27 to have represented by the railroad managers in the present dispute.

"In addition to these," the statement continued, "are a large number of quasi-independent properties, largely dominated by the same financial powers, which we have vainly demanded should be included.

'Day In Court' Refused

"These properties employ comparatively small numbers of men, and on account of that fact the railroad managements feel that demands on those properties do not constitute a menace, as they do on the larger properties. Therefore, the right to their 'day in court' is continuously refused. Thus the actual position of the conference committees and of the presidents above them is that on lines where the men are not strong enough to force a hearing, there is 'nothing to arbitrate,' while on lines where a costly contest could be precipitated arbitration becomes the dearest principle connected with the settlement of industrial strife.

Colored Men Excluded

"It might be pertinent at this time to refer to the fact that the conference committee of managers and their supporters have excluded the army of colored brakemen and fireman employed on the Southern railways from all benefits that might be granted in these negotiations or from all arbitration that might arise. Are they, or are they not, entitled to their 'day in court'?

"Likewise the white firemen employed on those lines where the Negro predominates: Why is he excluded from the benefits of this plan of arbitration?

"Also the hostlers on eighteen of the leading properties that are represented by the conference committee: if arbitration is so desirable, why will those companies not grant that boon to those men?

"The extreme solicitude on the part of the railway presidents for the 80 per cent. of unorganized emloyes and their rights becomes farcical when it is known that on a large number of those lines it is a dischargeable offense on any of their railways for that 80 per cent. to take any steps toward organizing for he purpose of bettering their wage or working conditions."

Hiawatha Wedding Feast

The big Hiawatha Wedding Feast, consisting of a Chorus of about one hundred voices of California's best singers, together with the dramatic scenes, promises to be the best ever staged in the city of Los Angeles.

Prof. R. G. Jackson of the Western University, Quindaro, Kansas, is a musical genius. He will arrive her ethe morning of August 23rd, will take the big chorus, train and dramatize the various characters for the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, which, together with other charming selections of the sweetest melodies, will be rendered at the Trinity Auditorium on the evening of September 5th.

Many of the leading Clubs of the city have already made reservations; and the calls are coming in all the while. Those who have seen the staging of the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, declare it to be the greatest scenical and pleasing stage affair that romance has arrayed o the eye of man. To love dreamers, it is a bubbling spring of laughter, and a rippling river of song. It is said that no other can stage it better than Prof. Robert G. Jackson; no better performers than those who are participants.

The following is a partial list of the clubs that have made arrangements for reservations:

They made public tonight several telegrams from commercial organizations throughout the country, upholding arbitration for the settlement of labor dispues and opposing an eight-hour day such as the employes desire.

The Cabinet discussed the situation at today's meeting, and in the opinion of some of the members the danger of a strike has been greatly lessened. — Scrap Book, by J. D. Reynolds.

SUCCESS

Success is about the biggest word in the English language and volumes have been written on how to attain it. Longfellow said: "Success is nothing more than doing whatever you can do well, and doing well whatever you do." and Mr. Gladstones' advice of forty years ago still halds good: "Young man, if you want things to turn up, you must turn them up."

"Busy people do not have time to be miserable. You are not more than half alive until you are wholly in earnest. Lack of ambition accounts for more failures than lack of opportunity.

"Different people have different ways of working. One uses his brain, and another his hands. The poet may be busiest when, from the standpoint of the street-cleaner, he is entirely idle.

"We must work along the line of our endowments, but everybody must be a worker of some sort, or be worthless. The young man whose ambition is to be left without a care, without a worry, without a duty, is aspiring to a most ignoble sort of existence. Every life worth living has a place in the great brotherhood of workers.

There are few satisfactions to be compared with getting the better of some hard task, mastering some difficulty which seems insuperable in the beginning. And no young man is a success until he learns to do some one thing well.

"The average young man of this day and age wants to begin his career in a dress suit and a silk hat. Ninety per cent. of the men who have been most successful in the commercial and industrial world began their careers in overalls and jumpers, and are proud of their humble beginnings.

"Success is not dependent upon geographical situation. It depends entirely upon you. There is no such thing as fate, or luck, or providence in your career if you are willing to start at the bottom and climb.

"Idlers die young. It is only the workers who survive. Indolence spells poverty and means that after a brief stay on earth you will shuffle off into the Great Unknown—unwept, unhonored and unsung.—From the Scrap Book.

SCHOOL ON WHEELS ON ON RAILS OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC

A school on wheels is operated on the rails of the Southern Pacific Company.

In Southern Pacific extra section gang under Foreman Taft, who has a crew of fifty men in the Ventura District on the Los Angeles Division, there are twenty-five or more children who are being taught daily in a box car which has been fitted up with benches. They have a teacher who instructs them daily in English and Spanish. The results thus far, have been gratifying. As the gang moves along from place to place so does the school car, and the children never have to miss a day's attendance. Superintendent Whalen has made requisition for an old passenger coach which will be fitted up with benches and blackboards, and which will be easier to heat, expecting in this way to improve materially teh conditions in this unique schoolroom. He has furthermore arranged to fit up a hospital car for the women and children in the camp who become ill.—From the Scrap Book.

Expressions of White and Colored Americans On Georgia's Attitude towards Negroes

Kansas City, Kansas, Y. W. C. A., 900 8th and Nebraska aves.

The California Eagle—In the copy of July 10, is a reply to my inactivity, with the old worn out cry of racial defense and denominational membership.

What is Membership?

We note the claims of membership of Rev. M. Thomas for 19 years. Yet we heard him say in the Baptist State Convention in Oakland that last year on meeting that august body that "the banner from the poppy state was torn down thrice," after being put up by him. Furthermore we were not born a Baptist, but we are one from the principles of the gospel teachings and hope to follow the word of God in all things. Yet that does not deter us from stating some facts. We do not think. We know! And some of those students in school from Africa were placed on the ships by ourselves. We do not know of 57 schools. We know of some day schools. Some things I know. That the time of being fearful of the truth in the press is not detrimental to any race. Too long the race has stood in a corner with silence written on doors and lips. And the namby, pamby cries of hands off. I know our lawyers will give us a square deal. But one has the right to secure their own council. Second. The reason that a missionary in Africa did not send the "resignation" from Africa was because these same missionaries, viz., the late Rev. Jno. Tule and wife, had sent the title deed of fifty acres of land in Rhodesia given by the late Cecil Rhodes to the National Baptist of America to be signed and returned in 60 days, and if the board had returned said papers in that period Mr. Rhodes would have built a school and as he often put it, completed the other part of his great dream. And other papers of value that is the "Khulifi stuff" referred to in our resignation. That is why we brought it. Third. I know throughout the ages women have crossed from one country to another when about to become a mother, especially when great issues were at stake. Mary the mother of Jesus crossed from the northern part of Palestine to the southern section. That the Saviour of mankind might be born in the House of Bread. And if Rev. Mr. Thomas was of the Benedictine order He would know that the average mother is a busy person.

Fourth. One does not need to be a "mind reader" to circulate a falsehood. For the satisfaction of the readers to know my church connection write Rev. R. E. Bradley, pastor of the Second church, Detroit, Michigan, or Mr. Frank Foster, 225 Garfield ave., church clerk, and the Baptistic fear can be easily satisfied. While some of us are sitting around in obscure corners talking race and denomination the souls of men are dying out of Christ in the homeland and in foreign field the hosts of the untouched, unsaved millions in Africa and the Islands of the Sea who need the Son of Mary in their lives. I speak not as a novice nor one who does not know, but as one who has worked in Africa, in hunger, privation, separation, from home kindred and friends who has been in perils on sea, and land. Who has faced the wild beasts in their lair, and in the jungle, that she might have the privilege of telling the story of the Cross to Africa's millions. That the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley may bud and blossom in the hearts of the hosts in that far off land.

In His name,

Mrs. Mamie Branton Tule,
Widow of the late Rev. Jno. Tule, late of South Africa.

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. L. HUBBARD SCENE OF PRETTY AFFAIR.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard of 1497 W. 36th street, was selected by the Kansas-Missouri Club to hold its reception in honor of Dr. A. E. Wilson, the noted Kansas preacher. President H. T. Kealing of the Kansas University was present as honored guest.

Mrs. Hubbard established her reputation as mistress of artistic arrangement. The home was beautiful in floral decoration while the ladies of the club followed suite with their beautiful gowns that toned in color and scheme. President Johnson in his usual pleasing manner welcomed the visitors, while both Drs. Wilson and Kealing responded with outbursts of enthusiasm, expressing their pleasure in being so royally entertained and their hearty appreciation for the real race progress being made by the ex-Kansas-Missouri contingency in this section.

Mrs. J. J. Leggitt, wife of Dr. James J. Leggitt, who with her beautiful daughter, miss Cornelia, has just returned from a two weeks' visit to the San Francisco Exposition.

MADAM C. J. WALKER, COLORED BUSINESS WOMAN OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, GAINS INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION.

The current issue of The Los Angeles Morning Sun, a newspaper published daily here in Los Angeles by the Japanese, carries Madam Walker's cut and considerable news matter of her work and worth to our Race. Among other things the Japanese of this country and abroad are told that the Negroes of America are making the most remarkable progress of any race in this country and that when they learn to have more confidence in their leaders there will be more occupation for them in the higher walks of life.

The cordiality of the citizens of Los Angeles and neighboring towns has impressed Madam C. J. Walker to such an extent that she has decided to establish a winter home at her bungalow, 1449 West 35th Place. Madam Walker has renovated the bungalow and is fitting it up as a business office and residence for her two nieces, Misses Angetta and Mallie Briedlove, who will arrive here from Denver, Colo., some time this week, to carry on the business that Madam Walker is establishing here. In an interview with Madam Walker the representative of this paper learned that already a number of our young women who listened to the interesting lecture at Wesley Chapel Sunday evening, have taken Madam Walker's advice and begun to take lessons of her in order that they may fit themselves to do efficient work for themselves and earn a living in much the same manner as Madam Walker has earned her living and recognition in the business world.

Madam C. J. Walker repeated her illustrated lecture on the "Negro Women in Business," Thursday evening at Mt. Zion Baptist church, to a large and appreciative audience. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Allensworth Club, for the benefit of the Day Nursery Association.

SLATON, THE SICK MAN FROM GEORGIA

Editor California Eagle:

The white and Colored people of Los Angeles and of the coast and nation wherever the great Los Angeles Daily Times circulates, have read with interest the Sunday morning publication of an interview with ex-Governor Slaton of Georgia, and in many cases opinions were formed both pro, and con with regard to the innocence or guilt of Leo Frank who was tried by the courts of law and whose case was reviewed by all the higher legal authorities of the state and nation, we do not charge guilt or innocence on the part of any one, we must accept the verdict of the court as to the part played in the death of the little Fagan girl. We do not feel to enter into that side of the case as we are too far removed from the scene of the crime. Murder is as barberous as is the lynching of any man and cannot be justified. I am a Georgian and held citizenship in that state for 40 years. I know something of the white people of that state and do not hesitate to say that among its white people there are to be found some of the best of creation, they are not all murderers and lynchers, but for the most part they are of kindly feeling toward the Negro race. Mob violence is never committed by the better class, the men who usually murder our people are the ignorant, trifling undesirable class of white men, you must know that the white people of the south have ever been the well wisher of the Negro by the progress he has encouraged the Negro to make right upon the very ground upon which he had been held in bondage. In the office of Governor of that state there has presided some of the best men that history has ever given account. Joseph E. Brown, the war governor, was a high class man who did not depend on the abuse of the Negro people to hold office; Alexander Stevens, high a Georgian to stoop to anything low.

General John B. Gordon, the peer of them all, was the finest representative of statesmanship and a state executor of any of the states north or south. Alfred E. Colquit, H. Y. Atkinson, Gov. Northern, all men of the very highest type, by this I do not intend to convey the idea that they had no prejudices for they were loyal to their own first but treated with fairness and justice all men without regard to race in the discharge of their duties as chief executors of the great state of Georgia, the law of the states are made by the legislative bodies and it is the duty of the executive to enforce the law as given to him by the people. There were times when we have felt that the administration of the law was applied with a heavier hand when the violator was a Negro than in similar cases when the victim was a white man, and hence we do not intend to make a word picture that every thing goes all right in the good old state of Georgia all the time in dealing with the Negro before the Courts, but we do mean to say that where there appear mitigating circumstances the courts always lend consideration be the criminal white or black, when a Negro is brought before the court in Georgia he is addressed by the Bench and Bar as Bill or Tom and not as Mr. Baker or Mr. Thomas, the Southern white man hardly ever calls a Negro Mister, but he will do the Negro a personal favor a thousand times quicker than the people in the sections that call him Mister, etc. Hence the rapid progress of the Negro race in the Southern states. All of us do not South are not good citizens either. We have all the kinds that you find right here in this city and there are more of them and the bad is seen first all the time, but we are coming, education, commercialism and religion are the factors that are at work in our uplift. I have mentioned a few of the very important phases of the relation of the races and pointed out some of the representative men of the white race to show that the impression attempted to be made by Governor Slaton as to the Negro in connection with the death of the little Fagan girl is unsound and unreasonable and that none of the men mentioned as having served the state as Governor would have offered such an apology for the commutation of the sentence of any man as has this one. Governor Slaton was a lawyer by profession, he has told the press and people of the long years of continued service he rendered the people in the law making body of the state, some of which laws have seemed to us to have been made for the special purpose of railroading the Negro youths to the state prisons such as the contract farm hand law which put the Negro practically into slavery of the man he worked for and who directed his going and coming as the master would the slave, but the men before Mr. Slaton would not attempt to reflect upon a race as murderers in the face of the many reviews of the case by the highest tribunals of the state, not one of them ever found where the Negro Connaly (Slaton's nigger) was guilty, and don't all people know that since Negro life and liberty is considered so cheap by southern sentiment, that if there had been the least appearance of the guilt of the Colored man that these southern jurists would not have been blind to the fact. No, never, a thousand times no, and no one knows that truth better than Mr. Slaton. Yes, from a Colored man's point of view Mr. Slaton has not acted fair to the Negro race when he attempts to lay the murder of this little innocent child at the door of the Negro. It is not a manly independent act of a big southerner. All the world admires the chivalry of the southern men, both white and black, but no one can long admire the chivalry of the southern men, both white and black, but no one can long admire a man who would conceal his act behind the proven innocence of another. Now if the Negro had been adjudged guilty we would say let him pay the penalty, we do not defend the wrong doers of our race, we are, however, opposed to this constant lowering of the opinion of the public. Let us hope that no one will believe this tale told by Mr. Slaton. No one knows, better than he the true, manly soul of the Negro. No one can better appreciate the great love and kindness of heart that is recorded in deeds on the part of the Negro, no one knows better than he how the Negro guarded the fireside of the white fathers who went to war in 1861-65. These deeds of heroism stand out as index of the kind of souled people, we are, Slaton comes from a section of the country where it is impossible to write its true history without commendations concerning the Negro who built their homes, supplied their domestic demands, built their railways, felled the forests, and made cotton king, this was not the work of any class of white men but it is the product of the manhood of the Negro race, yet this man comes to this far western shore and manifests the spirit of White heels on Black necks, he would lower this Negro citizenry yet the level of hate as is intended by the Clansman and all who have to do with it, he would have the Negro people spit upon and treated as unworthy of the common treatment given. We are tired of serving designing white men as a vehicle to ride into prominence. The white man might as well hold up on us now as to wait until through providence or some other force he will be forced to grant us even handed justice. Suppose this man is rich does that give him or any other man a right to persecute innocent people who are poor, from that argument advanced by him, he being rich some might say that is why he acted as he did in giving this young man a life sentence who himself was rich.

We are not considering the right or wrong of the action in commuting the prisoner's sentence; we do not take stock in that phase of the case the governor has a right to do his duty as he sees it, the people expect this, but we do take exceptions to his saying that the "nigger" was the murderer, to get himself to the place to say this after urging for the many years of his professional life the majesty of that law which he now tramples under his feet with the poor sickly excuse of charging the offense to a legally innocent man who he is pleased to call a "nigger." Let us hope that none of the people, white or black, will be influenced by the babblings of this sick man from Georgia.

F. H. CRUMBLY.

To the Editor of the California Eagle: A few weeks ago I promised you that I would send to your paper a letter in regard to the exhibits by Colored people at the P. P. I. Exposition. I shall do so shortly, but I am writing to tell the good people of Los Angeles of a glorious concert field here, on last Thursday evening at Hamilton Auditorium in Oakland. The Race people of Oakland have been very much depressed over the fact that in spite of all the protesting and everything else to prevent its appearance and the elimination of objectional features. The Clansman played for over eight een weeks in San Francisco. Rev. Jessie Peck, realizing that something must be done to counteract its depressing effect on our people and the public, decided that one of the very best things to do would be to give a high class concert, one that would attract the other race as well as make us happy. Acting upon that thought he wrote to Robert G. Jackson, head of the department of music in Western University, and he trained a chorus of one hundred and twenty-five of the best voices around the bay cities. He also had an orchestra of twelve pieces and the support of such well known soloists as Mrs. Virginia Moor-Hughes, the Excelsior quartet and Mrs. Pearl Lowrey Winters of Bakersfield. Professor Jackson has a very delightful and pleasing manner that won almost instantly the confidence and respect of the singers. For two weeks he held nightly rehearsals and when he presented his program there was fully seven hundred people in their seats, after the singing of the first number the waiting crowd was so great they were compelled to wait until they were seated, by actual count, including the chorus, very near 3 thousand people heard the concert in the Auditorium. Among that number were music directors and music teachers from the other race in large numbers. The program was mixed with plantation melodies from such well known race writers as Will Marion Cook and Carl Deet and others. The classical part of the same included selections from Beethoven's "Hallelujah," and "The Rosary from Nevins and also selection from Samson and Delilah. The readition of this program was faultless. Prof. Jackson is a master in directing and traiffing in the art of music; everyone was in ecstacy over his work as well as the delightful singing of the chorus. There was one number that I must make more than a mere mention of and that was the solo rendered by Pearl Lowery Winters. She never sang in Madam C. J. Walker hereby extends an invitation to all her Los Angeles agents and others selling her goods to meet her on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8th, at 6 o'clock at the Cozy Den, 859 E. Ninth st. Informal chats and refreshments will be the order of the conference.

MAY ROBINSON,
Rep. to Madam Walker

PASADENA PART

BY S. R. CARR, THE PIONEER SETTLER

Thousands of people marry for fashion and separate for pleasure.

A quarrelsome man is just as hard on a busy woman.

A woman who has sunshine and happiness in her make-up carries the same qualities to her husband.

A person who prays too much and works too little is worse off than a person who works too much and prays too little.

If a woman wishes a man to get tired of her, just let him marry her; if a man wants a woman to get tired of him let him marry her. It did not use to be so, but it is now.

Miss Ruth Moore will leave sunday september 15 for the east, where she will teach school this winter.

The National Negro News bureau of the western coast will have its office at 514 Central avenue, Rev. Gordon McPherson manager.

Mr. William Solomon says: The Eagle is in a class by itself as a newspaper and he is a printer himself.

New vacation is over and all state societies will do well to meet. Send your locals to 26 East Colorado street, not later than wednesday. Write only on one side of the paper.

The Hampton singers are to be here on september 4th, to give a concert at Hotel Maryland. This is the school that Booker T. Washington graduated from in Virginia.

The Fall term of our local school will begin on september 20th, just two weeks from next monday, so have your children prepared to go on that day. There will be about 3,000 children in school this year. Remember that 300 children from Lincoln school have to go somewhere as that school was burned last week. Have them ready monday morning.

Pasadena will add five new policemen on the 1st of september. The chief wants 50 in all soon.

Rev. W. S. Dyatt left tuesday for conference. He carries with him the best report that has ever been sent from this church. He carries $180 as dollar money.

Mr. J. D. Blackburn says next to a good wife is a good newspaper, so he ordered The Eagle sent to 663 South Raymond avenue.

The Eagle has more than doubled its circulation in the last year. Five hundred subscribers is what we want in Pasadena. Can you spare three cents per week for it?

Prof. H. T. Kealing at the First A. M. E. church spoke to a large and interesting audience thursday evening august 28th. When he up to in Los Angeles on the 20th he had only 67 people to hear him, but in Pasadena he had more than 200 listeners.

Mr. Rev. Bishop H. B. Parks preached at the A. M. E. church sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Madam C. J. Walker of Indianapolis, the hair specialist, entertained a large congregation sunday night at the A. M. E. church. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss McBrinnon of New York. She joined the church in Denver many years ago, and Rev. Dyatt was pastor of the church there at that time, so she found her pastor when she came to this city. She is stopping at Mrs. L. Jones, No. 1780 Cherry street, Los Angeles. She was the guest of Mrs. B. L. Turner, while in this city.

Mrs. Mary Isaacs has gone to Monrovia, where she has opened a store. She has considerable property there.

J. W. Davis left for San Diego friday.

Miss Ruth Isaacs will leave thursday; also her sister who has been visiting their father, Rev. C. B. Isaacs of this city. They both teach in Texas.

A grand recital is to be given Thursday evening Sept. 9th at Scott's Chapel on So. Fair Oaks ave by Mrs. C. C. Lewis. She recited last Thursday night at the Mock trial and all that heard her say she is good. The Harris Sisters of Los Angeles will be with her. They are one of the best female quartettes in California. Come out and hear "The Bachelor's Dream." Miss A. C. Harris is good in a dramatic sketch.

At the Metropolitan church Thursday the grand opening of the Day Nursery will take place. Mrs. E. W. Brooks the donor will be there from 3:30 to 6 p. m. She also spent $11,000 on the Day Nursery for the white people in this city.

The Mock Trial was a grand success and much is due for it was the work of Mrs. Katie Lee and Mrs. A. G. Robinson. It was given by the Ladies' Aid society at Scott's chapel, M. E. church.

They are however singing that it is a long ways to Tipperary.

The campaign is now reaching the boiling point. It looks like Scmitz against the field.

If you play with a skunk you will not only get black on you, but his odor as well.

Feed a snake, wake him up, like the reptile he is, he will turn on you if he can.

In this city it can be said that politics is at least making strange bed fellows.

We have no idea to lend dignity or to even advertise those without character or standing at home or abroad.

We shall be heard from in the pending campaign along the lines of what will be the best interest of the masses of the people. If we do that we will have the satisfaction of feeling that we have performed a service worth while.

Some men even of this day are so vile, so low, so characterless, that they have no appreciation of gratitude or of anything else than an inordinate desire to film fiam and when called to account, they have no defense except to study up some fantastic imagination which they themselves or nobody else believes.

THE CARNIVAL OF CRIME.

The South is having again the reign of the Kin Klux; while the people of the North, and right here in Los Angeles, are seemingly entranced with Thomas Dixon's huge spectacle of wholesale murderers. In the daily Examiner, the day following the slaying of the convicted slaver, Frank, there were nearly four solid pages of print depicting the work of the lynchers. In the same paper there was but barely an inch reserved to tell of an aged Negro charged with the assault of a white woman, filled with shot by a band of chivalric "klansmen" of Georgia. And the day following, Thursday, in the same paper, appears a mere notice of the lynching—a modern name for murder—of three Negro young men who had been charged with poisoning mules and exonerated. This last was in Alabama. All men who have red blood in their veins must deeply regret the mob-murder of Frank, and every well-thinking Georgian of whatever race or color, must also feel keenly the new disgrace put on their state. But this is nothing new to Georgia. She has been permitting her citizens to be mob-murdered for several decades without invisible protest. The Mayor of Atlanta, now in California, predicts that should ex-Governor Slaton return to Georgia within a year, he, too, would be mob-murdered. What of it? Georgia has been disgracing itself regularly, as regularly as its good(?) citizens can get their bloody hands on any Negro charged with all manner of crime, untried and unconvicted. The murder of Slaton would add but sauce to the gander. The press informs us that mothers, with tender babes in their arms, and little children by the hand, viewed with a sort of religious joy, the unclad body of Frank swinging from a tree. What of it? Clunes' Auditorium is thronged each day with all sorts of cultured people applauding the glorification of mob-murder! One admirer of this sort of bloody work, wildly enthusiastic over the new record, comments that in the balmiest days of the ku klux clansmen and "night riders," nothing equalled the business-like precision of the "orderly" mob of twenty-five who mob-murdered Leo Frank. How the Georgians are progressing! Why not? Mr. Griffith and Thomas Dixon are conducting a day and evening school to teach all who will pay the price, how easy it is to "lynch," how gracefully it can be done, and what wonderful maneuvering it admits of. Go to Clunes', as the writer of these lines has done, and see the admirance greet the battle scenes of this picture with a sort of a dull apathy, but wait until the Klu Klux make their appearance, then comes tumultuous applause, a sort of hilarious happiness. For fifty years the Negro has been the target, the inconsequential Negro-practice-puppet, the mob-murderer now is out gunning for bigger game—and he is getting it. He has still his "day and evening school" at Clunes' Auditorium and other picture show-houses in this country. And why not have a Jew for a public holiday? Why not have a Governor? By and by, the lynchers may turn loose on themselves. Who knows, and why not? And—who cares?

WILLIAM EASTON.

MORRIS OPPENHEIM FOR POLICE JUDGE.

Judge Oppenheim, who has for the past two years presided on the bench of the police court of San Francisco, has made an enviable record for dealing out even handed justice, and the common people who have oftimes been denied justice have come into their own.

Morris Oppenheim
For Police Judge.

Judge Oppenheim knows no class nor creed. He seeks in his high position to deal justly with all, and if he errs to do so on the side of mercy. This being true it accounts for the hearty and almost unanimous support which he is receiving from all classes and it is almost a foregone conclusion that he will be triumphantly elected at the primaries on Sept. 28th.

THOMAS H. FINN FOR SHERIFF

The Colored voters in rallying to the support of Tom Finn for sheriff, are simply standing by a man who has done more for them than any other man in public life in the state of California. Therefore it is indeed good fortune that they at this time have the opportunity to show their appreciation for the efforts which he has made in their behalf.

And in the pending campaign it is freely predicted that Mr. Finn will receive the solid Colored vote.

He has served the people in this capacity and his past record speaks for itself. Aside from this as State Senator he has done much, especially for our people. In defeating the segregation measure in the last session of the legislature he was a potent factor, and the recognition which has been given by way of patronage he has also been the keystone. So therefore in supporting Finn for Sheriff it is a case of standing by the man who has been our consistent friend.

THOMAS F. BOYLE FOR AUDITOR.

For auditor of San Francisco county Thos. F. Boyle, the present incumbent, will no doubt be returned for another term, in fact at this time there seems no one with the temerity to run against him, and it is confidently expected that he will be elected at the primaries. Mr. Boyle is a genial and well met gentleman, who has safeguarded the interest of all of the citizens with the greatest proficiency, and they will do themselves credit to continue him as the city and county auditor for

FICKERT FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

The people of all classes can well afford to support Chas. M. Fickert to retain the position of district attorney, for the reason that this office has been so satisfactorily conducted under his regime as to merit the approval of the people of all classes and of all parties. The common people have in that office at this time a man who is considerate of their interests. The Colored people are giving his candidacy a strong support, several of their organizations having already given him their endorsement. This is probably the most important office to be filled as a result of the coming primary and election, and it therefore behooves the people to look well that they retain Mr. Fickert, who has so satisfactorily filled that position for the past four years, who has been an official for the people, and if re-elected will be in a better position than ever from his varied and ripe experience to serve the people of San Francisco in the important position of District Attorney.

NEGRO AND EDUCATION

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION—The thinking people of Georgia will receive with satisfaction the information that the result of their protest has brought about the virtual defeat of the bill passed by the Senate last week to make it a crime for a white man to teach a Negro in Georgia. It is stated that the bill has no chance of passage by the House. . . . Georgia in this period of her progress cannot afford to consider even the hint of a policy that would record her as indifferent to the doctrine of the Great Teacher who admonished, "Go teach ye the gospel to all men"—the gospel which stands for the Christian civilization of all men regardless of race or color, and the influence of which has been so strongly felt by the Negro population in their recent racial evolution.

WHAT'S IT OF WATTS

A. A. King of the metropolis of Watts on the small, very small scale an imitation of Elder of the L. A. I. C. fame, has suddenly jumped into the lime-light. He has written himself into fame. He scooped the wireless information more or less true, about the European war which each day appears in the daily papers, and had inoffensive newsboys crying out what purported to be an extra edition of this paper. Brother King may be able to beat Ananias, Eli Perkins or Baron Munchausen, but he is a very poor financier. He printed himself from a newspaper office a little measly 5-column four-page paper, of a very sickly jaundiced color, loaded down with "boiler-plate," about three columns of faked wireless reports of a dreadful annihilation of the English Navy, brought out an edition of but two thousand copies, sold them to newsboys in Los Angeles at ONE-HALF cent per copy. For this extraordinary effort he received but ten dollars gross, and it is learned that he is still groaning in his agony because he is still seven dollars out of the pocket. But what could you expect if you only knew Mr. King? It seems that two years ago he aspired to be a trustee of the city of Wets and Drys, of Casino and cranks, of re-calls and fleas, and he started into his campaign by coming to Los Angeles, hiring a touring car, engaging three lady canvassers, regardless of expense, fortifying this entourage with several pints of peanuts, two boxes of cigars and a half bushel of popcorn. The polling places of Watts were visited, and at the close of the closing of the polls, Mr. King was really elated when he learned his total vote was TWO. Brother King should be arrested and the contents of his cranium examined.

A Plea For Humanity

By Eva Carter Beckett

I am pleading, thoughly pleading
Not for one, or two, or three
Of the entire God created,
But for all humanity.

I am pleading for the children
Of the race to posterity,
Who are soon to be the rulers
Of this broad land of the free.

For the laws and their enforcement,
Read them, know them, mark the page
For this breathing generation
Is the great cause of the age.

Read the land, head them and ponder,
Count the lynchings and you'll be,
There surrounded as the number
Of the victims you will see.

And you always provide guilty
By the lawless frenzied mob;
Growing bolder with each season,
Thus defying man and God.

Once confined to one or two States
And for one, the dreadful crime,
But the evil's sweeping, spreading
Its dysphoria for any crime.

Burning human flesh as bonfire
They've kept roles. Oh! how odd!
Ah! forgetting they've his keeper
And must answer to them God.

Have we reached the heights of knowledge
And in this a backward trend?
Or is it that we've self-exalted
And no thought on this to lend?

The influence of the parent
On the unborn child is known.
This be true what of the harvest
When "we reap as we have sown?"

Brothers, do you not approval
On this crime that is allowed?
Sisters, does your apprehension
By your silence cheer the crowd?

We have laws and they are good ones
Fit to punish any crime,
Made by super of the country
To enforce them it is time.

Mother love that guards the cradle
Plead for mercy with your might!
There's a flag that stands for justice,
There's a God that stands for right!

Attitude Towards Negroes

better voice and it showed all of its excellent training. She has a rich voice full of expression, her phrasing and sustaining notes carried the house by storm. At the conclusion of the program Mr. Ricks, who writes good verse and was also a member of the chorus, had several hundred cards printed with one verse of "I Love You, California," and for the chorus he had written as an invitation to Professor Jackson to make California his home. They had asked the director to allow the regular chorister of the Fifteenth street choir to direct them in the singing of this piece and when they sang the chorus they gave the chautauqua salute to the Professor. It was a gala night and one never to be forgotten by the Colored people of Oakland. The entire chorus afterwards sang in the Civic Auditorium of San Francisco first time from people and also in one of the white churches on Sunday in Oakland.

Thanking you very sincerely for the space in your excellent paper.

DELILAH L. BEASLEY.

Miss Lorenza Jordan.

I feel that I have been misunderstood or misrepresented, and for that reason I am making this statement.

I have always been ready to serve my own church and every other church, congregation or body with objects for uplift either of individuals or communities.

It is my ambition after finishing my fundamental work here to move on to Boston to the conservatory where I will put on my finishing touches, but Boston cannot be reached by one stroke. A few months ago some of my friends urged me that since I had rendered service of value whenever called upon that a benefit concert be given at my own church in my behalf. The idea was put in action and many of my friends responded, for which I am not forgetful. The little fund realized on this occasion has been carefully laid away and I am constantly adding to it.

I wish at this time to thank my friends for their assistance, and with their kindly sympathy and moral support I am sure I shall finally reach my goal.

Respectfully,
MISS LORENZA JORDAN.

CITY BREVITIES

PERSONALS.

The Alabama club will meet th 4th tuesday night in september with Mr. and Mrs. Prentice of 1310 East ninth street. All members are urged to be present, as this is to be an important meeting.

Captain W. H. Loving spent a few days in the city last week, before he returned to the fair at San Francisco.

Mr. L. E. Barr returns to Chicago this week to resume his studies in the Armour institute.

Miss Minnie Albritton's voice is taking in other places than Los Angeles. Her concert in Denver was a grand success. She will soon enter the Boston conservatory.

J. F. De Jarnette of 1351 W. 30th place, is on the sick list this week.

Mr. J. B. Base of The California Eagle, left for Santa Barbara tuesday afternoon.

The Allensworth club will meet hereafter once every two months in the evening. The evening on which they are to meet will be announced later. This arrangement is made so as working women and girls may derive the benefit of the good work of their club. The club will also meet with the severa members as they are invited.

Miss Lucile Banks at 1111 East 18th, who has been very ill and confined to the Crocker street hospital, is now on the rapid road to recovery, to the joy of her mother and many friends.

Miss Louise Brooks and Miss Rasa Lang Brooks, 12 and 13 years of age respectively, daughters of Mrs. L. Brooks of Tony Park, Nevada, left last wednesday to attend the Langston university in Oklahoma. Mrs. Brooks is a widow and determined to educate her two daughters where they will enjoy the practical advantages of an all-around education that will fit them for service.

Mrs. J. J. Neimore left last saturday for Santa Barbara to visit her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Treece.

Dr. and Mrs. Gregg left tuesday for Oakland to attend the general conference in that city.

Misses Clara Holland of Kansas City, Kansas and Thomson of Coronado Beach, spent thursday with Mrs. J. Davis of S. Utah street. They are on their way to Ohio, where they will resume their studies at Wilberforce.

Mr. and Mrs LaVine are spending a few weeks at Catalina island.

Mrs. Dr. James W. Ball gave a reception tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. W. E. Tyler, Miss P. Alexander and Mrs. W. E. Williams. "Grand" doesn't do honor to the occasion, but if you were there you have formed an opinion of your own. Over 200 people were present. There was music, Japanese lanterns, tete-a-tetes and though ice cream and the many dainties of such an occasion were in the back ground in many minds. "It was glorious," this thought and expression will be ever in the memory of three honored guests of the occasion.

FOR RENT—Furnished room in a pleasant neighborhood. Phone Wilshire 2435, or call at 263 N. Westlake.

Rev. F. F. Moten, pastor of Ward A. M. E. chapel, left for San Francisco Monday to attend the annual conference. Before he left he was presented with an elegant Prince Albert suit by his appreciative congregation, who also, after his departure, sent strong indorsements of his course as pastor here.

Miss Laura A. Evans of the state normal of Prairie View, Texas, after spending a very pleasant week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Owens, left Tuesday afternoon for her home.

At a recital given by the very excellent teacher of music, Mrs. A. C. Harris Edwards of Tennessee street, little Hilda Baker, the unusually talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Baker of 2425 Leonard street, made her debut in concert work. Miss Hilda is but 7 years old with but five months careful training of her teacher, she is already able to do the sight reading at the piano, and shows expression and technique truly wonderful in one so young.

Mrs. Rose Platt, grandmother of Mrs. Dr. Cuming, departed this life aged 82, and was buried thursday at 2 p. m. from the undertaking parlors of A. J. Roberts & Sons. Dr. H. S. A. Cuming closed his business in respect for the loving old lady who died a devout Christian.

Mrs. H. T. F. Williams of New York, who has been the house guest of Mrs. A. Alexander of East 9th street for the past three weeks, has left in company with Mrs. Bellsinger, of San Bernardino, to visit the fair at San Francisco.

The Alabama State club will give its annual picnic monday september 6 at Eagle Rock park. All members and friends are welcomed and insured a good time. Games, eats, fun.

Mrs. Victoria Play Haley, a prominent club woman, is in the city for a few weeks' visit. Mrs. Haley has gained a reputation as a platform speaker of considerable note and there is a possibility that during her stay here the citizens will have an opportunity of hearing her.

The mississippi society will hold their first picnic monday, sept. 6, 1915, at Eastlake park. All former mississipians are invited to attend. Bring your lunch and enjoy a treat.

J. G. Edmond, act. Pres.

A Pretty Home Wedding

On Thursday evening Aug. 26 Miss Esther U. Benton and Mr. James D. Thomas were united in wedlock at the home of her parents, 2812 Franklin Ave. by the Rev. C. W. H. Nelson. Miss May Belle Harbert was maid to the bride and the bride's father acted as best man to the groom and gave the bride away. The house was beautifully decorated in similax, ferns and white Geraniums with a large white purity bell in the center under which the bride stood. The bride's gown was of white satin and point lace. Her bouquet was white carnations and a wreath of orange blossom. The maid's gown was white silk laces, her bouquet was pink carnations. The groom and best man were dressed in Tuxedos. Music was furnished by the Hornsby Bros. Many useful and valuable gifts were presented the bride. Space will not permit giving list of presents or names of givers. The bride and parents take this means of thanking all who made presents and especially those who contributed flowers and helped to decorate the home.

The refreshments were tuna salad served a lettuce and waffers, frozen egg-nogg served a la mint leaves and cake. The bride's cake was marshmellow with rose tint icing. The bride ond groom have gone to their home at Oceanside, Cal., where the groom is in business.

Mrs. E. E. Hannah, daughter of J. W. Gordon of the Richmond Hotel, who has won many skating race events in the north, was a successful winner of the second prize at the Panama exposition, posing as an Indian maid in the Indian pow-wow.

Rev. W.H. Burnett left Wednesday morning on the Owl for San Francisco, where he will attend the conference.

Mrs. H. E. Alexander and daughter, the latter a teacher in the public schools at Bisbee, Ariz., after having a very delightful stay in the city visiting the exposition and all points of interest, left for their home.

Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Mrs. Briggs and daughter of Bakersfield, Cal., mrs. Louise Fullerton of Glenville wis., after seeing San Diego the, beautiful, have left with regrets for their respective homes.

Raymond Brock, our enterprising newsboy, thanks the press for their space columns, says it has been the awaking of his mind to new thoughts.

Mrs. William Valley, formerly of Los Angeles, has been visiting her former home. She has returned to the city accompanied by her sister.

On Advertising.

The successful business man says it pays to advertise. All corporations advertise; large and small business firms that expect a profit advertise. The man that advertises says it pays. The man that does not advertise says it does not pay, or business is dull and he cannot afford it; the wise man says he never can afford it as business will always be dull if he never advertises. The man that dvertises himself will some day have a chance to represent the people. The man that does not odvertise himself can only represent himself. The wise business man says it pays to advertise.

A brilliant lecture was rendered last tuesday night, august 31st, at the Bethel A. M. E church by Mrs. Victoria Clay Haley of St. Louis, Mo., grand secretary of the women's national association, by request of the women's federation under the auspices of the Dunbar literary society. It was indeed one of the most illustrating and heart divine lectures that has been rendered in our city. We are quite sure that all that were present were overjoyed with every word that was spoken. Mrs. E. H. Dodge of the women's federation delivered the opening address, followed by a few remarks by Mrs. Jack White. Professor Scarborough of Wilberforce college made the closing remarks.

Mrs. Haley was a guest at Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman's palatial home, 225 E street After visiting many sights of interest she left for her home in the East.

Professor Scarborough of Wilberforce college who has been visiting our city, left for his home in the East.

Mrs. C. J. Walker of Indianapolis, is expected to visit our city soon.

Mr. William Henderson, who was for the past year head barkeeper at the Point Loma Golf club, left for his home in Kansas City.

Miss Clara Hollam of Kansas City, Mo., who has spent a delightful summer as guest of Miss Edith Thompson of Coronado, has made a host of friends among the smart set, and left Wednesday for her home accompanied by Miss Edith Thompson, where they both will be students of Quindaro college. While at Los Angeles they were the guests of Mrs. John Scott.

Mrs. H. Marshall, our good Samaritan, again led the roll with her donation.

Mr. H. Laws, after visiting his wife and children at Los Angeles, has returned to San Diego.

Mr. T. B. Norman, messenger American National Bank and W. A. Cleveland, messenger U. S. National Bank, after spending several days in the north, have returned to their respective positions.

Mrs. C. C. McClellan, after spending a week in Los Angeles as a delegate of the S. M. T., has returned home and reports a very delightful meeting

Dr A E Eagl son of Guthrie, Okla, is a visitor in our midst. He is a boyhood friend of the editor of this paper, whom we had not seen for many, many years. We are pleased to note the success of himself and wife, who is one of the teachers of the public schools of that city.

Happiness Requires, among other things, a General Good Health.

Good health requires periods of rest and recreation. It is a remarkable fact that the majority of people are killing themselves by inches in making their life "all work and no play."

Now that summer is with us once again, our minds should turn to thoughts of vacation. It is very difficult sometimes to decide just where one wishes to spend his vacation. But if you are thinking of going to the seaside, the problem of WHERE to go is at once solved. No more peaceful, homelike, convenient, and cheerful place can be found than LA BONITA at beautiful Santa Monica by the Sea.

At La Bonita you will find:—
Clean, comfortable, well ventilated rooms and apartments; a complete line of bathing suits and accessories; hot and cold shower baths; a playground for children; a tennis court; and a restaurant presided over by one who knows how to prepare good things to eat.

And remember the following facts:—
That La Bonita is only a very short distance from the ocean—a convenience which bathers appreciate; that the tennis court is at the service of the public at all times; that a supper at LA BONITA CAFE will give the finishing touch to an evening automobile ride; that it is the one aim of the management of La Bonita to do everything that will add to the pleasure and comfort of patrons; and that if you take the Venice Short Line car, you get off at Pico Boulevard (formerly Fremont Avenue), walk one block east and one-half block north.

C. M. E. District Conference

The 6th annual session of the district conference of the C. M. E. church has been in session here since Wednesday at Phillips Chapel, 1406 Newton. A number of delegates and pastors from various missions and charges of the district are attending. The sessions have been interesting and well attended. Bishop C. H. Phillips, D.D. of Nashville, Tenn., and a party of ladies are visitors at the conference. Miss L. E. Phillips, Mrs. C. H. Phillips, Jr. and Miss Margaret Morgan make up the party. A reception will be tendered them Monday evening at the church.

Providence Institutional Church

Pastor Williams left last Thursday afternoon for a few days of deserving rest. Rev. Geo. W. Hill will do the pastoral work during the absence of the pastor.

Rev. Hill will preach and the church will celebrate the Lord's Supper Sunday night. Rev. J. Gordon McPherson will assist with the services and will deliver the celebration sermon. Beginning on the third Sunday the Samuel Colridge Taylor Symphony orchestra will give evening programs from 7:30 to 8 o'clock and will assist the choir with the evening music.

New Hope Baptist Church.

Rev. C. H. Anderson, Pastor, 1823 Paloma Ave.

In spite of the extreme heat last Sunday the New Hope Baptist was well attended Pastor Anderson occupied the pulpit; he used for his subject "Lord remember me when thou comest into the Kingdom." Luke 23-42. Pastor Anderson preached an able sermon at this service. Mr. W. B. Brooks rendered a gospel song at the evening service. Pastor Anderson preached a masterly sermon. His subject "And the Eunuch said see here is water what doth hinder me to be baptized." Acts 8-36. The Holy Ghost fell upon us in mighty powers and did not our hearts burn within while the servant of God talked to us by the way Pastor Anderson preached. Mr. Burton Highbaugh gave a most welcome Tenor solo (a perfect day) after which Bro. Louis Hearns was baptized.

Next Sunday the services at New Hope Baptist church at the morning service 11 a. m. there will be a covenat meeting and at the evening service a sermon by Pastor Anderson. Subject "Crucifixion of Jesus." The New Hope choir quartette will sing. Burton Highbaugh, Tenor; Mrs. E. Edward, soprano; Mrs. D. Field, alto and B. Anderson basso after which the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

East 8th Street Christian Church News

While quite a few of our members were on a vacation last sunday, there were those who are always faithful and will be until the end, present at all the services. Those who were absent missed two delightful sermons by elder D. L. McMickens and brother Garfield Coleman.

Elder McMickens delivered the morning sermon on "The Value and Power of Enthusiasm." Acts, 20th chapter. He said: "enthusiasm is essential to success along all lines, it brings our mind to our own work and is of interest to all Christians. All of us should glorify in something and then strive with all our might to reach the very height of that in which we glorify. Nothing is more contagious than enthusiasm and we all need more of it. The word enthusiasm does not occur in the New Testament at all, but instead it is called zeal and courage. He closed by warning us of losing our enthusiasm and advising all to be faithful, loyal and true, so as to be prepared to meet our God whenever he sees fit to call us to our reward.

Brother Garfield Coleman delivered the evening sermon, on "Faith in God as Shown by Shadarick, Meshack and Obednego and Daniel." He impressed the thought that these first three men had so much faith in the true and living God that they failed to bow down to Hezekiah's idol gods at the cost of their owe lives, and when about to be burned to death in the fiery furnace into which they were cast for the violation of the King's decree, Jesus came into the midst and suffered not a hair of their head to be singed. Daniel and every one in Babylon were forbidden to pray to the true God Any one violating this law was to be cast into the lion's den, which meant instant death. Daniel being a consecrated servant of the true and living God prayed three times a day as usual. Through jealousy and rage the sinful people of Babylon made this report to King Nebuchadnezzar and for this Daniel paid the penalty stated above, but instead of being torn in pieces as was supposed he was unharmed after remaining in the lion's den all night. He closed by stating that God is just as able to save today as he was in the olden days

The rally planned for the second Sunday in September will be held without fail and all are asked to be ready to report at that time. Visitors are welcome at all times.

Reminiscences.

Following is the speech, in part, delivered by Colonel John Temple Graves at the exposition, at the conclusion of "Dixie Day" Aug. 19th, San Francisco Chronicle.

The South and the North are one now and forever; one and inseparable. The Hoosier and Dixie Boy is now only a neighbor's fence through which the gateway swings wide and welcomes with the hospitality of each section to the other.

The South comes back into the federal union with a whole heart without reservation and absolutely without apology. Mistakes it might have been and doubtless was in the strong convictions of 1861, but culpable never, and wrongs minorum.

NOT SLAVERY QUESTION.

I deny here, with all the emphasis of words and of history, that the South seceded from the Union and passed out the priceless treasure of American blood to maintain the institution of African slavery. The inaugural address of Jefferson Davis at Montgomery did not once mention slavery. The second inaugural address at Richmond reckoning the cause that moved secession didn't once mention slavery. And Jefferson Davis after three years of terrific fighting declared to representatives of Abraham Lincoln: "We are not fighting for slavery; we are fighting for independence." Slavery was not the cause of the war; it was the incident, it was the irritation, it was the red rag waved in the faces of constitutional factions already formed that moved the South to secede.

This faith was not exclusive to the South. The Hartford convention was preaching the dissolution of the Union while Virginia was urging its preservation. John Quincy Adams presented the Haverhill petition for dissolution, and Gilman of Virginia presented a resolution to censure Adams for presenting it. On the abstract question of the right of secession, Abraham Lincoln in 1848, speaking for Texas withdrawal from Mexico, was every whit as emphatic as John C. Calhoun ten years later.

I thank God, and all the South thanks God that secession failed. It is better far that the Union should never have been dissolved. It was better that slavery should never have existed, and, existing, that it should have been destroyed. Almighty God, arbiter of nations, wiser than we were, held the balance of battle in his judgment and beneficence, and there will never more be either secession or slavery in this republic of the united and free.

EDWARD R. LEWIS ON PEACE AND WAR.

The writer of this article has not attempted to comment upon the motives of the men who in good faith, prompted by devotion saw the civil war as a conflict between State rights and Federal oppression. What he has given us is a discussion of Abraham Lincoln's attitude towards war and towards those who preferred peace to the abolition of slavery. This article is addressed to those who fail to see the connection between the liberty which we now possess and its historic background, who apparently believe that today can sacrifice principle without bending ourselves to destruction.—The Editors. "Outlook" New York.

John Temple Graves would have us believe that slavery had nothing to do with the war of the rebellion, but was only the incident. Mr. Lewis gives a sketch of the history.

Let us test this theory that war is always wicked and peace always beautiful by one case from our own history. In november, 1860, Lincoln was elected on a platform which unalterably opposed the extension of slavery in the Territories. The South took his election as an open affront. South Carolina had plans in motion. Turmoil, unrest, anxiety, were in the air. There came talk of compromise. For forty years the North had compromised with the South. It began with the Missouri compromise in 1820. The climax was reached with the compromise of 1850. After that business and social influences were formed with navigation on any one in the North who dared raise the question again. It was settled forever, and he who uttered it up once more was an enemy of this country, just there were some men so criminal as to think that peace at the expense of justice was intolerable. They would not retreat a single inch, and they would be heard. But was the South satisfied. She went from aggression to aggression, from agitation unrelenting to the Dred Scott decision. Then the Republican party was formed of the burning conviction to stop the march of slavery, and on account it was the election of 1860 on that issue came the talk of compromise again. The most famous proposal, the one which came the nearest to acceptance, was the Crittenden compromise. Its crucial provision was that slavery should be prohibited in all territory north of 36 deg. 30 min., and recognized as existing in all territory south of that line. In this crisis what did Lincoln do? He wrote to Kellogg, the Illinois member of the House committee, on the compromise: "Entertain no proposition for a compromise in regard to the extension of slavery. The instant you do they have us under again; all our labor is lost, and sooner or later must be done over. The tug has to come, and better now than later." Again he wrote, this time to a confidence: "On the territorial question, that I am inflexible. On that there is a difference between you and us, and it is the only substantial difference. You think slavery is right and ought to be extended; we think it is wrong and ought to be restricted." Again he wrote to Thurlow Weed that there could be no palavering with the territorial question. "Filibustering for all south of us and making slave states of it would follow in spite of us. A year will not pass until we shall have to take Cuba as a condition upon which they will stay in the Union."

South Carolina seceded and the tension became terrific. The Crittenden compromise was endorsed in legislative halls, conventions, and petitions. Men begged for compromise. Holmes referred to the "Hamiltonian administration or whatever you choose to call the wretch who would sacrifice everything and beg the South's pardon for offending it." Seymour said the Crittenden compromise would carry New York. Greeley said it would carry the nation. Douglas said it would have been adopted by an overwhelming vote. Buchanan was pressed for it. Make concessions, anti-slavery men. Even stern Republicans weakened and prayed for compromise. In view of the fact that the Republicans, the most radical element of the voters, comprised but thirty per cent of them, it is evident from all this that the Crittenden compromise would probably have been adopted if submitted to popular vote. And, if adopted, it would probably have prevented war for a space of years.

Lincoln was still the most responsible man in the nation. More than any other in the North, he held the scales of peace and war in his hands. But he did not budge an inch. He wrote to Seward on February 1, 1860: "I say, now, however, as I have said all the while, that on the Territorial question I am inflexible. I am for no compromise which assists or permits the extension of the institution on soil owned by the nation. And any trick by which the nation is to acquire territory and then allow some local authority to spread slavery over it as cheerless as any other. I take it that to effect some such result as this and to put us again on the high road, to a slave empire is the object of all these proposed compromises. I am against it."

Principally as a result of this stand the Republicans in Congress opposed the Crittenden compromise, and the plans of compromise failed. Secession spread. Men said, Let the erring sisters go in peace. They would do anything to avoid war. But the cause of peace and sorrows was an immovable as ever. He called for 75,000 troops to preserve the Union, and he never flinched at the awful price we paid. In his second inaugural he declared, with steel inflexibility, that if God willed it that the war go on till every drop shed by the lash should be paid by one drawn by the sword, we could only declare that the judgments of the Lord were righteous altogether.—[From the Scrap Book by J. The above figures speak volumes for the business ability and reputation of the above mutual company. Besides sales this firm makes a specialty of rentals and carry on their books the largest list of rental properties of any firm in the city, having absolute control of more than a hundred houses which they rent and collect from each each month. Both members of the firm, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Stokes are men of wide experience in their line, having devoted many years of their life to handling real estate. The steady increase in their business is undoubtedly due to the fact that their motto is absolutely "no misrepresentation."

California Conference of A. M. E. Church

In 49th Annual Session.

FORTY-NINTH SESSION OF THE CALIFORNIA A. M. E. CONFERENCE CONVENES AT FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH ON LAST WEDNESDAY

The 49th session of the A. M. E. Conference convened at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday, with the Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks presiding.

The churches from throughout the state were represented by their pastors and delegates. The Bishop did not waste much time in preliminaries, but got right down to the business of the session and after the roll call of the conference, introduced Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson, who delivered the annual sermon. Rev. Wilson was at his best and made a masterly effort. At its conclusion he was complimented on all sides for the same. At its conclusion the visitors were introduced. Among them were Rev. Kinchen, Prof. Green, and others.

The afternoon session was taken up with reports from the various churches. They all showed a wonderful progress along all lines. The conference adjourned to meet for the reception at 8 p. m.

Wednesday Evening's Reception.

Wednesday evening was the grand reception in honor of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks and the members of the conference, their wives and delegates.

The church was filled to overflowing to witness the program which was as follows:

1. Music—First A.M.E. church choir.
2. Prayer—Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor Phillips, Chap., C. M. E. church.
3. Music—Choir.
4. Introduction of Master of Ceremonies. Rev. J. Logan Craw.
5. Remarks—Master of Ceremonies: Atty. J. H. Kelly.
6. Welcome in behalf of the Fifth District and the Men of the church—Atty. Willis O. Tyler.
7. Welcome in behalf of the women of the Church—Mrs. E. Warner.
8. Music.
9. Welcome in behalf of the Inter-Denominational Ministerial Alliance and Baptists of the city—Dr. H. D. Prowd, Pastor of Second Baptist Church.
10. Welcome in behalf of the Sunday School—Supt. John W. Hale.
11. Music.
12. Welcome in behalf of The Young Folks of the Church—Miss Elsie Scott.
13. Welcome in behalf of the Press and Community—Hon. J. B. Bass, Editor the California Eagle.
14. Response—Rt. Rev. H. B. Parks, Bishop of Fifth District.
15. Music.
16. Benediction—Rev. W. J. J Byers, Pastor of Zion A. M. E. Church.

Refreshments in the Banquet Hall.

REV. J. H. WILSON, Presiding Elder.

Each participant acquitted himself with high credit. At its conclusion the Bishop's response was a masterly exposition of African Methodism, and the part it has played in the mighty march of progress of this nation. More than 780,000 members are enrolled under its banner and are marching on to victory.

At the conclusion of the program the audience repaired to the banquet hall, where they were served with refreshments by the ladies of the Auxiliary department.

The Second Day Session of the Annual Conference.

Not until noon Thursday did the Mrs. Sunsee fit to brighten the universe with her dazzling rays, but even though a heavy mist fell upon the earth, within the walls of the First A. M. E. Church there was a brightness not unlike the rays of the sun in warmth and splendor.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks occupied his seat at the helm; about him sat his boys, as he was wont to call them. On the Bishop's face one great smile lingered, and sometimes when a little shadow would steal its way across his brow the smile continued to stay.

The morning session was full of interest as the reports from the churches in the district came in.

Report of Presiding Elder Wilson

To the Bishop and Members of the California Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in Annual Conference Assembled: Greetings—

We rejoice that it has pleased our all wise and ever beneficent Father, in His just and wise management of the affairs of men, to preserve our lives, and enable us to again assemble here, in this, our 49th Annual Session with unbroken ranks. While many of the faithful membership, to whom we have administered, have been called to their great reward, numbering among them some who might be styled "the land marks" of our Methodism on the coast, a merciful Providence has preserved unbroken the ranks of our itineracy; together with our superannuate fathers in Israel. And by the grace of God we are here to answer to the first roll call in the beginning of the second century of our organic existence.

Sir, we would be derelict and unworthy of a place in the Church of Allen, were we unmindful of the heroic deeds and the self-sacrificing lives of the fathers and apostles of our Methodism that made this day of grace possible to us. And we take it that the measure of our love and appreciation for them, and the work they have accomplished, will be the measure of our loyalty and devotion to the legacy they have left us—the African Methodist Episcopal Church—with her one hundred years of achievement for God and humanity, battering down barriers, opening doors of hope and opportunities, taking the slaves and chattels of the earth, and making of them kings and priests unto God, teaching so successfully the lessons of self help and self-dependence to a people who hitherto knew not how to provide for themselves, demonstrating to the world the Negro's ability to govern himself, and manage large business concerns, and above all else, teaching, as no other organization the Fatherhood omi God and the Brotherhood of Man.

While there are not a few that love the church for what it is, for what it has done, and for wha it is destined to accomplish in the centuries to come, the lamentable fact remains that there are some among us who are not of us; who are diligent in their efforts, in their words, and in their deeds to destroy the very institution they profess to love and revere.

As there are Socialists and Anarchists in the body politic, who inveigh against law and order, and those chosen for enforcement of law; so, into our Methodism have crept those of like temperament, passions and darings. It is a lamentable fact that in our ministry, in our officery, and in our laity, are those who neither believe our doctrines, or love our Discipline.

There are those who dare to kindle strange fires upon our altars, who repudiate our form of government, and applaud others who rebel against it.

When we review the achievements of the century just past, when we consider the legacy left us by the long line of our noble ancestors, and when we remember thier great love for the doctrine and discipline of this, our common heritage, the African Methodist Episcopal Church, we rise in our might and say, as says tha state, socialism and anarchism MUST GO! In this conference, I am sorry to say, are men who blush to speak evil, not only of their brother ministers, but also of the Bishops of our church, and for no other cause than that ministers have failed to receive the appointment they desired; hence by their insinuations and innuendos succeed in arraigning against the heads of the church and against the ministry not to their liking that class of our membership who are ever ready to meddle in the affairs of others; to fight the battles of others, or to carry the slime of others.

Then, too, in some of the churches of this conference, we have officers who make no secret of their opposition to the powers that be; not only are they uncharitable, but unreasonable to the degree of untruthfulness in their remarks in private and in public in expressing that opposition. And stranger still is the fact that we have ministers who profess to be loyal African Methodist preachers who continue to nominate and place in office this class of men. I warn you today that the church must rid itself of the disgruntled trouble-breeder, who delights to sow the seed of discord, whether he be in the pulpit or in the pew, or they will clog the wheels of our Methodism on the Coast.

Notwithstanding the malcontents and the ne'er-do-wells, the rank and file of the California ministry, the men who are bringing results; taking care of every interest of the church of Allen; are true to the core, and the reports they bring to you at this conference are but slight indications of the real hardships and sacrifices through which they have passed. The following is but a brief mention of each:

REDLANDS—Rev. A. O. D. Steele, Pastor

Redlands has served as a drydock this year, in which Brother Steele has remained for repairs. It is well known to us all how broken in health he has been for the last three or four years; but by doing light church work, and getting out and roughing it, he is is fa st returning to his former self, apd feels able to assume heavier responsibilities.

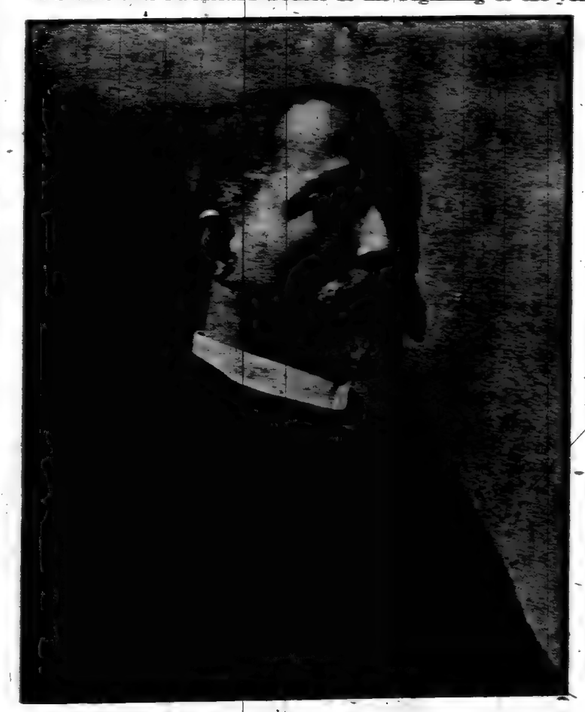
Redlands has a splendid citizenship. Some of the most thrifty, industrious, honest and loyal members of our communion reside here. But, unfortunately, their number is small, and there seems to be but little to attract and hold the newcomer. So, there is no appreciable increase in the population, no increase in the membership of the church.

SAN BERNARDINO—Rev. J. C. Lockhart, Pastor

The new church building which was in the way of construction when the conference met last, has been completed. The old church building remodeled and turned into a parsonage, the membersship increased to 83, with a debt of $1879.45.

Unfortunate for the reputation of the place, matters got beyond control in settling the claims for the new building. A loan of $3,000 was negotiated from a private individual; $1,500 of it was received and first mortgage given when the work was completed, and the other $1,500 needed, the lender had changed his mind, and refused to let them have it. Being now unable to secure the necessary amount elsewhere on second mortgage, the lumber man, to whom they owed $1,700, sueil, got judgment, under which the property was advertised and sold. The lumber man being the highest and only bidder, the property was sold to him for $1,700, and he turned it back to the trustees for that amount plus the cost of court proceedings. The people have obut recovered! rom the shock and humiliation of having their church sold, and are determined to meet their obligations. This property is well worth $5,000, with a debt of $1,879.45. Brother Lockhart has dosie a splendid work in this charge.

POMONA—Rev. C. H. Harris, Pastor



Brother Harris is doing about all that could be expected in this appointment. There are but few of our people in this city, and, as usual, they are not all united upon any one thing. Yet, with the faithful few the year's work has been accomplished, and the standard of the charge upheld.

DUARTE—Rev. H. Judkins, Pastor

This is Brother Judkins' first year in the itinerant ministry, and a brilliant beginning it is. He found Duarte in an almost hopeless condition, the result of past experiences. The few members who claimed membership were discouraged and scattered. He has succeeded in gathering them together, inspiring new hope and greatly reviving the work.

RIVERSIDE—Rev. J. H. C. Redd, Pastor

The debt that threatened trouble at the beginning of the year

RT REV. H. BLANTON PARKS, Presiding Bishop California Conference

has been reduced, creditors reassured, so that in the future the management of affairs will be less difficult. Brother Redd has labored hard this year, meeting with much opposition from some of his officers and members as a result of misunderstanding on minor matters. But in spite of all, he has succeeded in keeping the banner afloat.

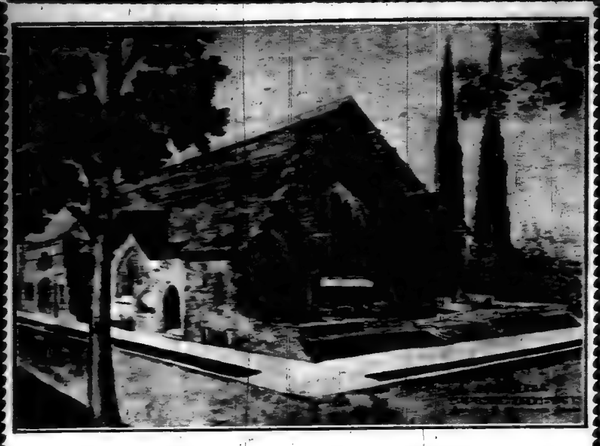
WATTS—Rev. Geo. L. Trigg, Pastor

Nothwithstanding the discouraging circumstances encountered on entering this field, Brother Trigg has done an excelelat year's work. Brother Brown, after his removal from this charge by your Reverence at the last sitting of our conference, returned to harass them for what he styled the balance of his last year's salary. Failing to meet a ready response, he caused suit to be brought for the collection of the same. This being but a mission, and having no funds with which to employ counsel to defend their interest in court, a new pastor and wife for them to support as best they could. I assumed the larger portion of the responsibility, retained council and met the case in court, which was tried, and decided in favor of the church. Overcoming the effects of this litigation and contention, the pastor and people have rounded out a very successful year. A new and more desirable location, on a popular thoroughfare is being secured, upon which the church building is to be moved. The population of this commonwealth is ever increasing, the people acquiring their own homes; so the future of this charge is hopeful.

LONG BEACH

Long Beach is a watering place, where our citizenship is transient, and consequently a transient membership. We have 14 members here, with $165.41 in bank for the purchase of a church home. It would be wise to continue our efforts in this field. Rev. M. J. Johnson, who felt that his usefulness in this mission was ended, resigned in July, and since he was accomplishing no good, we accepted his resignation. Since then the work has been without a regular pastor. I would recommend that this work be attached to Watts, and designated Watts Circuit.

LOS ANGELES—Second Church, Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor



This has been a red letter year in the history of this appointment. For the first time in its existence hey have met their current bills and made a payment of two hundred dne on the note last

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Sunday was marked by two impressive services, each being a communion service.

Rev. J. D. Pettigrew of Santa Ana was present and preached at the morning service, taking as his text "As Mosee litted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the son of man be lifted up."

The pastor preached at the evening service. Subject, "The remembrance of Christ's earthly life and death."

The usual services on next Sunday. Subject for the morning, "The indomitable witness." evening, "Robbing God."

Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. under the leadership of Bro. Joseph; topic, "The greatness of God."

Strangers are cordially welcomed to all services.

Birch Street Christian Church

At this writing we are pleased to say that our pastor, Robert La Touche of Paris, Texas, is now with us. He is a graduate of the Southern Christian Institution of Edwards, Miss., and comes to us highly recommended.

Last Sunday he brought to us a splendid gospel message and is even now conducting a revival and hopes to help the church much in every way. The revival will be continued all next week and we invite the public to all services.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

There will be special services Sunday. Bishop C. H. Phillips, A. M., M. D., D. D., will be present and will preach at 3 p. m. Communion services morning and evening. Baptism of babies at the afternoon services by Bishop Phillips.

Bishop Phillips, Rev. J. C. Anderson and Rev. Rector made a flying trip to Berkeley this week on business.

Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Preaching, 11 a. m., 3 and 8 p. m.

A. M. E. Zion

Last Sunday the pastor occupied the pulpit at both services. The subject at the morning service was "Jesus's mission in the world." A splendid audience was in attendance and the service was inspiring.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach at both services and it is hoped that a fine audience will be out. This month will just about wind up the work of the conference year and great efforts are being made to close up in good shape.

Not having had more than one entertainment this year, the plans for a big series of entertainments beginning September 25 to last one week is just about perfected. For furthet information watch this paper.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

There was a spiritual feast at the church Sunday. The morning service was visited by the holy spirit and there was rejoicing by the members. Sunday morning found Miss Moore at her post with a class of young ladies and Bro. A. D. Lacy, the teacher of the advance class, and Mrs. L. L. Moore, teacher of the primary class, and Superintendent Payne all at their post and each class was well represented.

At 6:30, the usual hour for opening the B. Y. P. U., Sister Moore called the session to order, with a goodly number. There was quite an instructive lesson taught by Rev. Sister Moore.

At 8 p. m. the pastor announced his text from Mark 1:15, "Repent ye and believe the Gospel." The text was divided into divisions: first, "Repentance;" second, "The exercise of faith;" third, "The Gospel." The pastor made plain that faith and repentance was the two essential acts to salvation.

A bible tableau, a treat of the season by the pastor's wife on the 27th. Don't miss the up-to-date affair. There will be a musical program rendered by the Providence choir on September 17. All are invited.

Collections for the day $75.75.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows Hall, Cor. th and Wall Sts.

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Sunday was a glorious day at the People's Independent church the pastor preached two more wonderful and impressive sermons. His morning text was from Prov. 4:18; evening, Matt. 13:46-47. It being monthly communion, the usual large crowd was present and partook of the Lord's supper. The services were indeed edifying.

The pastor, officers and mombers of this church do not intend for their church to be a burden upon the public, hence another progressive movement has been launched. They have decided that a special offering for the building fund be made on each first Sunday. The result of this effort last Sunday was $170.

Mt. Olive Baptist Church

3022 East First Street

Mt Olive church which is now under the leanership of Rev. W. R. Hutchinson is making rapid progress along all lines, few young churches if any has made the progress that this church has made Mt. Olive can be truly proud of her young pastor, an able, fearless, God sent young man, calm and reserved in his manner and unshaken in purpose, who has won the hearts of his members, the good will and support of the community. Rev. Hutchinson is doing a great work in Boyle Heights in Christ's name.

The church has planned to have a Light and Paint Day next Sunday, a rally to raise money to paint the church and to hang a light in front. Some of the able ministers will aid in making the rally a success.

Rev. A. P. Ramsey will preach at 11 a. m; Rev. Byers, of A.M.E. church, at 2:30 p. m; Rev. H. Folke at 8 p. m. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

CHOICE OF PLACE AIRED.

Washington Selected for National Race Congress on Citizenship Rights.

Indicates Interest in National Get-together Meeting of Colored Americans to Make a Stand Against Proscription Points to Many Delegates From Many States.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 24, 1916.

The proposed National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress will be held in Washington, D. C., the latter part of September. After a canvass of the situation and receiving suggestions from many race champions over the country, Rev. Byron Gunner, of Hillburn, N. Y., president of the National Equal Rights League, which proposes and calls the congress in lieu largely of it's ninth annual meeting, announces the capital of the Nation as the consensus of opinion to hold this race congress on equality of rights. No place could be more fitting.

An Open Congress

This National Colored Congress is to be an open one, both to delegated persons and to individual representatives of the cause who attend on their own responsibility. It is to be free and open for race conference, action and declaration. The congress will organize itself independently. The Equal Rights League will call it to order and those assembled will then create the congress.

Aims of the Meeting

Racial fraternizing, mutual acquaintance, unity of spirit and of program, exchange of notes on local conditions, race unity of feeling and a future national working together for rights, a united declaration to the country of colored Americans on color proscription, are among the purposes of this gathering. No move will impress the white American public on our presence, numbers, capacity and spirit for equal rights like an actual national convention attended by large numbers of colored citizens from various states.

How to Get Up Delegates

Delegated representatives are quite advisable, and churches, civic and literary societies, fraternal organizations, political and other clubs are asked to elect and send delegates. The call asks that a Citizens Equal Rights Committee be formed by public spirited citizens in each community to work up interest, hold a public meeting and send representation. Any person is at liberty to start such a committee Act at once,

Secretary Wm. Monroe Trotter at 27 Cornhill, Boston, will be glad to receive suggestions and inquiries.

All together in 1916 and ON TO WASHINGTON.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church

Services were well attended all day Sunday. The Rev. Anderson preached in the morning and Rev. J. B. Holmes of Hanford preached in the evening. The members and friends of Phillips chapel are always glad to hear Rev. Holmes.

There will be services all day Sunday, it being Grand rally day. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Anderson. Preaching at 8 p. m. by Dr. Selecman, pastor of Trinity M. E. church. There will be a sacred concert by the choir and Epworth League, under the management of Mrs. A. C. H. Bilbrew, who has prepared for the hearers a splendid program. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Birch Street Christian Church

The members and friends of the above named church are still holding services at 1040 E. 9th street. They hope to worship in their new church at an early date. All the meetings are being held as usual on Sunday. Bro. Williams preached an able sermon last Sabbeth morning and at the Endeavor service Bro. Turnage did equally as well in his discourse on "Usefulness of Choir," and others who spoke on the topic brought out many good points. Bro. Turnage said that cheerfulness was contagious and that a person full of life and sunshine, love and cheer entering a room where sullenness prevailed, the whole atmosphere was changed. All cordially invited.

Peoples' Independent Church.

Sunday was a banner day for the Peoples' Independent church. Odd Fellows hall did not afford space sufficient to accommodate the enormous crowds that gathered for worship at this church. Many souls were blessed by the practical and impressive sermons delivered by the pastor. The total receipts from the great new church rally at the conclusion of the evening service, amounted to $2,042.49 and there are still more to be made. Another remarkable feature is the fact that the rally fund has not interfered with the regular public collections, which, as usual, continue to exceed the fifty dollar mark. As soon as arrangements for building are completed, a great ground breaking service will be held on the church property, corner 18th and Paloma streets. Announcement of the date will be made soon.

Calexico Notes.

Mrs Mary E. Ford, Reporter.

The public schools closed last week. There were 24 graduates from the grammar school, among them little Ammie Lewis, a colored girl, who, with two others, made the highest mark of the class, representing the class with essays. Ammie's subject was, "A Famous Negro Leader," under which she narrated the life and work of Booker T. Washington. The manner in which she rendered her essay was a credit to the Race. She received many compliments from the whites, and was remembered by her many friends with lovely presents. Miss Ammie will visit her aunt in Los Angeles during the hot summer months.

The El Bethel Christ Sunday school spent last Sunday out at the C. & M. ranch, where Sunday school services were held and a dainty picnic lunch was enjoyed after which the Children's day program was rendered to a very appreciative audience. All were royally entertained by the residents of the place with ice cream, cantaloupes and plenty of shade. After spending a very pleasant day the party returned to Calexico hoping to have another outing in the near future.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

Only a few more fleeting weeks until Woodrow Wilson and Democracy will be a thing of the past, and then and not until then will this country enter into an era of prosperity which will be lasting.

Those who expected President Wilson to do anything for the recognition of the Colored voters can now truthfully say that it was only a dream. The South is in the saddle and there you are, so get busy, register and say "Never again."

The new alignment of Republican management will without doubt give due recognition to representative citizens in this community of all classes.

THE INEVITABLE

It seems that war with Mexico is the inevitable. Tramp, tramp, we hear the boys a-marching, and as the sound of that heavy tread reaches our ear we seem to think that here and there along the line of march we hear a little heavier tread, and something tells us that it is of the black boys—who—never—let the—old flag—touch—the ground.

BETTER GO SOUTH AGAIN

There are those amongst us who do not think Jim Crow and segregation are coming fast enough, and they are composed of two classes. First, there is the loud, boisterous and rowdy class who in public places do the things that are repulsive and are making sentiment against the Race, and there are those who just seem to not be satisfied with this freedom of action and to profit by being All Americans, but who want the same conditions that they forsook the Southland for to obtain here, and to be fair, both of these classes of our citizenship would do well to improve their condition or go right back where they came from.

THE EAGLE'S ATTITUDE ON SEGREGATION

A few years ago we buried the hatchet, but it seems that the handle was left above surfice and that old handle has taken root, and it seems, is even now budding and threatening to blossom. But we believe that nothing serious will be the result, and that both white and colored citizens alike who stand for fair play and justice in this State will join hands in denouncing any Jim Crow legislature for a particular part of our population.

We realize that some of our best colored citizens are men and women enough to take a stand as they see it with out fear of criticism, are advocating segregation, and while we most highly respect this part of our clientage for their views for we believe that they are most earnestly their views, but we hold as we have always held, that as long as scholastic association is good for the European peasants and other peoples who find their way across the briny Atlantic with the purpose of getting wealth for themselves and education for their children, benefit by and enjoy these rights and privileges accorded every free people then nothing shorter than this same conciliation in educational and other walks of life will give the Negro the rounded education that was enjoyed by his history making ancestors away back in that ancient period when Egypt was the world's center in wealth and education, and will further enable him to demand the rights and privileges accorded every American citizen under the Constitution.

The best way to fight segregation and other evils that retard our progress, is by first getting together ourselves. Right now when the question of school segregation has taken on a spreadeat heated agitation there should be a great mass meeting, not by any particular organization, club or small body or people, but by the Negro citizens of this county and state, for truly there are issues effecting our interest that should at least be considered by us before given to the public and it seems that this question of segregation at this time is one of them.

For the love of humanity and Race, let us learn to at least trust one another to the extent of reasoning together.

There are plenty of states where segregation along all lines and in all walks is in full bloom. Now we can get together on this issue before giving it over to the Board of Education for consideration. It seems that we ourselves will be able, yes, amply able of adjusting this matter. Those who just can't exist without segregation may be advised as to the best location where they can enjoy this sort of condition in the fullest sense. And those of us who stand straight up and desire no compromise as American citizenship shall never cease to fight until the bulwarks that now retard our progress shall be wholly eradicated, and we shall enjoy those rights and privileges that make man truly and wholly free, that he may serve his God and fellowman with his heart and mind. Then, and not until then will this country be a Republic and all men within her borders according to the laws of God an justice be equal.

MEMORIAL

In memory of Sir W. B. Rich who departed this life April 30, 1916. The grim reaper, Death, with scythe in hand, came in the early forenoon and plucked a flower which was opening its pretty perfumed petals to the world of K. and D. of T.'s. 'Twas only yesterday he stood a brave knight on the brink of Tabor, lending a helping hand to all Knights and Daughters.

He is dead, how the words burn into the brains:
And the scalding tears to the eyelids rise—
But comfort your hearts oh, sorrowing friends,
The angels rejoice when a good man dies.
Sir Rich, we loved you, so we cannot tell,
Because you did your duty well.
And ye of the strange and mystic tie:
Who worked with him in Fraternal love,
He will never labor with you again:
He has gone to work in the lodge above.
But faith points over the chilling tide,
'Mong the dear ones there on the other shore:
We see him blooin in immortal youth.
And we think, not lost, but gone before.
His life's work done, let him rest in peace;
His 777 went down at life's eventide.
And though lost in the murky sea of death.
It will rise again on the eden side.
A dear knight from us has gone,
His chair canot be filled.
We'll ever linger round your grave.
In solo Deo Salus.
Yours in Tabor,
Daughter W. M. Montgomery.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all these United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and doleth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, weatherbeaten and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are unique and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou will have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 10 cent cotton and 4 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not an easy with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And then knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and our shoes get holed, if it wasn't for the infernal Republicans nailing fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the bark districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertilizer smeller. Just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that theory.

Again, Mighty Chief, we beseech thee to hear our prayers. For heaven's sake don't saddle us with a bond issue. We read in the papers that thou art considering a big bond issue to get money to run the government, and dodgast them bonds. Thou shouldst remember that Cleveland sold bonds, and it busted our party into smithereens. We never can survive a bond issue. Bonds means slavery, and slavery is worse than war, and war is worse than hell. It will bury us so deep we will never hear the gun fire this year. Cut down salaries rather than sell bonds.

Oh, mighty Woodrow, thou who hast already skinned us out of our jobs with thy business-hurting Free Trade farce, don't get us analyzed in a war. Thou knowest, dear and mighty pie-distributor, that we have never had any luck with war, anyway. Thou knowest that in the great history of the American people there least written how we Democratic dupes followed the party call and went to war against the Slave and Redjun for four long years, and how "Honest" Abe Lincoln licked the stuffin out of us and made us Democrats do without pie for over a quarter of a century. Oh, Walking One, we hesitate down on our Free Trade house-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

Now, Master Wilson, accept this our humble prayer. Forgive us for asking for anything that we should not receive.

Save us from the children of The Rural Whipper and all the lower class by these signs.

Let us keep alive the memory of our great leader, Dr. B. shor T. Washington. Send subscriptions to Mrs. B. B. Burr, 1331 W. 30th street.

Local Happenings

A luau party will be given at the home of Mrs. Goodwin, 1421 E. 15th street next Thursday afternoon, 29th.

The annual session of the K. of P. and the Court of Calanthians will be held in Pasadena Sunday afternoon, June 25th.

Mrs. Naomi Johnson, daughter of S. P. Johnson, was married to Ralph Santislav Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Elnora Williams, who is a much welcomed visitor in our city from Oakland, is the house guest of Mrs. W. F. Woodyard, 806 E. 41st street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballord of Atlanta, Ga., are visitors in the city, stopping at the home of Mrs. E. Barr, 1351 W. 30th place, where strangers are always pleasantly entertained.

The Native Sons and Daughters club of California were entertained at the home of Mrs. P. M. Hickman, 753 Cerro avenue, Wednesday evening. The next meeting will be with Miss Jones, 2945 Lawrence street.

If you missed the grass whist tournament given by the Native Sons and Daughters club the last time, you can not afford to miss the one on the 7th of next month, six beautiful prizes to be given. The last first prize was cut glass. It no doubt will be gold this time.

One of the smallest social functions of the season was the dancing party given by The Examiner Club Thursday evening at the Ivy St. Club House. The decorations were of white carnations and greenery, with pretty colored lanterns swinging here and there. The music was furnished by one of the best orchestras in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hunt and Mrs. McCall motored down from San Jose and Palo Alto, their respective homes, Sunday and were the house guests of Mrs. E. E. Barr over Sunday, leaving Monday for San Diego, where they will visit the Exposition. On their return trip at the end of the week they will again stop in this city for a short stay.

The Misses Ruth and Ruby Walker, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker of 958 E. Pico street, have just returned home from Kansas City, where they have been attending Western University. During their stay of two years they have completed most successfully the commercial course, their class having set a standard for classes following to reach. Aside from the regular commercial course, they held positions a bookkeeper and paying teller in the Students Commercial bank. They are now ready to accept positions as stenographer and bookkeeper. We welcome them back to our city.

The Thanksgiving and Memorial sermon of the U.B.F.'s and G.H.T.'s, Morris Temple No. 4 of Monrovia was preached June 11th at the Zion church of Monrovia by the pastor, Rev. L. D. Henry. His text was taken from the Book of Esther and the sermon was an excellent one. Very able remarks were made by W. P. Woodyard, who was master of ceremonies for the occasion. It was very much regretted that our grand secretary, Mrs. M. White, could not be with us. The juveniles were well represented and many friends witnessed the grand occasion. Princess Mrs. Shows and Past Princess Mrs. W. F. Woodyard and Misses Oliver and Jennings assisted us. We are glad to say that our pastor, Rev. Henry, is worthy of his charge.

Booker Washington Memorial

The mass meeting held on last Sunday in the interest of the Booker Washington Memorial fund was not as large as expected, but resulted in a great impetus to the movement. A number of pledges were received and assurances given that for the next three weeks this matter will be brought to the attention of all of the citizens of Los Angeles. Mrs. Barr, the secretary, is anxious to get in touch with all of the people of the city in order that Southern California will make a creditable showing. The speeches were of unusual order and fine tributes were paid to the debt the world owes Dr. Washington. The list of subscribers will be published from time to time. The committee is very grateful to those who have subscribed and to the splendid support being given by our newspapers.

Friends are urged to send in their subscriptions to Mrs. E. E. Barr, 1351 W. 30th Place, in terms of money orders or checks payable to Tuskegee Institute, before the second Sunday in July, at which date the Memorial Committee plans to close the rally for this most worthy cause.

A most enjoyable affair of Wednesday eve. was the pretty dancing party at the Parrish Hall given by Mrs. Ragland in honor of Miss Mariam Garrett and brother Robert. On Tuesday evening these two young people were entertained by their father, Dr. Garrett, with a dancing party at the Ivy Street Play Ground Club House. Two beautiful gifts were presented Miss Garrett, a cutting dish, by the Young Ladies Sporting League, and a friendship bracelet from a number of other friends.

One of the charming parties of the week was given by the Misses Fanny and Ivy Washington, 1146 Kingsley Drive, Sunday afternoon in compliment to Misses Angelita Williams, Mariam Garrett and brother Robert Garrett, who expect to leave soon for the East. Thirty-five guests were present.

Other things besides weddings occur in June, for instance birthdays. Mrs. Grugg, Mrs. Leggett and Mrs. Biggs celebrated their birthdays on the 20th with a very enjoyable picnic at East Lake Park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sugarman, of Oakland, Cal., will arrive in the city tomorrow, Sunday morning, on the Harvard to visit with Mrs. Sugarman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Easton of 442 E. 30th St.

Mr. Larkin Day, who has been visiting in Los Angeles and San Diego as the guest of W. E. Easton Jr., returned to his home in Oakland Thursday.

David Starks leaves August 1st for Gammon Theological School. He will go by the way of Ohio where he will visit his mother for a few days.

The Rosemont night school will celebrate with a picnic at Sycamore Grove Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Blodgett is making preparations to leave for Washington, D. C., soon.

Sojourner Truth.

Monday at 3 o'clock the officers for the coming year will be installed and refreshments served. An excellent program by educational department. All members are urged to be present and on time. Public cordially invited.

The latest acquisition to the home is Miss Maud Rummell, a capable music teacher, who is giving vocal and piano lessons.

The "Ole Sweet" comedy at church and hall Friday evening by Mrs. Elliott, the matron, assisted by the best local talent, minded Charlie Chaplin and was a grand success, drawing fifty dollars net.

Sojourner Truth club regrets the loss of Mrs. Elliott, the matron, who has resigned to take a better position. She advanced and worked many helpful suggestions and had completed an eight weeks course at the Y.W.C.A. in social service to better understand the girl problem. Best wishes for the greatest success in her new field.

Miss L. E. Green returned to her home in Longview, Texas, after several months in the home, also Miss Anna Scales of St. Louis.

Miss Katherine Oliver entertained with a beautifully appointed seven o'clock dinner in honor of Mrs. Elliott last Tuesday evening.

Miss Ida M. McLain of Portland, Ore., in charge of the home, is a very pleasing young woman, and will be glad to show visitors and strangers through the home.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager Office 702 3rd St. Phones: Main 1013, Main 6110

The members of the Sisters Royal Helping Hand Society met Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall and duly installed all of their new officers. The business was all transacted by the sisters and was both spiritual and inspiring in every feature. Mrs. Nichols installed the officers with much ability, and Mrs. P. E. Robinson offered up a prayer in their behalf, after which each officer was shown their stations. The officers elected were as follows: President, Mrs. E. D. Marshall; vice-president, Mrs. M. Woodby; recording secretary, Mrs. L. L. Alexander; assistant secretary, Mrs. Childress; financial secretary, Mrs. Goodan; treasurer, Mrs. Nelson; chaplain, Mrs. P. E. Robinson. Each member was allowed to invite a friend, and the program was suspended and the visitors allowed to speak, the speakers including Mrs. Corban of Vallejo, Mrs. C. E. Norwood and Mrs. Lewis of Los Angeles. Each one spoke of the spiritual feeling, and the love and kindness which prevailed throughout the entire meeting. After the services each member took their invited guest to the dining room, where the table was laden down with everything mentionable. After all had partaken of the spread, there were baskets to be taken home. The visitors were highly entertained and asked to be remembered again at the next installation of officers.

The young people are taking great interest in attending the B. Y.P.U. meeting every Sunday evening, and we are very proud to have them with us, as there is no better place in which young people can assemble than in the House of the Lord. Many of them stay for the evening services, which are also very encouraging for the future church.

All of the services at Mt. Zion church are very interesting, made so by the most able sermons delivered by the acting pastor, Rev. C. Williams. The church also has a choir, led by Mrs. C. Williams, which also adds much to the services.

Through the kindness and generosity of M. T. Laws, who has a high standing with the Exposition officials, a committee of ten were escorted through the Exposition grounds on last Friday afternoon with the view of locating a good place to have the union picnic. The committee was favorably impressed with the Exposition grounds and picnic park for this grand outing, and as soon as the teachers, pastors and superintendent can get together the date will be set. Those acting as the committee were, Rev. and Mrs. C. Williams, of Mt. Zion Baptist church; Rev. and Mrs. T. Allen Harvey, of the Methodist A. M. E. church; Mrs. L. Goodwin, Mrs. C. Wright, Mrs. M. Warren, Mrs. C. E. Norwood and Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Laws.

On next Friday evening, June 29, the young people of the B.Y.P. U. will give a lucky social and entertainment at the Mt. Zion parsonage for the benefit of the delegates going to the Sunday school and B.Y.P.U. conventions. All are cordially invited to be present. Prizes will be awarded.

Notice to the Public:—The Santa Fe Railroad company has granted us a rate of one and one-third fare provided we can show 50 certificates. Therefore, when purchasing your ticket for San Bernardino, all delegates and friends traveling from all points and over all railroads are asked to be sure and secure a certificate from your agent with your ticket and present the certificate to the secretary of the convention.

We have two young ladies of Logan Heights to graduate from the public schools this year, and we take this method to say that we are very proud of them and hope they may continue until they reach the highest round of the ladder. The girls are the Misses Gertrude Williams and Addie Belle Goodwin.

Mrs. C. Wright received a letter this week from a brother whom she has not seen since he was three years old, and he is now grown to manhood and married. He is in Los Angeles, and we imagine the scene when they meet again.

Mrs. Corban of Vallejo is still in our city and is enjoying the beautiful sights that San Diego affords.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood, daughter and son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. C. Williams, like San Diego so well that they have gone to housekeeping on 30th street. We wish them much success. They are both good church workers and have joined the Mt. Zion Baptist church.

Mrs. P. E. Hornsby and Mrs. A. N. Hornsby left San Diego last Sunday morning for Los Angeles, where they will visit relatives and friends for two weeks.

The Carnation club (literary society) will render a literary program at the Mt. Zion Baptist church the 2nd Tuesday evening in July. All are invited to attend.

The Carnation club held its regular business meeting on Tuesday evening, and had two new members added to the club. On the second Sunday in July the club will have its annual sermon delivered by Rev. C. Williams. The club will also give a 25c rally and a short program on that Sunday in the afternoon. The public cordially invited to attend. The Carnation club, in recognition of the fact that the Eagle has been printing different little articles from time to time for the club, have donated one dollar to the Eagle and hope to be able to do more in the near future. The club was royally entertained during its business meeting by a duett by Rev. and Mrs. C. Williams.

One of the Lone Star society belles royally entertained in San Diego.—Miss Velma Strickling of Houston, Texas, teacher in the public schools, guest of Mrs. Jenkins of this city, the one so royally entertained. Many have been entertained while in the city, but her reception has surpassed them all. While here she was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Rev. and Mrs. Nelson, and many other prominent people of the city. After visiting the Exposition and its beautiful scenes in which she was much delighted, she took the boat trip to Fort Rosecrans, also Coronado, formerly Tent City. On Tuesday she was a guest of Mrs. Jenkins and friends to Tia Juana, Mex., where by chance she was introduced to the manager of the Eagle, who also hailed from the Lone Star state, which made the meeting much home-like. She leaves in a few days for Los Angeles and San Francisco before returning to her home. Her departure will be much regretted by all those who had the pleasure of meeting her.

The Masonics will hold their annual sermon Sunday, June 25. All members in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. A. O. De Steel, pastor of the A.M.E. church of Redlands, is visiting in our city, the guest of Rev. T. Allen Harvey. Together they visited the Eagle office, where they met the busy Eagle correspondents. Dr. Steele preached the morning sermon at the Bethel A.M.F. church, which was inspiring and delightful to all who heard him. Much credit is due Dr. Steele for bringing together many of the scattering flock, and it seems now as though "where there is union there is strength."

Mrs. H. A. Gafford left last week for her former home in Victoria, Tex., to visit her mother.

I. L. Bennett, one of San Diego's energetic young men, was a caller at the Eagle office a few days ago. We learn that he has some undeveloped problems, in which the public will be informed shortly.

We note there is much anxiety felt as to the safety zone in the event of war, but San Diego is as safe from hostilities as most inland towns. First, we are 18 miles from the border, which has no cannon effect. Second, no doubt Lower California will be declared a neutral state. Third, our disappearing guns, which are situated at Fort Rosecrans, can hit a moving target on the darkest night at a distance of more than 21 miles at sea. We could touch one button that would explode a mine that would destroy every ship before getting in range of our port. As to the people in San Diego there are more people visiting Mexico now than there has been for many days. And remember, we have the largest and latest wireless station in the world, which would put us in touch with any ship before even reaching the Philippine Islands.

We notice among the business men in our city J. B. Bass of Los Angeles, editor of the California Eagle, accompanied by J. H. Shannon, San Francisco representative. Before getting down to business they made a flying trip to Tia Juana, Mex., in order to take in the situation. After leaving here they will no doubt make their official tour of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson of San Bernardino were guests of the city for a few days.

Mrs. R. G. Wells and mother of Los Angeles spent several days in the city, guests of R. C. Chapman and wife.

The jubilee concert was a great success. Prof. Woods and choir of the Baptist church assisted.

Samuel Steward, Skinner and Braggs were perusing the scriptures Sunday evening and when they were fully persuaded who was right how much better they felt.

Children of the Macedonia Baptist church gave a social at the residence of Mrs Woods. Now they have a mite in their treasury.

Methodists gave sacrament for the last time this conference year.

Mr. Williams and workers gave a chicken dinner Labor Day and added more to their treasury.

Mrs Leak entertained about thirty-six at a party Tuesday evening. They reported a delightful time.

The trustees of the Methodist church paid $100 on the church lot on Thaxter street Tuesday.

Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Smith were visiting the sick Friday.

Everybody enjoyed Labor Day, seemed as if they wanted each moment remembered. All the churches were busy with something.

Mrs. Beaks has been ill with hay fever.

The young son of Mr. Beavers has been confined to his bed.

Rev. Washington is very busy preparing for the great rally Sunday. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Harris will entertain Mrs. Jones of Highland Park Monday.

Mrs. R. D. Perry was surprised by a number of friends.

Watts has everything to encourage it. It's citizens succeed at everything they try.

SAN BERNARDINO

Mesdames M. E. Andrews, E. Harris and R. C. Anderson have returned from a visit in San Diego.

George Johnson will leave in a few days for Albuquerque where he will visit with relatives and friends. He will return about the middle of the month and will be accompanied home by his brother William, who has spent the summer there.

Mr. Lockard and wife have removed to Imperial where they expect to make their home.

Mr. Dollinger Roten, of Victorville, and Miss Laura Baker, of Redlands, were visitors in the city Sunday.

The Men's Brotherhood of New Hope Baptist Church will give a social Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson.

The Missionary Society of New Hope Baptist Church will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Church parlors

Rev. F. W. Cooper, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to fill his pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander have removed to town and are now located at 415 Second St.

Mr. Johnson Mason has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Eato spent Sunday in Pasadena the guests of friends.

Mrs. W. H. Harrison has returned home after a pleasant visit with her nephew W. F. Woodyard and family.

Mrs. Seagsaves, formerly Miss Mattie Miller, is down from Los Angeles visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Valentine Pearson, of Salt Lake, is visiting in the city the guest of Florence Harrison.

BERTHA ALEXANDER.

Thoughts Wise, and Otherwise.

By Hilbert L. Rozier.

Oh no, I haven't been sick—just been on a little vacation.

The L.A. White Sox realize, now more than ever before, what Julius Baker, their sturdy little backstop, means to their team. Baker is out of the game with a sprained wrist and as a result his team is sorely handicapped; he will be able to don the mask again in a few weeks.

When it comes to wonderful producing the Furlong tract is in a class by itself. Just take a glance at a few of their representatives: Pianists—Misses Lottie Bolds, Doris Young, Josephine Baker, Ruth Sykes and Irene Salisbury. Soloists—Miss Mayme Lowe, Mrs. Nellie Battles Williams and Elmer Jackson. Debaters—T. A. Greene Jr., L. C. Greene, Eugene Walker. Master Jesse Sykes is a wonder with the violin for his age, while Jesse Smith is an artist with the cornet and banjo-madolin. These are only a few of those who star in their respective lines.

The Tract also plays no little part in planting stars in the athletic world. Julius Baker, catcher for Manual Arts High was rated as one of the best backstops in high school ranks. Marion (Dock) McLaughlin is what Howard Drew would call "some sprinter," at the age of 15 he stepped 100 yards in 10 3-5 seconds, nuff said.

We are also equipped with a few "Jack Johnsons" among whom are Don McLaughlin and Bill Jackson McLaughlin is a clever lightweight while Jackson is a middleweight. For information as to his punch see 'Blue" Washington.

We also have a newspaper report—I mean beautiful weather.

Answers to Queries

Can you tell me whether Clarence Smith is the name of an alley or an animal? A. Neither. Clarence Smith is the name of a peculiar kind of squirrel food.

Do the White Sox really wear white stockings? A. No, the White Sox don't but the players do

I am a foreigner and would like to know who is president of the U. S.? A. Sorry sir, but we have no president, but Wilson is temporary chairman.

Who do you consider the best actor in our city? A. Jim Hunt, he has been acting as manager of the Hoegee Giants for 2 years and nobody ever caught on.

Lawrence Groene: I am very sorry but your letter cannot be published in this column as this is not an "advice to the love-lorn" column. Better send it to Cynthia Grey.

A DESERTED LOVER.

GUILLOUME H. SUDNETT

MANY a man has fallen in love with a picture hat under the impression that it was the aura of a beautiful soul. Yea, I am done with it forever! Now shall I be in peace, far from the maddening women. I shall dwell with men and books, and mine own thoughts for company; for though it may not be good for man to live alone, yet it is comfortable. No more shall I hearken to their flatteries, for lo! in their hearts they believe that if it be meet for them to flatter me, it shall be meet and bread and jam and honey also for them to hook me. Verily, I have watched them at their work and I see through them, every one. I am weary of their glances, and their sweet nothings fall upon me as water on a mackintosh. I have barricaded my heart with steel, and wrapped my sentiments in cotton batting. Mine emotions are insulated. I have dug a moat of suspicion about me; yea, I am safe. Now, shall I go forth when and where I please, and return at mine own desire. Not one of them shall dare to summon me upon the telephone, saying: why hast thou not arrived, for I am dressed and waiting. Not one of them shall steep me in tears and cover me with reproaches, and immerse me in emotions as a fly in a can of molasses, for I have broken with them all. Yea, I am free. Now can I go forth and walk among them without danger, the hooks in their hands cannot frighten me, the nets in their eyes cannot snare me, I am as adamant.

FIRST STEP TOWARD THE SOLVING OF THE RACE PROBLEM

In our last issue we announced to the reading public that we would publish the details of a proposition that is worthy of their consideration.

Now, before presenting the facts in the case we wish as a member of the "Progressive Educational Association," to state the underlying principles that prompted or created the spirit of this organization. The nine persons composing the organization that was effected some months ago, are Christian men and women, deeply interested in the future of the Race with which they are connected, and furthermore this company has no idea or intention of promoting any segregation proposition, but are ambitious to demonstrate to the community and to the world that the Negroes of this country can get together on one thing.

What the Progressive Educational Association Has Accomplished

The Association has already secured a tract of land in the State of Arizona which is a part of the territory purchased by the United States from the Republic of Mexico and known as the Gadson Purchase. The lands under discussion comprise about two million (2,000,000) acres. The Educational Association now holds claim upon one hundred thousand acres of this land.

A few weeks ago four of the members of the company in company with a land expert, visited this territory in question and in substance brought back this report:

"There is no alkali, no dobie soil, no rocks, no sand or sand dones and no gullies. The land needs no leveling for irrigation. By demonstration on the part of the U. S. Government it is the best cotton producer in the States and cattle raising is its specialty.

Two crops a year can be produced without irrigation—one in December, and the other in June. Without irrigation this soil will produce fifty and sixty bushels of wheat to the acre, and the same of corn. his country is also free from the winds that tantalize the California farmer.

he water is so pure that there is absolutely no trash or sediment in a boiler used for four years.

There are no fogs and fruit or vegetables that can be produced anywhere in the U. S. can be produced in abundance upon this soil.

The Company has opened its office at 12th and Hemlock streets in the real estate office of H. H. Williams and Company, and any further information concerning the land will be cheerfully given.

A Brief History of the Country

In the year 1521 in what was called the Spanish Conquest, Spain got possession of the territory comprising Mexico, and the States of Texas, California, New Mexico and Arizona.

The Spanish found the inhabitants (Indians) civilized or semi-civilized, dwelling in fixed abodes, cultivating the soil, practicing a formal religion and governed by permanent laws.

n reviewing the actual history of this country we find that the Indians dwelling here were and are of a fairly high intellectual standard.

We are also pursuaded to believe that the history of the country dates back further than any records at hand give.

What the Company Proposes

This company proposes to build an empire for Afro-Americans over which a Black president shall reign, and all officials shall be Black people.

A great university for the training of the head, heart and hand is to be the center about which the chief city must grow. All people dwelling in and about the city will be spiritually and not carnally minded, for this is the rock upon which we are laying our foundation.

It would be impossible for us to close this chapter of what may appeal to some of readers as a strange note without giving honor to whom honor is due.

This idea that is being promoted by this company was conceived in the fertile brains of our own Dr. J. D. Gordon, of this city. It is not a new idea with this man of God. For a number of years it has haunted his mind. A few years ago the hand of Destiny brought him to the African coast where he took a retrospective view of the fatherland, but that same hand of Destiny caused him to right about face and go back to the land of his birth. Since that time he has struggled with himself with the hope that he might overcome the command that had been given him, because he knew that his people would not understand, but it was the irresistible hand of God that was leading and it leads him still.

The Get Acquainted Literary Club will hold their installation of officers and an informal debate on the subject: Resolved, That women should hold offices, local and national. This debate is to be led by Miss Idell Albritton for the affirmative and Mr. H. C. Johnson for the negative, after which it will be open for general discussion. All are invited to come and participate therein, Tuesday evening, at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

MRS. A. ELGIN ENTERTAINS EDITOR AND WIFE

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Annie Elgin, who is one of the pioneer settlers of Los Angeles, and among the first acquaintances and friends made by both Editor and Mrs. Bass on coming to this city, entertained the editor and wife at dinner, Sunday afternoon. No other guests were present. The dinner party was little unlike a family reunion.

Mrs. Elgin makes her friends feel homelike always, and this was not unlike other occasions.

Mrs. J. A. Trimble is chaperooning the charming Misses Hazel Gottschalk and Theresa Anderson on their vacation at San Diego, seeing the Exposition and other places of interest before resuming their studies at Polytechnic High School.

Dr. J. T. Hill occupied the pulpit for Rev. Hughes while he is on his vacation. Sunday morning he took as his text, "Lovest thou me," the words that Jesus said to Simon and Peter. He is a pulpit orator and a graduate of the University of Southern California and a very able speaker.

At the First A. M. E. church the Rt. Rev. H. B. Parks of Chicago preached one of the greates sermons ever delivered in that church Bishop Parks like Bishops Heard, Flipper, Turner, Williams and Gaines is a native of Georgia.

Rev. Driver preached Tuesday night at the tent on South Fair Oaks avenue, Rev. J. Gordon McPherson is in charge of the meeting and is making a success of it.

Nelson Weatherton has professed hope in Christ and joined Scott Chapel Sunday.

It is reported that Rev. E. W. Kinchen will soon become the pastor of Scott Chapel in this city.

The City Mission Board met at Tabernacle Baptist church Monday, September 4 to organize the work of the city mission, auxiliary to the Bapaist convention. Mrs. S. B. Strickland was elected president, Mrs. I. H. Ford secretary, Mrs. A. E. Webber. Members of board: Mesdames C. Hughes, Alice Bbony, D. M. Jennings, J. E. Freeman, M. Thomas, Nethe Broomfield, M. E. Scott, S. E. Colen, M. J. Davis, Pauline Hubert, L. L. Moore, A. E. Weber, I. H. Ford, S. B. Strickland.

HIAWATHA WEDDING FEAST GREAT SUCCESS

Tuesday evening at Trinity Auditorium the "Wedding Feast," from S. Coleridge Taylor's Hiawatha, was staged under the direction of Prof. Robt. G. Jackson, of Western University.

More than a thousand people filled the first floor and the galleries of Trinity to witness the biggest musical feat ever undertaken by tthe Los Angeles people.

The impersonation of Indian characters and Indian scenes by the entire cast was well taken, but especially good were characters portrayed by Miss Antoinette Young as "Minnehaha," Mr. Harvey Patton as "Pau-puh-Keewis," and Miss Anita Thompson as the Indian dancer. In grace and ease Miss Thompson is in a class by herself as a dancer. Every movement, even the wave of a hand, suggest beauty, not outward but soul deep. We predict for her a future in the art of dancing not yet made by an American girl.

The other numbers on the program of especial merit were the contralto solo by Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters. Mrs. Winters' voice is rich and melodious and was in excellent trim upon this occasion.

Mrs. C. Hulbert, president and and the few members of the Allen Allensworth Club, who worked with her untiringly deserve great credit for the success of the affair.

Conference Notes

Rev. Edwards of Fresno was asked where could he go next year? He replied by asking the Eagle man if he had an opening.

One of the old war horses of the convention is Rev. A. Simpson of Riverside, who is also a foremost business man of that city, but stands ready to obey the call of the bishop at all times.

From rumors that cannot be traced, the conference, or at least a part of it, is looking for a wedding to be pulled off this session.

Rev. J. M. Brown of Oakland, a friend of many years' standing of the editor, is one of the shining lights of this Conference.

Rev. J. H. C. Redd says he is always at the command of his leader. He served in Riverside last year.

When Rev. J. L. Craw's report was read in the conference and during the demonstration which followed the same, an up-state preacher was heard to remark: "That man is sure some hustler!"

* * *

Rev. J. A. Duncan of Santa Barbara, the church builder, has made good with a vengeance. THE EAGLE is especially pleased at his success and hopes for a continuance of the same.

Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson is the busy man of the conference, as delegation after delegation are waiting on him.

Rev. Triggs of the Watts church is one of the substantial members of the conference.

Rev. A. O. Steele of Redlands, who has been on the sick list for so long is much improved.

Rev. Harvey of San Diego is serving his first year in the California Conference, coming here from the Missouri Conference.

Rev. Harbert made a very excellent report from San Francisco. He is one of the leading ministers of the entire west, and can always be depended upon for results.

Rev. B. R. Guy of Sacramento, accompanied by Mrs. Guy, brings from the Capital City a good report. The Reverend is also an old-time friend of the editor of this paper, and is one who we can heartily recommend for his sterling worth.

* * *

Rev. Fletcher of Stockton, although in poor health, has done very well at this point, and despite his ill health, reported at this conference.

Rev. J. W. Price of Bakersfield will not go back to his appointment again. The EAGLE makes this as our forecast. The reason: He has served the limit. Rev. Price is one of the bright stars in the ministry, and need not worry, as no doubt he will be well cared for.

* * *

Rev. E. R. Johnson of the Furlong Tract church has done a good service and comes to Conference with the satisfaction of doing his best. The best report in the history of the church: 50 per cent. increase.

Sister Eliza Warner is a feature at this session. She leads the hosts militant. To see her work is, indeed, an inspiration. She was also appointed as a delegate to the National Educational Conference at Washington, D. C., by Governor Hiram Johnson.

Rev. Dyett of Pasadena is much improved in health this session. The people are by no means ready to let him go, and if many of them have their way he will remain at least another year.

Rev. F. E. Moten says that he will, in all probability, transfer. He made an excellent report from Ward Chapel. His dollar money report was $8.00 in excess of last year's report.

The Women's Missionary meeting of Thursday was a feature of the conference.

Rev. Judkins of Duarte ably held up the banner that place.

Rev. C. A. Harris of Pomona brings in a great report from that section, and is content to rest on his laurels.

SOMETHING NEW! TO ENJOY POURSELF ON ADMISSION DAY! WHAT? A LOTTO PARTY

To be given by the Native Sons and Daughters Club of California No. 1, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Russell, Saturday evening, Sept. 9. Come and win a prize. We invite you to come and enjoy the evening with us, be you from the North, South, East or West.

About 15 members of the Hiawatha chorus under the direction of Prof. R. G. Jackson did great credit to themselves and to their race on last Sunday night, when they sang to a crowded house at the M. E. Church on Sixth and Hill streets. Not only did these singers lift the souls of their listeners to the heighest pinnacle, but Prof. Jackson thrilled them, when his fingers caused the great pipe organ to talk out "My Old Kentucky Home."

Mrs. M. L. Gottschalk has returned from a much enjoyed two weeks stay in the northern cities of Oakland and San Francisco, being the house guest of Mrs. M. Judge.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards entertained at a five-course dinner at their home, in honor of Mr. S. L. Daniels, of San Diego; Mrs. J. A. Trimble, Mr. Brown, and Miss Carnie Clifton, of Los Angeles. The house was beautifully decorated with choice carnations, after which the party motored to Pasadena, visiting Busch's Gardens and other points of interest.

Rally Club No. 3 of New Hope Baptist Church, Mrs. W. E. Captain, gave a pink tea on Sept. 1, at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Janes, 1233 Tennessee St. The decorations were notable for their unusual manner of arrangement. Presiding at the tea table was Mr. J. S. Smith. Another delightful feature was the wonderful ability of the little Misses Ardelia Robinson and Ardelia Booker as tea maids. Honorable mention of those present during the afternoon and evening were Mrs. C. C. Lewis and daughter Emma, Dr. Leonard Stovall, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards, Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Rev. W. E. Kinchen, Miss A. Robinson of El Paso, Tex.; Rev. and Mrs. A. Lively, Attorney W. O. Tyler, Attorney C. A. Jones and others. The affair was indeed a grand success.

As each day goes by Sisters of the Mysterious Ten are returning from the Grand Temple session, which convened in Oakland, about 50 having been in attendance from Los Angeles. The city of Oakland did herself much credit, havin gappropriated $250 for the entertaining of this grand body, and the committee of brothers and sisters did not fail to spend it for the pleasure of all present, and everyone returning is loud in praise of the north. The session was one of the best held in ten years.

Most of the grand officers were re-elected. Those returning this week are Mrs. Sarah P. Shores, Mrs. Emma Duncan, Mrs. M. L. Gottschalk, Mrs. A. Oliver, Mrs. M. Woodyard, Mrs. P. E. Robinson, Mrs. Celia Francis, Mrs. W. Willingham, Mrs. E. Clansell.

Mrs. Hudson, sister of Mrs. Rilda, of Phoenix, who came to Los Angeles from Arizona for a visit of several months, was called home suddenly to the bedside of her daughter.

Mrs. J. J. Leggett and daughter Cornelia are enjoying a pleasant stay at the beach.

The Knights and Daughters of Tabor are spreading their wings. Oakland will soon boast of a Temple and Tabernacle.

Mrs. Lydia Morris arrived Tuesday from Marshall, Tex., and is stopping with her friends, the Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ashford, of 1565½ East Adams St., are the proud parents of a 12-pound baby boy. Mother and baby are doing fine.

We are glad to note that the Rev. Mrs. F. H. Davis is convalescing from an accident accrued from a trip on the P. E. cars to the beach.

The wedding of Miss M. Nance and Temple Thornton took place at the home of the young man's parents, on East 25th St., last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Ministers' Wives Alliance will hold its regular meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Byers, Pico and Paloma Streets. All ministers' wives are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Hays Coleman left, Sept. 1, returning to their home in San Antonio, Tex., by automobile. They will be greatly missed by all friends and in church circles, as they were energetic workers of Wesley M. E. Church.

The Eagle flies all over the jurisdiction of the A. M. E. Church in California, and we know whereof we speak when we say that the service of Rev. J. H. Wilson as a presiding elder can be equaled only by a few and excelled by none. He is a man who is always on the job.

Free Seventh Day Adventists church, 1446 West 36th St. The Berean Literary Society will be favored with selections by the Harris Bilbrew Jubilee Singers and by the pleasing violinist, Mrs. S. P. Dones, Sunday, Sept. 17, at 3 p. m.

The entire program will be a splendid one. Hearty welcome to all.

NOTICE

If you have ever been a student of Western University, this means you. Pres. H. T. Keeling has sent a message to all Western University students in Los Angeles. This message is to be delivered by Prof. Jackson, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 10, at 12 o'clock at the home of Mr. A. Murdocks, 982 Austin St. All W. U. students be present.

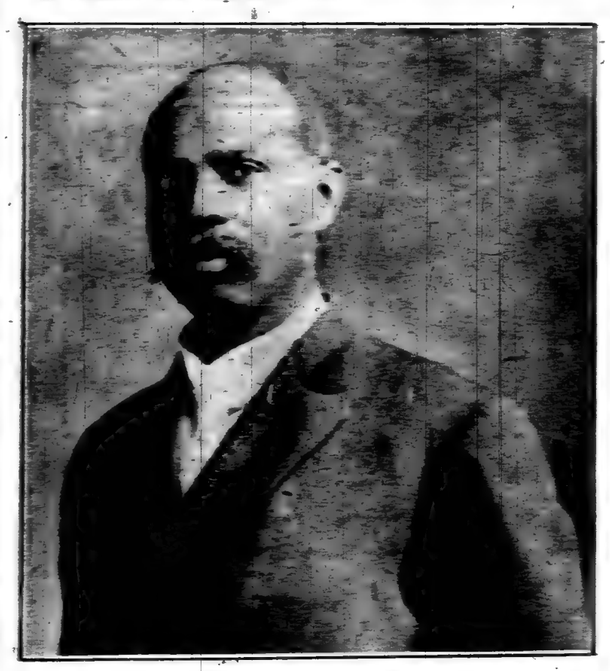
California Conference of A. M. E. Church In 49th Annual Session.

FORTY-NINTH SESSION OF THE CALIFORNIA A. M. E. CONFERENCE CONVENES AT FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH ON LAST WEDNESDAY

The 49th session of the A. M. E. Conference convened at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday, with the Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks presiding.

The churches from throughout the state were represented by their pastors and delegates. The Bishop did not waste much time in preliminaries, but got right down to the business of the session and after the roll call of the conference, introduced Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson, who delivered the annual sermon. Rev. Wilson was at his best and made a masterly effort. At its conclusion he was complimented on all sides for the same. At its conclusion the visitors were introduced. Among them were Rev. Kinchen, Frof. Green, and others.

The afternoon session was taken up with reports from the various churches. They all showed a wonderful progress along all lines. The conference adjourned to meet for the reception at 8 p. m.



Wednesday Evening's Reception.

Wednesday evening was the grand reception in honor of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks and the members of the conference, their wives and delegates.

The church was filled to overflowing to witness the program which was as follows:

1. Music—First A. M. E. church choir.
2. Prayer—Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor Phillips Chap., C. M. E. church.
3. Music—Choir.
4. Introduction of Master of Ceremonies, Rev. J. Logan Craw.
5. Remarks—Master of Ceremonies; Atty. J. H. Kelly.
6. Welcome in behalf of the Fifth District and the Men of the church—Atty. Willis O. Tyler.
7. Welcome in behalf of the women of the Church—Mrs. E. Warner.
8. Music.
9. Welcome in behalf of the Inter-Denominational Ministerial Alliance and Baptists of the city—Dr. H. D. Prowd, Pastor of Second Baptist Church.
10. Welcome in behalf of the Sunday School—Supt. John W. Hale.
11. Music.
12. Welcome in behalf of The Young Folks of the Church—Miss Elsie Scott.
13. Welcome in behalf of the Press and Community—Hon. J. B. Bass, Editor the California Eagle.
14. Response—Rt. Rev. H. B. Parks, Bishop of Fifth District.
15. Music.
16. Benediction—Rev. W. J. Byers, Pastor of Zion A. M. E. Church.

Refreshments in the Banquet Hall.

Rev. J. H. Wilson, Presiding Elder.

Each participant acquitted himself with high credit. At its conclusion the Bishop's response was a masterly exposition of African Methodism, and the part it has played in the mighty march of progress of this nation. More than 780,000 members are enrolled under its banner and are marching on to victory.

At the conclusion of the program the audience repaired to the banquet hall, where they were served with refreshments by the ladies of the Auxiliary department.

The Second Day Session of the Annual Conference.

Not until noon Thursday did the Mrs. Sunsee fit to brighten the universe with her dazzling rays, but even though a heavy mist fell upon the earth, within the walls of the First A. M. E. Church there was a brightness not unlike the rays of the sun in warmth and splendor.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Parks occupied his seat at the helm; about him sat his boys, as he was wont to call them. On the Bishop's face one great smile lingered, and sometimes when a little shadow would steal its way across his brow the smile continued to stay.

The morning session was full of interest as the reports from the churches in the district came in.

Report of Presiding Elder Wilson

To the Bishop and Members of the California Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in Annual Conference Assembled: Greetings—

We rejoice that it has pleased our all wise and ever beneficent Father, in His just and wise management of the affairs of men, to preserve our lives, and enable us to again assemble here, in this, our 49th Annual Session with unbroken ranks. While many of the faithful membership, to whom we have administered, have been called to their great reward, numbering among them some who might be styled "the land marks" of our Methodism on the coast, a merciful Providence has preserved unbroken the ranks of our itinerancy; together with our supernumerate fathers in Israel. And by the grace of God we are here to answer to the first roll call in the beginning of the second century of our organic existence.

Sir, we would be derelict and unworthy of a place in the Church of Allen, were we unmindful of the heroic deeds and the self-sacrificing lives of the fathers and apostles of our Methodism that made this day of grace possible to us. And we take it that the measure of our love and appreciation for them, and the work they have accomplished, will be the measure of our loyalty and devotion to the legacy they have left us—the African Methodist Episcopal Church—with her one hundred years of achievement for God and humanity, battering down barriers, opening doors of hope and opportunities, taking the slaves and chattels of the earth, and making of them kings and priests unto God, teaching so successfully the lessons of self help and self-dependence to a people who hitherto knew not how to provide for themselves, demonstrating to the world the Negro's ability to govern himself, and manage large business concerns, and above all else, teaching, as no other organization the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

First A. M. E. Church, where Conference is in Session.

While there are not a few that love the church for what it is, for what it has done, and for wha it is destined to accomplish in the centuries to come, the lamentable fact remains that there are some among us who are not of us; who are diligent in their efforts, in their words, and in their deeds to destroy the very institution they profess to love and revere.

As there are Socialists and Anarchists in the body politic, who inveigh against law and order, and those chosen for enforcement of law; so, into our Methodism have crept those of like temperament, passions and darings. It is a lamentable fact that in our ministry, in our officery, and in our laity, are those who neither believe our doctrines, or love our Discipline.

There are those who dare to kindle strange fires upon our altars, who repudiate our form of government, and applaud others who rebel against it.

When we review the achievements of the century just past, when we consider the legacy left us by the long line of our noble ancestors, and when we remember thier great love for the doctrine and discipline of this, our common heritage, the African Methodist Episcopal Church, we rise in our might and say, as says tha state, socialism and anarchism MUST GO! In this conference, I am sorry to say, are men who blush to speak evil, not only of their brother ministers, but also of the Bishops of our church, and for no other cause than that ministers have failed to receive the appointment they desired; hence by their insinuations and innuendos succeed in arraigning against the heads of the church and against the ministry not to their liking that class of our membership who are ever ready to meddle in the affairs of others; to fight the battles of others, or to carry the slime of others.

Then, too, in some of the churches of this conference, we have officers who make no secret of their opposition to the powers that be; not only are they uncharitable, but unreasonable to the degree of untruthfulness in their remarks in private and in public in expressing that opposition. And stranger still is the fact that we have ministers who profess to be loyal African Methodist preachers who continue to nominate and place in office this class of men. I warn you today that the church must rid itself of the disgruntled trouble-breeder, who delights to sow the seed of discord, whether he be in the pulpit or in the pew or they will clog the wheels of our Methodism on the Coast.

Notwithstanding the malcontents and the ne'er-do-wells, the rank and file of the California ministry, the men who are bringing results; taking care of every interest of the church of Allen; are true to the core, and the reports they bring to you at this conference are but slight indications of the real hardships and sacrifices through which they have passed. The following is but a brief mention of each:

REDLANDS—Rev. A. O. D. Steele, Pastor

Redlands has served as a drydock this year, in which Brother Steele has remained for repairs. It is well known to us all how broken in health he has been for the last three or four years; but by doing light church work, and getting out and roughing it, he is is fa st returning to his former self, and feels able to assume heavier responsibilities.

Redlands has a splendid citizenship. Some of the most thrifty, industrious, honest and loyal members of our communion reside here. But, unfortunately, their number is small, and there seems to be but little to attract and hold the newcomer. So, there is no appreciable increase in the population, no increase in the membership of the church.

SAN BERNARDINO—Rev. J. C. Lockhart, Pastor

The new church building which was in the way of construction when the conference met last, has been completed. The old church building remodeled and turned into a parsonage, the membersship increased to 83, with a debt of $1879.45.

Unfortunate for the reputation of the place, matters got beyond control in settling the claims for the new building. A loan of $3,000 was negotiated from a private individual; $1,500 of it was received and first mortgage given when the work was completed, and the other $1,500 needed, the lender had changed his mind, and refused to let them have it. Being now unable to secure the necessary amount elsewhere on second mortgage, the lumber man, to whom they owed $1,700, sued, got judgment, under which the property was advertised and sold. The lumber man being the highest and only bidder, the property was sold to him for $1,700, and he turned it back to the trustees for that amount plus the cost of court proceedings. The people have obut recoveredi rom the shock and humiliation of having their church sold, and are determined to meet their obligations. This property is well worth $5,000, with a debt of $1,879.45. Brother Lockhart has done a splendid work in this charge.

POMONA—Rev. C. H. Harris, Pastor

Brother Harris is doing about all that could be expected in this appointment. There are but few of our people in this city, and, as usual, they are not all united upon any one thing. Yet, with the faithful few the year's work has been accomplished, and the standard of the charge upheld.

DUARTE—Rev. H. Judkins, Pastor

This is Brother Judkins' first year in the itinerant ministry, and a brilliant beginning it is. He found Duarte in an almost hopeless condition, the result of past experiences. The few members who claimed membership were discouraged and scattered. He has succeeded in gathering them together, inspiring new hope and greatly reviving the work.

RIVERSIDE—Rev. J. H. C. Redd, Pastor

The debt that threatened trouble at the beginning of the year

Rt. Rev. H. Blanton Parks, Presiding Bishop California Conference

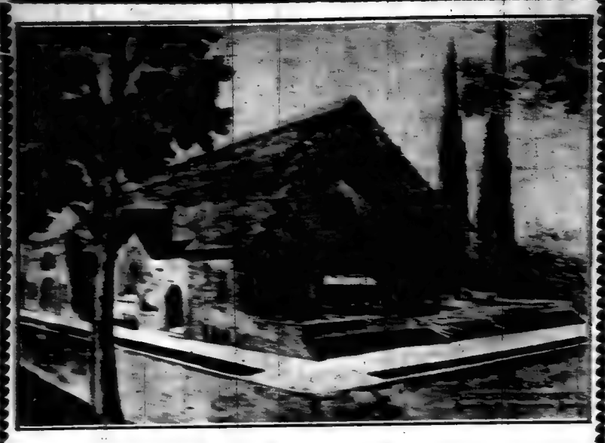
has been reduced, creditors reassured, so that in the future the management of affairs will be less difficult. Brother Redd has labored hard this year, meeting with much opposition from some of his officers and members as a result of misunderstanding on minor matters. But in spite of all, he has succeeded in keeping the banner afloat.

WATTS—Rev. Geo. L. Trigg, Pastor

Nothwithstanding the discouraging circumstances encountered on entering this field, Brother Trigg has done an excelelnt year's work. Brother Brown, after his removal from this charge by your Reverence at the last sitting of our conference, retnged to harass them for what he styled the balance of his last year's salary. Failing to meet a ready response, he caused suit to be brought for the collection of the same. This being but a mission, and having no funds with which to employ counsel to defend their interest in court, a new pastor and wife for them to support as best they could, I assumed the larger portion of the responsibility, retained council and met the case in court, which was tried, and decided in favor of the church. Overcoming the effects of this litigation and contention, the pastor and people have rounded out a very successful year. A new and more desirable location, on a popular thoroughfare is being secured, upon which the church building is to be moved. The population of this commonwealth is ever increasing, the people acquiring their own homes; so the future of this charge is hopeful.

LONG BEACH

Long Beach is a watering place, where our citizenship is transient, and consequently a transient membership. We have 14 members here, with $165.41 in bank for the purchase of a church home. It would be wise to continue our efforts in this field. Rev. M. J. Johnson, who felt that his usefulness in this mission was ended, resigned in July, and since he was accomplishing no good, we accepted his resignation. Since then the work has been without a regular pastor. I would recommend that this work be attached to Watts, and designated Watts Circuit.



LOS ANGELES—Second Church, Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor

This has been a red letter year in the history of this appointment. For the first time in its existence they have met their current bills and made a payment of two hundred dos on the note had

COME ONE, COME ALL

TO the great gromp breaking of the new Macedonia Baptist Church in Watts, Sunday, September 10th, at 2 p. m. Rev. Dr. McWilliams will speak, and music will be furnished by the New Hope Baptist Church Choir, and a 50 voice Chorus of Watts. All Ministers and congregations and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Take San Pedro or Long Beach local car, get off at Aliba, walk one block west. REV. L. H. WASHINGTON, Pastor.

M. M. SMITH, Clerk.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Sunday was marked by two impressive services, each being a communion service.

Rev. J. D. Pettigrew of Santa Ana was present and preached at the morning service, taking as his text "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the son of man be lifted up."

The pastor preached at the evening service. Subject, "The remembrance of Christ's earthly life and death."

The usual services on next Sunday. Subject for the morning, "The indomitable witness." evening, "Robbing God."

Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. under the leadership of Bro. Joseph; topic, "The greatness of God."

Strangers are cordially welcomed to all services.

Birch Street Christian Church

At this writing we are pleased to say that our pastor, Robert La Touche of Paris, Texas, is now with us. He is a graduate of the Southwestern Christian Institute of Edwards, Miss., and comes to us highly recommended.

Last Sunday he brought to us a splendid gospel message and is even now conducting a revival and hopes to help the church much in every way. The revival will be continued all next week and we invite the public to all services.

1406 Newton St.

There will be special services Sunday. Bishop C. H. Phillips, A. M., M. D., D. D., will be present and will preach at 3 p. m. Communion services morning and evening. Baptism of infants at the afternoon services by Bishop Phillips.

Bishop Phillips, Rev. J. C. Anderson and Rev. Reeves made a flying trip to Berendo this week on business.

Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Preaching, 11 a. m., 3 and 8 p. m.

A. M. E. Zion

Last Sunday the pastor occupied the pulpit at both services. The subject at the morning service was "Satan's mission in the world." A splendid audience was in attendance and the service was inspiring.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach at both services and it is hoped that a fine audience will be out. This month will just about wind up the work of the conference year and great efforts are being made to close up in good shape.

Not having had more than one entertainment this year, the plans for a big series of entertainments beginning September 25 to last one week is just about perfected. For further information watch this paper.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

There was a spiritual feast at the church Sunday. The morning service was visited by the Holy spirit and there was rejoicing by the members. Sunday morning found Miss Moore at her post with a class of young ladies and Bro. A. D. Lacy, the teacher of the advance class, and Mrs. L. L. Moore, teacher of the primary class, and Superintendent Payne all at their post and each class was well represented.

At 6:30 the usual hour for opening the B. Y. P. U., Sister Moore called the session to order, with a goodly number. There was quite an instructive lesson taught by Rev. Sister Moore.

At 8 p. m. the pastor announced his text from Mark 1:15. "Repent ye and believe the Gospel." The text was divided into divisions: first, "Repentance;" second, "The exercise of faith;" third, "The Gospel." The pastor made plain that faith and repentance was the two essential acts to salvation.

A silver tableau, a treat of the season by the pastor's wife on the 27th. Don't miss the up-to-date affair. There will be a musical program rendered by the Providence choir on September 17. All are invited.

Collections for the day $75.75.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows Hall, Cor. 4th and Wall Sts.

Rev. K. P. Griggs, Pastor.

Sunday was a glorious day at the People's Independent church the pastor preached two more wonderful and impressive sermons. His morning text was from Prov. 4:18, evening, Matt. 12:46-47. It being monthly communion, the usual large crowd was present and partook of the Lord's supper. The services were indeed edifying.

The pastor, officers and members of this church do not intend for their church to be a burden upon the public, hence another progressive movement has been launched. They have decided that a special offering for the building fund be made on each first Sunday. The result of this effort last Sunday was $170.

Mt. Olive Baptist Church

3622 East First Street

Mt. Olive church which is now under the leadership of Rev. W. R. Hutchinson is making rapid progress along all lines, few young churches if any has made the progress that this church has made.

Mt. Olive can be truly proud of her young pastor, an able, fearless, God sent young man, calm and reserved in his manner and wisdom in purpose, who has won the hearts of his members, the good will and support of the community. Rev. Hutchinson is doing a great work in Boyle Heights in Christ's name.

The church has planned to have a Light and Paint Day next Sunday, a rally to raise money to paint the church and to hang a light in front. Some of the able ministers will aid in making the rally a success.

Rev. A. P. Ramsey will preach at 11 a. m; Rev. Byers, of A.M.E. church, at 2:30 p. m; Rev. Gill Folks at 8 p. m. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

CHOICE OF PLACE NAME.

Washington Selected for National Race Congress on Citizenship Rights.

Indicative Interest in National Get-together Meeting of Colored Americans to Make a Stand Against Proscription Points to Many Delegates From Many States.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 26, 1916.

The proposed National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress will be held in Washington, D. C., the latter part of September. After a canvass of the situation and receiving suggestions from many race champions over the country, Rev. Byron Gunner, of Hillburn, N. Y., president of the National Equal Rights League, which proposes and calls the congress in line largely of it's ninth annual meeting, announces the capital of the Nation as the consensus of opinion to hold this race congress an equality of rights. No place could be more fitting.

An Open Congress

This National Colored Congress is to be an open one, both to delegated persons and to individual representatives of the cause who attend on their own responsibility. It is to be free and open for race conference, action and declaration. The congress will organize itself independently. The Equal Rights League will call it to order and those assembled will then create the congress.

Aims of the Meeting

Racial fraternizing, mutual acquaintance, unity of spirit and of program, exchange of notes on local conditions, race unity of feeling and a future national working together for rights, a united declaration to the country of colored Americans on color proscription, are among the purposes of this gathering. No move will impress the white American public on our presence, numbers, capacity and spirit for equal rights like an actual national convention attended by large numbers of colored citizens from various states.

How to Get Up Delegates

Delegated representatives are quite advisable, and churches, civic and literary societies, fraternal organizations, political and other clubs are asked to elect and send delegates. The call asks that a Citizens Equal Rights Committee be formed by public spirited citizens in each community to work up interest, hold a public meeting and send representatives. Any person is at liberty to start such a committee. Act at once.

Secretary Wm. Monroe Trotter at 27 Cornhill, Boston, will be glad to receive suggestions and inquiries.

All together in 1916 and ON TO WASHINGTON.

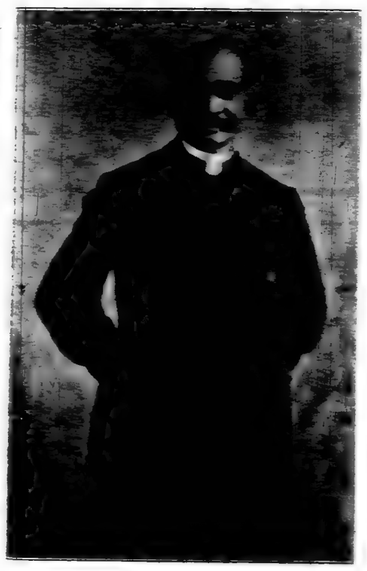
California Conference A. M. E. Church

October, and has raised and paid on the note due next October, one hundred dollars. Membership increased from 37, the report at last conference, to 53. The debt is now $984.00.

LOS ANGELES—Ward Chapel, Rev. F. F. Moton, Pastor

Brother Moton has labored hard this year, but for some cause the results we so much desired have not been realized. We had hoped for Ward to take second place in our Los Angeles work, but not so. Brother Moton has received many into the church, but many of them he has seen since. The fifty dollars given by the last conference, with an added fifteen dollars paid on the note, and I think that is all that they have been able to pay his year. However, I am still of the opinion that we should continue this work, for I believe its future possibilities are great.

SAN DIEGO—Rev. T. Allen Harvey, Pastor



The year opened with flattering prospects for a peaceful, happy and successful year's work, but they had not journeyed far together before friction arose, and throughout the year there has been a disagreement between the pastor and a large number of the members and former officers.

In this charge we have some splendid people, and good active church workers, who have been accustomed to doing such work in the way and the manner thought best and right. A number of clubs that had raised money for various purposes, and still retained it in the club treasuries, the officers and pastor thought should be turned over to the trustees; and one auxiliary that raised and paid one hundred dollars each year on the mortgage debt, without reference to the trustee board, they felt should pass through that channel, or that some member of the trustee board should go with them when payments were made. The effort to regulate these matters according to their idea was the beginning of the trouble that resulted in the pastor locking out officers and people, threatened lawsuits, controversies, appeals and a general perturbed condition throughout the year. But in spite of the trouble, the faction that remained loyal to the pastor, so far as the material side of the church life is concerned, has made the year's work a success, while, of course spiritual progress could not be expected during war times.

However, I believe it still possible to reunite these factions and save to the church this entire people.

BAKERSFIELD—Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Brother Price has finished this closes his fifth year in this charge. That his labors here have been blessed of God, the work accomplished stands as an evidence. He found them in an old dilapidated building of many years' standing; he leaves them in a neat, modern, up-to-date church that is a credit to the people and commensurate with its surroundings.

Dr. H. D. Brown, Pastor Second Baptist Church, Who Made a Notable Address on Behalf of the Ministers' Alliance at Reception.

Nowhere in the connection have we a people more faithful and loyal than here. Both pastor and people deserve great credit for the success of this work.

FRESNO AND BOWLES—Rev. S. E. Edwards, Pastor

We found it necessary to recommend to your Reverence that Bowles, formerly a part of the Fresno Circuit, but which had been detached, be again placed under the care of the pastor at Fresno. This done, the circuit has enjoyed a very successful year. Some of the members at Fresno feel that it is a detriment to the work there to have the pastor divide his time between two places; perhaps their contention has some merit, yet, for the greater good, since Bowles is not able of themselves to keep a pastor, and is deserving and has a great future possibility, I think it wise to continue them as a circuit.

STOCKTON—Rev. J. E. Fletcher, Pastor

Brother Fletcher has spent a peaceful and successful year. Having served this people two years at another time, he was well prepared to take up the work where his predecessor left off and carry it on to success.

SACRAMENTO—Rev. B. R. Guy, Pastor

This Metropolitan appointment has enjoyed three very pleasant years under the very efficient pastorate of Brother Guy. They have renovated the interior of the church, repapered, painted, laid new carpet and put things in first-class condition, paying for same as it was done. So, that an air of prosperity pervades St. Andrew.

MARYVILLE CIRCUIT—Rev. B. E. Edwards, Pastor

Marysville and Colusa have done nicely this year under the pastorate of Brother Edwards. While the membership is small, yet he has reduced the indebtedness on account of parsonage at Marysville more than one-half, and has the entire work in good condition.

RED BLUFF, CHICO AND RENO

At these points, we have had no pastor this year. By my quarterly visits, I have been able to keep the work alive. These are mission points, not many of our people at either place, yet they are deserving, and need the care of a pastor.

SANTA BARBARA—Rev. J. A. Duncan, Pastor

This appointment has enjoyed a year of unparalelled prosperity. It has gone at one leap from a mission with twelve members to a self-supporting station with a membership of———— The beginning of the year was a little dark, made so by the former pastor, Rev. A. J. Lewis, who refused to be removed from the charge, but instead, attempted to split the church; but God and the Right being on our side, we prevailed, and the result has been glorious.

Membership increased from 12 to ———.The old Chapel rolled to the rear of the lot and turned into a social hall, and one of the most cozy and invitting church edifices in the conference takes its place.

The old obligations have been met as they came due, current expenses met, a church well worth $3,500.00 erected, leaving a debt not exceeding $1,500.00. The pastor has labored hard and unselfishly. The people who have been very liberal and loyal, and a generous public are deserving of our highest appreciation for this work.

PASADENA—Rev. W. W. S. Dyett, Pastor

Rev. Dyett has served this congregation four successful years. Notwithstanding the fact he began the year physically weak, the result of his serious illness, he has nevertheless done the work of a master. The charge is in a healthy condition, the mortgage debt greatly reduced, and the membership, notwithstanding the fact that 22 have been dismissed with or without certificates, by reason of the increase, is pressing on toward the two hundred mark.

SAN FRANCISCO—Rev. R. H. Harbert, Pastor

This historic appointment is still on the upward trend. The closing of the P. P. I. Exposition threatened for a while to retard its progress, as many of our people who were left without employment went to other cities seeking a livelihood. Providentially, other positions were opened to us, and with their coming, Bethel took on new life. In the hour of our distress, through the kindness of our invincible leader, Bishop H. B. Parks, the Church Extension came to our rescue with five hundred dollars, which inspired the membership with new hope, and saved the church from embarrassment. With the trend of migration coming Bethelward, to me her future seems promising.

Attorney Willis O. Tyler, Whose Welcome Address Was a Masterpiece of Eloquence.

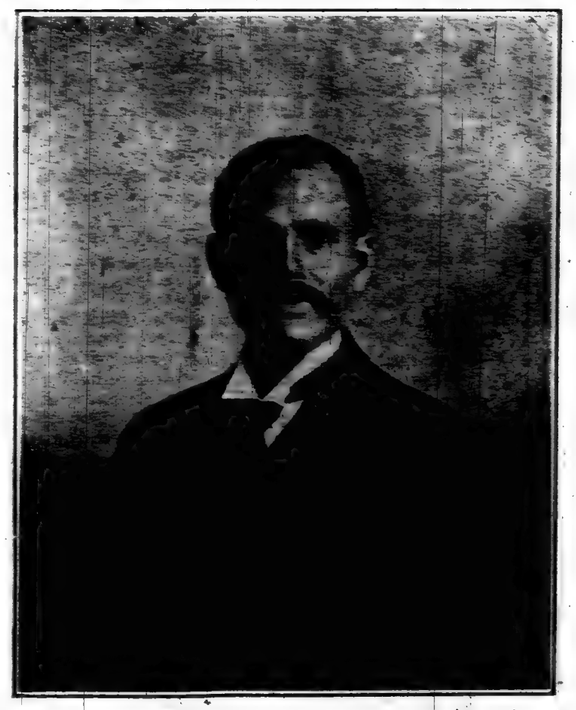
OAKLAND—Rev. J. M. Brown, Pastor



Oakland has enjoyed a year of peace and prosperity. They were without a pastor for more than a month after the adjournment of our conference in San Francisco, hence a spirit of unrest and dissatisfaction seemed to possess them for a time, but with the coming of the Rev. Mr. Brown, with his methodical manner and efficient pastoring, Oakland soon forgot her ills, and started out for greater achievements. The bonded debt has been reduced to $850.00; the roll increased from 198 full members and 25 probationers to 210 full members and 74 probationers. Once Oakland was a close rival for Los Angeles; but with a change of pastors, and a change of officers she fell far below her own standard. We are of the opinion, however, that under the leadership of such pastors as Rev. Brown, with loyal and faithful officers, this appointment will again take her rightful place in the California Conference.

LOS ANGELES, FIRST—Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

I need not here and now recount to you the ordeal through which this appointment has passed. The ugly scenes, the incriminating fabrications and the choleric conditions are all too vivid in our minds to require repetition here. Suffice it to say, in obedience to the trust committed to our care, we came, we saw, we conquered. I took charge, and held the church till the arrival of the Rev. Mr. Craw, who at once assumed the duties and responsibilities of this pastorate. His able sermons, and his wise leadership, supported by the loyal and faithful African Methodists of Eighth and Towoe have kept intact the First A. M. E. Church of Los Angeles.

While some of the dear ones of our communion whom we had come to believe ripe in Christian faith and practice were misguided and led from the ranks of the immortal Allen by a former pastor who had become choleric and insubordinate, there still remained the loyal, the gentle, the true and the tried to carry on the work of the Master to a glorious consummaion.

While the First A. M. E. Church, Los Angeles, has suffered no material loss by the attempted rent, while she has been able to maintain her standing in the community, and retain her lead among the churches of the city, nevertheless, to see a son of her bosom, loved and favored as he, a young man of promise, in a moment of choler to dash his birthright aside for a mess of pottage and lead astray the simple-minded ones who had loved and trusted him; and then, too, to persist in feeding upon the husk which the swine did eat, is indeed painful to every son of Allen; to every disciple of Christ. However painful that duty was, he being in a state of insubordination, still retaining the credentials of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and no other evangelical ecclesiastical body having received or passed upon them, thus giving the holder standing in the ecclesiastical world, the church could but bar him from her pulpits during the time of such misconduction.

Pastor and people deserve great credit for the able and righteous way in which the affairs of this church have been conducted. Obligations of two years' standing satisfied; a concrete floor laid, and the old basement renovated and made into a first-class social hall, to the credit of the men's club; a new carpet laid in the auditorium and parlor; financial obligations met with satisfaction, and the spiritual interest of the work never better.

Hence, we invite you to "Walk About Zion, and go round about her; number the hours thereof; mark ye well her bulwarks; consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generations following. For this God is our God forever and ever. He will be our guide even unto death."

Brown Case

Rev. I. A. Brown, removed from Watts and assigned to the Red Bluff Circuit by the last Conference, refused to go to his appointment, and returned to Watts, claiming a balance due him of $80.00 on last year's salary. The officers refused to acknowledge thec laim, and Brown sued the church for the amount.

The church was without money; with the incoming pastor and wife to provide for, and, therefore, wholly unable to employ counsel to protect their interest in court. This being a critical point, with the membership already divided and discouraged, we thought it best not to let the suit win by default. I therefore employed Mr. Willis O. Tyler, attorney-at-law, a staunch African Methodist, and learned in the law and customs of the church, as in the lawso f the commonwealth, who met the issue in court and won the suit for the church. The officers of the church signed charges and specifications against the Rev. Brown for this act, and, notwithstanding he had announced his withdrawal from the church through the papers, he refused to surrender his credentials. I, therefore, called a committee composed of Revs. F. F. Moton, E. R. Johnson and J. Logan Craw, who heard the testimony, found him guilty as charged, and suspended him until the meeting of the conference.

Lewis Case

Rev. A. J. Lewis, who served as pastor of our church at Santa Barbara last year, and assigned to Bowles at our last conference, refused to go, but remained in Santa Barbara and attempted the organization of an independent church, but miserably failed. He also sent me his resignation. I demanded his credentials; he refused to surrendern them, and I notified him that action would be taken against him at this conference. I did not think it wise to incur the expense of carrying a committee to Santa Barbara.

Gregg Case

Rev. N. P. Gregg, who was removed from this pastorate, did not leave, but has remained in the city, leader of an independent organization. He still holds credentials of the church. You having transferred him, etechnically at least, took him from my jurisdiction. But that the church has jurisdiction over her credentials, there can be no question. He being in rebellion, his credentials should be voided, or canceled.

District Meetings

In keeping with our custom, we have held two district meetings. For the Southern District, we met in Riverside, April 5. Every pastor in the Southern District except two was present, with a splendid representation of Sunday School workers and ladies of the W. M. M. S. Profitable sessions were held, and much inspiration and impetus given to the work. Mrs. H. Judkins was elected District Superintendent, and Mr. George M. Warner elected to the Conference.

In the north, we met at Marysville, April 12. All the pastors except two were there, and all the Schools except three were represented. The meeting was enthusiastic and profitable. Mrs. A.

Only a few more fleeting weeks of Wilson and hard times.

Truckling to the labor bosses will hardly save President Wilson's hide in the coming elections in November.

GETTING READY FOR THE FRAY

Just at present the political forces of the various parties and of indiyiduals are laying out their plans of work on the trestle board and ere long the finish race will be on in earnest.

The Wet and Dry forces are also, it is said, planning to launch a vigorous campaign, and this being the case the people can look forward to some lively milling between now and the first Tuesday in November.

MESSED UP THE PARTY

All that we can say relative to the present political situation in municipal politics is that it is a MESS. The whole party of five seems to be disheveled by the trend of events. The EAGLE believes in clean politics and we trust that after all it is not so bad as it looks and that as a result of the pending Grand Jury's investigation the innocence of the solid five will be established.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE, WELCOME

This week we have in our midst the preachers and laymen of the A. M. E. connection, in conference assembled and we will say to this great body as to all others who are really doing the things that mark progress and uplift, that we are more than pleased to have you in our midst, because you bring to us the fruits of your labor in the shape of Progress, and if as a Christian organization you report progress it means the progress of the whole race. So we are always proud to have near us in our very midst these forces which are doing so much to make history for this people on the Pacific Coast and we can hurl the message back over the rockies to our brothers in the East, that we too are keeping pace with this mighty march of Progress.

Ascending the Heights

Rev. J. Logan Craw is a young man, but by dint of energy and rendering meritorious service to whatever he was commissioned to do, has carved for himself at this early age an enviable record, and without doubt will continue to rise because his work commends him. His great service to this community cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, he came here when the boat was rocking in a rough sea, and he steadied the boat and brought it into a peaceful harbor. Los Angeles is proud of Rev. Craw and his estimable helpmate, who has been of such helpful service, not only to Rev. Craw, but to the people of this church and city as well, and we have no other thought than for their return for another conference year.

URGING BETTER CONDUCT FROM OUR YOUNG FOLK ON STREET CARS AND IN PUBLIC PLACES

The conduct of some of our young people on street cars and in public places is reprehensible, and for the betterment of conditions of all concerned it is to be hoped that parents, guardians and others interested in our youth, and the young people themselves ,will take in consideration the reflection it casts on the Race and act accordingly. Loud and boisterous language, an over exuberance of expressed exhaltation, of one another telling everybody on a street car your business should be eschewed and the strong arm of the law should fall on all who use profane and obscene language in public places and on street cars.

Western University

The splendid contribution to Western University by the great meeting at 8th and Towne church on Thursday evening, is one indeed of which those who gave can rest assured that their sacrifice is greatly appreciated and the cause an eminently worthy one. Western University is doing great work in the field of education, each year she is turning out graduates who are going forth to all sections, advancing the slogan of Progress and Efficiency to the colored Race from the Middle to the Far West. Western University, therefore, is a school worth while and deserving of the support of the people of this section on the largest scale.

Hughes was re-elected District Superintendent. Mr. Wm. Churchill was elected delegate to the Conference.

The Sunday School work in the conference is in fine condition. Every charge in the conference has a school, well officered, and using the literature of the church.

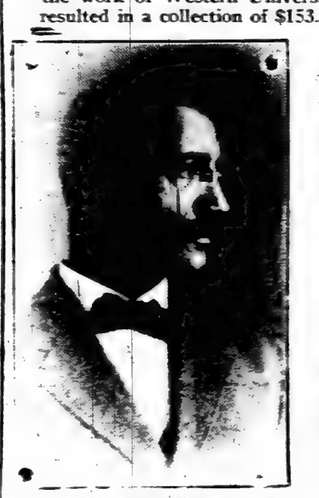
The Allen's Christian Endeaavor work is not what it should be. In some of our churches it seems difficult to keep it alive, while in others there is none.

New Work

We have attempted the organizatiion of no new work this year, as we have not the men, theright kind of men to supply it with after organization.

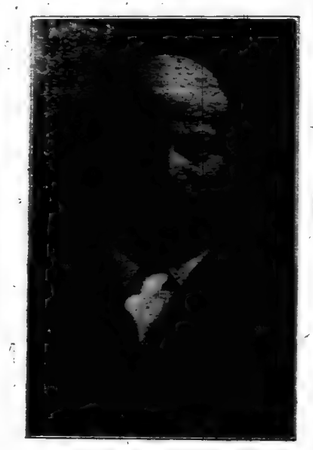
Thus closes our work for the conference year. Thanking God for the opportunity of being of some service in His Vineyard; for the Church of Allen; for the superior quality of her episcopacy; for her self-sacrificing ministry, and for her loyal and devoted membership, I have the honor to subscribe myself,

Your obedient servant,
J. HENRY WILSON,
Presiding Elder.



THURSDAY EVENING

Was Education Evening of the Conference, which was also Pasadena night. Rev. Dyett was in charge of the program, which was rendered to an audience that taxed the capacity of the big church.



The program was highly creditable in every respect, and the music rendered by the choir and orchestra from the Crown City was all that could be asked. After reading the report of the Educational Committee of the Conference by Rev. R. H. Harbert, Rev. Dyett introduced Mr. Harold Prince, who delivered an address on education. It was an able dissertation along the lines of the educational advancement of the Race, and especially the part that the church is playing in the same. Great was the applause in recognition of his effort.

Mr. Walter Dyett played the violin, and so pleased was the great gathering, he was forced to respond to an encore.

Bishop Parks closed the exercises by timely remarks on the work of Western University and made an appeal which resulted in a collection of $153.37 for that institution, which is a record-breaker for the California Conference.

Friday's Session

The Conference is continuing in its routine of work. Friday night Rev. B. R. Guy preached. Saturday will be the last day, and Sunday night the Bishop will read the appointments and disappointments for the ensuing year.

An Excellent Cuisine

The crowning feature of entertaining the Conference, has been the elaborate feeding accommodations. Each day one of the different auxiliaries of the church has had charge of the dining hall and all give the highest praise for the efficiency of the same. The following has been the order of the week:

Wednesday

Stewardess Auxiliary Board, Mrs. Eliza Warner, President; ably assisted by all the members of the same.

Thursday

Sisetr M. N. Harney had charge of the dining hall, assisted by Sister Fanny Warner and members of the Auxiliary Board.

Friday

The Mite Missionary Board served the meals and refreshments. Mrs. J. L. Craw, President; assiste dby the members of that board.

Saturday

The Deaconess and Young Folks A. B. O. U. T. Club will serve the meals and refreshments. Sister E. J. Stewart, President; assisted by the members.

Sunday

The Men's Cooperative Club, of which Mr. E. Bartlett is president, will serve the dinner, assisted by his corps of men workers for the church.

A GREAT DAY IN ZION

Womans Day

Celebrated by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the A. M. E Zion Church, corner Pico and Paloma Sts., Sunday, Oct 1st, at 3 p. m. Come and lend a helping hand for this great cause of Missionary work.—Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor.

EXPLAINED.

We are sorry that some objections have come from members of the Thimble Club regarding the article which appeared in the last issue. We have the deepest reverence and respect for the members of this Club. We are proud of the grade of American womanhood which they represent.

What has been written is not an effort to assail the intelligence of any member of the Club. We have only perverted our own intelligence by arbitrary reference to theories assumed for the purpose of argument; a hypothesis of what might naturally be expatiated upon by a refined and sensitive type of Colored Women's Contingent.

It is the special prerogative of every individual to resent any undue familiarity, but in a refined way. H. D. G.

THE GIRL ORATORESS

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Myrtle Anderson, the girl oratoress, addressed the people of Monrovia at the Zion Methodist Church. This young lady is making a wonderful career for herself as a speaker. It is always a treat to hear her, for she holds her audiences spell-bound. We expect to see another Ida B. Wells and a Nannie Burroughs in this young lady. Not only are her addresses masterful and eloquent, but her deliverance is forceful and convincing. She has taken up the race problem and in her forceful, earnest and diplomatic manner she is determined to help solve this great problem. She deserves and needs the co-operation and encouragement of the public.

Anyone wishing to come in touch with her can do so by phone West 2052, or address 1135 Hobart Boulevard.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, desire to thank our many friends and acquaintances for their many kind acts and words during the illness of our father, and of the tenderness and care of friends at his death and funeral.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guarantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. An occasion of festivity was well attended by the elite of the city last Friday night. Many new members were enrolled.

Miss Edith Thompson, who has completed her education at Quinslare college, has returned to the city and was out introducing many of the fancy steps. She made many of the professionals sit down and take notice. Her introduction was grand, considering she had no professional partner, but when it comes to waltzing, Mrs. McDonald masters those steps so perfect that it makes the man who wrote "Baby Shoes" want to lay down his feet just for one dance with her.

Mrs. Simpson, who is always looking her best, was out.

Mrs. W. D. Saunders seemed to be a masterpiece at any thing.

A certain young lady refused to dance wit a certain young man because she was not introduced. The question was she thought he could not dance, but she was sadly mistaken. We thought it was so sweet of her to apologize afterwards. If you are a member of the Gala it does not necessitate an introduction. In fact, it was one of the most enjoyable evenings they had had for some time. The following were present: Mrs. E. Thompson, Mrs. F. Tate, Mrs. E. Carter, Mrs. Kyric Busby, Mrs. H. Simpson, Mrs. G. Hayden, Miss Edith Thompson, Miss Rosslyn Harmon, Miss A. Hobbs, Miss Ruth Jenkins, Mr. E. Thompson, Mr. Frank Ellis, Mr. W. Thompson, Mr. O. L. Goodwin, Mr. H. Winston, Mr. M. T. Laws, Mr. C. P. Denson, Mr. A. Banks, Mr. D. Bardger, Mr. F. Blunett, Mr. W. Gafford, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams, Mr and Mrs. W. D. Saunders, Mr and Mrs. W. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickerson.

The invitations are now out for the Hallowe'en entertainment given by the Fidelity Lodge at Masonic Hall, October 31, 1916.

K. of P.'s gave a "jinks" last Friday night at the Masonic hall for the benefit of explaining the love and friendship between Damon and Pythias, and the honor of being a member of said lodge. Mr. G. W. Meadows introduced Mr. G. A. Ramsey as master of ceremonies. After a short address he introduced Mr. Green, C. C. of Los Angeles, after which they called upon Mr. M. T. Laws of the Eagle staff, who told of the many interesting points of being a member of the wonderful order. There were no ties any more binding than those of Damon and Pythias. Many speeches were made during the evening, including the short speech by Mr. McDonald, which was the topic of the evening. It was one of the most enjoyable evenings for many moons. Many defunct members and visitors went away well pleased with the meeting. Refreshments were served to the many visitors. Much credit is due the members of the P. L. Dunbar Lodge No. 2. Those present were Mr. C. Burkerson, Odd Goodwin, W. Thompson, W. L. McDonald, M. Laws, W. H. Johnson, I. M. Wooden, G. A. Ramsey, O. Moore, T. Harris, W. G. Meadows, Mr. Winston, John Carr, Mr. Moore, John Cole, A. Hamilton, Mr. Lourie, J. T. Tucker, W. D. Cleveland, C. Whiteside.

The Black and Tan Orchestra of San Diego triumphed again last Wednesday night, when they played to a crowded hall of music lovers. Many strangers were out: in fact, they always are, as it seems to be the place to get acquainted. All seem to have just one round of pleasure. Those who missed it were asking themselves the question: "Where did Robinson Crusoe go with his man Friday?" On Wednesday night he went to hear the Black and Tan Orchestra. We are told that wherever there are strange men, there are strange women.

So, don' forget the big special event that is now being planned by this great orchestra. Watch for the date later.

Miss Lela Nowlin gave a birthday party at her residence last Friday night in honor of Mrs. Ethel Stansel. Many beautiful presents were presented, but there were no candles lighted.

Mr. Geo. Murray was in the city for a few days.

Mr. Leon Smith, one of San Diego's youngest dancing masters, was somewhat peeved last Wednesday night when one of the society belles walked off the floor. Mrs. Stevens insisted on knowing why a certain party that she was dancing with wanted to dance so long on one pivot.

Mrs. Smith objected to being shown man's delight.

Mrs. Mouiterhouse, of Los Angeles, was out last Wednesday night and in her handsome hue she certainly was sought by all the smart set.

Many Los Angeles ladies are in the city looking as sweet and fragrant as the orange blossom in the month of January.

Every man to his profession, it was demonstrated last Wednesday night when Mr. Lloyd Williams took a seat behind the trap drum.

A certain man paid 5 cents for a dance last Wednesday night, but he said it was worth it.

Miss Sadie B. Ridley was out for the first time in several weeks. She certainly looked all class in that Little Red Riding Hood. At the Pantages she said she would like to be one of the jungle maids. She lingered at the show until all had gone, but her sister objected, but we are satisfied that Mr. Palmer will give he an chance if she insists.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Andrews, who have been spending several days at Elsinore, have returned to the city looking well, and say that they are feeling just fine. Mrs. Anderson says that she feels so fine she would like to spend a month or more up there, but we inform her that society needs her at home. During their absence Mr. Tom Johnson has been in charge of the office, in which place he has given entire satisfaction.

Miss Ophelia Ellis, who is also connected with the office, seemed to have forsaken our city. She will no doubt be absent from the city 60 days at least, while the younger set pine her absence. She is enjoying herself in the East.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. H. H. Guy, Pastor.

By I. L. Bennett

Both services were well attended last Sunday. Rev. Guy preached two very practical sermons. While he has been here but a very short time he has already ingratiated himself with the members of his church. Monday at 5 o'clock, at the church, a conference was held, at which there was a very large attendance. After the meeting was over the members voted for a Board of Trustees to assist in the management of the church. The election was carried out to the satisfaction of all present. From all indications the affairs of the church will soon be in a prosperous condition.

There will be a meeting of vital importance of the Colored citizens of San Diego, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 6, at 3 o'clock, at Masonic Hall, 656 Market street. Good speaking and music. All citizens invited to assist in organizing a Forum. Committee: Messrs. Jas. W. Gray, E. J. Freeman, E. W. Anderson, W. E. Cleveland, N. Robinson, W. D. Saunders, H. H. Harvey, Thos. Wilson, Chas. H. Dodge, Ray Pierson, T. H. Williams, and Mesdames E. W. Anderson, E. J. Freeman, W. D. Saunders, N. Robinson, G. S. Thompson, Jas. W. Gray, C. H. Dodge, and W. E. Cleveland.

Mr. Joe Stansell has returned from Tia Juana, much improved in health and pocket.

Mr. Jas. Garrett should read the "Life of George Washington."

Mr. Wilkerson can only buy the El Toro at one stand now.

Mr. G. A. Ramsey can be seen taking his exercise in his machine. The Santa Ana judge will never get acquainted with him. How many miles an hour? Just five, now, boys. Stand away from the front, I may be back ahead and knock you all down behind—twenty-three.

Mr. T. B. Norman is lonesome at times, especially when his neighbors carry his Eagle away. We advise him to put it high in the elm tree. But he advises his neighbor to subscribe for the paper, as he does.

It is said still water runs deep. It's a fake, still water does not run at all.

Harry Hall, the winner of the gold medal at the National A. A. U. track meet last August, has been confined at the McNabb hospital for several weeks, and we note with pleasure that he is able to be out and around again. He was blood poisoned and for a time it looked kind of—you know—time to speak low, but the crisis has passed and Harry is himself again, but like Drew, will he ever enter again? Ask us something easy. All we can say is, the Race was in front—he won the hop-skip and jump.

Mr. Shirley Brock has sold papers, and in fact done everything that can be done by a good hustler, but can he bear the famous Sam, who everybody knows in San Diego for miles around, and then some?

Mr. C. A. Zollicoffer had more greenbacks than the U. S. treasurer last Monday morning. How about it? No races, no cards, no what?

Mr. J. S. Spencer, who has been in town several months, leaves for Los Angeles.

A took up the California Eagle and saw the picture of a store upside down. What was it? Drugs were not running out of the bottles. It was only a new way to attract one to look at th picture of a drug store. All kinds of new things these days.

The following are at the Richmond Hotel: Mr. E. V. Dunn, Colorado; Mr. J. Rogers, San Francisco; Mr. W. S. Chapman, Willington, Conn.; Mr. Geo. Brown, Los Angeles; Mr. John Taylor, Guthrie, Okla.; Mr. Chas. Pattum, Willows; Mr. Frank Patterson, Colusa; Doc Barnett, Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. John R. Schell, El Centro; Mr. Wm. Porter, Pasadena; Ethel Dinery, La Jolla; W. Littlejohn, Long Beach; C. A. Ranck, Santa Barbara; J. G. Smith, San Diego; Mrs. S. Duncan, Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. E. Norwood is making a rapid collection and has asked the management of the office for a few days' extension, for the benefit of her friends, who say they do not want the Eagle discontinued.

Mrs. Campbell called at the office and paid for her year's subscription and said that she liked the paper very much and would not be without it.

The Tia Juana races will open, as we said in our last issue, on Nov. 11. For there will be sport for the ladies and their escorts. There will be fast horses from everywhere and there will be people from most everywhere. Judging by the way the Jockey Club is doing things, we are led to believe that Tia Juana is destined to be the greatest racing place on the Mexican side. With the many new additions to the track and the large number of foreign horses that are now domiciled at the paddocks and the noted horses that are booked to arrive shortly, it is going to be the meet of meets. So prepare your grip and take a trip to Mexico and then you can say that you have been out of the United States for once in your life anyway. That is, those of you who have never been out of your own town.

The exposition is still open and well attended, so make one trip do for both.

On last Sunday morning, there came along in the vicinity of San Diego a poor paralyzed man, begging for help. He wanted to go east to his grandmother. He had just come from the hospital in San Francisco, so the story goes. The Mt. Zion church being aroused to their missionary duty, raised for the poor man $13.73, the First Street Baptist raised $3.55, the Bethel A. M. E. raised $3.50, but on getting the money together Monday morning, in order to purchase his ticket for him, we learned from the ticket agent that the man had left for Los Angeles on the 6 o'clock train, Sunday. God has promised to bless the cheerful giver, and besides the offering from the churches, he raised quite a little sum of money, going from house to house, as everyone who saw him had pity and divided of what they had. As he did not receive the money, it was returned to the aforesaid churches.

Colored Americans Should Organize for Citizenship Rights.

A Williams, N. Y., dispatch of recent date says that Byron Gunner, president of the National Equal Rights League, has issued a call for the ninth annual convention of said League, the matter of the exact date and place for the convention not having as yet been quite settled, but it is very timely and proper that there should be no further delay in inviting public attention to the fact that such a convention is to be held and within the next sixty days.

It has been wisely suggested in view of existing unfavorable social, civic and political conditions confronting us as a people, that the National Equal Rights League invite and urge all of our people in all sections of the country to unite in a great "National Congress of Colored Americans," and for the special purpose of voicing the feelings and opinions of the race on these unfavorable conditions now surrounding us in this country; and also to decide upon the wisest and best methods for combating color segregations and all other forms of color discrimination.

After 50 years of so-called freedom in this country, what is the prevailing condition of our Colored American population? Briefly stated it is this: Our civil rights have been rendered almost futile; we are shamefully curtailed politically; we are denied equality before the law; we are not allowed equal industrial opportunities; our property and our very lives are not at all secure; and the "black horrors of lynching" innocent colored Americans continue unabated. While our Federal government's indifference towards all these injustices is but little less than the nullification of our great war amendments. Throughout the southland, and to more or less extent in the north, the increasing millions of our fellow colored Americans are being more and more reduced to the pitiable condition of political serfs and social outcasts.

If such conditions do not stir our souls and our blood, what under heaven can do it? Do not the industrial opportunities denied us, the freedom of speech and of the press not allowed, the civic and political rights taken from us, and the insecurity of property and life that surrounds us, give sufficient ground and reason for the calling of such a National Congress of Colored Americans as is herein suggested? "In this fierce era of controversy and bloodshed," can we be unmoved?" While the whole world is wide awake socially and politically, shall we sleep? While all other classes and races are on the verge of social and political revolutions, shall we be indifferent? Since all other groups of oppressed people are in the stir and rush of agitation, is it not high time that we should at least begin to get on the move?

The south is still in the saddle at our national capital, rushing headlong with a most reckless disregard for the feelings and rights of ten millions of loyal, but oppressed colored Americans.

Therefore, let us get together in a great National Congress, and fling to the whole wide world the full story of our grievances and of our earnest demands for justice and fair play.

Let all our religious, educational, social and political leaders among us head this call. Let all of our great religious organizations and lodges and benevolent societies begin now to plan to be represented in this proposed Congress. By so doing we cannot fail to produce a powerful effect on the public mind that will greatly help us in our struggle for justice and freedom.

This Congress will be independent and wider than any present organization. Its deliberations will not be under the Equal Rights League, which will assist in conjunction.—Price the Group Rank of J. R. Reynolds.

Visit to San Francisco and Oakland.

On last Saturday morning a week ago, at the early hour of 3 o'clock in the morning, in a Franklin car, Mr. and Mrs. Sherlind Lane of W. 29th street, in company with Mrs. Mary Peyton of W. 30th street, started on another tour in the northern part of the state, San Francisco and vicinity. They breakfasted at Bakersfield and from there went on to where they lodged over night. Early next day they toured on till near Yosemite valley and arrived in Oakland about 12:30 p. m. on Wednesday.

While in San Francisco they went sight-seeing every day, visiting the Golden Gate park, the Presidio and other places of interest. In Oakland they stopped with Mrs. Mildred Toney-Allen, who formerly lived on W. 35th place of this city, and they report having had a fine time with her. Mrs. Toney-Allen, a long-time friend of theirs, is a fine hostess and knows how to make those around her happy.

About 10 o'clock the following Monday, having stayed a week there, they started home and stayed over night at Fresno, arriving in Los Angeles on Tuesday about 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the only accident on the entire trip being a slight one near University station. The distance covered was over 1,000.

Just a year ago the same party, with Mr. Peyton, Mmes. Saddie Middleton, and Fields of the Baglin apartments, Susie J. Lynch and the late pastor of the E. S. M. St. Christian church, Rev. D. L. McMickens, made a similar trip to San Diego to see the Exposition. They stayed in the southern city nearly a week, camped out overnight and enjoyed themselves in every way.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was one of the happiest days in the history of the church, being covenent day. The Holy Spirit accompanied the service and their was an old-time rejoicing. There never was such a glorious meeting since the organization of the church.

The pastor, Rev. C. N. Moore, read the covenent of the church in concert and took time and explained every article of the covenant, and wrote on the blackboard the nine requisites which makes a perfect Christian, as follows: patience, kindness, generosity, humility, courtesy, usefulness, good temper, guilelessness and sincerity.

The pastor informed the members that when these qualifications were kneaded into the Christian's life that he became a perfect Christian. The service was turned over to the members for expression, in which everybody took part, and the Holy Spirit accompanied the meeting in a shower of blessings.

In the evening the Lord's Supper was served and the pastor took as his text the 12th chapter of Exodus, 23rd verse, as follows: "And when He seeth the blood upon the Lintel and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door." The pastor closed the bible and went into the subject, and the sermon was a masterpiece of eloquence.

The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. were well attended.

The pastor and wife and Sister Hines and son were outing at the beach and spent a pleasant day, bringing home a nice catch of fish.

The church has launched a thousand dollar rally to make a payment on the church the first of November. We have a fine church site, and we appeal to the Christian brotherhood and the public for aid. When our solicitors call upon you, please do not turn them down; any amount you donate will be appreciated.

The church will serve dinner in the dining room of the church every Sunday. Come and get your money's worth, and at the same time you will be helping the church. Meal hours every Sunday from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

The next president of the United States, Charles E. Hughes, is making his march of triumph westward and the same will not end until he reaches the White House on March the 4th, 1917.

President Wilson, like Andrew Johnson, has proved himself unequal to the occasion of guiding the destiny of a mighty nation and will be repudiated by the people in November by an overwhelming majority.

Coming down to local issues it is apparent that there are others that have traction within their ranks as to honor and prestige beside the colored race. Just now who is to have the honor of being in the limelight with the coming of our next president is agitating the minds of the managers of the party. We should worry: we really think the great victory that awaits us will be big enough and grand enough that all can rejoice in the same. The return of the progressives makes this victory possible, and we can see no reason why there should be any discrimination or preference to any particular part of the great army of Republican warriors.

SECURE YOUR TICKETS AND MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW

DR. DUVALL'S WORKS

Much publicity was given to charges preferred against Rev. C. H. Duvall, president of the National Industrial School at Pasadena, and inasmuch as the same charges are now in court, a generous public will no doubt suspend judgment until the issues are tried out impartially in the courts.

The editor of the Eagle has an abiding faith that Dr. Duvall will prove his innocence, and we further wish to go on record as saying that his work cannot be discounted; and it speaks right out for itself, his home at Pasadena has for years been a refuge and shelter for the helpless orphan and the great work of Rev. Duvall and his noble wife are entitled to a greater reward than continual nagging which has been theirs, by some who have taken upon themselves the task of his undoing.

ANARCHY REIGNS NOT; COMING INTO OUR OWN.

It is gratifying to reflect that of all the noble deeds, the great events that mean the very existence of our country, the colored race has played an important and meritorious part. From Boston Common to Carrizal, the Negro has proved his worth for the salvation, honor and glory of his country; and then it is again gratifying to note that although from all angles the provocation has been great to do the untoward thing, not a single instance can be pointed to where this people has been even in the remotest degree connected with any of the dastardly crimes, such as committed at San Francisco a few days ago. Anarchy or disloyalty is not his forte.

This being so we believe that we shall yet come into the reward that such righteousness deserves.

We believe that the time is not far distant when we shall have the preference over this class of citizenship. Take San Francisco today in the waiters' and cooks' strike the colored waiters have been their succor and relief. Also the longshoremen the same. Now after they have parleyed and reached an agreement with their striking employees, the colored workmen, it seems, are to be let out; this is not right, and even in the present crisis at San Francisco some of the biggest employers have given it out that the colored waiters and cooks, if they make good, will remain with them forever and ever.

These are some of the things that come to us in reflecting at the past and present, and we are glad that it is as it is, for in the end we shall come into our own and not by the way of the assassin, the plunderer or anarchist.

Local Happenings

Ems Goodman of San Francisco is house guest of Mrs. E. M. Fry, 1220 S. Hobard boulevard.

Ethel White, who has been spending some time in the city, left Tuesday for her home in Oakland.

Lorenza Jordan was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by her parents and a host of friends

Mrs. Allen Allensworth and Mrs. S. C. Cole are spending the week at Bruces Beach and report a delightful time.

Misses Clyde and Josephine Brown spent a very pleasant day Monday at Bell station, the guests of Misses Ines and Mae Jones.

The public is cordially invited to attend the 54th annual celebration of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor at Sycamore grove Saturday, August 12th.

Attorney Afue McDowell, Mrs. Geo. M. Warner, Mrs. Goulden and daughter returned from Marysville Sunday, after paying a short visit in Oakland and Frisco.

The annual picnic of the International Order of Twelve, Sir Knights and Daughters of Tabor, will be at Sycamore grove Saturday, August 12th. A splendid time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell, Lakeshore avenue, left Los Angeles Thursday evening for their old home in Kansas, where they expect to make a stay of several months visiting relatives and friends.

Henry and Gilbert Allen, two prominent and successful business men of Omaha, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Joseph Lane of Watts. They are here not only on a visit, but on the lookout for engaging in business.

Mrs. Mamie Waugh was at home to a few friends Monday afternoon, those present including Mmes. G. Washington, J. Sommerville, S. Dones, A. Childress, P. Winters and Misses Ethel White, Gwendolyn Baker, Marguerite Prince.

Mmes. J. B. Thomas and L. Toliver have returned to their homes in Oakland, after enjoying the hospitality of their many friends and spending a most delightful time in Los Angeles sightseeing in Los Angeles and Pasadena. They were the house guests of Mrs. E. Banks, 1122 E. 33rd street.

St. Philips' Guild tendered their rector, Father W. T. Cleghorn, who is leaving for a three month's trip in the East, a reception on Thursday evening in the spacious rooms of the parish hall. Those receiving with the rector were the presidents of the organization and several ministers. Music was furnished by Wheaton's orchestra.

Mrs. F. L. Osborne, president of the New Thought Charity club of Boyle Heights, gave a most delightful six-course luncheon honoring the delegates to the Woman's Federation at Pasadena. Covers were laid for ten. The house and table were beautifully decorated in ferns and hygeraniums. The guests present pronounced it one of the prettiest affairs of the season and Mrs. Osborne a splendid hostess.

Under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. a program has been prepared for the Temperance rally, which will be of much interest, on Sunday afternoon, August 13th, at the Rev. Byers' church, corner Paloma and Pico streets. Several musical selections will be rendered by the junior choir of the church, assisted by Malcolm Patton, Jr. A treat is in store for those who attend. Everybody invited.

The Virginia and West Virginia State Societies are about to be organized.

A very pretty whist party was given in honor of Mmes. Pinkey and Randolph by Mr. and Mrs. Westerfield.

Frank Gordon of El Centro is a recent arrival in the city and is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown on Douglass street.

Mrs. M. T. Dove, sister of Mrs. Homer A. Harrison, 5206 Long Beach avenue, who has been spending the last few months with her sister, has returned to her home in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. A. Scott of Oakland is the house guest of Mrs. Green, 1420 Central avenue. While here she favored the Eagle office with a visit. She expects to remain in our city two weeks.

Mrs. A. Childress entertained with breakfast Sunday morning in honor of her mother's birthday. Covers were laid for ten. Everyone enjoyed their turn in trying to count the candles on the pretty white frosted cake made by Miss Josephine.

Mrs. Geneva Jones, Ceres avenue, entertained about 20 little girls and boys on last Monday afternoon in honor of the 10th birthdry of her little daughter, Earnesteen. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white, making the dining room and table enchanting in appearance.

R. F. McClellan, candidate for Supervisor from the 4th district, rushed several boxes of fine California lemons to Company E, 7th regular California Infantry, last week. This company is made up of boys from the bay city district. McClellan, in his usual quiet way, always does the right thing at the right time. Just the kind of timber for a Supervisor.

On last Saturday evening about 30 young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Norman Cook on Griffith avenue, where they enjoyed an evening of whist and music complimentary to Mr. Blue of Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Cook spaired no pains in making it pleasant for all present, and there is no question as to them both being ideal host and hostess.

Wm. T. Wilkins, our prosperous music teacher, through the efforts of the Stokes Realty Co., has been fortunate enough to secure the large 12 room residence located at 1325 Central avenue for the location of his music school. Mr. Wilkins intends to make his school the only one of its kind in the West, and surpassed for efficiency by none in the United States. There are already four departments; piano department, Mr. Wilkins, assisted by Misses G. Adams, Eva Johnson, A. De. Rousell, Cleo Browder, Bertha Achols and Fannie Wilson; voice department, Mmes. E. J. Hughley and H. Clendenon; violin department, Johnie Mitchell and Johnie Anderson; saxaphone, Johnie Anderson. Piano and vocal lessons can be had as low as 50c per lesson. The grand opening and other announcements will be made later. Prepare yourselves and children to enter this school, as it is a race enterprise, and as fast as you advance far enough to teach or fill musical engagements, the school will try to find work for you. We need not question the ability of Mr. Wilkins, the director of our school, as he is a music student and teacher who has proven himself capable of heading such an institution. We find that Mr. Wilkins is the only race teacher mentioned in the directory of the Southern California music teachers.

Mrs. Margarett Bramlett is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, west 35th place, left Tuesday evening for Kansas City, where they will make a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. L. Broody will entertain in honor of the Misses Moses of Virginia Thursday, August 17, at her residence, 1146 E. 48th place. Take Hooper avenue car.

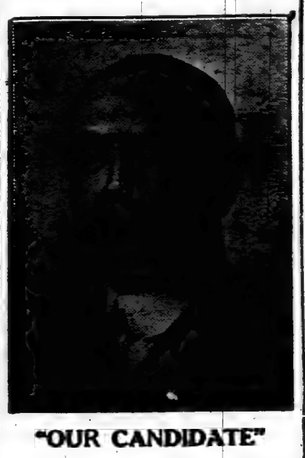
Mrs. A. Hill, 1655 W. 37th place, entertained in honor of Mrs. A. H. Wall of Oakland last Monday evening. A 7-course dinner was served and covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Prescott, the blind Evangelist, will speak at the A M E Zion Church, Pico and Paloma, Sunday morning, and at Wesley Chapel in the evening. All are invited to hear her at both places.

G. H. Holland and wife, 461 N. Figueroa street, entertained in honor of Mrs. Pinkey and Mrs Hyna Randolph of Bakersfield. Mmes. Boiston and Owens of Alhambra, and Mmes. Emma Ankrum and Westerfield.

Appeal to the Public.

I wish to thank my friends and the public for their kindness and sympathy during the three trials of my son, Tom Miller, at Santa Barbara. Being without means to again retain an attorney to carry his case to a higher court, I make one more desperate appeal through the columns of the Eagle asking the public to help me raise the necessary funds in which to employ an attorney to look after the interests of my boy.



Mrs. Caroline Miller,
Sister of O. E. S.

On last Friday evening the choir of the People's Independent church of Christ met at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones, 1330 W. 36th street. The choir, consisting of 41 members, is indeed one to be proud of, so much harmony reigning among them both in voice and in heart, after a short rehearsal under the direction of Rev. N. P. Greegs. The evening was turned into a social affair. Delicious punch and ice cream was served, and cake in abundance, truly the kind that mother used to make, but this time it happened to be made by father, for Mr. Jones is one of Los Angeles' leading cake bakers. Rev. Gregge was honored by having a freezer of lemon ice made especially for him. Large hearted as he is, not more than a taste could be had by any one. After very appropriate remarks on behalf of the choir by Emanul Hall, the party departed declaring a most delightful evening spent.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager Office 702 3rd St. Phones: Main 1613, Main 6320

The human fly has arrived in town, and as usual has made many a person look with wonder and amazement at his daring feats; to say that he has nerve is styling it lightly. He has the nerve of a lion and the daring of a monkey, when it comes to climbing. He has mounted the court house and stood on the goddess of liberty, and when he put his arms around that bronze statue he did what very few people have done, he had the pleasure of hugging the largest woman in Southern California and she did not mind his familiarity. He has also climbed the mortgage building, which is said to be one of the highest buildings in the city. He is now advertised to mount the Exposition building, that is the California building and its lofty tower. As we go to press he is climbing, and as the deed is daring we cannot say what the outcome will be.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey had his usual large congregation on Sunday last. He expects to leave for the annual Conference at Los Angeles soon, where he predicts the Conference will gain much lost ground.

Rev. Mitchell put much enthusiasm in his sermon on Sunday last, and many new faces were seen among the congregation.

Rev. Williams, who has gained fame by his serial of sermons, had had his church filled to overflowing. It seems as if the young people take pride in the advancement of the church on the hill. Many strangers have found their way to his place of worship.

Mrs. Blocker gave a nice party in honor of Mrs. L. M. Smith and son of Vallejo, at 1711 Columbia street.

Something greater than them all, the laughing mask party, was given at Elizabeth Perry's residence.

To the Public—When in San Diego just call at 426 Broadway and eat some old-fashioned cooked dinners, with Chef Thomas in charge. Every Tuesday and Friday evenings the Hornby Bros. render their musical selections.

Caught again by the sharp eye of the Eagle—John Saunders of private car No. 6, John R. King of car No. 414, J. Hanks of the parlor car department and R. Reese, head depot usher, were seen doing our fair city by automobile; also we are glad to note that they were favored guests at the Exposition grounds of the president G. A. Davidson.

Rudey Chapman entertained a party of friends at his residence with a Dutch lunch. Those present were Messrs. Dardell, Hanks, Phillips, Kinzy, Jr., Kinzy, Sr. Miss Randolph was a guest of Mrs. Rudey Chapman.

Louis J. Wilde and Col. Fred Jewett took over the controlling interest in the United States National bank. We are glad to know that W. D. Cleveland will retain his position, as he has been with Mr. Wilde several years and will be pleased to introduce his many friends to the directors of the bank.

Mrs. M.L. Gottschalk of Los Angeles was chosen one of the royal guests of our city a few days ago. She was the house guest of many friends, including the Exposition. She had to cancel many special engagements, but says she will visit our city again in the near future.

J. E. Hunt of Los Angeles, who is head porter at the girls' dormitory, is spending his vacation in the city.

J. R. Johnson and wife and little son, and J. R. Jackson and wife motored from Los Angeles to Tia Juana and around the city last week, after spending several days in the city.

Mrs. C. Thomas acted as maid during the absence of Mrs. Laws last Friday, when she returned to Los Angeles to take care of her sister, Miss Louise Austin, who is ill.

W. A. Granger, who is now in the poultry business, called at the Eagle office and told us of his success.

Mrs. P. E. Phillips stole quietly away from the sun-kissed city to the Angel city, but with much love for San Diego.

E. D. Williams and wife of Imperial valley were in the city a few days ago on business and pleasure combined.

Mrs. Jack Brown of Topeka, Kan., and her two beautiful daughters, Ruth and Edna, are spending their vacations on the Pacific coast. After visiting San Francisco and Los Angeles they made a flying trip to San Diego and were met at the station by the manager of the Eagle, M. T. Laws, who is a staunch friend of Mr. Brown. After spending a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Chapman they were special guests of Mr. and Mrs Laws to the Exposition. They were very much delighted with the city and left on the evening train. They will visit the Grand canyon enroute home.

John Clark of Chicago, who has spent more than 25 years with the Santa Fe, is touring the Pacific coast for a short stay. While here he called on many of his old friends.

Geo. Washington of Topeka, Kan., who has spent many years with the Santa Fe and is well known over the entire system, called at the Eagle office a few days ago and said that he was much pleased with the paper, being a subscriber. Even if he is a resident of the Middle-west, he stated that he could not do without the Eagle and Pacific coast news.

Everybody is making preparation for the big social Monday night, where the San Diego New Orchestra will make its debut in this city. We have heard it and it has the pep. So come out and enjoy yourself.

SAN BERNARDINO

J. H. McAdams, will leave in a few days for a quite and extensive visit in the East.

Ovid and Hunter Hillman have returned from a visit in Pasadena.

Miss Florence Harrison spent Sunday evening in Redlands.

Miss Cleo Hathaway of Redlands was the guest of Miss Ruth Ingraham last week.

Mrs. Wilson, president of the A. M. E. Missionary Society gave a splendid lecture at the A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon.

Misses Minnie and Beatrice Miller of Riverside are spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. P. P. Hurd.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hurd and daughter, Ethel, are preparing to leave soon for a visit in the East.

Miss Florence L. Harrison will leave Monday evening for Forest Home where she will be the guest of Miss Ruth Whiteside for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock of Redlands will be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mabra Sunday.

BERTHA ALEXANDER.

Mr. Al. Graves, one of the foremost business men of Santa Barbara, was a visitor in the city this week. He reports progress and says the people of his city takes exceptions to the article of Mr. Baker in this paper of a late day

GLEANINGS FROM TESTIMONIALS

Mme. Davis stands alone in her class. Her voice is rich, full and well modulated.

The Most Fitting Testimonial is to HEAR HER

WILCOX DECLARES THAT PRESIDENT WILSON HAS PREACHED "NEW FREEDOM" BUT HAS PRACTICED "NEW BONDAGE" TOWARD THE NEGRO.

By William R. Wilcox, Chairman Republican National Committee

New York, September 18.—It required more than ordinary assurance for the man who has done more than any other President since the Civil War to fasten the shackles of bondage on the American freedman to stand at the humble log cabin at Hodginville, Ky., and pronounce an eulogy upon the great emancipator.

In the light of President Wilson's own contemptible treatment of the Negro, his praise of Lincoln, the plain man of the common people, the product of poverty and obscurity, was false and shallow.

Bringing to Washington all the prejudices of his Southern birth and rearing, surrounding himself with men of the same inherited feelings, Mr. Wilson early gave to his administration, so far as the Colored man was concerned, the stamp of snobbery, vindictiveness and ignorance, and these traits have characterized it from the time of the removal of J. P. Napier, Register of the Treasury, to the present day. Not even the splendid patriotism of the black heroes of the Tenth Cavalry, who went to their death at Carrizal as the result of the President's policy of timidity and blundering in Mexico, sufficed to move him from his course of Negro baiting. The Colored man, under Woodrow Wilson, may die for his country, but he may not serve it in civilian life save under the sign of the "Jim Crow."

President Wilson gave evidence of one of his most characteristic traits by surrendering to Southern Negro haters of the Vardaman type. In the matter of plain justice to his colored fellow-citizens, he was "too proud to fight." He did recognize the justice of the claim of the Negroes to the treasury position, which a colored man had held for more than twenty-five years, and at first nominated an Oklahoma Negro; but he promptly withdrew it when notice was served upon him by the democratic race fanatics in Congress that no Negroes would be confirmed.

It was Mr. Wilson's theory that the problem presented was "human, not political." The rapacity with which the hungry democratic office-seekers scrambled for the 15,000 Government positions, carrying salaries amounting to more than $8,000,000 per annum, which under Republican administrations had been filled with self-respecting and intelligent Negroes, indicated that he was right, but not in a sense reflecting credit on human nature.

The segregation begun by McAdooand Burleson under Wilson has spread through the country. It is the fixed policy of the present administration. The obnoxious theory of "Jim Crow" intolerance has fastened like a cancer in the political and social fabric of the nation.

Bishop T. W. Kyles, presiding bishop of the A. M. E. Zion church, is visiting the churches in the California and also the Oregon conferences. Bishop Kyles preached at the Zion churches last Sunday in Los Angeles and Monrovia, to large and appreciative audiences. The Bishop is both eloquent and forceful as a pulpit orator, and his sermons were highly instructive and edifying. The Bishop is a young man, as well as a young bishop, but is very scholarly and well trained for the work of the high calling unto which he has been appointed by his denomination. The Zion churches on the Coast will greatly prosper under such an energetic and able bishop to direct them. Presiding Elder Matthews came down from the North yesterday to meet the new bishop and will accompany him on his episcopal visits to all the churches, big and little, in the California conference.

Bishop Kyles will preach in Oakland next Sunday and in San Francisco Sunday evening. A big reception will be tendered the learned prelate by the citizens of San Francisco next Monday evening. His Honor, Mayor Jas. Rolph, Jr., the generous benefactor to the Zion church in San Francisco, will make the welcome address on behalf of the citizens of San Francisco.

The Bishop will come back south Oct. 11, to preside over the sessions of the annual conference to convene at Monrovia. The sessions will continue throughout the week, or until Sunday, Oct. 15th.

The public will be given a hearty welcome at all the sessions. There will be a large number of delegates from the North and from the adjacent towns, who will attend this conference. The people at Monrovia are making great preparations to entertain the visitors.

SAN DIEGO

Mr. James Warren and Mr. Graves have gone to Imperial Valley for a while.

Mother Anderson, of Los Angeles, is visiting her son and also friends in San Diego. She says she will try and stay a month.

The Carnation Club will render a literary program Tuesday evening, Oct. 3, after which they will have a grab social at the parsonage. Everyone is cordially invited to come out.

Mr. E. B. Whiteside and Mrs. Carrie Chabourne were engaged last Saturday evening—riding in a chair car, after having listened to the music rendered by the Rousseau family.

Miss Almarona Jefferson is on the sick list and is missed very much in the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U.

Mrs. L. L. Alexander, who has been confined to her bed for some weeks, is now improving.

Mt. Zion is preparing for a big time on the fourth Sunday in October. All friends are cordially invited to come out and spend the day, as dinner will be served on the grounds.

Mrs. Mellissa Mason, of Vallejo, formerly of San Diego, has secured her divorce and left Monday for Arizona to join her daughter.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all those United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and dealeth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, southerbenton and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are anxious and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou wilt have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 20 cent cotton and 8 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not as well with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And then knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and our times get hard, if it wasn't for the internal Republicans making fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the back districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertilizer smeller; just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that theory.

Again, Mighty Chief, we beseech thee to hear our prayers. For heaven's sake don't saddle us with a bond issue. We read in the papers that thou art considering a big bond issue to get money to run the government, and dodgast them bonds. Thou shouldst remember that Cleveland sold bonds, and it busted our party into smithereens. We never can survive a bond issue. Bonds means slavery, and slavery is worse than war, and war is worse than hell. It will bury us so deep we will never hear the gun fire this year. Cut down salaries rather than sell bonds.

Oh, mighty Woodrow, thou who hast already skinned us out of our jobs with thy business-busting Free Trade farce, don't get us mulped in a war. Thou knowest, dear and mighty pie-distributor, that we have never had any luck with war, anyway. Thou knowest that in the great history of the American people thou hast written how we Democratic dupes followed the party call and went to war against the Stars and Stripes for four long years, and how "Honest" Abe Lincoln licked the stuffin out of us and made us Democrats do without pie for over a quarter of a century. Oh, Waiting One, we hunker down on our Free Trade jeans-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

If Mexico wants to make a doormat of the American flag let them enjoy themselves. Hasn't Germany done the same thing? Hasn't England done it, under thy great and adorable reign, oh, great soft-hearted chieftain? Why should we go to war? Are we not already at war at home with the poverty caused by thy great Free Trade? We thought we were already at war, mighty Woodrow. We've read of so many bank failures and business wrecks and people out of jobs under thy great Free Trade administration that we have stopped reading the newspapers, but if we are not at war why this blooming Hundred Million Dollar War Tax we are paying?

But, Mr. President, remember we are Democrats still. We are willing to face the music and drink soup, if necessary, if only we can be patted on the back and called good Democrats. We know it is treason to complain. We know the gentleman of a good Democrat is to take his medicine and never make a crooked face. So, Mighty Chief, forgive us for talking as we have. Kick us for presuming to ask questions. It is not for us to scrutinize thy wisdom or question thy plans. So put the toe of thy wrath to us and teach us to obey. Teach us that a Democrat was made to vote straight and ask no questions.

Master Wilson, if we are too presumptuous, kick us. Kick us a little anyway. We deserve to be kicked a little. If we ask foolish questions thump us on the head with the scepter of thy greatness. If we are a little crude and coarse in our manners it is because we never had a chance to be anybody. We never went to school. We are greenhorns. We are fag ends of Democratic dunpile. We are lick-spittles and gutter-snipes. We are ready to do the bidding of any Democrat who will command us. We will form political communities. We will cuss Cleveland every time. We will denounce Roosevelt or Taft or Debs or Charlie or anybody else if it will make pie come our way.

Have us from the shadow of This Round Widgear and all the hosts shall be thine. Amen.

Progressive Educational Association.

The Greatest Proposition Ever Organized For the Benefit of the Race. Absolutely Bona Fide. The Future Hope of a Struggling Race.

COLORED PEOPLE, GET WISE

Once upon a time the Colored people could have bought land in the city on Main, Spring, and Broadway streets, per acre, for less than we are now paying for 40-foot lots in the suburbs. But they would not. They said, there is nothing to it. Also they said it will never be anything, but today look and see how their prophecies have failed and are failing in reference to Los Angeles.

Now Providence has rolled up to the door of the Colored man a similar opportunity. Will they let it pass them by, or will they be wise and lay hold of this opportunity. If so lay hold now, for it may never knock at your door again.

Here is what I am talking about: The Progressive Educational Association is offering to the Colored people the best opportunity ever offered in the United States.

Look! Land in the Santa Rosa Valley, one of the richest valleys on the North American continent—Only $5.50 per acre, and terms to suit buyer. Note carefully the climate, the production, and the quality of the land.

THE CLIMATE

There is not another location in the United States that has more suitable climate for the colored man. It is never too hot and never too cold—just 1800 feet above sea level, no heavy frosts and no snow. An ideal climate and a healthy country. Plenty of rain for two crops a year, the rainy seasons coming, one in the winter and the other in the summer months.

PRODUCTION

The land will produce cotton, corn, wheat, barley, oats, and other small grain, 40 to 60 bushels per acre; potatoes and beans, peas of all varieties, melons of all kinds, and all semi-tropical vegetables.

FRUITS

Lemons, oranges, grapes, and all kinds of nuts, and any fruit that grows in any semi-tropical climate.

No sand beds—a smooth table land.

THE SURVEY

The lands will be allotted in 40, 80 and 100-acre tracts, and the cost per acre will be $5.50.

TERMS

40 acres @ $5.50 = $220.00.
80 acres @ $5.50 = $440.00.
100 acres @ $5.50 = $550.00.

These amounts can be paid on the installment system if desired.

When the European war comes to a close, and it is made possible for the thousands to come to this country, all thinking people are agreed that all or most of our idle territory will be taken up in this country by the homeseekers. Having this in mind, and also seeking to provide for the Western states a school or university for the religious training of our girls and boys, we have searched California for a desirable place, but could not find in the State just what we wanted.

We have succeeded now in laying hands upon more than 100,000 acres of the best land now idle on the North American continent.

1. There is no alkali in this land anywhere.
2. There is no adobe soil in this land.
3. There are no rocks on this land.
4. There is no sand or sand dunes on this land.
5. Nor can you find gullies in this territory.
6. The land is so level that you would never need to level it with a leveler for irrigation.
7. This is fine soil for cotton raising.
8. Cattle and hog raising.
9. You can produce two crops a year without irrigation; one you plant in December, and the other in June.
10. This land without irrigation, will produce 50 to 60 bushels of wheat to the acre, and then the same year, without irrigation, produce 50 bushels of corn per acre.
11. The wind velocity is an important matter to the western farmer. Many have to plant trees around the farm to protect the produce from high winds; but here, according to government reports, the velocity of the wind is from five to seven miles per hour.
12. This land, every foot of it, is water bearing, and you can get water from 15 to 50 feet, when you are seeking surface water.
13. The water is so pure that in using the engine for four consecutive years, the boilers did not have to be cleaned out once.
14. This land will produce the finest cotton possible, and when opened believe will rival Imperial Valley.
15. It is nearly 2000 feet above the sea level, and out of the reach of fogs.
16. This is an orange producing climate and soil, but we can only know from the fact that 40 miles away oranges and lemons grow in abundance, therefore we safely conclude that lemons and oranges will grow here.

We take the daily dispatches telling of the giant smashes and tremendous gains of the allies, is something akin to the mighty prosperity that is conspicuous by not being felt only by the chosen few.

The fellow that tries to forge ahead by decrying his neighbor, generally fails to get anywhere himself while his neighbor is apt to scale he heights.

We are informed that in all the political history of California this is the first time the colored race has had a representative on the State Central Committee of the republican party. We have an abiding faith that there are better things further on and we urge the necessity of preparedness along all lines as never before.

THE ALL-AMERICAN LEAGUE NON-POLITICAL

The All-American League has had no meetings during the present political campaign, and will have no meetings until after the 7th day of November, this is because the League has always claimed not to be a political organization, and desired to live up that statement of fact. But, the League will resume its former activity with renewed life along economic, civic and social lines, immediately the political period is passed. In the meantime the Constitution has been printed and a copy of the same can be purchased for the small sum of ten cents at the office of President H. E. McBeth, 221 Lissner Building. This little volume will prove educational, and those members of the All-American League who wish to be up in the objects, purposes and laws of true Americanism, that stands for manhood and womanhood rights in American citizenship, would do well to secure a copy.

MIGHT BECOME FAR REACHING

We all realize that the act of Mrs. S. A. Cole in wrecking a dairy lunch room on Broadway because they refused to serve her, is not within the law. Mrs. Cole realizes the same, but she has imbibed the spirit of old John Brown at Harper's Ferry, of Toussiant LaOverture and says that the continued insults of a loyal race must be stopped if it takes force to do so.

And who knows how far reaching this spirit will go. A people who have all but obliterated their illiteracy, and who have been taking copious draughts from civilization's fountain may not continue in the even tenor of their way, they may, by constant oppression imbibe the same spirit that overtook Mrs. Cole. And this being so, no one can tell what the end will be.

Anyhow it is a matter for serious thought and it is a matter that our city legislators could well take in hand in this particular city. The state laws prohibit discrimination in public places and provides a penalty for the same. There is no reason why the police commission of this city could not make a penalty of forfeiture of license for public places to discriminate in this city.

The events and happenings of the day demand some radical action along these lines.

WHO ARE THE RENEGADES NOW?

Up at Santa Barbara some of the good, loyal republicans as it were, got together during the primaries and for the cause of Republicanism whooped it up for the candidacy of Charles E. Hughes for president, C. W. Fairbanks for vice-president, and Willis H. Booth for senator. It's an old story now that Booth was defeated, and it seems that this incident cooled all of their ardor as loyal republicans, even what they had for Charles Evans Hughes, for like the Arabs of the desert they folded their tents and stole away in the night time, and a few paces further down the street, pitched this self-same tent, the one that was made possible by contributions of the republicans of Santa Barbara and today the inscription over its portals reads: For President, Woodrow Wilson; Vice-President, Thomas Marshall; United States Senator, Chas. S. Patton.

Can you beat this, for the downs; a bevy of sore heads who would suffer in comparison to the feat of Benedict Arnold with the cause of the people. But after all the people are going to decide this election and the pseudo leaders that presume leadership and who cannot be trusted at no time with the people's interest will again be left out in the cold because there is nothing that this clan can do to bar the success of republicanism which includes the election of Hughes, Fairbanks, Johnson and the entire republican ticket on Nov. 7th.

INTERIOR VIEW OF PRENTICE'S PHARMACY, ONE OF THE CITY'S NEWEST DRUG STORES.

Located on Central Avenue, near Eleventh Street, is one of the latest and most modern drug stores in Los Angeles. S. G. Prentice, the proprietor, moved to this city several years ago from Chicago and shortly after his arrival purchased the Delta Pharmacy at the corner of Third and Stephenson Avenue. The continued growth of the business soon compelled him to seek larger quarters. Securing a lease on the opposite corner, Mr. Prentice moved his stock over, prosperity following him. Seeing the possibilities at 1121 Central Avenue, he decided to open a new store, intending to retain the old one, but a favorable opportunity to sell presenting itself, the deal was consummated and S. G. now devotes his entire time and efforts to the upbuilding of the new pharmacy.

As may be seen from the accompanying illustration, the proprietor has shown rare good taste in the matter of furniture and fixtures. The fixtures throughout are of mahogany finish and were installed by the Showcase and Fixtures Department of the Brunswig Drug Co. All showcases are of the newest model, tall and narrow, perfectly suited to adequately display the tastefully arranged sundries and confectionery. One of the main features is the unique showcase windows, which not only make a very attractive front, but are veritable silent salesmen.

On entering the store at the right is a beautiful Bishop-Babcock Soda Fountain of white Italian marble from which are dispensed soft drinks on a par with those offered at the best up-town stores. In connection with the soda fountain is a table service, the tables and chairs being arranged in the center and running the full length of the store. The white sanitary tables with the triangular seated chairs make a very inviting appearance.

Nothing has been overlooked that would add tothe comfort and convenience of the patrons. Telephone booths at either side of the prescription counter permit of some measure of privacy which all of us appreciate at times.

Back of the prescription counter everything is conveniently arranged for the careful compounding and the prompt filling of prescriptions. This feature of the business Mr. Prentice takes particular pride in. He has a modern and complete equipment and enjoys the confidence of the physicians which accounts for his large prescription business.

S. G. Prentice is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and in addition to being a thorough pharmacist, is a capable business man of genial temperament—a strong combination to draw and hold customers.

J. T. Smith, the proprietor's right hand man, is a big asset to the store, and Mr. Prentice is to be congratulated on having associated with him a gentleman of his caliber.

The California Druggist congratulates Mr. Prentice on his successful business career and wishes him continued success.—From California Druggist.

The above article appeared in a recent issue of the California Druggist, which is a monthly publication devoted to the interests of the druggists of California and the Pacific Coast. This firm is a credit to the business and ranks with the best and is entitled to a strong support from all classes.

Hilberte Rozier Narrowly Escapes Death

Presence of mind is all that saved Hilbert Rozier, Eagle reporter, from being crushed to death a few days ago when his wheel skidded just in front of an auto truck. He had just turned off 9th street onto Central Avenue, in order to pass a heavy truck he turned into the center of the street, he had no more than passed the truck when a newly repaired handle bar worked loose and his wheel fell in front of the truck. As the wheel fell he jumped landing on his hands and knees and crawled rapidly to safety, while his wheel was crushed to pieces beneath the truck less than a yard away.

Hilbert, is the son of Rev. W.H. Rozier, and stands in high esteem in Los Angeles, being corresponding secretary of the B. Y. P. U convention of Southern California, he also holds the same office in the Baptist Sunday School Union and is critic and debating manager of the Progressive Club.

Nuptials

Wedding bells were heard again when cupid united the hearts of Louise Littlejohn and Everett Walsh in matrimony Wednesday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock at her home, 1597 West 36th Place.

The wedding was one of the prettiest home weddings ever witnessed here. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated in pink cecil brooner roses, pink and white carnations, asparagus and hermosa fern. The color scheme of pink and white was carried throughout.

Never has Los Angeles had a sweeter bride. Her gown was a personification of simplicity and richness, the style was strictly French; the waist was of white georgette crepe and a bodice of silver tissue, the skirt of white satin and georgette crepe, a training veil of white net with a wreath of sweet peas. She carried a large beautiful bouquet of white marshaniel roses. Her jewels were pearls and diamonds.

The maid of honor, Miss Hazel Anderson wore a beautiful dress of pink net over pink satin. Her jewels were pearls and she carried a large beautiful bouquet of pink cecil brooner roses with a large bow of tulle. The best man was Ceasar Lewis. The little ring bearer, Coretta Harbert, wore a dainty white dress of lace and pink ribbon. Miss Ruth Lee sweetly played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was given away by her father. Mrs Elizabeth Littlejohn, the bride's mother, wore black satin trimmed with jet. Mrs. Walsh, the groom's mother, wore black net over black satin. The priest, Father Tulle, solemnly united them in matrimony after which Miss Antoinette Young sweetly sang "I love you truly."

After the marriage ceremony the bridal party sat at the bridal table and were served. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations and asparagus fern. The refreshments were white brick ice cream with pink heart in center; pink and white cake; pink and white cream lozengers and punch. Many handsome and costly gifts were given. The bride's father gave her a handsome birds-eye maple bed room set.

The bride and groom will be at home to friends at their residence, 3671 Halledale avenue, Sunday, September 10th.

Miss Hazel Anderron gave a shower for Mrs Louise Littlejohn-Walsh on Saturday before the wedding. Many beautiful gifts were received.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager Office 742 3rd St. Phones: Main 3513, Main 6238

The Creole Black and Tan orchestra under the leadership of T. Harris held sway in San Diego at Kastle Hall on the evening of the 4th; the most jovial ball of the season. Los Angeles maids seemed to have hypnotized the crowds with their graceful dancing, but Floyd Williams and his company did not have to take any back seat. Everything went well until Mrs. Tait and Mrs. Stancel lost their balance the floor and then you know what followed. There is no doubt but that San Diego has one of the best orchestras on the coast, it was demonstrated after each piece of music The applause was so great that the spectators would have to place their fingers in their ears until the encores were played over and over again, houre after all the refreshments were gone the crowd even lingered.

There were so many pretty girls out till Dan Badgett, Dan Cole and a few other society beau brummels had the time of their lives picking the buds to suit themselves Speaking of the costumes these are some that caught the eye of the reporter, the blue costume of a handsome hue worn by a short handsome lady, the pink dress was the center of attraction —— she became so sedate until she was drenched in champagne punch; the handseme lady fron East San Diego was in her lyle silks lingered and missed her car. Reg. Townsend was out and said that he was enjoying himself but had not the courage to venture farther than the door. Mr. McCarthy was refused a dance by one of the handsome ladies as she did not want him to spoil her pretty red and white slippers. At 2 a. m. several autos sped up to the door and took several guests of the fashionable ball out to a prepared lunch that had been set for them.

The Hall Jubilee Singers have been in town several days and have sang at the A. M. E. church and at Germania hall.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey left for Los Angeles to attend the A.M.E. conference. The delegates are Miss Mary Jackson, Mrs. Idonia Harvey, Mrs. N. Robinson.

The Eagle is proud to learn that that Knights of Tabor reconsidered the action in regards to moving. And the action is better for the race in general and will be proud to see the lodge grow better and better, much credit is due the leaders of both factions, as they now shelter under one roof.

It has been officially announced by President G. A. Davidson that the expoeition will continue until December 31 and will celebrate the old year out and the new year in. Labor Day was well observed, thousands of visitors thronged the grounds and building and paid tribute to the day which working people celebrate in a setting unequaled in the United states. A feature of the attendance was the large number of out of town visitors in the great throng. Local labor people and families were there in large numbers, but by far the greater number of those who kept the turnstiles busy were visitors to the city, they came from every county in California.. All were liberal with their praises and compliments of its varied program The program of sports began at 2 p. m. the track and Isthmus speedway being used for the various events. The greased pig proved a a very exciting event because there were five colored lads who fought for supremacy and to say it was a treat would be putting it light, it was a hummer.

Between the special features and Tommasino's band people had all they could attend to in the way of amusements. The best part of the program was hard to say as all was above the average.

Miss Hattie B. Ridley, who has been secretly married several weeks to Mr. McPryor, a sailor was celebrating Monday night with many of the sailors from various ships.

Rev. Woodby left for Kansas City to attend the Baptist Grand Annual Convention. He will be gone several weeks.

W. G. Lincoln of Santa Ana has spent several days in the city.

Mrs. A. Freeman and Miss Ellen Crain seemed to have captured all the pleasure in San Diego and left Tuesday morning.

H. M. Morris motored down from Los Angeles last week.

Eugene Edwards is making San Diego his home

Wm. C. Freeman of Point Loma called at this office and paid for his paper in advance, a few more like him and the Eagle would be the crowning paper.

Arthur Brooks of Fort Worth, Texas, is making his home in this city with his sister, Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. G. H. Hodge left for Vallejo to visit her daughter, Mrs. Price, after which she will go to Oakland to visit her son, she expects to stop on her way home at San Jose.

Miss Ruth Coleman is a house guest of Miss Leola Newlin.

Since one of the fashionable ladies' parlor has been blended with music she does not recognize voices over tee phone any more.

Rev. Kinchin was in town for a few hours last week.

Among the guests at the Richmond hotel are: D. L. Gould, J. H. Trimble, Hazel Gottschalk, G. W. Young, Theresa Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brooks, Mrs. M. P. James Paul Johnson, A. E. Sypples, Roy McClellan, F. A. and J. E. Harvey, H. Clairette and wife, Mrs. Watson, B. G. Gray, J. W. Walker, Chas. Jones, Harry Miller John Hall and wife, Miss R. F. Wilson, Mrs. Naomi Pharr, E. Hall Edward Atkinson, R. Bilbrew and wife, S. G. Prentis, Dr. W. H. Tarleton, A. Ferguson, B. Henderson, all of Los Angeles, C. E. Brunson, Santa Monica; A. F. Seaton, Riverside; A. L. Reese, S. Griffith, Venice; R. B. Scott and wife, Pasadena.

Notice to subscribers—Our solicitor will call on you, after which, if bill is not paid, there will be no delivery of papers.

J. P. Lovett of Chicago accompanied by P. H. Phillips of Los Angeles called at this office.

The Black and Tan Orchestra will conduct dances every Wednesnight at Masonic Hall in future.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mason a happy scene was witnessed Tuesday evening when 21 children assembled to partake and enjoy an hour of meeriment in honor of Mattie and Charley Mason's birthday The children enjoyed the evening singing and playing games, after which they gathered around a long table in the dining room laden with good things to eat.

LOS ANGELES NEWS.

Hilbert Rozier Completes Wonderful Drama

After four months of hard thinking, conceiving and putting together, Hilbert Rozier, a popular young clubman, has attained success in writing a four act drama entitled "A Brother's Jealousy."

This play is of modern makeup with thrill from start to finish. It is a story of two brothers and another man who love the same girl

The elder brother and the other man are candidates for district attorney.

The ambitious elder brother tricks the other man and is elected Finally he commits murder and prosecutes his brother for his own crime but his guilt is discovered by the girl he loves.

Hilbert Rozier, Jas. Rogers, JuliusBaker and Cornelius Leggett surrounded by an all star cast of forty make up the role.

Hilbert Rozier has also novelized his drama and it will be published in the Eagle, beginning with the next issue. Don't fail to read it and then see it acted.

BERTHA ALEXANDER.

By Hilbert L. Rozier.

Oh no, I haven't been sick—just been on a little vacation.

The L.A. White Sox realize, now more than ever before, what Julius Baker, their sturdy little backstop, means to their team. Baker is out of the game with a sprained wrist and as a result his team is sorely handicapped; he will be able to don the mask again in a few weeks.

When it comes to wonderful productiong the Furlong tract is in a class by itself. Just take a glance at a few of their representatives: Pianists—Misses Lottie Bolds, Doris Young, Josephine Baker, Ruth Sykes and Irene Salisbury. Soloists—Miss Mayme Lowe, Mrs. Nellie Battles Williams and Elmer Jackson. Debaters—T. A. Greene Jr., L. C. Greene, Eugene Walker. Master Jesse Sykes is a wonder with the violin for his age, while Jesse Smith is an artist with the cornet and banjo-madolin. These are only a few of those who star in their respective lines.

The Tract also plays no little part in planting stars in the athletic world. Julius Baker, catcher for Manual Arts High was rated as one of the best backstops in high school ranks. Marion (Dock) McLaughlin is what Howard Drew would call "some sprinter," at the age of 15 he stepped 100 yards in 10 3-5 seconds, nuff sed.

We are also equipped with a few "Jack Johnsons" among whom are Don McLaughlin and Bill Jackson. McLaughlin is a clever lightweight while Jackson is a middleweight. For information as to his punch see "Blue" Washington.

We also have a newspaper reporter—I mean beautiful weather.

Answers to Queries

Can you tell me whether Clarence Smith is the name of an alley or an animal? A. Neither. Clarence Smith is the name of a peculiar kind of squirrel food.

Do the White Sox really wear white stockings? A. No, the White Sox don't but the players do.

I am a foreigner and would like to know who is president of the U. S.? A. Sorry sir, but we have no president, but Wilson is temporary chairman.

Who do you consider the best actor in our city? A. Jim Hunt, he has been acting as manager of the Hoegee Giants for 2 years and nobody ever caught on.

Lawrence Greene: I am very sorry but your letter cannot be published in this column as this is not an "advice to the love-lorn" column. Better send it to Cynthia Grey.

A DESERTED LOVER

GUILLOUME H. SIDNETT

MANY a man has fallen in love with a picture hat under the impression that it was the aura of a beautiful soul. Yea, I am done with it forever! Now shall I be in peace, far from the maddening women. I shall dwell with men and books, and mine own thoughts for company; for though it may not be good for man to live alone, yet it is comfortable. No more shall I hearken to their flatteries, for lo! in their hearts they believe that if it be meet for them to flatter me, it shall be meat and bread and jam and honey also for them to hook me. Verily, I have watched them at their work and I see through them, every one. I am weary of their glances, and their sweet nothings fall upon me as water on a mackintosh. I have barricaded my heart with steel, and wrapped my sentiments in cotton batting. Mine emotions are insulated. I have dug a moat of suspicion about me; yea, I am safe. Now, shall I go forth when and where I please, and return at mine own desire. Not one of them shall dare to summon me upon the telephone, saying: why hast thou not arrived, for I am dressed and waiting. Not one of them shall steep me in tears and cover me with reproaches, and immerse me in emotions as a fly in a can of molasses, for I have broken with them all. Yea, I am free. Now can I go forth and walk among them without danger, the hooks in their hands cannot frighten me, the nets in their eyes cannot snare me, I am as adamant.

FIRST STEP TOWARD THE SOLVING OF THE RACE PROBLEM

In our last issue we announced to the reading public that we would publish the details of a proposition that is worthy of their consideration.

Now, before presenting the facts in the case we wish, as a member of the "Progressive Educational Association," to state the underlying principles that prompted or created the spirit of this organization. The nine persons composing the organization that was effected some months ago, are Christian men and women, deeply interested in the future of the Race with which they are connected, and furthermore this company has no idea or intention of promoting any segregation proposition, but are ambitious to demonstrate to the community and to the world that the Negroes of this country can get together on one thing.

What the Progressive Educational Association Has Accomplished

The Association has already secured a tract of land in the State of Arizona which is a part of the territory purchased by the United States from the Republic of Mexico and known as the Gadson Purchase. The lands under discussion comprise about two million (2,000,000) acres. The Educational Association now holds claim upon one hundred thousand acres of this land.

A few weeks ago four of the members of the company in company with a land expert, visited this territory in question and in substance brought back this report:

"There is no alkali, no dobie soil, no rocks, no sand or sand dunes and no gullies. The land needs no leveling for irrigation. By demonstration on the part of the U. S. Government it is the best cotton producer in the States and cattle raising is its specialty.

Two crops a year can be produced without irrigation—one in December, and the other in June. Without irrigation this soil will produce fifty and sixty bushels of wheat to the acre, and the same of corn. his country is also free from the winds that tantalize the California farmer.

he water is so pure that there is absolutely no trash or sediment in a boiler used for four years.

There are no fogs and fruit or vegetables that can be produced anywhere in the U. S. can be produced in abundance upon this soil.

The Company has opened its office at 12th and Hemlock streets in the real estate office of H. H. Williams and Company, and any further information concerning the land will be cheerfully given.

A Brief History of the Country

In the year 1521 in what was called the Spanish Conquest, Spain got possession of the territory comprising Mexico and the States of Texas, California, New Mexico and Arizona.

The Spanish found the inhabitants (Indians) civilized or semi-civilized, dwelling in fixed abodes cultivating the soil, practicing a formal religion and governed by permanent laws.

In reviewing the actual history of this country we find that the Indians dwelling here were and are of a fairly high intellectual standard.

We are also persuaded to believe that the history of the country dates back further than any records at hand give.

What the Company Proposes

This company proposes to build an empire for Afro-Americans over which a Black president shall reign, and all officials shall be Black people.

A great university for the training of the head, heart and hand is to be the center about which the chief city must grow. All people dwelling in and about the city will be spiritually and not carnally minded, for this is the rock upon which we are laying our foundation.

It would be impossible for us to close this chapter of what may appeal to some of readers as a strange note without giving honor to whom honor is due.

This idea that is being promoted by this company was conceived in the fertile brains of our own Dr. J. D. Gordon, of this city. It is not a new idea with this man of God. For a number of years it has haunted his mind. A few years ago the hand of Destiny brought him to the African coast where he took a retrospective view of the fatherland, but that same hand of Destiny caused him to right about face and go back to the land of his birth. Since that time he has struggled with himself with the hope that he might overcome the command that had been given him, because he knew that his people would not understand, but it was the irresistible hand of God that was leading and it leads him still.

The Get Acquainted Literary Club will hold their installation of officers and an informal debate on the subject: Resolved, That women should hold offices, local and national. This debate is to be led by Miss Idell Albritton for the affirmative and Mr. H. C. Johnson for the negative, after which it will be open for general discussion. All are invited to come and participate therein. Tuesday evening, at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

MRS. A. ELGIN ENTERTAINS EDITOR AND WIFE

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Annie Elgin, who is one of the pioneer settlers of Los Angeles, and among the first acquaintances and friends made by both Editor and Mrs. Bass on coming to this city, entertained the editor and wife at dinner, Sunday afternoon. No other guests were present. The dinner party was little unlike a family reunion.

Mrs. Elgin makes her friends feel homelike always, and this was not unlike other occasions.

Mrs. J. A. Trimble is chaperoning the charming Misses Hazel Gottschalk and Theresa Anderson on their vacation at San Diego, seeing the Exposition and other places of interest before resuming their studies at Polytechnic High School.

PASADENA

Dr. A. C. Garrot and Attorney Charles Darden were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Boykin Monday.

George Carnahan will soon leave for New York.

Vote dry if you think it is for the best.

Go and register if you have not and want to vote in November.

Lottery joints and bocse are having trouble in Pasadena.

Be sure and get the Eagle next week.

Many people want Rev. Dyatt returned to this city, as he is among the few good men.

Vote as you pray.

Dr. J. T. Hill occupied the pulpit for Rev. Hughes while he is on his vacation. Sunday morning he took as his text, "Lovest thou me," the words that Jesus said to Simon and Peter. He is a pulpit orator and a graduate of the University of Southern California and a very able speaker.

At the First A. M. E. church the Rt. Rev. H. B. Parks of Chicago preached one of the greates sermons ever delivered in that church Bishop Parks like Bishops Heard, Flipper, Turner, Williams and Gaines is a native of Georgia.

Rev. Driver preached tuesday night at the tent on South Fair Oaks avenue. Rev. J. Gordon McPherson is in charge of the meeting and is making a success of it.

Nelson Weatherton has professed hope in Christ and joined Scott Chapel Sunday.

It is reported that Rev. E. W. Kinchen will soon become the pastor of Scott Chapel in this city.

The City Mission Board met at Tabernacle Baptist church Monday, September 4 to organize the work of the city mission, auxiliary to the Bapaist convention. Mrs. S. B. Strickland was elected president, Mrs. I. H. Ford secretary, Mrs. A. E. Webber. Members of board: Mesdames C. Hughes, Alice Bbsby, D. M. Jennings, J. E. Freeman, M. Thomas, Nethe Broomfield, M. R. Scott, S. E. Colea. M. J. Davis, Pauline Hubert, L. L. Moore, A. E. Weber, I. H. Ford, S. B. Strickland.

HIAWATHA WEDDING FEAST GREAT SUCCESS

Tuesday evening at Trinity Auditorium the "Wedding Feast," from S. Coleridge Taylor's Hiawatha, was staged under the direction of Prof. Robt. G. Jackson, of Western University.

More than a thousand people filled the first floor and the galleries of Trinity to witness the biggest musical feat ever undertaken by tthe Los Angeles people.

The impersonation of Indian characters and Indian scenes by the entire cast was well taken, but especially good were characters portrayed by Miss Antoinette Young as "Minnehaha," Mr. Harvey Patton as "Pau-puh-Keewis," and Miss Anita Thompson as the Indian dancer. In grace and ease Miss Thompson is in a class by herself as a dancer. Every movement, even the wave of a hand, suggest beauty, not outward but soul deep. We predict for her a future in the art of dancing not yet made by an American girl.

The other numbers on the program of especial merit were the contralto solo by Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters. Mrs. Winters' voice is rich and melodious and was in excellent trim upon this occasion.

Mrs. C. Hulbert, president and and the few members of the Allen Allensworth Club, who worked with her untiringly deserve great credit for the success of the affair.

Conference Notes

Rev. Edwards of Fresno was asked where could he go next year? He replied by asking the Eagle man if he had an opening.

One of the old war horses of the convention is Rev. A. Simpson of Riverside, who is also a foremost business man of that city, but stands ready to obey the call of the bishop at all times.

From rumors that cannot be traced, the conference, or at least a part of it, is looking for a wedding to be pulled off this session.

Rev. J. M. Brown of Oakland, a friend of many years' standing of the editor, is one of the shining lights of this Conference.

Rev. J. H. C. Redd says he is always at the command of his leader. He served in Riverside last year.

When Rev. J. L. Craw's report was read in the conference and during the demonstration which followed the same, an up-state preacher was heard to remark: "That man is sure some hustler!"

* * *

Rev. J. A. Duncan of Santa Barbara, the church builder, has made good with a vengeance. THE EAGLE is especially pleased at his success and hopes for a continuance of the same.

Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson is the busy man of the conference, as delegation after delegation are waiting on him.

Rev. Triggs of the Watts church is one of the substantial members of the conference.

Rev. A. O. Steele of Redlands, who has been on the sick list for so long is much improved.

* * *

Rev. Harvey of San Diego is serving his first year in the California Conference, coming here from the Missouri Conference.

Rev. Harbert made a very excellent report from San Francisco. He is one of the leading ministers of the entire west, and can always be depended upon for results.

Rev. B. R. Guy of Sacramento, accompanied by Mrs. Guy, brings from the Capital City a good report. The Reverend is also an old-time friend of the editor of this paper, and is one who we can heartily recommend for his sterling worth.

* * *

Rev. Fletcher of Stockton, although in poor health, has done very well at this point, and despite his ill health, reported at this conference.

* * *

Rev. J. W. Price of Bakersfield will not go back to his appointment again. The EAGLE makes this as our forecast. The reason: He has served the limit. Rev. Price is one of the bright stars in the ministry, and need not worry, as no doubt he will be well cared for.

* * *

Rev. E. R. Johnson of the Furlong Tract church has done a good service and comes to Conference with the satisfaction of doing his best. The best report in the history of the church: 50 per cent. increase.

Sister Eliza Warner is a feature at this session. She leads the hosts militant. To see her work is, indeed, an inspiration. She was also appointed as a delegate to the National Educational Conference at Washington, D. C., by Governor Hiram Johnson.

Rev. Dyett of Pasadena is much improved in health this session. The people are by no means ready to let him go, and if many of them have their way he will remain at least another year.

* * *

Rev. F. E. Moton says that he will, in all probability, transfer. He made an excellent report from Ward Chapel. His dollar money report was $8.00 in excess of last year's report.

The Women's Missionary meeting of Thursday was a feature of the conference.

Rev. Judkins of Duarte ably held up the banner that place.

Rev. C. A. Harris of Pomona brings in a great report from that section, and is content to rest on his laurels.

SOMETHING NEW! TO ENJOY POURSELF ON ADMISSION DAY! WHAT? A LOTTO PARTY

To be given by the Native Sons and Daughters Club of California No. 1, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Russell, Saturday evening, Sept. 9. Come and win a prize. We invite you to come and enjoy the evening with us, be you from the North, South, East or West.

About 15 members of the Hiawatha chorus under the direction of Prof. R. G. Jackson did great credit to themselves and to their race on last Sunday night, when they sang to a crowded house at the M. E. Church on Sixth and Hill streets. Not only did these singers lift the souls of their listeners to the heighest pinnacle, but Prof. Jackson thrilled them, when his fingers caused the great pipe organ to talk out "My Old Kentucky Home."

Mrs. M. L. Gottschalk has returned from a much enjoyed two weeks stay in the northern cities of Oakland and San Francisco, being the house guest of Mrs. M. Judge.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards entertained at a five-course dinner at their home, in honor of Mr. S. L. Daniels, of San Diego; Mrs. J. A. Trimble, Mr. Brown, and Miss Carnie Clifton, of Los Angeles. The house was beautifully decorated with choice carnations after which the party motored to Pasadena, visiting Busch's Gardens and other points of interest.

Rally Club No. 3 of New Hope Baptist Church, Mrs. W. E. Captain, gave a pink tea on Sept. 1, at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Janes, 1253 Tennessee St. The decorations were notable for their unusual manner of arrangement. Presiding at the tea table was Mr. J. S. Smith. Another delightful feature was the wonderful ability of the little Misses Ardelia Robinson and Ardelia Booker as tea maids. Honorable mention of those present during the afternoon and evening were Mrs. C. C. Lewis and daughter Emma, Dr. Leonard Stovall, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards, Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Rev. W. E. Kinchen, Miss A. Robinson of El Paso, Tex.; Rev. and Mrs. A. Lively, Attorney W. O. Tyler, Attorney C. A. Jones and others. The affair was indeed a grand success.

As each day goes by Sisters of the Mysterious Ten are returning from the Grand Temple session, which convened in Oakland, about 50 having been in attendance from Los Angeles. The city of Oakland did herself much credit, havin gappropriated $250 for the entertaining of this grand body, and the committee of brothers and sisters did not fail to spend it for the pleasure of all present, and everyone returning is loud in praise of the north. The session was one of the best held in ten years.

Most of the grand officers were re-elected. Those returning this week are Mrs. Sarah P. Shores, Mrs. Emma Duncan, Mrs. M. L. Gottschalk, Mrs. A. Oliver, Mrs. M. Woodyard, Mrs. P. E. Robinson, Mrs. Celia Francis, Mrs. W. Willingham, Mrs. E. Clausell.

Mrs. Hudson, sister of Mrs. Rilda, of Phoenix, who came to Los Angeles from Arizona for a visit of several months, was called home suddenly to the bedside of her daughter.

Mrs. J. J. Leggett and daughter Cornelia are enjoying a pleasant stay at the beach.

The Knights and Daughters of Tabor are spreading their wings. Oakland will soon boast of a Temple and Tabernacle.

Mrs. Lydia Morris arrived Tuesday from Marshall, Tex., and is stopping with her friends, the Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ashford, of 1565½ East Adams St., are the proud parents of a 12-pound baby boy. Mother and baby are doing fine.

We are glad to note that the Rev. Mrs. F. H. Davis is convalescing from an accident accrued from a trip on the P. E. cars to the beach.

The wedding of Miss M. Nance and Temple Thornton took place at the home of the young man's parents, on East 25th St., last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Ministers' Wives Alliance will hold its regular meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Byers, Pico and Paloma Streets. All ministers' wives are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Hays Coleman left, Sept. 1, returning to their home in San Antonio, Tex., by automobile. They will be greatly missed by all friends and in church circles, as they were energetic workers of Wesley M. E. Church.

The Eagle flies all over the jurisdiction of the A. M. E. Church in California, and we know whereof we speak when we say that the service of Rev. J. H. Wilson as a presiding elder can be equaled only by a few and excelled by none. He is a man who is always on the job.

Free Seventh Day Adventists church, 1446 West 36th St. The Berean Literary Society will be favored with selections by the Harris Bilbrew Jubilee Singers and by the pleasing violinist, Mrs. S. P. Dones, Sunday, Sept. 17, at 3 p. m.

The entire program will be a splendid one. Hearty welcome to all.

NOTICE

If you have ever been a student of Western University, this means you. Pres. H. T. Keeling has sent a message to all Western University students in Los Angeles. This message is to be delivered by Prof. Jackson, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 10, at 12 o'clock at the home of Mr. A. Murdocks, 982 Austin St. All W. U. students be present.

DR. W. C. GORDON AND WIFE RETURN FROM TOUR OF WEST AND MIDDLE WEST

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon, who left the city the first part of August to attend the National Medical Association, which met at Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 22, 23 24, have returned to their home in this city.

En route to the convention the Gordons visited their old home, Springfield, Ohio., also Columbus, Chicago and St. Louis, at all of which places they made pleasant stops and were highly entertained by their friends. Dr. and Mrs. Gordon being favorably known in these parts.

Reaching Kansas City they found more than two hundred persons, representing the medical profession in attendance upon the Association, and the entire three days' session was one of inspiration, as the reports of advancement along the medical profession line came from all sections of the country.

These Negro physicians and surgeons, who represent the very cream of the Race, in most cases are struggling against odds to ascend to the upmost round in the profession. Discriminated against by the whites and mistrusted by their own people, yet upon such occasions as this but recently held at Kansas City a most optimistic view of the situation is taken, such as this report brought back by our own Dr. Gordon, Leslie who is one of the most successful physicians in this city and in fact country.

DR. H. D. PROWD

In a similar period no physician neither white nor black, has made greater progress along his line in the West than has Dr. Gordon. Coming to California less than four years ago he has built up a practice too broad in its scope to be taken care of by one man, and his success was not overlooked by the Association, for he was elected to a place on the Executive Board of that great organization.

Dr. Byrd, an able physician of Virginia, was elected president for the ensuing year.

On their return trip Dr. and Mrs. Gordon visited Denver, Colorado Springs, San Francisco and Oakland.

MINISTERS' ALLIANCE INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the interdenominational ministers' alliance on last Tuesday, it was decided that the ministers of the various churches would promote and carry out a monster meeting in October in behalf of amendments No. 1 and No. 2, better known as "California Dry."

The following officers were then duly installed by Rev. J. D. Gordon for the ensuing year:

Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pres. Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Vice-Pres.; Rev. Archie Williams, Secretary; Rev. R. D. Arline, Assistant Secretary; Prof. T. A. Green, Treasurer.

CONDUCTOR ORDERS GUESTS FROM DINING CAR

Chicago Defender News Service. Green River, Wyoming, August 25.

Cooper Smith and wife went into the dining car on the Union Pacific railway to get their meals and were asked to leave the car by the white conductor, H. E. Cetterson, who was in charge of the car, No. 353. Mrs. Smith had taken a chair when told that people of her color were not served by that road. Mr. Smith, who opens at the Orpheum in San Francisco, will sue the railroad company.

Ensley, Ala., Aug. 25.—The men on the railroad here are thinking seriously of going north to work. The railroads are paying white men 90 cents per day more than they pay members of the race. Such a discrimination is being felt and the time has come for them to leave and go north, where labor pay is higher and no discrimination in salary. The northern agents for labor will find this a splendid field to find workmen.

Americus, Ga., Aug. 25.—Fifty members of the race were arrested last week when they attempted to leave for cities in the north and east. Several policemen were sent to the depot when the chief heard that many were leaving. Armed with John Doe warrants they boarded the train when it began to speed toward Leslie. The arrested men were brought back and held, pending investigation and legal operations to stop the wholesale immigration North. The Southern Plantation owners are loud in their complaints since the death of Booker T. Washington, whose advice to the Negro to remain in the South had a great influence in keeping them there, and if he were now living, there would be no such Negro exodus North as is now desired, they say.

It is reported that the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad pasenger conductors on trains 21 and 22, daylight trains between St. Louis and Chicago, are attempting to bar Race passengers out of the club chair car, which is free to all passengers. The matter is being investigated by F. H. Rutherford, terminal superintendent at Chicago, so said.

"I'LL BE WAITING FOR YOU, SOLDIER BOY"

Is the title of one of the very latest war songs on the market. The words of this song were written by Miss Lillian Prowd, and put to music by Miss Helen Prowd, both daughters of Dr. H. D. Prowd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of this city.

The Misses Prowd are very beautiful young women. Not beautiful because of their physical features, but because of their sweet Christian characters due to the careful training by their parents, who represent the highest type of Christian culture.

The words of the song composed by Miss Lillian are sweetly pathetic with a yearning for a lover who perhaps will never return from the scene of battle, but whose memory will ever be sacred to the maiden who loved and lost.

The music has a sad but rhythmic swing, and both words and music no doubt will meet with favorable criticism from the best critics.

In order that the public may be favored the song will be rendered at the People's Auditorium, 1119 Los Angeles street, Los Angeles, Tuesday evening, by Miss A. Young for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

Bishop Parks and wife left Wednesday for Phoenix, Arizona, en route for the Colorado Conference.

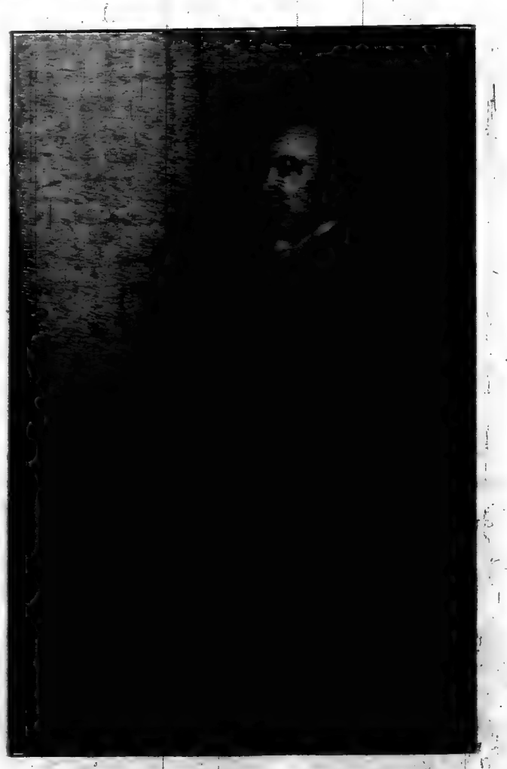
MORE ABOUT THE PROGRESSIVE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The Association has started its work. Since last Saturday two hundred acres of land have been sold.

The Company, the buyers and persons interested in this effort on the part of a few of our people to realize the ambition of a race, are all optimistic as to the future of this project. As we stated last week the idea of such a racial enterprise was conceived by Dr. J. D. Gordon, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church of this city.

Dr. J. D. Gordon, Founder of the Progressive Association Idea.

When the Association was first organized in Dr. Gordon's study at the church, nine persons were present. They were Dr. Scott, Dr. Gordon, Dr. Hughes, Mr. H. H. Williams, Revs. Ramsey, Lively, Rozier, Mrs. C. A. Bass and Judge Langdon. These nine persons are the founders and promoters of this project which was put before the public last week for the first time.



In the first meeting of the Association certain persons were detailed to look out a suitable site. Many districts in California and Arizona were offered where large tracts of land could be secured, but the Association came to no conclusion on any of them until one day Mr. H. H. Williams, our hustling real estate agent, with a more than twenty years' record as an energetic agent in this state and county sited this vast tract in Arizona which promises to be the greatest Black Empire the world has ever known.

We, the members of the Association, hope and pray that our people as a whole will avail themselves of this opportunity and that within a few months every inch of this land will be taken.

Any person in doubt as to the security of the land and the absolute safety of the proposition, may look as deeply in to the records of them as they may desire.

The agents already established are:

H. H. Williams, 1315 E. 12th St.
Rev. W. H. Rozier, 540 Holmes Ave.
Rev. R. H. Wade, 1621 W. 36th Place.
Rev. C. N. Moore, corner Crocker and Agatha.

COLORED WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB ORGANIZED

This afternoon all Colored women interested in the future welfare of our country and especially interested in the future prosperity of our state are requested to be present at The Eagle office, 814 Central ave., this afternoon at 4 o'clock to devise ways and means for the promotion of a true Republican spirit among our people.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF A. M. E. CHURCHES CLOSE IN A BLAZE OF GLORY.

Appointments Made by Bishop Parks Gives General Satisfaction

The 49th session of the California A. M. E. Church closed in a blaze of glory on last Sunday evening and the closing was indeed a fitting climax to one of the greatest conferences ever held on the Pacific Coast.

On Sunday morning, Bishop Parks preached a memorable sermon; one of those soul stirring sermons and as a result thereof, one of the greatest spiritual awakenings manifested itself that it has ever been the writers lot to witness. Strong men and women wept and rose from their places in the audience and came forth professing Jesus Christ as their Savior. There was upward of 20 who joined the church at this service. It was indeed a wonderful service; it seemed as though everything was set for a glorious day in Zion. Also at the afternoon service the sermon by Rev. R. J. Fletcher was enjoyed by all who heard it and all day long they feasted on both the Spiritual feast and the feast for the inner man as the mens cooperative club had a feast prepared that would satisfy the most fastidious and avaricous.

The evening service was one long to be remembered, long before the time for the evening service to commence every seat in the historic Eighth and Towne street church was filled and standing room was at a premium and by the time for the service to begin, the lobbies were filled and overflowing, and it is estimated that considerable more than a thousand persons came and went away before said service began.

Rev. J. M. Brown of Oakland preached the closing sermon of the conference and those who were so fortunate as to hear it will ever remember this effort of Rev. Brown. He was at his best and delivered a burning message that carried conviction with it.

Special mention also might be made of the choir of the Eighth and Towne church for the excellency of their selections on this occasion.

The Bishop did not arrive until after ten o'clock, but so tense was the interest in the appointments that the immense crowd never budged, and after the preliminaries was out of the way such as resolutions, etc., Bishop Parks gave out the following list of appointments:

Watts, Geo. L. Triggs.
Second L. A., E. R. Johnson.
Pomona, A. Simpson.
Redlands, C. H. Harris.
San Bernardino, J. H. C. Redd.
Riverside, C. J. Lockhardt.
Ward Chapel L. A., J. W. Price.
First Church, L. A., J. Logan Craw.
San Diego, B. R. Grey.
Pasadena, W. W. S. Dyett.
Duarte, H. Judkins.
Santa Barbara, J. A. Duncan.
Bakersfield, R. H. Harbert.
Fresno Circuit, A. O. Steele.
Stockton, J. E. Fletcher.
Sacramento, T. A. Harvey.
San Francisco, To be supplied.
Oakland, J. M. Brown.
Marysville Circuit, R. E. Edwards.
Red Bluff, To be supplied.
Reno, To be supplied.

AUTO OUTING

Those who participated in an auto outing complimentary to Mrs. A. L. Vaa and Mrs. Lucile Givens of Texas and Mrs. Henry Young of Chicago, Ill., were Mesdames Dora Gamble, A. Hill and A. E. Walker.

The party visited Pasadena and Busk's Gardens, Monrovia and other shops along the way and enjoyed a most pleasant trip, pronouncing the scenery along the way most beautiful.

MAYOR ROLPH IS GOOD SAMARITAN TO AFRICAN METHODIST ZION CHURCH

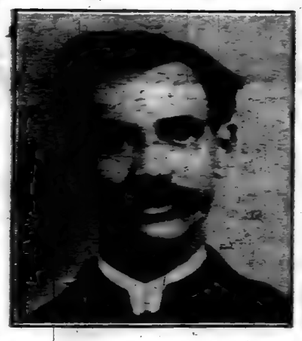
From San Francisco Chronicle, September 2nd, 1916.

If Lemuel Harris, Mayor Rolph's Negro messenger, did ont happen to be a member of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church, it is probable that the church property would have been sold at a sheriff's sale next Tuesday.

Up to a few weeks ago, the flock was led by Rev. E. D. W. Jones. He left suddenly, leaving behind him two mortgages, interest payments overdue, and a deficit in the church treasury. Rev. E. M. Clark succeeded Rev. Mr. Jones, coming to San Francisco from the south. Rev. Mr. Clark, together with W. W. Matthews, presiding elder of the church, vainly sought for funds. In their search they called on the Mayor's messenger. The two were gloomily discussing the depleted finances of the church when Mayor Rolph appeared.

"Isn't that your church, Lem?" asked the Mayor.

"Yes, sah; I am honored by a membership and my wife is the stewardess."



"Was that the congregation that prayed for me while I was in the hospital?"

"Yes, sah; it was."

"Come to my office this afternoon and I will see that your indebtedness bothers you no more," said Mayor Rolph.

REV. J. H. C. REDD RECEIVES CHARGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

Rev. J. H. C. Redd is one of the hard workers of the California Conference, and having faith in his ability to guide the destinies of the new church at this point, Bishop Parks assigned him to San Bernardino. Rev. Redd was the statistical secretary of the Conference and has served in various conferences since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, as one of the secretaries of same Conference. He is wide awake and is ably assisted by Mrs. Redd, who is an evangelist of the conference.

WILL OPEN ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS ENTERPRISE ON CENTRAL AVE. AND 12TH STREET

Another of our enterprising citizens in the person of Mr. Fred Shaw has joined forces with those who are Doing Something along the lines of business endeavor; and is putting in a strictly first class billiard and pool room, barber shop, cigar stand and shining parlor on the S. W. corner of 12th and Central avenue.

Mr. Shaw is an old railroad man and for a while conducted a cafe on Central near Fourth street.

Mr. Shaw assures the Eagle man that his highest ambition will be to make this a high and strictly first class place; it will be fitted with the very latest fixtures and with everything that goes with the various business concern at that place. Outside will be the cigar stand and shining parlor. Just inside the door an up-to-date barber shop and on the inside the pool and billiard hall. The place is being rapidly put in order and it is, if possible, Mr. Shaw's intention to have Saturday evening for his opening day. Later on there will be a final opening. Mr. Shaw says that he will put in a place which will stand as a high credit to all.

Prof. R. G. Jackson left for his home in Kansas City last Monday morning. He seemed loath to go, but duty called.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

Rev. J. W. Price has been assigned to the pastorate of the above named church. He will preach his first sermon at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. All will be welcome.

At 3 p. m. Dr. F. F. Moten, the outgoing pastor will preach his farewell sermon, and quite a number of the pastors from other churches with their congregations will be present to say good bye to Dr. Moten and family.

A.M.E. Zion

Last Sunday morning Rev. J. W. Prix, of Bakersfield, delivered an excellent sermon from the text: "Look unto me all ye ends of the earth and be ye saved." A splendid audience was in attendance.

Next Sunday the Pastor will occupy the pulpit at each service.

Subject for morning service "Active Religious Principles."

There will be an interesting program by the children during the Sunday School hour.

Tuesday evening, Sept. 19th. the Conscience Club of the Church will meet with Mrs. Marie L. Gottschalk, 1337 Newton St. All members and friends are expected to be present.

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST INSTITUTIONAL CHURCH

There was good service at the Church all day Sunday and a good attendance. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. services were also well attended. At 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. C. S. Moore, our pastor, fed the flock of God. It was a glorious service.

At night the pastor preached a special sermon to the elected Deaconess of the church, and Rev. Wade gave them the charge.

Sunday will be a high day at the church—all day—The Alabama Club serving a barbecue dinner at 12:30.

Mt. Zion, St. Paul, Second Baptist and Tabernacle will convene at Providence Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m. to examine Brother E. Payne for the ministry.

A special program will be rendered by the Choir at 7:30, to which the public are cordially invited.

Miss Florence Williams read an excellent paper in the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

Last Sunday was an old fashioned Quarterly Meeting day. At 11 a. m. District Superintendent Peck preached a marvelous sermon that will always live in the hearts of the people. At 3 p. m. the Quarterly Conference was held and at least 150 officers and members of the church were in attendance. The evening service saw a great audience present to witness the installation of officers of the Brotherhood and to hear a special sermon by pastor Kinchen on "Besetting Sins."

Next Sunday will no doubt be a great day, as this is the last Sunday before the Annual Conference, and in all likelihood the last Sunday that pastor Kinchen will serve this church as pastor. He has been in charge of this splendid church for five and one-half years, and during that time the Church has come into a great heritage of power, both in the community and in the nation. The Quarterly Conference voted unanimously to ask he return of Pastor Kinchen, but owing to the fact that he has made his plans to serve the church at Pasadena, he has not only refused several offers from the largest churches in the East but will ask to be relieved of the responsibilities of this great church. No Pastor and Church ever closed their ministry with greater love and respect for each other than does Pastor Kinchen and the officers and members of Wesley Chapel. He will preach at both services Sunday and give his farewell message Sunday evening.

St. Philips Church—Episcopal

1527 Paloma Ave.

The Rector has returned from his extended vacation and with a vision of a successful 1916-17 term of Church work he has already gotten down to work with a vigor that is inspiring to all around him. On Sunday Choral Mass will be sung by the Rev. Father Owens as Celebrant, and the Reverend the Rector will be the preacher.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows Hall, Cor. 4th and Wall Sts.

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

The Peoples Independent Church continues to move onward and upward, the inspiring services of last Sunday being well attended. Pastor Greggs occupied his pulpit both morning and evening, and as usual all were greatly benefitted by his able sermons. Five accessions to membership were made.

The members and friends are all satisfied that false rumors and reports are too insignificant to retard the progress of this great church. Evidence plainly shows that God is certainly leading this band of brave Christian soldiers, and Pastor Greggs continues his noble work.

Odd Fellows Hall does not afford room sufficient to accommodate the large crowds that flock to hear this man of God.

The ground breaking services will be held on the fourth Sunday of this month, Sept. 24th. Immediately after the ground breaking the contractor will begin the work on the building, which is to be a first-class modern brick and cement church structure, situated on the northwest corner of 28th and Paloma Sts. Services will continue to be held in Odd Fellows Hall until the building is ready for occupancy.

SAN BERNARDINO

Mr. and Mrs. Venerable spent Sunday in Los Angeles and attending the Conference.

Miss Ruth Ingraham spent Sunday in Los Angeles, the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander entertained with a dinner Friday evning at their residence on Second street, in honor of Miss Valentin Pearman, of Salt Lake, who is a visitor in the city. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and white hybuceps, and the same color scheme was carried out in the desserts. Covers were laid for Miss Pearman, Miss Florence Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. N. E. Foster and grandson, D. L. Smith, Jr., having visited Salt Lake City, Denver, Colo., Texas and Oklahoma, en route to their home in Los Angeles, stoppedo vert o see Mr. and Mrs. R. Belsinger.

Messrs. Elmer and Elwood Whiteside and Misses Valentine Pearman and Miss Florence Harrison motored to Arrowhead Thursday night; to Redlands and Riverside Saturday, and spent Sunday at Mountain Home canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mabra and children, Jamie and Clifford, and Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brock in Redlands Sunday.

The sewing circle of New Hope Baptist church will meet with Mrs. O. V. Harrison Thursday afternoon.

Rev. C. J. Lockhardt will move his family to Riverside Thursday, where he was sent as pastor at the conference recently closed.

PASADENA

The merry party which motored to San Diego Saturday was composed of Messrs. Levy Mills, Jas. Turner, Van Wililams, Chas. Prince and Jack Fisher at the wheel of the "big six."

After visiting the points of interest in and around San Diego, the party crossedi nto Mexico, visiting the Monte Carlo and other pastimes, returning Monday evening, well pleased with the trip.

Mrs. Leva Dailey, formerly a teacher in Georgia, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Prince. Mrs. Dailey is a graduate of the State Normal and holds two college diplomas. She is expecting employment in Hotel Green this season.

THE HOUR OF FREEDOM

The hour of freedom! come it must;
Oh hasten it in mercy, Heaven!
When all who grovel in the dust
Shall stand erect, their fetters riven.

When glorious freedom shall be won
By every Caste, Complexion, Clime,
When tyranny shall be o'erthrown,
And Color cease to be a crime.

—Written by Wililam Lloyd Garrison, in 1832.
(From the Scrap Book of J. D. Reynolds.)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hunter, for many years residents of San Diego, have just returned from a three months' visiting tour, first to their birthplace in Tennessee, thence to Baltimore, Washington, D. C., Detroit, Chicago, New York, and Canada, arriving in Los Angeles en route to their beautiful home in San Diego. They have many friends in Los Angeles and will dine with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, at 1966 Raymond Ave., Wednesday before their departure.

RIVERSIDE

Riverside, Cal., Sept. 13, 1916.
To the California Eagle:

Rev. G. W. Reed, with his family, consisting of wife and two children, arrived here last Sunday morning. Dr. Reed was called to the pastorate of the Second Baptist church about six weeks ago. Having accepted, he has brought his family to take up parmanent residence here. Rev. Reedh as been very ill for the past three weeks, but is now recovering, and will be able to preach Sunday.

The Second Baptist church is rapidly taking on new vigor, and progress is noticeable on every hand. Ushers will have charge of the doors from now on. The choir will be augmented with two stringed instruments and several new members.

The church has been remodeled and painted; also the parsonage.

The pastor will preach at both services Sunday. Morning subject: "Centralization of Affection." Evening: "The Purpose of the Giving and Returning." Special music by the choir. Services begin promptly at 11:00 a. m. and 8 p. m.

CHOICE OF PLACE MADE.

Washington Selected for National Race Congress on Citizenship Rights.

Indications Interest in National Get-together Meeting of Colored Americans to Make a Stand Against Proscription Points to Many Delegates From Many States.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 24, 1916.

The proposed National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress will be held in Washington, D. C., the latter part of September. After a canvass of the situation and receiving suggestions from many race champions over the country, Rev. Byron Gunner, of Hillburn, N. Y., president of the National Equal Rights League, which proposes and calls the congress is less largely of it's ninth annual meeting, announces the capital of the Nation as the consensus of opinion to hold this race congress on equality of rights. No place could be more fitting.

An Open Congress

This National Colored Congress is to be an open one, both to delegated persons and to individual representatives of the cause who attend on their own responsibility. It is to be free and open for race conference, action and declaration. The congress will organize itself independently. The Equal Rights League will call it to order and those assembled will then create the congress.

Aims of the Meeting

Racial fraternizing, mutual acquaintance, unity of spirit and of program, exchange of notes on local conditions, race unity of feeling and a future national working together for rights, a united declaration to the country of colored Americans on color proscription, are among the purposes of this gathering. No move will impress the white American public on our presence, numbers, capacity and spirit for equal rights like an actual national convention attended by large numbers of colored citizens from various states.

How to Get Up Delegates

Delegated representatives are quite advisable, and churches, civic and literary societies, fraternal organizations, political and other clubs are asked to elect and send delegates. The call asks that a Citizens Equal Rights Committee be formed by public spirited citizens in each community to work up interest, hold a public meeting and send representation. Any person is at liberty to start such a committee. Act at once.

Secretary Wm. Monroe Trotter at 27 Cornhill, Boston, will be glad to receive suggestions and inquiries.

All together in 1916 and ON TO WASHINGTON.

As far as the new Mayor Woolman is concerned, it seems as though he means to "Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may."

Now that the people have had time to reflect since the August primaries they can see the futility of electing a man to office along the Color line.

The Back to the Soil Movement relating to the purchase of land in Arizona and the building up of a mighty colony is music to our ears and in fact the only way to a solution of the problems in this section.

The Eagle must insist that all of her subscribers pay up promptly on account of the very high cost of paper. This is imperative and subscribers who fail to pay up will be dropped from our lists without further notice.

NO MORE WILSON OR DEMOCRACY

There are many who are passing the word around "That it looks like Wilson will win in California on account of the disgruntled divers factions."

Now this is all hog wash, this is one election that the PEOPLE are going to decide. And they are going to decide it for progress and prosperity, all of which is synonimous of the Republican party.

The people are taking this affair out of the hands of the politicians and attending to it for themselves. They realize that the progress of this country has been stayed a score of years by Wilson and Democracy and as much as the pikers and those who would do spite work desire, the people are going to in California as they will in every other Northern state, give the Republican ticket a substantial majority. So it is all bosh about any chance of California going for Wilson. The people are doing the voting, not the soreheads, and California stands for real Progress and Prosperity that can only be had by placing in power the Grand Old Party.

WHY NOT?

May we who enjoy the peaceful zephyrs of the Pacific ocean not make the first real step towards Race unity? And if not, why not? Certainly the members of the Afro-American Race in California, in the business and professional walks feel more and more daily the sting of discrimination and petty prejudice based alone on Color difference as it is being practiced daily.

We have made individual fights against these constantly growing conditions that tend to retard our progress as a people and curb our mental development, without returns in our favor. On every hand and from every quarter we hear, as it were, a cry asking what shall we do to be saved from this humiliation? and from each other in whispering accent we hear, "Get together." The white man looks us in the face and tells that if you Black people could get together you could demand and get anything that you ask for, and yet we drift apart.

Some of the Things We Could Accomplish If We Were Together

Some months ago Mr. Horner Garrott, a splendid young officer (Colored) bought property in a certain section of our city and because the whites in that community did not want a Negro in their midst, Mr. Garrott was not allowed to live in his own house until he had been submitted to a drenching court procedure, which is not yet ended and which still keeps Mr. Garrott out of his home, which is unoccupied while he pays rent for another.

The whites in said community got together and raised a fund with which to fight the case. The Negroes were appealed to but not yet have they responded.

A few days ago a Colored girl, who had recently graduated from L. A. High School, applied for nurse training at the Crocker Street Hospital and was emphatically rejected because she was Colored. Yet there is never a week that some Colored patient is not taken to this hospital for treatment and they pay the price.

Now a few of the thinking people have secured a large tract of land in the State of Arizona, with the prospectus of a University with every department of learning enjoyed by the leading Universities of this country; a hospital, and every other business enterprise that tends to complete any Christian civilization.

Now if not, why not? If just the Negroes in California would get together on this proposition, within a few years we as a people would begin to realize that we are truly a people, and a component part of the world's civilization.

WATCH THE EAGLE

There is much to do about near scandals in city politics, but from the things that come to our ears the situation in the recent 74th district primaries was a debauchery on the elective franchise, and the parties thereto should be shown up. We verily believe there is work right here in this district for the Grand Jury. Word comes to us that one man who was a candidate for the Assembly exacted money from three different candidates for the office of Supervisor on the strength of his candidacy for that office.

If this is so, the reason for this continual running, down here, is apparent. And The Eagle is making an investigation which we hope to be able to give out in our next issue. It will be some mighty interesting reading.

SOME JOURNALIST IS HE

A self authentic journal of his own admission with an experience of forty years in the business, is making the rounds in this city with the ridiculous statement that a country patent sheet such as he has carries more reading matter on (one) his back page than all the other Race journals in this city combined.

Our distinguished poetical friend tells this so much that we verily believe that he believes it himself, but in going around in public places, in churches particularly, he should put on the soft pedal, because every time he makes this assertion he is damning his own soul by telling an absolute falsehood.

The Eagle is not opposed to anything legitimate in journalism, but when a man resorts to downright fabrication and gross misrepresentation of his contemporaries he becomes an outlaw at the game.

We had really hoped that our distinguished friend would cut out the "holier than thou" attitude and line up for progress in this bailiwick, but not so. He is "Alexander the Great." He dotes on his diction. We will admit that we fail to rank with Dr. Gonsolaus or Prof. Swing, but any man who permits himself to be called Professor should by right have diction to let.

In his campaign we must insist that he cease to prostitute the sanctity of the church by these things which are ridiculous as well as false.

It is an imposition on the public, if he can get on his feet in journalism, we certainly have no objection, for we all started with the patent sheet, such as his, until we could do better. Now get wise, brother, we have no desire to show you up. And don't force our hand. We have more in reserve.

For I'm as lonely as can be;
I know that you have been fighting, too,
Soldier boy, won't you come back to me, dear?

Chorus:
When you are weary tramping,
Fighting the whole day long;
While 'neath the stars you're camping;
All my life seems wrong without you,
Sweetheart, just keep on dreaming.
Say you won't feel blue,
Dearie, 'cause I'll be waiting,
Soldier boy, for you.

Honey, I've been pining so,
For I'm in need of sympathy.
So when you've whipped your country's foe,
Oh, soldier boy, please come on back to me.

Chorus:

The above song, composed by the Misses Ellen Consuelo Prowd and little sister, Lillian E. Prowd, —words by Miss Lillian, music by Miss Ellen—to be demonstrated at the People's Auditorium, Tuesday, Sept. 19, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Ellen Consuelo Prowd will play the piece, while Miss Antoinette Young will sing it. Come out everybody and hear it.

Mrs Bullett, of Butte Mont., who has been very ill at 1029 E. 9th St is reported much improved

Miss J Caster, of Furlong Tract who has been quite ill was well enough to be out yesterday.

Mr. N. Gordon, who is associated with M. L. Laws at San Diego, is a very able supporter of the Eagle.

Mr. William B. Harris, of E. 20th St., is spending the week at San Diego, taking in the Exposition.

Mr. Clark Brookins, father of John Wood, remains quite ill at the home of his daughterl at Graham, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonza Murdock have returned from their visit and report having a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Frederick Wood dropped in to see his brother, Printer Wood, a few days ago. The brothers had not met for 16 years; so there was an old-fashioned rejuvenation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Johnson, West 23rd St., have returned, after a trip through the mountains in their seven passenger car, having as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker, of Nebraska, and Miss Tinie Little.

Those who have found it impossible to meet their Y. M. C. A. pledge will be glad of an opportunity to help this worthy institution in a small way and be benefited themselves by so doing. The concert on next Tuesday evening at the People's Auditorium is for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. and the admission is but 25 cents, a sum easily in reach of all

Mrs. M. L. Jackson, of San Diego, who was in the city last week attending the Annual Conference and stopping with Miss S. A. Lee, of 1013 Tenn., returned to her home Wednesday.

Mrs. William B. Harris, of East 20th St., who has been visiting in the Northern part of the State, has returned to her home in this city, and reports a very pleasant visit.

On last Sunday afternoon a new club was organized to be part of the club world of Los Angeles. Prof. Robert G. Jackson was the organizer. The Club was organized at the home of Misses Ruth and Ruby Walker and is to be known as the Western University Club. Alfonza Murdock was elected President. All former Western University students having attended the University six months or more are invited to become members.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guarantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long

Mrs. W. Riley, Mrs. G. Taylor, Mrs. Omilla Kies, Mrs. H. C. Hawkins, Mrs. Crawsby, Miss Hazel Black and Miss Clarie revolution; murder was a daily pastime, and loot and robbery regarded as the right of the victor. The Americans murdered by these Mexican outlaws in the early stages were where they had been warned not to be; where they had no right to be during tithes of stress and revolution. They had been repeatedly told by American authorities to get out of danger and stay out until conditions changed.

There is quite a little difference between a Georgia mob and a Mexican mob; in Georgia the victims are Negroes mobbed by whites, more often than not, for no particulr offense; in Mexico whites were murdered by outlaws. The one is killed while supposedly under the protection of their own flag, in their own country; the other is killed on foreign soil under the flag of the highwayman and the professional murderer. There must be some good people in Georgia, but if they lift their voices in condemnation of the men who ruthlessly kill their own fellow citizens and set at defiance the laws Kies, all of Los Angeles, were visiting the city last week as delegates to the annual convention of the State of California Spiritualists. They visited all points of interest. They were entertained by Mrs. Rev. Woodby, at her residence Tuesday night.

Plutocracy of the city entertained last Friday night with the calico ball. The social was arranged to teh pitch of all for the enjoyment of the many aristocracies. Gingerbread and cider were served for refreshments.

A concert was given at Germania Hall Tuesday night for the benefit of the old folks.

The Black and Tan Orchestra of San Diego gave its first ball at the Masonic Hall last Wednesday night, where they will entertain every night in the future.

SanDi ego music lovers are overjoyed on having one of the best orchestras on the Pacific Coast.

The Tia Juana races will open November 11th, according to the statement of Mr. J. W. Coffroth, president, which was scheduled to open November 4th. More than 500 extra stalls have been built in order to accommodate the new arrivals.

Mr. Will Nash will open a music studio in the city in a short time and wil be assisted by Mr. Eugene Edwards.

Mr. Harv Hall, who was injured at the Hercules Powder Plant, is now confined at the hospital, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Los Angeles, who for many years have been with the Tribune and Express, were visitors in the city, taking in the Exposition on a special invitation from the Exposition officials.

Mr. and Mrs. Quay, of Riverside, are visiting her friend, Mrs. Thomas.

Rev. R. B. Guy of Sacramento has been appointed pastor of the Bethel A. M. E. Church of this city. Where there is unity, there is strength.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey goes to Sacramenta.

Mr. W. M. B. Harris of Los Angeles, is on his vacation and has taken in Tia Juana and the Exposition.

Mrs. H. E. Everett, of Los Angeles is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cavel.

Mrs. Kinzie and Hazel Robinson of Monrovia, were in the city for a few days visiting the Fair.

The Manager received a letter from Mr. L. M. Reed of Chicago, congratulating us on the advancement of the paper and says that he will be on the Coast in a few days to renew his subscription before the appointed time is out.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Norwood's Friday afternoon was celebrated the ninth year birthday of little Dorthy Norwood. Thirty-six children were invited and present; also Rev. Williams and wife. All enjoyed the afternoon, playing games and singing, after which the refreshments were served, and the guests all departed for their many homes. Dorothy received many little birthday presents from her friends.

Miss Annie Mulholland left Tuesday morning for Ventura, where she will spend a while with her sister, Mrs. Madge Wilkins. Miss Mulholland will be greatly missed in the B. Y. P. U. work of the Mt. Zion Baptist church.

Mr. L. B. Davidson, recently from Ventura, and who is now on his way to Imperial Valley, paid a pleasant surprise to his sister, Mrs. C. E. Norwood. A gentleman friend, Mr. Hart, is also traveling with Mr. Davison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burnett, who reside on Martin Ave., had a narrow escape from getting burned out last Monday morning. The origin of the fire is not known.

Mrs. E. C. Dyers, wife of Rev. Dyers, of Calexico, has been very sick, and is now at Tia Juana Hot Springs, where she is slowly improving.

Rev. E. C. Dyers, who is pastor of the Christian Church at Calexico, preached a very interesting sermon at the Mt. Zion church Sunday night.

The Rousseau family, who have made a great hit with the Exposition, will play for an entertainment given for the Mt. Zion Baptist church at Masonic Hall, Tuesday evening, September 19. Every one has a cordal invitation to come out.

Mrs. C. E. Norwood has the pleasure of being the first woman of the race as cashier at the Exposition on the Isthmus.

Mrs. L. L. Alexander, who has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks, is slowly recovering.

The Mt. Zion Baptist church will celebrate its 21st birthday anniversary by giving a grand Rally on the 4th Sunday in October. Every one cordially invited to come out and stay all day.

Mr. Joe Robinson, who ran the polo room on Second street, met with an accident Monday while riding his motorcycle, by having a collision with an automobile. Mr. Robinson is improving rapidly.

Miss Josie and Miss Jessie Randolph, and Miss Turner, are all spending the week in San Diego, visiting Miss Helen Randolph, and other friends. They have visited all points of interest.

TheR ichmond Hotel has had a large list the last week. Among those that have stayed longer than usual are: Mr. W. C. Freeman, Point Loma; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Beans and family, of San Francisco; Mr. P. A. Phillips of Los Angeles; Mr. L. A. Miller and wife, M. D. McCarroll, Del Mar; Mr. C. Pendergraft, Douglas, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Page and family, Los Angeles.

BIG CIRCUS DAY DRAWS NEAR

Unusual Amount of Local Interest Centered on Coming of Barnum and Bailey!

The day of all days in the calendar of the small boy has almost arrived and the youngsters counting the hoursAR_____pe of this vicinity are anxiously counting the hours until circus day. It looks now as though a large percentage of the local population, both young and old, will be present at one of the performnces when the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth exhibits in Los Angeles on September 25, 26, 27.

Not in several years has so much local interest been evinced in a circus event as has been displayed this season in the coming exhibition of the Barnum & Bailey Circus. It is promised that the show will display more new and novel efatures than ever before, including 100 new acts from Europe.

The principal feature is the new Oriental, spectacular pageant, "Persia, or the Pageants of The Thousand and One Nights." This great display, which is portrayed by 1,350 persons, and hundreds of horses, elephants and camels, depicts in pageantry the famous tales of the Arabian Nights. In New York City, where the pageant was produced for the first time this Spring, it was announced the most gorgeous and stupendous Oriental display ever presented in America.

Among the foreign circus novelties to be seen for the firs time this season are four troupes of wonderful Chinese performers direct from Pekin, the great Hanneford family of riders; Signor Bagonghi, the famous dwarf equestrian from Italy; James Teddy, champion jumper of the world; Pallenfiberg's two troupes of trained bears, and a hmost of other novel acts too numerous to mention individually.

The Barnum & Bailey circus is traveling this season on five trains, made up of 89 cars. More than 1,400 persons are carried in teh various departments of this great show, which also includes an enlarged menagerie of 108 cages and 41 elephants.

A brilliant, new, three-mile street parade will be given on the streets during the morning hours preceding the first performance.

THE STARS IN THEIR COURSE SIDE WITH A RACE FIGHTING FOR ITS RIGHTS — THE HISTORICAL TEST

Boston, Mass.—This year, 1916, for Colored Americans is historically critical. It marks the accountability year of the first Southern president since freedom and the half century since the passage by Congress of the Civil Rights Bill and of the 14th Amendment creating their citizenship.

For some years we have been losing our rights of citizenship, in law or practice. South and North, an ominous sign. At the height of such a year what is to be the answer of Colored American, itself, what its historical record?

It is not enough to vote against the perfidious Wilson. Even so he might be re-elected. Shall the historian of tomorrow—and he will be a white man, perhaps this same Wilson—record that under a race proscription suffered not so much by any other race, 50 years after receiving citizenship, 12 million strong, this Colored race, alone of like race groups, was incapable of itself creating and maintaining organized self-defense of rights on a national basis?

How Record of Race Can Be Saved

(Religious, fraternal, charity, business organization, local organization for rights or national by the philanthropic aid of noble friends, are all most excellent, but do not sustain our historical record as a race. This can be easily done, however, by the formation of an Equal Rights Committee by Colored Americans in each Colored Community. Have it understood that these committees are for co-operation with other organizations and all difficulty is removed. They are to prevent the charge of no self-fight or initiative, are for members of all other organizations to join, and are not to interfere.

The great OPPORTUNITY comes NOW. Every Colored community should form an Equal Rights Committee at once, and send a delegate to the National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress called for Washington, D. C., in one month's time by the National Equal Rights League, whose branches hold up this cause but in not enough places. Through the Congress or league these Equal Rights Committees—the very name has power—can be nationally connected. Send either a delegate or a message to the Congress. Thus without any interference with existing agencies our race can save its own historical record and by self-help and spirit retain a valid claim before mankind to Equality of Rights.

Act now, Colored America.

William Monroe Trotter.

The Seven Day Advent Choir has left every one of us wishing their return. Their voices seemed like stringed instruments pealing through the air.

Mrs. Minkel Blue and daughter left Sunday morning at 9 o'clock for Chattanooga, Tenn., having been advised of the serious condition of her mother.

Mrs. Balding, Gardner Ave., is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Ward from Oxnard.

Mrs. Drew has removed to her home on Long Beach Boulevard.

The Methodist Choir rallied like soldiers and helped to make the music sweeter.

Mrs. Crothers is preparing for a two month's visit to New Orleans, La.

Mr. Sheilds is making great improvements in his second-hand store.

Mrs. Dewpee's musical program added $15 to the Church treasury.

Mr. Gill, on Manhattan, has improved his place with the addition of a new stable.

Mrs. Oliver, from Hollywood, is visiting here early and late. Wish we had your chance daughter, for what is home without a mother.

The Baptist Rally brought in $121.19

Rev. Crothers knows what to say, how to say it and when.

Paul Woods cannot be praised too highly for the actions of his choir.

MINISTER AND BUSINESS MEN LEAD GANG THAT HANGS MAN TO TELEGRAPH POLE

Chicago Defender News Service

Vivian, La., Sept. 1.—Jess Hammett was handed over to a mob by Sheriff Bazer, who is out to run for another term on the Democratic ticket for re-election. Hammett, who drove for a lumber company in this town, drove up to a farmer's house and asked for a drink of water. Upon seeing him alight from his wagon, accused him of being the man who atacked another man's wife some time ago. Hammett denied this, but was arrested. The officials of the Thomas Lumber Company sought his release, as Mrs. George could not identify Hammett as the man who assaulted her.

All the members of the Race were lined up on one street, and made to remove their shoes, which they did without any resistance. The trouble could have been averted right there had the men showed any inclination to fight.

A mob of 2,000 formed, led by ministers and business men, and took the prisoner, put him in a caboose under guard until they could perfect plans to murder him. Two thousand to one!

Several judges were appealed to, but they were too busily detained at home to pay any attention to the matter.

Nothing has been done. Business goes on as usual. Business men re-opened their stores. The sheriff and his deputies have gone about their campaigns for re-election on the Democratic ticket.

The hanging took place a few miles west of this town.

Hammett, before he died, declared that he did not know anything about Mrs. George, and he DID not know anything about it.

His body was left hanging from a telegraph pole for thousands of women and children to view.

The difficulty of understanding the southern lynching spirit soon disappears after one has had better acquaintance with actual racial conditions. For instance: in Florida recently, a mob lynched a white man for participating in a shooting feud with another white neighbor. The Negro must be suppressed. And the lynching of white business men is undoubtedly intended to impress the colored population with the might of the mob.

Without the shadow of a doubt, just as soon as the SUBNORMAL colored law-breakers hear of the lynching of this white man they will immediately become normal and safe units of society. It is to overawe the Negro that the Atlanta mob lynched a Jew last year. So, at least southerners have explained lynchings to us. The eGorgia lynchers, we have been informed by the "yellow journals," are resepctable citizens, members of the shurch, some of them, and most of them leaders in business—educated and supposed to be enlightened.

This class of people have been loudest in their wail against the Mexican bandits, who, in the main, are reckless, dare-devils, ignorant and irresponsible. A Mexican mob is made up of men who have, during the past few years, lived in lawlessness and not only of their state but of the nation, it is not heard beyond the confines of theih own little circle.

Tn Mexico, even though the government is not responsible for the depredations committed by outlows, it uses every means in its power to hunt down the culprits and as promptly as they are found and caught make their punishmont fit their crime. The American government, by its hilence, gives encouragement to this form of lawlessness. Mexican bandits are afraid to come out in the open; American mobs are hailed as "best citizens." This explains in a measure the difference betweenn a civilized and a semi-civilized country. If skimemd milk is cream, give us chalk water.—From the Scrap Book.

Last Thursday Mrs. Allen of 1200 Arapahoe street entertained a number of her friends with an elaborate dinner party. More than thirty guests were present, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

THOUGHTS WISE AND OTHERWISE

By Hilberte L. Bonier

ClarenceJ ames,a coording to his own statement, is the youngest Sunday school superintendent in the California Conference.

He has the distinction of having successfully passed through 16 sum—winters.

However, most of Clarence's friends are of the ouinion that it should be 16 winters, plus 16 summers, equal 32 years. We're neutral—naturally.

Life is like a mountain railway; but school is like the mountain without the railway. But, I might explain that this doesn't concern the High School student of today.

Signals! 14-21-16, etc, is the cry which will soon be heard on the various athletic fields all over the country, and base ball, with her famous pitchers and great batmen, will be forgotten—temporarily, while Mr. Football will be presenting his heroes, and exhibiting his ability to entertain the athletically inclined public.

Jesse Kimbrough, the Y. M. C. A. Coach, is calling for aspirants for the "Y" team, and a meeting will be held Friday evening at 8:00 at the Gym. 1000 boys are asked to be present.

Harold Wilson, son of the Presiding Elder, announces that the recent Conference was an overwhelming success. He claims that he made the acquaintance of about 16 new girls. I should say the Conference was a success as far as he is concerned, because with a minister's son—(I mean a Methodist minister's)—acquaintance is all that is necessary.

Julius Baker is studying "How to make proposals." Charlotte Hubert is studying "How to accept proposals." Rather strange coincidence, isn't it?

"Life is one unexpected thing after another," remarked Lawrence Greene, after reading of the former Miss Littlejohn's wedding.

Answers to Queries

Question: To settle an argument, will you tell me if Julius Baker is a man or a lady?

Answer: Neither: Julius Baker is a boy.

Question: What is the name of the man who set the record 9:03 in the 100 yard dash?

Answer: His name is "Greased Lightning," but you'd better call him Mr. Howrad Drew. Safety first.

Question: Why do you always write about Clarence James?

Answer: Because he can't read.

Question: Who is the best ball player in the world? Tris Speaker or Tyrus Cobb?

Answer: Neither; They are both out of the question as long as 'Fessa Clarence James is hanging around.

Question: Which is the best newspaper; the Examiner of the Times?

Ansker: Neither; if you want the best, subscribe for the Eagle.

Last Tuesday Evening at his home on Naomi St., Prof. H. Douglas Greer entertained a number of friends at which time he outlined some of the reasons why the colored people should support Woolwine.

SCHOOL ON WHEELS ON ON RAILS OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC

A school on wheels is operated on the rails of the Southern Pacific Company.

In Southern Pacific extra section gang under Foreman Taft, who has a crew of fifty men in the Ventura District on the Los Angeles Divisioin, there are twenty-five or more children who are being taught daily in a box car which has been fitted up with benches. They have a teacher who instructs them daily in English and Spanish. The r esults thus far, have been gratifying. As the gang moves along from place to place so does the school car, and the children never have to miss a day's attendance. Superintendent Whalen has made requisition for an old passenger coach which will be fitted up with benches and blackboards, and which will be easier to heat, expecting in this way to improve materially teh conditions in this unique schoolroom. He has furthermore arranged to fit up a hospital car for the women and children in the camp who become ill.—From the Scrap Book.

A Word of Thanks.

The President, Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert, of the Allen Allensworth Club, together with the officers and members, wish to express their profound appreciation and thanks to each and all, who labored so faithfully and assiduously for the success of the great Hiawatha Wedding Feast, dramatized and staked by Prof. Robert G. Jackson, of Western University, at the Trinity Auditorium, September 5th. The Club especially thanks Dr. W. C. Gordon, who, in the beginning, when some thought it impossible for Los Angeles local talent to stage the affair, worked faithfully with Mrs. Hulbert to keep the chorus together. Because of the difficult composition of Samuel Coleridge Taylor, and the time required to learn the lengthy parts, and the consideration of car fare by some of the chorus, made the affair very expensive; nevertheless, a musical success. There were those of the chorus who sacrificed and worked faithfully to help make this the greatest musical fete ever staged by the colored people in the West. The Club tenders its hearty and sincere thanks to the chorus for their assistance and sacrifice. To Prof. C. A. Biggers, whose untiring efforts in assisting in the management of the affair, will long be remembered and appreciated by the Club.

Words are inadequate to express profound congratulations to Prof. Jackson for the wonderful work he did in putting on the finishing touches in the training of the voices thah had recieved preparatory training by Dr. W. C. Gordon. Prof. Jackson is a musical genius, and it is conceded by all who have heard and seen him perform, that he has no superior in the Race. Again, special thanks are to be extended to those outside of the Club, especially Mrs. Wm. E. Easton, Mrs. Gussie Bacon, who assisted in making the costumes, and Mrs. Pearl Lowery Winters, who prolonged her stay in Los Angeles, and placed herself under training of Prof. Cheeke at a great expense to herself to assist in staging the Hiawatha Wedding Feast.

This being a new Club, and the first big effort put forth by it, there were many incidental expenses that could not have been prevented, a report of which will go to the Board of the Old Folks' Home after the meeting of the Club next Wednesday, September 20th. It has been erroneously stated by some one that the President of the Club, Mrs. C. C. Hulbert, has been paid one hundred dollars; but the statement is untrue, and without foundation. She has not received one hundred dollars, and not even her car fare.

Where the expense of staging the Hiawatha Wedding Feast was so great, and was thus understood to be before staging of the said affair, the same was not such a success financially; but as stated by both colored and white, it was the greatest affair ever staged by the colored people in the West. It has been requested by many over the 'phone, through letters of congratiations and otherwise to repeat the Hiawatha Wedding Feast; and many have stated that they and their friends would be willing to pay even a greater price than has been charged to witness the affair, having heard such favorable comments.

Again thanking one and all, we hope to please you much better next year when we stage the "Feast and Death of Minnehaha" combined.

(Mrs.) C. C. HULBERT,
President.

I want to thank the voters of the 74th Assembly District for the kind offering that they gave me. I want to thank the voters for what votes I got, and also for the votes that I did not get, which were counted. I made the racé without five cents, and I begged the Ten Dollars to file my papers with the white and colored friends, and also the $3.80 I begged for my cards. I made the race practically without any clothes and barefooted. In other words, I was too poor to make the race, but if God be my helper, I will make the same race two years hence. May God be with us and speed us on to a better government.

Yours as ever,

AT THE EAGLE CAFE

The Eagle Cafe at 816 Central avenue, under the direct management of Miss B. Young and Miss B. Taylor has gone on record as being one of the neatest and most reserve little cafes, not only as for regular service but for small parties and banquets in the city. Not only is the service of the best accorded by polite society, the food is of the best in quality and preparation.

While in the city, Prof. Robert Jackson of Western University was sumptuously entertained at the Eagle Cafe and was loud in his praise for Western University, since the management was his former pupils.

Last Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winters were entertained by Editor and Mrs. Bass at the Eagle Cafe and made similar comment as to the high class service and food at this cozy little eating place.

A BROTHER'S JEALOUSY.

By Hilberte L. Bonier

It was near election day. The minds of the whole town was centered on the coming race for District Attorney, between Stanley Collins and Richard Van Burene.

Collins was a young man who had come up from a common, school-boy son of a hard-working man; had worked his way through college, and had become widely known as one of the best attorneys in the state. He was the sort of fellow whom everybody in his acquaintance liked. During his college career he had met Miss Vivian Auburne, a daughter of a very wealthy ex-Congressman. He loved her, and her admiration for him as an athlete soon grew into love. Vivian's father, whose vote meant much in his town, on account of his political career, admired Collins for his bravery to speak what he thought when he thought it.

Richard Van Burene was situated somewhat different from his rival, being the elder of two sons of a wealthy banker. He had never had to work, and was joint heir to a fortune, but he was very ambitious and looked forward to the day when he would be called Governor Van Burene. His only faults were his over-anxious ambition and his quick, uncontrollable temper. He and his business partner had had splendid success in the law business, but there was one thingt hat blocked his chances for election—Auburne's sentiment.

It was under these conditions that the sun arose one morning about two weeks before that trying day.

Just one week before, Van Burene, who was known as Dick among his friends, had greeted his brother Jack, who had just finished his college career, but Dick was very much disappointed in his "kid" brother, for the simple reason that Jack was a "ladies' man."

Dick's office boy, Bobbie, a very thoughtful young chap, found himself the first arrival at the office one morning, and after dusting up the desks of Dick, and Blackwell, who was Dick's partner, he started to dust the stenographer's table.

"Oh, I know what I'll do," said Bobbie, "I'll get Miss Kennard a bunch of flowers, and see if she'll kiss me like she did Mr. Van's brother yesterday."

So saying, he left the office and appeared again in a few minutes with a beautiful boquet of roses, which he placed in a vase on the stenographer's table.

"Hello, Bobbie!" greeted Miss Kennard, entering and hanging up her coat and hat.

"Morning, Miss Kennard," answered Bobbie, as he placed two letters upon Dick's desk.

"Bobbie!" called the stenographer, gazing at the flowers on her table, "has Jack Van Burene been here so early?"

"No," answered Bobbie, "Can't you think of nobody else who might have brought you a bouquet?"

"Oh, you dear little boy!" remarked the stenographer, smelling of the flowers. "How I do love pretty flowers."

"But I don't care anything about litle Bobbie, though," wailed Bobbie, "no matter if he did bring them to me."

"Why, of course I do," laughed the stenographer.

"Well, why don't you kiss him like you did Mr. Van's brother?"

Bobbie walked slowly up to where Miss Kennard was leaning on the table.

"Shut your eyes!" commanded the stenographer.

Bobbie smiled and did as he was bidden.

Just as she planted a kiss on little Bobbie's cheek, the door opened and Mr. Blackwell entered. He had awakened with a violent headache, and had stopped at a saloon on his way to the office to get a little drink to ease the pain.

"Ha! ha!" he grinned as he viewed the situation. "Beat it Bobbie; it's my turn!" Bobbie left the room and went into the outer room.

"I wouldn't speak so roughly to the little fellow, Mr. Blackwell," said the stenographer, taking her seat and uncovering the typewriter, "and besides, you didn't even tell me 'good morning.'"

Blackwell half-staggered to the table and caught the stenographer's hand.

"Good morning, my dear!" he hiccoughed.

The stenographer arose from her chair.

"You're intoxicated," she said, starting toward the door.

"What's that got to do with the President," returned Blackwell, as he stopped her; "Why can't you be as generous to me as you were to Bobbie?"

"Because I don't choose to!" she fired back.

"You have no choice in the matter!" retorted the half-drunken lawyer as he grabbed her.

The door opened and Van Burene entered, followed by Bobbie.

Without a word, Dick grabbed his partner by the collar, and slammed him against the wall.

"You common, low sneak, get out of this place and stay out!" his eyes eyes flaming with anger and his forefinger pointing decidedly toward the door. Blackwell, now pretty well recovered from his intoxication, walked unheedingly toward his desk.

"You have either turned deaf very suddenly, or you misunderstood me. I said for you to leave this office, and I meant it!"

Blackwell walked toward the door and stopped.

"Very well; I shall inform Collins of your intentions as to his rumation," he said.

"Wait!" cried Dick. "Don't you dare!" He drew a little pistol from his pocket and pointed it at Blackwell.

"You needn't go," he said; "but if you don't apologize to Miss Kennard pretty quick, I'll put you to sleep!"

Does Blackwell apologize, or does Van Burene "put him to sleep?" Get next week's EAGLE and see.

J. A. Pierson, after an extensive stay in Southern California, left for his home in Washington Thursday. He will stop en route at Bakersfield, Fresno, Stockton, Oakland, Frisco and other points. Mr. Pierson is one of our wide awake and splendid young men who is really doing something, as in the state of Washington he has a large timber claim proved up and is constantly making it a better place to live by the improvements he is making thereon.

Birch Street Christian Church

All day Sunday pastor Latouche and Bro. Hopper preached two doctrinal sermons to an appreciative audience a good crowd was at both services and at the close of the morning service a goodly number remained to have theis pictures taken with the church a copy of which will later go to the Christian Standard.

All last week, the two ministers held a revival at the church and and many great truths were told.

Notice

The Colored Waiters and Cooks wish to announce that the crew of 18 men that were to have been sent to the Portola-Louvre Cafe were not sent because the Association could not get transportation for them.

Rev. F. E. Leightener will occupy his regular pulpit both in the morning and evening tomorrow.

SOJOURNER NOTES

The Club held a very interesting business and board meeting Monday, from the attendance of the membership. It was plainly seen Sojourner women are reading The California Eagle.

The chairman of Departments reported their plans for this years activities.

Mrs. Madge Kelly, chairman Domestic Art, presented a plan whereby the Home is to be supplied with quilts by asking each member to make and bring to the Club Monday, Sept. 25, a quilt square, 12x12, and lay upon the altar as an offering toward our bed covering. Squares from friends will be accepted also.

Domestic Science Department will give their first demonstration Monday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock. Come and be taught how to prepare, and serve food. Fish moose will be demonstrated.

Applicants who have been notified are expected to be present for obligation 2:30 Monday afternoon.

The contest between the Blue and the Gold is creating some excitement.

The Membership committee announced the acceptance of 20 new members. The Blues leading! You got to hurry!

Miss M. Cunningham, Educational chairman, was present and full of enthusiasm. She spoke of that sainted woman, Sojourner Truth, whose life will be taken up, and chapters of her will be read and discussed at each fourth Monday, that our women and men may know the true greatness of this our slave mother. Literary and musical numbers also. Come, everybody welcome, Monday, September 25th, 2:30.

Mrs. Beeks, chairman Philanthropy, reported families visited, deeds of kindness shown by the committee. This committee is doing splendid work for humanity, and have enlarged their committee and work for this year.

The Young Women's Aid under the direction of Mme. K. Barr, L. Young, B. Offutt, M. Elbert, Shackleford, Gamble Westhiemer whose purpose is to care for girls without funds, who need immediate help, will be a great factor for the betterment of womanhood.

Sojourner Truth Home stands as a service institution to meet the requirements of women.

The Benedicts and Bachelors covered themselves with glory last Tuesday evening at Blanchard Hall. Their Harvest entertainment was one of the most enjoyable affairs given in this city. Rightfully did they earn the sobriquet "boosters," for they boosted a hall full of pleasure seekers.

Many harvesters were out with their boots, and cob pipes, overalls, bandanas, straw sombreros, etc. One of our popular young men portrayed antebellum Negro. He was a prize winner. Unfortunate there were not more prizes as several of the contestants were sure winners, which the committee would like to have awarded. The contest was very close between Mr. Waugh, the prize winner, and Mr. Eddie Wheaton, Mr. Ed Lee. Many characters were represented. It was mirth and merriment the entire evening and 12 o'clock came only too soon.

The pleasure was not only for those present, but the community, and especially Sojourner Truth Home, and women.

Out of the Boosters' great heart and work, their entertainment made it possible to keep warm the heart, hand and feet of all who will be fortunate enough to be in Sonojrner Truth Home this winter. For they filled our store house with coal.

Sojourned Club wishes those Boosters success, collectively and individually.

The full receipts will be published in next week's paper.

Many calls are made each week to the Home for help. Will the women please register their names, address, and wages wanted.

REV. NAPOLEON P. GREGGS
Pastor First Independent Church

GOUND BREAKING EXERCISES OF FIRST INDEPENDENT CHURCH A NOTABLE OCCASION.

On last Sunday at the site of their new church edifice, corner of 18th and Paloma Streets, in the presence of more than 1000 persons was enacted the solemn and impressive ceremony of "ground breaking," thus bringing to a reality the consummation of the movement which brought into existence in this city the First Independent Church of Christ. Everything was carrieid out in a highly creditable manner and the memberbs and friends of this body are deserveing of the highest credit for this auspicious occasion.

Seated on the platform on this history-making occasion were Rev. E. W. Kinchen, who acted as Master of Ceremonies; the Rev. Doctor H. D. Prowd, speaker of the day; Bishop Phillips of the C. M. E. church; Rev. A. Lively, of the New Hope Baptist church; Rev. E. E. Lightner, of the Congregational church; Rev. Anderson of the C. M. E. church; Deacon Allen, of the Second Baptist church; the pastor, Dr. N. P. Greggs; the choir, trustees, officers, and many other notables in the religious life of this city. The program began at 3 o'clock p. m., with singing by the choir, after which the pastor introduced the Rev. E. W. Kinchen as Master of Deacon Allen of the Second Baptist church. Rev. E. E. Lightner read the scripture lesson for the ceremonies, after which the divine blessing was prayed for by the occasion. Miss Louvenia Hickman then delivered the address of welcome. Her splendid effort was indeed a brilliant one and the church is to be congratulated in having among its flock such talent as they have. After singing by the choir, Dr. H. D. Prowd, the speaker of the day, was introudced. Now, the good Dr. Prowd furnished much food for thought in his very appropriate discourse on this occasion, as he in his own inimitable manner, showed the grandeur of those who build houses of worship. There are no edifices to compare. His address was interspersed with humor and wit, and the vast audience appreciated every word of the same. At the conclusion of his address, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Phillips was presented to the audience by the pastor. So they just must have a bishop to add grace and dignity to the occasion, was the sally of Mr. rGeggs.

Dr. Anderson, pastor of the C. M. E. church, offered prayer, invoking the divine blessing incident to the breaking of the ground, after which Rev. N. P. Greggs, the pastor, with a large pick in his hands, by sinking the same deep into the ground, was the first one to break the ground. Other officers followed in turn, the trustees, deaconesses, etc. After [illegible] Roland, the youngest m[illegible] the first shovel full of earth, and was followed by members and friends of the church, who had been provided with minature shovels for the occasion.

The collection was lifted in a

The Collection

The collection was lifted in a novel way. A huge iron kettle was suspended in the old-fashioned way, and the word was passed to keep the pot boiling, and by this means an offering of more than $500.00 was received. The benediction was announced, and thus ended the ground breaking exercises for the First Independent church.

The idea of the Kettle Collection, which was novel in every way, and the little spades carried by the lady trustees and deaconesses, was conceived in the fertile brain of Mrs. J. H. Shackelford, who is an inspiration to her sister workers at all times, because of her quick wit an dnatural adaptability.

History of the First Independent Church

The church was organized October 3rd, 1915, by about fifty members formerly of the First A. M. E. church, and Rev. N. P. Greggs was chosen as the pastor of the same.

They have met since that time in Odd Fellows' Hall, and at other churches on special occasions. In this time they have raised more than $6,000.00, and gained a membership in the neighborhood of 450 members. The new edifice at Paloma and 18th will cost about $13,000.00. The officers of the church are: Geo. A. Beavers, clerk; Mrs. B. E. Prentice, treasurer; Trustee Board: J. H. Shackleford, chairman; F. H. Crumbly, G. W. Whitley, J. H. Prentice, T. J. Hooper, C. J. Smith, Mrs. Nannie Loving, Addie Hooker and P. J. Alexander; N. P. Greggs, pastor: Deaconesses: Mesdames Maggie Whitley, chairman; Mrs. Alexander, vice-chairman; Mrs. Biggs, secretary; Mrs. Shackleford, treasurer; and Mesdames Hooper, Wright, Moore, Pool, Harris, Motley, Anderson, and Evans; Auxiliary Deaconesses: Mrs. Colton, Mrs. Felix, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Boardley, Mrs. Petties, Mrs. Peteits.

Equal Rights Sunday, Oct. 1., Let All Our Churches Observe.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 18, 1916.—The National Equal Rights Congress appeals to all the clergy and churches to observe Sunday, Oct. 1, as Equal Rights Sunday, and then to have prayer and exhortation for the success of the National Colored Citizenship Rights Congress to be held in the John Wesley Zion church, Washington, D. C., Oct. 4 and 5, and Annual Meeting of League, Oct. 6. The League requests that a service or part of a service be used to ask God's blessing in the Race's effort for equality of rights, and as God helps those who help themselves, that the pastor and a layman be sent as delegates.

MUST PAY UP

Our collector, Mr. J. R. Manning, is authorized to call on all delinquent subscribers to this paper. We must insist that they pay up or the paper will be discontinued.

While some of the reports of our Mr. Manning do not reflect any great credit on the honesty of some of our subscribers, we are hopeful and we know the great majority of them are all right.

FIRE CASES DELAY OF NEGRO MOTION PICTURE

The "Trooper of Company K," an all-star Negro photoplay produced by the Lincoln Motion Picture Co., and booked at the New Angelus Theatre for Sept. 30 to Oct 4, will be delayed for a short time.

On Monday night the laboratory in which the films were being developed and printed, was practically destroyed by fire, as reported by the daily newspapers of Tuesday, the 26th. The fire damaged a few scenes of this picture and will cause the necessary delay of retakes.

In consequence of this delay the company has decided to add even more scenes and make it a three-part feature, instead of a two-part drama.

It will be shown at the New Angelus Theatre at an early date. The delay will possibly be one week, not longer than two.

Watch this paper for the announcement.

ATTORNEY WILLIS O. TYLER GAINS ANOTHER NOTABLE VICTORY IN THE GARROT CASE

Wednesday of this week Judge J. H. Curtis of San Bernardino, who had tried the case of Hixson et al. vs. H. L. Garrott, handed down a decision, sweping in its character and sustaining the contentions of Attorney Willis O. Tyler, sustaining his demurrer offered in the case and also his motion to dismiss the injunction.

This was a case whereih H. L. Garrott was enjoined from moving to and living on his own property. The property now has been idle for months, awaiting this decision. This is a clean cut victory given by a judge from the Southland, it is said, but by one who hews to the line in doing his duty as a jurist "Let the the chips fall where they may."

Both Mr. Garrott and Attorney Tyler are to be congratulated on their perseverance in this case. It is not only a personal victory, but a victory for a Race of people.

The opinion is a lengthy one, sidesteps some of the points in the demurrer, but says the one first point submitted by W. O. Tyler was sufficient.

This decision lifts the injunction from Mr. Garrott living on his own property. He is now in possession and living there.

The case, however, that has been appealed from the decision of Judge Shenk is in the Supreme Court and will in time come up fora hearing. This case is the one that will decide the validity of the restriction clause as to American citizens of this state.

MR. LESTER MAPP, WELL-KNOWN SAN FRANCISCO BUSINESS MAN, BECOMES A BENEDICT.

Last week, in the Capital City of the State, Lester Mapp, prominent in business and political circles, took unto himself a bride. He was united in marriage to Miss Bessie Moore, of Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Mapp has been in the West for the last year. She comes from one of the best families in the east. She is highly cultured and unassuming. The happy couple motored to Santa Cruz on their honeymoon trip, accompanied by several friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. Mapp is planning a splendid residence in the Richmond district at a cost of several thousand dollars, which place he will make his home. His friends, who are legion, have been profuse in their congratulations, and all join in wishing the happy copule a peaceful journey over the sea of matrimony.

DAIRY LUNCH CAFE CHANGES HANDS

The Messrs. J. H. Sykes and Jos. Delaney have purchased the popular Dairy Lunch room near the corner of 9th and Central Ave., and will conduct the same up to the highest standard. Both of these gentlemen are experienced in this line of business and bringing this experience with them no doubt will make it a grand success. Mr. Delaney is one of our very best citizens, as is also his associate, Mr. Sykes. We bespeak for them the highest consideration.

Mrs. A. Range and family, of New Orleans, La., were the welcome guests of Mr. Ernest Roberts last week, at 1566 E. 21st st.

The Elephane that killed his instructor two weeks ago in Tennessee, was lynched without a trial.

THE LIGHT BEGINS TO BREAK

A few days ago while passing along Tennessee Street, in that section which is considered the heart of what is commonly known as the "Black Belt" of the East Side, my attention was attracted to a neat little market which I had not noticed before. A second peep revealed a Colored gentleman behind the counter, and I suppose I hardly need to state that with a characteristic broad smile, not often seen on even the face of a Colored business man on Monday morning; I entered, and to my agreeable surprise there stood Mr. W. F. Howze, whom I had known for some little time.

Greeting him in my usual fashion, I enquired, "How is business?" and to my "greatest" surprise with a smile not unlike the outburst of the sun after a whole week of fog that gentleman answered "Good."

I could not believe my ears. I stepped a little closer and repeated my query and again he reiterated "Good."

I did not ask any more questions, but told Mr. Howze that if he succeeded in getting and holding the trade in this community, as I firmly believe he will, my prayer in part at least is answered.

I then looked over the stock. I found that Mr. Howze had in an excellent line of fresh and cured meats, fruits, vegetables, pastry, butter and eggs.

Now located as he is in close proximity with least a thousand Colored families and a dozen Colored cafes, the H. & J. Market at 1232 Tennessee street ought to develop into one of the largest markets on the Eats Side.

Let us acquire that same pride, age, enjoyed by the Jewish people in this same community, and soon we shall enjoy similar recognization as that enjoyed by the Jews and others right here in our community; for not until then will the white man even consider that we have seen the true light of his civilization, and reckon with us as a component part of this American citizenship.

THE EAGLE.

A YOUNG WOMAN WHO HAS MADE GOOD IN THE COMMUNITY

Miss Rosa L. Sampson who for more than a year has had her "Beauty Parlor" in the Prentice New Idea Store at 1013 E. 9th street, in keeping with the growth of her business is forced out into larger quarters where she may more successfully meet the growing demands of her customers which extends not only in Los Angeles but over the entire state.

Monday morning, October 2nd, Miss Sampson will open her new Beauty Parlor at 840 Central avenue, where her facilities will be more extensive and where she will be glad to welcome her old and new customers, promising to accord them the same courteous treatment and the best service in her line.

In cultivating beauty from the standpoint of personal appearance the beauty doctor must first cultivate the habit of thinking beautiful thoughts in order that her voice tone and facial expression may act as silent messengers in her behalf in welcoming her customers, for too often the head of the department is too busy to exchange courtesies, and if she or he has not cultivated this sweet smile habit, false conceptions often result.

Those who meet Miss Sampson in the capacity of customer or otherwise, certainly are wont to appreciate within her these qualities which we have mentioned, for this young woman knows no friend or foe. Alike she greets all with a smile and sweetly modulated tones.

Aside from these amicable qualities Miss Sampson is an absolute success in her business undertaking. She has placed on the market a hair grower which is declared by those who use it equal to Mme. Walker's.

In her new quarters on Central Ave., Miss Sampson wishes to annodnce that she will be able to give better service, and handle a larger trade.

A MINISTER WHO MADE GOOD AT BAKERSFIELD NOW IN LOS ANGELES

Rev. J. W. Price, who for five years pastored successfully the first Colored A. M. E. church at Bakersfield, starts his work in this city as pastor of Ward chapel, and his many friends here who know how earnestly and successfully he labored at Bakersfield, predict for him a bright future in the Master's cause in this section.

Ward Chapel is located in a part of the city where much good needs to be accomplished, and it is believed by those who are interested in the growth and development of the church that with such a leader as Rev. Price that Ward Chapel will begin with his administration to take its place in the annals of church history.

The Eagle wishes Rev. Price success and happiness in both his matrimonial and new church voyage.

TWO CAPABLE AND EFFICIENT OFFICERS

L. L. Russell and R. F. Green are two Colored officers who are making enviable records on the Los Angeles police force. Their record for efficiency ranks high and they have the confidence, not only of their superior officers, but of the public as well.

ZIP! BIFF! BANG!

Glasses and Dishes Fly at a Down Town Cafe Which Refuses Service to Irate American Citizen

Mrs. Sadies C. Cole of 459 E. 29th street proved herself worthy of being classed with those of whom we have read as heroines of by-gone days, when she, alone and single handed, forced a dairy lunch room located at 139 So. Broadway, to give her service last Monday evening. The following is the story from Mrs. Cole's own lips:

I had been to the office of the chief of police on business regarding some settlement work. I came by this dairy and feeling tired, in company with Mrs. S. B. Strickland I decided I wanted a glass of buttermilk. I went in and asked for the same. The proprietor told me they did not serve it, but sold it in bottles. Seeing others being served I told him I knew better; he did. He then said, "I don't serve your folks and if I do it will cost you 50 cents. I told him I did not ask the price, and he brought me a glass and requested that I put up the 50 cents first. I told him I would not pay before I received it and then commenced to heave everything I could get my hands on, at him, including glasses, sugar bowls and everything loose, all of which struck their mark.

By this time a great crowd gathered and the police arrived. They acted very courteous, they told the man they had not seen me do anything wrong and could not arrest me. They also told him that he had no right to refuse to serve people in the public place. I reiterated the stand I had taken, not to leave the place until I had been served and I was served, paid the regulation five cents and departed.

Mrs. Cole is one of our foremost citizens and one of the principal promoters of the Fifty Years of Progress held in this city about a year ago. She is prominent in church and club work. She says that she has brooded over the treatment accorded our people in this city and that she has come to the conclusion that if it costs her life that she will do something to assert the rights of a race and would willingly give her life as a sacrifice.

When Mrs. Sadie Cole had made the proprietor of the dairy room come up with the right thing by being not afraid to assert her rights with rare courage,

Mrs. S. C. Cole, who struck blow for human rights and not afraid to die, a prosperous and dignified white gentleman walked up and congratulated her and said that he admired her stand and offered to pay for all she could drink.

What the Churches are Doing

A.M.E. ZION CHURCH NOTES.

Last Sunday was a high day in Zion. At the morning service Bishop J. W. Kyles preached a great sermon, the subject being: "The Sure Foundation." A large audience was in attendandh, upon which the Bishop made a wonderful impression. Although none seemed to accept the invitation to build upon "the sure foundation" at the time it was extended by the Bishop, one young man, who was present and heard the sermon, was converted but went away without confessing it, met the Bishop as he was about to enter the house where he is stopping and made known to him his conviction and conversion, promising to be present at the evening service and unite with the Church, which promise he faithfully kept.

At the evening service Rev. D. B. Robson, of Princeton, N. J., preached an able sermon. The subject was the contrasting of the gospel narrative by Luke with the other three gospel writers, and was an interesting and effective sermon.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach at both services. This will be the last communion service in this Conference year and a large congregation is anticipated. This is also Rally day and the Captains of the various clubs will be on hand to give an account of their stewardship. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the Missionary ladies will hold their anniversary service, at which time a missionary program will be rendered. Many prominent Missionary workers of the city will be present and participate in the program.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Two splendid audiences greeted us at the services on last Sunday. Rev. A. J. Ramsey delivered the morning sermon, taking for his text "What will ye do with Christ?" At the evening service Rev. Howard Folke was present and gave a very practical and helpful sermon on "Holding up the Serpent in the Wilderness."

Beginning with next Sunday we enter upon a series of Evangelistic meetings. There will be preaching each night at 7:30 by the various pastors of the city. Everyone is asked to join us in these meetings that we may be wonderfully blessed and that men may be converted to Jesus Christ.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services on Sunday, tsubject for the morning "The Greatest Giver." Evening subject: "The Two Ways." Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. A cordial welcome to all.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Communion day will be regularly observed Sunday, it being the first Sabbath in the month. Let not your seat be empty at the Lord's supper table. The pastor will be in charge to supply "the elements" at both services, and will discourse at morning from the subject "God's Jewels"; and at evening from the subject "The Shadow of Jesus". Everybody welcome to these services.

The Class-night services continue to grow in interest. Were you there last Thursday night? If you would grow spiritually and would know the joy and comfort of a happy church family, then do not longer neglect this means of grace. Every Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. the meeting is held, the whole year round. Come and late get acquainted.

The First Annual Church Conference is called to meet next Thursday night after a short and spirited session of the Class service, October 5, to transact business of vital importance pertaining to the year's work of our church. Every member's presence is urged. Matters of great concern and general importance will be transacted. Read your Discipline Book, page 241, Chap. VI, "The Church Conference" and attend this meeting.

The pastor has recently ordered 25 copies of our latest "Discipline" and will dispose of them to such members as haven't our Church law as soon as they come. Every member of this great church should know your History, Doctrine, Policy, Doctrine and Law. It will conserve unity, engender loyalty, and do away with misunderstandings and destroy confusion.

The First Quarterly meeting will be held the third Sunday in October. Presiding Elder Wilson will be in charge.

Mrs. Craw's Sunday School class of enterprising young girls met at the parsonage last Saturday and effected the organization of their Bible Class. This is the first organized Bible Class in the School. Others will catch the spirit and soon our Sunday School will present a progressiveness hitherto unknown. The officers elected are: Sammy Brown, president; Irene Mundell, vice-president; Verda Brown, secretary; Rose Gregory, assistant secretary; Lucy Sims, treasurer. They will be known as "The Live Wires" of First A. M. E. Sunday School.

GREAT REVIVAL AT WATTS.

The pastor and officers of Grant A. M. E. Church have secured the Rev. F. F. Moses to conduct a series of meetings at Watts. The results are very gratifying, several very strong men and women have been converted and united to the Church. The crowds are happy and enthusiastic. There never was a meeting in Watts like this one. It will continue until Sunday night. Ten souls have come in to the fold to date—Wednesday.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Riverside, Cal.

Apparently the climax was reached at the Second Baptist Church last Sunday. Beginning with the quarterly review of the Sunday School lessons by the pastor. At 11 o'clock the choir began the opening prelude to the regular services.

The pastor, Rev. Reed, was again able to fill his pulpit at both services. In the morning he preached from the subject "Prayer." This sermon fully demonstrated the reputation of the pastor as a powerful preacher. At the close of the sermon there was hardly a dry eye in the building. The evening message was equally as great, and an unprecedented audience greeted the pastor at both services.

Every branch of the church work is fully alive and the uniqueness of the service, together with the polite usher service is attracting large and responsive crowds every Sunday.

The banquet given under the auspices of the Young Ladies Missionary Society, last Friday night, in honor of the Porter and wife, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Reed, was a most delightful affair. Miss Alice Streeter acted as Mistress of ceremony. Miss May Goodwin, the president of the society, ably assisted by Misses Cecil Stokes Alvie Dumas, and others of the young set of the Second Baptist Church, did themselves proud upon this occasion. All the ministers of the city accompanied by their wives were present. About seventy-five persons sat down at the beautifully decorated tables.

Deacon Stokes is somewhat ill. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U., under the leadership of Rev. Goodwin Miss Alice Streeter, are getting along exceedingly well.

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST INSTITUTIONAL CHURCH

A busy day at the church last Sabbath, a well attended Sabbath School in the morning, and the pastor preached a soul stirring sermon.

A barbecue dinner was served.

At 2½'clock P.M. the church reassembled for the purpose of examining Bro. E. Penn for the ministry. Praise Services were conducted by Rev. Wade while waiting for the invited churches. After a 30 minute Expression meeting the Brethren arrived; and Presberity was organized with Rev. C. N. Moore, Chairman, Rev. Dr. Proved, Secretary, and Rev. Wade, Catechiser. Owing to the lateness of the hour, the Presbity adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening to finish the work.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The services as usual were good last Sunday; brother Latouche preached two good sermons; the morning text being taken from Ps. 125:2, and in the evening brought us the beautiful message of Ruth and Naomi. He also gave a splendid lecture at the Endeavor service on "Christianity compared with other religions." At the evening service, Miss Susie Lynch sang a solo of her own composition, a prayer sung to the tune of the Rosary.

MONROVIA, CAL.

Mrs. E. L. Adams and Mrs. Houston are spending a few days at the fair in San Diego.

The B. Y. U. of the Second Baptist Church were very successful with their rally Sunday. Mr. S. P. Johnson, the District Pres. gave a very interesting lecture. Miss L. Coponio of Watts sang a beautiful selection, and Miss Mary Bonner and Mrs. J. Kizzy, had selected readings.

Miss Mary Jackson was taken very ill suddenly Monday, and at present is not much improved.

The hearts of the Monrovia people were saddened Sunday when Mr. Arthur C. Cross left for his home in Texas. Mr. Cross came here a year ago for his health. He has been an earnest worker in the Sunday School as Supt., and very useful in the Church also, and will be greatly missed by both.

The Choir of the Zion A. M. E. Church are blessed in having Prof. Greer of Los Angeles as an instructor.

Little three year old Katherine Kizzy and Blanche Bain have entered the Kindergarten class at the Chairlotte Ave. School.

Mr. and Mrs. Grandison, who have been visiting in the East for several months, have returned to their home.

Benjamin Anderson left Thursday for Indianapolis, Ind., on a visit with relatives.

Mrs. John Price and daughter, Eunegene, have returned home after a pleasant visit in Los Angeles.

Mr. Bright has returned to the city after a several month's visit in Imperial Valley.

Mrs. Newby is enjoying a pleasant visit from her mother of Los Angeles.

James Alexander will make a trip to Los Angeles Sunday on business.

J. H. Stokes and wife entertained with a 7-course dinner Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. The home was prettily decorated in red and white, the same color scheme being carried out in the dessert Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and grandchildren, Dorothy and James, W. H. Harrison and wife, James Alexander and wife, and James and Mildred Morton.

A large crowd attended the apron and necktie social Wednesday evening given by the New Hope Missionary society at the residence of Mrs. E. Harris, 909 6th street.

Those failing to attend the concert Thursday evening at Native Sons hall, given by the A. M. E. church, will miss a great musical treat.

Rev. H. P. Gregg, Pastor.

"Another gospel feast was enjoyed by the congregation of this church on last Sunday. Impressive baptismal ceremonies were performed at the morning session, and the pastor delivered a masterful and instructive sermon for the special benefit of the candidates. His text was taken from Gen. 2, 5:17. In the evening he preached another soul stirring sermon from the text, Matt. 5:14, "Ye Are The Light of the World." Included with the accessions to membership was one convert.

One of the prominent features of the service is the music being rendered by the choir. The music last Sunday was indeed excellent. Forty voices now constitute this great choir. The pastor seems to be as much at home when directing the choir as he is in the pulpit.

SPEAR'S have moved from Spring Street to 209 South Broadway. Don't fail to see the new store.

B. & O. Railroad Employs Many Colored Men.

James Jaxon, who is associated with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, when sought and questioned by an American News reporter as to the facilities and the number of colored men employed by the B. & O. R. R., though he spoke reluctantly when closely questioned, said the B. & O. R. R. employs 5400 colored laborers; 700 colored men employed on pier No. 7-22; Empire store and St. College, N. Y., 1; colored section foremen, 7 colored stenographers, 1 chief clerk, relief department and legal bureau; 1 colored special representative; 1 colored police bureau; 6 colored labor agents and pilots; 1 colored man's hotel; Harper's Ferry, leased by B. & O., has specific instructions against any discrimination on trains. No discrimination in the passenger service nor in the selection of their employes. It is a distinguished feature that colored employes enjoy all pass privileges on this road.

Mr. Jaxon stated that 25% colored people were buying homes with the company's assistance, and that they are liberal contributors to Hampton, Tuskegee and Storr colleges. "Our lines," he said, "extend to the far West as well as to the East, and our service is unsurpassed, and I believe that the majority of those going to Philadelphia, Washington and Chicago conventions will avail themselves of the exceptional low rates."—Railroad News From the Scrap Book of J. D. Reynolds.

Think It Over, Mr. Wilson.

If there are any more real small nations that have been doing anything naughty, will they kindly raise their hand that they might receive a few warning notes of the Woodrow Wilson variety, or accord into obedience by the presence of Uncle Sam's soldiers and war craft. Our high chief is now planning, it is said, to call Turkey sharply to account for her mistreatment of the Christian population of Syria and for the cruelties practiced upon Armenians. When it comes to handling little countries like Haiti, the Philippines, Liberia and the like, the present administration shines like a new pin hit by the rays of the summer sun.

When it comes to a proposition as large as Mexico, that is a horse of another color. Mexicans are discontented enough to not only stand up for their own rights, but knock them up on the battlefield. Mr. Wilson has repeatedly told Mexico what to do and what not to do, and yet they persist in their innocent child-like (?) way in doing just what they wish and defying interference. The policy of watchful waiting has been a 3-years' tryout, and it would take a microscope of higher power to discover any material change in conditions.

Helping your neighbor clean house is a very friendly and charitable act, but it is important to be quite sure your own house isn't topsy-turvy before exercising your will. Mr. Wilson and his company of southern gentlemen (?) might make some needed improvements right here at home before meddling other countries to clean off it. The picture of Americans upholding Spanish Turkey's mistreatment of the Christians in Syria is looked upon by other nations as a huge joke, in the light of the barbaric treatment accorded twelve million truly American citizens in this enlightened country. Think it over, Mr. Wilson, and in your thinking, think of Wars.

Grand Rally.

Rev. I. W. D. Henry of Monrovia was a visitor to this city last week, renewing his many friends and extending a hearty invitation to the ministers and their good congregations to attend a special rally to be given at this church on August 27th. There will be plenty to eat for everybody who goes and there, pork and chicken, rabbit, pork, beef, fish and vegetables, etc., ice cream, plenty of soft drinks. It will be an old-time meeting, praying, preaching, singing, and meeting friends from all parts of California. Don't miss this. Pastor Henry and his good people will spare no pains in making it pleasant for all. Get ready and go out and spend the day. See the many buildings that have been completed by Pastor Henry and his congregation.

Please come and help us and you will enjoy it. A cordial invitation awaits all. Only 70c for the round trip. Dinner will be served from 1 to 2:30 p. m. A good time is assured all.

Having a Good Time, But Coming Home Soon.

Xenia, O., Aug. 9, 1916.

Editor Eagle:

Just a note between our social engagements to let you know we are certainly enjoying our stay in the East. Although it is quite warm here, we are being entertained so royally that it detracts our attention somewhat from the heat. Among the pleasant things we look forward to is the coming of the Eagle each week, with its large bundle of news, which we enjoy to the fullest extent, realizing it is second to none of the home papers.

We have had the pleasure of visiting a number of friends in Springfield, Cincinnati, Columbus, Washington, Circleville, Chillicothe, Jamestown, O., Covington and Paris, Ky. We are expecting to leave here for Chicago on the the 15th, leaving there for the Coast, stopping in Denver, Salt Lake City and San Francisco en-route. With prospects of seeing you in the near future we close.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. S. E. Middleton and Son.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Services Sunday as follows: Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching at 11:15 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor. Subject for the morning, "Unseen Realities." For the evening the subject will be, "The Ten Lepers." Christian Endeavor 7 p. m. Topic, "Growth, Body, Mind, Spirit." A cordial welcome to all services.

Anniversary Dinner Complimentary to R. H. Hicks.

Last Saturday, August 11, was the 45th anniversary of our estimable and courteous friend, R. H. Hicks, 1208 E. 34th street, and in true and royal style he had prepared for a remainder of the same a sumptuous repast, at which a few of his friends were invited to participate.

Now when it comes to entertaining with true and sincere hospitality, Hicks is a past master, and a feast fit for the gods was prepared on this occasion, a dinner in 11 courses. Music and dancing was the order of the day, and all declared hearts that Hicks would continue to have birthdays. Those present were W. Jenkins, R. Burton Cornell, E. P. White, W. V. Shields, Ed Hancocks and J. B. Ross, R. H. Hicks, the genial host and guessing youth.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

The peaple of the 74th Assembly District are amply qualified to look after their own political affairs and resent the intelopers who essay to middle therein; look after their own District and they will have their hands full.

If Candidate Greenwood for the Assembly in the 74th District is too timid to face the common people at a political meeting, what would he do in a hard fight in the Assembly when their interests would be at stake? Why he would run there just the same as he runs here.

Personally, we like Billy Greenwood and think well of him, but as a legislator he is out of the question. The proof of the pudding is the tasting. See his acts, his environment and then figure out if under any circumstances you can vote for him. We are Republicans to the core, but we have always been taught to support that class of Republicans that stand for progress and that can measure up at least with the average.

JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

We have no hesitancy in commending to our readers the candidacy of Judge Gavin Craig for re-election, and that of Judge Robert W. McDonald, of Pasadena, for election. These two men are both, to our way of thinking, especially qualified and adapted to the Bench and with this class of men to pass judgement. We verily believe that there is no question that the same will prevail. Thereiore we feel that we are justified in asking a strong support all along the line,—especially for Judge Craig and McDonald.

MOUSER FOR THE ASSEMBLY

The matter of electing an Assemblyman is about as far reaching in the 74th District as the election of any other one public official, especially so to our people, as in that particular District lies the Black Belt of Los Angeles County, and this people being an integrate part of the District, they will naturally look to their Assemblyman to protect their interests in the law-making body of this great State. Each session some legislation is introduced that is detrimental to the race. We are proud to say that with our present Assemblyman who is standing for re-election, we have had an able champion in the Assembly, a man who has left no stone unturned to defeat laws based on color prejudice. He has served two terms, knows every angle of the legislator's game, is forceful and a fighter; is always on the job, is a Republican (formerly a progressive), but a man who can be depended upon. He has always stood for his Colored constituents and in the face of this record, it would indeed be base ingratitude to fail to give him our hearty support.

ORGANIZED TEAM WORK FOR RESULTS

In a miniature way the great results accomplished annually demonstrated by the Colored Womens' Federation of California is indeed an object lesson of what can be accomplished by the coming together of all the forces for progress in California.

Their work and effort speaks for itself. At their annual sessions, from every section of the State, they bring tidings of the improvements in their bailiwick of the conditions and progress along the lines of their endeavor.

The men have been so long apart and so tardy in doing the things worth while in an organized way. It may be: that after all the women may broaden their sphere and demonstrate organization to the end that we may have team work in this section that will put the race in a position to take its part in the mighty march of progress that is before us, And we verily believe that after all, if we reach the goal of success, and granting that by team work and organized effort is the only way to accomplish it; it must be a grand amalgamation of all our forces—both men and women and as the men have failed in a state-wide organization, let them, like Mohammed, go to the mountain, instead of the mountain coming to them.

Mrs. Frances Franklin and son of Arizona, Benjamin are stopping at 649 Ceres avenue.

Mae Turner left the city Sunday to spend two weeks in Pasadena with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Troy.

Mrs. Fountain Brown of East 17th street is enjoying a few months in travel, her little son Theodora being particularly fond of this pastime with her.

St. Philips' parish hall was the scene of a merry dancing party on Wednesday afternoon. The 30 young dancers were looked after by Elianor McClellan and Mrs. A. Childress.

Central City Union W. C. T. U. (colored) will hold a meeting Monday, August 21st, at 7 p. m. at 941 McGary street. A large attendance of members and other women interested in the cause is desired.

Maude Rossmonde received 50 friends Friday in honor of Misses Marie Ford, Ethel Miller, Cornelia Leggett, Hallie Asbury and Mrs. P. Winters. The house was effectively arranged with zinnias and asters.

The Alabama State club will hold its special meeting on Tuesday evening, August 22nd, at the residence of Frank Smith, 1732 E. 28th street. All Alabamans are requested to be present by order of the president.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts of New Orleans entertained David Baker and wife Sunday evening. A delightful auto trip was enjoyed to Pasadena and a visit was happily spent with the Fron Chia family of that place.

Mrs. Emma Greene of Cleveland, Ohio, sister of J. W. Moxley of Santa Monica and James E. Moxley of Los Angeles, was recently married to Linwood Hogan, a prominent member of the Caterers' association of Cleveland. Mrs. Greene made many friends while visiting here a few years ago.

Dr. Alexander Martin will give one of his splendid lectures for the Berean Literary society Sunday, August 20th, at 3 p. m. at the Seven Day Adventist church, 1446 W. 36th place. Splendid music will be furnished by the childrens' orchestra and the choir.

Wm. T. Wilkins has founded his school of music in the large 12 room residence at 1325 Central avenue. The increasing demand of the public and his friends for lessons for other than the piano has caused him to add other departments to his school. There are already four departments. Piano—Mr. Wilkins, assisted by Misses Iva Johnson, Bertha Echols, Cleo Browder, A. De Roussell, Fannie Wilson, and Mmes. L. E. Adams and J. L. Weaver. Violin—J. Mitchell and Johnnie Anderson. Voice — Mmes. E. J. Hughley and Clendenon. Dramatic—Mrs. Aloise Bibb Thompson, including English and scenario writing, and Mrs. M. L. Baker and Webb King. Lessons on piano and violin can be had at the school as low as 50c. Other terms will be quoted later. Mr. Wilkins and his pupils, assisted by some of the city's best talent, cordially invites the public and all of their friends to be present at a Sunday afternoon musicale at the E. 14th street school auditorium located at E. 14th and Ivy streets, near Hooper avenue car line, Sunday afternoon, August 27th, from 3:30 to 5:30. There will be absolutely no admission fee nor collection taken in any way. There will be many special features, also announcement of the grand opening of the school.

Honoring Mrs. Williams of Oakland, Mrs. John Scott entertained a number of friends last Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Leggett, 751 Ceres avenue, is reported on the sick list. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Services Sunday at Phillips C. M. E. church will be as usual. It will be "dollar day" for the members and friends.

The members of the Native Sons and Daughters club No. 1 enjoyed a jolly evening Thursday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conners, Glassell street.

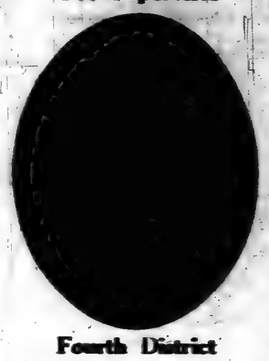
Prof. and Mrs. Wagner from Tuskegee Institute are making a tour of the West and are at present the house guests of Mrs. S. Cole, E. 29th street.

One of the prettiest of recent affairs was the luncheon last Friday evening given by Mrs. C. A. Blair, 451 N. Mt. View, in honor of Mrs. Snarp of New Orleans. Covers were laid for six.

Notable among the delightful affairs of the season was the pretty whist and dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Westerfield complimentary to Mrs. Pinking and Miss Randolph of Bakersfield.

Mrs. Fred Wilson will entertain Rev. and Mrs. Herring of Oakland during Conference week at the residence of Mrs. J. Hamilton, 836 Central avenue. Mrs. Hamilton wishes to state that she can conveniently entertain another couple.

Bishop C. H. Phillips, A. M. M. D. D. of Nashville, Tenn. bishop of the California Conference, will arrive in Los Angeles the first of September and will remain here until the annual Conference convenes, September 27th, at Douglas, Ariz.



Mrs. Lillian Simpson, one of Bakersfield's leading society ladies, has been for the past week the house guest of Mrs. C. Barr, 30th place. Mrs. Simpson is a leading milliner of Bakersfield, and while in Los Angeles has been visiting the wholesale openings, gathering new ideas for the fall and winter seasons.

Mrs. A. C. Jones, 3956 Wall street, entertained a few of her Oakland visitors last Saturday evening. After a number of vocal and instrumental selections rendered by Mrs. L. V. Stewart and Ellen Proud, the guests were invited to the spacious dining room, where supper was served. Covers were laid for Mrs. Bertha, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Walls, Mr. Martin and wife of Berkeley, Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Prowd, Ellen Prowd, L. V. Stewart, Ellen Jones, Mrs. Robinson and Mr. Jones. Mrs. Jones was assisted by Mrs. H. C. Evans of Riverside, formerly of Los Angeles. Just before parting Rev. Prowd asked God's blessing on each one present.

The Apollo Association.

The Apollo Musical Association will present their fourth program Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at First A. M. E. Church, 8th and Towne Avenue. The soloists will be Mrs. Pearl Lowery-Winters, Los Angeles' favorite contralto, who now resides at Bakersfield; Mrs. Jackson, of Kansas City, will be the piano soloist She was a pupil of Prof. Jackson of that city. Mr. Owen Troy, the violin soloist is one of the coming violinists of the younger set of this city, and in addition to the galaxy of artists there will be a female trio, a male chorus, a full mixed chorus and a talk on the art of singing by Miss Maude Rossmond. This program will eclipse all of the previous efforts of this organization. Be sure to come and bring all of your friends. Seats free. Program begins promptly at four.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager — Office 742 3rd St. — Phones: Main 1641, Main 6128

San Diego's new Creole orchestra, under the leadership of T. Harris, made its first appearance at Kastle Hall Monday night, August 14th. There were approximately 500 people in the hall who were eager to hear and give praise to San Diego's new talent. Although the orchestra is new in its organization, the musicians are by no means apprentices. Mr. Harris hails from one of the leading conservatories of the East, and has been a director of one of the leading bands of Denver, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Bob Ferris, who hails from New Orleans, known as the city of music, Mr. Jackson, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, Lloyd White of this city, who needs no introduction, Floyd Williams from everywhere, but is there just the same, Mr. Lopez of Mexico City, these men are all accomplished musicians. You would have thought it a house party instead of a public affair, as everybody seemed eager to get acquainted. It should have been called a get-acquainted social in place of a preparedness; still the name fitted in some instances, as everybody seemed willing to exchange friends or acquaintances in order that all could have an enjoyable time. N. Donaldson, J. A. Reed, N. Cunard, Leonard Cargiel, and Robt. Stephenson of New York City were introduced to all the hosts. The affair was somewhat informal, as some couples were enjoying their anniversaries, others celebrating their birthdays, while many were on their vacation. The music was so sweet and soothing that the crowd lingered until 2 a. m., even the orchestra did not seem to want to disband. It would be unjust to try to describe the costumes, as it was more like a summer fashion show. We are sure that San Diego must feel proud of this new orchestra. Mr. Harris deserves much credit for bringing together such talent.

Herman Nichols gave a smoker and whist party at his residence last Friday night in honor of J. R. Hunt of Los Angeles. When it comes to entertaining, you will have to take your hat off to him. The first prize was won by Clarence Dickens; second prize, J. E. Hunt of Los Angeles. Mr. Laws, who arrived at the eleventh hour, filled a losing chair, where he was at 5 sittings and outgeneraled them all. Those present were Geo. W. Murray, John Carr, F. T. Conway, L. Garner, Otho Moore, John Cole, W. G. Meadows, Tom Johnson, Matt Laws, A. H. Conway, W. A. Hayden, J. P. Payton, J. E. Hunt, C. E. Dickerson, F. Smith, Lee Bradford, Robt. Ferris and W. L. McDonald.

Mrs. Clarence Dickens entertained at her residence the past week a few of her lady friends with a laughing mask party. Mrs. J. Cole acted as the laughing mask. Lunch and refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Elsie Perry gave a card party at her residence last Thursday night. Seven tables were arranged to care for the many guests.

We would like to know why Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, who is said to be free, single and disengaged, tries to conceal herself as the laughing mask.

Mrs. Jackson was seen enjoying herself on a see-saw at Coronado.

Mrs. Strickland, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Simpson, left for her home in the East via San Francisco. She is a teacher in one of the public schools at her home town.

L. Reily and wife of Sacramento, who arrived on the steamer, are spending their vacation here.

The Hall Jubilee singers will be here in September.

Miss Marie Burton of Bakersfield is spending a few days of recreation here at the residence of Rev. Nelson.

San Diego Episcopal church has started a mission, known as the St. Augustine mission, for which purpose they gave an entertainment a few weeks ago.

Dan Cole, the Beau Brummel of San Diego, is contemplating taking a long vacation of 7 days. He says he cannot be away longer. When it comes to buying, he outbids them all?

Mrs. Banks gave Mrs. Maxie Cunard quite a surprise when she called on her with her little pushmobile last Wednesday.

Notice To San Diego Subscribers—If your bills are due kindly make a remittance at once. We are making our last appeal for back dues. If same are not paid shortly, owing to the high cost of printing ink and paper, together with other current expenses, we will be compelled to stop your paper without further notice. M. T. Laws, Business Manager.

If San Diego people want the news, they will have to support the Eagle, as under present conditions it costs money to set every line.

On August 10th the stork called at 140 18th street and left a fine baby girl with Mrs. E. V. Thomas. Mother and baby doing fine.

T. B. Norman, for more than 4 years with the American National bank, is on his annual vacation, and expects to attend the Grand Lodge U. B. F., which convenes in Oakland on August 22nd.

Will Davis of the Los Angeles Trust company is spending his vacation in the Exposition city with his wife. They are house guests of Mrs. Simpson of University avenue.

Mrs. C. B. Taylor and her two daughters, Julia and Clydie, of Los Angeles, are the house guests of Mrs. C. E. Norwood, 3659 Martin avenue. They will leave for their home on Monday. While in the city they visited Tia Juana, Ocean Beach, La Jolla, the Exposition and many other places of interest.

Mrs. Quinn of Los Angeles is spending a week in San Diego and is stopping at the Wallace apartments.

Mrs. Norwood, mother of I. Haywood, is visiting her son and daughter.

The Carnation club met Tuesday evening and elected their new officers for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Mrs. C. E. Norwood; vice-president, Helen Randolph; recording secretary, Mrs. L. E. Goodwin; treasurer, Mrs. Nolan. The club gave a birthday entertainment, which was a success in every feature.

The Mt. Zion Sunday school, under the leadership of its superintendent, Mrs. M. A. Hayden, is the Model Sunday school of San Diego.

SOJOURNER NOTES

Miss M. Cunningham, chairman of the Educational department of Sojourner Truth Club, was happily greeted by forty-five women Monday afternoon, to listen to the stories of Polly Anna, who played the glad game thru life, making so many happy though a cripple, and touching all whom she came in contact with if they would see and appreciate the bright things in their lives there would be no room for clouds. Many were touched by the stories and expressed their joy for the glad things that had come to them and the Sojourner Truth Home, the latest, tons of coal through the young men of the city.

Two chapters of the life of Sojourner Truth was read by Mrs. Ada Jackson, which was very interesting and pathetic, showing the hardships our slave mothers endured during the dark days of slavery. All women should be interested in the life of this slave mother, one of the noblest women the world has ever produced, and teach the young all they are or hope to be, depends upon how they use the opportunities given them by the sufferings of their slave grand-parents and the sacrifices of their parents. Let us all take a retrospective view "lest we forget."

The Domestic Art chairman, Mrs. Madge Kelly, called for the quilt squares, and twenty squares were laid on the table and announcement made that members and friends not able to be present would bring theirs later. The call for quilt square 12 x 12 (nine patch) will continue till the fourth Monday in October.

The ladies enjoyed a social hour from 5 to 6, the Home committee serving hot coffee and sandwich. Mrs. F. H. Crumbley, chairman.

The Home has been the recipient of several useful and valuable gifts from Mrs. Dr. Cecil, through Miss Sarah Hantins a member of the Home. Among them pillows, dishes, bronze and bisque statuary, a jar o silver coffee pot from which the ladies were served.

The Home is in great need of dishes and cooking utensils, and would be grateful for such gifts.

All new members are expected to be present for obligation Monday at 2 o'clock, and all members to hear the report of year's work.

Mrs. Mollie Phillips, who has been a member of the Home for two months, left for Pittsburg, Pa., Tuesday evening. Her sweet personality will be greatly missed.

The Gold and Blue are racing for good, useful women to join the ranks, increasing the membership to one hundred to carry on the work. Join in.

LOS ANGELES TO BE FAVORED

Mrs. Lillian Jeta Davis, who is without a doubt the best elocutionist in the West and one of the best in the country, is coming to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Davis was in Los Angeles a few years ago, but owing to the inclemency of the weather was unable to demonstrate to this people her ability as a musician of the rarest type.

She is a concert by herself. As a reader she attracts, but as a soloist she hypnotizes.

Accompanied by some of the best local talent, Mrs. Davis will appear at the A. M. E. Zion church, Pico and Paloma, October 9th, and at Wesley Chapel at a later date not yet fixed.

Other churches and organizations wishing to secure the services of Mrs. Davis may do so by addressing communications to Mrs. Lillian J. Davis, 1623 F St., Fresno, or the California Eagle office, 814 Central ave., Los Angeles.

THE HIGHEST POLITICAL HONOR BESTOWED

It is one of the highest honors bestowed upon the member of any party to be one of the chosen few that have in charge the conduct of the campaign of that party. Therefore, by being designated as one of the members of the Republican State Central Committee, not only H. E. McBeth is signally honored, but it is a just recognition to the Race that has at all times so loyally given support to the success of the grand old party.

Mr. McBeth has proved his worth to this community in the way that he has conducted himself ever since he has been amongst us. Every movement for the advancement of the people has had his loyal support, both in a material and moral way. He has at all times been right down among the people and we know of no person who is more worthy of this high place than he. We welcome the recognition under the present alignment of political forces in this section and we verily believe it marks a new era for the political advancement of all the people of this section.

A FEW ETIQUETTES OF CREOLE SOCIETY NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Why is it New Orleans has such beautiful, moral girls. It is because their parents are very strict as to their selection of a life companion.

nder the Catholic teachings it is not an honorable act for girls to marry without their wreath and vail, which means purity.

While attending the duties of school their parents object to their receiving boys' company. Many finish school before selecting a sweetheart.

It's not proper for boys to offer presents to girls under a six months intimacy.

Before calling or corresponding wit hthe young lady he desires to meet in the Creole family, the gentleman has to consult the father and mother and receive their permission, if his qualification is good enough to marry their daughter.

She is never trusted alone with her companion until they are engaged to marry. The family announces this at their engagement feast, which is their custom.

He is permitted only every other night to call on his intended. Nine o'clock is the latest he should court.

Eight days before the wedding it is not proper that she should go ywisits to friends, nor until eight days after their wedding, which is a big surprise party, is given the bride and groom by their groomsman and bridesmaid.

REV. AND MRS. J. LOGAN CROW

Pastor and Wife of First A. M. E. Church Welcomed on Second Year's Pastorate.

Tuesday evening more than 50 guests were present at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Murphy, 1666 West 35th street, where Rev. and Mrs. Crow were tendered a welcome reception in behalf of their second year's effort in the capacity of head of the First A. M. E. church of this city.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, which is modern in every way, upon this occasion was magnificently decorated in pink and white carnations, with a background of green.

Mesdames Murphy, Montgomery, and Brookbye, assisted by Miss Pearl Carter and Miss Bouta, were hostesses to this very prettily appointed affair.

Dainty refreshments were served and a short program, consisting of an address by Mrs. C. A. Bass on behalf of the press and community, and response by Rev. Crow made the affair not only timely, but interesting from start to finish.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Montgomery deserve great credit for the manner in which the affair was arranged and carried out.

By M. C. Thomas.

Thursday afternoon, Sept. 14, Miss Susie Anderson, of 1135 Hobart Blvd., was the hostess of a lovely four-course luncheon given in honor of Miss Antoinette Young, who left the city for Bakersfield, where she will remain for a year or more. Covers were laid for ten. The color scheme of red and white was beautifully and artistically carried throughout. Everyone spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh wish to thank friends for the many lovely gifts received.

One of Los Angeles' sweet lyric singers, in the person of Miss Antoinette Young, who has thrilled this city so many times with her bird-like voice, left, Wednesday, Sept. 20, for Bakersfield, where she will attend school. While in Bakersfield she will be the house guest of Mrs. Winters. We wish all success for this promising young lady, and hope to have her return to us with her charming voice.

The Louisiana Progressive Association, on the evening of Sept. 21, gave an elaborate affair at the residence of Mrs. E. Jones, 740 Ceres avenue.

Music and refreshments were in abundance. Salads were served on platters in crisp lettace leaves, with teas and crisp crackers. Fruits, ice cream and cake, the punch was red and white in the colors of the club. The invited guests were Miss Young, of Denver, the bride of Mr. S. W. Green, Jr., of New Orleans. Mrs. Green is enjoying her honeymoon trip in Los Angeles, with friends, while Mr. Green is on business in the north part of our state.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanmeder were present from New Orleans.

Officers and members who were present: J. B. James, president; D. Baker, assistant secretary; Mrs. E. Jones, treasurer; Mrs. N. Dennis, Miss F. Harris, Mrs. E. Saunders, Mrs. D. Baker.

The little mascot of the club is little baby Jones. She is very bright for her age, both socially and musically. Much credit is due her.

The Wide-Awake Social and Progressive League, motto: "It's a bear," was organized on Thursday evening, Sept. 21, at the residence of Mr. W. C. Colly, 2433 Leonard street. The object of the organization is to deal in all principles—social, benevolent, financial, and political. Through the kindly offices of Dr. G. W. Shields, the reception room of the Douglas Temple will be the future meeting place of the League. Meetings will be held on the first and third Monday evenings at 8 o'clock. The public are invited. There's a surprise in store for all desiring membership. Following are the names of the present officers: J. C. Colly, president; Edward Guillaume, vice president; Jessie Price, secretary; Walter Shipley, treasurer.

N. B. MURRAY IMPROVING

N. B. Murray, secretary of the Colored workingmen's club, and well-known, popular and all-around good fellow, after a week's stay at the Crocker Street Hospital, where he had an operation performed as a result of pulling an ulcerated tooth, was brought back Thursday to his home at 1328 East 8th Street. Murray had a close call and his friends no doubt are glad to hear of his rapid improvement.

Next week's issue will contain full account of the Detroit show up to date. Returns were too late for this issue.

Mr. H. E. MacBeth left last night for San Francisco to attend a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, of which he is a member.

THE BROTHERHOOD

By Chas. B. Dones, President.
(In sacred memory of a deceased member.)

As Time rolls on, the way seems hard,
Since nature has decreed we sorrow here,
As we think of our loss, though Heaven's gain
In the life of Immortal Fredia.

Take heart, men, and don't give up,
For there is more work for you to do here
Before you can join the Blessed throng,
Which will be led by the Immortal Fredia.

In the silent halls of Death may we Submit our lives with cheer
To the hands and keeping of our Blessed Savior,
Who received our brother, Fredia.

Resolutions.

In humble submission to the Almighty, we, as Christian workers and associates of our dearly beloved brother and friend, M. D. Freddier, do hereby resolve it our duty to express a word of condolence to the many friends and relatives of this, our deceased brother; knowing, too, that we must submit to Him that knoweth better than we. It is ours to surrender the pleasant connection of this, our brother and co-worker, and we therefore plead for the consideration of his dear relatives and friends, who are left to mourn his loss, that in the destined way of life it is God's to pluck from among us the blooming flowers to make up the glory of His Kingdom, where a fonder appreciation of the pure gems of human nature finds an eternal favor, than here in a world of woes, mingled with sin and sorrow.

Be it resolved that a constant duty remain with all and each of us to so so live that when our summons comes to join that innumerable host, where each shall take his place in the silent halls of death, that we can submit our [illegible] of our Blessed Savior at His command, and leave behind us sweet memories of our deeds done in the edification of God's Kingdom here upon earth.

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

The case of Mrs. Graves vs. our well-known citizen, A. Graves, for separate maintenance was tried before Judge Crow last week and resulted in a sweeping victory for Mr. Graves. Mrs. Graves was represented by competent Los Angeles attorneys. Mr. Graves was represented by Hugh E. MacBeth, of the same city.

A mighty hunting party was arranged and carried out by Mr. B. L. Grant, manager of the Santa Barbara Ice Co., last week. A three days' outing netted all sorts of small game and one big deer.

AUTUMN EXCURSIONS TO MT. LOWE

Traffic Manager D. W. Pontius, of the Pacific Electric, announces reduced Autumn fares to Mt. Lowe during the entire month of October, including Sundays, to enable everyone who has not already done so to visit this famous mountain and enjoy the perfect fall weather now prevailing there, above the fogs of the valley.

The special tariff, which goes into effect October 1st, names a round trip of only $1.50 from Los Angeles to Alpine and return, and a similar fare of only $1.25 from Pasadena.

In spite of the fact that the Mt. Lowe trip is the most remarkable trolley trip in the world, and that thousands of tourists from every corner of the earth take this trip while in California, it is a curious fact that many residents of this State have never made the ascent of this celebrated mountain and probably do not realize the wonderful beauty and interest of the trip over the magnificent panorama of mountains, valley and distant ocean to be seen from the summit on clear days. These special excursion rates have therefore been arranged by Mr. Pontius to afford residents of Southern California an opportunity to make the trip at the most delightful time of the year in the mountains.

In order that those desiring to spend a week or a week-end on Mt. Lowe may avail themselves of these low fares, the special tickets will be good returning any time within seven days from date of sale, and Ye class board and room as low as $3 per day or $15 per week, American plan. Single meals are only 50 cents for breakfast and 75 cents for lunch or dinner. There are also housekeeping cottages at $8 per week for two people, with an additional charge of $2 per week for each additional person. Camp supplies, including fresh meats, fruits and vegetables, are sold at "Ye Alpine Shoppe" at city prices.

The Mt. Lowe housekeeping cottages are new this year and have proven extremely popular, as they afford families an opportunity for an inexpensive vacation with greater comfort and privacy than can be obtained in any other way. At the same time cottagers are welcomed to all the amusement facilities of the hotel, including the new Music Room with a fine dancing floor. Edison talking machine, player piano, pool and billiards, circulating library and other games and conveniences.

Another innovation this year is an Official Hostess, whose duty it is to see that guests are made acquainted, that everybody has a good time and that there is always "something doing." Riding, hiking, dancing, and picnic parties are frequent, and time passes quickly and pleasantly a mile above the sea.

Anyone who has never seen the lights of Los Angeles and Pasadena and a score of other cities from Inspiration Point has a treat in store which will be long remembered, while the trip from Mt. Lowe to Mt. Wilson over a good Government trail is one of the most beautiful trail trips in the world.

On Saturday, Sunday and holiday evenings, the Lowe Observatory, in charge of Professor Edgar Lucien Larkin, is open free to the public, and everyone is allowed to look through the great 16-inch telescope.

Those who have never made the Mt. Lowe trip should take advantage of these low rates and the favorable Autumn weather and make the trip now, while those who have already visited the mountain will find it pleasant to go again and plan for a stay of a few days or a week so as to enjoy the real charm and restfulness of the place or to explore the numerous fascinating trails into the nearby canyons or the back ranges of the mountains.

FACTS ABOUT THE RAILROAD EMPLOYEES

(San Francisco News Letter.)

In the railroad wage arbitration of 1915, it was shown that the average pay of all engineers in all classes of service on western railroads was $149.61 a month, orat the rate of $1795.32 a year.

Today the engineers and trainmen, 300,000, are demanding a wage increase of $100,000,000 a year for exactly the same work they are now doing.

If this money is paid, it must come from the public.

Is the public willing to pay a $100,000,000 increase in freight and passenger rates to meet this demand of the already highest paid class of railway employees?

They constitute 18 per cent. of the total number of railroad employees.

Labor gets forty-five cents of every dollar earned by the railroads.

The highest paid railway employees are those in train service. Their average earnings are $1286 a year. They demand a wage increase of $600,000,000 a year. Almost every one is a railroad investor in one way or another—every savings bank depositor and every holder of a life insurance policy has an indirect investment in railways.

The Other Side of the Case—Sincerity Attacked

"The sincerity of this newborn and loudly proclaimed belief, as expressed by the spokesman of the railway presidents: 'We stand for the principles of arbitration for the settlement of industrial disputes,' is best shown by the attitude of these railway companies who are so loudly proclaiming the virtues of arbitration and their undying adherence thereto; by the attitude of those same companies toward arbitration on a long list of properties which they absolutely own and control, but which they have refused to include in the present negotiations and to the men on which lines they are refusing their "day in court," so feelingly referred to by the spokesman of the railway presidents."

Here followed a list of sixty-four properties, which the statement said the brotherhood officials sought in vain on June 27 to have represented by the railroad managers in the present dispute.

"In addition to these," the statement continued, "are a large number of quasi-independent properties, largely dominated by the same financial powers, which we have vainly demanded should be included.

'Day In Court' Refused

"These properties employ comparatively small numbers of men, and on account of that fact the railroad managements feel that demands on those properties do not constitute a menace, as they do on the larger properties. Therefore, the right to their 'day in court' is contemously refused. Thus the actual position of the conference committees and of the presidents above them is that on lines where the men are not strong enough to force a hearing, there is 'nothing to arbitrate,' while on lines where a costly contest could be precipitated arbitration becomes the dearest principle connected with the settlement of industrial strife.

Colored Men Excluded

"It might be pertinent at this time to refer to the fact that the conference committee of managers and their supporters have excluded the army of colored brakemen and firemin employed on the Southern railways from all benefits that might be granted in these negociations or from all arbitration that might arise. Are they, or are they not, entitled to their 'day in court'?

"Likewise the white firemen employed on those lines where the Negro predominates: Why is he excluded from the benefits of this plan of arbitration?

"Also the hostlers on eighteen of the leading properties that are represented by the conference committee: if arbitration is so desirable, why will those companies not grant that boon to those men?

"The extreme solicitude on the part of the railway presidents for the 80 per cent. of unorganized emloyes and their rights becomes farcical when it is known that on a large number of those lines it is a dischargeable offense on any of their railways for that 80 per cent. to take any steps toward organizing for he purpose of bettering their wage or working conditions."

They made public tonight several telegrams from commercial organizations throughout the country, upholding arbitration for the settlement of labor disputes and opposing an eight-hour day such as the employers desire.

The Cabinet discussed the situation at today's meeting, and in the opinion of some of the members the danger of a strike has been greatly lessened. — Scrap Book, by J. D. Reynolds.

SUCCESS

Success is about the biggest word in the English language and volumes have been written on how to attain it. Longfellow said: "Success is nothing more than doing whatever you can do well, and doing well whatever you do," and Mr. Gladstones' advice of forty years ago still holds good: "Young man, if you want things to turn up, you must turn them up."

"Busy people do not have time to be miserable. You are not more than half alive until you are wholly in earnest. Lack of ambition accounts for more failures than lack of opportunity.

"Different people have different ways of working. One uses his brain, and another his hands. The poet may be busiest when, from the standpoint of the street-cleaner, he is entirely idle.

"We must work along the line of our endowments, but everybody must be a worker of some sort, or be worthless. The young man whose ambition is to be left without a care, without a worry, without a duty, is aspiring to a most ignoble sort of existence. Every life worth living has a place in the great brotherhood of workers.

There are few satisfactions to be compared with getting the better of some hard task, mastering some difficulty which seems insuperable in the beginning. And no young man is a success until he learns to do some one thing well.

"The average young man of this day and age wants to begin his career in a dress suit and a silk hat. Ninety per cent. of the men who have been most successful in the commercial and industrial world began their careers in overalls and jumpers, and are proud of their humble beginnings.

"Success is not dependent upon geographical situation. It depends entirely upon you. There is no such thing as fate, or luck, or providence in your career if you are willing to start at the bottom and climb.

"Idlers die young. It is only the workers who survive. Indolence spells poverty, and means that after a brief stay on earth you will shuffle off into the Great Unknown—unwept, unhonored and unsung.—From the Scrap Book.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONY

Of Christs Temple, the New Gospel Tabernacle of Pasadena, a Big Success.

Sunday was a great day in the Crown City, when an immense throng of both races—men and women prominent in the civic, Religious and in the Commercial life of Pasadena, and the surrounding towns, gathered on the historic camp grounds at South Fair Oaks Avenue and East Bellevue Ave., which had been the scene of the great old-fashioned Holy Ghost and fire camp meeting under the leadership of that mighty man of God, the "Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson. The ground breaking exercises began with a memorable address by his honor, A. L. Hamilton, president of the City Commission, whose words of eloquence were cheered heartily by the great throng that had gathered for the exercises, as his honor closed his brilliant address and presented to Miss Nellie Davis, who is one of the warm supporters of the new work, the spade to turn the first shovel of earth, the applause was deafening. Dr. Joseph T. Hill, the polished and scholarly divine, responded to his honor in words of felicitousness that won the great audience his approval, as was evinced by the outburst of applauses.

The exercises were continued by the reading of the Scripture lesson by Evangelist McPherson from the Book of Haggi, and Dr. Hill preached the ground breaking sermon from the subject of the "Wells of Elim," in which he characterized the new gospel Tabernacle like unto a well in the desert where earth's pilgrims could get a drink from wells of everlasting life. The sermon was pronounced a masterpiece by all who heard it and Dr. Hill was the recipient of many warm compliments for the able discourse that will ever live in the memory of those who were so fortunate as to hear its delivery. The Prayer of Consecration was offered by Rev. W. H. Tilman, pastor of St. Paul Baptist church and also president of the Baptist Ministers' Federation of Southern California, after which the ground was broken and the congregation joined in singing "Old Hundred," and Miss Davis, the new Tabernacle benefactress, who made the first donation of $50 for the new tabernacle, turned the first shovel of earth, assisted by Mr. Daniel Beatty, the architect. Among the other ministers present that took part in the ceremonies were: Rev. C. Sharenielt, Rev. Robert Skinner and Rev. Luke Hammock. Editor and Mrs. J. B. Bass, of the California Eagle. The offering for the day was nearly $500, while hundreds of the best white and colored citizens, religious workers representing every creed and sect and public officials were present. One of the things that attracted the notice of the people was the conspicuous absence of the local clergy, even though they were invited. It is strange that men who pose as Christ's ministers who never lift a finger or utter a protest against the opening of a new theatre, or a saloon, would dare to stay away from the establishment of a new gospel life saving station. Dr. McPherson is widely known as a tireless worker, and with a most cosmopolitan audience of 500 both colored and white followers, and among them some of the most substantial people of the city of Pasadena, it is predicted that the work of Christ's Temple will become nation wide. As we go to press, the work on the new Tabernacle is going on and will be ready to hold the first services on the fourth Sunday, when corner stone and dedicatory ceremonies will mark the opening of the temple service. Our Dr. Joseph T. Hill will give a series of ten nights' Bible lectures dealing with fundamental Bible themes, a Great Volunteer Chorus of 100 voices will sing opening jubilee songs each of the ten evenings. Full announcement of the order of services for the dedication or opening week ceremonies will be made in the next issue of the Eagle. Rev. W. H. M. Dickerson will be the gospel soloist and first assistant in the activities of the temple work, which will be very extensive, as Dr. McPherson is a divine healer. His services are in great demand among the sick and the suffering, calls for prayers coming from various parts of the country. Dr. McPherson is widely known as the Apostle of Humanity and has dedicated his life to suffering humanity everywhere.

DR. B. F. RILEY, D. D., ON BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

Dr. Riley, the author of this important biography, has rendered very fine service in the cause of Negro advancement in past years. He had devoted a great deal of unselfish labor and time to the improvement of the Negro. What he has done has been exceedingly helpful in enabling white people to understand the Negro and in encouraging the Negro to realize his own possibilities. This "life" which he has written will, we believe, take a very important place in the literature of the Negro. We rejoice in its publication, and believe it will be found to be a contribution of incalculable value to the life, development and prosperity of the Negro and to prosperity of the Negro and to the enlightenment of all friends of the Negro race.

It required nearly twenty-five years of gigantic grapple with difficulty for Booker T. Washington to bring his race in America to the attention of the world. In obscure regions here and there about the South, entirely unobserved save in the localities in which they were, many colored men had gradually come into the possession of land cheapened in value as the result of the war, had gone to work, and were quietly and obscurely accumulating wealth, while others had established little industries of various kinds; these formed a nucleus of organization which became an engine of propulsion to the pioneers of race advancement, and stirred others from their lethargy. These forces were working without concert of action, and unknown to each other, because they had no means of intercommunication, and it was this that Washington supplied at a time when public sentiment had become more conciliatory. By the combination of these two agencies of organization and conciliation the race was enabled to set forth on a new era.

Dr John Wilus Baer, who resigned the presidency of Occidental College last Wednesday, was a personal friend to our departed leader, Dr. Booker T. Washington, and it was because of that friendship the people of Southern California had the opportunity of meeting and hearing Dr. Washington just a little while before he died. The colored citizens appreciate Dr. Baer's love for their great advocate and hope to him a speedy recovery.

Being able to exploit the achievements of his people under difficulty, he deepened sympathy into substantial aid, and the first line of racial barriers went down. Not till then was he able to enlist the substantial help so greatly needed. Tuskegee had become a common point of distribution of Negro force and influence. Its graduates were demonstrating in trades, agriculture, professions, schools, and in much else, that for which the school stood, and these agencies combined with the numerous voluntary strides made in different regions furnished a basis not alone for race elevation, but for an appeal of enlistment of those who could do so, to aid in the work of uplifting. . . .

As the clearness of the motive of Dr. Washington became increasingly transparent with the evolution and practical demonstration of his plans, means came, but not without continued strain of effort on his part. To those without, it meant much when Dr. Washington had succeeded in winning the approbation of the people of the South. Not till he had established a substantial footing was he able to obtain a hearing at the tribunal of public opinion. He alone demonstrated the only method of effecting race adjustment. Nor did he, by any means, accomplish all that needs yet to be done, but he did succeed in dissolving the advanced lines of difficulty, without which nothing was possible. His individual wisdom and success brought the means of success in a way praised by all.

"Humiliation and Conquest"

His motto: "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted" was the key to his success. Great men and women, both white and colored, who had espoused their life to the Negro cause in declaring for their rights, demanding justice and denouncing the discrimination shown them, naturally caused resentment and aggressiveness against such laws. This self-assertion and contention for their equal rights before the law only increased the prejudice and animosity of the whites, and instead of bettering their condition, it was becoming worse every day.

His correspondence became prodigious. Whether in New York or at Tuskegee, he was daily inundated with letters, while at either end during his absence they woul daccumulate in vast heaps. Miscellaneous information was sought by members of both races, advice solicited by farmers, mechanics, bankers, merchants, and educators, and these always received respectful answers, and as promptly as possible, while he must at the same time be managing the affairs of his great school from which he received a daily report during his absence. He must all along be mindful not only for the present needs of the school, but must make due provision for its advancement as it was constantly expanding. He had a corps of trained and efficient helpers, but their functions were circumscribed, since he must be responsible for the things said and done. By reason of the conditions of which he was the creator, with respect to the guidance of the complicated affairs of his people, who were themselves hindered and hampered, his immediate future was always filled with difficulties to be solved.

The South was gradually returning to its own under new conditions, and he would have the colored race become one of the chief factors in the progress made, and thereby become established on a basis, the worth of which could not be questioned. In other words, he wishes his race to be identified with the rehabilitation of the South, that the Negro might ever afterward become an important part of the section. To him it was a golden opportunity for the Negro race, and one that it could not afford to slight to remain in the South.

As he viewed it, the Negro could thus establish for all time a base of worth, whence could be drawn supplies. In a sphere like this the Negro was without competition. Should he fail, the foreigner would be imported, and the Negro would be jostled aside in his helplessness. The colored man could be educated, and should be, but alongside his mental training he would have him an industrial factor; for, as he reasoned, what use would he have for an education entirely classical, or literary, if he had only this? Washington would have the Negro possessed of a force indispensable and always in demand. This would make him independent, while without it, he would be the most dependent of men, no matter what his mental equipment might be. If there were denials of the rights of the colored race, of justice, protection, security of property, and political privileges, even while this was being demonstrated, what would be the condition of the man of color if his ability was confined to his mind? On the other hand, as the worth of the race came more and more to be recognized, there would come about consideration and goodwill, respect and neighborliness, and an identity of interest of both races, that would enable the colored man to win in the long run. So thoroughly was he possessed of this idea that he declined to abandon it to the close of his life. Others of his race did not acquiesce in this view, and insisted that it placed the Negro in a menial attitude; but while he had a practical demonstration of his view, there was left to others no more than theory. In the upward movement of the race, despite the obstructions which still in part remain, the public must decide how nearly his conception has been equaled, and how far his course and counsel have been vindicated.—From "The Scrap Book," by J. D. Reynolds.

RENEGADE ORIENTAL CHINESE

Crooks, Notorious Law Breakers Join Forces to Dethrone Colored Officers.

The hearing of the charges against the two Colored officers, White and Brandy, for accepting bribes, drew capacity audiences this week at the rooms of the Police Commission at the City Hall. The prosecutors of the accused officers played their ace in the hole, by lining up the Chinese gamblers of the city, who claimed that they too for the privilege of playing their strung arm lotteries, had paid tribute to these officers.

And after this galaxy of Chinese crooks, gamblers and short arm men, the charges proper which had been made by McAllister and Saunders were testified to by these two men. They testified that they had paid these officers $20 per month for protection, and made each of them a present of a turkey and a box of cigars for a Christmas present, all for protection at their hands and other witnesses were heard in corroboration of the testimony of Sanders and McAllister. The complainants have rested their case and the trial has been set over until next Thursday, at which time the defense will have their inning, and it is to be hoped that the officers will make a defense that will convince the forces that stand law, order and civic righteousness of their innocence in this affair.

The Eagle believes in hewing to the line, and if the officers are guilty of extortion, we ask no quarter, but we verily believe that the Commission will be eminently fair in the premises and give to all the consideration due them. In other words they will give both the citizenry and the officers a SQUARE DEAL.

They will consider the fact that the testimony against the officers is all by persistent and confessed law breakers. For instance, the Chinese gamblers and lottery sharks, that have brazenly carried on their nefarious games and defied the law, when they are run to the earth, they turn on their Nemisis in the person of officers Brandy and White. These officers have been holy terrors to law breakers of all classes, their records for arrests for gambling, disorderly houses and all sorts of vice, we are told, is prolific indeed. These Chinese renegades are the ones that have been selected to unhouse these officers. The question is, will they succeed? We would think it a sad commentary on law and order when a palatable frameup, such as this seems to be would prevail and the cry of "Crucify them" by confirmed law breakers would be." There is no sentiment to shield anybody who breaks the law, be he a crap shooter or an officer with his mitt out, but there is a strong sentiment for a square deal for the men who really stand for the enforcement of law, and it is well known to what length lawbreakers will go to get even with those who would dare to interiere with their operations.

So we trust that in this case that justice will prevail to the utmost.

HAS MADE AN ENVIABLE RECORD IN MASONIC AND RELIGIOUS CIRCLES

To the Editor of the California Eagle:

Dear Sir:

I wish space in your valuable paper to speak in reference to one who has rendered efficient and valuable service to the cause of Masonry in California, in the person of the Rev. R. H. Harbert, now serving his third term as Grand Lecturer under authority of the Most Worshipful Sovereign Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of California and its Masonic jurisdiction (of Prince Hall Masons), organized in this state in 1855. Rev. Harbert, who was stationed at Bethel A. M. E. church, San Francisco, during last year, has been transferred to the Colorado Conference and stationed at Pueblo, Colo. This move comes at a time when the jurisdiction can ill afford to lose him, his services have been of great benefit to our craft as a whole. Unlike many men of his calling and capabilities, he is kind and courteous and possessed of those rare qualities that few men can boast. His work as Grand Lecturer is of a very high order, both pleasing and instructive to the craft. He has filled the office so acceptably that it is always a joy to the brethren when it comes his time to pay them a visit. He has conducted his work with such dignity and forethought that he always commands the rapt attention and respect of the brethren. His mastery of the ritualof the order, his amiable disposition, his inimitable way of demonstrating the underlying principles of our order, and his deep concern for the welfare of the craft have gained for him a very enviable reputation, which he has sustained by close attention to duty and a demonstration of his fitness for the work in which he is engaged. As the jurisdiction of Colorado will have him in their midst for an indefinite time, they may well congratulate themselves upon such an acquisition. While his energies will be exerted among them his membership will remain in California. We ask for him the co-operation of the brethren in his new home, feeling assured that they will profit by his coming, but hope that the day is not far distant when we shall again have him in our midst. Our prayers and best wishes are for his success in his new field of labor.

T. A. HARRIS,
Grand Master.

SHOWERS OF BLESSING AT FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. Logan Craw, pastor of the First A. M. E. church, preached a notable sermon on last Sunday morning. It was soul stirring and touched the hearts of all present, strong men and women wept, sinners arose from their seats, went forward confessing their sins and acknowledging Jesus Christ. There were sixteen who went forward, seven of whom were converts. It was a great meeting, a great sermon, and a great day in Zion.

BIG PARADE AND MASS MEETING

There will be a big parade and mass meeting Tuesday night at Tabernacle Baptist Church. Hon. S. W. Odell, chairman of the California Dry Federation and Mrs. Frank Wheeler head of the Woman's Division in this connection, will be speakers, as well as many prominent race men and women. Little Baby Bilbrew will sing—"Papa is Drinking Again."

Tabernacle choir assisted by Mr. Manuel Hall, will furnish music. Rev. R. D. Arline, Chairman; Mrs. S. C. Cole, Secretary.

MRS. S. B. STRICKLAND.

Household of Ruth, No. 3309, entertained in honor of their delegate, Mrs. V. Fingers and visiting delegates, which was a very pleasant affair.

Rosetta Temple No. 10 held a reception for their delegates to the Grand Temple in Oakland, including visitors were Mrs. S. Shores, S. G. P.; Mr. M. T. White, S. G. S.; Mrs. Anglin, G. A. S., and other officers. Some beautiful presents were given the delegates by the members. The Princess presented the S. G. Princess, Mrs. Shores, with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Mrs. Shores presented Mrs. Fingers a lovely bouquet. It was also a very enjoyable affair.

A SPECIAL CALL.

All persons, both men and women, are asked to be present at The California Eagle office Saturday evening, Oct. 14, to devise ways and means for the part we will play in the Women's Hughes Campaign.

Committee on Arrangements for the Women's Hughes Campaign Train, Arriving Oct. 18.
618-19 Title Insurance Building, 5th and Spring Street
Home A3034
Sunset Broadway 1247

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 12.
Mrs. C. Spear-Bass,
Los Angeles, California.
California Eagle,
Eighth and Central.

My Dear Mrs. Bass: The Committee on Arrangements is anxious to have a full representation of the Colored people participate in the Hughes Day Celebration in Los Angeles on October 18th.

The Campaign Special arrives at the Arcade depot at 12 o'clock noon and will be met by a large welcoming committee headed by Mayor Woodman. All Republican organizations will be represented and join in the monster parade from the depot through the business section. Automobiles will be decorated with American flags, Hughes pennants and organization banners.

A mass meeting is arranged for 3 p.m., at Trinity Auditorium, where everyone can have equal opportunity to hear these splendid speakers.

Very truly yours.

MARY P. GIBSON.

SUSPICIONS AS TO THE KU KLUK KLAN

Stockton, Calif.

The Editor of California Eagle:
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Sir:

Doubtless you have noticed the fact that an organiation has been formed in Claremont and vicinity called the Ku Klux Klan for protection against the Hindu and other Orientals. It would be well for the Negro to watch this organization, as there is a posibility that this organization might turn its attention to the Negro some time in the future. Such an organization is a result of the showing of Thomas Dixon's "Clansman" in Los Angeles andother California towns.

A. FRIEND.

What the Churches are Doing

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The pastor has returned from the Conference at Douglas, Aris., and reports a very successful session of the same.

The pastor filled the pulpit at both services on Sunday and preached to two attentive and appreciative congregations.

This Church boasts of one of the best Choire in the city and the music was up to the same high standard.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Missionary Society was held in the Pastor's study on Monday afternoon, and the ladies pledged themselves to do more for Missions this year than ever before.

The Church is planning to make a great many improvements to the interior of the church, this year, by putting in pews and rearranging the pulpit and altar.

Services at this church are always spiritual and helpful and the public is invited to attend.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday Bro. Latouche filled the pulpit both morning and evening. The morning text was taken from the 14th chapter of Luke and the 7th verse. The evening subject was "The Fishermen," taken from the same book. Both sermons were instructive and full of the truth.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Sunday School will give a surprise for its children, in connection with a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson who are leaving the city soon. The public is invited.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Gregg, Pastor.

Glorious services were held at this Church last Sunday. Pastor Gregg occupied his pulpit and delivered two wonderful and effective sermons. Numbered with the accessions to membership were two converts.

The choir again featured with excellent music. Many new voices have been recently added and the choir now has the greatest collection of star singers to be found in any choir in the west.

Good pictures of the proposed church building are being sold at 10 cents each.

Members and friends of the church are indeed glad to know that Mrs Gregg, the zealous wife of the pastor, who has been very ill is much improved.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Last Sunday, the anniversary of the Pastor's service here, was characterized by three splendid services.

The pastor, officers and members were delighted at the large crowd of visitors who worshipped with us at the 3 o'clock service.

Next Sunday the pastor will occupy the pulpit at the morning service. At the evening service there will be an illustrated sermon on "Ten Surprising Events to Quickly Follow the Big War" by Evangelist Cuddy, of Washington, D. C. Questions answered at the close of the sermon. Hear this great sermon Sunday evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Cora Dennis, 913 1-2 East 23rd St., and Mrs. Mary Byars, 1328 East 34th St., are on the sick list this week. We hope these two faithful workers in our church will soon be restored to health to be again among their many friends.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Sunday was the scene of a real Pentecostal shower at First Church The pastor delivered two sermons. Sixteen souls united with the Church, seven of whom were converts. All were young men and women and folks in the prime of life, such as are found in the foremost homes of the citizenry of Los Angeles. The entire congregation was swept into tears of joy at this spiritual and intelligent demonstration of the presence of the Holy Ghost. Others will come to Christ and this church will move on. Everybody is welcome to attend our services.

The First Quarterly meeting of this new Conference year will be held Sunday. Presiding Elder, Rev. J. H. Wilson, will be in charge. The communion of the Lord's Supper will be administered at both the morning and evening services. The evening service will begin at 7:30 o'clock at all times from now on during the winter season. Quarterly Conference Tuesday night, Oct. 17.

"The War of the Roses" is the caption that shall inspire and encourage the entire membership and all friends of First Church to rally in the raising of funds to pay all the money we can this Conference year on our mortgage debt. The slogan is "Get out of debt and stay out of debt." The pastor is commander in chief, and General Alice Lucky is at the head of the "Red Rose Regiment", while General Lillian J. Craw is at the head of the "White Rose Regiment" The fight is on. The first skirmish will take place on Sunday, Dec. 10. The decisive battle will take place on Easter Sunday, 1917, when the losing General will be buried under the roses. Come to Claes meeting every Thursday night and get the details of this "war" that is raging to pay all we can this Conference year on our mortgage debt of $2,660.00.

The funeral services of Mr. Nathan J Smith, Mr. Robert Glascoe and Mr. John Sanders were each conducted by the pastor in one week's time. The Rev. D. R. Jones, pastor of our church in Salt Lake City, Utah, assisted at the services of Brother Sanders. Bro. Sanders was one of Dr. Jones' trustees when he pastored our church in this city more than twenty years ago.

Sunday, Oct. 22, will be Trustee Day again. The pastor gives away that the members who were not ready to respond in the little $2 effort of last Sunday might have the opportunity of helping this department at this time. Everybody will be asked to assist in the free will offering.

Remember that our services begin at 11 o'clock sharp each Sabbath morning, and 7:30 p. m. each Sabbath evening. Please come on time so you can get the benefit of the entire worship. Everybody welcome.

RIVERSIDE

Last Sunday's services were but a continuation of the excellent worship observed each Lord's Day at the Second Baptist Church. The Pastor preached at both services. The morning service was the second series on the Lord's prayer "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven." The congregation sat with wrapped attention as the meaning of this part of the prayer was unfolded to them.

Next Sunday will be Membership Rally Day. All members are expected to be present.

Mrs. S. H. Greer, Superintendent of the Woman's Day Nursery, together with several other ladies from Los Angeles were welcome visitors to Riverside last Sunday. They attended the services at the Second Baptist Church.

Mr. Aaron Wiley is the proud owner of a five-seated Ford.

Deacon Gordon is somewhat indisposed. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

"A Delusion and a Snare"

The Anti-Saloon League is making a deliberate attempt to deceive the people of the State by offering the second amendment as an "Anti-Saloon Measure." The Sacramento "Bee" on February 15, last, said of this:

This second proposal is not an anti-saloon issue.

It is much more than an effort to regulate the liquor traffic.

It is a scheme to throttle the wine industry of California.

It is a measure as obnoxious as prohibition itself.

Under an alias and behind a mask it presents prohibition in the garb of an anti-saloon measure.

Under it no hotel, restaurant or cafe could serve California wine with meals.

No commercial body, fraternal organization, or individual giving a public banquet at a place of public resort could offer wine to guests.

No club could serve wine to its members.

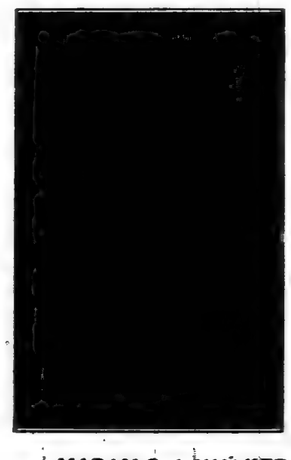
No Summer resort could offer or give away wine to its patrons.

No grocery store or family liquor store could sell wine in sealed packages not to be consumed on the premises.

* * * * * *

The thing is one of the most iniquitous offenses against personal liberty and the sacredness of individual rights ever thought of anywhere.

It is a fraud when it masquerades under the alias of "an anti-saloon proposition."



It is a farce when it claims to be merely a measure to "regulate the liquor traffic."

And it is an imposition throughout upon the voter, because it does not stand out in the sunlight under its true colors.

The voters of California are asked to vote on two prohibition measures. The first amendment on the ballot is absolute prohibition and says so. The second amendment on the ballot is also a prohibition amendment but masquerades as an anti-saloon measure. The principal difference between the two measures is that one goes into effect at the end of 1917, and the other goes into effect two years later.

REGISTER NOW AND WORK AND VOTE AGAINST BOTH AMENDMENTS.

DORIS STEVENS OUTLINES FIGHT

Suffragist Leader Explains Opposition to Woodrow Wilson by Women Voters.

All suffrage states will be visited in the final weeks of the campaign by a flying squadron of Woman's party speakers. They are to tell why they are opposing president Wilson.

California will hear Helen Todd, Inez Milholland Boisevain, Maude Younger, Mrs. Sarah Bard Field, Ida Finney Mackrille, Hazel Huntins, and Emily Perry.

Mrs. Boisevaid, one of the most remarkable figures of the suffragist movement, will speak in the Palace Hotel on the evening of October 31. Miss Todd will speak at the St. Francis, October 12.

Miss Dorris Stevens, campaign manager, has issued a resume of the reasons why women should vote against Woodrow Wilson as follows:—

President Wilson went to Philadelphia, May 10, 1915, to welcome to citenship 4,000 naturalized aliens, but refused to see, for five minutes, a deputation of women, the best in Philadelphia. He has refused to recommend to Congress favourable action on the amendment. he has refused to ask Congressional committees, which obstructed the amendment, to take action; he has declared his personal opposition upon various trivial pretects; he has influenced opinion in his party against it; he drafted the States' rights plank on woman suffrage in the Democratic platform, and declared that the platform prevented him from taking action; he has tried to defend his attitude on suffrage in many contradictory statements; he has greatly enlarged the Federal power, and as one objection to suffrage has been dislodged from his mind, has advanced a new reason.

NOTICE

For the benefit of the ministers who were not at the Alliance last Tuesday, we will state that action was taken requesting that each of the ministers preach a temperance sermon on the third Sunday of the month, and that each of the churches appoint a committee on Parade Five or six thousand of our people are expected to participate in the great People's Temperance parade on Nov. 4th. The committee is working up a great mass meeting, the time and place to be announced later.

Dear Pastor:—

You and your congregation are urgently invited to be present at a farewell public testimonial to be given Dr. E. W. Kinchen, late pastor of Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church at the church, Sunday, October 15, at 2:30 p.m.

Dr. Kinchen has just concluded five and one-half years of service at Wesley Chapel and the members of his congregation, together with the pastors and members of all the other congregations in the city are planning to give him a public farewell commensurate with his services to our community and the Kingdom of Jesus Christ during the past five and one-half years. You are requested to take part in the program and to speak in your own way and as your heart may direct you, concerning Dr. Kinchen's services during the past five and one-half years. All of the ministers of the city are invited to be on the platform and seats will be reserved for your congregation. Kindly see that this notice is given to your congregation from now until October 15th, that as large a representation of each congregation as possible will be present.

Trusting that you will be with us in large numbers on this occasion, we are.

Yours in His Work,
Public Testimonial Committee.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE ELDORADO GOLD STAR MINING COMPANY:

This is to inform you that a get-together meeting is called under the auspices of our Corporation to convene at Phillip's Chapel (C. M. E. Church) No. 1406 Newton Street, between Tennessee and Central Avenues, Friday Evening, October 20th, 1916, at the hour of 7:30.

Take Hooper Avenue Car, get off at Tennessee and Newton streets and walk one-half block west to Church.

All stockholders are urgently requested to attend this meeting and hear our manager, Mr. S. J. Brown, tell in a business manner what has been done on the property under his management, and that of others; and also what is yet to be done to get desired results.

Mr. H. A. Preston, manager for the Millionaire Chapman Brothers, has promised to be present and inform the company with facts concerning the excellent holdings of the company from his personal knowledge and observation.

It is expected that each and every stockholder who has any business foresight in making provision for better times will not fail to be present at the meeting. Bring your friends with you—whether they be stockholders or not—they can learn much about our proposition.

We are faithfully yours for mutual co-operation and success of our great Mining Industry.

Real prosperity involves one's ability to live well and accumulate a competence for old age. How many people are prosperous today?

If President Wilson is really so confident of his re-election, he should take advantage of those credulous creatures responsible for the odds against him on the betting boards.

Tom Marshall, in his Terre Haute speech, declared that "The Democratic party has changed its mind on the tariff question." This statement should come under the head of Criminal Confessions.

Most of the thirty thousand new federal jobs created during the present administration of economy, retrenchment, and reform are now filled by what Ham Lewis calls "true and loyal sons of the South."

It is said that Vance McCormick gave utterance to a great and exceedingly bitter cry when he read the declaration of Democratic State Chairman Harris that his gubernatorial candidate, Judge Seabury, is 100,000 stronger than is Wilson in New York.

ANOTHER MEXICAN INCONSISTENCY

The members of the Carranza-Wilson commission seem to be deliberating not upon the international problems which alone could give it legal and rational cause for being, but upon the domestic politics of Mexico. We have again and again been assured that it was our bounden duty to let the Mexicans work out their own salvation, even at incidental sacrifice of American life and property; but now we have a commission that is deliberating upon Mexican domestic problems of taxation, finance and rehabilitation. This doesn't seem to fit in very well with the theory of letting the Dons do it, but it has long been understood that this administration has one set of theories to talk about and quite another set to work on.

The latest suggestion from the conferees is that Mexico shall be invaded by an army, not with guns, but with plows and school books in its hands. American farmers are to teach the peons how to plow and reap, and American school teachers are to instruct the Mexican idea how to shoot, although knowing how to shoot seems to be a natural attribute of the Mexican mind, especially when the target is a gringo or a government soldier.

This is probably the most beautiful international idea that has been developed since the days of the Children's Crusade, when tens of thousands of boys and girls started forth to accomplish the conquest of the Holy Land that the mailed warriors had failed to achieve. That was a perfectly lovely idea, but the children who thus set forth never came home. They were drowned at sea, massacred, or carried into slavery. Yet it was a perfectly lovely idea. So is this idea of sending American farmers and schoolmarms into Mexico to be welcomed, as Tom Corwin put it, "with bloody hands to hospitable graves." They have before them, both as incentive and encouragement, the experience of hundreds of American men and women, engaged in a similar work, abandoned by their own government to murder, robbery, and rape.

For instance, there is the case of the teacher who was held as a member of Villa's harem for many weeks, Villa being the champion of human liberty Senator Lewis says this government at one time intended to recognize, and who was at the time fighting with ammunition furnished him through the consideration of the Wilson administration. This woman tells the story in a recently published magazine article of how many girls were whipped and beaten to death because they resisted entrance into the horrors of the household maintained by the "people's friend" who enjoyed the friendship of the present national administration for so many months, and in whose behalf American sailors died at Vera Cruz in President Wilson's demonstration against Huerta, the undesirable citizen to whom Villa, the cattle thief, murderer and rapist, was preferred by the administration's tender conscience.

When President Wilson wrote to John Lind that if he couldn't force Huerta out by promoting the Carranza-Villa revolution he would "resort to other means," just what means had he in mind? Can it be that this holy conservator of the peace intended to put the American army on the job? Yet what other means were left him had his furtherance of domestic sedition failed him?

"THE TROOPER OF COMPANY K"

The Lincoln Motion Picture Co. Features Mr. Noble M. Johnson in a New War Drama

The Lincoln Motion Picture Company, which has set the standard for Negro photoplays, presents their second production, "The Trooper of Company K," at the New Angelus Theatre, for five days, beginning Saturday, October 14th.

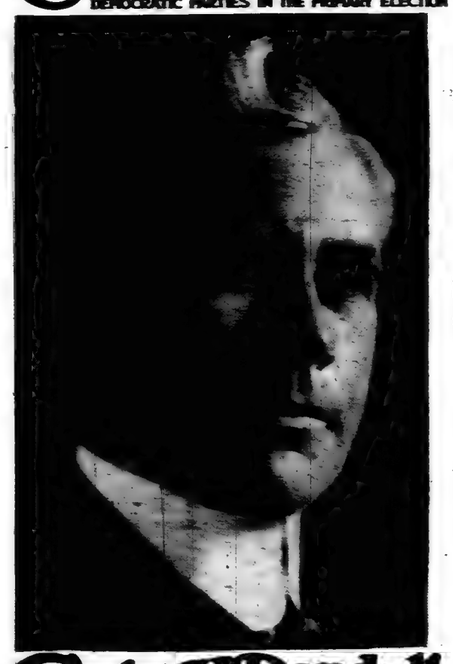
The story is from the pen of Noble M. Johnson and was produced under his personal direction. The production might be caled stupendous if the amount of people and money expended are considered.

Great care has been taken in selecting the cast. Mr. Johnson, America's premier Afro-American screen star, plays the role of the trooper, and is ably supported by Miss Beaulah Hall and Mr. Jimmy Smith.

The army officers were played by men of actual army experience. The troopers themselves, for the most part, were ex-Ninth and Tenth Cavalrymen, and the best riders in the United States army.

The Mexican soldiers were commanded by Steve Clemento, a officer under Generals Diaz, Hururale in Mexico City; also an erta and Cararnza. The Mexican soldiers used have actually fought under the factions of Mexico.

"The Trooper of Company K" will rank as an exceptional picture if only for its historical value, commemorating as it does the battle at Carrizal, where our boys made such a good fight against overwhelming odds, sacrificing their blood and life for their country.



The picture also tells a simple story of a good-for-nothing fellow who joins the army and finds himself all man with a big heart and good enough for a little girl who is home waiting for him.

The Lincoln Motion Picture Co. has four prints ofits first production, "The Realization of a Negro's Ambition," now running in the East and South. It is meeting with great success and is highly lauded by Press and Public.

It is the highest aim of the Lincoln Motion Picture Company to make productions picturing the Negro at his best.

The married ladies Art Grill gave a tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jones, 54th St. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. A short but excellent program was rendered, and the ladies declared a delightful afternoon.

W. J. McLemore, who two years ago stood sponsor for the Free Lance in this city, but, later removed the publication to San Francisco for greener and richer fields, is in the city on business. He says he has made good with a vengeance in the north and is giving old prosperity a mighty hard race.

A happy smile and greeting met Elder Sheaf last Sabbath morning Oct. 7th, as he stood before a full and appreciative audience. He gave a most interesting account of his six months trip East and South and some of the new songs he sang were both beautiful and soul-stirring. The Free Seventh Day Adventists are fully determined to press forward in their cause. We wish them God speed.

Mrs. O. T. Sherman and her sister, Mrs. W. R. Kidd, 1624 W. 36th St., entertained with a luncheon on the 5th of Oct. in honor of Mrs. John Short from Denver, Colorado, who is visiting her sister and friends here. Also Mrs. E. R. Baldwin on her return from New York. The party consisted of twelve ladies. Place cards were of blue birds and yellow roses; the table decorations blue and yellow butterflies; while the house was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns.

Miss Shorts wishes to extend thanks to her many friends and acquaintances for the numerous informal affairs given in her honor, and invites her many hospitable friends to her Colorado home. Among the most charming events enjoyed by Miss Shorts, was a trip to Catalina, on invitation from Mr and Mrs. Wicks; an automobile tour by Dr. and Mrs. Gordon over the Orange Empire, through Riverside, San Bernardino, Redlands, and Smiley Heights.

PAGEANT OF THE FLOWERS

The prettiest affair of the season was the Flower Pageant at the 1st A. M. E. Church last Tuesday evening, arranged by Miss Maurie V. Cunningham. 12 different kinds of flowers represented by 60 pretty girls in the most gorgeous of costumes, designed by Miss Hazel Brown. The music by Miss Lottie Boids was of the very best. The artistic poses and pantomime by Mrs. Carrie Hunter Lewis were greatly enjoyed. Mme. L. Jeter Davis favored the audience with one of her choice readings which was highly appreciated.

A Secret Exposed.

After testing out different lines of toilet articles, Miss Rose L. Sampson quickly decided that Fletcher's Toilet Preparations were the best on the market. Miss Sampson now carries the complete Fletcher line and desires to show her customers wonderful results are obtained by "Fletcherizing your complexion". Fletcher's Bleach paste clears and whitens the complexion, Fletcher's Cream softens the skin, Fletcher's Face Powder Oh, so sweet, protects the skin.

Call and see Miss Sampson.

A SURPRISE PARTY

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, a surprise party was given complimentary to Rev. and Mrs. A. Lovely of 110 East 32nd street by the members of the New Hope Baptist church under the leadership of Mrs. R. Hays.

The members met in a body and marched upon the pastor and his family singing "Nearer My God to Thee." Attracted by the sweet melody the door was opened and in marched the assemblage and showered upon the family all kinds of groceries and delicate things of the season.

More than thirty persons participated in the party, which proved to be a very delightful affair, and highly appreciative of the high esteem in which Rev. A. Lively and family is held in the estimation of his followers.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guarantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Puro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

THE SOCIETY FUNCTION OF THE ELITES

First opening luncheon of the Friday Club was held last Friday, October 6th at Masonic Hall. The hall was artistically decorated. Music by Mr. Eugene Edwards. Approximately fifty members and guests were present.

Song: "Sing Me The Rosary," Roger Lewis, Mrs. Cromier Tate, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Hunter.

Toasts: "Still achieving, still pursuing," Toastmistress, Mrs. Marie Adkerson.

"The Rise of the Curtain," Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter.

"Our Club and Its Visions," Mrs. Narcissus Gray.

"Our Ideals," Mrs. Gertrude B. Williams.

"Negro Literature of Yesterday and Today," Miss Corean White.

"Echoes From The Federation," Mrs. Ursula Perry.

Music: "Il Trovatore," Verdi, Miss Marguerite Hunter.

Entertainment Committee: Mrs. Ursula E. Perry, Mrs. Gertrude B. Williams, Mrs. Cromier Tate.

The Savoy Theatre was well attended last week by all when Brooks & Bowen appeared on the stage. It shows how the people appreciate the Race talent. Last Friday night was "special attraction" night, when they introduced "Walking the Dog." Home talent which took part in the acts: Mr. Earl Ramsey and Miss Anita; Mr. Eugene Edwards and Miss Hattie B. Ridley; Mr. Son Willis and Miss Ethel Stansel, Mr. Thos. Thomas and Miss Vera Simpson.

First Prize—Mr. Earl Ramsey and Miss Anita. Second prize—Mr. Eugene Edwards and Miss Hattie B. Ridley. Third prize—Mr. Son Willis and Miss Ethel Stansel.

After the show all the contestants were entertained on the stage by Mr. and Mrs. Bowen and Brooks.

The last Wednesday night Social Dance was a very popular affair. The tan dress worn by the lady from La Jolla was the center of attraction and many were seeking an introduction. But Mr. Ellis held four aces. The lady from Los Angeles with the gray suit and sporting cane also had many admirers. The fashion was so flourishing that the fashion plate had to walk home for exercise. Mr. Stevens is some limber jack all right, but he was disappointed because he did not have time to introduce the latest dance, called "the limber jack."

Mr. Cash Burns, the handsomest man in town, had a bank roll that would choke a sea lion, but all the ladies do the treating.

Don't forget the big special events as planned by the Black and Tan Orchestra.

One of San Diego's society maids and fashion models says she will leave in a few days for Los Angeles to master all the latest dances and fancy steps. She was given three walnuts from Coronado to help pay her tuition. We wish her success.

Mrs. Eva Smith, the popular artist, has completed some very elaborate paintings which she will soon have on exhibition. She was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Thompson for luncheon last Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Hattie Simpson laughed herself into hysterics at the theatre the other evening when the picture of Mr. Bert Williams was shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cole, enjoyed themselves at the Savoy Theatre last Friday night accompanied by Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lewis.

Since Miss Thompson has returned Coronado is very popular with the smart set.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Farrar, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, were entertained at luncheon last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. C. Williams and Mrs. I. S. Haywood, of the Mt. Zion Baptist church in the parsonage. Many guests were present and after refreshments were served, they left for their respective homes, but not before wishing the hostesses long life and prosperity, and above all don't forget to issue more such invitations, as they all enjoyed the rare treat.

Rev. Guy looks well; the change has done him good.

Rev. Nelson, do not allow escorts to walk behind, now that you are in the chair.

That lady from Coronado who was in a hurry did not know her friend of years ago. Time works wonders.

Mr. G. D. Farrar, a business man of Muskogee, Oklahoma, has been spending several weeks in the city, urging the necessity of buying land, especially land in the city from which he came.

Dr. Stovall, of Los Angeles, was in the city for a brief stay and enjoyed every minute of that stay.

Mr. "Shorkie" Williams can be seen any day, taking a spin in company with Mr. Bob Reeve in that brand new machine. Oh, how the people look at them. Some class, eh? It was built for two.

Mr. Sam Brock, the king of the pavilion, was a winner, and unlike most winners, he has opened a bank account. So, if he continues he will make another J. P. Morgan, but not so large, you know. By the way, I must tell you: Someone struck the king, and he mutilated his features. Say, you should have seen the other fellow. So, take advice: never strike a king.

Mr. E. Jones will never let a good opportunity go, but he thought twice and picked it up: U. S. stamps and gold. Good for Jones! He can buy a coat now.

The Forum meeting was held at Masonic hall last Sunday afternoon, October 8, at which meeting the permanent officers were installed for the next six months. Rev. C. W. Nelson was chosen as president; Mr. Jas. Gray for vice-president; Miss Hattie Simpson for secretary-treasurer; Miss Miles Jackson for assistant secretary, and the balance of the committee was selected by the chair. After much discussion on the present issues of the day, the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place; that is, Masonic hall, Sunday afternoon, October 15, at the hour of 3 o'clock.

Owing to the five Fridays in September, the Gold Social Club did not have their regular social on the 6th of October, but, believe me, the pleasure was all made up on the 13th when all the dancing elite turned out. Glittering styles and fashions were all the go with the aristocrats.

Miss Ethel Stansel became disgusted with her partner at the contest at the Savoy Theatre, and said that he ought to be where Brooks said Bowen came from.

Mr. Carl Chisum is very thankful for being rescued from the Barnum & Bailey circus. He is now employed at his old position at the Maryland Hotel.

Glad to see Mr. Al Barnsey out again. He has been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. T. B. Norman, who met with an accident whilst moving money from one floor to another in the bank the other day, staged a movie scene that will not be shown on the screen in this city. He had previously purchased a bottle of red ink and the elevator became unmanageable. He extended his hand out to stop the elevator, fell to the floor and cut his hand; broke the bottle of red ink, which ink ran through to the bank floor and to the basement, and caused one girl to faint and others screamed and said that Norman was killed, which almost suspended business in the bank. Mr. Norman still has his arm in a sling.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Mr. Q. E. Scott, brother of Emmett J. Scott, of Tuskegee, committed suicide at his former residence, 723 Second Street, Saturday, October 7th. Mr. Scott was an ex-sailor, formerly of Houston, Texas, and was at the time of his death employed as a blacksmith for the Spreckels company, and it was said that a decree of divorce was pending, and he had asked for a reconciliation with his wife, and sent her refusing, he became despondent. It is also said that he had drawn $700 from the bank previous to his death. He leaves a wife and three children.

Mr. John Saunders, for more than thirty years chef on the Santa Fe, passed away last Saturday, October 7th, at the Santa Fe Hospital at Los Angeles. Mr. Saunders was well known throughout the country, as he had made many trips with the officials on the road. Many officials and employees regret his death. Mr. Saunders was a prominent Mason and Odd Fellow; also an officer in the Eighth and Towne Streets church of Los Angeles.

Mr. Henry Calvin, formerly of Oklahoma, has opened a long-needed, up-to-date lunch room in the vicinity of Third and Market streets, in which we hope he will have success.

Mr. Leon Smith is very popular out on 30th and Greeley Streets. The girls fancy him with his bass solo.

Mr. Charles Barnes and Mr. Dan Badgett seem to be the only two popular young men in the city. They can be seen quite often cornered up by some fluffy maid. Mr. Barnes was seen a few days ago with his neck in a critical position. How do they do it?

Mr. G eo. Murray was in town for a few days, looking the picture of health.

Mr. R. C. Reese is quite a speeder now. They say that he is going to enter the big races at Coruna next year.

Mr. John Perry is quite right; he goes to bed early so that the rooster will not disturb him in the early morning.

Mr. J. E. Freeman speaks about buy now. One of his friends telephoned to know if he could sell him a ship load to be shipped to Belgium, but he said: "Who will pay the insurance? If it were not for that high rate, I would let you have

SOJOURNER NOTES

The Domestic Science Department of Solourner Truth Club presents Mrs. R. C. Caldwell, of St. Louis, Monday afternoon, Oct. 16, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Caldwell is a representative woman, having worked with the Associated Charities of Bloomington, Ills., for four years, and a teacher of Domestic Science in Lincoln Institute of Jefferson City, Mo., for five years. Mrs. Caldwell will give a talk on the "Chemistry of Food" and demonstrate an original salad.

Mrs. Bertha L. Turner, Chm.

The Executive Board held an interesting quarterly meeting last Monday. The reports were very encouraging from the several departments.

The Home chairman reported occupants for the quarter 50; visitors to the Home 192; applications for help 36, filled (only) 6; several useful gifts.

The Home is very anxious to have women who need or want to work to register, as there is a constant demand for efficient help at good salaries.

Keep your eye on Blanchard Hall, Oct. 31st, Halloween Eve.

The Maids and Matrons, under the chairmanship of Miss M. Cunningham, will eclipse the Benedicts and Bachelors. Get ready for the Halloween moon.

A. M. E. ZION CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT MONROVIA

The A. M. E. Zion Conference convened in Shilo A. M. E. Zion church, Monrovia, as per schedule, the Rt. Rev. L. W. Kyles, A. M., S. T. B., presiding. The organization was perfected by the election of Rev. J. G. Edmonds, secretary, Rev. J. B. Holmes as statistician.

Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. W. J. J. Byers, W. W. Matthews and G. H. Harnes to the Conference and visitors.

The morning session was taken up in outlining the work for the session.

The afternoon the Bishop delivered his Episcopal address, which was full of encouragement to the ministers and layment of the church.

The good pastor, Rev. L. W. D. Henry and people of Monrovia, the foothill city, are sparing no pains to make the visit of the Conference to this city a success.

At the evening session the local church will tender the Conference and delegates a reception.

Rev. H. Leo Johnson of Prescott, Ariz., and Rev. S. A. Knox have not arrived yet but are expected tonight.

J. G. EDMONDS.

ATTY. H. E. MacBETH WINS SUIT

A few months ago the California Eagle published an account of one Mrs. Johnson (Colored) who had rented a house on East 16th street and who, after it had been discovered that she was Colored was thrust out on the side walk at a late hour in the evening with her personal effects to find a house or remain in the open all night.

Realizing that she was helpless, and alone, Mrs. Johnson appealed to the California Eagle for assistance. A body of twelve Colored women were quickly, but quietly organized, and marched to the scene with the intention of putting Mrs. Johnson's things back in the house, but to the astonishment of the women the house was securely nailed from within, and without. These brave Negro women caucaused for a few minutes unlike the blood thirsty mobs of the South in that they were calm and thoughtful; then decided that they would be taking the law in their own haands if they broke into the home. It was suggested that the University Station be reached and a policeman called to the scene which was quickly accomplished. Said policeman directed that they get in touch with the District Attorney's office, which was done and a watchman was sent out to take charge of the things until the matter could be settled.

The white owners of the house would not make any concession unless Mrs. Johnson could find some remedy to make herself white.

The case was turned over to Atty. H. E. Macbeth, who fought it cleverly and carefully in the interest of Mrs. Johnson and last Tuesday in the Justice Court won the decision in her favor.

WILL BE AN OLD TIME TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION

Arrangements are now being made for an old time Republican torchlight procession on the evening of November 4th, through the down town business districts of the city.

Invitations have been extended to all of the city and county clubs to participate, creating an enthusiasm for Hughes and Fairbanks and the entire Republican ticket. All of the colored clubs have signified their intention of turning out in full force on this occasion.

Our make up of church news in our last issue slipped, as a result the church news of several different churches was badly mixed, for all of which we offer our sincere regrets and hope the same will not happen again.

Mrs. Lillian Fowler of Hollywood has returned home after a three months visit with relatives and friends in the East. Her trip was a continuous round of pleasure—from Pittsburg, Pa., then Linchburg, to Ronoak and Bullaski, Va., on to Columbus, Ohio, Chicago, Ill; Salt Lake City, Utah. And on arriving home, not only did she find a hearty welcome from husband and friends, but a most pleasant surprise in the way of the home having been remodeled while she was away.

LYONS FOR THE ASSEMBLY

The many friends of Harry Lyons, the regular Republican nominee for Assemblyman, 64th district, are rallying to his support in a most encouraging manner. Mr. Lyons is an attorney of high standing and will co-operate energetically with his supporters to insure his election.

ROBERT W. McDONALD FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

Judge Robert W. McDonald of Pasadena has opened headquarters in this city at the California building and from now on will make an aggressive campaign which no doubt will land him a winner at the polls on Nov. 7. Judge McDonald is a man who is well qualified in every way for this exalted position. His rich and varied experience as Justice of Peace and Police Judge and his broad and liberal interpretation of human rights eminently qualify him for this position. These facts apparent with the legions of citizens rallying to his support will place him without doubt as one of the three winners on Nov. 7th, join the mighty army of boosters for the elevation of one of the best and grandest men of California to the Superior bench.

RANDALL FOR CONGRESS

C. H. Randall is the Republican nominee for Congress in the Ninth Congressional district, and from his record in the last Congress we can bespeak for him a hearty support. His record in Congress is strong for protection of American industries, which is the cardinal principle of Republicanism, and in the last session of the lower house when Juvenile Court bill for the District of Columbia was up for consideration and when the Segregation Amendment of the Southern fire-eater Clarke of Florida was offered, Congressman Randall was one of the forces that voted against it and all along the line he has been for the people and we opine that such a man is at all times worthy of the strong support of all the people.

THOUGHTS WISE AND OTHERWISE

By Hilberte L. Rozier

The White Sox—no, they lost. Sunday, 5 to 2. The S. P. Railway was the—well, the winner. While we do not mean to be too optimistic, you'll have to admit that they're some lucky.

George Carr, White Sox first baseman, is what we might call an all-star ball player. Carr hits like Tris Speaker; fields like "Stuffy" McInnis, and despite the fact that he tips the beam around the 200-mark, he runs bases like Ty Cobb. Again we say, he's some ball player.

"Blue" Washington, besides being the Walter Johnson of the Semi-Pros., is the fun-maker for the White Sox team. "Blue," it is said, keeps the team in good spirits while traveling, and thereby enables them to win after a long tiresome trip.

Everybody, that is, almost everybody is calling for a game between Echo playgrounds and the White Sox. While we have no doubts as to what the outcome of a game between these two teams would be, we would like to see them "hook up" for a little nine round battle, just for the novelty, don't you know.

THE GREATEST IN THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Hall and Summers will be at Wesley Chapel Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. These men are the most unique entertainers in their line, it is said, in the country.

All persons interested in clean morals and the biggest campaign for the uplift of mankind are urged to hear this debate picturing both sides by Hall and Summers.

RAILROAD NEWS

How Pullman Cars Get Their Queer Names and Why

Everybody who has ever traveled much in the United States or Canada must have noticed the peculiar names, often poetic and fanciful, which the Pulman chair, sleeping and dining cars bear. Occasionally these names are the same as those of localities through which the cars' routes take them, but in many cases there seems not the lightest connection between the names and anything so prosaic as railroad travel. In fact, the efficient minded person is inclined to think that it would be much more sensible to designate the cars by numbers or letters instead of these high-sounding, romantic names.

Although most of us are not old enough to remember back that far, there was a time when Pullman cars were all designated by numbers. But that was previous to the year 1864, when their number and usefulness were extremely limited. Late in 1864, when the prospect of an early end to the Civil War that was raging made the officials of the sleeping car companies look for a large increase in business, they decided to designate all their cars by names instead of by numbers, and this custom has been followed ever since. The change was made because the officials believed that numbers, while suitable for recording purposes, were without individuality and could not convey the appropriate distinctiveness the company wished to associate with its cars.

Today, when there are over seven thousand of these cars in operation and new ones are constantly being built, the task of finding names for them without duplicating those already in use is no easy one. Most of the names are taken from one of the following sources: history, mythology, foreign countries, states, cities, lakes and rivers. When a railroad company desires, cars are named after towns along their path. The christening of a Pullman car is a serious matter. Before a new car is given the name which it will bear until it is sent to the scrap heap, a great many names are considered.

The company endeavors, so far as possible, to select for its cars names of definite origin, significance and euphony. It tries to avoid manufactured names and those that are difficult to pronounce. A name that is unusual and not widely known is always looked upon with favor.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of yours of the 3rd inst., and assure you it gives us great pleasure to know our patrons appreciate such qualities in our employes when they meet with it. We are just as anxious to learn of the good as we are of the bad. Each has its influence in maintaining proper efficiency of service to the public.

Trusting your future relations with our men will be as satisfactory as the one you mention, I am,

Very truly yours,
E. L. LEWIS,
Superintendent.

The above letter, received from Mr. E. L. Lewis, Superintendent of the Los Angeles Railway Company, is an answer to one I sent him in praise of the honesty of one of his conductors, Mr. J. F. Graham, whose badge number is 1069. Conductor Graham followed me to the farthest end of the car to return a $5 gold piece that I had given him by mistake for a 5-cent piece for car fare. Such incidents may be common, but they deserve special mention, as it is not always publicly acknowledged.

A POWERFUL DEMONSTRATION

By Women From All Parts of the Country. Los Angeles Colored Women Make Good Showing.

Last Wednesday at noon when the Women's Hughes Campaign Train arrived in Los Angeles at the Southern Pacific Station more than a thousand women in gaily decked automobiles with American flags and Hughes pennants greeted the three score women of the Hughes Campaign with cheers and shouts for Hughes.

The long automobile procession paraded through some of the main streets of Los Angeles, and even though they were scoffed by a large delegation of Wilson adherents, most orderly behavior was maintained through the entire affair.

After the parade the honored guests were entertained with a luncheon at the Alexandria Hotel, after which they were hurried to Trinity Auditorium where a full house waited to greet them and a most hearty welcome was extended.

● At least one hundred members of the race were represented in the parade and a goodly number at Trinity Auditorium after the parade. Everywhere, and upon all of these occasions, the colored women were accorded a most hearty welcome.

The women who composed the Hughes Campaign train represented the noblest and best types of American womenhood, conspicuous among whom were Miss Elizabeth Freeman, who perhaps is one of the best friends the race has at present.

Mary Antin, the little Jewess orator and author, said in part at the Wednesday afternoon Trinity meeting, that "We must not be merely class patriots. America is greater than you or me or any group of us. Democracy is on trial. This country must be an example to the world. We must elect a man who will uphold the integrity and majesty of our national principles. Some say they will vote for Wilson because he has been a friend to labor. If this were true, it would still be deplorable that we should vote for him on this single issue. Others say that Wilson has kept us out of war.

Only America thinks of "Safety first." Is it going to be said that your mothers who have the vote have forgotten to be bigger than your own. If you can only approve a man on a single issue you dare not choose that man."

In describing her ascent from the lowly walks of poverty and obscurity into a realization of what this country should stand for, with regards to all of its subjects regardless of racial identity hyphenated Americans or what not, Miss Antin's sincere dramatic appeal touched the hearts of her hearers to the extent that they were thrilled through and through.

Mrs. Raymond Robins was strong in her denunciation of the Wilson policy with regards to the Adamson Law, and the Mexican situation.

The highest praise is due Mrs. Mary S. Gibson, chairman of the committee on arrangements of local national Hughes alliance, for the success of the entire affair, and the colored women's Republican Club for the good representation by our women upon this auspicious occasion.

NEGRO ATTORNEYS COMING INTO THEIR OWN

E. Burton Ceruti Wins Another Victory for the Race in California

"On the evening of February 28, my wife and I went to Clune's Auditorium to see 'Ramona.' After securing our tickets we were ushered in and seated, but shortly afterwards were asked to change our seats which we did; only to be asked again and again until we were finally located in a very undesirable part of the house. We inquired if these were the seats our tickets called for, and was told that they were. We insisted that they were not, and was finally told that whether they were or were not, we would not get others. Whereupon we went to the door and got our return checks, and went to the managers office and made an attempt to explain our situation to him, only to be snubbed and ignored by this gentleman in authority. A few days afterwards we consulted E. Burton Ceruti, who took the case with the provision that he be allowed to use his own judgment as to the amount he should sue for. We gladly consented and Mr. Ceruti started action which resulted in a decision of $100.00 and cost in favor of the plaintiffs, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Conner.

The case was tried in Judge Forbes' court.

It has been our privilege to watch the actions of this splendid man and eminent judge Forbes, for a few years, and to note that his decisions are at all times rendered out of an honest heart, regardless of race, color, cast or class.

Mr. Ceruti has added to his many victories another laudable one.

LET'S GET TOGETHER AND FIGHT EVIL!

The forces that tend to keep us apart as a people is nothing more or less than sin.

The women of Los Angeles have decided to get together on at least one issue and that is the coming presidential election. A number get together meeting will be held at 14th Street school next Thursday evening and women from both Races will discuss issues touching on the coming election.

A captain from every section of the city is at work and the paramount aim is to make this meeting a success in that we, the Colored women known as the "Colored Women's Republican Club," will get together and have an understanding as to where we stand with regards to the presidential election.

HINSHAW FOR SUPERVISOR

With "performances not promises" as its campaign slogan, the Hinshaw Taxpayers' and Citizens' Campaign committee has fired its opening guns in the fight to re-elect W. E. Hinshaw supervisor in the Fourth district. A house-to-house canvass of the district, the largest in the county, has been begun and these volunteer workers are confident of bringing out a record vote for their favorite candidate.

Mr. Hinshaw is basing his campaign for re-election on his enviable record during his eight years as a county officer in this state, and his achievements during this time, as municipal official, member of the state legislature and county supervisor.

Why experiment in selecting the men to spend the tax money and conduct the county's vast business? Elect men who are tried and true for this position of gravest importance to the citizens. These are the arguments being advanced in forwarding the interests of Mr. Hinshaw by his host of admirers and supporters.

Two of the paramount planks in Mr. Hinshaw's platform are these:

Lower the taxes by greater efficiency in all of the county departments and by cutting down the overhead expenses.

Construction and maintenance of highways.

Before coming from Indiana to California to make his home, Mr. Hinshaw had wide experience as a business man and was instrumently fitted for the public work which he began as a member of the Long Beach Board of Public Works in charge of the street department.

In 1910 Mr. Hinshaw was elected to the state assembly by a large majority, from what was then the Sixty-Ninth Assembly district. In 1912 he was elected by a proportionate majority as the county supervisor in the 4th District, and is now serving and giving every satisfaction in this capacity.

CLOSE OF A. M. E. CONFERENCE

Sunday was a great day at the A. M. E. Zion Conference in session in Monrovia. The sun came out bright and early to cheer those who desired to attend the final day's session.

Rev. B. C. Robison, S. T. B., delivered the sermon at eleven o'clock a. m.

At three o'clock p. m., the church which is a credit to the pastor and people of Monrovia, was crowded to the door to hear the sermon by the Rt. Rev. L. W. Kyle, A. M., S. T. D., Bishop of the 7th Episcopal District.

The evening sermon was delivered by Rev. E. M. Clark, D. D. All of these sermons were all that could be expected. Mrs. Maggie Hood Banks, the daughter of Bishop J. W. Hood, read a very interesting paper, subject, "The Women of the Bible." Bishop Kyles entered the church and after some remarks called the ministers before the altar and delivered to them the charges for the coming year, dividing the conference into two districts and appointing two presiding elders, namely Oakland and Los Angeles districts.

Rev. W. J. J. Byers is Presiding Elder of the Oakland District, and pastor of San Jose.

Rev. W. W. Matthews, D. D., is Presiding Elder of the Los Angeles district and pastor of Fresno church.

Los Angeles District

Last Monday afternoon was the most instructive and delightful spent with the Domestic Science Department. Forty-seven women were present and enjoyed Mrs. Caldwell's talk on food value, and demonstration of an original salad.

The women felt fortunate indeed in securing the services of Mrs. Caldwell.

Educational Day, Monday, Oct. 23, under the supervision of Miss M. Cunningham. The Life of Sojourner Truth will be continued.

The contest between the Blue and Gold for membership will close Monday afternoon. All members, especially the new members, are asked to be present. The Blues have got to hurry!

Refreshments served free, Program, 2:30 o'clock.

Friday evening, Oct. 24, 8 o'clock, William Thomas Helms, candidate for district attorney, will speak at Sojourner Truth Home. Let every Race loving man and woman come out and hear him.

Keep your eye on the Matrons' and Bachelor Maids' Hallowe'en party at Blanchards, Oct. 31. All the spooks and witches will be out.

This Hallowe'en party will outrival anything given in this city.

The Fight Is Now On

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Men, Women and Children Are Wanted

To take part in the monster parade Saturday afternoon, Nov. 4th, the Saturday before election. Fifty thousand men, women and children will join in this effort to make California dry. We must have five thousand from our ranks. The better class among us have always stood with that faction or class of people who represent clean morals, law and order, and we will answer the call for five thousand in the Nov. 4th parade as did the boys when Abraham Lincoln made his call for fifty thousand strong.

As Superintendent of Federation among my people I am doing everything within my power to make this part of the work entrusted to my care a success, and I am glad to state that I am being ably assisted by my co-workers, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Strickland and also the better class among my own people.

Yours for the best good of the cause.

REV. R. D. ARLINE.

The Advisory Committee of the Campaign Federation met at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday evening, Oct. 17th, at Tabernacle Baptist church to make preparation for the mammoth parade to be given Nov. 7th at 1:30 p. m. The committee had sent out invitations to all the churches and organizations of the city to send their pastors and presidents with five others to cooperate withe the General committee. A splendid representation was made also for a big mass meeting to be held at Eighth and Towne church, Oct. 29th, at 3 p. m. The following committee on program for this meeting was appointed: Messrs. Hale, Prowd (John), Reese, Reynolds.

Capt. Reynolds of Pasadena was appointed chief marshall for the Race division in the parade. Mr. Rankin was chosen second marshall.

Superintendents of Sunday Schools and Presidents of Young People's Societies were appointed a committee to round up their young people for the parade. Mrs. Minnie Bate, President of the eFderation of Clubs, was named chairman for Clubs, for W. C. T. U. and Loyal Legions, Mrs. McKinney; Forum, Mr. J. H. Stevens; Y. M. C. A., Sec. T. A. Williams, Mrs. Hawkins; Autos and Horses, Messrs. J. H. Shackelford, S. P. Dones, Drs. Garrott, Stoval, Nelson, Gordon, Mr. Bowers, Mr. Robinson, Mesdames Barr, Hulbert, Bass, King, Massey.

Advisory committee of Dry Campaign Federation: Hugh E. Macbeth, Rev. H. D. Prowd, Chas. Alexander, Mrs. J. Logan Craw, T. A. Green, Rev. and Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. H. H. Williams, Harold Prince, Mrs. G. A. Mitchell, Mrs. S. B. Strickland, Mrs. A. E. Webber, Mrs. M. B. Wright, J. Allen Reese.

Rev. R. D. Arline, Chairman.
Mrs. S. M. Cole, Secretary.

At the conclusion of the business before the meeting Mrs. Wheeler was introduced as coming from the Federation headquarters. Mrs. Wheeler made a strong appeal for earnest effort in the fight for California Dry. Following this principal address other speakers, including the ministers present were introduced and spoke commending the campaign and pledging the parade hearty support.

The committee adjourned to meet next Tuesday at Second Baptist church.

Tuesday Night's Meeting

At this meeting partial reports from all committee will be heard in order that the progress of the campaign may be gauged. Rev. Gaskill, Chairman of the Parade Committee from the Dry Federation, "is fine and" in every event A. R. Coleman, Captain of Co. H, White Rose Regiment, you will have a chance to try your hand. There will be four prizes: 25 lb. sack of flour; a pail of lard; can Royal baking powder; foerth, a bottle of milk. Send in your name at once, to Mr. A. E. Osborne, 466 N. Competent judges, famous in culinary art, will award the prizes.

THE BROADY AND WHITE CASE

Evidence for Defense Shatters Case of Complainants. Forces of Law and Order Rally in Their Behalf

Prominent colored and white citizens turn out to the hearing and testify for Officers Broady and White. Convinced of their innocence, our best citizens give their loyal support.

The hearing of the graft charges against Officers Broady and White which had been adjourned from last week was resumed before the commission on Thursday at 9 o'clock a.m. when the defense took its turn at the bat, and all day long the best citizens appeared one after another and gave testimony, forceful and convincing, in their behalf. Their sterling worth and characters both as officers and citizens was testified to by these people.

Then the testimony of Batiste and Geo. Henderson completely shattered the story of the men who brought the charges against the officers.

Prominent among those who testified for the defense was former Chief Snively, Geo. Home, and other of their superior officers: Noah Thompson of the Tribune, Mrs. Katherine Barr, prominent in club work, Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass, managing editor of the California Eagle, Dr. Barton of the moral efficiency committee, Officer Glenn, Father Cleghorn, rector of St. Phillips Episcopal church, Sergeant Hoover of the Metropolitan Squad, Officer L. McDuff and others.

Officers White and Broady then took the stand on their own behalfs. Especial mention might be made of the straightforward manner in which Officer Broady gave his testimony, clean cut and to the point without the slightest hesitation or deviation. It could not help but convince.

Now against this galaxy of people worth while, is arranged the testimony of the two complaining witnesses, who are confessed law breakers, backed up by other law breakers, sure thing men and all of this conglomeration, reinforced by renegade Chinese crooks, lottery sharks and hop venders, who say that these officers took money for protection.

Should Come in With Clean Hands

It seems to us that it is a disgrace that on such a showing as this that proven and tried officers should have to be harassed, there should be some rule that in any such charges as these at least, some of the testimony should come from clean witnesses, let this class of citizenship, whether they be white, black, yellow, green or red, understand once for all, that if they want to take issues with the officers of the law and the law itself that they must qualify by coming into court with at least one clean hand.

Even the boastful politician that claims that his influence is so great could not help but to fall in such a frame-up as the one in the above case.

But after all, this exemplifies the fact that it pays to live upright and honorable lives, as it is on this principle that you exist when the clouds of evil appear.

The case has been put over until next Thursday to allow the complaining witnesses to muster up rebuttal testimony.

The Daily Record Fails to Make Good Its Charge

It is said this case is pushed by the Record. It is indeed a sad commentary that after all the dust this paper has kicked up that the best it could do was to bring to bar: this fiasco. A great daily with millions behind it, 4000 years of civilization, with all its bombast, simmers down with an effort to crush two humble struggling Negro officers who have hardly had a chance in life, crush them with the evidence of a lot of crooks.

But of course the Record is within its realm in heaping abuse on the lowly Negro. A few weeks ago in scare headlines it proclaimed a race riot at Sacramento. All the Negro saloons were destroyed by infuriated whites, etc., when as a matter of fact there was no riot and not a Negro saloon in Sacramento.

Prior to that it came out in a full page editorial proclaiming this a white man's country and telling the black man that he was not at home, and there was absolutely nothing doing for him.

This it is said is the big force behind this prosecution that promised to turn Los Angeles upside down, this great Apostle of Woodrow Wilson who has crushed the fondest hope of the Negro in the nation stoops to crush two of Los Angeles most efficient police officers. What more could be expected of the Record?

of the word, will be the chief speaker Tuesday night.

Final Rally in Mammoth Mass Meeting on Sunday, Oct. 29, Eighth and Towne

The work of arousing interest and stirring up enthusiasm as well as of arranging details for the great parade on Nov. 4th will culminate in a big mass meeting at Eighth and Towne church, Sunday, Oct. 29, the last Sunday in this month, at 3 o'clock. This meeting will bring together representatives of every public spirited organization and society among the Colored people in Southern California. Final reports from all committees for the parade, stirring singing and a few rousing addresses will be the features of this big meeting.

All men and women and children, too, who are not in a church or other organization, but who desire to take part in this great parade, notify the chairman, Rev. R. R. Arline, 633 Ceres, phone Broadway 8073, or the secretary, Mrs. Cole, 459 29th street, phone South 5255.

A BISCUIT CONTEST

Notice to the Young Women of Los Angeles.

A biscuit contest; something new and novel. Can you make biscuits? If so, on Monday evening, Nov. 6, at 8 o'clock in the banquet hall of First A. M. E. church, under the direction of Mr. [illegible]

THERE AIN'T NO BANK BOOK, THERE AIN'T NO MONEY

Anent the recent discovery of the embezzlement of something more than a thousand dollars by the treasurer of the Second Baptist Church of this city, it is said that when he was finally cornered by a member of the committee and pressed for the bank book and the money, he, said: "Gentlemen, there ain't no bank book; there ain't no money."

It is said that a full statement will be made of the affair in the near future for the public. We have been asked to withhold publication until this time.

The County Central Committee of the 70th Assembly District met at the Eagle office last Friday evening and elected the following officers: Mr. Geo. S. Gibbons, chairman; Mr. Colwell, vice-chairman, and Mrs. C. A. [illegible] Secretary-Treasurer.

What the Churches are Doing

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1405 Hooton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The services at this church on last Sabbath were of a high order, and a spiritual feast was enjoyed by two splendid congregations at both the morning and evening services.

The pastor preached a special sermon on temperance in the morning, which was enjoyed by all in attendance.

A large congregation greeted the pastor at the evening service and another splendid meeting was the result. The music was up to the usual high standard maintained by the choir, and was very much enjoyed.

The choir will render a special program on next Sunday night, October 22nd, and as a special number will render Mozart's "Gloria."

The public is invited to worship with us at any time, and will be assured of a hearty welcome and spiritual help.

The congregation and pastor are planning to do some very substantial work this year by putting in pews and an organ. When this work is completed the church will be a thing of beauty and a credit not only to the congregation but to the city as well.

There was one accession to the membership of the church at the morning service.

The auxiliaries of the church are all busy and this bids fair to be the greatest year's work in the history of the same.

MONROVIA, CAL.

The A. M. E. Zion Conference closed Sunday night after a splendid session. The appointments made are as follows:

Los Angeles—Rev. B. C Robeson, S. T. B.

San Francisco—Rev. E. M. Clark D. D.

Oakland—Rev. G. H. Haines, D. D.

Hansford—Rev. J. B. Holmes.

Fresno—Rev. W. W. Matthews, D. D., and Presiding Elder for the southern district including all appointments south of Fresno and the San Francisco charge.

Monrovia—Rev. L. W. D. Henry

Boyle Heights—Rev. J. G. Edmonds.

Prescott, Ariz.—H. Lee. Johnson.

San Jose—Rev. W. J. J. Byers and Presiding Elder of the northern district.

Santa Cruz, Alameda and Vallejo—Rev Wm. Bibkney.

Hollister, Madera—Rev. J. H. Clark.

Paso Robles—Rev. I. R. Hambright.

Visalia—Rev. I. R. Holmes.

Modesto—Rev. A. R. Simpson

Stockton—Rev. T. R. Simpson.

All seemed well pleased with the assignments.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Old Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

The presence of the Holy Spirit was greatly manifested at the soul stirring services held at this church on last Sunday. The pastor again delivered two great, edifying messages which were well received by the usual large appreciative audience. Another convert was added to the list.

The Sunday School continues to grow in both interest and attendance. The session last Sunday morning was intensely interesting.

All of the various departments of the Church and the officers are making ready their reports for the First Annual Conference, which will be held Nov. 7, 8 and 9, 1905. A great time is anticipated.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bro. Latouche preached last Sunday morning from Romans 1.1 and in his discourse earnestly told how David was anointed King, and in the evening preached on the "Power of the grace of God." Bro. Latouche preached unusually well in the evening and brought us a wonderful message.

For Halloween evening we are preparing a great entertainment at the Church, under the auspices of the Silver Star Bible Class. There will be different forms of amusement, such as a fishing pond, fortune-telling booth, masking, and many others. Prizes will be awarded to the most comical and best dressed parties there. We expecting much fun and invite the public.

Next Sunday morning Bro. Latouche will preach on "Criticism" and at 8 p. m. on "Unity."

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

Rev. E. P. Ryland, the new district superintendent of the Los Angeles district, will preach at the morning services next Sunday. The membership and friends should crowd the auditorium to hear this gifted divine.

The Rev. Dr. E. E. Lightner, of the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Church will be the speaker at the evening services. The young people are especially invited to remain for the evening.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Dr. Lewis C. Sheaf, who recently returned from the east, will address the meeting Sunday afternoon. All are invited.

The Spanish class grows in interest and numbers.

The fall Bible Class opened on Wednesday evening.

I. L. Means writes that he is doing fairly well.

SAINTS HOME CHURCH

Pastor E. R. Driver filled his pulpit Sunday morning and afternoon. He preached a soul-stirring sermon in the morning from the subject "The Yielded Life," and the entire congregation was taken to deepen ideas of the consecrated life. In the afternoon the pastor took for his subject the "Abundant Life," and after showing the need as a "yielded life" he brought us to our fullness in God. This was the most convincing sermon that the Pastor has delivered for some time. At the conclusion of this wonderful sermon the altar was filled and many were blessed.

Pastor Driver announced that he would preach next Sunday a. m. from the trial of St. Paul, beginning with the failing plot and through his defense before Agrippa. It will be well for all to hear him.

RIVERSIDE

The Second Baptist Church was again favored with a great service last Sunday, the past or appearing at his best, preaching the third of a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer. Addressing himself to that part of the prayer which reads "Give us this day our daily bread" his outlines were the acknowledgment of the source from which cometh our support. Our Heavenly Father only supplies our needs when asked—the supply is a daily supply. It goes without saying that the sermon was edifying, to say the least. Next Sunday will be the fourth of the series.

Mme. Lillian Jeter Davis, impersonator, elocutionist and pianiste will appear at Mercantile Hall, Oct. 20th, for the benefit of Second Baptist Church.

Memorial services in honor of the late Booker T. Washington will be held at Mercantile Hall under the auspices of the Second Baptist Church. Miss Alice Streeter and H. B. Gaskin have appointed on the committees arrangements.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

1354 Channing Street

Rev. J. W. Peay, Pastor

Sunday was a high day for Ward and we had three highly spiritual services well attended.

At 3 o'clock the Presiding Elder preached a most interesting sermon to the spiritual delight of the splendid audience.

The Stewardesses, together with the good members and friends of the church, are arranging for their annual fair, which will be Nov. 8-10. The good women are working hard to make this affair one of the best ever held in the church.

A rare treat remains in store for all pleasure lovers in the coming of Mme. Lillian Jeter Davis to Ward Chapel on the eve of Oct. 27th. Mme. Davis is an elocutionist of wonderful ability and magnetic power, and those who avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing and hearing her will be more than paid for their trouble, and at the same time help a worthy cause. We invite the public to be with us on the above date and help these deserving people in their great struggle to pay off the indebtedness of this little mission and do work for God.

Services Sunday, Oct. 22nd, as follows: Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Regular evening services at 8 p. m. All are welcome.

Follow the crowd to Masonic Hall Halloween night.

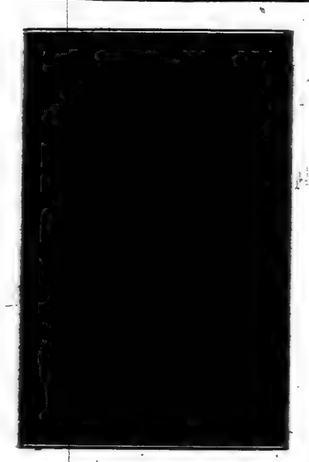
"A Delusion and a Snare"



The Anti-Saloon League is making a deliberate attempt to deceive the people of the State by offering the second amendment as an "Anti-Saloon Measure." The Sacramento "Bee" on February 15, last, said of this:

> This second proposal is not an anti-saloon measure.
> It is much more than an effort to regulate the liquor traffic.
> It is a scheme to throttle the wine industry of California.
> It is a measure as obnoxious as prohibition itself.
> Under an alias and behind a mask it presents prohibition in the garb of an anti-saloon measure.
> Under it no hotel, restaurant or cafe could serve California wine with meals.
> No commercial body, fraternal organization, or individual giving a public banquet at a place of public resort could offer wine to guests.
> No club could serve wine to its members.
> No Summer resort could offer or give away wine to its patrons.
> No grocery store or family liquor store could sell wine in sealed packages not to be consumed on the premises.
> * * * * * * *
> The thing is one of the most iniquitous offenses against personal liberty and the sacredness of individual rights ever thought of anywhere.
> It is a fraud when it masquerades under the alias of "an anti-saloon proposition."
> It is a farce when it claims to be merely a measure to "regulate the liquor traffic."
> And it is an imposition throughout upon the voter, because it does not stand out in the sunlight under its true colors.

The voters of California are asked to vote on two prohibition measures. The first amendment on the ballot is absolute prohibition and says so. The second amendment on the ballot is also a prohibition amendment but masquerades as an anti-saloon measure. The principal difference between the two measures is that one goes into effect at the end of 1917, and the other goes into effect two years later.

REGISTER NOW AND WORK AND VOTE AGAINST BOTH AMENDMENTS.

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

The enthusiastic business meeting of the church last Wednesday night of last week, gave evidence of the new life being taken out in all its departments.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Los Angeles Association of the Congregational Churches and Ministers, convened in Santa Ana, on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Our church was represented at this meeting by the Pastor, Prof. Chas. Alexander, and Mrs J. D. Pettigrew Services for Sunday, Oct. 22, as follows: Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching 11:15 a. m., by Pastor. Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Topic: Muslems and Womanliness. Neh. 6:1-15; Esther 4:6-16.

A cordial welcome to all services

Notice Methodist Ministers

Believing that there should be a better understanding and a closer fellowship among the Methodist ministers of Los Angeles, Pasadena and inter-urban cities,

Believing that the interests of the community and of our common Methodism makes such understanding and co-operation imperative, Therefore, all Methodist preachers of Los Angeles, Pasadena and inter-urban cities are requested to meet Monday morning, Oct. 23, at 10:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the First A. M. E. Church, 8th and Towne Ave., for the purpose of organizing a Methodist Ministers Alliance. J. H. Wilson.

NOTICE
Los Angeles, Oct. 19-16

Dear Pastor.

You and your congregation are earnestly requested to be present at a Farewell reception to be given Dr. W. J. J. Byers, late pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Wednesday, Oct. 25, at 8:30 p. m. His going marks the closing of a 5 years successful administration with the church. We would be glad to have the public come out and join us in giving to Rev. Byers a fit testimonial for his great service to all the people of this community.

Committee: Mrs. L. D. Byrnes, Mrs. Chaney Jones, Mrs. H. Sykes

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The first quarterly meeting occasion of this new Conference year was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by a host of loyal members and friends Sunday past. Presiding Elder Wilson delivered two grand sermons and administered the Lord's Supper. The Quarterly Conference was held Tuesday night to the delight of every department of the church. Each report was fine and the healthful condition of the church so early in the Conference year presages the most prolific accomplishments ever experienced. The Stewards nominated and elected in this meeting for the ensuing year are: Messrs. Chas. Martinez, Geo. M. Warner, J. C. Slaughter, H. F. Posey, M. H. Heard, S. C. Johnson, J. T. Burgess, Wm. Comma and A. W. Wilson. Brother Geo. M. Warner was re-elected to the office of District Steward. The Stewardesses nominated for election in the Official Board, Monday night, Oct. 23, are the following ladies: Mesdames Anna Warner, Cora Fanner, Minnie Tucker, Anna Williams, Ella Morton, Emily Clarkson, Willie Williams, Alice Lucky and Sarah Middleton. Every member of the board is urged to be present by 8 o'clock sharp in the official meeting of Monday night.

Sunday, Oct. 22nd, will be your last opportunity to help the trustees in the little $2.00 effort on incidental expenses. They will not have another opportunity to collect funds before the second Sunday in November. Will you come out to do all you can in this noble call.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit and deliver the sermon at the 11 o'clock service Sunday. At 7:30 o'clock Miss Darling Beaty will address the west congregation on Temperance or "California Day." Annual look of these services. Everybody welcome.

"The War of the Roses" is increasing mighty proportions. "The White Rose Regiment" subscription schemers are stumping the "Red Rose Regiment" stalwart soldiers. While the Zeppelin generals of this "Red Rose Regiment" are leading the strategic movements two Battalions on both sides are of "The White Rose" Gibbons-getting closer and closer together. The first skirmish will take place on the second Sunday in December, which is December 10th. The commander-in-chief is gathering an army of volunteers that will share in the first clash and in the decisive battle on Easter Sunday declare which is the conquering general. Rally to your standard. It remains yet to be seen which regiment will triumph. Which army will be vanquished. General Lucky is at the head of regiments Two, Four, Six, and all even numbered classes up to Twenty. General Lillian J. Craw is at the head of the odd numbered classes. One, Three, Five, etc., up to Nineteen. The "even numbers" are all in "The Red Rose Regiment," while the "odd numbers" are all in "The White Rose Regiment." Give your support to your own general.

SAN BERNARDINO

Rev. A. R. Killier of St. Augustine, Florida, a noted evangelist is conducting a ten days revival at New Hope Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtis have returned from a visit to Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

Monday afternoon Miss Helen Tullis became the bride of Mr. James Robinson. Rev. C. J. Lockard performed the ceremony.

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., Miss Oranowlia Stown became the bride of Mr. Edward Jacob.

Mr. Venerable who has been at Elsinore Hot Springs has returned home greatly improved.

CHURCH AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN CROWN CITY
Scott's Chapel

Much interest is being manifested around this little chapel. Pastor Kinchen is already making himself felt on all sides. The services of Sunday began with an old time sunrise prayer meeting. The Sabbath school at 9:30, led by Superintendent D. J. Lee, is doing nicely. Dr. Kinchen preached soul inspiring sermons at both services. On Monday evening the members of the church headed by Mr. Lee and Mr. Perry met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee on South Raymond and wended their way to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kinchen at No. 8 Ritzman street and left them loaded with groceries of every description. Tuesday evening the officers met in joint meeting to prepare for a house to house canvass to be made Sunday, October 22. This is to be known as an at home afternoon and all members are requested to remain at home and receive the officers that shall be divided into squads to visit in their respective districts. In this way the pastor has hoped to canvass the membership.

Wednesday evening prayer and class services were well attended. Full account of the pastor and family's reception tendered them by the church Thursday evening will be given in next week's issue. It was a splendid affair.

The pastor will occupy his pulpit at both services Sabbath day. Madam Reavers with her splendid choir is rendering much assistance to the pastor. At 6:30 each Sabbath Bible readings led by Sister Wilson are in session. At 7:45 Epworth League. All are invited.

Metropolitan Church

Miss Lillian Jeters Davis, a graduate of the Neff College in Philadelphia, will appear in recital at Metropolitan Baptist church on Waverly Drive, Oct. 26. Miss Davis will be assisted by some of Pasadena's best talent. Admission, 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morton of Chester Avenue entertained in their beautiful home Thursday evening in honor of the ladies recently returned from Eastern visits. The home was beautifully decorated and those fortunate enough to be invited spent a most delightful time.

Dr. and Mrs. Kinchen were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Markham of Los Angeles Monday.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS ELIZABETH FREEMAN

A crowded house was present at the Guild Hall of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Thursday evening, to hear the far-famed Miss Elizabeth Freeman, who was one of the members of the "Women's Hughes Special," and who had arranged to speak to the colored people on this occasion. Miss Freeman is one of the noted women of the land, not unlike the illustrious Harriet Beecher Stowe of Uncle Tom's Cabin fame, Mrs. Freeman went down to Waco, Tex., and wrote up the recent horror at that place. She is prominent in the Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a staunch friend to the race. The meeting was called under the auspices of the local branch of the association, but at the last minute, after the crowd had gathered, a telegram was received announcing her inability to fill the engagement.

Only seventeen more days until the people will get a chance to register their verdict on Wilson and democracy.

The Wilsonites in desperation are making the noise, but the people are going to do the voting and their verdict will be: "Wilson and hard times must go."

The California Eagle stands fair and square for law and order and the highest citizenship. We have no apology for our stand in the Broady and White case, and ask no quarter from crooks and confessed law breakers, or their sympathizers.

COLORED WOMEN MAKE GRAND SHOWING

If you want a thing done right, leave it to our women and nine times out of ten they will make good. In the parade in honor of the Hughes special on last Wednesday, the Colored women, one hundred strong, occupied a prominent place in the line of march, thereby demonstrating the lively interest which they are taking in the redemption of this country from the slough of despondency. Their effort was a highly commendable one and reflects signal credit upon both the race and the hosts that are battling for the emancipation of the people from conditions as they now exist.

THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH NOW INFORMED

John Francis Neylan on October 3rd began his intinerary in Southern California, at Whittier in Los Angeles County. and he has since that date visited all of the cities of Southern California delivering masterly addresses on the business qualities of Governer Johnson's administration of the affairs of this State for the last six years. And, no man more than this eloquent speaker could possibly handle this subject more effectively than he, because it is entirely due to the rare executive ability of Mr. Neylan, and his veritable genuis for finance, that have made California the foremost State in the United States, for the management of its business department.

With facts and figures, with tangible evidence to bear him out, Mr. Neylan has proven to every audience he has addressed while on his itinerary South, that the successful inauguration of what is known as a "budget system" in the business of the State of California, has saved millions of dollars to the taxpayers, and raised a standard of efficiency for this State found in no other State in the Union.

This budget system found a deficit in the State Treasury of over $300,000, six years ago, and at the end of that time placed $4,500,00 to the credit of the State. This system if inaugurated in the business affairs of the Nation would net $300,000,000 per annum to its credit. It would do away practically with all costly Deficiency bills, provide definitely for what are commonly called "emergencies," and soon wipe out the National Debt. John Francis Neylan is the father of this system, and in his instructive addresses for all time has answered the charge of extravagance on the part of the present State administration.

RANDALL FOR CONGRESS FROM THE NINTH DISTRICT

The people of the Ninth district are all rallying to the surport of C. H. Randall for re-election. His record in Congress will stand the acid test. He has been the staunch friend of the people and the Colored voters will give to him a united support as he has proved himself their champion. He has always voted against every measure which was an infringement of their rights, and we will all go to the front and give Congressman Randall our heartiest support.

JUDGE MAC DONALD FOR THE SUPERIOR COURT

The candidacy of Judge Mac Donald, of Pasadena, for the Superior bench is receiving a strong support from all sources, and it is now practically conceded that he will be one of the three winners at the election in November.

HUGHES AND REPUBLICANISM WILL TRIUMPH

As the isles of November draw nigh, it is with a rare expectancy that the people await the outcome at the polls, but The Eagle will say: BE THOU NOT AFRAID; LET NOT YOUR HEART BE TROUBLED, because you can trust this verdict from the people. They will not soon forget the last four years of hard times. They will not be fooled by ths apparent veneer of prosperity that obtains in the East, made so by the call on America for munitions and machinery of war, that will cease when peace comes to the European nations; they want a man as President and a party in control of Congress that will inspire a lasting confidence, that is equal to the emergency at all times; that will give to us a prosperity at all times, forever and forever.

For this, as well as many other reasons, Hughes and Fairbanks and a Republican Congress will triumph on November the seventh. The people will not soon forget the narrowness of the present Democratic administration, which has practically turned over the affairs of this nation to the Solid South. They will not soon forget the vacillating policy of this government in foreign affairs, and more especially its lamentable failure in meddling into the affairs of Mexico. So, with this record of incompetency and downright stupidity is it any wonder that Hughes and Republicanism will triumph in November?

* * * * * *

Governor Hiram Johnson will roll up a magnificent majority for United States Senator at the polls in November, and California will have the ears of the nation at all times, as the Governor stands second to no other as a statesman orator, and will help do for the nation what he has done for California.

RICHARD H. NORTON

The Square Deal Supervisor, Candidate for Re-election 2nd Supervisorial District

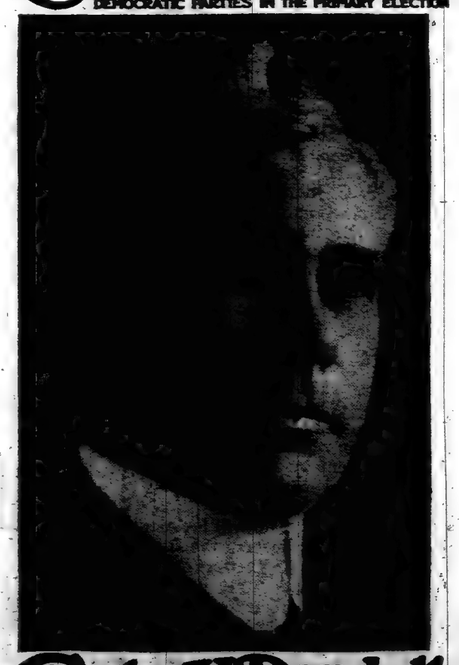
There is no officer in Los Angeles who has done more to help men and women of our race to maintain their standing and self-respect in this community than has Supervisor Norton. Our own people who vote for him are certainly voting for a friend and not for a man who will not recognize them after election.

1 During the past 4 years he has actually saved to the taxpayers of Los Angeles more than $500,000 notably in the 1015 Committee, the County Farm, the Unemployed Camp and other enterprises.

2 Suggested and supervised the establishment of the Unemployed Camp and hopes to make it permanent, thus largely solving the unemployed problem.

3 Is opposed to the employment of aliens on public work when American citizens are vainly seeking employment.

4 Suggested and secured sick pay for mechanics, laborers and others paid by the day, giving them the same advantage as clerks, deputies and similar employes.



5 Introduced a resolution providing for prompt payment of mechanics and laborers when leaving County service.

6 Blocked the proposition to establish an age limit of fifty years for County employes.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager Office 742 3rd St. Phones: Main 3353, Main 4338

San Diego is coming into its own in the blue-blood style. It was demonstrated a few days ago when Mrs. Simpson was seen on a busy street with the latest model and style. Hats were lifted by the score by everyone that knew her.

Many true words are said in a joke. As the Eagle reporter was equi-distant at a swell function a few nights ago one of the pethe g guests of the elite, as she grasped his hand and looked into his eye with a smile and said: "Oh, how you flattered me in your issue!" Then she said: "You will have all the ladies jealous of me." Just then the reporter refreshed his memory and said: "With your talent and beauty, there has been jealousy since the days of the Philistines. Samson, with his many wives, was jealous of such beauty. So, you see I am not the cause of any one to be merged."

Miss Theo Lloyd is a very graceful dancer since she returned from Los Angeles. She had the pleasure of introducing a new dance with her namesake, Mr. Ersel Lloyd.

Brothers jealous in the Plaza, but thought wise and otherwise. Mr. Shirley Brock, at the fountain, was enjoying a St. Francis chocolate from the hands of two of San Diego's maids, and his brother, Sam Brock, spearedp on the scene and began to take part of the sweets and Shirley attempted to give him a ducking in the fountain. Only for the interference of the two maids it would have been serious.

Mrs. G. Hodge was entertained at a beautiful luncheon by Mrs. James Owens in Vallejo. Mrs. G. Hodge was also entertained by Mrs. Morrow. Covers were laid for five.

Mrs. Eva Smith called at the Eagle office a few days ago, looking like a fashion plate, with furs and diamonds glittering. She said she had a birthday recently and her husband had presented her with many presents. She was told that she must have been sixteen on Lincoln's birthday and seventeen on Washington's birthday to have so many beautiful presents.

Mrs. Stevens was a guest of Mrs. G. W. Thompson on Third street last Friday evening, after which she attended the Gala Social Club.

Mrs. M. T. Laws and baby, who have been spending several weeks in Los Angeles, with their mother, are expecting to return home in a few days.

Mr. W. E. Cleveland, who smokes Santa Fe cigars, and always mooches his matches, was told where to get a light when he asked Mr. E. W. Anderson for a match. He was told to carry a lantern.

Contrast party in San Diego. Royaly entertained: Mr. A. J. Jones and Mr. Ersel Lloyd, who have been taking in the sights: the Exposition, Tia Juana, Mexico, where Mr. Biscuit Jones says he received the best meal since his days of entering in Los Angeles. Mr. Ersel Lloyd was much entertained by the smart set of the elite. He introduced many of the late dances at the social functions. They left Saturday for their homes.

Mr. Al. Ramsey, who is very much improved, was seen at his home a few days ago, rocking his little baby girl to sleep, while Mrs. Ramsey was very busy preparing the hot biscuits to entertain her friends.

Mrs. Henderson, of Los Angeles, formerly of San Diego, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Melvin White.

Miss Del Kemps, of Los Angeles, Miss Albot Smith, of Kansas City, Mo., have been enjoying a week at Coronado, guests of Miss Edith Thompson. They have been royally entertained by the young people of the smart set. Miss Del Kemps was also at the Gala Social last Friday night.

Mrs. E. W. Anderson, of San Diego, leader of society and one of our leading business women, praises The Eagle, and says that it is the best race paper on the Coast. Many think as she does, but they do not become subscribers; nor pay their delinquency. We have been as lenient as possible; sooner or later the ax will fall.

Mr. Bauman, who called at Mr. Nash's studio, is making selections of music for his family orchestra. Mr. Nash is busy preparing a new rag for publication called "Pep." Mr. Tom Harris says he will introduce it Wednesday night at his Social Spot.

Miss Louise Austin, sister of Mrs. M. T. Laws, who has been domiciled at her residence, 2915 Pennsylvani Avenue, Los Angeles, was a party to a tiamo ball last week, accompanied by Mr. W. M. Ragsdale a nd others, and says that she is making preparations for the Hallowe'en ball to be given at Masonic hall.

Mr. P. L. Johnson, trustee of the A. M. E. church, seems to be a Christian man who has no choice in selections. He believes in following the laws, r gardless as to who administers them. With such men as Mr. Johnson, our city subscribing Mr. Johnson, our circles and organizations would all profit thereby.

The B. Y. P. U. Society gave an old-time party at the residence of Mrs. Mulholland, and it was indeed given in on the grandest affairs one of the grandest affairs that was ever given in the city. It was more like the returning of the Prodigal Son. There was no leading lady, asthey all had a good time. Miss Brown was fortunate enough to have a large box of candy sent her. The stray one, as they called him, proved to be a gentleman at teh social, Rev. Williams, assisted by a few of the elderly ladies, acted as chaperone to the young folks. After a few of the old-time plays were carried out, the young men began to treat the girl hostess, as a whole, once seated aroundl the large table, and they never left until the ice cream and pink beans had been consumed. Receipts for the evening, $7.50.

The Forum meeting was held at Masonic Hall, 636 Market Street, Sunday, October 15th. There were fifty persons present. The by-laws and constitution were read and accepted, after which the program for the day was rendered by San Diego home talent. Adjourned to meet October 22. And it is to be hoped that the members and their friends will not congregate on the sidewalk and discuss what they have been discussing in the hall. If you desire to say anything, say it at the selected place. Otherwise, you don't need a hall.

Mr. L. L. Gray, who has been on the sick list for some time, was out visiting friends last week. He also attended the funeral of Mr. Al. Henderson. He says that the things that keeps San Diego back from promoting enterprises is that there are certain people and factors, who, if they cannot be at the head, they will not follow others.

Mr. T. B. Noarman, who was recently injured, is able to be out again.

Mr. Brown, who has been rusticating for several months, is back again, looking for a good location to open another lunh room.

Something strange to see, an extra California Eagle. Something often seen: A man who wants to borrow 10 cents to get a cup of coffee with.

A certain editor said that cracks had been discovered in the moon. And there was a certain man who heard about it, and said: "Oh, yes; on the other side there are, but all is lacking is the proof."

The Forum was started as a Forum and has members duly enrolled. Now they say it is an open forum, but before they get much farther it will be a closed Forum. That is, if Mr. ——has much to say about his name.

Be good, brother, and follow the crowd. And do not throw stones. Take an apology in good grace and be somebody, as you are of the committee with the reins in your own hands. Show San Diego people that you are not hurt by an omission or error.

[illegible] Eagle, you do not get the news. Do you know the latest. Then read on page 6.

A little girl sells flowers on Sunday for pocket change; that is, car fare, candy and other necessities, but a gent wanted to purchase a few of her bouquets last Saday and she was too impolite; you know the rest; he did not buy any from her. Now, next time, little girl, you may have 25 cents, if you are polite and can have the flowers also. He was so

THE NEGRO MOVING NORTH

The war, by cutting off immigration from Europe, has started a northward movement of Negro laborers, which journalistic observers find most significant. For the Negro, it is said to be the entrance upon "a new stage in his progress 'up from slavery.'" For the North, it is the intensification of its Negro problem. The South may gain by the partial transfer of its race problem, and its added attractiveness to white immigrants. But the prevailing Southern comment is represented by the Montgomery Advertiser's question, "if the Negroes go, where shall we get labor to take their places?"

This movement of Negroes is assuming large dimensions, the Springfield Republican notes, and "it is being systematically stimulated by Northern employers of labor. The Pennsylvania Railroad has taken 4,000 blacks from the South, 3,000 being brought North in one train of six sections. Persons familiar with our New England tobacco farms have observed this season the appearance of Negro laborers in much increased numbers. Exaggerated estimates of the movement are in circulation. At the Negro conference in Washington last week, representing the New England and Middle Atlantic States, it was asserted that more than 500,000 blacks from the South had come North in the past six months. But, whatever the figures may be, letters and telegrams were read at the conference from many manufacturers, mine owners, and others, giving assurances that Negroes would be encouraged to make their homes in the North and would receive a "square deal." It was represented that the industrial situation in Pennsylvania and New York was such laborers could be employed in the next year."

At least one important Southern daily, the Columbia State, might be just as well off if a number of its 900,000 Negroes should go North. This would increase the white majority and might help attract more white immigrants. It might improve economic conditions, for the "cheap Negro laborer of the South presses down the white laborer." But here the New York Evening Post remarks, "the State will not find many in the South to agree with it, for most Southerners revel in their cheap Negro labor as the basis of their prosperity; dwell upon the absence of Negro labor unions, and exult that the Negro protects the South from the hordes of foreigners." "The South," says the Washington Times, "is suffering because of its losses. It is a bad situation." As the Times sees it:

"The Negro is better off in the South in the long run than anywhere else. He will be apt to be the first person out of work in the North, when slack times come again; In the South he is, in certain realms, the possessor of a near-monopoly of the labor franchise. It is bad for the South and will not ultimately be good for the North, which doesn't understand managing the colored brother so well as the South does."

"Within the last quarter-century," says the Montgomery Journal, "it has been satisfactorily demonstrated that no other section of the country is quite so well fitted for the existence of the colored citizen as this part of the South, and any attempt to inveigle workmen from this section will result disastrously." The New Orleans Times-Picayune, in a section less troubled by the loss of Negro labor, warns the people of Louisiana to "throw such safeguards and protection around both employer and laborer as are necessary to make sure that no harm or demoralization result from the excessive and unusually unscrupulous activity of labor agents from the North." The situation is so grave, in the opinion of the Nashville Southern Lumberman, as to afford "ample warrant for the legislative steps being taken against the movement in some sections."

"Now," remarks the Southwestern Christian Advocate, (New Orleans—a representative of Negro Methodism in the South) "if Negro labor is as objectionable and worthless and as non-dependable as our Southern friends would often assert, why all these drastic measures to prefrom going elsewhere?" "Let us for a moment be frank with each other," it continues. "The Negro at least loves the South; its activities, its sunshine, its climate, but he is very much dissatisfied with the treatment that he otherwise receives His families do not receive proper protection at the hands of constitutional authorities, as well as at the bar of public opinion. There are not proper facilities for the education of his children. There is not a congenial atmosphere for the development of self-respect and of racial contentment. We are disfranchised, we are hedged about, and we are lynched without redress. Even a worm will sometimes recoil and a half-dead hound will resent constant mistreatment. Is it any surprise, therefore, that in spite of all the Negro's natural inclination to Southern climate that he so eagerly seizes an opportunity to go elsewhere?"

"If our Southern friends are anxious to prevent this immigration to the North, they have hte remedy in their own hands. It will not be by coercion, or by threats, or arrests; it will be because the South recognizes the Negro as a human being with all the rights and privilieges of a human being. * * If Georgia, Florida, and other States of the South want to retain the Negro in their borders and have him pile up their wealth and hapiness, there are some things that must be guaranteed—protect our families. improve educational facilities, regard the human rights of the negro, give him the franchise by whatever standards we may, but let that standard be honestly and squarely administered; make it possible for the negro to have recreation under healthful conditions and remove the constant dread and suspicion that constantly surround him. If this is done the South will have all the labor that it wants, a labor which it has known for at least three hundred years, and tried under all conditions and proved to be the best labor of the world. Shall the negro continue to move north or is he to remain at home? We wait for the answer."

Success for the negroes of the North would mean better conditions for Southern negroes, or if the SoutheFrn negro, finding political and social conditions intolerable, were able to migrate to the North, he would have in his hand a weapon as effective as any he could find in the ballot-box.

"Thus the negro, a half-century after emancipation, is today entering upon a new stage in his progress 'up from slavery.'" —Literary Digest, Oct. 7th, from "The Scrap Book."

October 20, 1916.

California Eagle,

Dear Editor: Not crisis but CRIES, the cries are at hand both north and south. A short term in Congress will end March 4, 1917. I am a candidate for that term. There are four men in the race besides myself. The majority of voters think that the Negro has a chance. Now, I beg of you, all my Race, to stand by one of your Race for that position. With about 2,200 votes I will qualify. My name is not on the ballot, but will have to be written in. I want each of you to make a committee of one and see that every vote be gotten out. Write in the ballot, L. C. Luke. Somebody must pave the way for our children and I suppose it is my lot to start it. This calls for the 10th Congressional District. We must lay aside personal feelings and all put a shoulder to the wheel regardless of religion or social affiliation. I am one of the Race. Hoping you will consider this.

Your brother and Race,
L. C. LUKE,
525½ Central Avenue.

The family of the late Mr. Isaac B. Warren wish to thank those friends who were so kind to them during the recent illness of husband and father. Many thanks for the beautiful floral offerings, resolutions, letters of sympathy, and sweet music at the funeral services.

UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP AND NEW MANAGEMENT, LEADING CENTRAL AVENUE CAFE THRIVES AND GROWS.

Sam's Dairy Lunch is now owned and conducted by three wideawake and up-to-date business men who are sparing no pains or expense to make this popular and well-known cafe second to none in the entire city.

Sam's Dairy Lunch Cafe, located at 905 Central Ave., is now owned by Messrs. J. H. Sykes, Lee Allen and Joseph Lane, all of whom are past masters in the epicurean art. Mr. Sykes is the well-known railroad chef, formerly with the Waldorf, the Jewell Fifth Street Cafe and other successful adventures. Mr. Lee Anderson is a successful business man of Omaha, Nebr., and brings to it his prestige as such. Joseph Lane, the Eagle man has known for many years, and can vouch for his business and other qualifications.

They give it out that their highest ambition will be to conduct a highly creditable place, treat everybody right. Any incivility reported to them will be speedily adjusted.

They purpose within the next ten or fifteen days to make radical changes in the way of additions, new equipment, etc., and in fact make it a new cafe.

They solicit the patronage of the people and promise their very best efforts to please.

SAN DIEGO

cheap guy. Remember, everyone is not deaf.

Mrs. S. Cleveland, chief priestess of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor, is making arrangements for the coming of Lillian Jeter Davis, who will appear at the Masonic Hall, 636 Market street, October 22.

Remember, now, young man, you are married. Why not get a job and try to keep it; you cannot fathom on love always. Remember, the doctor may be around some day.

Mr. Kennedy is some toastmaster. When he had the floor a few nights ago at a reception given in honor of the many native young gents of the Lone Star State, he spoke of the many men that he knew who came from that State that had made good. But there was one mistake he made: he said that the men from Texas always wore a clean collar. One of the guests who wore a soiled collar covered it up with a silk handkerchief.

Mr. Hornsby can eat spring chickens fried since Boston won the pennant.

The Mt. Zion Baptist church is still preparing for the grand rally on the 4th Sunday in this month. A reception to the new pastor will be given at the parsonage during the afternoon, which will be served by the presidents of the four auxiliaries of the church, namely: Missionary Society, Carnation Clb, B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school.

Mr. C. E. Norwood, has been appointed supervisor of the San Diego District, by the California State Baptist Convention. She is to call together, and organize, and conduct union missionary mass meetings each Fifth Sunday of the month at 2:30 o'clock, with program. The object of these meetings is to broaden the missionary work of our denomination, spiritually, numerically and financially.

The Colored people of San Diego are doing well toward helping the Mercy Hospital funds, and the Federated Clubs are also taking hold.

Mrs. C. Williams, who has been ill, is much improved.

Newlyweds are still receiving presents from friends. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cole will give a grand reception to all of their many friends the latter part of the month, when they take up their residence on 16th St., between M and N.

Mr. Albert Henderson, court house employee, died last week at his home at 1342 State street; funeral services were held at Johnson-Saum Chapel, conducted by the Masonic Order. It was one of the largest funerals conducted by the order that was ever held in San Diego. The lodge turned out in a body, which does credit to Fidelity lodge. Many people of the opposite race came to pay their respects.

Mrs. Ida Kestner, wife of Max Kastner, of San Diego, a native of Georgia, aged 37 years, who was lost in the flood last winter, and whose body was found in the river bed a few days ago, was buried on Tuesday last.

Mr. Paul Hornsby, who has been on the sick list, is much improved.

Mr. Mose Parker was shot on the ranch of Mr. E. J. Freeman, about 12 miles from San Diego. A dispute arose over a load of hay that was in litigation. William Mitchell, who did the shooting, claimed an interest in the hay crop. Mitchell went to the ranch Saturday with an auto truck to haul a portion of the hay away. After the shooting, he escaped on a horse which he took out of a plow team on the ranch, and has not been captured, yet.

Mr. J. C. Kinzy, porter on the Santa Fe, returned from an extended trip East, accompanied by his mother, ad reports as having had a very delightful time whilst in Chicago. The object most missed was the California Eagle.

Mr. O. G. Palmer, Santa Fe trainman of Las Vegas, Mexico, accompanied by his wife were in the city for a few days, after visiting Los Angeles, San Francisco, returning to their home.

A subscriber 2,707 miles away sends his subscription to the Eagle. Mr. L. M. Reed, of Chicago, sends check for his subscription sends check for his subscription. Mr. Reed has been in the employ of the Pullman company for many years, and says that he would not be without the Eagle. We more than thank Mr. Reed for his supports, and will be glad to see the day when other people will see as he does. A lady who has been receiving the paper for more than a year, and has not paid her subscription, with all of our pleading, said she thought she was receiving it free. If the Colored papers in the country were stopped, who would fight your causes? We are your Lincolns.

The People's CONGRESSMAN

OVERWHELMINGLY ENDORSED BY VOTERS OF PROHIBITION, REPUBLICAN, PROGRESSIVE AND DEMOCRATIC PARTIES IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Charles H. Randall

Primary Vote { RANDALL 19,488 | ALL OTHER CANDIDATES 16,989 | RANDALL'S VOTE OVER ALL 2,499

CONGRESSMAN CHAS. H. RANDALL PUTS THE OPPOSITION TO FLIGHT; MAKES WINNING FIGHT FOR RE-ELECTION

The voters of the Ninth Congressional district are lining up in a solid formation for the re-election of the Hon. Charles H. Randall in this district, and he will receive at the hands of the voters of this district a strong endorsement all along the line.

They are supporting him because he has made good, in other words, at all times he has stood for the people, he has stood uniformly for the protection of the industries of California and all of the other measures which have meant so much to the people. The following are some of the measures that claimed his vote and his support:

1. The Child Labor Act, which will rid the nation of the disgrace of child labor in mines and factories.

2. For the tax on products of war munition factories.

3. For an increase surtax on incomes.

4. For a tariffi on dye stuffs and for a stringent anti-dumping clause.

5. Introduced legislation on the subject of prohibition and secured favorable reports by committees on the same in the present Congress.

War, and for Spanish-American widows; secured the passage of 11 special acts granting pensions.

7. For the Rural Credits law, which will do more for the back-to-the-farm movement than any legislation of the past.

6. For increased pensions for widows of veterans of the Civil

8. For the immigration bill, which is really a model protective measure for American labor.

9. For the Federal Workmen's Compensation Act, which protects every employe and his dependent ones in every government position, high or low.

10. For the shipping bill, which is a long delayed effort to establish American commerce on the seas.

And many other measures has had his vote and support. Because we have a man like his who is eternally on the job for the interests of the great masses, they are lining up to give to him a vote of confidence of which he might well feel proud.

The many colored voters of the district are grateful to Mr. Randall for his stand on Jim Crow legislation introduced by the Southern fire-eaters during his service in Congress he has invariably voted against this legislation, and appreciating the same they are giving to him their united support on Nov. 7.

JUDGE ROBERT W. MAC DONALD FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE

"I believe that no man should be made a Judge of the Superior Court until he has gained practical experience in one or more of the lesser courts," says Judge Robert W. MacDonald, of Pasadena, candidate for a place on the Superior bench. For the past 15 years he has been police judge in Pasadena, and also has presided over a Justice Court during the same period. He holds both positions at present.

"In all fields of human activity man reaches the higher places through a series of promotions. A man isn't made a locomotive engineer until he has served as fireman, and he isn't made fireman until he has served as wiper in the roundhouse. The city editor in a newspaper office gains his place only after an apprenticeship as reporter, and the managing editor's job comes to a man who has made good as city editor. So it is on down the list. Why should the Superior Judgeship, or the Judgeship in any of the higher courts, be an exception? Experience should count in this, just the same as in anything else. It seems to me that the attorney who has served at Police Judge or Justice of the Peace, or both, is better qualified to fill acceptably a place on the Superior Court bench than is an attorney who seeks the latter place without any apprenticeship in the lower courts."

SIGNIFICANT MASS MEETING

Last Thursday evening at the 14th street School Auditorium the Colored Women's Republican Club held a public mass meeting. The object of the meeting was not to further the interest of any particular candidate, but to endorse the Republican ticket in its entirety, and to as far as possible, convince the people in this section that with the coming of Hughes into the presidency means the coming of better conditions in this country and government for all the people.

Mrs. Geo. W. Clark, a member of the Friday Morning Club in a thirty minute address, so clearly pointed out the faults in President Wilson's Adamson and eight hour law that it was decided that they were not water proof and would not hold good. Mrs. Clark was clear, concise and thoroughly convincing in her remarks concerning the President's Mexican and European policy, and it was believed that she converted those on the doubtful Hughes list.

Atty. Frank Domingues in eloquent but strong language pleaded not only for Republican principles but for better conditions for all the people in this Republic.

The other speakers were Mrs. Wrenn Reed, Mrs. K. Barr, Mrs. S. Cole, Rev. R. D. Arline, and Atty Griffith Jones, all of whom did honor to the occasion.

The women are to be congratulated upon the manner in which the meeting was conducted.

COLORED VOTERS' DONT'S

If you want a District Attorney who will discriminate against you — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will "frame up" against you—DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who favors discrimination and all its attendant evils — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who in campaign times will smile in your face, pat you on the back and tell you what a good fellow you are, and at other times tell his friends how contemptible he believes you to be and how cheaply you can be bought—then DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will slander your women and belittle their virtue — DON'T vote for HELMS.

BUT!!

If you want to elect A REAL MAN to the office of District Attorney — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the office of District Attorney filled by a Christian Gentleman — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to get the same square deal, with equal treatment and opportunity, as the other fellow — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to elect a man who regards your rights as sacred as that of any other man's — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the laws enforced, with even-handed justice to all — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want justice given you as a right, and not handed you as a favor or sold to you for political support — then VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

VOTE for HELMS — THE MAN OF THE HOUR—VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

A BIG DRY MASS MEETING

At Birch A. M. E. Church, 8th and Towne Avenue, Sunday Afternoon at 3 O'clock—Strong Program, Big Choir, Fine Music

Reports from all over Los Angeles, Pasadena, Monrovia, Santa Monica, Ocean Park, Riverside, San Bernardino and Santa Barbara filled with enthusiasm are coming to us concerning the big Nov. 4 "Dry" Parade.

Rev. R. D. Arlline, superintendent of the Coored division, and chairman of the parade committee invites the pastors and choirs of Los Angeles and the surrounding cities and towns to join in the great chorus, and help to herald the news—that the people who stand for high morals want California "Dry."

This question of California Dry is occupying the closest attention of the thinking people not only of California, but of this country. We want our people to show their colors Sunday afternoon at the First A. M. E. church, corner 8th and Towne avenue, and in the big Nov. 4th parade at which time we have promised to furnish at least 5000 of that fifty thousand, and we believe that our representation will come up to the standard. Some of our churches and organizations will have special floats, and we want men and women who are willing to walk. The Advisory Committee predict that this will be the biggest demonstration along this line of endeavor ever made by our people.

Sunday afternoon at the First A. M. E. church will be our last big effort as far as meetings are concerned, and we hope to make it a fitting climax to our efforts Among the speakers will be some of the best from both Races. James C. Penn, the leading ministers, some of our active women workers are invited to occupy seats upon the rostrum and make short addresse.

Persons interested in increasing our number of floats and adding in any way to the succes of our effort in this affair may do so by comunicating with Mrs. S. Cole, Mrs. S. B. Strickland or Dr. R. D. Arline.

The Pride of the Baptist Denomination

New Building

About seven years ago the Baptists of this section purchased a five-acre plot of land at Ahili, a little station just beyond Watts, for the purpose of establishing and erecting an old folks home for aged members of the Race. For these past years there has been on the property a five-room, rather delapidated building not suitable for the accommodation of the many old people who apply for shelter from time to time.

Enthusiastic Baptists of the county and state for these seven years have worked on tirelessly with but one goal in sight, the erection of a creditable and suitable old folks home where the oft neglected aged of the Race may find shelter and comfort.

The above is the new building now under erection by contractor Oliver Boyd at a cost of $5,000.

Laying of Corner Stone

Sunday, Nov. 26, it is expected that thousands will gather at Abile to witness the cornerstone laying which will be one of the most historical events of the church in this section.

The new building when complete will be modern in every way and will accommodate about fifty persons.

Those who are working arduously and earnestly for the earliest possible completion of the project solicit the support and assistance of the people at large who are interested in such humane undertakings.

HAVE THEY FORGOT GOD?

Trend of Address by Grand Master T. A. Harris, at the Forum, Last Sunday.

Interesting to the utmost was the address of Grand Master T. A. Harris on last Sunday. It was a resume of his trip, from which he has just returned, to the North, East and West. While the grand master lays no claim to oratory, he in a straight forward and intensely earnest manner recited the conditions in the places he visited, their environment, etc.

His observations at Portland, Salt Lake, Denver, and Omaha were that the Japanese and white man was usurping the lowly and menial positions that have been always the sole prerogative of the colored man. At Portland, as far as lucrative employment, the Negro he said was a nonentity; at Kansas City, however, except when he got off at the Union station, he met white men as Red Caps, the showing for progress was indeed encouraging. At St. Louis it was not so good, but at Chicago he saw real progress and that our people had a chance in all the various industries.

At Dayton, Ohio, he claims he found the most prejudiced northern city. The great cash register plant at that place, with its thousands of employes, not a single colored person was employed.

In New York he found our people living in marble and brown stone fronts, luxuriantly furnished, and also employed at almost everything, but they were not land owners. In Baltimore the finest church, poorly attended.

He visited Washington, D. C., and when he entered old Varda-man was in the President's chair presiding, and all made a hasty exit.

He described his trip through the Southland at length, described conditions there as to work liberal in the extreme, and vividly delineated his experience on the Jim Crow cars, and the deplorable educatoinal facilities of New Orleans. He went to Houston, Tex., and there, on a large sign at the city park, owned and kept by the taxpayers, was a sign: "Negroes and dogs not admitted."

He visited the great churches and in almost all cases, east and south, the attendance was miserable, which caused the speaker to wonder, "Has his race forgotten God?" Are they straying away with churches which seat from 600 to 1200 having an attendance of from 25 to 200? He said this caused him to make this remark. He cautioned patience and a closer communion with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and in the end all will be well.

At the conclusion of Mr. Harris's address Dr. Gilbert, of Savannah, Georgia, of the C. M. E. church, was introduced and in defense of the Southland scathingly denounced the false leadership as the cause of many of the ills of the South, and the crooked ministry, and spoke of the real progress of the Negro in Georgia and the South. His address was well received and was one to which all could in good faith say amen.

Mrs. Andrew Scott, of 205 N. Savannah St., entertained 18 little folks in honor of her baby Mildred's first birthday. Little Mildred received many pretty and useful presents. Dainty refreshments were served and the afternoon was made merry with childish play and prattle.

What the Churches are Doing

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Gregg, Pastor.

Odd Fellows Hall was again overcrowded with eager worshippers at both services of the Peoples Independent Church on last Sunday. The two forceful anp extraordinary practical sermons by the pastor furnished abundance of spiritual food and thought. His subject was "Elisha healing Naaman." The text of the sermons was 2nd Kings 5:1. In the evening it was 2nd Kings 5:11. Three accessions to membership were realized.

The pastor may continue his series of sermons on the great prophet Elisha, as such deep interest is being manifested in them, and he has received so many requests to continue the series to the end of the character.

The choir simply electrified the audience with its beautiful music.

Among the visitors was Mrs. Lillian Davis, the talented elocutionist, who gave one of her readings deeply impressing the congregation.

Second A.M.E. Church.

Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor

The Pastor delivered two well received sermons Sunday, and one responded to the invitation "Come"

Mr. Ira Hill joined at the evening service.

There will be a baptizing next Sunday at 3 p. m.

he church is engaged in a "Rally" for the mortgage debt, which will close on Rally Day, the last Sunday in November. Let every friend and well-wisher respond to this urgent call for aid in a worthy cause.

The Ladies Aid and Art Club held its annual election last Friday night. Mrs. Emma Gray was elected president for the year.

The Helping Hand Society is a new auxiliary created last week, during the very cloudy weather, but is destined to bring much sunshine to the church in the future.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Visitors from all sections of this commonwealth were in evidence at the morning service Sunday. The pastor preached.

At the evening service Miss Darling Nesty delivered an acceptable address from the subject "The Curse of our Civilization."

Preaching at both services this coming Lord's Day. Everybody welcome.

On the first Sunday in November the pastor will administer the monthly communion. A number of our new converts will be baptised at the altar at the morning service. All are welcome to attend.

After a three weeks vacation Prof. Bynum is back in the Sunday services directing our world-famous choir. A particular observation since his return is the especial featuring of our choir orchestra. With our noted choir and growing orchestra a grand sacred program is being planned for the second Sunday evening in November. Attend each of our services Sunday and get the inspiration of our song service.

With the efficient and gentlemanly President, Mr. Paul Williams, the Intermediate Endeavor Society is taking on new life. And just recently Mrs. Craw has organized the "Junior Society" for the younger folk. This last Society meets at 4 o'clock each Sunday in the Sunday School room. The Senior Endeavor and Intermediate Society meet at 6 o'clock each Sabbath evening. All lovers of real knowledge are urged to attend these meetings.

The Official Board had a splendid meeting Tuesday night. The Stewards elected the following ladies as Stewardesses for the ensuing year. Mesdames Warner, Fanner, Tucker, Williams, Clarkson, Willie Williams, Lucky and Middleton. The Stewards will meet in called meeting Monday night, Oct. 30, at 7.30, for transaction of important business.

All the pure, wholesome fun you want will be found in the Banquet hall of First Church Halloween night under the direction of our Board of Stewardesses. Everybody welcome.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

1354 Channing Street

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

The attendance at each service Sunday was very gratifying, as well as the marked interest manifested. It is very pleasing to us to be able to state that the friends in general are very kindly disposed toward this work, and we are sure that through our untiring efforts, and by the help of God this church will soon take her rightful place among the other christian organisations of the city.

Please do not forget the annual fair given on the 8, 9, and 10th of November. This promises to be a very interesting affair, both socially and financially.

Services for Sunday as follows:—Sunday School at 9. 30 a.m. Mrs. S. E. Mann, Supt. Worship at the morning hour;

11 a. m. subject, "The Enquirer"

Allen Christian Endeavor at 6. 30 p. m. Mrs. B. F. Bryant, Pres.

Regular evangelistic services 8 p. m. subject; "Every man must know his weight."

The public is invited to our services, a warm welcome for all.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

"Powerful in Christ" was the subject of the Pastor's sermon on last Sunday morning, delivered to an appreciative audience.

In the absence of the pastor at the evening service Rev. M. J. Johnson delivered the message.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Mary Byars and Mrs. Cora Dennis who have been on the sick list the past few weeks are convalescing.

At the morning service on next Sunday Elder Lewis C. Sheafe, paster of the Free Seventh Day Adventist Church, will preach.

Elder Sheafe has recently returned from an extended trip through the South and East, where he conducted successful Evangelistic meetings. He will bring to us a live message. Let every one hear this gospel singer and preacher.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the evening service, at which time reports of the Association at Santa Ana will be given.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Topic, "Rewards of Religion" 1 Cor. 3:6-23; Esther 4:6-16.

A cordial welcome to all services.

SAINTS HOME CHURCH

Pastor Eddie R. Driver filled his pulpit Sunday a. m., and preached from the announced subject "The defeated plot and successful defense from the life and trial of St. Paul" It was one of the greatest and most inspirational sermons that the Pastor has delivered for some time. The large and happy congregation were held spellbound during the entire hour of the sermon, and at the close it seemed as if the Lord himself came into our midst and filled the house with great joy. Many strangers were present and became so touched as to come forward for prayer. It, indeed, was a blessed service.

We followed pastor Driver over to Rev. Red's Sunday afternoon only to have another heavenly feast. Rev. Red instructed pastor Driver to preach a whole gospel and do it fearlessly. So the pastor came forward with his usual smile and fixed mind and gave us a message from the subject, "Loose the Man." After reading a part of the 15th chapter of St. John and showing some striking points on the vine and the branches, proceeded to his subject, and having in the pulpit Revs. Rossier and Foster, he found it an easy matter to convince the people of how they needed to be loosed, for both of the ministers, as also Rev. Red, gave an "Amen" to almost every sentence.

An invitation was extended the congregation to visit Pastor Driver's church where Elder Tom Griffin, the converted Irish gambler, was to and did preach, and is now conduc ing a revival. Reporter

IN DIXIE LAND

WHEN GOVERNOR SMITH SIGNED THE GEORGIA PROHIBITION ACT about ten years ago, a devoted band of enthusiasts, assembled in the executive chamber, sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." Georgia had been redeemed from the clutches of the Demon Rum. In 1913, after eight years of "prohibition," the State, county and municipal governments of Georgia were deriving an annual income of $750,000 from a tax on saloons.

This taxing of an illegal industry resulted in a scandal and there was recently enacted another prohibitory law designed to make the original prohibition law prohibit. That of itself is conclusive proof that prohibition in Georgia has been a failure. But under this new law, each adult male is permitted to import 6 gallons of whiskey, 12 gallons of wine and 72 gallons of beer annually, or 90 gallons of liquors of all kinds —67.51 gallons more per capita than for the United States. This allows the male adults of the State 3,723,696 gallons of whiskey, 7,447,392 gallons of wine and 44,684,352 gallons of beer every year. Under the circumstances it may be questioned whether prohibition in Georgia has proved a blessing worth singing about!

RIVERS OF LIQUOR

Prohibition in the South is class legislation, aimed primarily at the negroes. Of late it has taken on a religious aspect; and as the agricultural South is strongly religious, prohibition has become a hall mark of church standing. But there is no more connection between prohibition and abstinence in the South than elsewhere. In June, 1911, the Interstate Commerce Commission made a report stating that more than 6,000,000 gallons of whiskey is annually shipped into the South by mail order houses alone.

MOONSHINERS' PARADISE

Most States make liberal allowances as to liquor shipments for personal use. Each citizen is entitled by law to receive liquors as follows:

Alabama—one gal. distilled or four gals. vinous or ten gals. malt liquors in a period of four weeks; Mississippi, one gal. distilled or one keg beer; North Carolina, one quart distilled, vinous or malt within a period of two weeks; South Carolina, one gal. distilled; vinous or malt liquors in any calendar month; Tennessee, one gal. intoxicating liquors.

These legal dispensations are merely a part of the general prohibition farce. The well-to-do white man of the South gets all the liquor he wants. The negroes and the poorer whites have their blind tigers, and are efficiently served by bootleggers who peddle moonshine whiskey. So prosperous are moonshiners in certain sections, they have regular automobile routes.

A FORTUNE FOR DRUGS

Illicit distilling has increased in the South in strict ratio to the growth of prohibition. Internal Revenue reports show that from 1908 to 1914 inclusive the number of moonshine stills seized jumped from 1130 to 2677. All but nine of these were in Southern States. Against the negroes prohibition operates to some extent, but in many sections it has resulted in a worse evil. Dr. Lucius P. Brown, State Pure Food and Drug Inspector of Tennessee, said, a little over a year ago, that there were 22,500 persons in that State suffering from the drug habit and that $540,000 was spent yearly in Tennessee for drugs. It is notorious throughout the South that the drug habit has spread with frightful rapidity among the negroes wherever strongest prohibition laws have been enforced.

MORE HARM THAN GOOD

Nowhere in the country is prohibition such a failure and so great a mockery as in the South. From the standpoint of practical morality it must be adjudged a great evil. It has resulted in serious economic ills and has fostered a contempt for law enforcement that has brought reproach upon the entire nation. Prohibition in Dixie Land is a mere fetich which has done vastly more harm than good both to the State and to the individual.

No matter how carefully you search the records of prohibition States, you will not be able to find in any of them any promise for better things in California.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

The Sunday School opened with a good attendance, and at 11 o'clock, the Pastor, Rev. C. H Moore, preach a soul stirring sermon, subject, "Unload." There was a good company of worshipers, and a good number of visitors.

At 6:30 p.m. the B. Y. P. U. opened with Mrs. L. L. Moore conducting the service, with a good attendance, and much light thrown on the subject.

Sunday will be the Mission Sisters' day, and there will be an interesting program at night, rendered by the Mission, and they extend a cordial invitation to visitors.

On November 4th there will be a grand wedding at the church and the public are invited. The persons to be united are Miss Izamalia Jones to Mr. John W. Perry. The marriage will be at the Providence Baptist Church at 8 o'clock p. m. sharp.

Rev. C. N. Moore, the pastor, will officiate at the ceremony.

The H. M. City convened with the Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sabbath, and it was a grand session.

Mrs. E. O. Solomon and Miss Ellen Proud rendered splendid papers, and the committee appointed from the last meeting submitted good reports. The next session will convene with the Shiloh Baptist Church.

See the spooks and witches at Blanchard's Hall Hallowe'en eve. All the merrymakers will be out.

WATTS NEWS

Mr. Regular, from Redondo, has been visiting Mr. Webb on Thaxter Street.

Rev. Trigg, like Caleb and Joshua, helped his army bearers Steward, Williams, Owens, Gordon, Warbley, Dupree, and many others in plowing, scraping and beautifying the church ground on Compton Avenue.

Mrs. Dyles has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Trigg, on Alabama Street.

Mrs. Moten and daughter, of Los Angeles, were visiting with Mrs. Lenk, on Packs Street, this week.

Mrs. Drew, on Jones St., had an attack of the la grippe Saturday and Sunday.

We are pleased to see that many of our girls are invited to participate in the exercises at Watts upon different occasions. That's right, girls, show your knowledge. You remember how mother tried so hard to push you!

Mrs. Fox, on Compton Ave., is very low at this writing.

Rev. Washington was at his post at the Macedonia Baptist Church on Sunday.

Watts, Furlong, Venice and Long Beach are now under the Missionary leader Mrs. Nelson, and like John the Baptist, as she leads let us follow.

Mr. Halvey, on Ramsdner Ave., is the only colored butcher working at one of the largest packing houses in the city. And you know he must be going some when he can skin a beef in 3 minutes and 4 seconds. Say our race is not coming.

Mr. Burgess and wife will soon be in a position to sell a hundred or more rabbits every week.

Mrs. Lillian Jones Davis will render one of her famous programs in Watts on Nov. 10th.

Everybody is invited to attend the lecture at the Seventh Day Adventist Church on Sunday, Oct. 28 Come and hear the great speaker.

Mrs. Knox, on Liberty, has a lovely growing garden of all kinds of vegetables.

Notice to Customers and Agents of the Madam C. J. Walker Manufacturing Company

The Madame C. J. Walker Mfg. Co. take this method of notifying all users of the goods and preparations of said Company, that on and after January 1st, 1917, no goods will be shipped or mailed to any address from the factory except to regular registered agents who have taken the trade and otherwise qualified as agents of the Madam C. J. Walker Mfg. Co. This is not done to work a hard hip upon anyone but to protect the regular agents of the Company from fakes and imposters. So great is the demand for the goods of the Company that we find it hard to supply such demand, so in order to avoid delay and complication after mail date we will refund money and recognize orders unless they come from regular agents whose name appears on the books of the Company.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The services at this church on Sunday were up to the usual high standard, and two large and attentive audiences were out to enjoy them.

At the morning services Dr. J. W. Gilbert, A. M., D. D., of Augusta, Ga., who is the Secretary of African missions of the C. M. E. Church, spoke on his trip into the heart of Africa and gave a thrilling description of the experiences he had with the people of the dark continent. Dr. Gilbert is a fluent speaker and held the congregation spellbound for an hour.

The choir rendered a very high class concert on Sunday night, to a packed house. The monthly concerts of the choir are looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the members and friends of the church. Much credit is due the chorister and organist for the high class programs which are rendered every month by the choir.

The Church is taking on new life in every department and every one is working to improve and build up our Zion.

A "pew" rally will be held on the second Sunday in December, at which we hope to raise the amount necessary to install the pews in the chapel.

The various boards are all busily at work and the church resembles a bee-hive in which there are very few drones.

The public is invited to worship with us at all services.

Only eleven more day until the triumphant election of Hughes and Fairbanks and a Republican Congress.

Judge McDonald continues to gain votes for himself in his campaign for the superior court, and we continue to urge for him a strong support.

Anybody in California who can discern any prosperity is cordially asked to call at this office and receive the reward offered for the same.

This is too great a government to be rated as a Jim Crow government, and a president who permits and acquiesces in the same is not the sort of man for its chief.

The black phalanx is doing yeoman service in the debatable states of the middle west and they are lining up to the man to drive Wilson and retrogression from the White House.

Whatever might be the ultimate outcome of the Broady and White case they can never find fault with their support of the best citizens of this community in their efforts to suppress lawlessness.

Let it be known that when you hear the people talking about the Union Labor vote, that that vote has never been for the Republican Party. Uncle Samuel Gompers and his labor cohorts have always lined up with the Democratic Party.

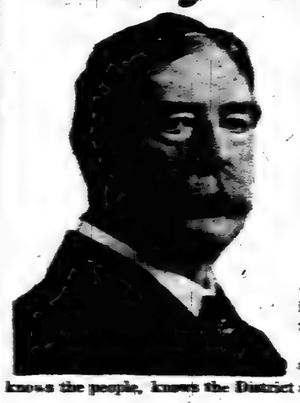
Senator Henry H. Lyons has and is rendering yeoman service for the success of the Republican ticket in the pending campaign. The Senator is one of the strong forces that has the happy faculty of making and retaining the friendship of the people of all classes to the utmost.

Frank H. Mouser for the assembly from the 74th District has no opposition except a Socialist. We are glad of this. Mr. Mouser is one of the best friends of the race and with such men as Mr. Mouser going to the front in the political world there is alwayss a chance for our people to gain recognition.

Judge Gavin Craig, present judge of the Superior Court, is a man of whom the Eagle is always proud to mention and faithfully support. He is a man who is with the people, he seeks to help to lift up, he has those qualities that makes an ideal judge and he is a man whom we feel complimented in giving our unstinted support.

A Negro sheet in this city brazenly carries a great big advertisement for Wilson. Now the Eagle is broad, we run a newspaper apt on sentiment but we have a principle that will never allow us for a mess of pottage to sell our birthright to the extent that we could in a Negro paper advertise the worst enemy to the race that has ever occupied the presidential chair.

CAPTAIN OSBORNE FOR CONGRESS



Capt. Henry Z. Osborne for Congress from the 10th District will receive the united support of all the people. The captain is a staunch Republican and will care for the inferests of this district in the lower house to the satisfaction of his constituents. He will be a worthy successor indeed to Gov. Stephens. Capt. Osborne is not a candidate for the short term and is supporting for that position H. Stanley Benedict. To vote for him you must write his name in blank space provided on the ballot.

THE TROOPER OF COMPANY K

The above moving picture made its first appearance at the Angelus Theater last Saturday, running there until Wednesday night, and all who had the good fortune to see it pronounced it grand. The Eagle staff was the guests of Manager Smith, of the Lincoln Motion Picture Company, and we want to say that this company should have the united support, particularly of our people, all over the nation, as they have had the nerve and grit to go to the front in this line of effort, and have now produced for the public one of the best moving picture plays ever flashed on the screen, and the same was conceived by a Negro in the person of Noble M. Johnson, put in execution by him and financed by this company. "The Trooper of Company K" is a story of a shiftless go-easy sort of fellow, who could make no headway at anything. He finally joined the Army and was assigned to Company K of the famous Tenth Cavalry. This brought him to the battle of Carrizal, where he made good with a vengeance, and was a hero. The scenes are excellent, showing in a realistic manner the famous stand of the Black Troopers at Carrizal, the Carranza soldiers, and a marvelous battle scene. The Lincoln Picture Company is to be congratulated upon the success of this picture and is entitled to a strong support.

The above write-up, by error, was left out in our last issue, for which we are sorry, but we certainly want to go on record as strong boosters for the Lincoln Moving Picture Company and the "Trooper of Co. K."

There is no officer in Los Angeles who has done more to help men and women of our race to maintain their standing and self-respect in this community than has Supervisor Norton. Our own people who vote for him are certainly voting for a friend and not for a man who will not recognize them after election.
1 During the past 4 years he has actually saved to the taxpayers of Los Angeles more than $500,000 notably in the 1915 Committee, the County Farm, the Unemployed Camp and other enterprises.
2 Suggested and supervised the establishment of the Unemployed Camp and hopes to make it permanent, thus largely solving the unemployed problem.
3 Is opposed to the employment of aliens on public work when American citizens are vainly seeking employment.
4 Suggested and secured sick pay for mechanics, laborers and others paid by the day, giving them the same advantages as clerks, deputies and similar employes.
5 Introduced a resolution providing for prompt payment of mechanics and laborers when leaving County service.
6 Blocked the proposition to establish an age limit of fifty years for County employes.

Local Happenings

Mrs. F. J. Johnson continues quite ill.

The hot air politicians are now going full blast.

Mr. Johnnie Moore is much improved, and able to be out.

Miss Logan, of Santa Cruz, is a visitor in our city with Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

The Women's Republican Club is the liveliest political organization in the city.

Dr. W. A. Tarleton journeyed with the nimrods this week in the wilds of Elsinore.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. J. Delaney, of Ceres avenue, is now in the hospital.

Dr. E. Curry Nelson is a very busy man. His practice extends throughout the county.

Dr. Browning and B. A. Jordan, the dentists, are among the embryo hunters this week.

N. B. Murray, who is at the Crocker Street hospital, is reported as improving this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson are to leave the city soon to make their home elsewhere.

Sunday afternoon at the First A. M. E. church, the California Dry's will hold a monster rally.

The women's meeting at the Sojourner Truth Club, Monday afternoon was a grand success.

Mrs. Jeter Davis, the elocutionist and high-class entertainer, is playing at San Diego this week.

Mr. G. G. Brown, of Douglas street, who has been ill for some time, is confined to his bed again.

For a real jolly time, come to the Hallowe'en party, Oct. 30, at 1101 Clanton street. Lots of fun and plenty to eat.

Mrs Gregory and Miss Helen Hooper, of Portland, Oregon, are the guests of Mrs. Harris, of 1500 East 20th Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell, of Lakeshore avenue, are home after a three months' visit with relatives and friends in Missouri and Kansas.

President Julius Stevens, of the Forum, is deserving of special credit for the fair and impartial manner in which he presides at that organization.

The Creole orchestra are headliners at Pantages this week. They favored the Eagle office with a call and some job work, which was appreciated very much.

The marriage of Miss Isamalia Jones to Mr Johnny W Perry will take place at the Providence Baptist church, corner Crocker and Agatha streets, November 4th, 1916, at eight o'clock p. m.

Dr. W. C. Gordon and the members of the Hiawatha Chorus will be especially complimented on next Thursday evening by a reception given them by the members of the Allen Allensworth Club.

From 3 to 5 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25, Mrs. Wm. Bynum, Mrs. Tina Little, and Mrs. J. B. Bowman were at home in honor of Miss Mae Henrietta Jones. The occasion was a linen shower.

Chas. Olivier was the center around which the Helms and Norton meeting was run on last Tuesday evening. A good crowd was present and both Messrs. Helms and Norton made hay. Mr. Cerati, Mr. Tyler and others also spoke. Refreshments were served in abundance.

The Get Acquainted Literary Club will meet Saturday evening, October 28th, at Mt. Zion Baptist church. Come and hear Prof. C. A. Biggers address the club on "Literary Achievements." A good program has been arranged. All are welcome.

Mme. J. H. Cuffee, whose business location is at 952-54 Central Av., has in a full line of artistic Hallowe'en goods. Patrons and friends may show their appreciation for Mrs. Cuffee's thoughtfulness along this line by buying at the Metropolitan Hair Store.

Everyone loves a smooth, clear complexion, be it dark or fair. Those beautiful ladies are using Fletcher's Bleach Paste Cream and Powder. The Powder is brown, flesh and white. A lovely natural rouge and eyebrow pencils make up this refined outfit.—Mrs. S. Cole, Chief Demonstrator and Agent; Phone So. 6888. —adv—

On next Friday afternoon Mrs. E. E. West will be especially complimented with a reception given by members of the Household of Ruth, No. 561.

NOTICE

Members of the Hiawatha Chorus are requested and urged to meet at the Second Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

All former Western University students meet and join the W. Y. Club, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 29, at the home of Miss Hickman, 753 Ceres avenue.

ALFONZA MURDOCK,
President.

THE NEAR APPROACH OF HALLOWE'EN

Next week's festivities of Los Angeles will be headlined by a big Hallowe'en social on Monday night, Oct. 30, given by the Young People's Advancement Club of the Independent Church of Christ, at the home of the Misses Walker, 1101 Clanton street. Come masked.

Last Sunday afternoon at the Gamut Club, Mr. and Mrs. William Comer, of 8th and Towne Avenue church, gave a delightful informal dinner to about 47 of their friends, the occasion being in honor of the 21st birthday of Mrs. Comer's son, who is now in the West Indies.

The host and hostess are charming people and served a wonderful and tasty dinner. Besides members of her congregation being present, Miss Susie Lynch and Brother Latouche, of the Christian church were also there. Brother Latouche and Mrs. Comer beinng from the same place, Jamaica, B. W. I.

Dr. J. W. Gilbert, A. M. D. D., of Augusta, Ga., was in the city for a few days last week, the guest of Mrs. S. L. Maxey, of No. 1382 East 15th Street. Dr. Gilbert was the recipient of many courtesies while in the city, and expressed himself as delighted with the city and people. He was especially delighted with the signs of progress among the people of the race. Dr. Gilbert spoke to the congregation of the C. M. E. church on Newton street on Sunday morning, and told of his trip into the heart of Africa to establish a mission for the C M E church, of which he is a member, in company with Bishop Lambuth, of the M E church, south. He spoke to the congregation of Trinity Auditorium on Sunday evening and to the students of the U. S. C. on Monday morning. He left for home Monday evening over the Santa Fe. Dr. Gilbert is the Dean of Theology in Paine college, August, Ga., and is one of the best educators of the race.

LAW STUDENTS GIVE BANQUET

Chief among the recent events of the week was a banquet given at Christopher's Cafe, 551 S. Broadway, last Saturday evening, by the law students of the Southwestern University of Law. Mr. J. H. Russell, the only colored student of the university, was accompanied by Miss Lavenia Hickman. A seven-course dinner was served at 6:30, after which a delightful program was rendered.

Fifty-eight students and their company were present on this occasion. Charming hospitality was extended Miss Hickman and Mr. Russell.

METHODIST MINISTERS' ALLIANCE ORGANIZED

In compliance with a call issued by Presiding Elder Rev. J. H. Wilson, of the A. M. E. church, a number of Methodist Ministers of Southern California met in the parlor of First A. M. E. church, Eighth and Towne ave., Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and organized what is to be known as "The Methodist Ministers' Alliance of Southern California." The object of this alliance is the unification of Methodism along all lines of spiritual and civic uplift and a closer allation in the interests that concern the Methodists of Southern California. Prominent among those present were Drs. W. W. S. Dyett and E. W. Kinchen, of Pasadena; Drs Wilson, McKinney, Johnson, Price, Craw, and Elders Cole and Davy, of Los Angeles. Other names given as members of the alliance were Revs. Prince, Isaacs, Robinson, and Rayford. Dr. Dyett was elected president; Dr. McKinney, secretary, and Elder Cole, treasurer. The place of meeting chosen is the First A. M E. church in the parlor and Sunday School room. The time is every Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Each Methodist minister, elder, deacon, and local preacher is eligible to membership in this alliance. The committee on by-laws and constitution will make its report at the meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Oct. 31, when the alliance will complete its entire organization. Dr. Craw, pastor of First Church, will submit a paper for discussion from the subject: "The Program of Methodism." This will be an open meeting to the public.

MT. ZION CHURCH, THE EIFFEL TOWER OF THE CITY

By Mrs. C. E. Norwood

Sunday, October 22, 1916, was celebrated at Mt. Zion Baptist church that being the 21st anniversary of said church. The celebration commenced in the Sunday school at 9:30 in the morning. The Sunday school was well attended, and the lesson was interestingly conducted by the most efficient president, Wm. Reynolds, of the Western Baptist Sunday School Convention, who also gave the Sunday school an excellent talk and outlined the work that he would like to have them carry out for this Conventional year.

After the dismissal of the Sunday school, 11 o'clock services were immediately resumed. Singing by the choir, invocation by Deacon J. W. Gray, after which a most excellent sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. Wiliams. His subject: "Will a Man Rob God?" Malachi 3:8. He told us in so many different ways in which we really rob God. A collection was then taken, and the congregation, members and visitors likewise were cordially invited to the hospitable table at the parsonage, which was laden down with every thing good to eat. There really seemed to be no end to the chicken and dumplings. About thirty persons were served and every one went away rejoicing at which they had received. The serving committee which numbered about seven, spared no pains in making every one welcome, and tried to accommodate them in every way possible.

At two o'clock, sharp, the Old Patriarchs, who were in the organization of the church, conducted one hour of devotional services, led by Sister S. Freeman and Sister Nichols. The meeting was interesting and spiritual in every way to all of those who truly know the Lord. The history of the organization of the church was also told in this meeting by Sister S. Freeman, who related how Mt. Zion had come up through hard trials and tribulations, but by leaning on the arms of Jesus, and trusting in His Word, the old church has moved along, and is steadily ad rapidly going on to victory. Cordial invitations were extended to both churhes to participate in this grand rally, namely: First Street Baptist, which was represented by members, but at three o'clock, the most noble Methodist pastor, Rev Guy, and his co-workers, together with his whole choir, organist and choristers, came forward and lined up in the great battle—not behind, but in front. Rev. F. W. Williams, of Long Beach, was introduced, and filled in the time for ten minutes, which was enjoyed by all. Then the melodious choir of the A. M. E. church sang a selection, every note of which was highly enjoyed by those present. Rev. Guy was then introduced as the speaker for the afternoon. He took hold just as earenstly as a Baptist minister would have done, and took his text from Isaiah 40:31: "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary and they shall walk and not faint." There were so many beautiful things said in his discourse that it w[illegible] pity the whole city was not present to get their part of the gospel and gain strength in serving the Lord. Immediately after the sermon, the choir sang the subject of the sermon which had been preached, in the very same words: "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; shall mount up with wings as eagle; shall run and not be weary; etc." A collection was then taken up. Benediction by Rev. Guy.

At 6:30 sharp, the B. Y. P. U. was called to order by Mrs. C. E. Norwood. The lesson was read and a most excellent program was rendered, consisting of recitations, papers, quartettes and trios by the young people of the Union. Every one present enjoyed the beautiful program rendered by the young people, which they always take pleasure in doing. At 7:15 the president of the Western Baptist Sunday School Convention, Wm. Reynolds, was introduced to the Union. By request, he was asked to have the Union sing "Revive Us Again," which was rendered with much enthusiasm, the young people singing the chorus alternately, after which the president sang a beautiful solo, subject: "Keep Sweet." Then the president of the Western Baptist Sunday School Convention talked to the B. Y. P. U. in behalf of the president of the Western Baptist B. Y. P. U. Convention. Many good things were said to the Union, andit they were also told of some of the plans the Union was expected to carry out in this conventional year. He also staid that we had the largest B. Y. P. U. of young people in Southern California, and that we should stirve to hold them by giving them something to do and whenever the young people do wrong, not to drive them from us by scolding and telling them that this or that is wrong, and not offer them something good to replace the thing that we tell them is wrong. Amen! The B. Y. P. U. adjourned at 7:30, and the evening services were commenced.

The choir sang a selection, led by Bro. Wm. Reynolds, of Pasadena. Invocation was offered by Sister G. W. Woodby. Rev. F. W. Williams of Long Beach, was next introduced as the speaker of the evening. Rev. Williams began by saying he did not feel much like preaching, as he had not pulled off his shoes since the night before, as he was riding all night, coming to San Diego, and was running all day trying to keep up with the people of San Diego.

Mrs. Rev. C. Williams sang a beautiful solo just before Rev. Williams, of Long Beach, announced his text, which was found in Mark 16:15-16: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned." The sermon was immensely enjowyed by all. As it was all gospel that could not be denied. The collection for the day was $35.00. Rev. C. Williams announced that the church was now 21 years old, full grown, just started out to do real work for the Master. We heartily thank each and every one who came out and assisted us in any way, whether little or much. For God will bless the cheerful giver.

Each auxiliary of the church also gave $1.00 to the rally, namely: Missionary Soceity, Carnation Club, Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. Rev. C. Williams, the pastor of the church, left not a stone unturned to make this rally a success, and it certainly was a success in every feature. May God bless the work in Mt. Zion.

Mr. Chas. Reed, of Imperial Valley, is now in San Diego, stopping with Rev. and Mrs. C. Williams. He will attend night school while here.

The Hard Times Social given at Mr. Mulholland's residence last Tuesday evening by the young people of the B. Y. P. U., was a grand success.

Miss Annie Mulholland, president of the B. Y. P. U., is expected back from Ventura this week.

Mr. Wm. Reynolds, of Pasadena, president of the Western Baptist Sunday School Convention, spent Saturday night and Sunday in San Diego. This being his firs ttrip he was very much impressed with the place. He said that he had enjoyed every minute of the time while here. He was met at the station at 6:30 by a committee, which escorted him to the Eagle office, where he had a nice little chat with Mr. M. T. Laws, of the Eagle, and from there he was taken to the Exposition grounds, the beauty spot of San Diego. After listening to Tommasinos' Royal Italian Band, and also to the Rosseau musicians, he was taken to see the many species of animals at the Zoo, and on the return trip up the Istumus was taken through the Crazy House. Mr. Reynolds enjoyed it all. He then was taken out on 30th Street to the home of Sister and Brother S. Freeman, where he had a most joyous night's rest, and on Sunday he spent the day at the Mt. Zion Baptist church, was takenout in the afternoon to view the beautiful city of San Diego by Brother and Sister M. A. Hayden, in their five-seated automibile. Rev. F. W. Williams, of Long Beach, and Mrs. C. E. Norwood and daughter, Dorothy, were also participators

Mr. Reynolds ,after the evening service, was treated to all the ice cream he could eat, and then went to take the train for Pasadena, which left at 2 o'clock Monday morning. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. gave Mr. Reynolds $6.00

Rev. P. E. Robinson, who has been working at the Santa Fe station for some time ,and who has won the confidenc and esteem of his employers, and also of many, many freinds in San Diego, left Tuesday for Stockton, where he has been transferred as chief red cap at the depot Rev. Robinson is also thinking of going back into the ministry.

The Eagle reporter was in the midst of fire last Saturday at the Panama-California International Exposition when the 21st Regiment in its daring charge captured the Painted Desert. Arrows and shells were fallin gon every side, when the band struck up the rag time tune near the stockade. Thousands stood spell-bound as the 21st came from the canyon, falling and firing under command and never ceased firing until they had scaled t ehwalls of the Painted Desert. The first intimation the Indians had of the impending attack was when the 21st infantry band broke forth. They were nearly all ragging on the plaza of their pueblo, when a youngster, too young to dance, brought word that a column of pale-faced soldiers were approaching. Brandishing his war club, Big Chief Knock-em-stiff-Brown, who in times of peace, is manager of the Painted Desert, called on his dusky followers to take to the walls and defend their homes and families. The command was obeyed with alacrity. Soon painted and feathered warriors swarmed the walls of the pueblo and the adobe village fairly bristled with rifles and bows and arrows. Even though it was the greatest sham battle in the history of the Expedition, there was a lesson

Educational Day at Sojourner Truth Home is increasing in interest. More than 50 women were present last Monday.

The program consisted of the report of the State Federation by Mrs. Louise Williams, which showed the wonderful influence and inspiration this organization has upon a community, and the good accomplished for humanity.

Miss M. M. Cunningham talked on the "Life of Sojourner Truth," which was pathetic yet beautiful in its Christian resignation, believing God will right all wronge.

Mothers, come out and bring your children, that they may learn the story of this woman the world calls wonderful.

Mrs. Harris Bilbrew entertrined with two musical selections that captivated the houre. Mrs. Bilbrew's presence is a tonic for any gathering.

Our beloved Rev. W. J. J. Byers who has served as one of our advisors, gave a ten minutes talk, which was as usual words of encouragement pointing to the Home as an institution for the betterment of the community.

Mrs. Ada Jackson, in behalf of the Club, extended to Rev. Byers its appreciation and thanks for the services he has given the Home, and wished for him and his dear wife success in their new field.

Mrs J. D. Reynolds, of 1966 Raymond, made a presentation of a beautiful pieced quilt of her own handiwork, for which the Home is truly grateful.

After which the ladies enjoyed a social hour sipping tea.

A RESUME OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN THIS BAILIWICK

As the time draws nigh for the election, which occurs on Tuesday, Nov. 7, the interest in the result becomes daily more acute, hence a resume at this time, based on almost any reasonable foundation, cannot help but interest the rank and file of the voting population of this section.

You will find many doubting Thomases who will say that it looks close and "I am afraid of this or that," but as a matter of fact, it is the same old line-up nationally as has obtained in other elections except four years ago. Of course we have the rare-backs, the sore-heads, etc., but in this election the people will decide the issues, and not the sore-heads or the disgruntled, therefore there is no question that Hughes and Fairbanks will carry this election by an old-time Republican majority.

The colored vote, as of yore, is loyal to the core. We of course might have a Benedict Arnold or a Judas who for the nimble dollar would even support old Vardaman, Jeff Davis, or Ben Tillman, but ninety-nine and nine tenths per cent will, in a solid phalanx, march to the polls on Nov. 7 and deliver to Hughes and Fairbanks a splendid contribution of 55,000 votes to swell their majority in California.

For U. S. Senator

Governor Hiram Johnson, the militant leader of the masses, will also be triumphantly elected along with the Republican electors. They have long since turned a deaf ear to the force that would cast odium upon a man who has always stood for the inherent principles of Republicanism. They know that he is not only for those principles, but stands for the interests and rights of all of the plain, common, every-day people, and he, too, will receive a magnificent support at the hands of the black phalanx.

For Congress, 10th District

Captain H. Z. Osborne, the old Republican war horse, will receive a united support and will be triumphantly elected for the long term. The colored voters evince a special interest in Captain Osborne's success, as he has always been and always will be their champion and advocate.

The 9th District

C. H. Randall has the Republican nomination from this district, and having fairly won the same, the Republicans will rally to his support. There is no time to wabble around in the support of any independent in this crucial period of our country. The colored voters, to a man, in this district, will work and vote for Randall. They appreciate his stand in Congress against the Democratic fire-eaters, who sought to enact Jim Crow legislation in the District of Columbia, hence they are strong for Randall.

For All Republican Congressmen

As in the 9th and 10th Districts, all over the State a united support for the Republican nominees and you cannot go wrong. The same applies to the legislative tickets in the various senatorial and legislative districts.

Locally and Non-Partisan

The candidates for Supervisor, District Attorney, Judges of the Superior Court, are all non-partisan, and it is a free-for-all race. The Eagle has been an open forum and such as cared for the use of our columns have had a fair and square opportunity to acquaint the people with such matters as they might care to, and from that you could draw your own conclusions.

Craig and MacDonald for Judges of Superior Court

We have, however, rendered our support to Judge Craig for re-election to the Superior bench, and to Judge W. R. MacDonald for election. These two men, to our minds, are our ideals and we cannot too highly commend them to the consideration of our many readers.

For District Attorney

The contest for District Attorney of this county is assuming gigantic proportions and the strength developed by Captain Helms since the primary is admitted on all hands to be extraordinary. This is probably due to the fact that while the Woolwine forces have been marking time the Helms forces have been marching double-quick time. As far as the colored vote is concerned, it is divided, and while Woolwine, in the primaries, had the best of it by long odds, it seems at this time to be slipping rapidly to Helms.

It is said, however, that the Woolwine forces will at once inaugurate a vigorous campaign and make an effort to regain lost ground. At any rate, it is a warm fight and for the next ten days watch the fur fly.

For Supervisor

The fight for Supervisor in the Second District is a hot fight. The forces in this district are also divided, and Mark G. Jones, who was the prime favorite at the primaries has lost much ground, and Norton stock as a result has risen. Whether the Jones forces will regain their lost ground is to be seen. Many resent the intrusion of interlopers, and many others charge good, bad and indifferent. This fight also promises to be a hummer.

The Eagle, as yet, has taken no side in these contests for one side or the other. We have so far been content to publish each side, and sometimes to comment thereon, but with no idea of taking sides for either one or the other in this non-partisan contest.

But watch next week's issue of the Eagle. We may have some dope that will solve the problem.

CORNER STONE CHRIST'S TEMPLE

The New Gospel Tabernacle at Pasadena Will Be Laid Tomorrow, Sunday Afternoon at 2:30 P. M., with Public Ceremony

After a temporary delay the corner stone for the new Gospel Tabernacle in Pasadena, to be known as "Christ's Temple," the church of humanity and the old time gospel will be laid with much pomp and ceremony at their new location, South Raymond avenue between East Bellevue Drive and Center streets, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow, Sunday. New location was formerly the beautiful Central Nursery, and is one of the best locations in the city, easily reached by all cars, local and from Los Angeles, in this Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, who is widely known as a tireless worker, has scored a signal triumph and the new work bids to be a great success and has already attracted nation wide interest. The service for Sunday promises to be of unusual interest, Dr. J. Gordon McPherson will preach the words of Jesus, "Upon this rock corner stone sermon, using these I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Metropolitan choir has been invited to sing. Pastors of Los Angeles and surrounding towns are united to come and take part in the ceremonies. The new organization has one of the largest mixed congregations of the best colored and white people in the Far West, all persons coming from out of town points should take the short line to Pasadena and get off at Bellevue Drive. This promises to be one of the greatest afternoon services you ever witnessed and everyone is cordially invited to join in the cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new Gospel Tabernacle.

BAKERSFIELD

By Mrs. Pearl Lowery Winters

Rev. and Mrs. Donahue, the new pastor and wife, arrived in the city Monday to take charge of the First A. M. E. church.

Sunday morning Rev. Donahue preached to a crowded house and his hearers seemed pleased with his first effort.

Mrs. Donahue also made a beautiful talk to the Sunday school.

Mrs. Frank Washington united with the church.

The choir was at its best Sunday at the First A. M. E. church.

Mrs. Truett entertained last Friday and Saturday honoring her daughter. On Friday the young people were entertained and on Saturday the old. The color scheme was pink, and green, and at each plate was a beautiful hand painted card.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Dickerson, pastor and wife of the Baptist church are doing good work in this city.

Mrs. Jones, mother of Mrs. A. Houston is spending the winter with her daughter.

CASE AGAINST COLORED OFFICERS CONCLUDED

Concensus of Opinion Is That Charges Against Them Will Be Dismissed.

The trial of Officers White and Broady before the Police Commissioners, after several continuances was concluded last Thursday. The commission has announced no decision as yet and have the case under advisement.

The chance for rebuttal testimony asked for by the confessed law breakers, was given them and with a full week to go, even this galaxy of self-confessed law breakers could not add anything to help them in their effort to oust Broady and White from their jobs.

Rebuttal a Lamentable Failure

To rebutt the testimony offered at the defense of the officers they brought forth themselves again and their testimony was to break down the testimony of Isador Baptiste and Geo. Henderson.

Insofar as Baptiste was concerned, they made his testimony stronger, his story was unshaken. They brought another man, whose place of business had been raided time and again by Broady and White, to rebutt Geo. Henderson. They also brought Geo. W. Brown forth, and what did they do that for? He was a strong witness for the police officers.

And then came the Fighting Parson, J. Gordon McPherson. The doctor has been a prime favorite with this element, and of course no surprise was evident in seeing him line up with these forces.

His testimony was about Nora Palmer and was a contradiction of the facts as testified by our managing editor on last Thursday, with the two statements, no doubt the commission will judge which is true and which is false.

This is the case and to those who have followed it, there is but one conclusion, and that is that it is a most disingenious frame-up, not a thing clever about it, but just a coarse try. And we do not believe that officers should be harassed by such circumstances as these. If a man has charges such as these to make, let them be substantiated by at least someone who is not a partner in crime, or who has no police record.

It was humorous indeed to see the City Prosecutor wabble in placing a confessed law breaker, bribe given and with a notorious police record, as a character witness for the Colored people.

We have no doubt but that justice will prevail and that the commission will dismiss the charges and that these men will be commended for their activity in suppressing vice and that they will be kept on the job until such time as their reward will be to go up higher for service well done.

The law-abiding element of this city have stood by the officers in their fight against lawlessness, and they have not for one moment doubted their innocence, and since the raw attempt of a frame-up by the Chinese crooks and confessed Negro law breakers has lamentably failed, they have a renewed confidence in them, and shall ever remain in their loyalty of law and order.

POLITICAL DRIFT

It is an old saying that politics make queer bedfellows. As an example: the Woolwine and Helm fight for the District Attorneyship. Both camps have undesirables and it is hard to keep them out of the public eye and the newspapers. No one is responsible for them being in the fight except the conditions which are the outgrowth of securing votes. Attorney Macbeth, least of all, is responsible for these conditions. He has always stood for civic decency and sobriety, and though he is in Arizona as the attorney of a race mining company of this city, he will return in time to put the finishing touches on the National and State fight for the Republican party.

THE ONLY DRY CANDIDATE

John C. Bell, whose candidacy for Assemblyman from the 64th District is announced in another column is appealing to the voters for their support on the issue of California Dry and its many benefits. Being the only dry candidate he is receiving enthusiastic support from the dry voters of all political parties and his many friends predict his easy election.

Mr. Bell is a prominent manufacturer in the city and knows the needs of the city and state and while advocating all legitimate enterprises, he, nevertheless, puts the boy and girl above the dollar.

THOUGHTS, WISE AND OTHERWISE

By Wilhelmina L. Booker

Well, well, well! The East has at last realized that athletics can be developed in the "wast West" as well, if not more so, than in their own New England country.

An eastern paper recently published an article in which they really admitted that the Los Angeles White Sox was one of the fastest semi-pro. teams in the country, and I think that is a western team.

We might also mention for their benefit that Howard Drew, the world's greatest sprinter, is a product of our own little Angel(?) City.

I'll admit that I'm good at drawing opinions and figuring out things, but I'll also admit that I haven't been able to figure out why the Sox and Echo Park don't meet in the H'l ball game.

Ask Dad. He knows, but he won't tell.

"Some class!" "That's got 'im," and a few more such phrases were heard very frequently out at Jeerson last week, and we learned that Cecil "Ladies' Man" Hopper was the center of these favorite remarks. Oh, no; he wasn't wearing a full-dress suit to a football game this time, but he has introduced the fad of red stock ties.

Memories Base ball, low prices, pocket change and WILSON. ASK DAD WHY—

C. H. wears such loud stock ties.
T. B. says walking is good exercise.
T. O. cut C. H.'s trousers.
J. B. is a Jefferson visitor so often.
J. R. took I. G's silk handkerchief.

Question: My best beau said to me: "Everybody loves mathematics: that's why I am in love with you." Can you tell what he means?

Answer: I should think he compared you with mathematics because he couldn't figure you out.

SAN DIEGO, CAL.

to be learned from the words of the big Indian chief.

San Diego citizens are loyal to race competitors and talent, as was demonstrated at the Stadium last Sunday and also at the Savoy Theatre this week. Speaking of the ball game, when the White Sox met the Hull team at one of the finest stadiums on the Coast, they played to the largest crowd that ever attended a ball game. There were approximately 1500 people of the race and about four times as many of the others. The game made Rube Foster's games look as amateurs. Men and women came out as if they were going to a fashion show. There were noh onors to give any particular player, as the team played a scientific game—only three errors, but the veteran Mooney should be mentioned for his diamond covering and good work. Mooney had thre men on base in the sixth inning, none out, when he tightened up and fanned three straights. Mr. Lony Goodman deserves credit for perfecting such a team on the Coast. Umpire Rockenfield's decisions were entirely satisfactory.

WE KNOW THEM NOW

The Black and Tan Orchestra, of San Diego, assisted by Mr. Eugene Edwards, and twelve couple of home talent, trumpeted at the Savoy Theatre the past week in the "Walking the Dawg" Contest. In addition to their salary, there was a prize given after each performance. The dancing was judged by the audience, which created colossy in the troop. That made the performance more interesting. They were choosing and exchanging partners trying to win the first prize, but Miss Theodore Lloyd was the most sought after of them all. She could win with any partner, but Miss Sadie Ridley, after copping the first prize on the opening performance, would always give the winning couple a hard battle, in which each couple captured a prize during the week. Each couple filled their part of the performance to a unit, notwithstanding the fact that there were no rehearsals. They went on the stage and faced a crowded house at each performance, and did credit to themselves, and gained fame, from a theatrical standpoint. Had Tom Keene, John McCullough, Lawrence Barrett, Billy Kersand, Williams and Walker had the chance that these amateurs have just received, without any influence or boosting, they would have been famous long before their names were ever mentioned by great writers. Much credit is due Mr. T. Harris for this introduction which was well supported by the public in general. Those who took part were Mr. Sam Hillis, Mr. Eugene Edwards, Theo Thomas, Mr. W. C. Gaines, Mr. Joe Stansell, Mr. W. Nicholson, Mr. Cal Chism, Miss Hodgie Hall, Miss Gertrude Williams, Miss Ora Bradford, Miss Ethel Stansell, Miss Sadie Ridley, Miss Georgia Booker, Miss Hattie B. Ridley, Miss Theodore Lloyd, Miss Vera Simpson. The Black and Tan Orchestra furnished the music on the stage. Mr. Hays White, Mr. Robert Purris, Mr. I. B. Herron, Mr. Morris Tyler, Mr. Ted Thomas, L. D. Jackson, members; T. J. Harris, leader and manager.

The recital of Lillian Jeter-Davis at the Masonic Hall last Tuesday night was a decided treat to the book lovers and music lovers of this city. The hall was well filled with the aristocrats of the city in order to hear the elocutionist from Oakland. Her selections were of the best and the audience was laughing and clapping so much that the famed speaker had to stop amid her best pasagese and waiat for silence, but she was not put out, nor did she show any sign of displeasure at being interrupted as often as she was. Her rendition of the piece entitled: "Asleep at the Switch," caused the audience a great deal of merriment, as well as the "Turning of the Baby." Mrs. Moultery's singing was a treat that was listened to with a great deal of pleasure. Why, it was so soft and sweet that you could have heard a pin fall. She received so many encores that one could hardly know which one of the two ladies was giving the entertainment. When Mme. Davis recited "Mandy," the audience went wild, for it was so humorous. But when she played the piano and recited at the some time, as a gentleman said, it was too good to tell about. "Those Wedding Bells Shall Not Ring Tonight" was played and sang to perfection, although the piano was a little out of whack and should have been looked after before the recital. So, upon the whole, the Recital was a success from beginning to end. And great credit is due Lillian Jeter-Davis and Mrs. Moultrey and Mrs. S. Cleveland, high-priestess. Many thanks to the Knights and Daughters of Tabor. All we have to say is that Mme. Davis stands with a rich, full and well modulated voice, and can capture any audience after her first recitiation.

A lady came into The Eagle office on a busy day and found the editor and reporter busy segregating news for their many readers, and their minds were busy and did not notice when she came in and she finally spoke and said: "What is the matter? Are you on the speaking list today?" We informed her that we were just an eagle, but if she caught us, we always spoke, as the Eagle speaks the world over.

There was a meeting of the Forum last Sunday, October 22nd, and the committees were appointed. Next meeting, October 29th.

Mr. W. E. Cleveland, messenger at the U. S. National bank, reports that the bank will add two stories to their bank building, and says that the trouble with most of our people is that inf they cannot smart with $100 or more to their credit, they feel embarrassed to begin with a small account. He can be found at the bank at almost all banking hours where he will be glad to introduce them to the savings system, whether large or small. One dollar in the bank today and a dollar tomorrow will be your life insurance. Think, wise friends, before doing otherwise.

Mr. E. W. Anderson certainly did enjoy himself a few nights ago at the Gain Social Club, when they sang and played the "John Henry" for his special benefit. He said it brought him back to childhood days. From the expressions on his face, you would have thought that he had just arrived from Yale ,after winning one of those famous football games.

Mr. G. A. Rumsey reports as having great success with his new hotel since his opening recently. He is making great preparations for the winter tourists. He says that he has had some of the aristocrats and the elite of the State domiciled at his apartments.

We notice as to the opening of the store at 78 Jones November 15th, that the city is rapidly filling up with strangers. We are glad to see so many of the Race horse owners of the Race, and employed on the other side as well as so many refined and wealthy men who came to see and enjoy the sport of the kings.

Mr. M. T. Laws and Mr. W. E. Cleveland were initiated in the order of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor last Tuesday night. While left in the anti-room alone, Cleveland said to Laws, in a stuttering voic: "Are you afraid? I am not." But as Laws stood trembling, he observed that the hair had disappeared from Cleveland's head.

Something heard of in San Diego. The stork arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin White, No. 2778 Broadway, last week and left a big bouncing boy, weight about eight pounds. Mother and baby doing well.

Mrs. Henderson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Melvin White, has returned home.

Mrs. G. Hodge called at the Eagle office, after an extended visit at Vallejo. From all appearances, the trip has benefitted her wonderfully, and she said that she could not attend all the social functions to which she was invited.

LUCKY COLE

One of the most singular cases on the files of the police detective bureau was reported last week by Mr. Dan Cole, a porter employd at th U. S. Grant Hotel barber shop. While Mr. Cole danced a dreamy waltz in a Market Street dance hall, between Sixth and Seventh Streets, the night before, the detective's report has it, a ring set with five small diamonds and valued at $65, disappeared from his finger.

Right after that particular dance, Mr Cole noticed that the ring was gone. He mentioned the loss to his dancing partner, and she assured him that she knew nothing at all about it. Detectives interviewed several of his dancing partners ,but when they had finished, the matter was as much a mystery as before they began. The discovery of the Diamond ring! It was picked up from the floor and pawned by someone who readily redeemed it, after finding the proper owner.

Many of the Santa Fe railroad porters called at the Eagle office and reported that Mr John Brooks, many years chef for the general manager, is confined at the Santa Fe hospital in Los Angeles.

The migratory gents are coming to town now, but look first before you stop. The rockpile is in existence again this winter. A hint is sufficient. There are about thirty working there now.

Two young ladies said that they went to the Canton restaurant and dined ,and the meals came to one dollar. One of the ladies paid for the meal and walked out. The other, not knowing, paid for the same meals again. After walking a short distance, discovered their error. On returning and asking for the difference to be refunded, they said that the Chinaman refused to refund same and said that they might have dropped it on the floor. Now, dinner, if this is true, why continue to make the Orientals sick?

Stand with anybody that stands right; stand with him while he is right ,and part with him when he goes wrong.

LEO R. FRIEDMAN FOR ASSEMBLY

I am a candidate for Member of Assembly, 33rd District, and solicit your support at the election of November 7th, 1916.

For the past five years a practicing attorney, a member of the law firm of Catlin and Friedman. I am opposed to prohibition and to all legislation that tends to further abridge the rights of individuals.

If elected, I believe I will make an able representative of the people of the District.

WARNS VOTERS NOT TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Republican Advisory Committee in Message to Country Turns Searchlight on Wilson's "Jim Crow Policy."

CONTROLLED BY BOURBON SOUTH

Says No Man Since Emancipation Has Done So Much to Divide Nation and to Eliminate the Colored Race at the President.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Committee of Colored Citizens selected from the country at large as Advisory to the Republican National Committee having met this day in New York City and desiring to express to the Colored voters of the country the necessity for supporting the Republican party candidates for President, Vice-President, Senate and House of Representatives addresses this letter to the 700,000 Colored voters and the thousands of potential voters whose duty it is to register in order that they may perform their duty to the country in this National crisis.

This is the Presidential year. The time has come to hold the Wilson Administration and the Democratic party to a "strict accountability." Are you ready for the fight? Or do you desire four years more of what the New York World calls the "Jim Crow Government at Washington?" No campaign since that for the second election of Abraham Lincoln has been more vital to the liberty and happiness of the 10,000,000 of Colored citizens than is the present campaign for the election of Charles Evan Hughes for President, and a Republican Congress.

Four years ago a considerable number of the Race helped elect a Democratic Prsident. This was done under fair promises of just treatment, "not grudgingly given but in generous fashion." The result has shown the experiment to have been the utmost political folly and race-suicide, and has shown that the Democratic party cannot be trusted to deal fairly with our Race in this country. The votes of the men of Color for the Democratic candidates for President were obtained by fine phrases and false pretenses. No sooner had the Democratic administration come into power than Mr. Wilson and his advisors entered upon a policy to eliminate all Colored citizens from representation in the Federal Government.

The offices of Assistant Attorney General, Recorder of Deeds, Register of the U. S. Treasury, Auditor for the Navy, Minister to Hayti, Collectorships of Internal Revenue in New York, Florida, and Hawaii, were vacated and filled by white Democrats. There were no "deserving Colored Democrats" to be found in the country. Not only did the administration proceed to demote in and eliminate the Colored man from the Civil Service of the United States by scores, and to segregate those remaining in the service, but also to make impossible further appointments by requiring the Race of the applicant to be shown by his photograph.

The reason assigned by the administration for its politics has been that "Southern people not stand for Presidential appointments of Colored men to office" and "that segregation was for the benefit of humanity." The administration was "too proud to fight" Mexico, but did not hesitate to conquer the Black Republics of Hayti and Santo Domingo, and has practically established protectorates over them. There was one policy of international justice for Mexico and another one towards the Colored Republics of the South of us. The President has expressed himself as in sympathy with the "enslaved men and women of Mexico," but has found no words of sympathy for the Colored citizens of America. "The New Freedom" does not include the Colored man. "Humanity," for which the President has expressed such great love, does not include the colored race. The President said in a notable address that "the man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, and interest from interest is striking at the very heart of America." No man has done so much since Emancipation to so separate and divide the Nation into groups, and to eliminate the colored race as a representative group of Americans, as has the President himself.

Colored men, we must arise! Those who vote and those entitled to vote must strike for their liberties. This is a campaign for the restoration of the rights, privileges and immunities that we have heretofore enjoyed under the Republican Administration of the National Government. Four years more of President Wilson will mean our complete elimination from American politics. We submit that the man who is ready to die for his country at Carrizal is fit to serve his country at Washington; and that the man who is fit to be buried in the National Cemetery at Arlington, is fit to serve his country in the Capitol of the Nation.

The Republican candidate for President, Chas. Evans Hughes, has shown himself to be a man of highest character and of absolute sincerity in his devotion to the cause of liberty, justice and humanity, and when he is elected President of the United States, we may confidently expect from him a square deal and complete protection in all our sacred rights as citizens, and the full enjoyment of the opportunities to which we are justly entitled, under the Constitution and Laws of our country.

Cottrill, of Ohio; William P. Dabney, of Ohio; William H. Lewis, of Massachusetts; W. C. Matthews of Massachusetts; Richard M. Bolden, of New York; Junius M. VOTE "NO" ON AMENDMENT NO. 6, NOV. 7

You need Henry H. Lyon in the State Senate. He knows what is needed in the way of legislation. He introduced and put through the State Senate more measures that tend to better the conditions of the men, women and children who labor, than all other Senators combined.

Eight-Hour Law for Women, Child Labor, Free Employment Bureau, Payment of Wages, Regulation of Private Employment Agencies, Time Check Law, Prohibits Employers and Managers from Accepting Gratuities, Amended Minimum Wage Law, False Representations in Employment of Labor, and many other less important measures.

When he goes to the Legislature he takes a leave of absence from the State Labor Commissioners' office, as Deputy Labor Commissioner, without pay, and his experience in that office teaches him what is needed.

Frank H. Mosser, member of the Assembly, also takes a leave of absence, without pay, from the Motor Vehicle Department as inspector.

He wrote and introduced the Motor Vehicle Act and Semi-monthly Pay Day Law in the Legislature and voted for all of the measures and handled most of them that were introduced by Senator Lyon.

Are you going to stop such men as these from going to the Legislature? Vote "NO" Amendment No. 6.

LEO R. FREIDMAN FOR THE ASSEMBLY

Leo R. Freidman is candidate for the assembly from the 33rd district in the city of San Francisco, and will receive a hearty support from the people of all classes. The colored people recognize in him a friend and that he is a chip of the old block as his father, Ralph Freidman for many years has demonstrated his friendship for this people.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2, 1916.
To the People of Los Angeles County:

I have personally known Judge Robert W. McDonald as a lawyer and a public official in this county for years, and every man and woman of the County of Los Angeles who reverences honesty and integrity in a public official, and especially in those whose duty it is to justly determine the rights of persons, should support this man and vote for him as one of our Judges of the Superior Court of this County. He will not distinguish between people, nor allow the civil rights of the citizen to be curtailed.

I have faith in his honesty of purpose and am requesting my personal friends to support him vigorously. Give him your vote and elect him Judge of the Superior Court.

FRANK W. ALLENDER.

PROHIBITION AND PROSPERITY UP TO NEGRO VOTERS

Dr. R. D. Arline, Superintendent of Colored Division of Dry Federation Presents Timely Proposition to Our People for Settlement.

"The fate of prohibition at next week's election hangs on the vote in Los Angeles county, according to prognostigators at the Capital who have been sizing up the situation throughout the state." Such is the announcement of the California Prosperity League through its organ "The Los Angeles Bee" of Nov. 4. Such an announcement amounts to a challenge to every voter in the city. It places a personal responsibility upon every man and woman, upon every voter, upon every person of influence. It is a call to arms.

For those interested in the success of the amendments it becomes a hand to hand contest not alone to cast a "yes" ballot for the amendments, but to prevail on others to cast a "yes" ballot. The biggest organized effort to convince and persuade others that has yet been planned will find expression tomorrow in a great "Dry" parade through the streets of Los Angeles.

COLORED CHURCHES ON TWELFTH STREET EAST OF SANTEE AT 2:00 O'CLOCK. The Colored churches and other organizations elevated to the interest of a sober California will gather at Santee street east on 12th to line up and join the monster sentiment making demonstration Saturday. Capt. Wm. Reynolds and aids, mounted, will direct the ranks of marchers and autos as well as float entries. Pennants and flags for the marchers may be procured at small expense at the meeting place. A committee is hard at work, not alone to stir folks up to join this parade, but to arrange as well the many details that will enable the Colored folk to make a creditable showing.

Most of the churches of the city are entering autos, some have planned floats. Thousands of men and women, as well as hundreds of boys and girls are planning to march. Nearby towns, as Pasadena and Venice, are interested and will help swell the section assigned the Race with floats and other entries.

Everyone intending to enter the parade should be in place not later than 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The parade is expected to make sentiment. It is expected to rope in the doubtful ones. It is expected to catch the support of those who follow the crowd, who "don't want to lose their vote by voting with the minority. These are the folks who hold the balance of power. Their vote controls the election. It is therefore the duty of every man, woman and child who wants California Dry to help swell the number and size of Saturday's parade.

Fight Not Ended Till Polls Close Tuesday Night

Saturday will not end the fight by any manner of means. Supt. R. D. Arline is urging every Sunday School teacher and superintendent, every pastor and every president of Young People's Societies to make Sunday's services rallies for the Prohibition amendments. Supt. Arline says, "Instruct the people how to vote." Deceivers are putting out traps and snares for the unwary. Some have insisted that to vote "No" on Amendments 1 and 2 is to vote against booze. Only a "yes" vote will accomplish this. Insist that your people understand to vote "Yes" on both Amendments.

Prosperity No Argument

Don't be misled. There is a difference between the prosperity of California and the success of the liquor industry. Don't let them tell you different. California's prosperity does not depend on the sale nor the manufacture of booze. If it did it would not be worth while. A vote for the amendments even if it should wipe out wealth, and it will not, is nevertheless a vote for solid, substantial, world wide prosperity. Don't put the dollars and cents involved in this either as taxes or investment above human lives, human happiness, the virtue of women and the souls of men. The dollar argument is in the last analysis as contemptible as the sale of one's heritage for a mess of pottage.

"Drys" Must Be Active Tuesday

Throughout the county no "Dry" should be idle Tuesday. It is not enough to mark your own ballot. Help get the "Dry" vote out. Fight till the polls close.

McCLELLAN ALL THE WAY

Strong indeed is the sentiment for R. F. McClellan for Supervisor in the Fourth district, and the voters thereof are lining up for him to such an extent that his election is almost a foregone conclusion. The Colored voters recognize in him a man who will give to all the people of his district a square deal and therefore on the West side at Watts, Santa Monica, Long eBach and Venice, they are rallying to his support.

One of the factors that is crystalizing the vote of the women for R. F. McClellan, candidate for Supervisor in the Fourth District, is his splendid record in theeir behalf. Because of his modesty, Mr. McClellan gives all the credit to his wife. The woman's club house at Sawtelle is a striking example and is one of the potent factors which makes Sawtelle and a large part of the surrounding country a unit for McClellan, who is making the fight for supervisor on his record as a gusiness man.

The women of the Fourth District are working hard to organize the district and as a result the combined effort on election day should mean a heavy vote for the Sawtelle man. The McClellan Campaign Committee is arranging for a series of meetings that will reach into every corner of the large district, and as a result of this activity, McClellan will be kept busy almost every minute between now and election day.

There is a sentiment strongly favoring the candidate in each of the Bay Cities. The result of the straw vote which was taken by the Santa Monica daily newspaper was a surprise to the opposition, as McClellan was shown to be running more than two to one against the present incumbent. While this is not taken as conclusive of the election day result, it is most encouraging to those who are working to bring out the vote for the man whom so many are confident will represent the Fourth District as supervisor.

PROMINENT IN CHURCH AND FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Memorial Address on the Life and Character of Fanny J. Johnson, Delivered in the Second Baptist Church, Friday November 3, 1916, by Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass

Mrs. Fannie J. Johnson
Pioneer Californian who Passed away Monday, Oct. 30.

The Funeral service was held from the Second Baptist Church Friday at 1:00 p.m. A great concourse attended the same. The following obituary was read:

My Dear Christian Friends:—It is with profound sorrow that I discharge this duty imposed upon me at this time, but it is meet and right that we should pause in the performance of the regular routine of our duties long enough to ponder the lessons of warning to be learned here at the side of our dead sister. The great demands of this modern busy life are of such that we sometimes run the risk of losing sight of the momentous consideration that life is but an atom in the wastes of time, while the future after life is an endless and enevitable certainty. It would be impossible for me to paint an elaborate word picture of the life of my late friend to whose memory we are devoting the present hour. No thoughts fixed in measured phrase or words set in mertrical array; naught we can say, can help or harm her. It is vain to attempt to lift the veil of that country yet undiscovered by those of us who remain here; and from which none ever yet returned. As we turn about and gaze upon the peaceful face here at our side and as we recall that in answer to our question, "Is it well with thee my sister?" there came back in whispered tones, "Jesus is with me." We realize that our lamentations, however loud, or our wailings, however plaintive, they cannot reach her, for she is at rest in the bosom of her GOD.

The life of our sister and friend was a busy and not uneventful one; her death not untimely but more than ordinarially sad. She was born at Austin, Texas, May 14, 1859, and spent her early childhood in the city of her nativity, where at the age of nineteen years, she was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. John and her brother, Lois Bean, to Mr. Isaac Johnson. As a progressive young man, Isaac Johnson caught the spirit of the New England Caravan, wending its way across the Rockies into the gold fields of California and he, too, joined in the parade and on the nineteenth day of May, 1887, with his loving wife by his side, started his career in Los Angeles which covers a period of twenty-nine years. Coming into California, where conditions were better and prosperity lurked in the very atmosphere, did not change or impair the fruedness or purpose in our sister. She did not turn away from her mothers faith which was Baptist, but immediately joined heart and hand with a little band of workers headed by Rev. C. H. Anderson who has preceded her but a few months into the Kingdom and who, I fancy, stood on the other side of JORDAN last Monday afternoon as sister Fanny beat back the waves of fear, and landed safely on the other side in Eden. Started on this very spot the erection of a little shanty which they called the Second Baptist church and which developed into this brick monument which I hope will last through the ages to the glory and honor of these early pioneers of this, our California. With her meagre opportunities for an all around education, sister Fanny Johnson was an exceptional character with a strong mentality and a convincing personality, she was ever loyal to truth and sacred to her profession of friendship, not only did she labor here starting as she did as teacher in the Sunday school, and advancing to the highest station offered her sex in the church, but likewise connected herself with every movement in the community that had for it's object UPLIFT.

She was one of the few remaining charter members of Household of Ruth, No. 561; also a charter member of Hill Temple, S. M. T., both of which organizations she loved dearly because as she often repeated, "We had a struggle to build them up to where they are". She often wanted to quote words or phrases touching on the sentiment of her orders, and it is not unlikely that when the last chapter of her life was nearing the end in the language of RUTH she no doubt whispered, "Entreat me not to leave thee or from following after thee for where thou goeth I go, thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

We should meet here at this time not to mourn, but rejoice for the life of sister Fanny Johnson will always be an inspiration to those of us who knew her. In her home life she was a model wife and mother, even though GOD entrusted to her care no child she could call her very own, her bosom swelled with the tender motherly love for those, who from time to time found shelter beneath her roof. To those who knew her and touched her inner life as friend to friend, realize the sterling qualities of this loved one who is now rejoicing with the angels on the other side. For forty years she was a devoted wife, and in touching upon the character of this noble woman, we would do even her an injustice if we fail to mention the tireless devotion of this husband, who is left here to mourn her loss. For forty years he has been an ardent lover and devoted husband, her desires were discovered before they were expressed. His own happiness seemed to depend entirely upon his ability to make her happy and in her last long seven months of illness the years of devotion between them seemed to wax stronger, he never grew weary administering unto her, and when the end came he cried as David to Absalom, "O Fanny, my wife, my loving wife, I would to GOD that I could die in your stead."

HENRY H. YOUNG FOR ASSEMBLYMAN

The many friends of Henry H. Young, former councilman of Los Angeles, are pleased to note the winning fight he is making for Assemblyman from the 63rd District. Mr. Young is a true and tried Republican of the square deal type and will be pleased to have his old friends remember him on the ballot ticket.

What the Churches are Doing

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

1354 Channing Street

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Mme. Lillian Jeter Davis, the brilliant elocutionist who appeared at this church, Oct. 27th, was at her best, and while she did not have such a large audience, it was indeed an appreciative one; success to this great woman.

The arrangements for the annual fair to be given Nov. 8th to 10th, by the ladies, are moveing along nicely; at which time we hope to realize a neat sum to be reported Sunday Nov. 12th; which has been set as our grand rally day; all of our sister churches are expected to assist us on that day; we are giving this as a general notice to all pastors and their congregations who can be with us on this day at 2.30 p. m.

Services Sunday, Nov. 5th. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. At the morning hour, Love feast and general class. Allen Christin Endeavor at 6.30 p. m. Preaching at 8 p. m., after which the Lord's Supper will be administered. All are welcome.

Second A.M.E. Church.

Rev. E. E. Johnson, Pastor

A grand concert will be given on Monday night, Nov. 13th, under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society of the Second A. M. E. Church, featuring George and Gladys Gatliff, the "little impersonators," supported by a strong cast of local talent in vocal and instrumental music. This is the first entertainment given by the Helping Hand, let us show our appreciation by a full house and a large social evening.

Don't forget the Rally for the mortgage debt on the last Sunday in November. Dr. J. Logan Craw will preach the Rally sermon at 3 p. m.

Remember this must be the banner year for the Second Church.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Elder Lewis C. Sheafe gave a practical and forceful sermon on "Perils of the Strong" at the morning service on last Sunday. Accompanied by Mrs. Sheafe he also sang some of his gospel songs to the delight of the audience.

At the evening service the pastor gave "Echos from the Association" recently held in Santa Ana.

The usual services next Sunday. Subject for the morning "Working Together." Evening "Christ's Message to the Ephesian Church."

Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Topic "Consecration of Social Life." 1 Cor. 9:19-23. Mrs. Carrie Baker leader. All are cordial invited.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On last Sunday both morning and evening the members of this church were agreeably entertained with two strong sermons from their Pastor, Rev. Latouche. It seems as though the recent news that he received last week, stating that he was now a father, and that his wife and little one were doing nicely gave him renewed strength and courage, and caused him to preach better.

The church had planned to give Bro Latouche a reception so that he could meet the public in general but at his request we will wait until his wife comes, and then have them together.

We are still planning to have a big time on Halloween, and will give prizes to the best masked, and most comical one, and welcome all to our church. On the second Sunday in November, we will give a Sacred Concert at our church, and invite the public to that also.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The pastor was absent on Sunday morning and Rev. F. L. Jones filled the pulpit, preaching a very interesting sermon, and one that was much enjoyed by the congregation.

The pastor was back at the helm Sunday night and preached to a very appreciative congregation.

The services of late have been highly spiritual and edifying to the pastor and congregation as also to the many visitors.

The pastor will administer Communion on Sunday, and as it is the first Communion service since the Conference the membership is expected out in large numbers.

Quite a few of the members are on the sick list this week, but we are trusting and praying that they will soon be able to fill their accustomed places in the church again.

The ladies of Board No. 2 gave a very delightful Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Jessie Bryant on Tuesday night. A very enjoyable time was had, and the ladies of the Board are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

The pastor will preach at both the morning and evening services Sunday, and the public is invited to attend.

The Epworth League meets every Sunday evening at 6:30 and is very helpful to all who avail themselves of the opportunity to attend.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Pastor Greggs continued his series of sermons on the great prophet Mlisha on last Sunday. His topic at the morning hour was "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than they that be with them." In the evening "Elisha Opens his servants eyes." Both sermons were fille with logic and practical illustrations extremely edifying to the large congregation. Ten accessions were made, two of whom were converts.

This church is fortunate in having a rare collection of active young people. The Young People's Advancement Club, an auxiliary of the church, is the largest of its kind in the city, and is doing real effective work.

The First Annual Conference of this church will convene in the auditorium of the Christian Church, corner 14th an Birch Sts, Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, 1916. Three night sessions will be held. Visitors will be welcome the first two nights. The last session, which will be on Thursday evening, will be open to members only.

This promises to be a very interesting conference, as the first year's work of this record-breaking church will be reviewed.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The Rev. D. R. Jones, pastor of First A. M. E. Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, graced our pulpit Sunday and delivered a splendid message at the morning service. And a real metropolitan congregation renowned for it's intense but dignified spirituality enjoyed the message as it was delivered. Dr. Jones is here on a visit with his accomplished family and will return to Salt Lake to resume his work and entertain the session of the Colorado Conference next September. The pastor preached at the evening service and there was one addition to the church in this meeting.

Communion service will be regularly observed Sunday. The pastor will preach at both services. A number of the new converts will be baptized at the altar at the morning services. This is the first Sunday in November. Everybody welcome to these services.

The young people of the Allen Endeavor Society will have a membership rally meeting in the auditorium of the church at six o'clock Sunday. A splendid program has been arranged for the benefit of the public. Mr. Paul Williams is the president and will be in charge of the same. All are invited.

The number of professional and railroad men that are finding their way to First Church every Sunday, together with the loyal membership and progressive young folk make, without doubt, the personnel of this growing church the most metropolitan congregation on the coast, and the pastor is delighted with the very healthy condition of every department of this great church. You are always welcome to attend.

With three violins, three cornets, one trombone and saxophone, the piano and pipe organ and splendid voices that make up the choir of First church under the direction of Prof. Bynum the public can always expect a song service out of the ordinary at the Sunday services. The Men's chorus last Sunday scored a decided and lasting impression. On Sunday night, Nov. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock sharp, the first grand sacred program of this Conference year will be rendered.

Don't forget the Biscuit concert Monday evening, November 6th. All are welcome.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, Pastor

Sunday, Nov. 5th, the Rev. B. C. Robeson, of Bayonne, New Jersey, the newly appointed pastor, will preach his first sermon since becoming pastor of the church. He is a graduate of theology from one of our Eastern seminaries and a pulpit orator of rare ability. He is a young man barely past his 30th birthday and a single man. He has the record of taking a church in New Jersey which was run down and had very few members to do with—they agreed to pay him a small sum weekly, as a monthly proposition was too big for that crowd—he agreed, and in 9 months he had added 113 new members. They then agreed to pay him a yearly salary commensurate with his ability. After the year was up they then promised to add another hundred dollars to his salary if he would stay the second year, but he decided to come West.

He has been up the coast in Oregon and Washington with Bishop Kyles organizing churches and missions.

He hopes to see all the children at Sunday School, as he wishes Zion to have the banner Sunday School of the city. Also he wants to see and meet all of Zion's members, both old and new. Come out early to be sure of getting a seat.

The Junior Choir is a new feature. It is worth half a day's trip to hear them. No other church in the city can boast of a Junior Choir, and a junior organist as well as a junior violinist.

The public is welcome.

Do you respect the opinions of these men?

All these men, labor leaders, educators, statesmen—men of great learning and large experience in world affairs—have declared themselves in favor of temperance but opposed to Prohibition.

They are not theorists, fanatics or faddists.

No one can say that they have been or can be influenced.

They have weighed the facts carefully before coming to a decision on this matter and all have decided against Prohibition.

Who opposes the opinions of these eminent men and declares them to be wrong?

first: A small band of paid reformers.

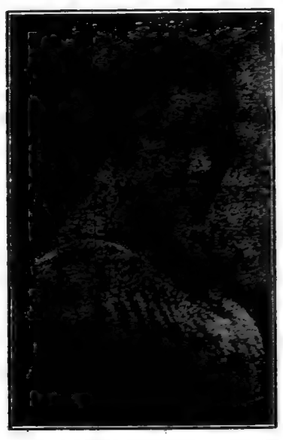
second: A number of professional politicians who advocate Prohibition for political purposes.

third: Sincere but mistaken people who are mislead by the promises and statements of the professional politicians and reformers.



Which deserves the greater consideration — the opinion of these eminent men, or the opinion of the prohibitionist?

If you were in doubt on some other great public question would you take the unanimous advice of these men or the advice of the prohibitionists who live in your neighborhood?

If you want information regarding any special phase of the prohibition question write to us and we will gladly answer your questions

A CALL TO THE WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES TO USE THE BALLOT AND NOT THE BULLET IN THEIR FIGHT FOR NATIONAL SUFFRAGE, THE NEW EMANCIPATION

A group of Illinois women, encouraged as they were, with the hope of this new emancipation offered to them by their state, and realizing the opportunities afforded them in their work of social service through the ballot, the only means, felt at once that they were in a position to co-operate with their sister workers having the same or partial rights in their effort to make national suffrage, a fact thereby giving to all women the power to use the ballot for the purpose of securing such legislation as will promote the advancement of all citizens of all sections of this country.

"Deeds, Not Words" is a motto much believed in by this group of earnest women and they set about the work of organiizng women of the "Old Northwest" and the "New Northwest" with these ideas in mind and at their first annual meeting this year, at Wichita, Kansas, adopted as their platform of principles, among other planks, a recommendation for a child labor law and one for universal suffrage, asking the nation parties which intended to make their appeal to the voting contingency for support, to incorporate these principles or their substance in their 1916 platforms.

This organization, the Northwestern Federation C. W. C., has been carefully watching the situation since that time and analyzing the pledges of the parties and their nominees, especially those of the Democratic and Republican parties, Woodrow Wilson and Charles Evans Hughes.

The Paramount issue, so far as women are concerned, is universal suffrage, for it will be through this source only that we can hope for such legislation as we have continually asked for, which will bring to us all the other progressive measures along social and economic lines and assure to the home and the community, the security and welfare of all the people all the time.

Universal suffrage will secure the child labor laws such as we have hoped for and worked for so long, therefore we want to stand by our platform and urge all the women to co-operate with the "Vote for Hughes" movement, inasmuch as Charles Evans Hughes has declared himself unreservedly for national suffrage.

It is true Woodrow Wilson has sponsored the child labor bill which was recently brought to Congress. It is true that he has given us an "Eight Hour Law." Such laws we have also looked forward to as a protection to our children and future men and women and a safeguard to the health and happiness of the breadwinner. But, when we analyze this legislation carefully, given us in the eleventh hour, presumably for the purpose of gaining "votes" for Wilson's election, surely for no other reason, we find he has very adroitly handed us "two gold bricks," which, if he were given a chance to fling with his adept English (which makes the performance of a contortionist pale into insignificance) into the marts of trade, would crush our childhood instead and make anarchists of our men of toil.

Again, I would refer to our sponsor of national suffrage, Charles Evans Hughes, because of his utterances on woman's suffrage and "preparedness in which we are so intensely interested. We are also as much interested in what he says about the tariff question because so much depends upon the situation in America after the war and we realize this rests largely with the man we make president and with Congress. We, therefore, quote a few interesting utterances of Mr. Hughes:

Woman Suffrage

"It seems to me that the question is a national one. There are certain qualifications for the suffrage which are fundamental and with respect to which we should not have varying laws throughout the land. There are other matters of qualification not so fundamental, as to which there may be varying laws and there have been, according to our practice. We have decided that the qualification with respect to color is fundamental. We have decided that the qualification with respect to race is fundamental. We tolerate no lack of uniformity, no variety of legislation on a matter so fundamental as race or color. I think the qualification with respect to sex is just as fundamental as it is to race or color."

Preparedness

"We are a peace-loving people, but we live in a world of arms. We have no thought of aggression, and we desire to pursue our democratic ideals without the wastes of strife. So devoted are we to these ideals, so intent upon our normal development, that I do not believe that there is the slightest danger of militarism in this country. Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security; it is a necessary safeguard of peace.

"We demand adequate national defense; adequate protection of both our Western and Eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service."

Tariff

"Our preparation must be industrial and economic as well as military. Our severest tests will come after the war is over. We must make a fair and wis readjustment of the tariff, in accordance with sound protective principle, to insure our economic independence and to maintain American standards of living.

"We must conserve the just interests of labor, realizing that in democracy patriotism and national strength must be rooted in even handed justice. In preventing as we must, unjust discriminations and monopolistic practices, we must still be zealous to assure the foundations of honest business."

Give us Hughes and Fairbanks and prosperity will be ours.

With one strong pull all together on next Tuesday and the victory is ours.

Don't forget to vote for Judges Craig and MacDonald for judges of the Superior Court.

We have kept the faith; and fought the best we know how and now await the glad tidings of victory on Tuesday next.

On the wet and dry issue we have given to both sides such space as they desired to present their claims and have left the question for the people to decide.

Although three well established Race journals are published in the second supervisorial district, candidate Mark Jones has seen fit to ignore them all, which he has a perfect right to do. But doing so does not indicate any real good feeling to the Colored voters, from our viewpoint.

Vote No on Amendment No. 6. It's all bunk about holding two offices. Men who are honest and who are elected to the Senate and Assembly must have resources far in excess of their salary. And we certainly think until that salary is made a living one, they are entitled to hold any honorable position which they can get.

Next Tuesday will tell the tale whether or not we are to endure another four years of retrogression or whether we are to have years of permanent prosperity. The case is now submitted to the people. We are hopeful of and verily believe, that verdict will be rendered by electing Charles Evan Hughes by an overwhelming majority and a like majority in both houses of Congress.

THEY ARE OFF!

Before The Eagle reaches its large family of readers again the result of the pending campaign will have been decided and the winners thereof. We have conscientiously labored for the success of the Republican standard bearer and have an abiding faith that Gov. Hughes and Fairbanks will be elected, also Gov. Hiram Johnson for the U. S. Senate, by an overwhelming majority, also Captain Henry Z. Osborne from the 10th Congressional district, and Hon. C. H. Randall from the Ninth Congressional district.

RANDALL FOR CONGRESS FROM THE NINTH DISTRICT

Colored voters throughout the Ninth will make no mistake in casting their vote for Congressman C. H. Randall to succeed himself. He has the Republican nomination, and his action in the last session in lining up against the Southern fire eaters in their effort to put in effect Jim Crow laws in the District of Columbia, eminently qualifies him as worthy of our united support. So go to the polls, take your friends, vote and work for the election of Mr. Randall. Don't let anybody fool you for one moment about the Independent candidate. We want one tried and true.

POLICE COMMISSION, WITH OUR NEW MAYOR WOODMAN, SETS A PREMIUM ON LAW BREAKERS

Greedily Accepts the Uncorroborated Evidence of Chinese Renegade Lottery Sharks, Hop Vendors, and Confessed Law Breakers to That of Honored and Reputable Citizens.—Officers Broady and White Have an Honorable Record.

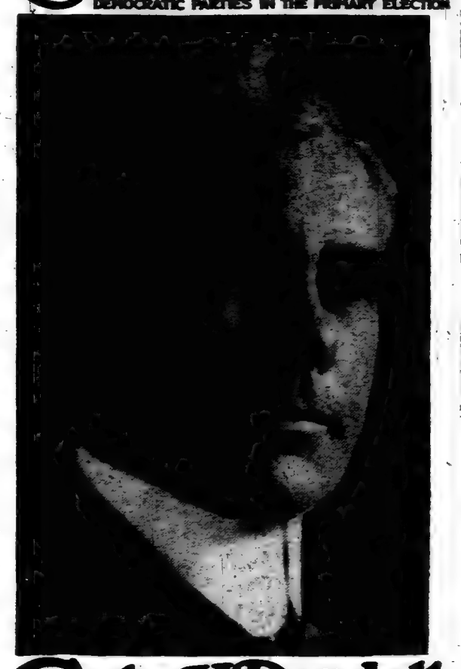
Notwithstanding the fact that the best forces of our citizenship, black and white, rallied to the support of Officers Broady and White in their recent hearing before the Police Commission, and notwithstanding there was no evidence produced against them except that which was given by renegade Chinese crooks and confessed law breakers, this police commission, if you please, sustained the charges and dismissed these officers from the force.

To say that the citizenry of Los Angeles who had kept track of this case and who knew the character of the evidence against these officers were ASTOUNDED is putting it mildly, and on all sides the action of the commission has been denounced.

We do not propose to question the commission's integrity in the premises, but we certainly criticize their judgment, as we sat and heard all of the testimony in this case and you could not get a jury from the swamps of Mississippi to bring in a verdict of guilty on such testimony as was produced in this case.

So with the advent of the present mayor the colored citizens who stand for law and order and common decency may know what to expect, that Negro employes need expect no quarters. They have set a premium on vice and lawlessness by their decision in this case.

To make good before the commission one must be a Chinese crook or confessed law breaker.



The old town is now at the mercy of the sharks and crooks; NO OFFICER, FOR FEAR OF THE FATE OF BROADY AND WHITE, will dare gain the enmity of the crooks or sharks or off will go their heads. Our mighty commission has set a precedent.

The Eagle asks no quarter from thi sgentry. We have no fear of the RECORD. Let the mighty officials quail and cringe in fear of this vile Negro baiting sheet, but we shall ever continue to stand for law and order and common decency, and shall to the utmost, stand by public officials who have the nerve and courage to wage war against vice and lawlessness.

The Record announced with ghoulish glee that the two colored cops were dismissed. This is a part of their propaganda, and this new administration has lined up with it.

And when the last colored officer is gone from the force we trust their appetite, along with that of those whose unlawful business they interfered with, will be appeased.

CONGRESSMAN CHAS. H. RANDALL PUTS THE OPPOSITION TO FLIGHT; MAKES WINNING FIGHT FOR RE-ELECTION

The voters of the Ninth Congressional district are lining up in a solid formation for the re-election of the Hon. Charles H. Randall in this district, and he will receive at the hands of the voters of this district a strong endorsement all along the line.

They are supporting him because he has made good, in other words, at all times he has stood for the people, he has stood uniformly for the protection of the industries of California and all of the other measures which have meant so much to the people. The following are some of the measures that claimed his vote and his support:

1. The Child Labor Act, which will rid the nation of the disgrace of child labor in mines and factories.
2. For the tax on products of war munition factories.
3. For an increase surtax on incomes.
4. For a tariffi on dye stuffs and for a stringent anti-dumping clause.
5. Introduced legislation on the subject of prohibition and secured favorable reports by committees on the same in the present Congress.
7. For the Rural Credits law, which will do more for the back-to-the-farm movement than any legislation of the past.
6. For increased pensions for widows of veterans of the Civil War, and for Spanish American widows; secured the passage of 11 special acts granting pensions.
8. For the immigration bill, which is really a model protective measure for American labor.
9. For the Federal Workmen's Compensation Act, which protects every employe and his dependent ones in every government position, high or low.
10. For the shipping bill, which is a long delayed effort to establish American commerce on the seas.

And many other measures has had his vote and support. Because we have a man like his who is eternally on the job for the interests of the great masses, they are lining up to give to him a vote of confidence of which he might well feel proud.

The many colored voters of the district are grateful to Mr. Randall for his stand on Jim Crow legislation introduced by the Southern fire-eaters during his service in Congress he has invariably voted against this legislation, and appreciating the same they are giving to him their united support on Nov. 7.

RICHARD H. NORTON
The Square Deal Supervisor, Candidate for Re-election 2nd Supervisorial District

There is no officer in Los Angeles who has done more to help men and women of our race to maintain their standing and self-respect in this community than has Supervisor Norton. Our own people who vote for him are certainly voting for a friend and not for a man who will not recognize them after election.

1 During the past 4 years he has actually saved to the taxpayers of Los Angeles more than $500,000 notably in the 1915 Committee, the County Farm, the Unemployed Camp and other enterprises.

2 Suggested and supervised the establishment of the Unemployed Camp and hopes to make it permanent, thus largely solving the unemployed problem.

3 Is opposed to the employment of aliens on public work when American citizens are vainly seeking employment.

4 Suggested and secured sick pay for mechanics, laborers and others paid by the day, giving them the same advantage as clerks, deputies and similar employes.

5 Introduced a resolution providing for prompt payment of mechanics and laborers when leaving County service.

6 Blocked the proposition to establish an age limit of fifty years for County employes.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

At her son's residence was held, on last Tuesday, a five-course dinner in honor of her fifty-sixth birthday anniversary. Mrs. C. H. Anderson entertained quite a number of friends and relatives on this enjoyable occasion. All wished her many more equally as happy birthdays as this one.

"HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL"

Among the functions of the past week that anticipated Hallowe'en with decoration typical of the season was a social given by the Stewardess Board of the First A. M. E. church. On entering the Sunday school room, a ghost sat on either side of the door. A jolly clown came to greet you and guide you safely past the ghost. You were then attracted by Mme. La Rue, the fortune teller, who, at one glance, could tell you all the past, present and future.

Mrs. Craw was truly queen of the carnival and Mrs. Lacky, daughter of Mother Goose, furnished everyone with peanuts, while Rev. Craw sold the pies and Mrs. Williams furnished the smiles.

MUSICALE LAST SUNDAY AT WILKINS' MUSIC SCHOOL

The spacious music rooms of the Wilkins Conservatory of Music were crowded last Sunday afternoon to witness the unusual program rendered by students and teachers of the school. Among the many visitors and prominent club women who pronounced the work a wonderful success, were Mrs. J. M. Scott, Mrs. Hugh Thompson, of San Diego; Mrs. Madge Kelly, Mrs. Campbell, Past Matron of Sojourner Truth; Mrs. Sonola Maxwell Reeves, and Mrs. Lillian Jeeter Davis, the prominent pianist, vocalist and reader, who read several of her masterly selections. Mrs. Davis with the rest pronounced Mr. Wilkins a wonderful teacher, and that our people should feel proud of such an undertaking, and should do all in their power to make this the greatest musical institution in the United States.

Among the latest additions to the teaching staff are Mr. Elmer Bartlett, piano and pipe organ; Mrs. Bessie Williams Domes, whose pupil, Master Marion Forsythe, proved her a great teacher in Sunday's program; Mr. Edward Atkinson, of Western University and pupil of Prof. Jackson, also pupil of Mme. Buckner. Mr. Johnnie Mitchell and his pupil(Mr. Wm. Dickinson, performed several brilliant violin duets. Mr. Wilkins delighted everybody with several of his compositions.

The crowd lingered late, partaking of the dainty refreshments and discussing the future possibilities of Mr. Wilkins and his Music School.

COMMITTEE—Robt. Ferris, L. D. Jackson, Lloyd White and T. J. Harris

The Hallowe'en entertainment given last Tuesday night, under the auspices of Fidelity Lodge, No. 10, was an exceptional affair. As we are lacking for a short word we will say it was very elaborately arranged. Much credit is due the committees in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Anderson have artistically arranged a high wall around their handsome residence on H street. The stairway is a beautiful piece of masonry. Mr. Johnson, the leading gardener of the city, has been busy the past week arranging magnificent alcoves. When completed will be a show place.

A WORD WITHOUT A THOUGHT

A woman is a woman at that, and all men that are born of a woman should strive to protect their good names. It is natural that a man will take advantage of her hospitality, he will also protect her from any man but himself, and when he uses their good name for immoral debates it is better that such a man had never been born. Should he still exist, the pit of the starving lions is too sweet a resting place for him.

On entering a place of amusement it is customary to take one's hat off. There are a great many who go to shows in this city, who forget to do the same.

Among the visitors to our city during the past week were Dr. Taylor and Attorney Wickliff, who have been enjoying the hospitalities of our citizens.

Dr. Kinchen was here for a few days. He does not stop long, but comes often.

Mrs. G. Thompson, of Coronado has spent several days in Los Angeles.

Mrs. McDonald was out to the Hallowe'en entertainment. She said she enjoyed herself very much, as she had been confined to her room for several days.

Mrs. E. Stephenson is becoming a very graceful dancer. Furthermore, she is inexpensive. She was asked to sign an agreement for 1917 for all the dances. She said it was not necessary if you attend the Gala Social Club.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hayden and Mr. S. Freeman were the guests of Mr. M A. Jones last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Jas. Goodman and Miss Minnie Cook were married recently at the Court House.

The Carnation Club gave a Hallowe'en entertainment at the parsonage. Several young men represented Charlie Chaplin and we are glad that Hallowe'en only comes once a year, as some of the acts were unapprovable to the community.

Mr. Henry Pickins has moved into his new residence, 620 South 33rd street. It was shristened with a birthday party for his 8-year-old son. Mr. Pickins is a chauffeur for one of the prominent families in Coronado.

Mr. B. C. Reese, chief red cap of San Diego, declined the honors of chairman of the Wet and Dry movement in favor of old appointees, Mr. E. M. Dauchey, Mr. Mendenhall and J. C. Kinzy, of Los Angeles, wishing them a warm success.

Mr. Will Johnson, of Johnson's Creole Band, who is playing the Pantages circuit at the Savoy this week here, was a pleasant caller at Nash's studio, where he obtained copies of Snakey and Florida Blues for his band. Mr. Nash renewed old acquaintances with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Morgan Prince.

Mr. H. A. Ross, of Los Angeles, was in the city for a few hours last week

A certain lady had a very expensive birthday party, but refused to tell her friend what she received or show them until he presented her with a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Eva Smith, one of the leading artists of the city, is very busy nowadays teaching painting. She is also receiving orders for Christmas paintings already, as her paintings are artistic and make a very handsome present for birthday, wedding or Christmas gift.

Mrs. M. T. Laws, owing to illness of body, will not be home for several days.

Mrs. Robert Brown, with two children, from Pasadena, spent the past week in the city and had a very enjoyable stay.

The big Silver Strand Handicap Ball will no doubt be the sensation of the season. Manager T. J. Harris is not leaving anything undone for the pleasure of the many music lovers. He has added four more pieces to his now famous body of musicians. Don't forget the date—Friday, Nov. 10, at Kastle Hall, 6th street between G and H.

Mr. Shirley Brock's baritone voice has caused many to wonder why he is not employed at the Savoy. He disturbed the Eagle staff when they were preparing the devil for the press.

There was a meeting of the Forum last Sunday. Although there were not many present, owing to the debate at the Stadium, on Nov. 5th the hall will be filled. Come out and hear the news.

Let us shy of new ideas. Who is this Noble Hill? Let us first find out more about him before we let him play or attempt to run the Forum. We had people before with odd names trying to get our people into wild-cat projects, which were good on paper and hot air when told, and thin tissue paper when carried out. So Sunday, Nov. 5, the question before the Forum will be how to vote intelligently. Bring your sample ballot and have or hear it read, but vote the way your conscience indicates. But above all, be sure you are right and then go ahead. Next meeting of Forum, Sunday, Nov. 5, at 3 p. m.

There are thousands of people still viewing the Exposition, and it will be open until Dec. 31. So those who have not had the opportunity of seeing it had better make haste and see the wonderful sight as well as hear the greatest organ in the world, and listen to the famous Italian Band under the leadership of Tommasino, the great leader with the little stick.

Mr. Will Collins, messenger for the Lower California Jockey Club, one of the busiest men in the city, is making arrangements for the grand opening on Nov. 11, of the Tia Juana races.

Assistant City Attorney Babcock, of Milwaukee, Wis., told the jitney drivers they were common carriers and under the law could not discriminate because of color.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE BALL

These are a few items picked up on the street:

Thas Miss Edith Thompson looked so sweet in that coming-out gown until her schoolmates dared to ask her for a dance.

The composer of a song was out looking for new ideas.

Did you hear the babies crying while their mothers danced?

Mrs. E. went in the hallway to powder when she could just as well have powdered in the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. did not take part in the dances, but they said they enjoyed it just the same.

Mrs. Mc says that she is going to vote dry, but she was not voting her sentiments.

Mr. M. had better keep Mrs. M. home, as she looked too much like "sweet sixteen."

East San Diego seems to be on the map of late, since the S. has tawen up their residence.

Out of the hundreds of people in the hall why did Mr. Gibbs pick on Mr. Law because he did not have on his full dress suit to match his. Did you hear how they squalled for a New York schottische when the band master rose and said the last dance was a one-step, a one-step.

AT SOJOURNER TRUTH CLUB HOUSE

Last Monday an excellent representation of the various clubs of Los Angeles and vicinity met at "The Home" in the regular reciprocity session.

Mrs E. R. Baldwin rendered an excellent report of the National Federations, and along with many other features of intense interest the day was befittingly spent.

REPUBLICAN SMOKER

The Wide-a-wake social and Progressive League, better known as the "Bears," was entertained with a smoker through the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houston, of 1936 Atlantic Street, on Monday evening, October 30th. Captain H. Z. Osborne and Mr. Chas. Demptsy spoke on local and national political issues. Mr. Bass, of The California Eagle spoke very interestingly on the necessity of combining our political forces in one direction. His talk was logical to the point and full of humorous hilarity, which was appreciated by all present.

STABS AT PROSE

By L. W. Rease,

511 Ceres Ave., Los Angeles.

Dear friend, I'm writing you,
without a doubt,
This dog-gone city needs a cleaning out.
We want all the privileges that's due us, O my!
Allow we to explain, and I'll tell
you why.
Let us vote in good officers, that
we think are true,
But I'm bound to acknowledge
it's a hard thing to do.
Don't listen to politicians who
tell you how to vote;
All they're trying to do is to get your support.
The people now are thinking
this town will go dry,
But I'm just figuring out a way
to get by.
It doesn't make any difference if they close every saloons,
My friend, you must consider,
all things have their doom.
This town should give us privilege to run a saloon of our own,
For we can make a living in a colored zone.
These fellows have opened their business on Main,
And catch every sucker that passes, in a sein.
Or stand in with these fellows, then you'll have a chance.
The way they make their money, they get it in advance.
This is the main thing we ought to revoke.
Be sure you do it, when you cast your vote.
If voting gave us liberty, then take a perfect stand.
It ought to give us recognition, as it does the other man.
We are American citizens, and it's hard for us to advance,
For the men we put in office take away our chance.
I believe in personal liberty to each and every man.
O, vote, and try to get it in this, our native land.
O, men, value your ballot, and be a perfect man,
And if we stand together, our right we can demand.
Have we a colored lawyer, will write a letter or note
That will teach and instruct us exactly how to vote?
Leaders don't think of dollars, or try to win on fame,
O, teach the common people, for you have been to blame.
All of you have erred, now come through with the dope;
We want your instruction before we go to vote.
I must close my letter; I am not a man of note,
But I have plenty of knowledge to instruct you how to vote.
O, the time is now approaching; come to me and get relief,
At the place that I am running. Enquire for L. W. Rease.

Editor of The Eagle:

Please give space in your widely circulated paper to speak of a grand surprise given me by the members and friends of the Second Baptist church at Long Beach. It was on Wednesday night, Oct. 18, at the newly modern built home of Mr. and Mrs. March, on California street.

Just after prayer meeting, Mrs. Nk Braxton and Mrs. McCalvey commanded that I go with them to this home, but they did not even hint to me the purpose of the visitthe visit. On reception to the place, or very soon thereafter, my chair was surrounded with many packages, etc. It was then that Mrs. A. M. Lucey informed me that these things were selected and presented to me for the comfort of myself and family.

O course the surprise was of such nature and magnitude that I found myself wanting in words to express my appreciation. Therefore I take this method of thanking the good people of this party and assure them that Mrs. Arline is made very happy.

After getting home, Mrs. Arline and myself were anxious to see what was contained in the packages. We found pillows, pillow cases, sheets, a very nice blanket quilt, a pair of large bath towels, house dress, big apron. Also we found rice, meat and potatoes, etc. A little cash, also.

The members of the party are Mrs. A. M. Lucy, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. N. Braxton, Mrs. McColey, Mrs. L. Countee, and Mrs. D. P. Brooks.

May the Lord bless these good a long and prosperous life is the people and that they may have wish of Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Arline.

Ladies, if your skin is dry and you are bothered with blackheads use Fletcher's Cream. Mrs. S. Cole regular demonstrator and agent. Fletcher's Cosmetics are the most refined on the market.

WATTS NEWS

Mrs. Blue, of Council Ave., who has spent nearly three months in Chattanooga, Tenn., is expected home soon.

Mrs. Fox is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Gill of Santa Barbara, came home last week.

Mother Garrad and daughter spent Monday in the city.

The Temperance lecture was a grand success.

Mrs. Gilliam, of Hollywood, is preparing to become one of us. She is moving on Villa Ave.

The Beeks family are quite proud over the fact that their boy carried off the prize in the baby contest at the Day Nursery on Channing Street.

Mrs. Weaver, on Ramshner Ave. has everything to encourage her in her music studio. She is securing many pupils.

The Halloween and Tackey party was something up-to-date in every respect. Mrs. Sanders and friends, of Long Beach, deserve special praise for their efforts in making it so grand a success. If more of us would only put forth a like effort in our Church work we would certainly win many more souls for Christ.

Mr. Samuel Steward is surprising his neighbors in the way he is beautifying his home property.

Mr. Fletcher, of the dye works, is quite ill.

Mrs. Ward, sister of Mrs. Balding, of Gardena, has returned to Oxnard.

If the feeling created at the meeting Sunday relative to shunning the first glass was carried to a conclusion, everybody would be fighting this great wrong and enthusiastically waving the "dry" flag.

Mr. Samuel Steward, with many others, joined in the repast of the Odd Fellows of Los Angeles last week, riding the goat and other acts denoting true brotherhood, partaking of chicken, duck, and the many latest delicacies of the season.

Rev. Washington is standing and pointing the way by opening the church doors for a three week's revival.

We are sorry to report the loss to this community of one of our oldest citizens and influential church workers, Miss Willie Taylor.

MONROVIA, CAL.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Second Baptist Church gave a rally Sunday afternoon. An excellent program was rendered by delegates from Los Angeles and Venice.

A spook social was given at the residence of Mrs. Bonner, Tuesday evening. A prize was awarded to Mrs. Elmira Enge, and Mrs. Jessie Kinzy.

Mr. Frank Etter left Tuesday for his home in Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Burleson of C press St. met with a very painful accident on last Friday, when a huge plough fell upon his foot, crushing it very badly. Mr. Burleson is confined to his home.

BAKERSFIELD

Miss Marie Jones is expected to visit Mrs. L. Banks and Mrs. Winters soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warn are the happy parents of a bouncing eight pound girl. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely and receiving congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Washington, after a years stay in Los Angeles, have returned to their home in this city to the delight of their friends. Mr. Washington has resumed his tailoring business in the Winter's Block, and is doing a rushing business.

Miss Antonette Young who is spending the winter with the Winters will appear soon in recital. The many friends of Miss Young, of Los Angeles, will be pleased to know that she is doing nicely in the Oil City, attending school, and progressing nicely with her music.

Miss Vera Young, one of Bakersfield's most beautiful girls, the neice of Mrs. B. G. Russell was happily married to Mr. Floyd Henderson of Berkley this month.

Mr. Henderson is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Henderson and an architect of no mean ability, and a progressive young man.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson wish for them a happy matrimonial voyage.

Mrs. B. G. Russell, after a three months stay in Los Angeles returned to her home in this city last week.

Mr. J. J. Pinkney has opened a neatly arranged grocery in the Winter Block.

Mr. Henry Houston, whose barber shop is in the Winters Block has remodeled his shop, adding many attractive features. Congratulations Mr. Houston.

Mrs. Hunter is doing nicely with her cafe. Also Mr. Davy deserves mention.

We are pleased to notice a fairly good representation in the K. C. High School this term. Among them are: Mrs. A. Young; Miss Hall, of Allensworth; Miss Small, Mr. Small, Mr. Davis, and Mrs. Winters, who is specializing in music, sewing and typewriting.

SAN BERNARDINO

San Bernardino is on the map.

The Rev. Redd has put new life into the A. M. E. Church. Officers have been elected for all departments and the people are taking hold of the work with a will.

Mrs. C. R. Curtis entertained the W. M. M. S. Friday afternoon It is said that the ladies were delighted.

Mrs. W. T. Hendery's Halloween social and supper for the church was one of the grandest successes of the season, and netted a neat sum for her efforts.

Mr. J. E. Muckelroy is remodeling his home on West 6th St.

The A. M. E. parsonage has been remodeled and papered, so it is now one of the best in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wagner and Mrs. S. E. Jackson were over from Redlands seeing friends. It has been fifteen years since Mr. Wagner and the Rev. Redd have met, hence the pleasure was great.

Mrs. Indiana Dobbs, of Riverside, spent Sunday in this city.

There are a number of places here open for both men and women. Elder Redd says that he can place a number, as there seems to be a demand for our people.

Oscar A. Peterson, of New York, passed away Sunday leaving a wife and three children. Rev. Redd officiated at the funeral from the Stevanson parlors.

You may watch San Bernardino grow, and keep abreast with the doings of this city, but to do so you will need to take the EAGLE.

The Merchants Auto Truck Co. is owned by two of our young men. They have two autos running from this city to Los Angeles, making daily trips, and are having more than they can do. Messrs Ingbarns and Montgomery deserve great credit for their enterprise in having the only line.

There are more of our people at work in San Bernardino than in any other city in California of its size.

The Church was largely attended Sunday, both morning and evening, to hear Rev. Redd preach two able sermons.

Alpine Chapter No. 1, O.E.S. meets first and third Wednesday afternoons at 2 o'clock at the hall, 1824 1-2 Central avenue.

If you want a District Attorney who will discriminate against you — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will "frame up" against you—DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who favors discrimination and all its attendant evils — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who in campaign times will smile in your face, pat you on the back and tell you what a good fellow you are, and at other times tell his friends how contemptible he believes you to be and how cheaply you can be bought—then DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will slander your women and belittle their virtue — DON'T vote for HELMS.

BUT!!

If you want to elect A REAL MAN to the office of District Attorney — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the office of District Attorney filled by a Christian Gentleman — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to get the same square deal, with equal treatment and opportunity, as the other fellow — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to elect a man who regards your rights as sacred as that of any other man's — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the laws enforced, with even-handed justice to all—VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

GEORGE CLARK STRONG CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

George Clark, a well known lawyer of Los Angeles, is a candidate for Representative in Congress, Tenth District, for the short term. Mr. Clark has been engaged in the practice of law in Los Angeles for the past ten years and is being urged to accept the candidacy by a large number of business and protessional men who are now supporting him for this office.

Mr. Clark is a real Republican supporting Mr. Hughes and working for the best interests of Southern California. He is in hopes of obtaining a large appropriation for the harbor at San Pedro and will carry on the unfinished work of former Congressman William D. Stephens, resigned.

As there are no names printed on the ballot for the short term it is necessary to write in the name of George Clark.

Send a real Republican to Congress to support the Republican administration by writing in the name of George Clark on the ballot.

TRIBUTE TO REV. W. J. J. BYERS, FORMER PASTOR OF A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

(Special to The Eagle by W. L. Gordon.)

The A. M. E. Zion church was filled to capacity last Wednesday evening to participate with Rev. W. J. J. Byers and his wife in a farewell reception, and to give testimony as to his worth as a minister, citizen, social worker and upbuilder during his five and one-half years in this community. Doctors, lawyers, scholars, divines, editors, business men, and wealthy and worthy citizens of both sexes vied with each other in making this reception a long to be remembered and successful one. A monstrous success it was—the biggest Zion ever held—it was the general verdict. Rev. and Mrs. Byers were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. The tributes were many and beautifully told. One attorney's address was the keynote speech of the evening, and was acknowledged by common consent. He said: "Rev. Byers was ever to the front in all things essential to the welfare of the race and he gave himself unsparingly and unstintedly, and if Los Angeles had a dozen more preachers or men just as he is, Los Angeles, in as many years, would be so uplifted that a black skin instead of being a badge of scorn and humiliation, the wearer would be honored and respected throughout the entire city, and if it had not been Rev. Byers' request to go, the people of Los Angeles would have stormed the conference with protests demanding his retention, and would not have stopped until they had attained success in their efforts."

The Rev. Byers' response was both eloquent and inspiring—so short; so pointed—a glaring success without effort. A climax so pronounced as only good and honest characters are capable of. A proverb says: "Only good men can be great orators."

His response attested his character. Rev. and Mrs. Byers left the next day (Thursday) for his new field for service, which is San Jose, Calif. His fellow-members, friends and well-wishers regret his departure, but wish him large success in his work.

Dr. Prowd, of the Second Baptist church, said that "San Jose would soon know that Byers was in town when he got there."

The Rev. B. C. Robeson, of Bayonne, New Jersey, will succeed him as pastor, and will preach his first regular sermon Sunday morning, November 5, 1916, at 11 o'clock. He is a graduate theologian, unmarried and quite a young man, but old in experience and the work. A worthy successor.

DISCRIMINATION SUIT AT THE BEACH

In the justice court of Santa Monica another discrimination suit was tried on Wednesday, Nov. 1st. Mrs. J. Columbus and daughter attended the La Petite theater on Ocean Front Ave., Ocean Park, Aug. 14, this year. As they were about to take seats on the main floor, the usher intercepted them, and told them that the balcony had been reserved for Colored people. Mrs. Columbus immediately demanded a return of her money and resented the insult. A short time after, Mrs. Columbus brought suit against the theater company. The theater denied the allegation in every particular. At the end of the trial the justice took the case under consideration and is expected to render a decision within ten days. Justice Shannon of Sawtelle presided. Attorney E. Burton Ceruti represented Mrs. Columbus.

A NEW TONSORIAL PARLOR OPENS ON CENTRAL AVENUE

The Angelus is the name of a new strictly up to date tonsorial parlor which will throw open its doors to the public on next Wednesday, the same is being opened by Mr. B. F. Anderson, who is a son of the late Rev. C. H. Anderson.

Mr. Anderson is sparing no pains to make this shop a high credit and for that reason is putting in a strictly modern shop. He will also carry in connection with the same a first class line of cigars and tobaccos, also a first class shining parlor.

The Angelus will be run as a strictly first class shop and will strive to please the most exacting.

Mr. Anderson having been reared here and having been prominent in church and political circles, has a host of friends who congratulate him on his new venture and will give to him a hearty support.

On another page and at the head of your editorial page, is our ticket. Add to that ticket the names of Judge R. W. MacDonald for Superior Judge and Gavin Craig. You won't go wrong.

CANEPA FOR THE ASSEMBLY

For a live and wide awake member of the senate, one who will look after the interests of all the people, there is no one that deserves a more hearty support than Victor J. Canepa for State Senator from the 18th district. The colored voters of this district, which lies in San Francisco, will give him a hearty support.

Captain H. V. Batie, 1118 East Pico Street, an old resident of Los Angeles, and a very useful worker in the community, was called to rest on last Sunday afternoon. The funeral took place at First A. M. E. Church, Friday morning at 11 o'clock, a.m.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY VISITS ARIZONA

Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth is back in town after a two weeks' trip to Arizona, during which time he spent ten consecutive days in examining the mining property of the Comobabi Mines Company, 67 miles southwest from Tucson, Arizona, in the Comobabi Mountains, Pima County, Arizona. Mr. Macbeth reports that the nine square miles of mining property which he personally traversed and inspected are teeming with copper and silver ore with occasional good values in gold. He reports further that after a careful estimate of the vein matter in the uplifts or hills of the district occupied by the Comobabi Mines Company, at least $150,000,000 worth of silver, copper and gold ore are within working reach. On last Monday evening at the People's Auditorium Mr. Macbeth gave a very instructive, illuminating and detailed report of his trip and of the immediate plans of the Comobabi Mines Company for the development of this great mining property.

Mr. Macbeth will appear before the Ministerial Alliance on next Tuesday morning, November 7th, to give the ministers of Los Angeles an account of his trip and of his observations of the mineralogical history of the wonderfully rich Comobabi mining district. In addition Mr. Macbeth informed the representative of this paper that he is preparing a special detailed newspaper report of his trip and his ten days of observation in the Comobabi Mountains which report will appear in these columns in the very near future.

SUPERVISOR R. H. NORTON

Is and Always Has Been A Staunch Friend of the Colored People.

The Colored voters of the Second Supervisorial District cannot afford to be misled and fail to support Richard H. Norton in the pending campaign, for the very good reason that Mr. Norton, above all others, has always stood for a square deal for the Colored people, and as one of the board of five he has stood by those who are in the employ of the county to the utmost.

Colored County Employes.

He has been instrumental in having more put on the pay roll of the county than any other one man. And when the agitator was up to replace them in the Hall of Records he discountenanced the same and stood by the Colored employes.

Put Colored Women in Hospital.

He was instrumental in having Colored women employees at the County hospital and for more than two years such women as Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass designated were employed there, and they are there to this day, having now been transferred to the Civil Service Department of the county.

In all matters that have come up from time to time he has seen to it that the Colored citizens have had a square deal.

Gives Insurance to Colored Firm.

When the Insurance for county buildings was given out he gave recognition to the Colored people by placing $25,000 of the county's insurance with Colored firms; the Sidney P. Dones Company and others.

Facts Louder Than Words.

So the proof of the pudding is the tasting. A man who has done all of this, we have every reason to believe will continue in giving to us a fair and square deal, and that we can even expect better thangs in the future.

Has No Interlopers.

He is not importing anybody from another district to brazenly claim that they can line up the Colored vote for him, but trusts to the intelligence of the voters themselves of the 22nd district to stay by a man who has stood for them.

And we, the Colored Campaign Committee for R. H. Norton, urge upon all the Colored voters to give to him their undivided support at the polls on November 7th.

Colored Inspectors, Judges and Clerks.

In the matter of recognition of the Colored voters as judges and clerks of election, Supervisor Norton has gone further in that direction than any other official in the whole United States. In all precincts of his district, where there are any Colored voters to speak of, they have representation, and in their own precincts they are composed almost wholly of members of the Race.

Can the Colored voters afford to fail in their support of such a man? We hardly think so.

A great need of the Colored people is a mountain sanatorium for consumptives. Last spring a committee of prominent Colored citizens called on Supervisor Norton and explained our needs. He at once got busy and took the committee in an automobile and they inspected a site of six acres that would make an ideal site for such an nstitution. And Mr. Norton arranged that it could be leased from the government at a nominal rate whenever our people are ready and have the funds to start the movement.

WARNS VOTERS NOT TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Republican Advisory Committee in Message to Country Turns Searchlight on Wilson's "Jim Crow Policy."

CONTROLLED BY BOURBON SOUTH

Says No Man Since Emancipation Has Done So Much to Divide Nation and to Eliminate the Colored Race at the President.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Committee of Colored Citizens selected from the country at large as Advisory to the Republican National Committee having met this day in New York City and desiring to express to the Colored voters of the country the necessity for supporting the Republican party candidates for President, Vice-President, Senate and House of Representatives addresses this letter to the 700,000 Colored voters and the thousands of potential voters whose duty it is to register in order that they may perform their duty to the country in this National crisis.

This is the Presidential year. The time has come to hold the Wilson Administration and the Democratic party to a "strict accountability." Are you ready for the fight? Or do you desire four years more of what the New York World calls the "Jim Crow Government at Washington?" No campaign since that for the second election of Abraham Lincoln has been more vital to the liberty and happiness of the 10,000,000 of Colored citizens than is the present campaign for the election of Charles Evan Hughes for President, and a Republican Congress.

Four years ago a considerable number of the Race helped elect a Democratic Prsident. This was done under fair promises of just treatment, "not grudgingly given but in generous fashion." The result has shown the experiment to have been the utmost political folly and race-suicide, and has shown that the Democratic party cannot be trusted to deal fairly with our Race in this country. The votes of the men of Color for the Democratic candidates for President were obtained by fine phrases and false pretenses. No sooner had the Democratic administration come into power than Mr. Wilson and his advisors entered upon a policy to eliminate all Colored citizens from representation in the Federal Government.

The offices of Assistant Attorney General, Recorder of Deeds, Register of the U. S. Treasury, Auditor for the Navy, Minister to Hayti, Collectorships of Internal Revenue in New York, Florida, and Hawaii, were vacated and filled by white Democrats. There were no "deserving Colored Democrats" to be found in the country. Not only did the administration proceed to demote in and eliminate the Colored man from the Civil Service of the United States by scores, and to segregate those remaining in the service, but also to make impossible further appointments by requiring the Race of the applicant to be shown by his photograph.

The reason assigned by the administration for its politics has been that "Southern people not stand for Presidential appointments of Colored men to office" and "that segregation was for the benefit of humanity." The administration was "too proud to fight" Mexica, but did not hesitate to conquer the Black Republics of Hayti and Santo Domingo, and has practically established protectorates over them. There was one policy of international justice for Mexico and another one towards the Colored Republics of the South of us. The President has expressed himself as in sympathy with the "enslaved men and women of Mexico," but has found no words of sympathy for the Colord citizens of America. "The New Freedom" does not include the Colored man. "Humanity," for which the President has expressed such great love, does not include the colored race. The President said in a notable address that "the man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, and interest from interest is striking at the very heart of America." No man has done so much since Emancipation to so separate and divide the Nation into groups, and to eliminate the colored race as a representative group of Americans, as has the President himself.

Colored men, we must arise! Those who vote and those entitled to vote must strike for their liberties. This is a campaign for the restoration of the rights, privileges and immunities that we have heretofore enjoyed under the Republican Administration of the National Government. Four years more of President Wilson will mean our complete elimination from American politics. We submit that the man who is ready to die for his country at Carrizal is fit to serve his country at Washington; and that the man who is fit to be buried in the National Cemetery at Arlington, is fit to serve his country in the Capitol of the Nation."

The Republican candidate for President, Chas. Evans Hughes, has shown himself to be a man of highest character and of absolute sincerity in his devotion to the cause of liberty, justice and humanity, and when he is elected President of the United States, we may confidently expect from him a square deal and complete protection in all our sacred rights as citizens, and the full enjoyment of the opportunities to which we are justly entitled, under the Constitution and Laws of our country.

VOTE "NO" ON AMENDMENT NO. 6, NOV. 7

You need Henry H. Lyon in the State Senate. He knows what is needed in the way of legislation. He introduced and put through the State Senate more measures that tend to better the conditions of the men, women and children who labor, than all other Senators combined.

Eight-Hour Law for Women, Child Labor, Free Employment Bureau, Payment of Wages, Regulation of Private Employment Agencies, Time Check Law, Prohibits Employers and Managers from Accepting Gratuities, Amended Minimum Wage Law, False Representations in Employment of Labor, and many other less important measures.

When he goes to the Legislature he takes a leave of absence from the State Labor Commissioners' office, as Deputy Labor Commissioner, without pay, and his experience in that office teaches him what is needed.

Frank H. Mouser, member of the Assembly, also takes a leave of absence, without pay, from the Motor Vehicle Department as inspector.

He wrote and introduced the Motor Vehicle Act and Semi-monthly Pay Day Law in the Legislature and voted for all of the measures and handled most of them that were introduced by Senator Lyon.

Are you going to stop such men as these from going to the Legislature? Vote "NO" Amendment No. 6.

LEO R. FREIDMAN FOR THE ASSEMBLY

Leo R. Freidman is candidate for the assembly from the 33rd district in the city of San Francisco, and will receive a hearty support from the people of all classes. The colored people recognize in him a friend and that he is a chip of the old block as his father, Ralph Freidman for many years has demonstrated his friendship for this people.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2, 1916.
To the People of Los Angeles County:

I have personally known Judge Robert W. McDonald as a lawyer and a public official in this county for years, and every man and woman of the County of Los Angeles who reveres honesty and integrity in a public official, and especially in those whose duty it is to justly determine the rights of persons, should support this man and vote for him, as one of our Judges of the Superior Court of this County. He will not distinguish between people, nor allow the civil rights of the citizen to be annulled.

I have faith in his honesty of purpose and am requesting my personal friends to support him vigorously. Give him your vote and elect him Judge of the Superior Court.

FRANK W. ALLENDER.

PROHIBITION AND PROSPERITY UP TO NEGRO VOTERS

Dr. R. D. Arline, Superintendent of Colored Division of Dry Federation Presents Timely Proposition to Our People for Settlement.

"The fate of prohibition at next week's election hangs on the vote in Los Angeles county, according to prognostigators at the Capital who have been sizing up the situation throughout the state." Such is the announcement of the California Prosperity League through its organ "The Los Angeles Bee" of Nov. 4. Such an announcement amounts to a challenge to every voter in the city. It places a personal responsibility upon every man and woman, upon every voter, upon every person of influence. It is a call to arms.

For those interested in the success of the amendments it becomes a hand to hand contest not alone to cast a "yes" ballot for the amendments, but to prevail on others to cast a "yes" ballot. The biggest organized effort to convince and persuade others that has yet been planned will find expression tomorrow in a great "Dry" parade through the streets of Los Angeles.

COLORED CHURCHES ON TWELFTH STREET EAST OF SANTEE AT 2:00 O'CLOCK. The Colored churches and other organizations elevated to the interest of a sober California will gather at Santee street east on 12th to line up and join the monster sentiment making demonstration Saturday. Capt. Wm. Reynolds and aids, mounted, will direct the ranks of marchers and autos as well as float entries. Pennants and flags for the marchers may be procured at small expense at the meeting place. A committee is hard at work, not alone to stir folks up to join this parade, but to arrange as well the many details that will enable the Colored folk to make a creditable showing.

Most of the churches of the city are entering autos, some have planned floats. Thousands of men and women, as well as hundreds of boys and girls are planning to march. Nearby towns, as Pasadena and Venice, are interested and will help swell the section assigned the Race with floats and other entries.

Everyone intending to enter the parade should be in place not later than 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The parade is expected to make sentiment. It is expected to rope in the doubtful ones. It is expected to cinch the support of those who follow the crowd, who "don't want to lose their vote by voting with the minority. These are the folks who hold the balance of power. Their vote controls the election. It is therefore the duty of every man, woman and child who wants California Dry to help swell the number and size of Saturday's parade.

Fight Not Ended Till Polls Close Tuesday Night

Saturday will not end the fight by any manner of means. Supt. R. D. Arline is urging every Sunday School teacher and superintendent, every pastor and every president of Young People's Societies to make Sunday's services rallies for the Prohibition amendments. Supt. Arline says, "Instruct the people how to vote." Deceivers are putting out traps and snares for the unwary. Some have insisted that to vote "No" on Amendments 1 and 2 is to vote against booze. Only a "yes" vote will accomplish this. Insist that your people understand to vote "Yes" on both Amendments.

Prosperity No Argument

Don't be misled. There is a difference between the prosperity of California and the success of the liquor industry. Don't let them tell you different. California's prosperity does not depend on the sale nor the manufacture of booze. If it did it would not be worth while. A vote for the amendments even if it should wipe out wealth, and it will not, is nevertheless a vote for solid, substantial, worth while prosperity. Don't put the dollars and cents involved in this either as taxes or investment above human lives, human happiness, the virtue of women and the souls of men. The dollar argument is in the last analysis as contemptible as the sale of one's heritage for a mess of pottage.

"Drys" Must Be Active Tuesday

Throughout the county no "Dry" should be idle Tuesday. It is not enough to mark your own ballot. Help get the "Dry" vote out. Fight till the polls close.

McCLELLAN ALL THE WAY

Strong indeed is the sentiment for R. F. McClellan for Supervisor n the Fourth district, and the voters thereof are lining up for him to such an extent that his election is almost a foregone conclusion. The Colored voters recognize in him a man who will give to all the people of his district a square deal and therefore on the West side at Watts, Santa Monica, Long eBach and Venice, they are rallying to his support.

One of the factors that is crystalizing the vote of the women for R. F. McClellan, candidate for Supervisor in the Fourth District, is his splendid record in theeir behalf. Because of his modesty, Mr. McClellan gives all the credit to his wife. The woman's club house at Sawtelle is a striking example and is one of the potent factors which makes Sawtelle and a large part of the surrounding country a unit for McClellan, who is making the fight for supervisor on his record as a gusiness man.

The women of the Fourth District are working hard to organize the district and as a result the combined effort on election day should mean a heavy vote for the Sawtelle man. The McClellan Campaign Committee is arranging for a series of meetings that will reach into every corner of the large district, and as a result of this activity, McClellan will be kept busy almost every minute between now and election day.

There is a sentiment strongly favoring the candidate in each of the Bay Cities. The result of the straw vote which was taken by the Santa Monica daily newspaper was a surprise to the opposition, as McClellan was shown to be running more than two to one against the present incumbent. While this is not taken as conclusive of the election day result, it is most encouraging to those who are working to bring out the vote for the man whom so many are confident will represent the Fourth District as supervisor.

PROMINENT IN CHURCH AND FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Memorial Address on the Life and Character of Fanny J. Johnson, Delivered in the Second Baptist Church, Friday November 3, 1916, by Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass

Mrs. Fannie J. Johnson Pioneer Californian who Passed away Monday, Oct. 30.

The Funeral service was held from the Second Baptist Church Friday at 1:00 p.m. A great concourse attended the same. The following obituary was read:

My Dear Christian Friends:—It is with profound sorrow that I discharge this duty imposed upon me at this time, but it is meet and right that we should pause in the performance of the regular routine of our duties long enough to ponder the lessons of warning to be learned here at the side of our dead sister. The great demands of this modern busy life are of such that we sometimes run the risk of losing sight of the momentous consideration that life is but an atom in the wastes of time, while the future after life is an endless and enevitable certainty. It would be impossible for me to paint an elaborate word picture of the life of my late friend to whose memory we are devoting the present hour. No thoughts fixed in measured phrase or words set in mertrical array; naught we can say, can help or harm her. It is vain to attempt to lift the veil of that country yet undiscovered by those of us who remain here; and from which none ever yet returned. As we turn about and gaze upon the peaceful face here at our side and as we recall that in answer to our question, "Is it well with thee my sister?" there came back in whispered tones, "Jesus is with me." We realize that our lamentations, however loud, or our wailings, however plaintive, they cannot reach her, for she is at rest in the bosom of her GOD.

The life of our sister and friend was a busy and not uneventful one; her death not untimely but more than ordinarially sad. She was born at Austin, Texas, May 14, 1859, and spent her early childhood in the city of her nativity, where at the age of nineteen years, she was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. John and her brother, Lois Bean, to Mr. Isaac Johnson. As a progressive young man, Isaac Johnson caught the spirit of the New England Carava, wending its way across the Rockies into the gold fields of California and he, too, joined in the parade and on the nineteenth day of May, 1887, with his loving wife by his side, started his career in Los Angeles which covers a period of twenty-nine years. Coming into California, where conditions were better and prosperity lurked in the very atmosphere, did not change or impair the fixedness or purpose in our sister. She did not turn away from her mothers faith which was Baptist, but immediately joined heart and hand with a little band of workers headed by Rev. C. H. Anderson who has preceded her but a few months into the Kingdom and who, I fancy, stood on the other side of JORDAN last Monday afternoon as sister Fanny beat back the waves of fear, and landed safely on the other side in Eden. Started on this very spot the erection of a little shanty which they called the Second Baptist church and which developed into this brick monument which I hope will last through the ages to the glory and honor of these early pioneers of this, our California. With her meagre opportunities for an all around education, sister Fanny Johnson was an exceptional character with a strong mentality and a convincing personality, she was ever loyal to truth and sacred to her profession of friendship, not only did she labor here starting as she did as teacher in the Sunday school, and advancing to the highest station offered her sex in the church, but likewise connected herself with every movement in the community that had for it's object UPLIFT.

She was one of the few remaining charter members of Household of Ruth, No. 561; also a charter member of Hill Temple, S. M. T., both of which organizations she loved dearly because as she often repeated, "We had a struggle to build them up to where they are". She often wanted to quote words or phrases touching on the sentiment of her orders, and it is not unlikely that when the last chapter of her life was nearing the end in the language of RUTH she no doubt whispered, "Entreat me not to leave thee or from following after thee for where thou goeth I go, thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

We should meet here at this time not to mourn, but rejoice for the life of sister Fanny Johnson will always be an inspiration to those of us who knew her. In her home life she was a model wife and mother, even though GOD entrusted to her care no child she could call her very own, her bosom swelled with the tender motherly love for those, who from time to time found shelter beneath her roof. To those who knew her and touched her inner life as friend to friend, realize the sterling qualities of this loved one who is now rejoicing with the angels on the other side. For forty years she was a devoted wife, and in touching upon the character of this noble woman, we would do even her an injustice if we fail to mention the tireless devotion of this husband, who is left here to mourn her loss. For forty years he has been an ardent lover and devoted husband, her desires were discovered before they were expressed. His own happiness seemed to depend entirely upon his ability to make her happy and in her last long seven months of illness the years of devotion between them seemed to wax stronger, he never grew weary administering unto her, and when the end came he cried as David to Absolem, "O Fanny, my wife, my loving wife, I would to GOD that I could die in your stead."

HENRY H. YONKIN FOR ASSEMBLYMAN

The many friends of Henry H. Yonkin, former councilman of Los Angeles, are pleased to note the winning fight he is making for Assemblyman from the 73rd District. Mr. Yonkin is a true and tried Republican of the square deal type and will be pleased to have his old friends remember him in his present contest.

What the Churches are Doing

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

1354 Channing Street

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Mme. Lillian Jeter Davis, the brilliant elocutionist who appeared at this church, Oct. 27th, was at her best, and while she did not have such a large audience, it was indeed an appreciative one; success to this great woman.

The arrangements for the annual fair to be given Nov. 8th to 10th, by the ladies, are moveing along nicely; at which time we hope to realize a neat sum to be reported Sunday Nov. 12th; which has been set as our grand rally day; all of our sister churches are expected to assist us on that day; we are giving this as a general notice to all pastors and their congregations who can be with us on this day at 2.30 p. m.

Services Sunday, Nov. 5th. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. At the morning hour, Love feast and general class. Allen Christirn Endeavor at 6.30 p. m. Preaching at 8 p. m., after which the Lord's Supper will be administered. All are welcome.

Second A.M.E. Church.

Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor

A grand concert will be given on Monday night, Nov. 13th, under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society of the Second A. M. E. Church, featuring George and Gladys Gatliff, the "little impersonators," supported by a strong cast of local talent in vocal and instrumental music. This is the first entertainment given by the Helping Hand, let us show our appreciation by a full house and a large social evening.

Don't forget the Rally for the mortgage debt on the last Sunday in November. Dr. J. Logan Craw will preach the Raliy sermon at 3 p. m.

Remember this must be the banner year for the Second Church.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Elder Lewis C. Sheafe gave a practical and forceful sermon on "Perils of the Strong" at the morning service on last Sunday. Accompanied by Mrs Sheafe he also sang some of his gospel songs to the delight of the audience.

At the evening service the pastor gave "Echos from the Association" recently held at Santa Ana

The usual services next Sunday. Subject for the morning "Working Together." Evening "Christ's Message to the Ephesian Church"

Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Topic "Consecration of Social Life." 1 Cor. 9:19-23. Mrs. Carrie Baker leader. All are cordially invited.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On last Sunday both morning and evening the members of this church were agreeably entertained with two strong sermons from their Pastor, Rev. Latouche. It seems as though the recent news that he received last week, stating that he was now a father, and that his wife and little one were doing nicely gave him renewed strength and courage, and caused him to preach better.

The church had planned to give Bro Latouche a reception so that he could meet the public in general but at his request we will wait until his wife comes, and then have them together.

We are still planning to have a big time on Halloween, and will give prizes to the best masked, and most comical one, and welcome all to our church. On the second Sunday in November, we will give a Sacred Concert at our church, and invite the public to that also.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The pastor was absent on Sunday morning and Rev. F. L. Jones filled the pulpit, preaching a very interesting sermon, and one that was much enjoyed by the congregation.

The pastor was back at the helm Sunday night and preached to a very appreciative congregation.

The services of late have been highly spiritual and edifying to the pastor and congregation as also to the many visitors.

The pastor will administer Communion on Sunday, and as it is the first Communion service since the Conference the membership is expected out in large numbers.

Quite a few of the members are on the sick list this week, but we are trusting and praying that they will soon be able to fill their accustomed places in the church again.

The ladies of Board No. 2 gave a very delightful Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Jessie Bryant on Tuesday night. A very enjoyable time was had, and the ladies of the Board are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment.

The pastor will preach at both the morning and evening services Sunday, and the public is invited to attend.

The Epworth League meets every Sunday evening at 6:30 and is very helpful to all who avail themselves of the opportunity to attend.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Pastor Greggs continued his series of sermons on the great prophet Mlisha on last Sunday, his topic at the morning hour was "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than they that be with them." In the evening "Elisha Opens his servants eyes." Both sermons were filled with logic and practical illustrations extremely edifying to the large congregation. Ten accessions were made, two of whom were converts.

This church is fortunate in having a rare collection of active young people. The Young People's Advancement Club, an auxiliary of the church, is the largest of its kind in the city, and is doing real effective work.

The First Annual Conference of this church will convene in the auditorium of the ChristianChurch, corner 14th and Birch Sts, Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, 1916. Three night sessions will be held. Visitors will be welcome the first two nights The last session, which will be on Thursday evening, will be open to members only.

This promises to be a very interesting conference, as the first year's work of this record-breaking church will be reviewed.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The Rev. D. R. Jones, pastor of First A. M. E. Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, graced our pulpit Sunday and delivered a splendid message at the morning service. And a real metropolitan congregation renowned for it's intense but dignified spirituality enjoyed the message as it was delivered Dr. Jones is here on a visit with his accomplished family and will return to Salt Lake to resume his work and entertain the session of the Colorado Conference next September. The pastor preached at the evening service and there was one addition to the church in this meeting.

Communion services will be regularly observed Sunday. The pastor will preach at both services. A number of the new converts will be baptised at the altar at the morning services. This is the first Sunday in November. Everybody welcome to these services.

The young people of the Allen Endeavor Society will have a membership rally meeting in the auditorium of the church at six o'clock Sunday. A splendid program has been arranged for the benefit of the public. Mr. Paul Williams is the president and will be in charge of the same. All are invited.

The number of professional and railroad men that are finding their way to First Church every Sunday, together with the loyal membership and progressive young folk make, without doubt, the personnel of this growing church the most metropolitan congregation on the coast, and the pastor is delighted with the very healthy condition of every department of this great church. You are always welcome to attend.

With three violins, three cornets, one trombone and saxaphone, the piano and pipe organ and splendid voices that make up the choir of First church under the direction of Prof. Bynum the public can always expect a song service out of the ordinary at the Sunday services. The Men's chorus last Sunday scored a decided and lasting impression. On Sunday night, Nov. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock sharp, the first grand sacred program of this Conference year will be rendered.

Don't forget the Biscuit concert Monday evening, November 6th. All are welcome.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, Pastor

Sunday, Nov. 5th, the Rev. B C. Robeson, of Bayonne, New Jersey, the newly appointed pastor, will preach his first sermon since becoming pastor of the church. He is a graduate of theology from one of our Eastern seminaries and a pulpit orator of rare ability. He is a young man barely past his 30th birthday and a single man. He has the record of taking a church in New Jersey which was run down and had very few members to do with—they agreed to pay him a small sum weekly, as a monthly proposition was too big for that crowd—he agreed, and in 9 months he had added 113 new members. They then agreed to pay him a yearly salary commensurate with his ability. After the year was up they then promised to add another hundred dollars to his salary if he would stay the second year, but he decided to come West.

He has been up the coast in Oregon and Washington with Bishop Kyles organizing churches and missions.

He hopes to see all the children at Sunday School, as he wishes Zion to have the banner Sunday School of the city. Also he wants to see and meet all of Zion's members, both old and new. Come out early to be sure of getting a seat.

The Junior Choir is a new feature. It is worth half a day's trip to hear them. No other church in the city can boast of a Junior Choir and a junior organist as well as a junior violinist.

The public is welcome.

Sunday service at 11 a. m.

Do you respect the opinions of these men?

All these men, labor leaders, educators, statesmen—men of great learning and large experience in world affairs—have declared themselves in favor of temperance but opposed to Prohibition.

They are not theorists, fanatics or faddists.

No one can say that they have been or can be influenced.

They have weighed the facts carefully before coming to a decision on this matter and all have decided against Prohibition.

Who opposes the opinions of these eminent men and declares them to be wrong?

first: A small band of paid reformers.

second: A number of professional politicians who advocate Prohibition for political purposes.

third: Sincere but mistaken people who are mislead by the promises and statements of the professional politicians and reformers.

Which deserves the greater consideration — the opinion of these eminent men, or the opinion of the prohibitionist?

If you were in doubt on some other great public question would you take the unanimous advice of these men or the advice of the prohibitionists who live in your neighborhood?

If you want information regarding any special plank of the prohibition question write to us and we will gladly answer your questions stand by our platform and urge all the women to co-operate with the "Vote for Hughes" movement, inasmuch as Charles Evans Hughes has declared himself unreservedly for national suffrage.

It is true Woodrow Wilson has sponsored the child labor bill which was recently brought to Congress. It is true that he has given us an "Eight Hour Law." Such laws we have also looked forward to as a protection to our children and future men and women and a safeguard to the health and happiness of the breadwinner. But, when we analyze this legislation carefully, given us in the eleventh hour, presumably for the purpose of gaining "votes" for Wilson's election, surely for no other reason, we find he has very adroitly handed us "two gold bricks," which, if he were given a chance to fling with his adept English (which makes the performance of a contortionist pale into insignificance) into the marts of trade, would crush our childhood instead and make anarchists of our men of toil.

Again, I would refer to our sponsor of national suffrage, Charles Evans Hughes, because of his utterances on woman's suffrage and preparedness in which we are so intensely interested. We are also as much interested in what he says about the tariff question because so much depends upon the situation in America after the war and we realize this rests largely with the man we make president and with Congress. We, therefore, quote a few interesting utterances of Mr. Hughes:

Woman Suffrage

"It seems to me that the question is a national one. There are certain qualifications for the suffrage which are fundamental and with respect to which we should not have varying laws throughout the land. There are other matters of qualification not so fundamental as to which there may be varying laws and there have been, according to our practice. We have decided that the qualification with respect to color is fundamental. We have decided that the qualification with respect to race is fundamental. We tolerate no lack of uniformity, no variety of legislation on a matter so fundamental as race or color. I think the qualification with respect to sex is just as fundamental as it is to race or color."

Preparedness

"We are a peace-loving people, but we live in a world of arms. We have no thought of aggression, and we desire to pursue our democratic ideals without the wastes of strife. So devoted are we to these ideals, so intent upon our normal development, that I do not believe that there is the slightest danger of militarism in this country. Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security; it is a necessary safeguard of peace.

"We demand adequate national defense; adequate protection of both our Western and Eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service."

Tariff

"Our preparation must be industrial and economic as well as military. Our severest tests will come after the war is over. We must make a fair and wise readjustment of the tariff, in accordance with sound protective principle, to insure our economic independence and to maintain American standards of living.

"We must conserve the just interests of labor, realizing that in democracy patriotism and national strength must be rooted in even handed justice. In preventing as we must, unjust discriminations and monopolistic practices, we must still be zealous to assure the foundations of honest business."

A CALL TO THE WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES TO USE THE BALLOT AND NOT THE BULLET IN THEIR FIGHT FOR NATIONAL SUFFRAGE. THE NEW EMANCIPATION

A group of Illinois women, encouraged as they were, with the hope of this new emancipation offered to them by their state, and realizing the opportunities afforded them in their work of social service through the ballot, the only means, felt at once that they were in a position to co-operate with their sister workers having the same or partial rights in their effort to make national suffrage, a fact thereby giving to all women the power to use the ballot for the purpose of securing such legislation as will promote the advancement of all citizens of all sections of this country.

"Deeds, Not Words" is a motto much believed in by this group of earnest women and they set about the work of organizing women of the "Old Northwest" and the "New Northwest" with these ideas in mind and at their first annual meeting this year, at Wichita, Kansas, adopted as their platform of principles, among other planks, a recommendation for a child labor law and one for universal suffrage, asking the nation parties which intended to make their appeal to the voting contingency for support, to incorporate these principles or their substance in their 1916 platforms.

This organization, the Northwestern Federation C. W. C., has been carefully watching the situation since that time and analyzing the pledges of the parties and their nominees, especially those of the Democratic and Republican parties, Woodrow Wilson and Charles Evans Hughes.

The Paramount issue, so far as women are concerned, is universal suffrage, for it will be through this source only that we can hope for such legislation as we have continually asked for, which will bring to us all the other progressive measures along social and economic lines and assure to the home and the community, the security and welfare of all the people all the time.

Universal suffrage will secure the child labor laws such as we have hoped for and worked for so long, therefore we want to Give us Hughes and Fairbanks and prosperity will be ours.

With one strong pull all together on next Tuesday and the victory is ours.

Don't forget to vote for Judges Craig and MacDonald for judges of the Superior Court.

We have kept the faith; and fought the best we know how and now await the glad tidings of victory on Tuesday next.

On the wet and dry issue we have given to both sides such space as they desired to present their claims and have left the question for the people to decide.

Although three well established Race journals are published in the second supervisorial district, candidate Mark Jones has seen fit to ignore them all, which he has a perfect right to do. But doing so does not indicate any real good feeling to the Colored voters, from our viewpoint.

Vote No on Amendment No. 6. It's all bunk about holding two offices. Men who are honest and who are elected to the Senate and Assembly must have resources far in excess of their salary. And we certainly think until that salary is made a living one, they are entitled to hold any honorable position which they can get.

Next Tuesday will tell the tale whether or not we are to endure another four years of retrogression or whether we are to have years of permanent prosperity. The case is now submitted to the people. We are hopeful of and verily believe, that verdict will be rendered by electing Charles Evan Hughes by an overwhelming majority and a like majority in both houses of Congress.

THEY ARE OFF!

Before The Eagle reaches its large family of readers again the result of the pending campaign will have been decided and the winners thereof. We have conscientiously labored for the success of the Republican standard bearer and have an abiding faith that Gov. Hughes and Fairbanks will be elected, also Gov. Hiram Johnson for the U. S. Senate, by an overwhelming majority, also Captain Henry Z. Osborne from the 10th Congressional district, and Hon. C. H. Randall from the Ninth Congressional district.

RANDALL FOR CONGRESS FROM THE NINTH DISTRICT

Colored voters throughout the Ninth will make no mistake in casting their vote for Congressman C. H. Randall to succeed himself. He has the Republican nomination, and his action in the last session in lining up against the Southern fire eaters in their effort to put in effect Jim Crow laws in the District of Columbia, eminently qualifies him as worthy of our united support. So go to the polls, take your friends, vote and work for the election of Mr. Randall. Don't let anybody fool you for one moment about the Independent candidate. We want one tried and true.

POLICE COMMISSION, WITH OUR NEW MAYOR WOODMAN, SETS A PREMIUM ON LAW BREAKERS

Greedily Accepts the Uncorroborated Evidence of Chinese Renegade Lottery Sharks, Hop Vendors, and Confessed Law Breakers to That of Honored and Reputable Citizens.—Officers Broady and White Have an Honorable Record.

Notwithstanding the fact that the best forces of our citizenship, black and white, rallied to the support of Officers Broady and White in their recent hearing before the Police Commission, and notwithstanding there was no evidence produced against them except that which was given by renegade Chinese crooks and confessed law breakers, this police commission, if you please, sustained the charges and dismissed these officers from the force.

To say that the citizenry of Los Angeles who had kept track of this case and who knew the character of the evidence against these officers were ASTOUNDED is putting it mildly, and on all sides the action of the commission has been denounced.

We do not propose to question the commission's integrity in the premises, but we certainly criticize their judgment, as we sat and heard all of the testimony in this case and you could not get a jury from the swamps of Mississippi to bring in a verdict of guilty on such testimony as was produced in this case.

So with the advent of the present mayor the colored citizens who stand for law and order and common decency may know what to expect, that Negro employes need expect no quarters. They have set a premium on vice and lawlessness by their decision in this case.

To make good before the commission one must be a Chinese crook or confessed law breaker.

The old town is now at the mercy of the sharks and crooks; NO OFFICER, FOR FEAR OF THE FATE OF BROADY AND WHITE, will dare gain the enmity of the crooks or sharks or off will go their heads. Our mighty commission has set a precedent.

The Eagle asks no quarter from thi sgentry. We have no fear of the RECORD. Let the mighty officials quail and cringe in fear of this vile Negro baiting sheet, but we shall ever continue to stand for law and order and common decency, and shall to the utmost, stand by public officials who have the nerve and courage to wage war against vice and lawlessness.

The Record announced with ghoulish glee that the two colored cops were dismissed. This is a part of their propaganda, and this new administration has lined up with it.

And when the last colored officer is gone from the force we trust their appetite, along with that of those whose unlawful business they interfered with, will be appeased.

CONGRESSMAN CHAS. H. RANDALL PUTS THE OPPOSITION TO FLIGHT; MAKES WINNING FIGHT FOR RE-ELECTION

The voters of the Ninth Congressional district are lining up in a solid formation for the reelection of the Hon. Charles H. Randall in this district, and he will receive at the hands of the voters of this district a strong endorsement all along the line.

They are supporting him because he has made good, in other words, at all times he has stood for the people, he has stood uniformly for the protection of the industries of California and all of the other measures which have meant so much to the people. The following are some of the measures that claimed his vote and his support:

1. The Child Labor Act, which will rid the nation of the disgrace of child labor in mines and factories.

2. For the tax on products of war munition factories.

3. For an increase surtax on incomes.

4. For a tariffi on dye stuffs and for a stringent anti-dumping clause.

5. Introduced legislation on the subject of prohibition and secured favorable reports by committees on the same in the present Congress.

7. For the Rural Credits law, which will do more for the back-to-the-farm movement than any legislation of the past.

6. For increased pensions for widows of veterans of the Civil War, and for Spanish American widows; secured the passage of 11 special acts granting pensions.

8. For the immigration bill, which is really a model protective measure for American labor.

9. For the Federal Workmen's Compensation Act, which protects every employe and his dependent ones in every government position, high or low.

10. For the shipping bill, which is a long delayed effort to establish American commerce on the seas.

And many other measures has had his vote and support. Because we have a man like his who is eternally on the job for the interests of the great masses, they are lining up to give to him a vote of confidence of which he might well feel proud.

The many colored voters of the district are grateful to Mr. Randall for his stand on Jim Crow legislation introduced by the Southern fire-eaters during his service in Congress he has invariably voted against this legislation, and appreciating the same they are giving to him their united support on Nov. 7.

RICHARD H. NORTON
The Square Deal Supervisor, Candidate for Re-election 2nd Supervisorial District

There is no officer in Los Angeles who has done more to help men and women of our race to maintain their standing and self-respect in this community than has Supervisor Norton. Our own people who vote for him are certainly voting for a friend and not for a man weo will not recognize them after election.

1 During the past 4 years he has actually saved to the taxpayers of Los Angeles more than $500,000 notably in the 1015 Committee, the County Farm, the Unemployed Camp and other enterprises.

2 Suggested and supervised the establishment of the Unemployed Camp and hopes to make it permanent, thus largely solving the unemployed problem.

3 Is opposed to the employment of aliens on public work when American citizens are vainly seeking employment.

4 Suggested and secured sick pay for mechanics, laborers and others paid by the day, giving them the same advantage as clerks, deputies and similar employes.

5 Introduced a resolution providing for prompt payment of mechanics and laborers when leaving County service.

6 Blocked the proposition to establish an age limit of fifty years for County employes.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

At her son's residence was held, on last Tuesday, a five-course dinner in honor of her fifty-sixth birthday anniversary, Mrs. C. H. Anderson entertained quite a number of friends and relatives on this enjoyable occasion. All wished her many more equally as happy birthdays as this one.

"HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL"

Among the functions of the past week that anticipated Hallowe'en with decoration typical of the season was a social given by the Stewardess Board of the First A. M. E. church.

On entering the Sunday school room, a ghost sat on either side of the door. A jolly clown came to greet you and guide you safely past the ghost. You were then attracted by Mme. La Rue, the fortune teller, who, at one glance, could tell you all the past, present and future.

Mrs. Craw was truly queen of the carnival ,and Mrs. Lucky, daughter of Mother Goose, furnished everyone with peanuts, while Rev. Craw sold the pies and Mrs. Williams furnished the smiles.

MUSICALE LAST SUNDAY AT WILKINS' MUSIC SCHOOL

The spacious music rooms of the Wilkins Conservatory of Music were crowded last Sunday afternoon to witness the unusual program rendered by students and teachers of the school. Among the many visitors and prominent club women who pronounced the work a wonderful success, were Mrs. J. M. Scott, Mrs. Hugh Thompson, of San Diego; Mrs. Madge Kelly, Mrs. Campbell, Past Matron of Sojourner Truth; Mrs. Sonoia Maxwell Reeves, and Mrs. Lillian Jeeter Davis, the prominent pianist, vocalist and reader, who read several of her masterly selections. Mrs. Davis with the rest pronounced Mr. Wilkins a wonderful teacher, and that our people should feel proud of such an undertaking, and should do all in their power to make this the greatest musical institution in the United States.

Among the latest additions to the teaching staff are Mr. Elmer Bartlett, piano and pipe organ; Mrs. Bessie Williams Dones, whose pupil, Master Marion Forsythe, proved her a great teacher in Sunday's program; Mr. Edward Atkinson, of Western University and pupil of Prof. Jackson, also pupil of Mme. Buckner. Mr. Johnnie Mitchell and his pupil(Mr. Wm. Dickinson, performed several brilliant violin duets. Mr. Wilkins delighted everybody with several of his compositions.

The crowd lingered late, partaking of the dainty refreshments and discussing the future possibilities of Mr. Wilkins and his Music School.

MISS ROSA L. SAMPSON OPENS NEW PARLOR ON CENTRAL AVENUE

Miss Sampson's new parlor is a sample of industry, and thrift. At 844 Central Ave., her new pretentious parlor adds much to the business dignity of the avenue, and also gives Miss Sampson a better opportunity to demonstrate her wonderful ability as a hair grower, scalp and skin specialist.

In addition to her work room, she has added a complete line of the best toilet articles on the market.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. COMMITTEE—Robt. Ferris, L. D. Jackson, Lloyd White and T. J. Harris

The Hallowe'en entertainment given last Tuesday night, under the auspices of Fidelity Lodge, No. 10, was an exceptional affair. As we are lacking for a short word we will say it was very elaborately arranged. Much credit is due the committees in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Anderson have artistically arranged a high wall around their handsome residence on H street. The stairway is a beautiful piece of masonry. Mr. Johnson, the leading gardener of the city, has been busy the past week arranging magnificent alcoves. When completed will be a show place.

A WORD WITHOUT A THOUGHT

A woman is a woman at that, and all men that are born of a woman should strive to protect their good names. It is natural that a man will take advantage of her hospitality. he will also protect her from any man but himself. and when he uses their good name for immoral debates it is better that such a man had never been born. Should he still exist, the pit of the starving lions is too sweet a resting place for him.

On entering a place of amusement it is customary to take one's hat off. There are a great many who go to shows in this city, who forget to do the same.

Among the visitors to our city during the past week were Dr. Taylor and Attorney Wickliff, who have been enjoying the hospitalities of our citizens.

Dr. Kinchen was here for a few days. He does not stop long, but comes often.

Mrs. G. Thompson, of Coronado has spent several day's in Los Angeles.

Mrs. McDonald was out to the Hallowe'en entertainment. She said she enjoyed herself very much, as she had been confined to her room for several days.

Mrs. E. Stephenson is becoming a very graceful dancer. Furthermore, she is inexpensive. She was asked to sign an agreement for 1917 for all the dances. She said it was not necessary if you attend the Gala Social Club.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hayden and Mr. S. Freeman were the guests of Mr. M. A. Jones lost Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Jas. Goodman and Miss Minnie Cook were married recently at the Court House.

The Carnation Club gave a Hallowe'en entertainment at the parsonage. Several young men represented Charlie Chaplin and we are glad that Hallowe'en only comes once a year, as some of the acts were unapprovable to the community.

Mr. Henry Pickins has moved into his new residence, 620 South 33rd street. It was shristened with a birthday party for his 8-year-old son. Mr. Pickins is a chauffeur for one of the prominent families in Coronado.

Mr. B. C. Reese, chief red cap of San Diego, declined the honors of chairman of the Wet and Dry movement in favor of old appointees, Mr. E. M. Dauchey, Mr. Mendenhall and J. C. Kinzy, of Los Angeles, wishing them a warm success.

Mr. Will Johnson, of Johnson's Creole Band, who is playing the Pantages circuit at the Savoy this week here, was a pleasant caller at Nash's studio, where he obtained copies of Snakey and Florida Blues for his band. Mr. Nash renewed old acquaintances with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Morgan Prince.

Mr. H. A. Ross, of Los Angeles, was in the city for a few hours last week

A certain lady had a very expensive birthday party, but refused to tell her friend what she received or show them until he presented her with a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Eva Smith, one of the leading artists of the city, is very busy nowadays teaching painting. She is also receiving orders for Christmas paintings already, as her paintings are artistic and make a very handsome present for birthday, wedding or Christmas gift.

Mrs. M. T. Laws, owing to illness of body, will not be home for several days.

Mrs. Robert Brown, with two children, from Pasadena, spent the past week in the city and had a very enjoyable stay.

The big Silver Strand Handicap Ball will no doubt be the sensation of the season. Manager T. J. Harris is not leaving anything undone for the pleasure of the many music lovers. He has added four more pieces to his now famous body of musicians. Don't forget the date—Friday, Nov. 10, at Kastle Hall, 6th street between G and H.

Mr. Shirley Brock's baritone voice has caused many to wonder why he is not employed at the Savoy. He disturbed the Eagle staff when they were preparing the devil for the press.

There was a meeting of the Forum last Sunday. Although there were not many present, owing to the debate at the Stadium, on Nov. 5th the hall will be filled. Come out and hear the news.

Let us shy of new ideas. Who is this Bible Bill? Let us first find out more about him before we let him run or attempt to run the Forum. We had people before with odd names trying to get our people into wild-cat projects which were good on paper and hot air when told, and thin tissue paper when carried out. So Sunday, Nov. 5, the question before the Forum will be how to vote itnelligently. Bring your sample ballot and have or hear it read, but vote the way your conscience indicates. But above all, be sure you are right and then go ahead. Next meeting of Forum, Sunday, Nov. 5, at 3 p. m.

There are thousands of people still viewing the Exposition, and it will be open until Dec. 31. So those who have not had the opportunity of seeing it had better make haste and see the wonderful sight as well as hear the greatest organ in the world, and listen to the famous Italian Band under the leadership of Tommasino, the great leader with the little stick.

Mr. Will Collins, messenger for the Lower California Jockey Club, one of the busiest men in the city, is making arrangementss for the grand opening on Nov. 11, of the Tia Juana races.

Assistant City Attorney Babcock, of Milwaukee, Wis., told the jitney drivers they were common carriers and under the law could not discriminate because of color.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE BALL

These are a few items picked up on the street:

Thas Miss Edith Thompson looked so sweet in that coming-out gown until her schoolmates dared to ask her for a dance.

The composer of a song was out looking for new ideas.

Did you hear the babies crying while their mothers danced?

Mrs. E. went in the hallway to powder when she could just as well have powdered in the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. did not take part in the dances, but they said they enjoyed it just the same.

Mrs. Mc says that she is going to vote dry, but she was not voting her sentiments.

Mr. M. had better keep Mrs. M. home, as she looked too much like "sweet sixteen."

East San Diego seems to be on the map of late, since the S. has taken up their residence.

Out of the hundreds of people in the hall why did Mr. Gibbs pick on Mr. Law because he did not have on his full dress suit to match his. Did you hear how they squalled for a New York schottische when the band master rose and said the last dance was a one-step, a one-step.

AT SOJOURNER TRUTH CLUB HOUSE

Last Monday an excellent representation of the various clubs of Los Angeles and vicinity met at "The Home" in the regular reciprocity session.

Mrs E. R. Baldwin rendered an excellent report of the National Federations, and along with many other features of intense interest the day was befittingly spent.

REPUBLICAN SMOKER

The Wide-a-wake social and Progressive League, better known as the "Bears," was entertained with a smoker through the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houston, of 1936 Atlantic Street, on Monday evening, October 30th. Captain H. Z. Osborne and Mr. Chas. Demptsy spoke on local and national political issues. Mr. Bass, of The California Eagle spoke very interestingly on the necessity of political forces in combining our one direction. His talk was logical to the point and full of humorous hilarity, which was appreciated by all present.

STABS AT PROSE

By L. W. Rease,

511 Ceres Ave., Los Angeles.

Dear friend, I'm writing you,
without a doubt,
This dog-gone city needs a cleaning out.
We want all the privileges that's
due us, O my!
Allow we to explain, and I'll tell
you why.
Let us vote in good officers, that
we think are true,
But I'm bound to acknowledge
it's a hard thing to do.
Don't listen to politicians who
tell you how to vote;
All they're trying to do is to get
your support.
The people now are thinking
this town will go dry,
But I'm just figuring out a way
to get by.
It doesn't make any difference if they close every saloons,
My friend, you must consider,
all things have their doom.
This town should give us privilege to run a saloon of our own,
For we can make a living in a colored zone.
These fellows have opened their business on Main,
And catch every sucker that passes, in a sein.
Or stand in with these fellows, then you'll have a chance.
The way they make their money, they get it in advance.
This is the main thing we ought to revoke.
Be sure you do it, when you cast your vote.
If voting gave us liberty, then take a perfect stand.
It ought to give us recognition, as it does the other man.
We are American citizens, and it's hard for us to advance,
For the men we put in office take away our chance.
I believe in personal liberty to each and every man.
O, vote, and try to get it in this, our native land.
O, men, value your ballot, and be a perfect man,
And if we stand together, our right we can demand.
Have we a colored lawyer, will write a letter or note
That will teach and instruct us exactly how to vote?
Leaders don't think of dollars, or try to win on fame.
O, teach the common people, for you have been to blame.
All of you have erred, now come through with the dope;
We want your instruction before we go to vote.
I must close my letter; I am not a man of note,
But I have plenty of knowledge to instruct you how to vote.
O, the time is now approaching; come to me and get relief,
At the place that I am running. Enquire for L. W. Rease.

Editor of The Eagle:

Please give space in your widely circulated paper to speak of a grand surprise given me by the members and friends of the Second Baptist church at Long Beach. It was on Wednesday night, Oct. 18, at the newly modern built home of Mr. and Mrs. March, on California street.

Just after prayer meeting, Mrs. Nk Braxton and Mrs. McCalvey commanded that I go with them to this home, but they did not even hint to me the purpose of the visitthe visit. On reception to the place, or very soon thereafter, my chair was surrounded with many packages, etc. It was then that Mrs. A. M. Lucey informed me that these things were selected and presented to me for the comfort of myself and family.

O course the surprise was of such nature and magnitude that I found myself wanting in words to express my appreciation. Therefore I take this method of thanking the good people of this party and assure them that Mrs. Arline is made very happy.

After getting home, Mrs. Arline and myself were anxious to see what was contained in the packages. We found pillows, pillow cases, sheets, a very nice blanket quilt, a pair of large bath towels, house dress, big apron. Also we found rice, meat and potatoes, etc. A little cash, also.

The members of the party are Mrs. A. M. Lucy, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. N. Braxton, Mrs. McColey, Mrs. L. Countee, and Mrs. D. P. Brooks.

May the Lord bless these good a long and prosperous life is the people and that they may have wish of Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Arline.

Ladies, if your skin is dry and you are bothered with blackheads use Fletcher's Cream. Mrs. S. Cole regular demonstrator and agent. Fletcher's Cosmetics are the most refined on the market.

WATTS NEWS

Mrs. Blue, of Council Ave., who has spent nearly three months in Chattanooga, Tenn., is expected home soon.

Mrs. Fox is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Gill of Santa Barbara came home last week.

Mother Garrad and daughter spent Monday in the city.

The Temperance lecture was a grand success.

Mrs. Gilliam, of Hollywood, is preparing to become one of us. She is moving on Villa Ave.

The Beeks family are quite proud over the fact that their boy carried off the prize in the baby contest at the Day Nursery on Channing Street.

Mrs. Weaver, on Ramsdner Ave. has everything to encourage her in her music studio. She is securing many pupils.

The Halloween and Tackey party was some thing up-to-date in every respect, Mrs. Sanders and friends, of Long Beach, deserve special praise for their efforts in making it so grand a success. If more of us would only put forth a like effort in our Church work we would certainly win many more souls for Christ.

Mr Samuel Steward is surprising his neighbors in the way he is beautifying his home property.

Mr. Fletcher, of the dye works, is quite ill.

Mrs. Ward, sister of Mrs. Balding, of Gardena, has returned to Oxnard.

If the feeling created at the meeting Sunday relative to shunning the first glass was carried to a conclusion, everybody would be fighting this great wrong and enthusiastically waving the "dry" flag.

Mr Samuel Steward, with many others, joined in the repast of the Odd Fellows of Los Angeles last week, riding the goat and other acts denoting true brotherhood, partaking of chicken, duck, and the many latest delicacies of the season

Rev. Washington is standing and pointing the way by opening the church doors for a three week's revival.

We are sorry to report the loss to this community of one of our oldest citizens and influential church workers, Miss Willie Taylor.

MONROVIA, CAL.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Second Baptist Church gave a rally Sunday afternoon. An excellent program was rendered by delegates from Los Angeles and Venice.

A spook social was given at the residence of Mrs. Bonner, Tuesday evening. A prize was awarded to Mrs. Elmira Enge, and Mrs. Jessie Kinzy.

Mr. Frank Etter left Tuesday for his home in Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Burlesbn of C press St. met with a very painful accident on last Friday, when a huge plough fell upon his foot, crushing it very badly. Mr. Burleson is confined to his home.

BAKERSFIELD

Miss Marie Jones is expected to visit Mrs. L. Banks and Mrs. Winters soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warn are the happy parents of a bouncing eight pound girl. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely and receiving congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Washington, after a years stay in Los Angeles, have returned to their home in this city to the delight of their friends. Mr. Washington has resumed his tailoring business in the Winter's Block, and is doing a rushing business.

Miss Antonette Young who is spending the winter with the Winters will appear soon in recital. The many friends of Miss Young, of Los Angeles, will be pleased to know that she is doing nicely in the Oil City, attending school, and progressing nicely with her music.

Miss Vera Young, one of Bakersfield's most beautiful girls, the neice of Mrs. B. G. Russell was happily married to Mr. Floyd Henderson of Berkley this month.

Mr. Henderson is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Henderson and an architect of no mean ability, and a progressive young man.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson wish for them a happy matrimonial voyage.

Mrs. B. G. Russell, after a three months stay in Los Angeles returned to her home in this city last week.

Mr. L. J. Pinkney has opened a neatly arranged grocery in the Winter Block.

Mr. Henry Houston, whose barber shop is in the Winters Block has remodeled his shop, adding many attractive features. Congratulations Mr. Houston.

Mrs. Hunter is doing nicely with her cafe. Also Mr. Davy deserves mention.

We are pleased to notice a fairly good representation in the K. C. High School this term. Among them are: Mrs. A. Young; Miss Hall, of Allensworth; Miss Small, Mr. Small, Mr. Davis, and Mrs. Winters, who is specializing in music, sewing and typewriting.

SAN BERNARDINO

San Berbardino is on the map.

The Rev. Redd has put new life into the A. M. E. Church. Officers have been elected for all departments and the people are taking hold of the work with a will.

Mrs. C. R. Curtis entertained the W. M. M. S. Friday afternoon It is said that the ladies were delighted.

Mrs. W. T. Hendery's Halloween social and supper for the church was one of the grandest successes of the season, and netted a neat sum for her efforts.

Mr. J. E. Muckelroy is remodeling his home on West 6th St.

The A. M. E. parsonage has been remodeled and papered, so it is now one of the best in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wagoner and Mrs. S. E. Jackson were over from Redlands seeing friends. It has been fifteen years since Mr. Wagoner and the Rev. Redd have met, hence the pleasure was great.

Mrs. Indiana Dobbs, of Riverside, spent Sunday in this city.

There are a number of places here open for both men and women. Elder Redd says that he can place a number, as there seems to be a demand for our people.

Oscar A. Peterson, of New York, passed away Sunday leaving a wife and three children. Rev. Redd officiated at the funeral from the Stevanson parlors.

You may watch San Bernardino grow, and keep abreast with the doings of this city, but to do so you will need to take the EAGLE

The Merchants Auto Truck Co. is owned by two of our young men. hey have two autos running from this city to Los Angeles, making daily trips, and are having more than they can do. Messrs Ingharm and Montgomery deserve great credit for their enterprise in having the only line.

There are more of our people at work in San Bernardino than in any other city in California of its size.

The Church was largely attended Sunday, both morning and evening, to hear Rev. Redd preach two able sermons.

Alpine Chapter No. 1, O.E.S. meets first and third Wednesday afternoons at 2 o'clock at the hall, 1824 1-2 Central avenue.

COLORED VOTERS' DONT'S

If you want a District Attorney who will discriminate against you — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will "frame up" against you—DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who favors discrimination and all its attendant evils — DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who in campaign times will smile in your face, pat you on the back and tell you what a good fellow you are, and at other times tell his friends how contemptible he believes you to be and how cheaply you can be bought—then DON'T vote for HELMS.

If you want a District Attorney who will slander your women and belittle their virtue — DON'T vote for HELMS.

BUT!!

If you want to elect A REAL MAN to the office of District Attorney — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the office of District Attorney filled by a Christian Gentleman — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to get the same square deal, with equal treatment and opportunity, as the other fellow — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want to elect a man who regards your rights as sacred as that of any other man's — VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want the laws enforced, with even-handed justice to all—VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

If you want justice given you as a right, and not handed you as a favor or sold to you for political support — then VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

VOTE for HELMS — THE MAN OF THE HOUR—VOTE for CAPTAIN HELMS.

GEORGE CLARK STRONG CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

George Clark, a well known lawyer of Los Angeles, is a candidate for Representative in Congress, Tenth District, for the short term. Mr. Clark has been engaged in the practice of law in Los Angeles for the past ten years and is being urged to accept the candidacy by a large number of business and professional men who are now supporting him for this office.

Mr. Clark is a real Republican supporting Mr. Hughes and working for the best interests of Southern California. He is in hopes of obtaining a large appropriation for the harbor at San Pedro and will carry on the unfinished work of former Congressman William D. Stephens, resigned.

As there are no names printed on the ballot for the short term it is necessary to write in the name of George Clark.

Send a real Republican to Congress to support the Republican administration by writing in the name of George Clark on the ballot.

TRIBUTE TO REV. W. J. J. BYERS, FORMER PASTOR OF A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

(Special to The Eagle by W. I. Gordon.)

The A. M. E. Zion church was filled to capacity last Wednesday evening to participate with Rev. W. J. J. Byers and his wife in a farewell reception, and to give testimony as to his worth as a minister, citizen, social worker and upbuilder during his five and one-half years in this community. Doctors, lawyers, scholars, divines, editors, business men, and wealthy and worthy citizens of both sexes vied with each other in making this reception a long to be remembered and successful one. A monstrous success it was—the biggest Zion ever held—it was the general verdict. Rev. and Mrs. Byers were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. The tributes were many and beautifully told. One attorney's address was the keynote speech of the evening, and was acknowledged by common consent. He said: "Rev. Byers was ever to the front in all things essential to the welfare of the race and he gave himself unsparingly and unstintedly, and if Los Angeles had a dozen more preachers or men just as he is, Los Angeles, in as many years, would be so uplifted that a black skin instead of being a badge of scorn and humiliation, the wearer would be honored and respected throughout the entire city, and if it had not been Rev. Byers' request to go, the people of Los Angeles would have stormed the conference with protests demanding his retention, and would not have stopped until they had attained success in their efforts."

The Rev. Byers' response was both eloquent and inspiring—so short; so pointed—a glaring success without effort. A climax so pronounced as only good and honest characters are capable of. A proverb says: "Only good men can be great orators."

His response attested his character. Rev. and Mrs. Byers left the next day (Thursday) for his new field for service, which is San Jose, Calif. His fellow-members, friends and well-wishers regret his departure, but wish him large success in his work.

Dr. Prowd, of the Second Baptist church, said that "San Jose would soon know that Byers was in town when he got there."

The Rev. B. C. Robeson, of Bayonne, New Jersey, will succeed him as pastor, and will preach his first regular sermon Sunday morning, November 5, 1916, at 11 o'clock. He is a graduate theologian, unmarried and quite a young man, but old in experience and the work. A worthy successor.

DISCRIMINATION SUIT AT THE BEACH

In the justice court of Santa Monica another discrimination suit was tried on Wednesday, Nov. 1st. Mrs. J. Columbus and daughter attended the La Petite theater on Ocean Front Ave., Ocean Park, Aug. 14, this year. As they were about to take seats on the main floor, the usher intercepted them, and told them that the balcony had been reserved for Colored people. Mrs. Columbus immediately demanded a return of her money and resented the insult. A short time after, Mrs. Columbus brought suit against the theater company. The theater denied the allegation in every particular. At the end of the trial the justice took the case under consideration and is expected to render a decision within ten days. Justice Shannon of Sawtelle presided. Attorney E. Burton Ceruti represented Mrs. Columbus.

A NEW TONSORIAL PARLOR OPENS ON CENTRAL AVENUE

The Angelus is the name of a new strictly up to date tonsorial parlor which will throw open its doors to the public on next Wednesday, the same is being opened by Mr. R. F. Anderson, who is a son of the late Rev. C. H. Anderson.

Mr. Anderson is sparing no pains to make this shop a high credit and for that reason is putting in a strictly modern shop. He will also carry in connection with the same a first class line of cigars and tobaccos, also a first class shining parlor.

The Angelus will be run as a strictly first class shop and will strive to please the most exacting.

Mr. Anderson having been reared here and having been prominent in church and political circles, has a host of friends who congratulate him on his new venture and will give to him a hearty support.

On another page and at the head of your editorial page, is our ticket. Add to that ticket the names of Judge R. W. MacDonald for Superior Judge and Gavin Craig. You won't go wrong.

CANEPA FOR THE ASSEMBLY

For a live and wide awake member of the senate, one who will look after the interests of all the people, there is no one that deserves a more hearty support than Victor J. Canepa for State Senator from the 18th district. The colored voters of this district, which lies in San Francisco, will give him a hearty support.

Captain H. V. Batie, 1118 East Pico Street, an old resident of Los Angeles, and a very useful worker in the community, was called to rest on last Sunday afternoon. The funeral took place at First A. M. E. Church, Friday morning at 11 o'clock, a.m.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY VISITS ARIZONA

Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth is back in town after a two weeks' trip to Arizona, during which time he spent ten consecutive days in examining the mining property of the Comobabi Mines Company, 47 miles southwest from Tucson, Arizona, in the Comobabi Mountains, Pima County, Arizona. Mr. Macbeth reports that the nine square miles of mining property which he personally traversed and inspected are teeming with copper and silver ore with occasional good values in gold. He reports further that after a careful estimate of the vein matter in the up-lifts or hills of the district occupied by the Comobabi Mines Company, at least $150,000,000 worth of silver, copper and gold ore are within working reach. On last Monday evening at the People's Auditorium Mr. Macbeth gave a very instructive, illuminating and detailed report of his trip and of the immediate plans of the Comobabi Mines Company for the development of this great mining property.

Mr. Macbeth will appear before the Ministerial Alliance on next Tuesday morning, November 7th, to give the ministers of Los Angeles an account of his trip and of his observations of the mineralogical history of the wonderfully rich Comobabi mining district. In addition Mr. Macbeth informed the representative of this paper that he is preparing a special detailed newspaper report of his trip and his ten days of observation in the Comobabi Mountains which report will appear in these columns in the very near future.

SUPERVISOR R. H. NORTON

Is and Always Has Been A Staunch Friend of the Colored People.

The Colored voters of the Second Supervisorial District cannot afford to be misled and fail to support Richard H. Norton in the pending campaign, for the very good reason that Mr. Norton, above all others, has always stood for a square deal for the Colored people, and as one of the board of five he has stood by those who are in the employ of the county to the utmost.

Colored County Employes.

He has been instrumental in having more put on the pay roll of the county than any other one man. And when the agitator was up to replace them in the Hall of Records he discountenanced the same and stood by the Colored employes.

Put Colored Women in Hospital.

He was instrumental in having Colored women employees at the County hospital and for more than two years such women as Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass designated were employed there, and they are there to this day, having now been transferred to the Civil Service Department of the county.

In all matters that have come up from time to time he has seen to it that the Colored citizens have had a square deal.

Gives Insurance to Colored Firm.

When the Insurance for county buildings was given out he gave recognition to the Colored people by placing $25,000 of the county's insurance with Colored firms, the Sidney P. Dones Company and others.

Facts Louder Than Words.

So the proof of the pudding is the tasting. A man who has done all of this, we have every reason to believe will continue in giving to us a fair and square deal, and that we can even expect better thangs in the future.

Has No Interlopers.

He is not importing anybody from another district to brazenly claim that they can line up the Colored vote for him, but trusts to the intelligence of the voters themselves of the 22nd district to stay by a man who has stood for them.

And we, the Colored Campaign Committee for R. H. Norton, urge upon all the Colored voters to give to him their undivided support at the polls on November 7th.

Colored Inspectors, Judges and Clerks.

In the matter of recognition of the Colored voters as judges and clerks of election, Supervisor Norton has gone further in that direction than any other official in the whole United States. In all precincts of his district, where there are any Colored voters to speak of, they have representation, and in their own precincts they are composed almost wholly of members of the Race.

Can the Colored voters afford to fail in their support of such a man? We hardly think so.

A great need of the Colored people is a mountain sanatorium for consumptives. Last spring a committee of prominent Colored citizens called on Supervisor Norton and explained our needs. He at once got busy and took the committee in an automobile and they inspected a site of six acres that would make an ideal site for such an nstitution. And Mr. Norton arranged that it could be leased from the government at a nominal rate whenever our people are ready and have the funds to start the movement.

Stood Like a Stone Wall for Hughes, Real Prosperity and Sound Government

ELECTION RESULTS

As we go to press, gleaned from the daily press, we present the following as the situation politically.

It will be seen that this, the most populous section in the entire west, went strong for Hughes but the I. W. W. and Union labor forces up state is responsible for the state going into the Wilson column. We are hopeful unto the end, but it is a hope against hope and we are confident of four years more of Wilson and hard times.

Here Are Winners in Los Angeles County as Now Indicated

Following are the results of the election so far as can be determined from the incomplete returns:

CONGRESS
Ninth District
CHARLES H. RANDALL
Tenth District
H. Z. OSBORNE

Sixty-five Precincts Still Missing; Split Ticket Hinted by Jordan as He Sets Official Count for Thursday.

(Special to the Tribune)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—President Woodrow Wilson has carried California and the vote of California has re-elected him President of the United States.

The 5 o'clock tabulation gave Wilson a lead of 2061, with 188 precincts to hear from.

The 7 o'clock tabulation had increased the President's lead to 3112, with only sixty-five precincts to hear from.

The missing precincts are in remote sections and do not carry enough votes to change the result. Moreover, they are in large part in counties—mountain and desert—that have given Wilson majorities or pluralities.

O. K. Cushing, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, declared Wilson's mastery in California at 3100. Probably he understated the final totals.

Wilson Wins, Rowell Says

Chester H. Rowell, Republican national committeeman and chairman of the Republican state central committee, said the returns showed a tie and that a recount would be necessary. But later he gave up and admitted Wilson had won.

President Wilson put United States marshals on guard over the ballot boxes in Alameda and Los Angeles counties, where a shift of votes to Hughes had been reported in the afternoon.

Chairman Rowell has sent out word to all the Republican county committee chairmen to watch the official count of the ballots, promising them legal aid to make a fight over every disputed return.

It is the final hope of the Republicans to split the ticket in California by reason of individual voting on electors, but if the state has been carried by Wilson by 3000 or over it is not at all likely there will be a split ticket, as that is too wide a margin.

Split Ticket, Avers Jordan

Frank C. Jordan, Republican, secretary of state, predicted a split ticket, and said he would begin the official count next Thursday. The United States authorities probably will keep an eye on the returns as they reach Jordan's office during the recount. Jordan has requested that representatives of both big political parties watch the count in his office at Sacramento.

Jordan says there is no provision of law for a recount where the election for presidential electors is close, congress relying on the certification of the state's chief executive after the count has been made by the secretary of state. In connection with this the famous Hayes-Tilden contest is recited. A special commission was created by congress in that case which finally seated Hayes, but refused to "go behind the returns."

Los Angeles gave Hughes a plurality of 21,530.

San Francisco gave Wilson a plurality of 15,109.

65 Precincts Missing

With Wilson 3112 in the lead on the 7 o'clock tabulation, the sixty-five missing precincts were distributed as follows:

For Hughes—Humboldt, 8; Los Angeles, 2; Mendocino, 1; San Bernardino, 5; Sonoma, 1, and Ventura, 2. Total, 19.

For Wilson—Butte, 11; Colusa, 1; El Dorado, 1; Imperial, 1; Inyo, 5; Kern, 7; Mariposa, 2; Modoc, 8; Mono, 2; Monterey, 2; Sierra, 3; Siskiyou, 3. Total, 46.

The big Hughes precincts were all in, and those to hear from were mountain, desert, forest and mining precincts, each with a small vote. The same was true of the Wilson precincts, though they were likely to increase the lead somewhat.

San Diego county finally swung into the Hughes column by a small plurality of 110, but Imperial and Santa Barbara, of the southern counties, held to Wilson by fair majorities.

The northern counties from Modoc and Lassen down, though registered strongly Republican, voted heavily for Wilson.

But there is a prevailing word that San Francisco carried the nation for Wilson, for though there were some 105,000 Republicans registered here to about 38,000 Democrats and 31,000 nonpartisans, the majority of over 15,000 for Wilson swung the county, the state and the nation.

SPLIT ELECTORAL VOTE PROSPECT, SAYS CRAIL

Indicating that Southern California Republicans would put up a fight for a split electoral ticket, Joe S. Crail, campaign manager of the Republican state central committee, last night issued the following statement:

"Errors easily creep into unofficial election returns, and the vote is so close in California that it is impossible to say now what the final and official results will show.

"Despite assertions by Democrats that California has gone to Wilson, we claim the final figures will show a majority in favor of Hughes.

"Tuesday's vote was the largest in California's history and with such a volume—more than 900,000—it would be surprising indeed if numerous errors were not made. A mistake in count of one vote to each precinct in the state would make a difference of 5915 votes.

"Under any circumstances the worst that can happen is a split electoral vote. Four years ago the vote was very close in this state, and a split vote resulted, Roosevelt getting eleven electoral votes and Wilson two.

"A split ticket results from the fact that instead of voting directly for the presidential candidate, voters express their choice for presidential electors. The unofficial returns are based on the vote cast for the first elector in each group.

"The first two electors in the Democratic group were men of prominence and of state-wide reputation and when the ballots were being counted Tuesday night many of the precinct committeemen reported that the first two Democratic electors were running ahead of the Democratic ticket as a whole. Very likely this prevailed all over the state.

"This being true, it is very improbable under the most adverse circumstances, that more than the first two Democratic electors were elected because, as stated, an average of one vote to the precinct would make a difference in the state returns of nearly 6000 votes.

"If Hughes carries Minnesota and New Hampshire he will need only eight of California's electors to win. Even a split ticket is almost certain to give him that number."

A conference will be early next week in an effort to unite all racial faction for common weal. We trust that the same will be well attended and that the colored people of this City line up on all material questions confronting us as one.

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN

It is predicted by some that the future of the race along commercial lines depend entirely upon the activity of our women, and this prediction is to some extent evidenced by the success already made by some of our women in the business walks. In taking a retrospective view of the business enterprises owned, operated and conducted by our people in this city my attention has been especially attracted by a young woman who at the age of 22 years has won for herself a place in the business world.

Three years ago Miss Adah Ross came to Los Angeles and rather quietly hung her shingle at 849 Hemlock St., advertising her own preperation, "Caino." Business was not rushing at first but after a few weeks' stay in the community the very business like atmosphere that surrounded the "Camo" school for hair growing immediately put Miss Ross on record as being a business woman of the highest type.

A few days ago we visited Miss Ross at 849 Hemlock St., where she is conveniently located in a thirteen room house with the most modern appliances for her work.

MISS ADAH ROSS

Miss Ross' preparation for hair growing and her working utensils are among the best on the market.

Within three years time Miss Ross has built up a business that keeps her and two working students buy from Monday morning until Saturday taking care of approximately fifteen heads each week, and wthin the past three years has sent out more than a hundred students who are making good in different parts of the states.

Miss Ross has also established branch offices at 826 Hemlock St., Tel. Main 4238, Mrs. Johnson, Mgr.

Mrs. N. P. Greggs, 1649 W. 37th St., Pohne Vermont 1067.

Miss Ethel Watson, 647 E. 24th St., Tel. So. 2844M.

Mrs. Lulla Pitre, agent at Los Angeles and Pomona, S. L. Eggleston at Watts. Address R. F. D. 12, Box 345 K.

Mrs. C. Alexander, 706 E. 18th street.

Mrs. T. C. Anderson, 708B. E. 18th street.

Pubilc Beware of Imitators

Because of her wonderful success as a hair grower and skin culturists a few people who are not willing to come the right way have decided to steal a march by unlawfully imitating Miss Ross' preparation "Camo," and handling it on the market under her title.

We wish to notify these people that they are transgressing upon the law and are liable to arrest.

MOUSER RE-ELECTED FOR THIRD TIME

Assemblyman Frank H. Mouser, who has been re-elected to the state legislature for the third time from the 74th Assembly District, made the following statement:

I want to express my thanks to the California Eagle for publishing the news of my candidacy for the legislature and to express my grateful appreciation to the voters of the 74th assembly district for the splendid vote they gave me in my fight for re-election to the assembly. I have always voted for humanitarian legislation and am glad to have assisted in passing legislation that is beneficial to the working class. I can assure my friends it will be a pleasure for me to do everything possible at the coming session of the legaslature to assist in passing legislation that will help to lighten the burdens of the men and women who toil.

Mr Mouser received five thousand three hundred and fourteen votes while his opponent received one thousand six hundred and seventy-one votes.

The colored voters particularly and espcially to the women, Mr. Mouser says that he is grateful for their loyal support.

Mr. L. McDuffwas the guest of Mr. Goodwin Van Brunt.

Mr. Dave Cunningham was the guest of Mr. E. W. Wintres.

Mrs. Marie Bray, after three months' stay in Los Angeles, returned home. Her many friends are delighted to welcome her back.

Mr. Hugh T. Lowery spent a few hours Sunday with his sister. A party of eight met him at the train. He returned back to San Francisco Monday.

BISHOP W. T. ANDERSON.

Dr. Kinchen's Reply

Overcome by kindness. Would be so much easier if I were at Cory with double salary and ten times the members to say yes to invitation, from small church here. What is right? What is God's will? It would break my heart to dishearten this little flock here, and yet it grieves me that I do not know what to say to my Bishop. Would a little more time for prayer and counsel help all concerned? I am a Methodist minister, but how I would like to be faithful to this little flock.

On Monday evening Dr. Kinchen wired his final answer. After hours of agony and prayer, I cannot make up my mind to leave my little flock at this time. I shall always be under lasting obligation to you and fully appreciate how serious a matter it is to turn aside this great opportunity, but my best judgment dictates this course.

Mr. Toney Ward of Fort Smith, Ark., uncle of Mr. Wm. H. Roberts, is at the home of his sister-in-law on Fair Oaks Avenue.

Scott's Chapel is planning a great rally to take place the last Sabbath in January, at which time they hope to raise $1,000. Dr. Kinchen was not in his pulpit Sunday morning. Rev. Robinson occupied the pulpit and spoke to a well filled house. Dr. Kinchen returned from Riverside in time for evening service and preached a soul stirring sermon. The Bible class led by Sister Nelson at 6:30 was helpful and enjoyed by all present. Epworth League had a Dry program.

Miss Zenobia Duncan read a splendid paper entitled "The Curse of Drink." Mr. J. Alexandra Kinchen rendered a splendid cornet solo. Madam Beavers, with her excellent choir their usual interesting program.

New additions to the choir are Miss Alberta Worley, violin; Mr. J. Alexandra Kinchen, cornet. The Ladies Aid was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Robinson on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. J. Martin, 260 East Montana Street. The W. H. M. will meet with Mrs. Kinchen Thursday, November 16, 8 p.m., at No. 8 Ritzman Street.

ON TO IMPERIAL VALLEY

Although Wilson is apparently elected there is no need to hesitate, but get ready for the storm that is surely coming. The call is on for cotton pickers in the Imperial Valley—3000 strong—wages as good as $3.00 per day can be made. It is a bonifide proposition, vouched for by the Imperial County Farming Bureau and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, in order to get the workers there the company is making a very special rate three days of the week fare for those who desire to go. We are told by Mr. Place, representing the Farmers' Bureau, that families are there who are making $20 to $25 dollars daily. It strikes us that as many of our people that are out of work at a living wage should take advantage of this opportunity and go to the Imperial Valley. This work will last until March.

There is promised no delay. Those going from here will be checked out of the office at the time they procure their transportation and will be enable to go to work as soon as they arrive at El Centro. Quarters such as obtain in this section will be provided, as well as fuel for cooking purposes. Work is carried on every day in the week, and as we foresaid we warn our people to get busy and prepare for the storm that will be the result from four more years of Wilson in this country.

PASADENA NEWS

Dr. Kinchen Loyal to Scott Chapel, Declines Appointment to One of the Largest Churches in the Connection.

Rev. E. W. Kinchen received the following telegram last week, which caused much uneasiness among the members:

Rev. E. W. Kinchen, Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, Pasadena, Cal. I greatly need you for Cory Chapel, Cleveland, Ohio. Fine opportunity, paying twelve or thirteen hundred and parsonage. In recent conversation Bishop Leonard consented. If you so desire. All rests with you now. Will appoint you immediately. Wire at our expense. Better come. A warm welcome awaits you.

James Dale of Pasadena will lead to the altar one of the Belles of that City, during next week, so we are told.

What the Churches are Doing

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greer, Pastor.

Both services of last Sunday were up to the usual high standard. The pastor preached from chapter 107, verse 30, of the Psalms. He very impressively discussed the Christian's voyage on the great sea of life.

It was communion Sunday and a large representation of members with many friends were present and accepted the holy communion.

Reports of the first Annual Conference, which was held this week, will appear in the next issue of this paper.

THE BAPTIST MINISTER'S UNION.

The Baptist Ministers Union, which meets every Monday, is having some very interesting discussions on various subjects. Last Monday the Union discussed a paper submitted by Rev. T. B. Bynum on "God's Purpose of Grace." The discussions were interesting and helpful.

Next Monday, Nov. 13, promises to be a banner day. Rev. J. T. Hill, A. M., will submit a paper for discussion entitled "Where are the Dead?" or "Is there an Intermediate State?"

Visitors are always welcome and we are preparing for a large number.

The Union meets every Monday at 11 a. m., at Tabernacle Baptist Church, Hemlock St., near 12th.

Rev. S H. Tilman, Pres.
W. H. M. Dickerson, Secy.

Second A.M.E. Church.

Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor

On last Sunday night the pastor preached a forceful sermon which was much appreciated, and there was one addition to the church.

The Helping Hand Society, Mrs. E. J. Knight, President, will give its first entertainment on Monday night, Nov 13th, at the church. George and Gladys Gatliff, supported by a strong cast of local talent, will render the program. Admission 10 cents.

The Ladies Aid and Art Club. Mrs. Emma Gray, President, will meet on Tuesday night to install officers at the residence of Miss Etta Adkins on 52nd St.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The services at this church on the Sabbath were very enjoyable. The pastor preached to two very interesting congregations at both the morning and evening services. The membership was out in large numbers to partake of the holy communion.

Quite a few of the members have been confined to their beds, but we are glad to say that they are improving very fast and will be out again in a few days.

The pastor and members are very busy at work for the big "pow" rally which comes off on the second Sunday in December. We expect to raise at least $300 on that day.

The Epworth League is improving in numbers and interest at each meeting and is one of the most potent factors in the church for helping the young people. Mr. L. D. Polk is the efficient president and is surrounded with a corps of efficient officers, and they are making the League what it really ought to be.

The Church is alive along all lines.

Come and worship with us and we will do you good.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Services at this church on last Sunday were up to the usual standard. The pastor spoke at both services to appreciative audiences.

We were glad to welcome Mrs Dennis and Mrs. Byers to their usual places, both having been ill for some weeks.

The annual fellowship meeting and supper comes on Monday night Nov. 20, and all the committees are busily engaged to make this one of the greatest meetings of the year. Reserve this date. Everyone is invited to attend this great meeting. Further announcements will be made.

The usual services on next Sunday. Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching 11:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. A cordial welcome to all.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Services as follows: Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., Mrs. S. E. Mann, Supt.

Last Sunday was Missionary Day for the children and they rendered a splendid program, highly pleasing to all. The officers are arranging a Sunday School choir among the older children which promises to create much life in the work.

All the members and friends are looking forward to the grand rally on Sunday, at which time we hope to realize a neat sum to be applied on the indebtedness of the church.

Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Value of Small Things."

At 3 p. m the Rally Committee has arranged for a visiting minister to speak for us.

Regular Evangelistic services at the evening hour, 7:30 p. m. The pastor will speak on the subject "The Treasure and the Heart', All are welcome.

This will be the beginning of a ten days revival meeting and all should turn out.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, Pastor

Last Sunday, Nov. 5, 1916, the pastor preached his initial sermon to a large gathering of members and visitors. The audience was both appreciative and responsive. The jubilant spirit of the outpouring crowd after the services heralds the day of a popular and growing Zion. Because a contentented membership means a progressive and multiplying one. Well, Zion can afford to grow now we have an "honor" man from Biddle University, of Charlotte N. C., a twin sister-College of Lincoln University, of Philadelphia, Pa. He was a graduate Theologian at the age of 21, besides receiving the degrees of A. B. and B. T. B., though it is no more than could be expected from one who comes from a family whose father and mother were both graduates and members of the faculty of Alma Mater. He is a scholar and an eloquent speaker.

His subject Sunday at 11 a. m. will be "The Danger of Sleep in the Time of War." At 8 p. m. "The Wondrous Power of a Vision." The public will enjoy a treat if they should hear him on either one of the subjects.

He is a great Sunday School worker and parents, as well as pupils, would do well to come at 9:45 a. m. and be under his instruction for one hour.

Our Church is on record as being one that closes not later than 12:15 m., and begins on time at 11 a. m.

All are welcome.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The Communion Day services were attended by two large congregations. The pastor delivered both sermons, and, including the Class-night addition, there were four accessions to membership. One of these was a convert at the morning service. Revs. D. R. Jones, B. E Edwards and Hartnet assisted the pastor in the administering of the Lord's supper. The pastor was delighted at the presence of these brethren and the help they gave.

President Paul Williams, of the young folks Endeavor Society had a big meeting at 6 o'clock. The program was fine and the membership rally a decided success.

A grand Sacred Concert will be the event at First Church Sunday evening, Nov. 12, beginning at 7:30 sharp. Prof Bynum and our choir and orchestra will give the congregation at this time a treat well worthy of your attendance. Come early and get a good pew. The pastor will preach at the morning service which begins promptly at 11 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

The Red Rose regiment, under the direction of Mrs. Ella Parrish, will serve luncheon and refreshments next Thursday night after Class. Come and enjoy a spiritual as well as a social feast.

Mrs. Emily Clarkson delightfully entertained the Mite Missionary ladies at her beautiful home Tuesday afternoon. The hostess also presented the large gathering of ladies a very interesting paper from the subject "Ruth." A sumptuous repast was served to the happy and grateful throng. Next meet is the Thanksgiving meeting and will be held with Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett.

The "A. B. O. U. T. Club" will give the public a box social in the banquet hall of the church Tuesday night, Nov. 21. You cannot afford to miss this unique treat by the young folks. Everybody invited.

Thanksgiving dinner will be served on Thanksgiving Day by the Red and White regiments in union. It promises to be the best Thanksgiving dinner ever served by the church.

Mrs. Willie Williams very acceptably entertained the Board of Stewardesses in their semi-monthly meeting Wednesday night in her comfortable home on East 29th St.

"The War of the Roses." First skirmish the 2nd Sunday in December, which is Dec. 12 General Lucky versus General Lillian J Craw. Rally to your own General Every member is a soldier, Pastor Craw is Commander-in-chief and takes care of the volunteer subscriptions. Let all of us do our whole duty.

Mrs. Jennie Williams, 1223½ Naomi St., very pleasantly entertained the Trustees Auxiliary Board Thursday afternoon.

Did you attend the Class meeting Thursday night? If not you missed a treat. If you would grow in grace don't miss this real means of spiritual strength. Every member should be seen at the Class room on each Thursday night, or as often as possible.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S CANDID VIEW OF "BILLY" SUNDAY. SAYS "BILLY" IS UNIQUE—HIS VIRTUES AND FAULTS.

God and man dishonored by false doctrines which preachers do not believe—fake preaching abominable to God—instilling superstitious fears a crime—if the Bible does teach that eternal torture is the fate of all except the Saints, it should be preached, yea, thundered, weekly, daily, hourly—if it does not so teach, the fact should be made known and the foul stain dishonoring to God's holy name removed.

Some of "Billy" Sunday's Faults

The pastor said that if the reports that "Billy" prayed to God most irreverently, and addressed the Redeemer as "Old Pal," were true, then "Billy's" influence on the public would lead on in the direction in which the world is now rapidly moving anyway—toward irreverence. He hoped that "Billy" would become more reverent, and believes that this result would follow a better knowledge of God. He could scarcely reconcile with honesty Billy's attempt to tie up all the souls he saved, in the churches which he declared were cold storage plants leading down to hell. He wished that "Billy" would reconcile these opposites.

He was pleased to note that "Billy" Sunday's last sermon in each place was usually on the second coming of Christ; and that "Billy" apparently recognizes the present and last stage of the church, typified in Laodicea. This caused him all the more to wonder why "Billy" would help people into the Laodicean church, which the Bible styles Babylon, and declares that God spues out of His mouth. (Revelation 3:16). Next Sunday the pastor will discuss the second coming of Christ, viewing that great event and Messiah's Kingdom from a somewhat different angle from Billy's. (Copy of Pastor Russell's sermon will be sent free on request. Address this office—Editor.)

The pastor declared that it makes his blood boil with righteous indignation to find Billy's preaching a practical indorsement of the God-dishonoring theory that the great mass of humanity are to suffer eternal torment because they were born in sin, misshaped in iniquity (Psalm 51:5), and then failed to live saintly lives. True, "Billy" does not explain hell. Like most preachers he probably hides his true thought on this subject, while allowing the common people to think that he believes in a hell of eternal tortures. The pastor could not believe that Mr. Sunday or any other intelligent man of our day really believes this invention of the Dark Ages, which antagonizes the Bible as well as common sense.

Mr. Sunday and all other preachers who realize the fallacy of this great "doctrine of devils" (1 Timothy 4:1) owe it to the people, who trust them and who make up their collections, to tell them the truth. More than this they owe it to God that this foul stain upon the Divine character be denounced. They owe it to themselves as men to stand for and speak out the truth and to assist in opening the eyes of the poor, deluded world.

The pastor hopes that Mr. Sunday will yet realize that no one can long maintain a moral standard higher than that which he attributes to his God. The injustice and persecution of centuries is largely attributable to the false doctrines which represent the Creator as a demon who unjustly and unlovingly created our race with the knowledge and intention that 999 out of every 1000 would endure an eternity of torture.

Heaven, Hell and Purgatory

The theory that Christians only are saved from eternal torture has had much to do with the error of counting all civilized people Christians. The creeds save Christians only—Jews, Mohammedans, heathen, all go to hell to roast eternally. Roman Catholics provide a second chance for members of their church, in purgatory, and many Protestants hold to a second chance for the heathen who have never heard of Christ. All the while, however, the Bible declares for only one chance, but that a full one for every member of the human family.

The only chance offered during this Gospel age is the opportunity of becoming a member of the church—a true follower of Jesus. Such are to get the heavenly inheritance, but not until the resurrection. The remainder of the world will be offered an earthly future: and this offer will begin with the establishment of Messiah's kingdom of a thousand years.

The Bible nowhere teaches that either saints or sinners pass to a conscious condition at death. The Bible declares that they all "sleep," and that the awakening time will be at the second coming of the Redeemer to establish His kingdom. The first resurrection will be the church, and subsequently "every man in his own order." When once the fact is grasped that the Bible hell is the grave—Sheol, Hades—then all is plain.

The great divinely arranged purgatory, to last a thousand years, will be glorious. All the heathen and the ignorant, superstitious millions of Christendom, who were taught to call themselves Christians, but who knew that they were not, will have the opportunity of coming to a knowledge of the true God and of His gracious provision for them.

We must all realize that preaching is no mere display, but is a sore battle with the hard hearts of their congregation in which the Gospel is preached at a supreme cost to himself. And conscious that he must summon to his desperate task every resource of feeling and awe to reach the purpose of converting his sinful congregation, such preaching has never failed ot bring out the desired effects.

Our strong and healthy rooster, which we had hoped to exhibit in this issue, died. He could not stand the sad news of the election of Wilson.

Locally in the triumph of Henry Lyons, F. H. Mouser, R. H. Norton, the Race will at all times have staunch and true friends at court, upon whom we may rely.

We are told that what the invited guest, Superintendent Shields said at the N. A. A. C. P. at the annual meeting was not in keeping with the tenets of that body at all.

The Black phalanx fought nobly. Not one; no, not one, was reported out of the firing line, but they failed to receive the proper support on their right flank and lost the battle.

The Colored voters of this state, it can safely be said, are not the ones who will make California dry. A review of the Colored voting precincts is sufficient as to how they stand.

We fought the fight and kept the faith, and although the next four years under this administration will be galing to the utmost, we shall gird our armor and do our very best for real progress all along the line.

Two thousand Colored voters of the Second Supervisorial District stood loyally by R. H. Norton and he romped in a winner by more than 1700 votes, thereby resenting the importation of outsiders in the district to line up the Colored vote against their friend.

A BODY BLOW FOR THE COLORED CITIZENS

The apparent election of Wilson is a sad blow to the Colored people of this nation, from the fact that of all our Presidents he is the outspoken enemy of our progress along all lines and a man who would stoop to hinder the progress of a people who under all the handicaps, as it were, have made the progress we have and have proved ourselves as valuable assets to this nation is a misfit in that high office. So today gloom prevails with this people and wherever you may go among the Colored citizens it is almost a funeral occasion. We feel like there is a stone wall barring our progress we cannot surmount.

But it has ignominiously failed in this crisis. It forgot the army of unemployed that marched the length and breadth of this state only a few months ago. It closed its eyes o the conditions that obtain, even at this time, but it ate up the bunk that has been parcelled ou in the Eight Hour fiasco, and feel like hungry buzzards to the cry, "He kept us out of war." We opine that in the next four years you will war for bread, if the cost of living keep the pace it has under the Democratic administration. So it is a sad story but true, that California, beautiful California, has really been the cause of four more years of Wilson hard times, misery and everything else that goes with it.

AND NOW STAY TOGETHER

There is no question that in the campaign just closed the Negroes, realizing the fact that their arch enemy was in the saddle at Washington, they got together and it certainly was not their fault that Wilson won the election; and now that Wilson hard times are upon us, we are sounding the alarm STAY TOGETHER. There is much to do for even our own salvation, and with a united front we are much better prepared to withstand the assaults that will certainly be directed against our progress. Along the industrial and mercantile lines must be our salvation, and to that end we again say Get Together and Stay Together.

CALIFORNIA MESSES UP THE PARTY

California will forever hang her head in shame for lining up with Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and the South and foisting on the nation four more years of Wilson. Of all the states this one surely should have given its vote to the Republican candidate, because even the temporary prosperity was not in evidence here, and it will never come, because we have no factories for making the munitions of war. We are usually optimistic, but we can only see ahead disaster and gloom, and the harpies and leather-lunged agitators that have brought about this result will rue the day they did it. California lost her opportunity of being the brightest star of them all in the salvation of a mighty nation.

A TROOPER AT CARRIZAL

Black Sophy, way down on the lower branch,
Is washing the white folks' clothes;
The "light wood" burns bright 'neath her iron pot,
And all around her glows.

Her strong arms rustle the feathery
Suds, while she pictures her soldier Joe
As he rode in his handsome khaki
Suit on his way to Mexico.

She thinks with a smile how he hunted coons—
His dog lies near her asleep.
She thinks with a smile of his mouth-harp tunes,
And almost stops to weep.

On the instant her powerful frame springs straight;
She knows the pad of old Jule,
And the sound she hears on the upper road
Is surely Calvin's mule.

Jule's head parts the branches and she appears with her owner on her back;
The preacher, holding a paper on high,
Yellow and lettered black.

"Sist' Jones," he cries, in his preacher voice,
"You is telegrammed, Sist' Jones."
Black Sophy sinks down on a hacked-up log.
"I understand," she moans.

"The station man tole me," the preacher runs on,
"Just what has happened to Joe,
For the Cunnel writ it out plain and clear,
Way down in Mexico.

"He writ how Joe stood in the front-most rank,
And was shot straight through the haid,
And let by the soldiers at Carrizal,
Amongst the brave young daid."

All night Sophy Jones sat still on her log,
And the bright fire faded gray;
While her neighbors came and wailed long and loud—
And Joe's dog went away.

But when the day dawned, the tender June day,
All quietly she arose,
And lighting the pine 'neath the great iron pot,
She washed the white folks' clothes.

Those who are wondering what has become of Hilberte Rozier and his "A Brother's Jealousy" might be interested in the fact that the play will be staged as soon as he finishes the scenario of the same title.

The funeral service of Mrs. Fannie J. Johnson at the Second Baptist church, last Friday, was beautifully conducted by the pastor, Dr. H. D. Prowd, assisted by the many orders of which Mrs. Johnson was a member. The floral contributions were numberless, and beautiful in design.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of my wife, Mrs. Fannie J. Johnson, and for the many floral offerings.

ISAAC J. JOHNSON.

THE PROGRESSIVE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The Progressive Educational Association is making sales both in California and the South, and it is believed that if the Colored people rally to the support of this proposition it will be the awakening of a new era in this section for our people.

WEDDING BELLS

A very beautiful but quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Brown, 1512 E. 33rd St., Monday at 7:30 p. m. The contracting parties were Mr. Anninas Williams and Mrs. May E. Ford, natives of Louisiana. Rev. J. G. Edmonds, pastor of Caldwell Mission, A. M. E. Church, read the ceremony. The happy couple will make their home in Richmond, Cal.

MRS WINNIE GREEN DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Winnie Green, a devout Christian lady and a very loyal member of First A. M. E. church, died suddenly at her place of employment, Monday morning, Oct 20. Her funeral services were conducted from First church, Monday, Nov. 6, at 1 o'clock, by Rev. Craw, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Dyett, of Pasadena, and Rev. Price, of Ward's Chapel On Sunday, Oct. 29, Mrs. Green attended services all day. The morning and evening services were spent at her church and the afternoon services at Furlong Tract in Second church. She returned home that evening and was discovered by her employers in a dying condition about 8 o'clock, Monday morning. A physician was called in but he could not revive her. It is the opinion that she died of apoplexy. However, she has suffered with heart trouble for years. The only relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson, who are cousins of the deceased. A son in New York City and a husband in Northern California could not be located. The interment was made at Rosedale cemetery. Mrs. Greene came from Portland, Ore., to San Diego and from San Diego to Los Angeles.

THE ALLENSWORTH LITERARY INDUSTRIAL CLUB ENTERTAINS

Thursday evening, at the People's Auditorium, the club entertained in honor of Dr. W. C. Gordon and Mrs. C. Hulbert. A most interesting program was rendered, to a comfortably crowded house, and great credit is due the club for the artistic arrangement and manner in which they entertained the promoters of "Hiawatha"

THOUGHTS WISE AND OTHERWISE

Hilbert L. Rozier

Cecil (Bruner) Hopper says: "If walking home with the girls interferes with working hours, give up work," and he practices what he preaches.

• • •

The American populace, in re-electing Woodrow Wilson, has virtually said: "If re-electing Wilson interferes with the progress of the American government, give up progress," which, we admit, is a very elemant demonstration of "American spirit."

• • •

Oh, I beg your pardon. I forgot that this was not the "Political Pot Pie" column.

• • •

Echo Park and the White Sox are about to make us believe that one is scared and the other is glad of it.

• • •

"Shakespeare never repeats." That's nothing, neither does an old-fashioned gun, and yet Shakespeare (his works) will never grow old.

• • •

Presidential elections are as welcome with students as a "pot of gold"—that is, when they come on school days.

Answers to Queries

Q.—Which of Shakespeare's writings do you like best?

A.—If you want personal opinion, I prefer his "Thoughts Wise and Otherwise." (Ahem! that's deep stuff.)

Q.—My best girl told me, one day in June, to call her up some Rainy afternoon. Would you advise me to wait until it rains?

A.—Although I've announced time and again that this is not an "Advice to the Lovelorn" column, I would suggest that you wait until some rainy p. m. She'll probably be married then.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long.

Miss Gwendolyn Logan gave a surprise party to Leon Robinson at the residence of his mother, 3632 Wilson street, it being his seventeenth birthday. He received a beautiful box of five handles from each of the guests present. List of those present: Miss Hazel Scott, Miss Lucile Scott, Miss Ethel Brown, Miss May Hunter, Miss Grace Wallace, Miss Virge Messenger, Miss Gwendolen Logan, Messrs. Ira Scott, Leon Robinson, Edward Thompson, Leo Ellis, Elmer Brown, Willie Henderson, Delbert Maxwell, Chas. Logan, Gathers Perry. The young people enjoyed themselves with different games, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Fred Kennedy entertained at her residence many of the young people of the city, in honor of her brother, Charles Brooks, of Austin, Tex., who is making this his home. Mrs. Kennedy rendered the music of the evening.

The Gala Social Club function was postponed Friday night until the next regular meeting, unless otherwise notified.

A gent at the Exposition was noticed wearing a badge which read: "Don't tease the animals." Which animal did he mean?

Since the election is over, the Eagle reporter dropped into the busy office of Mr. E. W. Anderson and inquired of Mrs Anderson if she knew of any news of importance. With a smile she laid aside her pen and said she did not. She became inquisitive to the reporter and he informed her that he did not discuss religion, prize fights, nor politics, and if she wanted to get the sentiment she would have to read the Eagle. She then became optimistic over things that seldom happen in San Diego She began to fathom living expenses of young married people. She spoke of one time offering two girls to Mr. Dan Badgett for one, but he declined such honors. Miss Edith Thompson came under the fires of her many suggestions, wherein Miss Thompson had to explain all her school career in order to approve to her sweet suggestions. She said that she would like to see an elaborate wedding in San Diego, so that she and all the other elites of the city could wear their expensive gowns. Oh, I am sorry that I have no news for you, but why don't you come around some time at leisure. Just then Mr. Anderson turned the office over for gossip and drove away in his big touring car. Mr. Fred Bluett, of Los Angeles, who is engaged to be married shortly, came in just intime to get his instructions on housekeeping. About that time Mr. Dan Badgett arrived, accompanied by a very beautiful lady. As the conversation burned him so, he turned to a map on the wall and asked me to assist him to find the place where the heaviest fighting was in Europe. He said that he would be safer there. Oh, yes, the Eagle is out of the conversation now, as Mr. John Cloud has arrived in his Cadillac 8. They spoke of many broken engagements of his brother, which he said was the cause of heart breakers' club, in which he was master in such art.

In a mysterious way a large 2-lb. box of chocolate bon-bons arrived on the scene. They had forgotten that the reporter was at hand when she looked up and said "You don't seem to come around to get the news any more." During the tasting of the sweets, Mr. John Cloud stole the Eagle reporter away in his Cadillac 8, sadly disappointed with no news for today.

Rev. Guy and wife, in the first public entertainment given for the benefit of the A. M. E church last Tuesday, Nov. 7, gave a public dinner at the Spreckels Building at First and Broadwawy streets, from 12 m. until 11:30 p. m. The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Robinson, the professional cateress, assisted by Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Dan Cole, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Hornsby, Mrs White, Mrs. Benton, and others. The dinner was a financial success.

Mr. B. F. Spivey, Red Cap of Los Angeles, was down on a visit as guest of M. T. Laws. He enjoyed the Exposition and had the pleasure of seeing the aviator, Bocquel, before his death. He enjoyed his trip to Old Mexico, where he said the race track was a marvel of its kind, and attended the Wet and Dry ball and he said that they walked the dog as he never saw it before, laughed and liked it.

Rev. Nelson barely escaped an accident last Sunday morning; at 4th and Broadway, when a dog ran between his legs and tripped him on the sidewalk, with several minor bruises. He continued on to Sunday school, but did he forgive that dog?

Miss Orphelia Ellis, who has been spending several months in the East, met with an accident on her way home. We are glad to see her up and out again.

Mr. Edward Thompson, student at Coronado High School, another unfortunate one while playing football against the National City team, received a fracture on the head.

Mr. John Cloud, formerly an artist in San Diego, sent his tokens to San Diego on the cover of the Crisis.

Mr. J. A. Jaxon, special representative of the Baltimore & Ohio Ry. Co., spent several days in the city.

The Los Angeles White Sox played the San Diego Hulls last Sunday, but they found a kernel in the hulls this time, which was not so easy to crack, and went down to defeat.

If you would recognize your friends at the ball game, instead of slurring, probably you would not be hit by the tip foul.

A slip of paper came to the Eagle office which said: "Over. Look out, girls; don't get too familiar."

A young man came into a barber shop on a rainy day to be brushed off, but he would not exchange what he had wrapped up for the service What had he?

If you get sick to collect your bill, don't send for a lady doctor. Mr. Dan Badgett is studying that profession. People who live in glass houses should not throw stones.

What has happened to Mr. Dan Cole, since he recovered his diamond ring through Sherlock Holmes?

Oh, well, there is another watch set with a diamond that disappeared from Mr. Sam Brock at or near a certain pool hall. The watch is like the captain said to the soldier when he drew his new shoes on the 1st of the month, on the 15th he returned to draw another pair. The captain said: "What became of the pair you drew on the 1st?" "I wore them out," he said. "Yes, but did you wear them in?" Likewise Mr. Brock's watch stayed out while Mr. Brock went in.

Several people attended the Savoy theatre a few weeks ago that had not been into a show house in 17 years. They say a rabbit never changes his nest unless the dog rouses him. You see, the dog was walking that week, as Mr. B. F. Spivey, of Los Angeles, expresses it, when he saw them dance it in a dance hall. He admitted he had never seen anything like it before, and how they danced, laughed, and liked it!

A certain lady said that she did not oppose the dance, but had she been one of the dancers, she would have worn a certain costume—one like Nina.

Mr. Dan Badgett had better be careful how he shoo-flies around the silver strand. If he does not anticipate missing the last boat, why, he wants to buy a launch.

The Forum held an interesting meeting last Sunday. There were a great many new faces present. It was a kind of informal meeting and still very enjoyable. Mr. Harvey spoke so many times that one would think he knew Roberts' rules by heart. Why, he even stood up and had the members sing "John Brown's body lies a-moulding in the grave," and you can bet your last dollar it was sung as they used to sing it way back in the '60's. Why, the president, Rev. Nelson, was so carried away that his face blushed at it had never blushed since he told about Mississippi. The committee on program were notified to be a little more prompt, and after much merriment adjourned to meet Sunday, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Eva Smith is very busy at her studio in East San Diego, receiving orders for Christmas paintings.

The three Eagle reporters saw Joe Bocquel in his death drop last Saturday. Had our office been stationed in the tower of the California building we could have been sending the dreadful news to the four ends of the earth in 30 seconds.

They are off today at Tia Juana. All roads lead to the big gates. We prognosticate 40,000 today.

Mr. James Warren returned home from Imperial Valley Saturday.

The work in the Mt. Zion Baptist church is prospering, financially and spiritually, under the splendid leadership pof Rev. C. Williams. The services are well attended; there were two young men added to the church Sunday.

The B. Y. P. U. gave a Baskward entertainment Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, at 30th and Greely. It was a success.

Miss Annie Mulholland, who has spent some time in Ventura, visiting her sister, returned home Friday. She reports spending a pleasant vacation.

Be cheerful, give this lonesome world a smile. We stay at longest but a little while. Hasten we must, or we shall lose the chance to give the gentle word, the kindly glance. Be sweet and tender—that is doing good. 'Tis doing what no other kind deed could.

The Literary Society, under the auspices of the Carnation Club, met Tuesday evening at the Mt. Zion church. Much credit is due Mrs. C. Williams, chairman of the program committee, who spared no pains in making the programs as interesting as possible. The first Tuesday evening in each week has been set apart for the literary work with the young people, and the Carnation Club, on its next meeting night, will try to arrange it so the young people can have two evenings during the month for their literary programs. A debate is on for the next meeting.

The Missionary Society is preparing to take a part in the Exchange Day, which will take place some time in December.

Five young men, who landed in San Diego, Sunday, from Virginia, did not stop until they found Mt. Zion Bap-

AT SOJOURNER TRUTH CLUB HOUSE

The membership contest between the Blues and the Gold, under the direction of Mrs. Louise Williams, captain of the Blues, and Mrs. Scott, captain of the Gold, ended last Monday in defeat for the Gold. Mrs. Williams and her energetic blues carried off the banner. The Gold will entertain in honor of the Blues with a reception Monday afternoon, Nov. 27, from 2 to 5. All new members will also be honored guests. The public is cordially invited.

The Domestic Science department, under the supervision of Mrs. Madge Kelly, will give a demonstration with "veal-bird" on Monday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 2 o'clock, which will be very instructive. Come and learn how to prepare and serve food.

The Club wishes to express its gratitude to the Matrons and Bachelor Maids for the interest they manifested in the Home by giving their Halloween Social. Through their chairman Mrs. M. V. Cunningham they turned over $83.35 net proceeds from the entertainment. May they live long to continue their work for humanity.

"An Evening of Fun" for the Benedicts and Bachelors, Matrons and Bachelor Maids as a small appreciation for their interest in the Home, has been arranged by the Social Chairman, Mrs. Emma Williams, for Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at Sojourner Home, 1119 E. Adams St.

Classes in Physical Culture, Parliamentary Law and Domestic Science will begin Dec. 1st. Competent trained teachers have been secured. Women are urged to register for these classes by calling in person or phone S. 3414.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Baptist Church gave a reception to Mrs. J. D. Gordon and Mrs. Bilbrew at Sojourner Home Thursday afternoon, 2 to 5 o'clock.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People gave a banquet at Sojourner Home Wednesday evening. Mayor Woodman and Supt. of Schools Dr. Shields were honored guests. Covers were laid for sixty.

Invitations are out for a number of weddings, introducing the fall season, popular among which are Miss Mae Jones and Miss Rosetta Warner.

Big Effort

Last Saturday the colored people rallied to the call of Rev. R. D. Arline and Mrs. S. A. Cole and made an excellent showing in the Dry parade. The floats furnished by Tabernacle and Wesley Chapel were especially beautiful, and the Black and Tan Band attracted attention all along the line because of their excellent renditions. The showing made by our people was excellent and demonstrated that they were willing to make both effort and sacrifice to succeed.

Captain Henry V. Batie Gone to Rest

The early settlers of Los Angeles turned out Friday, Nov. 3rd, at the First A. M. E. Church, to pay their last respect to Capt. Batie.

The Captain, who was honored and respected by all who knew him, was born the 8th day of July, 1868, at Denison, Texas, and served 13 years in the United States Army. He has lived in Los Angeles 27 years, during which time he won the hearts of his friends and the highest esteem of the citizens whom he touched in his daily routine. At the Hall of Records, where the Captain was employed for many years, he will be greatly missed. Even though his demise came in the midst of a very busy campaign, Supervisor Horton and other officials found time to attend the funeral and pay high tribute to the deceased.

Rev. J. Logan Craw preached a wonderful funeral sermon.

SAN BERNARDINO

Rev. J. H. Killier, of St. Augustine, Florida, who has been carrying on a revival at New Hope Baptist Church for two weeks, has returned to Los Angeles. During his stay in the city he preached to large crowds and a great spiritual awakening was manifested, and there were ten additions and many more inquiring the way. Rev. Kellier was an able speaker, well versed in the Bible and a strong Christian gentleman.

The fifth Sunday was Women's Day at New Hope Baptist Church. At 11 a. m. a special sermon was preached to women. At 3 p. m. the Doctrinal sermon was preached both by Rev Kellier, after which the candidates were baptized. At 8 p. m. a sacred concert was rendered, and at its close ten of the newly elected officers of the Missionary society were installed by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Cooper.

The entertainment given by the New Hope Missionary Society on Thursday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, was a great financial success. A large crowd from Redlands and San Bernardino turned out and all enjoyed the delicious chicken supper served by the ladies. They also had a sale of fine candies and a display of fancy articles, both of which were well patronized. The only thing to mar the occasion being the serious illness of Mrs. Alexander.

Miss Laurette Baker and Miss Ruth Whitesides, of Redlands, were the guests of Miss Florence Harrison Sunday.

Miss Lucy Mendenhall is confined to her home quite sick.

Mrs. W. H. Harrison has been quite sick for several days.

Mrs Henry B Ingrham has been confined to her bed since Friday.

Little Clifford Mabra, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mabra, has been quite sick.

The many friends of Mrs. James D. Alexander will be glad to know that the Doctor has pronounced her out of danger and hopes for a speedy recovery.

A Victory for the Pastor of the Providence Baptist Church.

Rev. N. P. Moore was called to the pastorate of the Providence Baptist Church on the second Sunday in July 1916, and he found the members struggling under a twelve thousand dollar debt, and but a few to bear it. After surveying the situation for two months, the pastor saw that the burden was too much, and he began to prayerfully consider the way out. He thought to prevail upon the members to give up the struggle, and hunt for cheaper quarters, by getting a hall and starting anew; he thought this would lessen a burden upon the few members that had been struggling for nearly three years without any results. The last thought that came to the pastor was, that there were a number of Baptist churches, small bodies in Los Angeles, and all struggling for an existence. He then resolved to consolidate the Providence Baptist with some one of the small bodies.

He pondered all of his plans in heart, and did not let anybody know his object until he had things ready for action.

When the plan was presented to his members they readily accepted, and a committee was appointed by the church to confer with the St. Paul Baptist Church. On meeting the said church, they gladly accepted the offer; the committee reported the same, and the church resolved in its regular meeting to consolidate with the St. Paul Baptist Church, as one body in Christ.

Next Sunday the 12th, the services in making the two bodies one will be conducted by Revs. Gordon, Proud and Davis. The union will take place at 3 p. m at St. Paul Baptist Church.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

Sunday morning, Nov. 12th, Dr. J. D. Gordon, the eloquent pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, will preach for the Wesley membership. Friends are invited to this service. In the evening the Rev. Arline will bring the message.

The second and fourth Sundays in this month are Rally days for the traveling and moving expenses of the new pastor, interest, repairs, etc. Come prepared to pay a part of the $1.00 assessment Sunday, or you may pay it in full. Let every member turn out on the 2nd and 4th Sundays.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Dr. N. P. Gregg, pastor of the Independent Church, is the speaker for the men and boys Sunday, Nov. 12th, at 3 p. m. The meeting is open to the public.

The committee on Boys Work is appealing to the grown folks for membership in the Y. M. C. A for worthy school boys. Last November, Boys' Month, interested some 65 boys. The Committee is asking this year for 100 people to pay $1.00 as first payment on a boys $2.00 membership, during November.

Simple But Pretty

At the home of Mrs. Mary Brown, 1512 E. 33rd St., Monday, at 7:30 p. m., Mrs. Mary E. Ford and Mr. Anninas Williams were quietly married by the Rev. J. G. Edmonds, of Caldwell Mission in Boyle Heights. The ceremony was simple but pretty.

MISS ROSA L. SAMPSON OPENS NEW PARLOR ON CENTRAL AVENUE

Miss Sampson's new parlor is a sample of industry, and thrift. At 844 Central Ave., her new pretentious parlor adds much to the business dignity of the avenue, and also gives Miss Sampson a better opportunity to demonstrate her wonderful ability as a hair grower, scalp and skin specialist.

In addition to her work room, she has added a complete line of the best toilet articles on the market.

WATTS NEWS

Mr. Miller, of Los Angeles, was a recent visitor at the home of the Blues on Council Ave.

Mr. Lee, Grand Deputy of the Ancient Order of Free Masonry, spent Sunday visiting Mr. Flether Beavers and others.

There is talk of organizing "The Household of Ruth" here. Good news if true.

An old time class meeting was held by the Methodists Sunday, led by Bro Samuel Steward, and to see hearts burn and tears flow it makes us feel like Moore said, "tis good to meet together."

The Seven Day Adventists deserve much honor for the great work they are doing.

Rev. Trigg filled his pulpit Sunday, and each sermon was spiritually uplifting.

Our mothers and friends have got together, united, and have thrown out their flag as a signal for the safety of some boy or girl. Some one has a "purity" sign and ready for duty where and whenever called, to lift up the downcast and raise the fallen. Officers are as follows: Mrs. Danny, President, Mrs. Wright, Vice President; Mesdames Drew and Shaw, Secretaries; Mrs. Smith, Treasurer, and Mrs. Peery, Chaplain.

Mr. Samuel Steward has taken a firm and enthusiastic stand for Christ, and is working hard to convince the young folks how their pleasures and joys would increase by working for the King.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Ben Sears, of E. 27th St., has been quite ill.

Watts must certainly have some very great attraction, judging from the way people are moving here.

Mrs. Gilliam has made great improvements to her property on Villa Avenue.

Rev. Washington continues his sounding of the gospel nightly, requesting all sinners to turn.

The Junior Endeavor of the A. M. E. Church held an election of officers Sunday evening.

Mr. Sanders and wife were up from Long Beach Sunday, helping to drink from the fountain.

Rev. Wilson, Baptist minister of Monrovia, was visiting with his sister, Mrs. Weaver, the music teacher, on Sunday.

Misses Bertha Wilson and Anna Hobbs, of San Diego, are being royally entertained by the elite of the city.

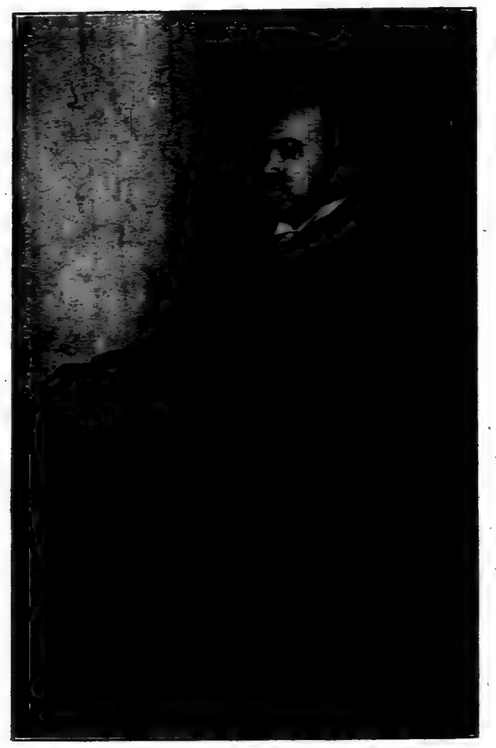
Progressive Educational Association

The Greatest Proposition Ever Offered for the Benefit of the Race. Absolutely Bona Fide The Future Hope of a Struggling People.

THE GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Progressive Educational Association, Rev. J. D. Gordon, president, has negotiated for 107,000 acres of the best farming land in the West. Said land is located in the State of Arizona, and is known as Santa Rosa Valley. This fine farming land is set apart for an industrial colony. A town site will be located in the center of the tract, and a college erected for the training of the youth of the Race, for the varied pursuits of life.

OPPORTUNITY FOR THE NEGRO IN THE WEST



In the State of Mississippi and Oklahoma, where the Negro is oppressed and disfranchised of his God-given privileges and citizen rights, they have seized the opportunity of building for themselves and have made good.

Why not the Negroes in the West, with the knowledge offered them, come together and make a show?

Our people are making a gross mistake in flocking to the great cities of the West, where Organized Labor has the door closed against them, and their wives and daughters have to go out in service and work to pay house rent, and part of the time the men are walking the streets without work.

Some of them are trying to buy homes on the installment plan, and contracting four and five thousand dollars indebtedness, and it takes all their spare money just to keep up the interest.

This same person could take $440 and purchase them 80 acres of the best farming land in the West, and the first year he is on the land, it will pay for itself, and wife and daughters can remain at home.

H. H. Williams

The widow woman who is out in service can grow fruit and raise enough poultry to make her life happy, without such hard work.

THE CLIMATE

There is not another location in the United States that has more suitable climate for the colored man. It is never too hot and never too cold—average 1800 feet above sea level, no heavy frosts and no snow. The plains are green the year round, an ideal climate and a healthy country. Plenty of rain for two crops a year, the rainy seasons coming, one in the winter and the other in the summer months, July, August, and September.

PRODUCTION

The land will produce cotton, and corn, 50 to 75 bushels per acre; wheat, barley, oats, and other small grain, 40 to 60 bushels per acre; potatoes and beans, peas of all varieties, melons of all kinds, and all semi-tropical vegetables.

FRUITS

Lemons, oranges, grapes, and all kinds of nuts, and any fruit that grows in any semi-tropical climate.

A smooth table land.

THE SURVEY

The lands will be allotted in 40, 80 and 100-acre tracts, and the cost per acre will be $5.50 for the present.

TERMS

40 acres @ $5.50 = $220.00.
80 acres @ $5.50 = $440.00.
100 acres @ $5.50 = $550.00.

These amounts can be paid on the installment plan if desired.

When the European war comes to a close, and it is made possible for the thousands to come to this country, all thinking people are agreed that all or most of our idle territory will be taken up by the homeseekers. Having this in mind, and also seeking to provide for the Western states a school or university for the religious training of our girls and boys, we desired a location. We have searched California for a desirable place, but could not find in the State just what we wanted.

We have succeeded now in laying hands upon more than 100,000 acres of the best land now idle on the North American continent.

1. There is no alkali in this land anywhere.
2. There is no adobe soil in this land.
3. There are no rocks on this land.
4. There is no sand or sand dunes on this land.
5. Nor can you find gullies in this territory.
6. The land is so level that you would never need to level it for irrigation.
7. This is fine soil for cotton raising.
8. Cattle and hog raising.
9. You can produce two crops a year without irrigation; one you plant in December, and the other in June.
10. This land without irrigation, will produce 50 to 60 bushels of wheat to the acre, and then the same year, without irrigation, produce 50 bushels of corn per acre.
11. The wind velocity is an important matter to the western farmer, many have to plant trees around the farm to protect the produce from high winds, but here, according to government reports, the velocity of the wind is from four to seven miles per hour.
12. This land, every foot of it, is water bearing, and you can get water from 15 to 50 feet, when you are seeking surface water.
13. The water from the artesian depth is so pure that in using the engine for four consecutive years, the boilers did not have to be cleaned out once during this time.
14. This land will produce the finest cotton possible, and when opened should be a rival to Imperial Valley.
15. It is nearly 1800 feet above the sea level, and out of the reach of fogs.
16. This is an orange producing climate and soil, but we can only know from the fact that 40 miles away oranges and lemons grow in abundance, therefore we safely conclude that lemons and oranges will grow here.
17. This land, from its productive powers, is easily worth $150 per acre. Everything that we have said about this land can be verified.

Now we are putting 20,000 acres of this land on the market at such a figure that it will startle you. We do so because we have plenty land left, and what we sell at this figure will help us to sell the rest of the land for what it is worth.

We have 250 certificates, called "Founders' Certificates," which members are to keep for the coming generation, as a memorial.

These Certificates will cost you $440 on terms, and will entitle you to cast one vote for the "Trustees" of the School in this Province; and give you 80 acres of this matchless land; thus letting you have the land at the rate of $5.50 per acre. This door will not be open always for the ambitious men and women among us.

One-fourth of all the proceeds from the sale of said land will be placed in escrow for the establishment and endowment of this University, thus avoiding the necessity of asking anyone for a donation, white or black. We hope that all Negroes who believe in and delight in the Negro's possibility, will enthusiastically join in with this religious, industrial, civil, and educational movement, that promises so much for the Race.

We hope to see a great city, surrounded by a great number of prosperous farmers and cattle raisers, and artisans skilled in every department of hand-craft; and turn out from there to the world, the best articles along all lines, bearing the name and stamp of this great University; and nothing can stop the Race from going on to greatness. The Race cannot go to greatness by saying great things alone, but by our deeds shall we be promoted in this world.

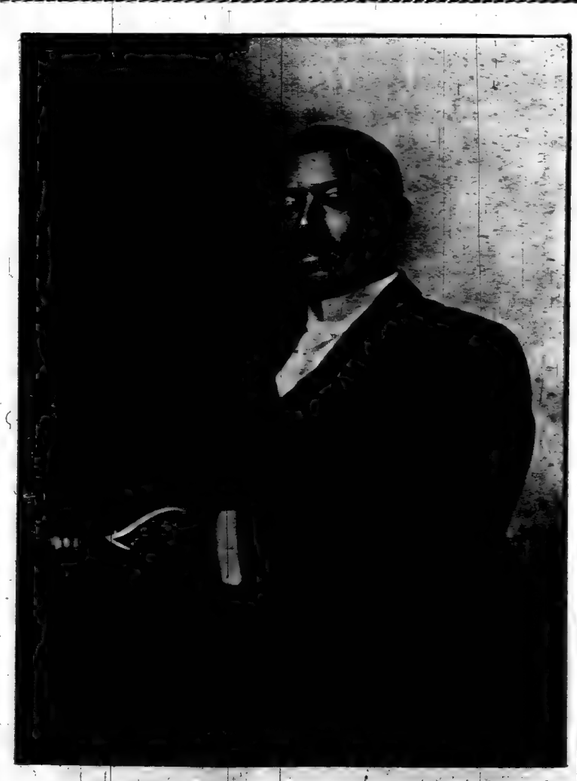
YOU AND I



(Dedicated to W. E. Easton.)

The creed of a man is a thing we must Allow to him, if our own is just;
And whether I saint or Sufi be,
The same as a right belongs to me.
While opposites don't bear the name,
Both he and you are just the same.
No matter his skin, be it black or tan,
Or red, or white, he's man—just man.

His skin may be of the snow as white,
While his heart be wrong and black as night.
Another's skin of black may be,
With heart as pure as a crystal sea.
And black may cover an evil soul,
Where all the tides of treason roll,
And red be rebel and sin its ban,—
So all in all, we're man—just man.

In the balance we all are weighed,
Priest and peasant and man of trade;
The scholar grave, in wig and gown;
The wise man, too, and the leering clown;
And a day will come and the day will be,
The last to you and the last to me;
And whether our skin is black or tan,
Or red, or white, we are man—just man.

—Miller.

tist church. Coming in at 7:15, and the B. Y. P. U being in session, they were promptly asked forward, and were introduced to the society. They were all Christian young men and their presence was highly appreciated at Mt. Zion. They will leave soon, to go back to Virginia.

Rev. Robinson's trip to Stockton, anticipating changing positions, he got right on the train, got right off at Stockton, liked the town, got right on again, got right off at San Diego. Says he likes it better.

Miss Helen Randolph entertained, at a house reception, in honor of Miss Littlejohn and Miss Viola Stokes, of Los Angeles; Miss Mary Jackson, and Miss Abbie Benjamin were also present. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the guests, as Miss H. Randolph certainly knows how to entertain.

Mrs. M. A. Hayden is learning very fast how to operate her automobile. She will soon be driving all around San Diego, alone.

Mrs. B. R. Randolph and Mrs. E. F. Floyd, of Los Angeles, were in the city for several days, and after visiting all points of interest, returned home.

Mrs. M. T. Laws was a guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Maria Laws, 51st and Holmes avenue, Los Angeles, laest Wednesday, and she tried to induce her to become a resident of San Diego.

The Black and Tan Orchestra Silver Strand ball that was held Friday night, Nov. 10, was a grand success, both socially and financially. Many swell gowns were noticed in the hall.

Don't forget the big soiree to be held at Kastle Hall, Nov. 30, under the auspices of the Black and Tan Orchestra. We give you music as you like it. They all say we have been doing it. How do they do it? Come out and see.

POLICEMAN WATSON IS BEAT UP

Last Monday evening at Labor Temple, where a dance under the direction of the Creole orchestra was in progress, Policeman Watson, while on duty endeavoring to preserve order was badly beat up by a riotous mob.

Persons standing near by say that the law breakers claimed that they had successfully gotten rid of Officers Broady and White, and they were going to put an end to Officer Watson, but fortunately for Officer Watson, he was re-inforced from the Department in time to at least save his life. However, in the struggle, the officer was badly cut and beat up by his assailants.

For the past ten or more years the Negro officers in the Police Department of Los Angeles have made good, and it is deplorable that the decent law abiding Colored citizens should sit supinely by and allow repeated law breakers to bring enough pressure to bear upon those in authority to oust these Colored officers out of the service in which they have made good. This sort of attitude on the part of our people not only point towards a dangerous moral standard, but likewise a depressing financial status among us.

"INTOLERANCE" VS. "CLANSMAN."

INTOLERANCE

D. W. Griffith, Producer of the Clansman, Forgiven

For the past two weeks there has been flashed on the curtain at Clune's Auditorium a picture entitled "Intolerante, or the Mother and the Law."

The Picture

In response to a shrill bugle call the great curtain at Clune's rolls up slowly, very slowly. There appears a Colonial and Grecian type cradle. At the head of the cradle a fair lady sits and rocks. The cradle represents evolution while the hand that rocks is the spirit of the age in question. The picture represents three distinct periods of history, each as it were a story told in vivid picture language. The first rock of the cradle brings forth a typical Western city with its immense factories and mills, the inner life of these great industries depicting the great war in process between labor and capital, while the second rock flashes a similar period of French history when Charles IX. was king, but better known by students of history as the reign of that strong but wicked character, Catherine de Medici, of France, and the third rock runs backward over centuries and epochs into that ancient, but again similar, period of history when Belshazza ruled over beautiful Babylonia.

Each of these periods beautifully contrasted, shows in the main that we of today are heirs of the civilization of our forefathers of yesterday, even back to the very beginning, and that the greatest war that is being waged, and has ever been waged, is Love against Selfishness.

The picture not only demonstrates the wonderful inventive mind of the picture producer of Thomas Dickson's "Clansman," but clearly shows that D. W. Griffith stands out above them all as the greatest humanitarian of the age; for no mind could make such a clear appeal for justice unless the whole soul was involved in the propaganda.

The Afro-American critics who have seen "Intolerance" believe now that had Mr. Griffith realized that that picture production of the "Clansman" would have had a tendency to prejudice the minds of so many people of the White race against the struggling Blacks of this country, only 53 years up from slavery, he would never have produced it.

As a race we believe that "Intolerance" will do much to abate the prejudicial feeling created by the "Clansman."

At Clune's, where "Intolerance" is being shown, and at other play houses where petty prejudice is practiced against members of the Afro-American race, we hope that "Intolerance" will teach its first great lesson of "Love."

THE NEW MARRIAGE

As was announced in our columns and others of the city, last Sunday afternoon the Providence Institutional Baptist church was given in wedlock to the St. Paul Baptist church, hence there is no more Providence Baptist, but a greater and bigger St. Paul.

We were pleased to note that the entire affair was harmonious. All of the Baptist ministers of the city were present to endorse the movement, which in fact is hailed by the Baptists of this section as a great step towards true Christian unity.

A committee of seven was appointed to call a pastor—at least two names having been mentioned as favorable candidates, viz.: Rev. J. T. Hill and Rev. C. N. Moore, the former pastor of Providence church.

BLACK POPULATION IS FAST INCREASING

Large Number of Negroes Coming to Liverpool from America and Africa

Liverpool, Nov. 11.—(Correspondence of Associated Press)—Liverpool is becoming conscious of a remarkable growth in its black population. The negroes are coming from the west coast of Africa and from America. A striking feature of the invasion is that the blacks, so numerous on the city streets, generally are arrayed in garments of the latest cuts and hues. The color schemes usually are rather loud, the negroes from Africa vieing with those from the United States in a riot of checks, stripes, vivid neckties, lurid hose and bright yellow shoes.

At first this invasion puzzled the authorites here, but a ltle investigation tended to solve at least a part of the mystery. The bulk of the blacks it seems have been recruited on the west coast to work as firemen on steamers whose white crews presumably have become reduced through the war. They are not all seafarers, however, for many appear to have signed for one trip only and have obtained employment in the short-handed factories at lucrative wages. This is particularly true of the American negroes, many of whom have come over as muleteers or other workers on ships in the American trade.

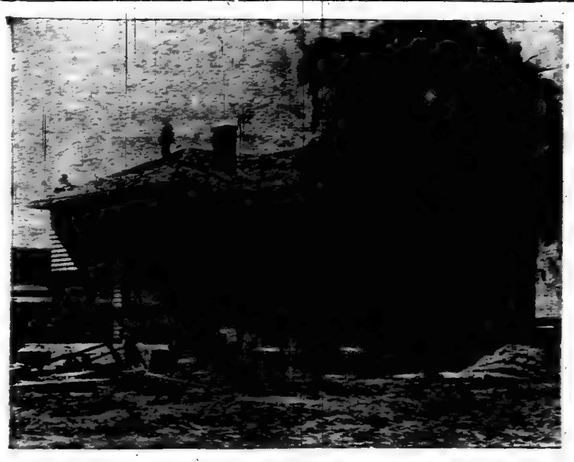
The West Africans speak English, of course, but not very fluently. The American negroes being quite glib of tongue, are more interesting to the Liverpool street crowds. The American blacks do not go to all the extremes of dress affected by the Africans, who in their new found wealth and European surroundings have proved profitable customers to the cheaper class of tailors.

The annihilation and devastation of the best and able-bodied men of Europe, caused by the war and disease, and the great stampede by the native African men to Europe, recalls the prediction that amalgamation was inevitable as Africa would be the only country to meet the demand.

PROGRESS AND THE NEGRO

Detroit Free Press: It takes years for great movements to produce visible results. In the South a gregarious, pleasure-loving, improvident race has seemed to be but slightly affected by the economic and industrial changes of the time. The negro has been the unskilled laborer, the poor tenant farmer, raising his bale or two of cotton and turning it over to the local buyer in liquidation of his debt for the year's living expenses. The teachings of institutions like Tuskegee, Calhoun, and Hampton are producing a class trained in trades, efficiency and initiative, whose influence is a leaven slowly permeating the mass for industrial uplift and awakening in the negro a sense of his economic value. The labor shortage has been an advantage to him. Seven thousand negroes applied to the Federal Department of Labor last year in regard to opportunities for employment; testimony to the spread of industrial education.—(From the Scrap Book, by J. D. Reynolds.)

THEY SAY THAT JOHNSON DID IT. DID HE?



Because it seems that California has gone wildly and madly Democratic they say that Johnson did it. Now, my friends, it may be that my political vision is dim, for I certainly can't see it that way. I heard the governor upon at least two occasions during the campaign, and upon both of these his plea for Hughes and Fairbanks was both strong and sincere.

I am not a Progressive, never have been, but I have been and am now strong for Johnson, even though he signed the Full Crew bill, for I believe that in so doing his intentions were not to discriminate against the colored people, but to entirely do away with the old system and start a new regime, by which all people, slowly but eventually, would be benefited.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Gordon, East Washington street, gave a dinner Tuesday evening of this week, in honor of their twelfth wedding anniversary. The markets of the city were searched for delicacies and the collation which was served in seven courses was a masterpiece of culinary art. The Dr. presented his wife with a beautiful silver mesh bag. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Kelely, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Gordon, Mrs. Emma Williams and W. O. Tyler were at table with "mine hosts" and having enjoyed the dinner and extended the Dr. and Mrs. Gordon their hearty congratulations, the evening was concluded at the whist table.

NEW OLD FOLKS' HOME

The Executive Board of the Western Baptist Distrilct convention met at the residence of the president, Mrs. L. L. Moore, 746 Crocker street, last Saturday afternoon and arranged for the quarterly meeting to be held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Nov. 25. Great preparations are being made for the convention of the Old Folks' home, the laying of the corner stone of which is to be on Nov. 26, in the afternoon, and there will be a great program.

A CLASSY RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MRS. CLARA C. HULBERT, DR. W. C. GORDON AND THE HIAWATHA CHORUS

On last Thursday evening, Nov. 9th, at the People's Auditorium the Allensworth Literary & Industrial Club received in honor of Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert, Dr. W. C. Gordon and members of the Hiawatha Chorus. The reception was an expression marked with a reciprocal nature of gratitude for the sacrifice and labor each of the recipients of honor gave in the Hiawatha Wedding Feast in making it so remarkable successful and the grandest affair ever staged in the West by our representative colored talent, during the month of September.

The program for the evening was characterized with the most desirable features of joy and inspiration. Part I of the program was as follows: Selection by the chorus, address by Attorney C. A. Jones, violin selection by Harvey Patton, accompanied with the piano by his sister, Miss Patton; vocal duet, Miss Brown and Mrs. F. B. Murray; piano selection by Mme. Lillian Jeter Davis; vocal, Mrs. Gussie Bacon.

Part III was the Grand March, led by Prof. C. A. Biggers and Miss Luvena Hickman, the same was conducted in the latest style. One hundred and fifty persons were in the Grand March, and by the "Music Pause" method, with the change of partners at each short rest, each person enjoyed the privilege of marching with every other person in the grand marchh.

Part III was characterized with a feature of no little degree of appreciation—the ladies of the Club, with a very unique arrangement of the guests and recipients of honor served, with other delicacies brick cream in the Club's colors. Much credit and praise is due Mrs. Dyson and Mrs. Bush as chairman or heads of the committee on serving, for the manner in which all were appreciatively served.

Those who stood in the receiving line for the evening were: Mrs. C. C. Hulbert, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon, Mrs. A. E. Webber, Mrs. Jas. Bate, Mrs. Lillian Jeter Davis, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Prowd, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. T. Little, Mrs. E. R. Baldwin, Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Davis, Rev. and Mrs. Moore. The introduction committee were: Mrs. N. F. McMickin, Mrs. F. A. Coles, Mrs. V. Fingers, Mrs. F. R. Murray, Mrs. John Hollins, Mrs. Jeff Davis. Prof. C. A. Biggers was master of ceremonies for the evening.

At 11:30 all departed with congratulations.

CHURCH AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN THE CROWN CITY

The services of Scott's Chapel Sabbath Day started with the early morning prayer, meeting led from 6 to 7. Sabbath school at 9:30. This department is improving nicely under the leadership of Supt. D. J. Lee. Dr. Kinchen occupied his pulpit at the 11 o'clock services, taking as his subject, "Grace," using the benediction, "Now may the grace of God remain with you now, henceforth and forever. Amen."

Everyone present seemed to receive a spiritual blessing and many were heard to say that they had never seen so much in the benediction before. The Holy Sacrament was given to many earnest worshipers who gathered about the altar. The evening services were inspiring. The Bible class, led by Sister Wilson, commenced at the usual hour, 6:30 to 7:15. All who attend this service receive a spiritual uplift. Immediately following this service came the Epworth League with Mr. Bragg, chairman; Mrs. Taylor, Literary Secretary, and Miss Oberzine Lee, Corresponding Secretary. A splendid program was rendered. At 7:45 the usual evening services began with Dr. Kinchen in his pulpit. Every auxiliary of the church has taken new life and are working together as one big family.

Mrs. Bertha L. Turner had as her guests the Misses Martelia and Lomona Lewis of Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. H. Griffy and Mrs. W. S. Pyles halve as their guest this week their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Schoteau, and their daughter, Mrs. Stewart. Mr. Schoteau is a Shriner and Mrs. Stewart is secretary of Federated Clubs in Kansas, Mo., their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Smith of Cincinnati returned last Monday and will make their future home in Pasadena. Mr. Smith reports dull times in the Buckeye state.

Mr. F. C. Walker of Sierra Bonita street is able to be about again after two months' serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Griffy of 174 Sierra Bonita entertained with an elaborate five course dinner party in honor of their brother and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Schoteau and their niece, Mrs. Stewart of Kansas City, Mo. The home was prettily decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Memorial services will be held at Scott's Chapel M. E. church, Sunday evening in honor of the late Dr. Booker T. Washington and Sch Low. Some of Southern California's best speakers will take part on the program. The choir will render Dr. Washington's favorite jubilee songs.

THE NEW PASTOR OF THE FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

The coming of Rev. Robeson to the pastorate of the A. M. E. Zion church of this city seems to have added a strong factor to the very able galaxy of ministers of the city.

Rev. Robeson is but a young man in the ministry, but his conception of things, and his very efficient training seems to have especially fitted him for the work intrusted to his care in this city. Our impression is that he is a powerful young preacher, able, out of his knowledge of psychology, to fit his texts to his people and handle them for the people's spiritual edification and enlightenment. The Eagle extends to this young preacher a warm welcome and urges the people of the Zion connection to give him their hearty support.

BEACH RESORTS MUST NOT DISCRIMINATE

Justice Shannon of Sawtelle on Monday of this week rendered a decision in the case of Mrs. J. Columbus vs. La Petite Theatre Company, in which Mrs. Columbus sought damages for discrimination in the company's moving picture theatre on Ocean Front avenue, Santa Monica. The judgment is for $50.00 and costs, the amount demanded by Mrs. Columbus.

Attorney E. Burton Ceruti who represented Mrs. Columbus, said in connection with this case.

"This decision is another stone in the foundation on which rests our confidence in the courts generally and in Justice Shannon of Sawtelle particularly."

"The Justice allowed the full amount prayer for in the plaintiff's complaint. This amount was small—in fact, the minimum sum allowed by law. Unless the circumstances are aggravated or there be substantial damages incurred, no excessive or speculative judgment shhould be sought in these cases.

"It is not proper that we should endeavor to make capital of these offenses. An insult, an attack upon our honor or dignity cannot be measured in dollars and cents; money does not heal such a wound. The end or aim of these actions is to stop the discrimination, to convince the wrong-doers that the law can and will be enforced. This can be just as effectively accomplished with small judgments as with large ones, the compelling force lies in the certainty with which such offenses will be punished.

"Mrs. Columbus is to be commended for her public spirited fight."

What the Churches are Doing

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Eighth and Towne Ave. Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Services Sunday were up to the usual high standard with two splendid congregations in attendance. The pastor preached and there was one addition to the membership at the morning service. Our full choir and superb orchestra gave a rich sacred program at night to the delight of all present. Prof. Bynum announced the next sacred concert to be on Christmas Eve, Sunday night, Dec. 24th. New Christmas music is ordered and a Yule Tide program will be rendered that night which will not be surpassed by any organization in Southern California. The public is always welcome to these services.

Rally, rally, rally in the first skirmish the second Sunday in December to pay all we can on our bonded indebtedness. "Out of Debt" is the church slogan. Let each member and every friend show your loyalty by being true to your generals in this first effort. The War of the Roses is on. The clash is near for The Red Rose Regiment and the White Rose Regiment are concentrating their forces at the near approach of this eventful time. In less than one month the fight will be on. Rally to your general on Sunday, Dec. 10th.

Union Thanksgiving Services will be observed with preaching at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Price of Ward's Chapel. Rev. E. R. Johnson of Second Church, Furlong Tract will be present with his congregation and the entire public is invited to spend Thanksgiving day at First Church. Dinner will be ready for serving at 10 o'clock and continue all day to late at night.

The Ladies Aid Society was organized Tuesday night at the parsonage with the following officers elected for the year: Mrs. L. B. Watts, president; Mrs. Robert Bufers vice-president; Mrs L. H. Houchins, secretary; Mrs. Leona Williams Asst. secretary; Mrs Mabel Read, treasurer; The society will meet weekly for some time to come and the next meeting is Wednesday night, Nov. 22 at the parsonage, 1466 Griffith Ave. from 8 to 9:30 p. m. The president, Mrs. Watts will entertain. All ladies interested in the Aid society are invited.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the morning service Sunday. At night the Rev. D. McKinney of the Methodist Episcopal church will preach. Everybody welcome.

Annual election of trustees on Thursday night, Dec. 14th after class services. Every member is urged to keep this date in mind.

Everybody will be found at the A. E. O. U. T. Club's Box social next Tuesday night. Plenty of fun for old and young. No admission. In the banquet hall of church. Plenty of good things to eat.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

24th Street and Central Avenue

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Beginning with the Sunday school at 10 a. m. all the services were well attended and interesting on last Sunday. The pastor occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services.

The annual fellowship meeting and dinner which comes Monday night, Nov. 20th, promises to be interesting and helpful. Dinner and social hour from 9 to 7 p. m. following which will be a program of music and addresses by the following: Rev. J. L. Maile, Rev. H. T. Wagner, Rev. A. F. Skeete and Dr. Wm. H. Day. Everyone should hear these distinguished ministers.

Services next Sunday as follows: Preaching at 11:15 a. m., by the pastor; subject "An Angel's Gospel." Prof. Chas. Alexander will speak at the evening service, 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor 6:30 topic "Why Christianity is the Hope of our Country." Ps. 9:1-20 Mrs. Charles Alexander will lead this meeting. A cordial welcome to all.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, Pastor

There has been a new and enlarged interest in Zion since the coming of its new pastor. His sermons are a revelation to even the old-time church goers. It is presumed that some of this enthusiasm is aroused because of his not having to be aided in his sermons by the use of manuscript, as one said: "No he doesn't use any paper in the pulpit."

Quite a few visiting church members attended services last Sunday to hear one of the ablest sermons preached in Los Angeles regardless of churches.

Next Sunday will be bench filling day. We intend to fill every bench in the church. You come to help swell the crowd. Subject at the morning service, 11 o'clock will be "The Greatest Sight to Be Seen on Earth." Evening service, 8 o'clock "The Slow Moving God."

Remember Sunday School.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

1354 Channing Street

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Last Sunday night was launched what we hope will prove a great revival in this church. The interest already manifested in the work is gratifying indeed. The attendance is good and the spiritual interest is very high. Many of the ministers of the city have promised to be with us during these meetings. Rev. Dr. McKinney has joined hands with us and will be on hand throughout the entire meeting All the pastors and ministers in the city are invited to come and assist in this work of soul-saving.

Services Sunday Nov. 19th as follows: Sunday school at 9:30 a. m; Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Allen C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Preaching at evening service by a visiting minister. All are welcome.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton St.

Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

Services last Sunday were largely attended and enjoyed by all present. The pastor preached at the morning service and Evangelist Cuddy preached at night. His sermon being somewhat unusual was very interesting to all who heard it.

One of the best meetings of the year was had by the Epworth League. The discussion of the topic was participated in by a large number of young people and was very helpful to all. Those who do not avail themselves of the opportunity of attending these meetings are missing a spiritual treat.

The ladies of board No. 2 are giving a house social at the home of Mrs. Mary Skillman on Tuesday evening, the 21st and are expecting a large attendance of the membership and friends of the church as the proceeds are to be applied on the purchase of an organ.

The pastor and congregation will worship in the union service to be held Thanksgiving morning at the Second Baptist Church for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

The pastor will preach at both services on the coming Sabbath and the officers are expecting a full attendance of the membership and friends of the church.

Birch Street Christian Church

Last Sunday was a busy day at the Christian Church, for besides the regular service the ladies served dinner. Bro. Latouche preached both morning and evening splendid sermons. The evening text was "The Man of Sorrow." Miss Lynch rendered a solo. Services next Sunday as usual.

Wesley Chapel

Rev. Lewis C. Sheafe will preach Sunday, Nov. 19th, at the morning services and Rev. Mr. Cole at the evening services.

The $1.00 Rally for the second and fourth Sundays in this month began last Sunday and proved to be quite a success. The membership is asked to pay in in full between now and the fourth Sunday. Please do not delay in this important matter. The traveling and moving expenses of the new pastor, interest and necessary repairs upon the church and parsonage are the demands that must be met this month.

The membership is invited by the Ministers' Union to worship with them at the Second Baptist Church Thanksgiving Day. Let all of our members turn out on that occasion. At the close of the meeting, let each member come to the basement of Wesley Chapel, where the Trustees are serving a turkey dinner. Prepare to take your dinner down town so that you can attend the cornerstone laying of the Independent Church at 3 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Mr. H. L. Davenport of the Circulation Department of the Express and Tribune will address the Men's meeting Sunday, 3 p. m., Nov. 19th.

Dr. Claudius Ballard will address the Boys' meeting at 4 p. m. All boys are welcome to this meeting.

A public reception will be given for the pastor Rev. D. C. Robeson of the A. M. E. Zion church at Pico and Paloma streets, November 23rd. All are cordially invited.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S CANDID VIEW OF "BILLY" SUNDAY. SAYS "BILLY" IS UNIQUE—HIS VIRTUES AND FAULTS.

God and man dishonored by false doctrines which preachers do not believe—fake preaching abominable to God—instilling superstitious fears a crime—if the Bible does teach that eternal torture is the fate of all except the Saints, it should be preached, yea, thundered, weekly, daily, hourly—if it does not so teach, the fact should be made known and the foul stain dishonoring to God's holy name removed.

Some of "Billy" Sunday's Faults

The pastor said that if the reports that "Billy" prayed to God most irreverently, and addressed the Redeemer as "Old Pal," were true, then "Billy's" influence on the public would lead on in the direction in which the world is now rapidly moving anyway—toward irreverence. He hoped that "Billy" would become more reverent, and believes that this result would follow a better knowledge of God. He could scarcely reconcile with honesty Billy's attempt to tie up all the souls he saved, in the churches which he declared were cold storage plants leading down to hell. He wished that "Billy" would reconcile these opposites.

He was pleased to note that "Billy" Sunday's last sermon in each place was usually on the second coming of Christ; and that "Billy" apparently recognizes the present and last stage of the church, typified in Laodicea. This caused him all the more to wonder why "Billy" would help people into the Laodicean church, which the Bible styles Babylon, and declares that God spues out of His mouth. (Revelation 3:16). Next Sunday the pastor will discuss the second coming of Christ, viewing that great event and Messiah's Kingdom from a somewhat different angle from Billy's. (Copy of Pastor Russell's sermon will be sent free on request. Address this office—Editor.)

The pastor declared that it makes his blood boil with righteous indignation to find Billy's preaching a practical indorsement of the God-dishonoring theory that the great mass of humanity are to suffer eternal torment because they were born in sin, misshaped in iniquity (Psalm 51:5), and then failed to live saintly lives. True, "Billy" does not explain hell. Like most preachers he probably hides his true thought on this subject, while allowing the common people to think that he believes in a hell of eternal tortures. The pastor could not believe that Mr. Sunday or any other inteligent man of our day really believes this invention of the Dark Ages, which antagonizes the Bible as well as common sense.

Mr. Sunday and all other preachers who realize the fallacy of this great "doctrine of devils" (1 Timothy 4:1) owe it to the people, who trust them and who make up their collections, to tell them the truth. More than this they owe it to God that this foul stain upon the Divine character be denounced. They owe it to themselves as men to stand for and speak out the truth and to assist in opening the eyes of the poor, deluded world.

The pastor hopes that Mr. Sunday will yet realize that no one can long maintain a moral standard higher than that which he attributes to his God. The injustice and persecution of centuries is largely attributable to the false doctrines which represent the Creator as a demon who unjustly and unlovingly created our race with the knowledge and intention that 999 out of every 1000 would endure an eternity of torture.

Heaven, Hell and Purgatory

The theory that Christians only are saved from eternal torture has had much to do with the error of counting all civilized people Christians. The creeds save Christians only—Jews, Mohammedans, heathen, all go to hell to roast eternally. Roman Catholics provide a second chance to members of their church, in purgatory, and many Protestants hold to a second chance for the heathen who have never heard of Christ. All the while, however, the Bible declares for only one chance, but that a full one for every member of the human family.

The only chance offered during this Gospel age is the opportunity of becoming a member of the church—a true follower of Jesus. Such are to get the heavenly inheritance, but not until the resurrection. The remainder of the world will be offered an earthly future; and this offer will begin with the establishment of Messiah's kingdom of a thousand years.

The Bible nowhere teaches that either saints or sinners pass to a conscious condition at death. The Bible declares that they all "sleep," and that the awakening time will be at the second coming of the Redeemer to establish His kingdom. The first resurrection will be the church, and subsequently "every man in his own order." When once the fact is grasped that the Bible hell is the grave—Sheol, Hades—then all is plain.

The great divinely arranged purgatory, to last a thousand years, will be glorious. All the heathen and the ignorant, superstitious millions of Christendom, who were taught to call themselves Christians, but who knew that they were not, will have the opportunity of coming to a knowledge of the true God and of His gracious provision for them.

We must all realize that preaching is no mere display, but is a sore battle with the hard hearts of their congregation in which the Gospel is preached at a supreme cost to himself. And conscious that he must summon to his desperate task every resource of feeling and awe to reach the purpose of converting his sinful congregation, such preaching has never failed ot bring out the desired effects.

A resume of the Colored vote in the Black belt shows that that vote is very, very wet at all times.

We are tightening up all along the line to face four more years of Wilson and hard times.

But why cry over spilled milk? Let's be on our way, make the best of a bitter reverse and line up for 1920 for a most glorious victory.

Mistakes of omission and commission no doubt were made by all, but to try and saddle the loss of this state on Gov. Johnson is ridiculous as well as absurd.

To obviate the dark days we see ahead through our political horoscope, we did our best: Angels could do no more.

If the leather lunged alibi makers had spent more of their time fighting Wilson instead of Hiram Johnson and abusing the Progressives they could now be singing the songs of rejoicing and triumph.

The Union labor leaders headed by Sam Gompers now in session at Baltimore are growing solicitous as to the welfare of the Colored laborer in the South, and propose to organize him down there so that he will stay down there and not come north and take the white man's job. Very kind of these leaders, indeed, but we have had some experience along these lines in the past and that experience has always been against the Colored worker, and we hope that the Black man will cease to be duped by this clan who can see him only when they have axes of their own to grind.

ABSURD AND RIDICULOUS

Capper, Republican, carried Kansas by a big majority. Wilson carried the state by a safe majority, something like 15,000. Willis, Republican, carried Ohio. Hughes lost it decisively and now are these men "Benedict Arnolds," too. The very reason that California was lost was this same acrimonious fight that the over-zealous Times has waged against Gov. Johnson and the Progressives, instead of centering its fight on Wilson. The party fight could well have been held in abeyance until the common enemy had been whipped.

GET TOGETHER

We want to say to the members of the Race that it is very necessary as the lessons of the past have taught us, "To Get Together." Why wait a day longer? Now is the time. There is no question that a calamity is upon us, and therefore in order to endure the same, we must join forces and in one united band fight the enemy to the utmost. Let nothing stand in the way of progress while prosperity is withheld. Such will not always be, and when the golden light of prosperity again throws its rays across this broad land of ours, in a united front we may gain results worth while. So let's not wait until a political campaign is upon us to Get Together, because on that basis we shall never see the light of day; but now is the time and when a campaign should come it will meet a massed body standing for the men and measures that represent real principle and worth. GET TOGETHER.

MRS. FANNIE LEWIS IS LAID TO REST

The funeral services of Mrs. Fannie Lewis were held Tuesday afternoon from First A. M. E. church by Rev. J. Logan Craw. Dr. Craw was assisted in this service by Rev. E. E. Lightner, pastor of Lincoln Memorial Congregational church, and Rev. Hartnet, of the A. C. E. church. Rev J. D. Gordon, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, was one of the mourners with the large and highly respected family to which the deceased belonged. Mrs. Fannie Lewis the deceased, was born in Heard county, Georgia, about 1862, and was 54 years old at her death. She married to Mr. Isham Lewis just 40 years ago. This devoted husband and five children survive her. Two sisters, including Lena O'neal and Mrs. Chas. Anthony, and two brothers, Charley and Edward Woods, also survive the deceased, aside from a host of other relations as cousins and grand children. Mr. Isham Lewis, with his devoted Christian wife, left his southern home at Atlanta, Ga., 23 years ago and came to Los Angeles for no other purpose than to give his family a home with improved civil surroundings. Mrs. Lewis had always been a devotee of the A. M. E. church, and when in Atlanta she rendered valuable service in Big Bethel church. She was a member of First A. M. E. church, this city, until death came and she was called Higher. Dr. Craw paid a fitting tribute, in his sermon, to the life of the deceased, using as his text: "And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels." Mal. 3: 17. The interment was made at Rosedale cemetery. Roberts and Sons were the undertakers.

DOWN WITH THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Eva Carter Buckner

The time has come for you and me
To help to strike the blow
To crush the viper of the land,
And lay the monster low.

The cunning conqueror, who's slain
His thousands with a smile;
Who's dulled the brain and wrecked the home
While laughing at his guile.

Ah! look each day upon our streets,
And see the human wrecks.
The jail an open door for them;
No other place protects.

The youth, poor youth, has scarce a chance
To reach maturity
Before he's in the viper's grasp;
What then? Who stops to see?

The little merchant newsboy sells
His papers on the street,
And sad the scenes, the drunken scenes
His knowing eye must meet.

Man should be free, you hear it said.
If this be true, my friend,
Why keep the red man from the cup?
Why fight the opium den?

And inconsistent pleas are made,
"It lessens tax," 'tis said.
While children in the drunkard's home
Are oft in want of bread.

They've tried to charge it to our God,
Who never did intend
That man should be a drunken slave
With no one to defend.

You are your brother's keeper, friend;
You may be strong yourself,
But it is yours and mine to help
To save him from himself.

And now's the time to strike the blow.
Yes, wave the banner high!
And let the nation see that we're
For California Dry.

Another pioneer of this state in the person of Mrs. Sarah Harlow, passed to the great beyond at her late home, 7706 East 18th street, on Monday last, and was buried from St. Philip's Episcopal church on Wednesday; with the full choral mass being sung by Father Cleghorn, assisted by the full choir, of which Mrs. Harlow was a devoted and faithful member. Allie Hill, with his full, rich voice, rendered as a solo, "With Him Alone."

Many friends were present and followed all that was mortal to its last resting place in Rosedale cemetery.

Ernest Russell, assisted by Chas. Conner, had charge of the perfect and artistic funeral arrangements.

The members of the Progressive Educational Association met at the office of H. H. Williams & Co., Tuesday evening and laid greater and bigger plans for interesting our people in the Arizona colonization project by and for the people. The more needs to be awakened on this subject of colonization. Visit the office and the agents, at Twelfth and Hemlock, and find out for yourself. Get in in time.

Master Marium Forfy, the pupil of Mrs. S. P. Dones, who is now teacher of violin in the Wilkin's School of Music, received honors last week. He is a lad eleven years of age and he has mastered sufficient technic in a short space of a year and one-half study under the tutilage of Mrs. S. P. Dones to have been elected to the Junior Orchestra. There were only two eligible from the 36th Street School. Marium being the only colored. Only the most promising violin students from the orchestra of the various city schools are elected annually to this junior orchestra. This orchestra has seventy-eight in number, only three of which are colored. They rehearse at the State Normal School

Mrs. Lillian Jeter Davis of Fresno, formerly of Oakland, the genius of expression and gifted pianist, was a guest of Mrs. Annie E. Jones, 3956 Wall street, Monday evening. Covers were laid for six. She left Tuesday morning for Bakersfield.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Dr. N. P. Greggs, pastor of the Independent Church, was the speaker for the men and boys Sunday, Nov. 12th, at 3 p. m. The meeting is open to the public.

The committee on Boys Work is appealing to the grown folks for membership in the Y. M. C. A for worthy school boys. Last November, Boys' Month, interested some 65 boys. The Committee is asking this year for 100 people to pay $1.00 as first payment on a boys $2.00 membership, during November.

At The Forum.

Last Sunday excitement ran high at the Forum, when a resolution was presented to suspend the well known employment man, J. W. Coleman. However, the conservative element discouraged any drastic measures. A committee was appointed to report on the same Sunday the 19th.

Local Happenings

The success of the Lincoln Motion Picture Company seems to be assured. They will open offices at 1103½ Central avenue.

Lincoln was chosen by the Lord to lay his life on the altar as a sacrifice for our freedom. Has Wilson been chosen by the Lord or by the people?. Such words were spoken by a Race man the other day. Who can answer that question? Well, it is open for debate.

Mr. Frank Powell is up on his ranch doing things right. Level head.

"Old Lady" Martin is still running the dining room for the porters.

Mr. Thos. Wilkins, after seven weeks of sickness, is about again, working hard, as of yore.

Mr. J. B. Brooks is improving very fast.

Mr. E. M. Dauchey is looking much more settled. He does not seem to be so worried. He is cheerful now. What has happened?

The Red Caps do not have any more balls. How sad!

Mr. Murray is feeling better. If he can refrain from worry he will come out right.

Oh, how good and how peaceful is it to be silent about others, and not to believe all that is said about them!

There are times in life when a man gets more fun out of opposition than he gets out of co-operation.

C. B. DONES, Pres.

Save yourself for a bursting good time at the wedding of the Old Maids and Bachelors, Thanksgiving evening, at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

The West Side Tennis Club will hold their first annual mid-winter tournament, Thanksgiving day, on L. A. High School courts, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. The tournament will consist of men's doubles and mixed doubles, and will be held under the sanction of the Western Federation of Tennis Clubs, a new organization formed for the advancement of the game among our young people. Prizes to be awarded will be silver medals on exhibition at Prentice's drug store after Wednesday, the 22nd. Entrants must be in not later than Tuesday, Nov. 28.

Mrs. M. G. Owens and daughter Ruth, of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in our city on the 9th inst. While here they will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Estill, 1529 East Fifteenth street. During their stay Miss Owens will be a pupil at the Twentieth Street school.

Miss Anna Johnson, of 1412 East 15th Street, is on the sick list.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lillian Thompson and Mr. McDonald.

SPECIAL CALL

Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, the Allensworth Club will hold a business and social evening at the residence of Mrs. C. Hulbert, 1468 East Twentieth street. The business session will be from 7 to 8 p. m. and the social from 8 to 10 p. m.

All members of the club, the Hiawatha Chorus and friends are urged to be present.

After a five weeks' stay in our city as house guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon, Mme. Davis, who is the best all-around elocutionist in the state, left for her home in Fresno, Tuesday morning, by way of Bakersfield, where she appeared in concert at the A. M. E. church, Tuesday.

During her stay in Los Angeles Mme. Davis was royally entertained by her friends and acquaintances, and those who were fortunate enough to hear her in either of her concert rales are even now looking forward to her return to this city.

Lone lady will give sleeping room with home privileges in exchange for companionship evenings; middle aged lady preferred. Apply at Eagle office, 814 Central avenue.

The new neighborhood hall at 9th and Wilson streets will be opened with a grand concert arranged and managed by Mrs. F. F. Moten under the auspices of Mason Chapel M. E. church, Nov. 23.

Initial reception of the Ministers' Wives' Alliance was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon, on the evening of Nov. 2, and was indeed a grand success.

The Harris-Bilbrew Jubilee Singers will be presented by the Berean Literary Society, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 3, at 1446 West 36th Place.

Elder Lois Sheafe will preach a special sermon at the regular Sunday night meeting, Nov. 19. Come and hear him.

Miss Bessie Barren left the city Wednesday evening for Chicago, where she will enter the Provident Hospital for Nurse Training. Her many friends in this city wish for her abundant success.

Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long

Miss Annie Milholland, president of the B. Y. P. U., was at her post Sunday evening at 6:30, conducted the B. Y. P. U. with much credit. The young people were out in a large body, as usual. Mrs. C. S. Norwood, ex-president of the B. Y. P. U., feels proud of the young people, and their success in the work, and hope that they may continue to grow strong and do sincerely ask that no one will be guilty of retarding their willing efforts to do work for the Master by any unkind word of advice, but come out and help them in their weak but willing work, for the least you do for Jesus is precious in His sight.

Rev. C. Williams has been honored with the invitation from the Helping Hand Society to preache their annual sermon, at the Mt. Zion Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to come out, as this service is always an interesting one. With Mrs. Harriet Marshall as founder and president of this noble body of women. During the evening service a program will be rendered by the young people for the purpose of raising funds to send to help the Old Folks' Home. Come out and enjoy the program, commencing at 8 o'clock, Sunday evening, Nov. 19.

Mr. J. Warren, who came up last week from Holtville to vote for Mr. Hughes for president, left Monday for his home again. We are sorry he had to return disappointed in the election, but he is not by far the only disappointed one.

An ice cream social was given, Tuesday evening, at the parsonage for the benefit of the pastor. It was a success.

Mrs. Wilkins and little daughter arrived in San Diego Monday evening. We are glad to have Mrs. Wilkins, nee Miss Madge Mulholland, back with us again, and hope she will stay with us for some time.

Rev. C. Williams and wife spent Monday at Ocean Beach and report having a delightful time.

Mrs. M. J. Cox, of Waco, Tex., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Watts. Mr. Watts is a contractor in the city. Mrs. Cox is enjoying herself in the Sun-Kissed City and has made many friends during the short stay, as well as met many of her former acquaintances. After visiting the exposition and enjoying the magnificent scenery, she made a sight-seeing trip to Tia Juana, Mex., where she enjoyed the Spanish features and contemplates leaving for her home soon.

Mr. George Henderson has returned to the tract again as clocker, after eight years' absence from that duty. Mr. Henderson has many friends and acquaintances on the various tracts in the United States.

Mrs. Camel, sister of Mr. E. W. Anderson, has been confined at St. Joseph's Hospital. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. M. T. Laws and baby returned home last Tuesday, after spending several months in Los Angeles with her mother. She spent last Sunday at Watts, the guest of Mrs. Gus. Smith.

A soft voice came over the phone and wanted to know if Mr. Gordon was in. She wanted to know the author of Commilla.

Mrs. Swain gave a party at her residence, which was well attended.

Several of the young people met at the residence of Mrs. Scott on Second street, to form a club for the smart set.

The Gala Social Club is having a great success of late. This club is conducted for members only.

Mr. M. T. Laws says it does not pay to walk down the street with a bunch of flowers in your hand, more especially if you are a married man going to the depot to meet your wife. Your friends will give you the once over and Ha! Ha! You cannot make them believe the flowers are for your wife. I told them I could carry flowers for my wife. I told them I could carry flowers on the Island, why could I not carry them in San Diego, and furthermore, it is not a pound box of bon bons that you had on Fifth and Broadway.

The remaining six weeks of the exposition promise to be the largest events of any during the last year, according to the plans of the special events department.

One of the main features in the coming events as mapped out, is to be an auto polo game, to be played on the tractor field between teams using automobiles instead of horses. Thi sgame is said to be one of the most exciting that could be. Think of the spills, mishaps, and complete turn-overs of the machines! Why, it will be enough to keep the audience in excitement from the first to the last whistle. These games are to be pulled off the latter part of November.

The California Eagle furnishes you the correct news. So don't fail to subscribe for the coming year.

On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bomar gave a birthday supper, complimentary to her friend, Mrs. W. H. Lewis. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The occasion was a most enjoyable one for all, and many were the expressions complimentary to Mrs. Bomar for her hospitality.

ON TO IMPERIAL VALLEY

Although Wilson is apparently elected there is no need to hesitate, but get ready for the storm that is surely coming. The call is on for cotton pickers in the Imperial Valley—3000 strong—wages as good as $5.00 per day can be made. It is a bonifide proposition, vouched for by the Imperial County Farming Bureau and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, in order to get the workers there the company is making a very special rate three days of the week fare for those who desire to go. We are told by Mr. Place, representing the Farmers' Bureau, that families are there who are making $20 to $25 dollars daily. It strikes us that as many of our people that are out of work at a living wage should take advantage of this opportunity and go to the Imperial Valley. This work will last until March.

There is promised no delay. Those going from here will be checked out of the office at the time they procure their transportation and will be enabled to go to work as soon as they arrive at El Centro. Quarters such as obtained in this section will be provided, as well as fuel for cooking purposes. Work is carried on every day in the week, and as we foresaid we warn our people to get busy and prepare for the storm that will be the result from four more years of Wilson in this country.

RIVERSIDE

The Second Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Redd, is progressing by leaps and bounds. Last Sunday was a glorious day at both services. The pastor preached in the morning on the subject "Spiritual Partnership," from 1 Cor. 3: 9. He produced such thoughts as, "We are laborers together with God; He cannot save the world with our assistance; the Gospel is the seed, and we are the sowers: we may sow and water, but God must give the increase." They were beautifully presented by the speaker. Next Sunday the pastor will preach on the subject "The Successful Farmer."

The people of Scott Chapel are in splendid spirit for work and are rejoicing greatly over the fact that Rev. Kinchen has decided to remain with them and not go East. The services were great inspirations to all who attend. Large crowds are flocking to all services. A fine spirit of mutual helpfulness prevails among the membership and they have agreed to be prepared to come to the rescue of every member of the church in any way possible. The services are a great inspiration to all who flock to hear Pastor Kinchen. The prayer meetings are growing in interest as well as the Ladies Aid society under Sister Reeves and the Sunday school under Prof. Lee and the Epworth League under Bro. Bragg.

Next Sunday will be a great day for Scoott Chapel. In the morn- at 11 o'clock Rev. C. C. Hartzler who will leave in a few days for the Congo Mission in Africa, will speak on the "Dark Continent and i s call to the Christian Church." In the evening a great memorial will be held in honor of Dr. Booker T. Washington and Hon. Seth Lowe, who was the chairman of the Board of Trustees of Tuskegee Special music is being prepared and some of the ablest speakers in Southern California will speak on this occasion.

Rev. A. Beasley, Pastor

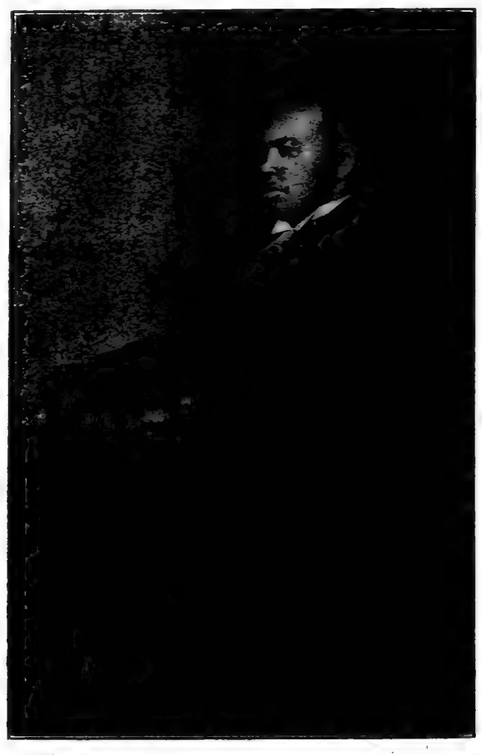
Progressive Educational Association

The Greatest Proposition Ever Offered for the Benefit of the Race. Absolutely Bona Fide The Future Hope of a Struggling People.

THE GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Progressive Educational Association, Rev. J. D. Gordon, president, has negotiated for 107,000 acres of the best farming land in the West. Said land is located in the State of Arizona, and is known as Santa Rosa Valley. This fine farming land is set apart for an industrial colony. A town site will be located in the center of the tract, and a college erected for the training of the youth of the Race, for the varied pursuits of life.

OPPORTUNITY FOR THE NEGRO IN THE WEST



In the State of Mississippi and Oklahoma, where the Negro is oppressed and disfranchised of his God-given privileges and citizen rights, they have seized the opportunity of building for themselves and have made good.

Why not the Negroes in the West, with the knowledge offered them, come together and make a show?

Our people are making a gross mistake in flocking to the great cities of the West, where Organized Labor has the door closed against them, and their wives and daughters have to go out in service and work to pay house rent, and part of the time the men are walking the streets without work.

Some of them are trying to buy homes on the installment plan, and contracting four and five thousand dollars indebtedness, and it takes all their spare money just to keep up the interest.

This same person could take $440 and purchase them 80 acres of the best farming land in the West, and the first year he is on the land, it will pay for itself, and wife and daughters can remain at home.

H. H. Williams

The widow woman who is out in service can grow fruit and raise enough poultry to make her life happy, without such hard work.

THE CLIMATE

There is not another location in the United States that has more suitable climate for the colored man. It is never too hot and never too cold—average 1800 feet above sea level, no heavy frosts and no snow. The plains are green the year round, an ideal climate and a healthy country. Plenty of rain for two crops a year, the rainy seasons coming, one in the winter and the other in the summer months, July, August, and September.

PRODUCTION

The land will produce cotton, and corn, 50 to 75 bushels per acre; wheat, barley, oats, and other small grain, 40 to 60 bushels per acre; potatoes and beans, peas of all varieties, melons of all kinds, and all semi-tropical vegetables.

FRUITS

Lemons, oranges, grapes, and all kinds of nuts, and any fruit that grows in any semi-tropical climate.

A smooth table land.

THE SURVEY

The lands will be allotted in 40, 80 and 100-acre tracts, and the cost per acre will be $5.50 for the present.

TERMS

40 acres @ $5.50 = $220.00.
80 acres @ $5.50 = $440.00.
100 acres @ $5.50 = $550.00.

These amounts can be paid on the installment plan if desired.

When the European war comes to a close, and it is made possible for the thousands to come to this country, all thinking people are agreed that all or most of our idle territory will be taken up by the homeseekers. Having this in mind, and also seeking to provide for the Western states a school or university for the religious training of our girls and boys, we desired a location. We have searched California for a desirable place, but could not find in the State just what we wanted.

We have succeeded now in laying hands upon more than 100,000 acres of the best land now idle on the North American continent.

1. There is no alkali in this land anywhere.
2. There is no adobe soil in this land.
3. There are no rocks on this land.
4. There is no sand or sand dunes on this land.
5. Nor can you find gullies in this territory.
6. The land is so level that you would never need to level it for irrigation.
7. This is fine soil for cotton raising.
8. Cattle and hog raising.
9. You can produce two crops a year without irrigation; one you plant in December, and the other in June.
10. This land without irrigation, will produce 50 to 60 bushels of wheat to the acre, and then the same year, without irrigation, produce 50 bushels of corn per acre.
11. The wind velocity is an important matter to the western farmer, many have to plant trees around the farm to protect the produce from high winds, but here, according to government reports, the velocity of the wind is from four to seven miles per hour.
12. This land, every foot of it, is water bearing, and you can get water from 15 to 50 feet, when you are seeking surface water.
13. The water from the artesian depth is so pure that in using the engine for four consecutive years, the boilers did not have to be cleaned out once during this time.
14. This land will produce the finest cotton possible, and when opened should be a rival to Imperial Valley.
15. It is nearly 1800 feet above the sea level, and out of the reach of fogs.
16. This is an orange producing climate and soil, but we can only know from the fact that 40 miles away oranges and lemons grow in abundance, therefore we safely conclude that lemons and oranges will grow here.
17. This land, from its productive powers, is easily worth $150 per acre. Everything that we have said about this land can be verified.

Now we are putting 20,000 acres of this land on the market at such a figure that it will startle you. We do so because we have plenty land left, and what we sell at this figure will help us to sell the rest of the land for what it is worth.

We have 250 certificates, called "Founders' Certificates," which members are to keep for the coming generation, as a memorial.

These Certificates will cost you $440 on terms, and will entitle you to cast one vote for the "Trustees" of the School in this Province; and give you 80 acres of this matchless land; thus letting you have the land at the rate of $5.50 per acre. This door will not be open always for the ambitious men and women among us.

One-fourth of all the proceeds from the sale of said land will be placed in escrow for the establishment and endowment of this University, thus avoiding the necessity of asking anyone for a donation, white or black. We hope that all Negroes who believe in and delight in the Negro's possibility, will enthusiastically join in with this religious, industrial, civil, and educational movement, that promises so much for the Race.

We hope to see a great city, surrounded by a great number of prosperous farmers and cattle raisers, and artisans skilled in every department of hand-craft; and turn out from there to the world, the best articles along all lines, bearing the name and stamp of this great University; and nothing can stop the Race from going on to greatness. The Race cannot go to greatness by saying great things alone, but by our deeds shall we be promoted in this world.

Dr. Kinchen Loyal to Scott Chapel, Declines Appointment to One of the Largest Churches in the Connection.

Rev. E. W. Kinchen received the following telegram last week, which caused much uneasiness among the members:

Rev. E. W. Kinchen, Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, Pasadena, Cal. I greatly need you for Cory Chapel, Cleveland, Ohio. Fine opportunity, paying twelve or thirteen hundred and parsonage. In recent conversation Bishop Leonard consented. If you so desire. All rests with you now. Will appoint you immediately. Wire at our expense. Better come. A warm welcome awaits you.

BISHOP W. T. ANDERSON.

Dr. Kinchen's Reply

Overcome by kindness. Would be so much easier if I were at Cory with double salary and ten times the members to say yes to invitation, from small church here. What is right? What is God's will? It would break my heart to dishearten this little flock here, and yet it grieves me that I do not know what to say to my Bishop. Would a little more time for prayer and counsel help all concerned? I am a Methodist minister, but how I would like to be faithful to this little flock.

On Monday evening Dr. Kinchen wired his final answer. After hours of agony and prayer, I cannot make up my mind to leave my little flock at this time. I shall always be under lasting obligation to you and fully appreciate how serious a matter it is to turn aside this great opportunity, but my best judgment dictates this course.

Mr. Toney Ward of Fort Smith, Ark., uncle of Mr. Wm. H. Roberts, is at the home of his sister-in-law on Fair Oaks Avenue.

Scott's Chapel is planning a great rally to take place the last Sabbath in January, at which time they hope to raise $1,000. Dr. Kinchen was not in his pulpit Sunday morning. Rev. Robinson a well filled house. Dr. Kinchen returned from Riverside in time for evening service and preached a soul stirring sermon. The Bible class led by Sister Nelson at 6:30 was helpful and enjoyed by all present. Epworth League had a Dry program.

Miss Zenobia Duncan read a splendid paper entitled "The Curse of Drink." Mr. J. Alexandra Kinchen rendered a splendid cornet solo. Madam Beavens, with her excellent choir their usual interesting program.

New additions to the choir are Miss Alberta Worley, violin; Mr. J. Alexandra Kinchen, cornet. The Ladies Aid was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Robinson on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. J. Martin, 260 East Montana Street. The W. H. M. will meet with Mrs. Kinchen Thursday, November 16, 8 p.m., at No. 8 Ritzman Street.

The Rascal Whipper Will Pray Thusly For Four More Years.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all these United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and dealeth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, weatherbeaten and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are anxious and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou wilt have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 20 cent cotton and 8 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not as well with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And thou knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

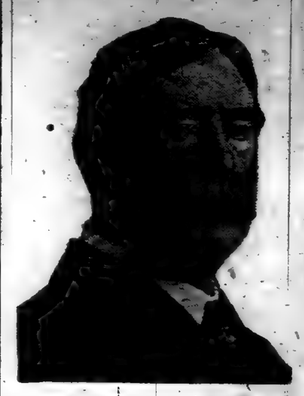
We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and see times get hard, if it wasn't for the infernal Republicans making fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the back districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertiliser smeller. Just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

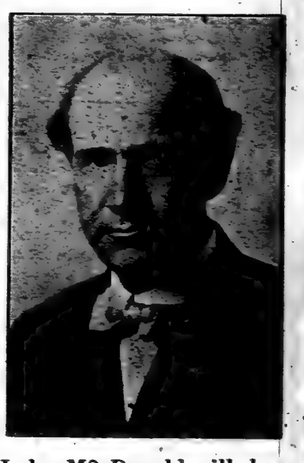
And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that theory.

Again, Mighty Chief, we beseech thee to hear our prayers. For heaven's sake don't saddle us with a bond issue. We read in the papers that thou art considering a big bond issue to get money to run the government, and dodgast them bonds. Thou shouldst remember that Cleveland sold bonds, and it busted our party into smithereens. We never can survive a bond issue. Bonds means slavery, and slavery is worse than war, and war is worse than hell. It will bury us so deep we will never hear the gun fire this year. Cut down salaries rather than sell bonds.



Oh, mighty Woodrow, thou who hast already skinned us out of our jobs with thy business-busting Free Trade farce, don't get us scalped in a war. Thou knowest, dear and mighty pie-distributer, that we have never had any luck with war, anyway. Thou knowest that in the great history of the American people thou hast written how we Democratic dupess followed the party call and went to war against the Stars and Stripes for four long years, and how "Honest" Abe Lincoln licked the stuffin out of us and made us Democrats do without pie for over a quarter of a century. Oh, Waiting One, we hunker down on our Free Trade jeans-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

If Mexico wants to make a doormat of the American flag let them enjoy themselves. Hasn't Germany done the same thing? Hasn't England done it, under thy great and adorable reign, oh, great soft-hearted chieftain? Why should we go to war? Are we not already at war at home with the poverty caused by thy great Free Trade? We thought we were already at war, mighty Woodrow. We've read of so many bank failures and business wrecks and people out of jobs under thy great Free Trade administration that we have stopped reading the newspapers, but if we are not at war why this blooming Hundred Million Dollar War Tax we are paying?



But, Mr. President, remember we are Democrats still. We are willing to face the music and drink soup, if necessary, if only we can be patted on the back and called good Democrats. We know it is treason to complain. We know the province of a good Democrat is to take his medicine and never make a crooked face. So, Mighty Chief, forgive us for talking as we have. Kick us for presuming to ask questions. It is not for us to scrutinize thy wisdom or question thy plans. So put the toe of thy wrath to us and teach us to obey. Teach us that a Democrat was made to vote straight and ask no questions.

Master Wilson, if we are too presumptuous, kick us. Kick us a little anyway. We deserve to be kicked a little. If we ask foolish questions thump us on the head with the scepter of thy greatness. If we are a little crude and coarse in our manners it is because we never had a chance to be anybody. We never went to school. We are greenhorns. We are fag ends of Democratic despair. We are lick-spittles and gutter-snipes. We are ready to do the bidding of any Democrat who will command us. We will turn political somersaults. We will cuss Cleveland some more. We will denounce Roosevelt or Taft or Debs or Chafin or anybody else if it will make pie come our way.

Save us from the clutches of The Rascal Whipper and all the honor shall be thine. Amen.

Comobabi Mining

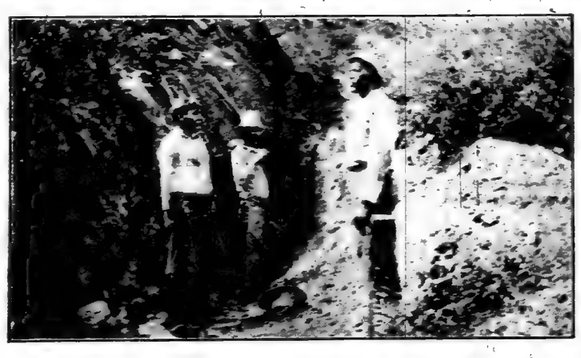
Proposition Offered As a Solution to Economic Problems of a Race

Last Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock before perhaps the largest and most representative audience of Colored citizens which has ever packed the doors of the Los Angeles Forum at the corner of Eighth and Wall streets, Los Angeles, the attention of the Colored citizens of California was called as never before to the great problem of the economic need of our citizenship. The occasion was a remarkable descriptive address on mineralogy and mining delivered by Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth who on this occasion seems to have set the pace for the economic up-lift of the Colored citizens of California. Attorney Macbeth, who had but a short while ago returned from a trip of investigation lasting over a half a month and taking him into the wilds of the Comobabi Mountains, 65 miles southwest of Tucson, Arizona, where he examined in detail the extensive and wonderful properties of the Comobabi Mines Company, which properties have been collected during the past ten years by the president of the Comobabi Mines Company, Mr. George W. Miller, a former resident of Los Angeles, but now of Tucson, Arizona, stated that the trip was the most wonderful one ever experienced by him.

In the beginning of Attorney Macbeth's address which lasted for more than an hour and which was commented upon on all sides as one of the most thought-provoking addresses ever delivered in Los Angeles, Attorney Macbeth said, "I come this afternoon to present to you an opportunity—no, not an opportunity; rather should it be said that I come to you this afternoon to confront you with the most serious duty and obligation which has ever confronted a people—that of having its leaders actively concern themselves in making it possible for the rank and file of the people to honestly earn enough money to enable themselves and families to enjoy at least the normal comforts, privileges and immunities of average American citizens."

In graphic style the speaker went on to picture to his hearers the conditions of poverty and vice which existed in a large and growing measure among the Colored citizens of Los Angeles. He described the large and growing element of lawless people who have no physical means of support and have to make their living by questionable means. He recited in detail the campaign which the church people and various institutions are making against such evils as the lottery evil, the opium evil, public prostitution, gambling, buffet flats and illicit liquor selling in general. He brought the audience to its feet when he explained that the entire responsibility for the crime which existed among those whom the better class of people sought to suppress was not upon the souls of those victims of the criminal. He stated the cause of 75 per cent of the criminality existing among the Colored citizens of Los Angeles was due not to an inborn criminal instinct but was due in the main to poverty on the part of the victims. The speaker cited a number of instances where to his own knowledge Colored young women have resorted to prostitution as a means of livelihood for the reason that they were unable to obtain jobs paying sufficiently to enable them to live decently. From this unpleasant picture the speaker turned the attention of his hearers to the survey of the great economic growth of the State of California and of the United States in general. He showed how California was nothing but a barren waste until pioneers discovered the great mineral wealth of the State and began to dig out the gold and other valuable metals and used this new and added wealth to the development of the great Golden State. He showed how San Francisco has been built to its present great and towering strength by wealth secured in the first instance from the bowels of the earth, notably from the famous mine known as the Comstock Lode. Going further, the speaker pictured the development of the great Southern Pacific Railroad System and its kindred enterprises in California—all nfianced by money and wealth obtained from the mines of California and the West.

Referring to the great agricultural, horticultural and viticultural development of California, the speaker said that all of this marvelous and beautiful development of the Golden State was made possible by the gold and capital in general derived from Californias' mines. Commenting upon the general and wonderful development of California and the West the speaker called the attention of his hearers to the fact that by the same means that the white men of California and of the West have developed this State and have in instances caused the very desert to bloom, to-wit: by wealth derived from the mines—by these very means could the Colored citizens of California and the West develop other and in instances greater natural resources, which do yet abound in this comparatively new and undeveloped country.



In vivid detail Attorney Macbeth described his trip from Los Angeles to Tucson and then to the Comobabi Mountains in company with Mr. George W. Miller, president of the Comobabi Mines Company. Arriving at the mines on the 19th of October, Mr. Macbeth described his ten days' stay in the wilds of the Comobabi Mountains, cut off entirely from outside civilization "as the most wonderful ten days of my life." At this period of the address the speaker went on to explain to his hearers the theory of mineralization—how the precious minerals and metals were brought up in liquid form and otherwise from the bowels of the earth and deposited under certain conditions on the surface thereof. With the aid of certain charts which Attorney Macbeth had prepared for the occasion, he made clear to every one who heard him that which has been a mystery to most men—how and where to find precious minerals. He exhibited a special chart of the Grand Central Hill, one of the central claims of the 60 mining claims owned by the Comobabi Mines Company in the Comobabi Mountains. This chart showed this particular claim to be the center of a most remarkable volcanic activity and system of mineralization. The speaker also went on to describe the ten years of sacrifice and study which Mr. George W. Miller, president of the Comobabi Mines Company, had made and he also described the wonderful contributions which Mr. Miller by his ten years of study had made to the general science of mineralogy. Summing up the results of his observations as to the ore bodies in the Comobabi Mines Company properties, the speaker stated that after visiting about 75 per cent of the property he had carefully calcluated from what he could see of the veins piercing the uplift or mountains that the Comobabi Mines Company had on the mountains or uplifts without going below the surface level of the valley, at least $150,000.00 worth of ore.

Referring to the management of the Comobabi Mines Company, Attorney Macbeth said that he took occasion to investigate to the smallest detail the handling of the moneys of the Comobabi Mines Company from the time of its existence to the date of his trip. He found that out of about $5000 which has been spent from the date of the origin of the Company to the time of his trip, nearly $10,000 worth of work had been accomplished. He stated that the Company had a large supply of ore stacked on the dumps which was being cleaned and assorted for shipping as fast as Mr. Miller and his assistants could work.

The speaker stated the immediate needs of the Company as follows: A modern engine, compresser and rotary air drills, which would enable the Company to make tremendous headway in ripping open the hard rock which contains the valuable mineral matter. The further and immediate needs are an automobile for transportation from Tucson to the mines and back, a distance of 65 miles each way—the purchase of a machine for this purpose would save the present heavy expense of hiring auto transportation to and from the mines. The third immediate need is that of adequate camp buildings for the use of those working at the mines. The speaker stated that about $2500 was needed for the machinery, of which $1300 was already in the bank.

At the close of Attorney Macbeth's address Dr. H. D. Prowd of the Second Baptist Church jumped to his feet and in stirring words commended the address of Attorney Macbeth and called upon the people to subscribe to the stock of the Comobabi Mines Company. It developed, however, that the time of the Forum had been already more than spent and adjournment had to be taken immediately. It was hurriedly moved, seconded and carried that next Sunday afternoon's meeting of the Forum be devoted to a continuation of Attorney Macbeth's address at which time the members of the Forum and others also would have an opportunity to subscribe to the stock of the Comobabi Mines Company and to express themselves otherwise upon the great problem facing the Colored citizens of Los Angeles—that of increasing the economic base of the Colored people of Los Angeles and California. The great audience which numbered people of all walks of life included Mr. Theo. Troy, vice president of the Comobabi Mines Company, Mr. J. H. Skanks, Mr. Ragland, directors of the Comobabi Mines Company; Mr. Junius Stevens, President of the Forum, presided.

The Forum on account of Sunday's meeting has been the topic of discussion in all walks of life in Los Angeles during the week and the indications are that even a larger and more enthusiastic audience will be on hand at the Forum at 5 o'clock p. m. on next Sunday afternoon to participate in the discussion of this most engaging subject—the Comobabi Mines Company and its big efforts for the economic advancement of the Colored people of the West.

Five hundred dollars in ere taken out or this hole. Mr. George W. Miller, who discovered the Comobabi Mines at the right and two Indian miners.

GRAND RECEPTION TO THE NEW PASTOR OF THE A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

A galaxy of members and friends of the A. M. E. Zion chhurch, corner Pico and Paloma streets, gave a rousing welcome to their new pastor, Rev. B. C. Robeson, on Thursday evening. One which no doubt will give to him a renewed inspiration in his his new field of endeavor. The ministry and laity was well represented as was the press. Mr. Banks on behalf of the church rendered a welcome in keeping with the occasion. Dr. Prowd, president of the Ministers' Alliance; Dr. J. D. Gordon of the Baptist Ministers' Alliance; Rev. Anderson of the C. M. E. church; Father Cleghorn of the Episcopal church, all rendered unto Rev. Robeson a hearty welcome and assurance of co-operation and support.

The program was interspersed with vocal and instrumental solos, also a recitation by Mrs. Banks, all of which were well received. On behalf of the press Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass, managing editor of the California Eagle, extended the greeting of welcome of the press and pledged a hearty support of the California Eagle in his work of uplift.

Attorney H. E. Macbeth welcomed the pastor on behalf of the professional men of the city and it, too, was a hearty welcome. At the conclusion of these exercises refreshments as prepared by the ladies of the church, were served, thus bringing to a fitting close this memorable occasion.

COLORED WOMAN POLICE OFFICER MAKING GOOD

Mrs. Morgan Robinson, the first colored woman in the entire United States to be appointed outright as police officer, has served in the Los Angeles Police Department for the past three months during which period she has made good.

Mrs. Robinson is both steady and sagacious; kindly in her attitude towards the victims with which she has to deal, and very hopeful for her own people.

From her early girlhood Mrs. Robinson has always identified herself with racial issues and organizations that had for their main object enterprise and race uplift.

The fact that Mrs. Robinson was appointed perhaps as an experiment and that she has made good in every way, is a great victory not alone for her but for the race.

U. S. VS. MEXICO

The fight is on. War has been declared. Mexican generals J. W. Lewis, Fred Polk, L. G. Robinson; U. S. generals H. B. Harris, A. Taylor. The final charge will be made on the border at Scott's Chapel the last Sabbath in January. Each private will charge $5 shells. Come and see who wins the $1000 battle.

CORNER STONE LAYING OF OLD FOLKS HOME GREATEST EVENT OF CHURCH

Every member of the great Baptist denomination in this section and every well wisher of this excellent undertaking, the erection and perfection of an Old Folks' Home, will gather at Watts to witness the cornerstone laying Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Atty. Afue McDowell will be the master of ceremonies, and Dr. J. D. Gordon, Moderator of the Western Baptist Association, will be the principal speaker. Los Angeles Lodge 2639, G. U. of O. F. will have charge of the cornerstone laying.

Six hundred dollars, the amount needed to complete the structure, by Dec. 18th, must be raised Sunday. All pledges and donations are expected promptly.

All cars marked Long Beach, San Pedro and Newport will take you to Abila Station, the easiest way to reach the site.

Everybody is extended a most hearty welcome for this occasion.

MT. OLIVET BAPTIST CHURCH CELEBRATES PASTOR'S ANNIVERSARY

Last Sunday afternoon, at their little church home on East First Street, the officers and members of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church Celebrated the first years anniversary of their paster W. R. Hutchinson.

Among the visiting ministers who were present and spoke upon this occasion were Revs. J. D. Garden, Ramsey, Wilson and Edmonds pastor of Caldwell Mission. The reports from the different departments of the church were especially interesting, and showed that this little body of Christian Workers are making such church history as will be appreciated by coming generations.

Within the past year Rev. Hutchinson and his followers have surpassed the most hopeful expectations of their friends.

The little church has been entirely remodled with new carpet on the floor and the walls freshly painted. It was brought out in the reports that more than 600. 00 dollars had been raised and the plan for a new division with the most modern church equiptment was displayed.

Rev. Godon, Rev. Hutchinson's Spiritual father was in one of his best oritorical moods, and paid high tribute to the young pastor and his Waiting Congregation for the work accomplished by them.

MUST GET TOGETHER

The active minds of the community realize more than ever the great need of a get-together movement, hence the Negro Business League will hold a special public meeting on the first Tuesday evening in December at the Y. M. C. A., 831 S. San Pedro St. Every business man and woman is expected to be present, and help to perfect an organization for uplift.

FIRST ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH

This conference was held on Nov. 7, 8, and 9, at the Christian Church, corner of 14th and Birch streets. The astounding reports were not only filled with intense interest because of the pleasing manner in which they were presented and received, but went to show that both pastor, officers, and members had done most effective work throughout the year, and that the church has made marvelous progress, unparalleled in modern church history.

Some of the featuring reports follow:

Starting with an original membership of 47, the membership at the end of the first year was 479. Through the wonderful preaching of the pastor, Dr. Greggs, and the soul stirring services, sixty souls have been converted. The church is doing great work for charity. The deacons and deaconesses reported for the year's work, 2199 official and sick visits, 670 prayers, and, given to charity in cash, $250.36.

The grand total of monies raised by the church for all purposes and from all departments was $8,106.73. With all expenses paid there was a cash balance in treasury of $1,704.95.

Owing to the large volume of business the conference could not complete its work in three evenings, as it was necessary to hold an extra executive session on Thursday evening, Nov. 16, for election of officers and reports from special committees.

Brother Emanuel Hall, the well-known gospel singer, was granted a license to preach. Sister Mattie Boyd was officially endorsed as a missionary from this church. The appointment of Bro. M. Bain as a deacon was confirmed. The following appointments for auxiliary deaconesses were also confirmed: Sisters Pearl Weir, Francis Smith, Lula S. Roberts, Sophia Smith, M. Moulton, C. Anderson, Laura Slayton, M. Thompson, K. Starks, and Emma Johnson

This conference was intensely interesting, harmonious and enthusiastic throughout every session.

Rev. Greggs, the unexcelled pastor and noble leader, who has for some time astounded Los Angeles with his masterly ability and excellent service, has proved himself master of every situation, and with almost 500 earnest zealous laborers fighting for right, justice, and truth under the banner of King Emanuel, can expect nothing but victory.

The Portland City Council has decided to regulate jitneys and to force them to operate on routes not covered by trolley cars.

The City Attorney has been instructed to draft an ordinance placing the jitneys under regulations identical with those of the trolley corporation, exacting bonds and fixing routes away from lines of street car traffic.

The jitney regulation came as the result of plain speaking on the part of business men of Portland, headed by C. M. Clark, at a meeting of the Business Men's Club.

This is the development of affairs that Clark pictured: If jitneys are not required to operate on the same basis as the street cars the street railway systm will be forced to go into the hands of a receiver. This will mean that hundreds of eastern investors will be pinched and that others who were lucky enough to escape will not readily send money to be invested in a district where it will not be protected.

"I'm right here to tell you that there are hundreds of people in the east who are angry," said Mr. Clark, "mighty angry because of the lack of protection that the city governments of the Pacific Coast afford vested property interests. These men are not going to send more money out here. And unless you have reached that stage of self-completeness where you can finance all your own development, you had better be watchful."

Three years ago Mr. Clark frankly stated the Portland Railway, Light & Power was in the finest financial state of all companies on the Pacific Coast. Its securities were in great demand. Now, after the jitneys have cost the company close to half a million dollars a year, the Northwestern Electric has nabbed $500,000 a year from its earnings, and the lack of anticipated development on the part of the outlying districts of the city having made the company operate many lines at a loss, the company stands close to the brink of failure. Two per cent notes amounting to $5,000,000, due next May, are now selling at a discount of 22 per cent.

SAN BERNARDINO

The Union Service Thanksgiving holds out the promise of being the best in the history of this city. It is to be held in the A. M. E. church, and Wm. Prince, of Pasadena, is to preach. Rev. Harris, of Redlands, is to join in the service with his choir. A number of Riverside people are looking forward to this date. The Woman's Mite Missionary Society are working hard to spread one of the best dinners on record, and if we had ye editor present while he may get a square meal and balance up the outstanding account for his paper, it would then be a swell affair.

Mrs. W. T. Montgomery, who has been quite sick for the last week, is reported on the road to being with us soon.

Rev. H. H. Williamson and wife, of Riverside, former pastor of the A. M. E. church, Sundayed in this city, calling upon old friends.

Mrs. B. W. Ingramh has returned to the city, after a few weeks' absence on a pleasure trip.

Rev. Redd made two flying trips over to Riverside on business the past week.

Mrs. S. M. Carlton, who underwent an operation in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, has recovered so as to return home.

The choir of the A. M. E. church is to furnish a few numbers for the Catholic bazaar this week. Mr. H. D. Ingrahm is the chorister and Mrs. F. Carroll the president.

A $250,000 fire, which swept the coach shop and Santa Fe depot, did not affect any of our people ,who were forced to lay off.

The New Hope Baptist church was delayed in the afternoon service, waiting for the Rev. Redd and his congregation. The

What the Churches are Doing

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
8th and Towne Ave.

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

A magnificent congregation greeted the pastor at the morning service Sunday, and at the evening service a splendid congregation assembled and listened attentively to the sermon of Dr. McKinney. The choir and orchestra rendered music such as only can be heard at First church, in this city, and a glorious Sabbath Day service was enjoyed by everyone present.

The pastor will preach at both services Sunday. At 11 a.m. the subject will be, "The Choice of Moses." At 7:30 p.m., "Transgressions." At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the pastor will worship with Rev. E. R. Johnson at Second church, Furlong Tract, and deliver the sermon from the subject, "Faithfulness." The public is invited to attend each of these services.

One of the newest and most interesting meetings held regularly in the Sunday school room at 4 o'clock every Sunday is that of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society under the supervision of Mrs. Lillian J. Craw. A junior orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Hightower with a junior choir, gives this meeting a unique and helpful place in the hearts of the young boys and girls. The session opens at 4 o'clock and closes at 5. Parents are invited to come and bring their children. Visitors welcome.

Thanksgiving lesson and short but excellent Thanksgiving program by the Allen Christian Endeavor Society in church auditorium at 6 o'clock Sunday. One of the best readers in the city will appear. Special music. Come, enjoy the Endeavor meeting and remain to evening services. Mr. Paul Williams, president.

Union Thanksgiving Day services on Thursday at 11 o'clock at First church, with preaching by the Rev. J. W. Price. Everybody welcome. Grand Thanksgiving Day Dinner all day in the church banquet hall. Plenty of turkey for the public. Dinner only 35 cents. A "good time" is guaranteed every person who attends First church on Thanksgiving Day.

Don't forget the first skirmish rally, Sunday, December 10.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH OF MONROVIA

Rev. E. Wilson, Pastor

Last Sunday marked a new epoch in the history of Second Baptist church of Monrovia. Last week pews and church furniture replaced the old rickety furniture that had adorned the church so long.

Sunday was a day of great rejoicing in the camp. Rev. Wilson, who is a young pastor, deserves much credit for the manner in which he has managed the affairs of the Second church. During his short pastorate here, fifteen months, Rev. Wilson has taken charge of a hull of a building that had been reared up and remained unfinished for years, and now it is finished inside and out and modernized at a cost of over $6000. When visiting Monrovia don't fail to visit the Second Baptist church where everyone is welcome.

Rev. Wilson attended the Installation services of Mt. Olivet Baptist church of Los Angeles in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. N. P. Ramsey will preach for us next Lord's Day. Every one is invited to come out and hear this good preacher.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH
1406 Newton St., Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

Two nice congregations greeted the pastor at both of the services on the past Sabbath and they were well repaid for coming out to the house of the Lord. The pastor preached at the morning service on the subject of "A Good Warfare" and the sermon was very much enjoyed by all. Next Sunday is quarterly meeting day and the pastor and officers are expecting a large attendance of the membership to greet the new presiding elder.

Communion will be administered at both the morning and evening services by the elder.

The ladies of Stewardess Board No. 1 entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Cherry Smith on East 22nd street and the evening was very enjoyably spent by all who were present. The ladies of this board are to be commended for the great work they have done and are doing now for the cause of the Master.

All departments of the church are working to make the rally on the second Sunday a success, and do some much needed work on the interior of the church and also to install the pews and an organ.

The pastor and congregation will worship with the union service to be held at the Second Baptist church on Thanksgiving day.

The ladies of the church will serve a dinner on Thanksgiving day at the church from noon to well into the evening and all the friends are invited to come and take dinner with them on that day.

A cordial welcome awaits all who attend the services at this church.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pica and Paloma Streets

Rev. B. C. Robeson, Pastor

Last Sunday we had two accessions to the fold. Many were out, it being church filling day, and the spirit runs high in Zion. It has been many a day since so many strange faces were seen in that edifice.

The new pastor, Rev. Robeson, continues to pull the crowd. The Eagle editorially comments on his sermons. It says, "His sermons are so practical, so psychologically adopted to the needs of the congregation." He is raising the standard of the pulpit in this city, and the church going public is showing its appreciation by its interest.

Service begins promptly at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Dr. W. W. Matthews, the presiding elder, will speak for us on Sunday at both services. Rev. Robeson will address the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m., subject, "The Call of the Age." Remember Sunday School.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

Last Sunday at the Christian church the pastor, Brother Latouche preached two strong gospel sermons. At the evening service, Miss Bertha Miller, organist, rendered very beautifully the sweet song, "A Clean Heart." In a few weeks, Brother Latouche expects to have his wife with him and the church will then extend a reception to both, as it was his personal desire to have it deferred till his wife came.

The first Sunday in December the choir, assisted by Miss Miller and others, will render a sacred concert and are now making preparations along that line. We invite all to our services.

PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH THANKSGIVING DAY

Inspiring services were held at the People's Independent Church on last Sunday. The large audience listened with great interest to an eloquent anniversary sermon to the congregation by Pastor Greggs. His text was taken from the 52nd chapter of Isaiah, first verse. Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; for henceforth there shall no more come into thee, the uncircumcised and the unclean.

The conference ended with an executive session on last Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at which time the following officers were elected: For Church Clerk, George A. Beavers, Jr.; for Assistant Clerk, Miss Louvenia Hickman; for Trustees, J. H. Shackelford, F. H. Crumbly, P. J. Alexander, T. J. Hooper, C. J. Smith, Mrs. N. Loving, J. M. Prentice, C. E. Anthony, and H. G. Walker; for Reading Clerk, F. H. Crumbly; for Treasurer, G. W. Whitley, and for Auditing Committee, P. E. Brown, S. H. Poole, Mesdames Gertrude Brown, Louise Jackson and Georgia Hoyt.

On last Friday evenig, Nov. 17, the pastor received an agreeable surprise, when some of the members gave him a birthday shower.

The inspiring conference and the rapid progress being made with the church building has caused a superabundance of inspiration and enthusiasm among the members and many friends.

The corner stone laying will take place on Thanksgiving day at 2 p. m., under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, assisted by the B. F. Talbert lodge. One of the clubs will serve dinner on the church grounds. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th St. and Central Ave.

E. E. Lightner, Minister

All the services from the Sunday school in the morning through the evening services, on last Sunday, gave forth evidences of the renewed life of the church in all its departments. It was inspiring to see the crowd of children coming in at 10 o'clock to receive religious training and instruction. The pastor occupied the pulpit at the morning service, speaking on "The Gospel of an Angel" to an appreciative audience. Prof. Charles Alexander was the speaker in the evening and brought a thoughtful and helpful message on "How to Make a Good Name."

The Christian Endeavor under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Alexander, was of unusual interest. The leader gave an excellent presentation on the topic which was, "Why Christianity Is the Hope of Our Country." Many others spoke on the topic.

The fellowship meeting on Monday night was a brilliant affair.

The ladies of the church are to be commended upon the luscious dinner and the orderly way in which it was served in early part of the evening. After the dinner the following program was rendered. Scripture and prayer by Rev. J. D. Pettigrew; an address on "A Program of Securing Half Million Members," Rev. H. T. Wagner; "The Necessity and Methods of the Every Member Canvass," Dr. J. L. Maile; "The Enlistment of Young People for Christian Service," Dr. Wm. Horace Day. These addresses were interspersed with music. Miss Stella Moore, pianist; Mr. John Mitchell, violin accompanist. A large crowd was in attendance.

The usual services on next Sunday. Sunday school—10 a.m.

Preaching—11:15 a.m.

Christian Endeavor—6:30 p.m. Topic, "Grace of Gratitude." Ps. 107:1-43. Dr. J. Mitchell Smith will be the leader at this meeting. Preaching 7:30 with baptismal service.

The pastor and church will worship on Thanksgiving Day with Second Baptist church in the union service. A literary program will be rendered on the evening of Thanksgiving Day.

THE PHYSICIAN DENTIST AND DRUGGIST ASSOCIATION AT WESLEY SUNDAY NIGHT

The third annual public meeting of the Physician, Dentist and Druggist Association of Southern California, will be held at Wesley Chapel, Sunday evening, Nov. 26, at 8, o'clock.

The program will include a thoroughly practical paper by Dr. Wm. A. Tarleton on the "Medical Care of Children."

These meetings are conducted for the public welfare and all should avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this good, sound, practical knowledge, whenever possible.

THE METHODIST MINISTERS ORGANIZE A SEPARATE UNION

The Methodist Ministers from the various churches of Los Angeles and surrounding cities in Southern California met and organized a Methodist Ministers Alliance of Southern California. About twenty-five members at present constitute the body. The meeting was held in the parlors at the A. M. E. Church last Monday morning at 10:00 a.m. A constitution and By-laws were adopted at this session and permanent officers selected. Dr. W. W. S. Dyett of Pasadena, president; Rev. J. C. Anderson, vice-president; Rev. H. L. McKinney, secretary, and Rev. V. M. Cole, treasurer.

Dr. J. Logan Craw was requested to read a paper on "The Program of Methodism" on the 4th of December. Rev. McKinney will address the alliance on "The Prince of Peace" next Monday morning. The public is cordially invited to be present.

The outlook of the methodist Alliance is very encouraging, owing to the fact that such an organization for the mutual understanding and closer union of our Methodist brethren has been a long felt need, however, this move does not in any way lessen our interest in the general federation which meets every Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A. In the last analysis we are all one as Christ our Head and God our Father art One.

The future meetings will be at the First A. M. E. church, corner 8th and Towne avenues. All Methodist ministers, active and local, are requested to become members.

WARD A. M. E. CHURCH
1354 Channing St., Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

The revival is still in progress at this church. Workers are joining the ranks from other fields and the fight goes on. Monday night was a climax for spiritual fervor. Drs. H. L. McKinney, E. R. Johnson of this city and Kelley of Florida and Rev. Davy of Mason's Chapel were in the saddle, and all present enjoyed a spiritual feast. The great cry is, "Come over in Macedonia and help us."

Services for Sunday, Nov. 26, as follows: Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.; the children's rally will be at 11 a.m., at which time the pastor will deliver a special address to the children. Allen Christian Endeavor League meets at 6:30 p.m. Regular evangelistic services at the evening hour, 7:45 p.m. All are welcome.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Rev. S. E. Edwards of Fresno will preach at the morning services and Rev. L. G. Robinson of Pasadena will speak at the evening services. Sunday is the day for the second installment for the traveling and moving expenses of our pastor. Don't forget the Thanksgiving Dinner in the dining room of the church. We want every member to attend the Thanksgiving Union Series at the Second

The Golden West Club and Mothers Club held the reciprosity meeting at the A. M. E. Church. Mrs. A. Pearson, president, Golden West; Mrs. M. L. Huston, president, Mothers Club. An excellent program was rendered. Papers, Mrs. J. C. Colens, Duty of the Clubs; Miss Louis Dangerfield, What Marriage Means to Us; Miss Anita McLahan, Divine Love and Friendship; Mrs. Cunningham, Lifting as You Climb, made a great hit and brought out so many beautiful points. Mr. John Pinkney made some good points upon the gossiping class of our women. Mrs. Doney, who spoke along the same line as how we as women lose our influence and strength in talking so much that we cannot life even ourselves with this poisoned mind.

"What does lifting as we climb mean? To put your sister in the ditch and stand on her to hide your faults on us? Pray that she be lifted to make a noble and great woman. Not until then will we be able to do club work right."

Solo, Mrs. Sada Booker, "Tell Mother I Will Be There;" Mrs. Clara Howard, Mrs. Small, Miss Antonette Young, "If I Were a Rose;" Mrs. Winters, "Mother Mine."

Mrs. Harvey entertained in honor of her moher's birthday last Saturday at her home on Sixth street. A lovely crown of beautiful white flowers decorated the table. A French lunch was served, delicious cakes, etc. Miss Mary Harvey, the little granddaughter, received with honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Texas are making their home in this city.

John Pinkney entertained in honor of the young people Monday night at Winters Hall. The evening was spent in dancing.

The Executive Board of the Western Baptist Distridict convention met at the residence of the president, Mrs. L. L. Moore, 746 Crocker street, last Saturday afternoon and arranged for the quarterly meeting to be held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Nov. 25. Great preparations are being made for the convention of the Old Folks' home, the laying of the cornet stone of which is to be on Nov. 26, in the afternoon, and there will be a great program.

ON TO IMPERIAL VALLEY

Although Wilson is apparently elected there is no need to hesitate, but get ready for the storm that is surely coming. The call is on for cotton pickers in the Imperial Valley—3000 strong—wages as good as $5.00 per day can be made. It is a bonifide proposition, vouched for by the Imperial County Farming Bureau and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, in order to get the workers there the company is making a very special rate three days of the week fare for those who desire to go. We are told by Mr. Place, representing the Farmers' Bureau, that families are there who are making $20 to $25 dollars daily. It strikes us that as many of our people that are out of work at a living wage should take advantage of this opportunity and go to the Imperial Valley. This work will last until March.

There is promised no delay. Those going from here will be checked out of the office at the time they procure their transportation and will be enabled to go to work as soon as they arrive at El Centro. Quarters such as obtained in this section will be provided, as well as fuel for cooking purposes. Work is carried on every day in the week, and as we foresaid we warn our people to get busy and prepare for the storm that will be the result from four more years of Wilson in this country.

The GET TOGETHER movement should now take growth by leaps and bounds.

There is no better time than now to bury all personal differences and join in the mighty GET TOGETHER movement.

As a result of the last election, when a candidate for supervisor went out of his district for a man to elect him he lost out. Moral: Play in your own back yard.

The Eagle appreciates the good expression, the many kind compliments and the hearty support of those who believe in real worth and merit, and we shall continue to do our best. "Angels can do no more."

The cotton fields of Imperial offer splendid opportunity for either the individual or family as any man should easily be capable of earning from $4 to $7 per day. Of this we are informed that it is a fact by parties who live and who are working in that section of whom we can vouch for their word. Lining up along the economic lines this opportunity should be taken advantage of by all who are so situated as to accept it.

ALONG ECONOMIC LINES

The agitation along economic lines at this time is timely to say the least, and any successful movement along these lines will do much to solve the problems which confront us as a race. There are so many things that we could do if we only had the means to do with and when the economic problem is solved, we can at all times be in line to accomplish things worth while, take for instance the recent disastrous campaign from a Republican standpoint. There were political strategists within the race that could easily have put into execution plans that would have resulted in the triumph of Republicanism in this state beyond peradventure, but they had nothing to do this thing with. Say what you will, the Negro is no piker at anything he attempts, he will go the limit, and if it cost somethng to pump enthusiasm into the people and to make them realize the dire consequence of defeat there would not have been one stay at home vote. Everyone would have been on their tiptoes and California would have been saved.

As it was there was no provision for this to be done, peanut politics prevailed and the black man could not help himself or the occasion: he had nothing. If he had he would be a major campaign contributor. So it is well that for the future and especially the next four years, that we should try to progress along the economic lines, so that in the future in campaigns with great issues confronting us we may be enabled to be a real part and parcel of the same, be both contributors and managers and then we will be doing the things worth while.

Who knows but that the way pointed out by the El Dorado and the Comobabi Mining Concerns are the beacon lights waiting to light our economic battle to the goad of success. Let us hope—we believe it is.

MUST HEW TO THE LINE, LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY

The parasites that exist on their connection with the church and with the fraternal orders, are the weights upon their progress, and it is clearly up to these orders themselves to cure this condition by "Hewing to the Line and Letting the Chips Fall Where They May." It is an open secret that a man who was the treasurer of one of our leading churches in this city was run down and it was found that he had systematically embezzled from the church more than a thousand dollars. Now strenuous efforts were made by those within and without this church to the end that no general exposure would be made of this theft of the people's money.

....The Eagle believes that this is wrong and that no matter who the offender is in these affairs they should suffer the consequence of their acts. Just think! that this money represents the pennies of the innocent children, the hard earned nickels and dimes of the washerwoman and of all classes of our people and yet, we must not speak out. To our mind this is not a good example to present to our young men and women. They may well say, "It's no harm to steal. Mr. So and So is a big man in our church or our society and he stole a thousand dollars and he is STILL honored in the community and was not punished, so 'I should worry.'"

The great trouble is that some of our religious and fraternal enthusiasts are simply there for what they can get out of it; they are the parasites to which we refer.

The writer realizes that this article is not going to make us very popular in certain sources, but we don't want to be popular from that source and we are going to wage war eternal against the church and fraternal parasites.

No more thievery will go unexposed and we are going to show up what has been done to the fullest.

A public speaker at the Forum a few days ago told of watching a collection and seeing for himself the petty thievery after a soul stirring sermon on honesty and the attributes thereto in one of our California churches. Now the only way to stop this feeding of the parasite is to put honest men and women on guard and if perchance one of these should go wrong, you cannot spare him but expose them and let the law take its course. That is what the law is for; to regulate society. From time to time we have heard of rank cases of dishonesty in church and lodge, and from now on we are going to keep a listening ear for this practice and promise to expose such wherever found, and we are going to find out what the district attorney's and city prosecutor's office is for.

Of all the thieves that exist the church and fraternal order thieves are the most dastardly and when apprehended they should be shown no quarter and we say again that our churches and lodges, if they expect to keep pace in the mighty march of progress, must "Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may."

Thursday is Thanksgiving Day and while we are not at all thankful for some things, we are thankful to the utmost that we are yet alive and for the blessings of health and the capacity for pursuit of happiness and all of the things that go with it.

ATTENTION BROTHER MASONS

Brethren of Holland Lodge No. 20, Delta No. 21, Angel City No. 18, B. F. Talbot No. 8 and St. John's No. 5

You are hereby notified to assemble at your Lodge rooms at Masonic Temple, 1209 Central Avenue, Thanksgiving Day, (Thursday November 30th) at 1:30 p. m. From thence we shall proceed in marching formation to 18th and Paloma Sts. for the purpose of laying the cornerstone of the Independent Church of Christ.

The M. W. G. M., T. A. Harris and his officers will be present to perform this important ceremony.

You are enjoined to exert every effort to be present to assist in carrying the plans of this solemn event to a successful end.

By order of Bros. J. T. Norris, J. P. Patterson, Samuel Knight, C. W. Hubert, and L. L. Stewart, W Masters of the respective Lodges.

CHAS. E. PATTERSON, Secretary.

Sojourner Truth Club entertained the Matrons and Bachelor Maids, Benedicts and Bachelors, with an "Evening of Fun," last Thursday evening, as a small appreciation of service rendered the Home. Several games were indulged in. The prize winners were Mrs. C. L. Marshall, Mrs. V. C. Williams, Dr. H. Browning, Mr. Spann, Mr. E. Lee, Mr. Marshall, after which pressed chicken, hot biscuits, and coffee were served by the Social Committee. The young people expressed themselves as having spent the most enjoyable evening for many moons. It is the hope of the club to bring all the young people in closer contact with the Home, that they may better understand its purpose.

Monday, Nov. 13th, Mrs. B. C. Offutt, ex-president, gave an interesting talk on her observations along club lines, during her visit through the Middle West, which was very enjoyable for those who were fortunate enough to be present.

The Domestic Science department is offering to the women something new, every third Monday. Last Monday they were carried through the process of preparing and serving vealbird, which was very delectable.

With the assistance of the young people Sojourner Truth Club was able to pay $350 on their debt last week. Let more young people join their forces with this splendid work.

Monday, Nov. 27, will be a gala day at the Home. A reception will be given the Blues and will afford all the newly elected members a chance to become acquainted with the others in the organization.

All members are asked to be present at 2 o'clock. Friends are cordially invited.

The purpose of Sojourner Club and Home is to advance the physical, social, intellectual, and moral interest of young women and to that end are offering classes in Physical Culture, Domestic Science, Parliamentary Law. Classes to begin first week in December. Women and girls are asked to register for class work by phone S-3417.

More women and girls wanted.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY EARNED.

Do you contemplate purchasing a piano for the home? If so, allow me to show you our stock of new and second hand pianos. This is a splendid opportunity to get a Christmas Piano at wholesale prices. We have on hand three car loads of new pianos and 16 pianos slightly used, same as new.

Prices range from $110.00 to $250.00. These pianos must be disposed of on or before December 20th, and can be had strictly at wholesale prices. $10.00 down and $6.00 per month will place into your home any one of these pianos. Why not buy at wholesale prices and save for yourself the $50.00 or $100.00 that you give to the retail houses. If you desire to see these instruments, phone me, Main 5819 or see me at my residence, 743 E. 27th St. Bring this "ad." with you.

E. J. WARREN.

TO THE PUBLIC

Los Angeles, Cal.
Nov. 22, 1916.

We desire to call your attention to the fact that E. J. Warren, who for a period of three and one-half years has been in the employment of the Fitzgerald Music Company, as piano salesman, has recently accepted a position with one of the leading wholesale firms in San Francisco, with branch houses in Los Angeles, San Diego, Seattle, Portland, Arizona and New Mexico. Mr. Warren in a recent statement said that for a number of months he has been working on a plan whereby he could serve his people and thus save them from paying to retail dealers from Fifty to One Hundred Dollars that could be kept in their homes for other domestic purposes. No retail house in Southern California offers such inducements, nor can any dealer duplicate the prices offered by the firm he represents. He has just received a shipment of three carloads that he will be pleased to show you at any time. Upright, Grand, and Player Pianos. He has recently placed beautiful pianos into the homes of the following persons, and they are commendable to the purchaser as well as the dealer. Those persons are: A. L. Joseph, East 32nd St.; H. O. Stokes, West 43rd St.; Mr. Gatliff, of 8th and Towne Church.

The general manager of this concern made inquiry among some of the retail dealers of this city, asking for the recommendation of a Colored man who could successfully handle the agency among his people, as well as other races, and because of Mr. Warren's experience and integrity, his service swere secured.

You owe it to the race to give him your patronage. We take pleasure in recommending him to the public.

FAREWELL STAG PARTY

"For he is a jolly good fellow" when good fellows get together A party of young men gave a farewell stag party to Dr. Wiley Fowler, who soon leaves for Chicago, where he is to intern in the Provident Hospital. The evening was given to song and stories and a big feed. Those who participated were J. Tisem Frederich Scott, Littleton Ashford, Ted Ellis, Dr. Wiley Fowler, and James Gorham.

The Brotherhood of New Hope Baptist Church gave a social last Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Miller, which was well patronized.

If a man should write to Santa Clause with the simple faith that his children do, he would probably say something like this:

DEAR OLD MAN:

For all these years you have been filling the stockings of the universe. You have got a heap of glory out of it, and I don't begrudge you a bit.

The folks are going to give me some thing this year, of course. They always do. But tell 'em, won't you that I am not collecting curios.

I Do Not Want

a new collar fur the dog, a box of flowers, a box of candy, a bottle of perfume, or some nickel cigar.

But there "are" things I do want.

Some of them I must have. If I get them, they will save me money.

Others I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to me, it would be great!

So will you kindly give this list your attention old friend.

I Should Like—

some new neckties; nobody ever has quite enough ties (50c to $3). And some SILK SHIRTS—every man likes to have a few, ($5 to $10).

I could use a good sweater, ($3 to $10) or a knitted vest, ($5 to $6). A wooly auto scarf, ($1 to $5).

I really need some linen handkerchiefs. It looks as though we will soon have to use cotton handkerchiefs, so while they are still obtainable and reasonable, I could use a couple of dozen nice sheer ones (25c to 75c each).

I am a candidate for admission into some new pajamas ($1.50 to $8.50). As I sleep in a sleeping porch, I prefer the flannelette sort, ($1.50 to $3).

A HOUSE COAT would be a big improvement on the old coat I wear around the house, ($5 to $20).

My SILK HAT is a little behind the times, ($6 to $8).

It is about time I had a new pair of GLOVES, but unless someone gives them to me, I shall probably go on wearing my soiled ones, ($1 to $5).

Everybody thinks he is harder on SOCKS than anybody else. I am. Some silk socks would certainly come in handy, ($50c to $2.50).

And if anybody wants to save me a nice bit of money as well as improve my appearance, I am a candidate for a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES or a NEW OVERCOAT, (suits $15 to $40; overcoats $15 to $40).

Yours hopefully,
A MAN.

P. S.—And as you love me, fail not to tell 'em to buy the things in a MAN'S Store.

All These Things and More selected by Men Who Know for Men Who Know.

Local Happenings

NOTICE

Attend the Big Country Fair and Bazaar at Cornerstone Baptist Church, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 29 and 30. Big turkey dinner served all day Thursday. Between 12th and 14th streets on Tennessee.

Miss Fern Caldwell, who won the championship in the doubles at tennis at the recent tournament received many congratulations. Miss Caldwell is at present with the Owl Beauty Parlors, 1418 Tennessee St.

Mr. Arthur Browning, 781 E. 18th St., is on the sick list with a severe attack of lumbago.

Mr. Jos. J. Anderson, the well-known and popular entertainer of 1019 East 9th St., is confined to his bed with a severe attack of pleurisy.

"The Star Rider," a three-act comedy, will be presented at Wesley Chapel next Thursday evening, November 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alexander, of 1442 W. 35th St., have remodeled their home, transforming it into a two-flat house with four-room apartments each, and modern in every way. These beautiful flats are ready to rent on easy terms.

Rev. C. N. Moore has been duly called to the pastorate of the St. Paul Baptist Church.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First A. M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. Robert Buford, 1615 East 14th St., next Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

WAS NOT OUR OWN DR. BROWNING

For some unaccountable reason the report is going forth that Dr. Wm. H. Browning, of 1200½ Central avenue, was the dentist that pulled the tooth that was of such serious consequence to our well-known townsman, N. B. Murray.

In justice to Dr. Browning and all concerned, he was not the one that did this, and so far the doctor has had excellent results with all his patrons and is rendering a great service at his profession.

THE NEW CADILLAC CAFE

In the first-class cafe line the Cadillac, just opened at 556 Central avenue, is enjoying a splendid patronage. The management is broad-gauged and are conducting the same on a high plane, and no doubt will take front rank as the leading cafe on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. A. Lincoln, of Imperial, Cal., was a visitor in the city this week en route to Bakersfield on business. Mr. Lincoln is a booster for Imperial Valley, and is one of the substantial citizens thereof. He says that for our people Imperial Valley offers a GREAT OPPORTUNITY, and that now is the time to strike.

The attendance at the cornerstone laying of the Old Folks' Home at Watts, Sunday afternoon, promises to be very great. The management asks that everyone should be on time, as the exercises will begin promptly on time.

STRAWS

The Eagle sold more extra copies at 5 cents per copy this week than some of our contemporaries publish for their entire subscription list. Our article by the managing editor, on "Intolerance" has evoked great interest in picture circles, and we have been the recipient of many compliments from the same, both from our clientage and the producers of the pictures.

Despite Wilson's election 43 cash subscriptions was our quota for this week.

Although we printed more than 500 extra copies of our last issue we exhausted our supply. This shows that the people see merit in at least one of the class papers of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen, of 1575 W. 37th St., entertained Tuesday last, honoring Mrs. C. Richie.

NEW CLUB ORGANIZED

Mrs. M. J. Davis visited Riverside last week in the interest of the State Federation and organized a Phillis Wheatley Club.

The organization was perfected in the Second Baptist Church. Mrs. Davis reports a hearty response, and a hopeful future for the club at Riverside.

The Tom Thumb wedding held at the People's Auditorium last Wednesday evening, and given under the auspices of Club No. 2 of the Tabernacle Baptist church, was a great success.

The Colored Women's Republican Club will meet Saturday evening at the Eagle office, 814 Central avenue. All members are urged to be present.

FRIDAY MORNNIG CLUB ORGANIZED

A few weeks ago at the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards on Newton Street, a Friday Morning Club was organized and launched with a membership roll of 20 women.

Mrs. Felix Waugh, of 1152 Irola St., entertained Saturday evening with a dinner and dance, honoring a few friends.

The Girls' Athletic Club gave a delightful social dance, Saturday evening at Blanchard Hall.

Mrs. J. H. Shackelford, of East 34th St., entertained Wednesday, honoring Mrs. Cornelius Richie, of Great Falls, Mont.

Misses Josephine and Clara Brown entertained, Friday evening, with a social dance at St. Philip's Parish Hall.

A party is to be given by Miss Clyde Brown and Grace McDowell, at Parish Hall. There will be dancing as well. It is given for Miss May Jones, bride-elect.

Dr. Prowd will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and evening, winding up the grand rally. All are urged to be present.

Mr. N. B. Murray is improving fast. He was down town on Thursday.

Rev. C. N. Moore, who was instrumental in bringing about the amalgamation of the Providence Church and the St. Paul church, has been made pastor of the latter, with an overwhelming majority.

Mr. W. M. Ragsdale is making that fine tooth powder now.

Mr. Sol. Thomas is in a sanitorium in Chicago. His friends say he is about to lose his mind.

Mr. J. F. Higgins, as you remember his at the Neddles, is just the same natty fellow of old.

Mr. A. F. Adams, of 1514 East 23rd St., is in the ranks now. Which ranks? Pullman's.

Miss Darling E. Nesty is preparing still. So she says.

There was quite a time at the Wilkins studio a few days ago. I walked into the parlor and I did not understand a word that was said. All foreigners, you know.

The business houses of Central avenue are preparing for the holidays. So far the hair store is looking the best.

The drug store is a gem.

The billiard parlor of Fred is clean and nice, but that sign—who can understand it?

A certain person worked down Central Avenue and a gent came up and said "Why, I have not seen you for a long time, where have you been? I have looked for you high and low." Yes, my friend, I have been high and low, but never so high that you could not find me to hand me that $2. Ah, I must meet a friend. So long.

In a pool room on Central Avenue there reads a sign: "Do not interfere with the plyers."

Mr. John Brooks has left the hospital and is improving fast.

Everybody wants a copy of the Eagle now. "Intolerance" made the paper esell. The Eagle is like the new dime, just now. So you had better subscribe for it so as to be sure and have the banner newspaper.

There were sports and would-be sports down at the Santa Fe train the other day, all talking about the Tia Juana races. When the train pulled out of town, just two small men boarded. They were noted riders, but name them. They were getting by on their nerve.

If you desire to adveritse now is your time, for the holidays will soon be here and you want to sell your wares. So just advertise. The Christmas number will be just the paper for you.

Do not forget the California Eagle. It has been published for Nearly Thirty Years.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long

The Helping Hand Society had their annual sermon preached Sunday afternoon at Mt. Zion Baptist church. Rev. C. Williams preached the sermon, of which many comments were made, on ti being the best sermon they have ever heard. The pastor of the Methodist church also gave a few encouraging remarks to the society and the Methodist choir rendered the music, which was accepted by all as a rare treat. Sister Hariet Marshall, president and founder of the Helping Hand Society, presented to the audience, representing from the cradle to the grave, Mother Stokes, 87 years old, and Baby Humphrey, 2 years old. Collection taken, $14.55.

Rev. C. Williams and wife, Mr. I. Haywood and wife, Mr. S. Freeman and wife left San Diego, Wednesday morning to attend the executive board meeting in Los Angeles, and will remain over Sunday to attend the corner stone laying of the Old Folks' Home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, of East San Diego, entertained Mrs. C. E. Norwood and little daughter Dorothy at a dinner, Thursday evening, given in honor of Mrs. Norwood's 35th birthday. The table was beautifully decorated with evergreen and pink geraniums. A large and beautiful birthday cake with 35 little candles, decorated the center of the table, while everything imaginable good to eat was also on the table.

The Superintendent of the Sunday School has appointed her committees on the Xmts exercises, and the little ones are busily getting ready for St. Nicholas.

Mrs. L. A. Jones, of East San Diego, has been on the sick list for a few days. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Each auxiliary of the Mt. Zion Baptist church responded to the call of sending funds to help the Old Folks' Home. Receipts—The church, $5.00; Missionary Society, $5.00; Carnation Club, $2.00; Sunday School, $1.00; B. Y. P. U., $2.00. Total sent to Old Folks' Home from Mt. Zion church, $15.00.

The young people of the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. rendered a program Sunday evening, which was indeed creditable to the Mt. Zion church. The program consisted of duets, quartets, and choruses, together with select readings, papers, and recitations. Mrs. C. E. Norwood was chairman of the Program Committee.

On Sunday morning, Nov. 26, Rev. Curry will praech at Mt. Zion church. Sunday night, Rev. E. M. G. Mulholland will preach. Everyone cordially invited to attend both services.

The juveniles of the city organized a club known as the Acme. They held their first meeting at the residence of Miss M. Hunter, 1927 Julian St. The second meeting was held at the residence of Miss Scott, 713 Second street. The charter members were Master Leon Robinson, Gathern Perry, Charles Logan and others.

Mr. Willis Gibbs, who holds a position at the U. S. Grant hotel, would have been spirited away in his new uniform had it not been for an Eagle reporter. He was mistaken for the commander of the Bull-dog of the Navy. When it comes to smiles Willis has that grand old smile—the smile that takes; yea, the smile that wins.

The so different reception was given at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Thompson, 720 Third Street, last Monday afternoon. The guests were allowed to choose their own games. Mrs. E. Smith lives on the sun-kissed hill and now speaks very low. Mrs. A. Stevens would not pay the penalty to learn that six was seven in the whist tournament. Mr. Thompson became peeved with his partner and threw the game away, for which act he was invited to fight a duel to be faught on the Plaza de Panama.

Mr. John Willis had to depart early. Miss Harris assisted Mrs. Thompson in preparing what we called the no-different dinner, at which Mr. and Mrs. Laws were invited guests.

The Wayfarers' Club, under the management of Mr. W. E. Marshall, has become very popular. On Friday nights the ladies are entertained, and here is where Mr. Marshall has made himself popular by his jovial ways and ever-ready smiles.

The Black and Tan orchestra will hold their weekly dance at Kastle Hall, where you are solicited to come and enjoy yourselves. Come early and stay late. Best of music all the time.

Miss Hodgie Hall met with an accident a few days ago, when she fell from a bookcase at the residence, 1629 National avenue, and broke one rib. Miss Hall is the sister of Mr. Harry Hall, who has just left the hospital and is not strong enough to work yet.

Mr. an dMrs. Smith, of East San Diego, spent Sunday at the Exposition, where they reported spending a pleasant day, but can you imagine this: They spent three hours in the court of Leap Year. Now, how did they do it?

"One for all and all for one" is the slogan of the Pantages, as they were turning people away last Sunday night. I heard a young man say he had not been coming to the shows often of late. At that time his girl passed with another fellow, so you see, I have missed more than the show. In the future you will see me onto that right wing. Yes, I told him that just love alone would do on the deserts, but not in San Diego.

The fashion plate was out last Tuesday in her $500 dress for the first time this season. Had it not been her first debut she would have taken a special to the Lone Star State.

BETHEL CHURCH OF CHRIST

1546 Palomares St.
Wm. A. Washington, Pastor.

Sunday, Nov. 19, was a blessed day at Bethel. The Sunday School lesson was quite inspiring to all. The teachers were at their best and made the lesson very intering to their classes.

The pastor brought us an inspiring message from Matt. 16: 24-25 using as a subject the cost of discipleship.

At 3 p. m. the Misters' Willing Workers band was in charge of the services. The Bible lesson taught by Sister S. C. Magie was very good.

The Y. P. C. L. meeting at 6 p. m. was very good. Brother Logan Lewis, the faithful president, is doing a good work among the young people.

The evening service at 7:30, seemed to have been a special benediction to all. The pastor brougit us another helpful message from Matt. 16: 26.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach morning and evening. At 3 p. m., ten happy converts will be baptised.

PASADENA NOTES.

CHURCH AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN THE CROWN CITY

Last Sabbath was a great day at Scott's Chapel. The services started with the early prayer service from 6 to 7. Sabbath school at 930. The 11 o'clock service was addressed by Rev. C. T. Hartzel, who with his wife and nine months babe will sail in a few days to take up his work in Africa. Quite a large audience enjoyed the Rev's. talk. Pledges and actual cash amounting to more than $70 were given by the members and friends present. The speaker expressed himself as being grateful and said never had he been so cordially received and so helped financially, and asked that the church assure him of their prayers. Miss Zenobia Duncan and Louise Beavers sang sweetly, "God Will Take Care of You."

Bible Study led by sister Wilson at 6:30 was well attended and every one seemed greatly inspired. Epworth League held its regular devotional meeting at 7:15. The evening services were given over to a memorial service. This was a very impressive service in honor of Booker T. Washington and Hon. Seth Low, both associated with Tuskegee Institute.

Madam Beavers led the singing with her splendid choir, singing the favorite jubilee songs of Dr. Washington. Talks were given by Alexander Kinchen, Mrs. Katie Lee, Theo Troy, Rev. E. W. Kinchen, and Hugh Macbeth. William Moore acted as master of ceremony. Mrs. E. Monroe Beavers effectively sang "Thy Will Be Done."

The recital given by Miss Marie Hilda Ford, graduate of Chicago College, at Shakespeare Club on last Friday evening was a musical treat. Miss Ford shows wonderful musical ability and should be patronized by those desiring to learn more about music. Miss Ford desires to thank those who assisted in making her recital a grand success. The other numbers on the program rendered by Mrs. Ethyle Miller Thomas, Mme. Corrine Hicks and Mr. J. T. Hill, were well rendered and greatly appreciated.

Mrs. E. Monroe Beavers forgot she had a birthday November 16 until she returned home in the evening to find her daughter had planned a five-course dinner and had invited a few friends. The surprise was genuine.

The Union Thanksgiving Services will be held with Scott's Chapel M. E. church this year. Rev. Hughes will preach the sermon and all members of the various choirs are invited to take part in the singing.

Mrs. Jones of Altadena entertained the younger set in honor of Mrs. Stewart of Kansas, Mo., Wednesday evening at Foresters' Hall.

Mrs. W. S. Pyles of Catalina avenue received in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Chatteau and Mrs. Stewart, Tuesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid of Scott's Chapel met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Roberts of South Fair Oaks avenue, Thursday evening.

Mme. Beavers desires all who will help her in the rendition of the Cantata, "Ruth the Moabitess," to meet with her on Monday evening at the church for rehearsal. The chorus is making great progress and she hopes to be able to stage it by the last of January.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bunch have returned after several months' absence. Pasadenans are glad to welcome them again.

Mr. and Mrs. Chatteau and daughter, Mrs. Stewart, of Kansas City, left the city Thursday.

Upon returning home from his usual prayer meeting Wednesday evening, Rev. E. W. Kinchen was surprised to find the Queen Esther Circle of Wesley Chapel, Los Angeles, at his home, where they had come to present to him a handsome writing desk set as a token of their esteem.

SCOTT CHAPEL NOTES

Last Sunday was a red letter day in the history of Scott Chapel. Sunrise prayer meeting was a great spiritual feast. The Sunday School showed unusual interest under Professor Lee. At 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. C. C. Hartzler, who sails for Africa within a month, brought a message to the people of Africa's needs and of another Race's secrifice for her redemption. After the regular offering $73.00 was taken up to help Rev. Hartzler in his work. At 6:30 p. m. Sister Wilson was greeted by a large company of people anxious to study the word. At 7:45 p. m. a most impressive memorial service was conducted in honor of the memory of Dr. Booker T. Washington and the Hon. Seth Low. The addresses delivered on that occasion were a great inspiration and brought out points in the lives of these great men that will always be food for thought. The speakers were: The orator of the evening, Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth, addresses delivered by Mrs. Katie Lee, Alexander Kinchen, Teo. Troy, Mrs. Barr and E. W. Kinchen. A great chorus conducted by Madam Beavers rendered the favored songs of Mr. Washington—the plantation melodies. Pastor Kinchen will occupy the pulpit at all services next Sunday. All the people are welcome.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH NOTES

Attendance at Sunday School last Sabbath was very good. Classes 2 and 4 strove for the honor banners. At the morning service, following the reading of the 27th Psalm by Pastor Hughes, Rev. Ward of Fort Smith, Ark., preached from the text, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord." Rev. Cutter at evening service, basing his remarks on the 13th chapter of Revelations, preached a very interesting and beneficial sermon. Delegates have been chosen from the local missionary soceity to attend the quarterly meeting in Los Angeles on Nov. 24. Sister M. Edwards, M. Harts, L. Long, W. C. Williams, H. Pointer and N. F. McMicken were so chosen.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

All services last Sunday were held in the interests of the Old Folks' Home, which is nearing completion at Watts under the direction of the Western Baptist Association. A speciay sermon by the pastor in the morning, an afternoon service by the Missionary Society, and an entertaining program in the evening by the other auxiliaries were conducive of special collections that will aid materially in the extension of this work. Next Sunday afternoon the corner stone will be laid and the Home dedicated. This will be one of the largest meetings held by the Baptists of Southern California for some time and arrangements are being made at Watts to handle a record breaking crowd. The morning and evening services next Sabbath will be in charge of the pastor. The trustees are featuring a financial rally to take place at these services. They are desirous of raising with the help of the members and friends about $200 with which to clear up all outstanding local debts so that the new year will start out with nothing of this nature as a hindrance.

A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Services throughout the day were well attended Sunday and brought to the congregation inspiring sermons from the pastor and added one to the membership of the church. The regular attendance at Sunday's services shows continuous growth which is also reflected in the increasing collections. The Ladies Aid Society was entertained last Thursday by Mrs. McAllister at her home on Hurlburt Street. The captains of the various Rally Clubs are busy with their members preparing for success in the February rally. The Young People's meeting continues to show both old and young to evening service. The next meeting, Sunday at 6:30 p. m., will be led by Miss Sharnette Boyce. The program will include a duett by Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Utley, a reading by Miss Thelma Jones, a solo by Mrs. Mackey, and a reading by Mrs. Zion. Thanksgiving will be the theme of the meeting.

Sunday the pastor will preach at morning service. It is expected that each member will contribute a dollar Sunday as a special Thanksgiving offering. At the evening service Rev. McKinney, formerly of Mason Chapel, will preach. The young men of Senior Class No. 1 will present a program on Thanksgiving evening at the church. Admission is free, but a silver offering will be accepted to aid the work of the class. A very wide sale of tickets for the choir concert insures a very successful affair for next Tuesday evening. Under the caption, "An Evening with Negro Authors and Composers," the choir, assisted by an array of local and outside talent, will entertain. Attorney J. H. Kelley, Miss Leila Harts, Mrs. Lillian Turner, Julian Fisher, and Miss Thelma Hill are included on the

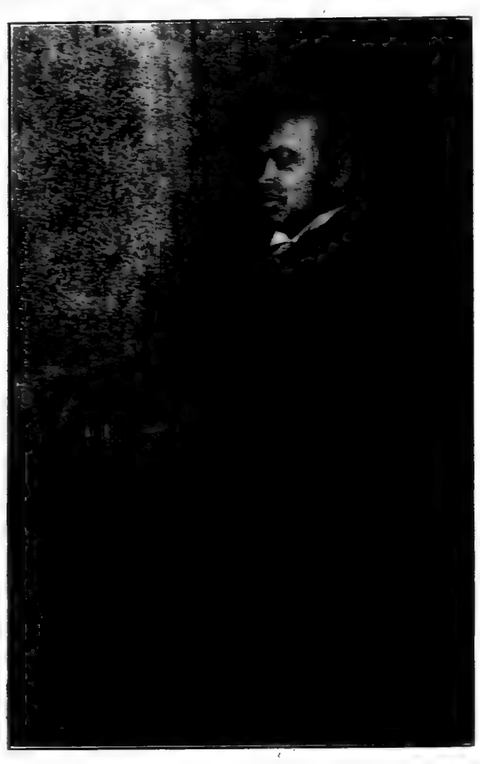
Prgressive Educational Association

The Greatest Proposition Ever Offered for the Benefit of the Race. Absolutely Bona Fide The Future Hope of a Struggling People.

THE GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Progressive Educational Association, Rev. J. D. Gordon, president, has negotiated for 107,000 acres of the best farming land in the West. Said land is located in the State of Arizona, and is known as Santa Rosa Valley. This fine farming land is set apart for an industrial colony. A town site will be located in the center of the tract, and a college erected for the training of the youth of the Race, for the varied pursuits of life.

OPPORTUNITY FOR THE NEGRO IN THE WEST



In the State of Mississippi and Oklahoma, where the Negro is oppressed and disfranchised of his God-given privileges and citizen rights, they have seized the opportunity of building for themselves and have made good.

Why not the Negroes in the West, with the knowledge offered them, come together and make a show?

Our people are making a gross mistake in flocking to the great cities of the West, where Organized Labor has the door closed against them, and their wives and daughters have to go out in service and work to pay house rent, and part of the time the men are walking the streets without work.

Some of them are trying to buy homes on the installment plan, and contracting four and five thousand dollars indebtedness, and it takes all their spare money just to keep up the interest.

This same person could take $440 and purchase them 80 acres of the best farming land in the West, and the first year he is on the land. it will pay for itself, and wife and daughters can remain at home.

H. H. Williams

The widow woman who is out in service can grow fruit and raise enough poultry to make her life happy, without such hard work.

THE CLIMATE

There is not another location in the United States that has more suitable climate for the colored man. It is never too hot and never too cold—average 1800 feet above sea level, no heavy frosts and no snow. The plains are green the year round, an ideal climate and a healthy country. Plenty of rain for two crops a year, the rainy seasons coming, one in the winter and the other in the summer months, July, August, and September.

PRODUCTION

The land will produce cotton, and corn, 50 to 75 bushels per acre; wheat, barley, oats, and other small grain, 40 to 60 bushels per acre; potatoes and beans, peas of all varieties, melons of all kinds, and all semi-tropical vegetables.

FRUITS

Lemons, oranges, grapes, and all kinds of nuts, and any fruit that grows in any semi-tropical climate.

A smooth table land.

THE SURVEY

The lands will be allotted in 40, 80 and 100-acre tracts, and the cost per acre will be $5.50 for the present.

TERMS

40 acres @ $5.50 = $220.00.
80 acres @ $5.50 = $440.00.
100 acres @ $5.50 = $550.00.

These amounts can be paid on the installment plan if desired.

When the European war comes to a close, and it is made possible for the thousands to come to this country, all thinking people are agreed that all or most of our idle territory will be taken up by the homeseekers. Having this in mind, and also seeking to provide for the Western states a school or university for the religious training of our girls and boys, we desired a location. We have searched California for a desirable place, but could not find in the State just what we wanted.

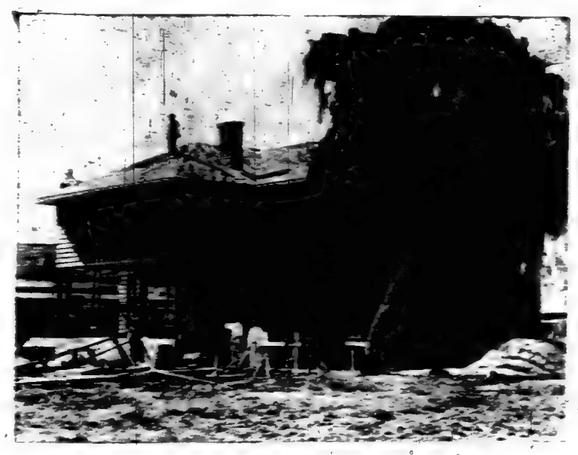
We have succeeded now in laying hands upon more than 100,000 acres of the best land now idle on the North American continent.

10. This land without irrigation, will produce 50 to 60 bushels of wheat to the acre, and then the same year, without irrigation, produce 50 bushels of corn per acre.
1. There is no alkali in this land anywhere.
2. There is no adobe soil in this land.
3. There are no rocks on this land.
4. There is no sand or sand dunes on this land.
5. Nor can you find gullies in this territory.
6. The land is so level that you would never need to level it for irrigation.
8. Cattle and hog raising.
7. This is fine soil for cotton raising.
9. You can produce two crops a year without irrigation; one you plant in December, and the other in June.
11. The wind velocity is an important matter to the western farmer, many have to plant trees around the farm to protect the produce from high winds, but here, according to government reports, the velocity of the wind is from four to seven miles per hour.
12. This land, every foot of it, is water bearing, and you can get water from 15 to 50 feet, when you are seeking surface water.
13. The water from the artesian depth is so pure that in using the engine for four consecutive years, the boilers did not have to be cleaned out once during this time.
14. This land will produce the finest cotton possible, and when opened should be a rival to Imperial Valley.
15. It is nearly 1800 feet above the sea level, and out of the reach of fogs.
16. This is an orange producing climate and soil, but we can only know from the fact that 40 miles away oranges and lemons grow in abundance, therefore we safely conclude that lemons and oranges will grow here.
17. This land, from its productive powers, is easily worth $150 per acre. Everything that we have said about this land can be verified.

Now we are putting 20,000 acres of this land on the market at such a figure that it will startle you. We do so because we have plenty land left, and what we sell at this figure will help us to sell the rest of the land for what it is worth.

We have 250 certificates, called "Founders' Certificates," which members are to keep for the coming generation, as a memorial.

These Certificates will cost you $440 on terms, and will entitle you to cast one vote for the "Trustees" of the School in this Province; and give you 80 acres of this matchless land; thus letting you have the land at the rate of $5.50 per acre. This door will not be open always for the ambitious men and women among us.



One-fourth of all the proceeds from the sale of said land will be placed in escrow for the establishment and endowment of this University, thus avoiding the necessity of asking anyone for a donation, white or black. We hope that all Negroes who believe in and delight in the Negro's possibility, will enthusiastically join in with this religious, industrial, civil, and educational movement, that promises so much for the Race.

We hope to see a great city, surrounded by a great number of prosperous farmers and cattle raisers, and artisans skilled in every department of hand-craft; and turn out from there to the world, the best articles along all lines, bearing the name and stamp of this great University; and nothing can stop the Race from going on to greatness. The Race cannot go to greatness by saying great things alone, but by our deeds shall we be promoted in this world.

PROGRESS AND THE NEGRO

Detroit Free Press: It takes years for great movements to produce visible results. In the South a gregarious, pleasure-loving, improvident race has seemed to be but slightly affected by the economic and industrial changes of the time. The negro has been the unskilled laborer, the poor tenant farmer, raising his bale or two of cotton and turning it over to the local buyer in liquidation of his debt for the year's living expenses. The teachings of institutions like Tuskegee, Calhoun, and Hampton are producing a class trained in trades, efficiency and initiative, whose influence is a leaven slowly permeating the mass for industrial uplift and awakening in the negro a sense of his economic value. The labor shortage has been an advantage to him. Seven thousand negroes applied to the Federal Department of Labor last year in regard to opportunities for employment; testimony to the spread of industrial education.—(From the Scrap Book, by J. D. Reynolds.)

Mayor Woodman Hewing to the Line

Members of the Race Make Promising Invention.

THEY HAVE STRUCK THE KEY NOTE

The Tip Top Battery, manufactured by the Oakland Carbon-Battery Company and invented by Mr. Geo. L. Tarver of Oakland, incorporated under the laws of California in 1912 with a capital stock of $10,000 is predicted as one of the safest and best investments owned and controlled by members of the Race.

Mr. Tarver and his associates have made a desperate effort to introduce to our people the worth of said invention, realizing that it is the greatest dry cell battery that has ever been offered to the public.

Until March of this year the O C. B. Company had manufactured their product by hand, but on account of rush orders they have been compelled to secure more capital for a more complete plant in order that they may meet the demands. In their effort to accomplish this end they were advised to communicate with C. E. Orr of Bowles, which they did. Mr. Orr came to Oakland, and being one of the most keen sighted business men, regardless of Color in this State, immediately detected the value of the invention to the extent that he at once became financially interested.

He submitted several specimens of the O. C. B. Battery Company to some of the best electrical experts of San Francisco, Oakland, Stockton and Sacramento and was thoroughly convinced that a chance to develop one of the greatest commercal industries of the age was his as well as the thinking part of the Race in this section.

Since June 20th, the date of Mr. Orr's identification with the company, the factory has been remodeled and new machinery has been installed to the capacity of 800 to 1000 batteries per day. And owing to the rush of orders, and the consumption of the treasury stock the Company is forced to raise the capital stock to $50,000 to further the progress of the proposition.

For further information concerning the O. C. B., write C. E. Orr, 223 Blake Block, Oakland, Calif.

CHANGE IN CITY CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

It will be noted that Mayor Woodman is not going to stand for the present regime in the City Civil Service Commission, and has accepted the resignation of Mrs. D. C. McCan and has appointed in her place, Mrs. E. R. Branerd.

Now, all that this or any other people should ask or seek is a square deal, and with such citizenship as Mrs. Brainerd on our city commissions, they, unlike the present Civil Service Commission will cease to be a joke, and everybody will receive a square deal. Mayor Woodman is to be commended for his efforts to give to this city a broad-gauged and impartial Civil Service Commission.

A TABERNACLE BUILT ON FAITH

Millions have read the old story of the house that Jack built, but only few in a life time have ever had the privilege of seeing an immene Gospel Tabernacle built on faith Such a building is now in course of erection in the Crown City by the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the world's famed "Fighting Parson." The structure is fifty by on ehundred feet, and will seat more than a thousand persons. The Tabernacle is known as "Christ's Temple, the Great Church of Humanity," and will have many institutional features that will reach thousands of the unchurched and strangers coming to Southern California.

The Tabernacle will be dedicated to the glory of God and the service of humanity on the third Sunday, December 17th, at 2:30 o'clock, with imposing religious ceremonies, many prominent religious, civic, and industrial workers will take part in the dedicatory services. The famous Harris-Bilbrew Jubilee Singers will take part in the musical program along with choirs from Los Angeles and nearby towns, bringing together some of the best vocalists of both races on the Pacific Slop. Monday evening the first annual religious Parliament of Races will open for ten days. Each eveing addresses will be delivered by some of the foremost men and women of both races upon topics of vital interest.

As a large crowd is expected to attend the dedication services on Sunday the Temple workers will serve a free dinner, a real old time basket dinner from noon to 2 o'clock, all persons planning to attend the dedication on third Sunday should take the Pasadena short line and get off at Raymond and East Bellevue and walk half block north on Raymond to Tabernacle ground and see the wonderful tabernacle that was built on faith.

EXCLUSIVE NEGRO TOWN THREATENED WITH DEPOPULATION

(Bluff City News.)

Anniston, Ala.—Hobson City, one of the few negro towns in the United States, is threatened with depopulation on account of immigration of so many of its citizens to Northern states. During the past few weeks agents for industrial concerns in West Virginia and Pennsylvania have been in Hobson City making tempting offers to the Negroes to go north.

It is understood in some cases railroad transportation has been furnished and the further inducement of permanent wages and steady work has been offered.

A number of Negroes have also left the pipe shops in htis city to go north, but those who went to Pittsburgh have written to their former employers asking for their old jobs and seeking assistance to get back home.

The general belief prevails that the thousands of Negroes who have gone north in answer to the glittering inducements held out by the labor agents, were to be used by the Republicans on election day.

NEGRO ASKS $50,000

Charges Was Forced by Whites to Leave Lonoke County

Little Rock, Ark.—The $50,000 damage suit instituted by J. H. Foy, a Negro, against citizens of Lonoke, was begun before Judge Trieber in federal court here. Foy is now a resident of Oklahoma. He charges that he had property in Lonoke County and had to leave it because of the threats made by the white neighbors. On July 15, 1915, he was taken from the jail by a force of masked men, who tied his hands and feet, threw him on the ground and severaly beat and kicked him, then removed his clothing and whipped him across the naked body with a strap in which tacks had been driven, his suit charges. He says he was given terrible treatment until forced to promise that he would leave the neighborhood.

The defendants are S. D. Cobb, Sam Cobb, Oat French, Albert Meadows, Killard Marride, John Comer, Lem Teague, Tom Toaster, E. Scruggs, Joe Lovell, Joe Farre and Charles Smith.—Scrap Book.

TRIBUNE COMMENTS FAVORABLY ON ONE OF RACE'S MOST BRILLIANT WOMEN.

Mr. A. E. Low, nephew of the late Seth Low, and general efficiency expert, congratulates the Colored Men's Efficiency Bureau and commends Eoise Bibb Thompson's scholarly address.

In a letter to Mr. L. V. Stewart, president of the Colored Men's Efficiency Bureau, Mr. A. E. Low, manager of the Fair Bargain Store, expresses his appreciation of the meeting held at Wesley Chapel last Sunday afternoon, at whch he was a speaker, and stated among other things that he enjoyed the meeting and believes that if the members of the bureau will try to live up to their constitution they can and will accomplish great results in a very short time. "Also," he adds, "I want to particularly endorse the most scholarly address of Mrs. Thompson. I do not know whether a suggestion from me is opportune, but if so I believe that you might do considerable good by having her talk printed and distributed to all of your members.

At the meeting of the Forum, which convened just after the Wesley Chapel meeting, both Mr. Low's and Mrs. Thompson's addresses were frequently referred to as most timely and helpful. Noah D. Thompson, who works on the editorial staff of the Evening Express and Morning Tribune, had the honor of presenting Mr. Low to the large audience Sunday afternoon.

TALKS ON EFFICIENCY

Wesley Chapel Is Crowded to Hear Woman Speaker

"Efficiency is not gained by fits and starts, but by following certain requisites which are indispensable, the first being honesty," said Eloise Bibb Thompson, the principal speaker at the semi-annual meeting of the Colored Men's Efficiency Bureau of Los Angeles City and County yesterday afternoon.

Wesley Chapel, at Eighth and Julian streets, was crowded to the doors with members of the organization and their friends to hear Mrs. Thompson. She is an eloquent speaker and a special contributor to magazines and newspapers. Her talk was chiefly on the progress of efficient Negroes in the United States and abroad.

A. E. Low, nephew of the late Seth Low, of New York, general efficiency expert who is at present organizing the forces to be employed at the new Fair Bargain store, which is soon to be opened in the old Robinson building, also addressed the assemblage.

Special music formed a pleasing feature of yesterday's meeting. — L. A. Tribune.

REV. CHESTER H. ANDERSON

EXTRACT FROM LECTURE DELIVERED AT SHRINE AUDITORIUM.

Paul H. Schrader introduced the speaker, Mr. Rathvon.

It is perhaps unnecessary to inform this audience that the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science and the author of its textbook was a woman—a gentle woman, Mary Baker Eddy. You may know too that for years she stood alone—one lone woman against the whole world—opposed and assailed by the world of theology, of medicine, of established usage, of tradition, of conservatism; opposed by the world of intellect and of ignorance, of common sense and uncommon sense, of bigotry and cruelty, of ridicule and falsity; and ever pursued by the human and inhuman hatred of truth. All these forces were for years arrayed against this one woman and the message God had placed in her hands to deliver to humanity. But she was never daunted or dismayed by anything the world, the flesh, or evil might try to do to her, for she never let go of the hand of God.

Never in modern times has a spiritually-minded woman been so relentlessly abused without cause, and her message so maligned and misrepresented from pulpit, press and platform. eYt, in all the years of persecution which Mrs. Eddy suffered, not one word of retaliation or resentment dropped from her tongue or pen. She never returned evil for evil. And I assert this, not as a matter of hearsay or opinion, but from personal knowledge gained from several years of daily association with Mrs. Eddy, while I was a member of her own household.

Those who do not understand sometimes declare that Christian Scientists unduly exalt and even deify Mrs. Eddy's memory. It is a mistake, my friends; we do not. But there are multitudes of people who are profoundly grateful to her, and do you wonder why? Let me tell you. Suppose that at one time in your life at the close of a dismal winter's day you were going along a crowded street in a strange city, a stranger in a foreign land, and without your knowing it, you dropped your pocketbook containing every dollar you had in the world. On the other side of the street a sweet-faced elderly woman saw you drop your purse and without a thought for her comfort or safety, she crossed amid the mud and slush and rushing traffic and picked up your purse and followed you. Then just as you had discovered your loss and were shaken with dread and apprehension for the future, she handed it to you with a smile that changed your gloom into joy. Would you not be grateful to that woman?

But suppose that instead of merely money that you had lost, instead of merely losing your last dollar in a strange land, suppose that in course of your life you had lost those things which money cannot buy. Suppose you had lost your health, your happiness, your piece of mind, your self-respect, your usefulness, your ability, your friends, your faith in your fellow man; aye, suppose that you had even lost your faith in God, and this same gentlewoman had been the means of restoring them all to you, would you not be grateful to her and thankful to God, who sent her to you?

The Right Idea About It

May I ask you, then, during the time we are together today, to consider with an open mind some of the teachings of Christian Science about God, that you may try them out in your own experience for the overcoming of those things which make up the sum of human misery. We will ask you while here not to think of God as one who is afar off, and who has nothing more in common with you than you have with the worm that crosses your path of a summer's morning. We will ask you not to think of Him as a God who resembles a glorified man; as a God who afflicts, as a God of wrath and vengeance and fire and flood and tempest.

We will, instead, ask you to consider God as Christian Science shows Him to be, not afar off, but at hand, always and everywhere; not indifferent to you and your welfare, but sympathetically interested, as you are interested in your own children; the God whose power is infinite throughout the universe, yet who never uses it to force you to anything; whose infinite goodness is ever available by you, whose infinite intelligence, like an open book, is always ready for you to use. I will ask you forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases," yet who never forces forgiveness upon you or compels you to turn to Him to be healed, if in your ignorance or waywardness you would rather rely upon man-made cures or methods.

All people who would be regarded as Christian believe in God, yet how few understand Him. The textbook of Christian Science (p. 203 declares truly that "if God were understood instead of being merely believed, this understanding would establish health." Does this seem like an extravagant statement? Compare it then with the words of Jesus on the same subject where in John XVII. 3 we are told that to know God "is life eternal." Can you conceive of a vital fact put in stronger words?

When the despondent invalid recognizes that God never made a man sick or a sick man; that on the contrary He has given to man unbroken health; that sickness is an imposition of mortal mind and is illegitimate, abnormal, unrighteous, without divine law, recognition, or sanction, he is then ready to turn to divine Mind, God Himself, "who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

Jesus by precept and example was continually lifting men's thoughts above their inherited and impedimentive beliefs about God as a manlike being with form and body, subject to wrath, favoritism, changeableness and other human characteristics. Instead, he revealed God to be infinite good, the same yesterday, today ,and forever, and in no way resembling erring, finite man.—(From the "Scrap Book," by J. D. Reynolds.

What the Churches are Doing

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
Corner 8th and Towne Ave.

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

Two splendid services were enjoyed by all in attendance at First church Sunday. A representative number of loyal members communed despite the inclement weather. At the morning services the little Marguerite and William Shores were christened. John Bradford was happily converted at Thanksgiving class night service and welcomed into the church.

Rally Day is Sunday when the first skirmish will take place between the opposing factions of "The War of the Roses." Captains Lucky and Craw with their stalwart soldiers will sacrifice in reasonable service with telling effect to carrry off the laurels in this eventful clash. Rain or no rain the true hearted men and women of the church will be at their post of duty to do their level best in this effort to carry high the "Out of Debt" slogan. Many will wage warfare with $5.00 shots. Others will charge with more than that amount, while everyone will "fire" a substantial volley into the ranks before the day is done. At night each one will be given due credit in public statement for their noble part played. The pastor will preach at both services and have charge of the volunteer offerings. Everybody is welcome to the First Skirmish Rally services, Sunday, December 10.

Annual election of trustees on Thursday night, Dec. 14. Let every member be present to enjoy the class meeting and take part in the election.

The Ladies' Aid Society is making great progress with the ingathering of members. The next meeting will be Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock, at the church.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th St. and Central Ave.

Not to be baffled by the rain a representative audience greeted us at the morning service on last Sunday. The pastor occupied the pulpit, speaking on "Living Epistles."

At the evening service Dr. F. S. Brewer, Dean of Talladega, Ala., Theological school was present and enthused the large audience that was out to hear him. After bringing greetings and telling of the work at Talladega, he gave a wonderful message on "The Need of a Vision." All present were greatly benefited by this good message.

On Saturday night the pastor was surprised beyond expression when, on answering a call at the door, found himself surrounded by a large crowd of members and friends of the church who had come through the shower of rain to bring a "shower" of good things and good cheer. This "shower" consisted of household goods, food and wearing apparel. After serving refreshments all returned to their places, having spent a very pleasant evening.

All the regular services next Sunday. Subject for the morning, "Christian Responsibility." Evening, "The Greatest Thing in the World." A cordial welcome to all.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH NOTES
New Pastor Here Christmas Sunday

The Official Board of the church has received a communication from Dr. A. P. Shaw which authorizes them to state that he will reach Los Angeles by Dec. 24th, Christmas Sunday. This is, we are sure, good news to the membership of Wesley, which has been without a shepherd for the past three months, yet it has for the most part remained loyal and faithful to every interest of the church.

Wesley's membership feels under lasting obligations to the ministry of the city for the services rendered the church during this long period without a pastor. Several of them left their morning services to serve our people. May the good Lord bless and prosper each of them in their fields. There were others who had previous engagements and could not accept. We are grateful to them for their willingness.

Next Sunday morning, December 10, the pulpit will be filled by a very prominent city pastor. We withhold his name for the reason that he wishes for the gentleman who fills his pulpit the full attendance of his membership.

In the evening the Brotherhood under Brother Hugh E. Macbeth, will have charge of the services. Each member is asked to bring five other men.

Sunday, Dec. 17, Great Day

Rev. N. P. Greggs, pastor of the Independent Church, will fill the pulpit Sunday, December 17. He and his official board board have just done a very generous and unusual thing by unanimously agreeing that the Independent congregation will, following the close of Sunday school, come in a body to Wesley and worship with us.

FAREWELL RECEPTION AND RALLY TO REV. H. L. McKINNEY, MASON CHAPEL, NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT 3 P. M.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., December 10th, the officers and members of Mason Chapel M. E. church and pastors and various congregations of the city, will take a part in a farewell testimonial service and rally, in honor of Rev. H. L. Mc. Kinney.

When these two people of God came to this church, they found the membership scattered and the various auxiliaries of the church practically dead. These dismal conditions might have discouraged the strongest, but these two people with that light in their faces which has never left them, set about their work confident of victory.

In a remarkably short time the Sunday school, Epworth League, Ladies Aid Society and Boards were rejuvenated. Enthusiasm was injected in the membership and the whole church responding to the magic touch of their hands, was given a new lease of life.

After two years of faithful and arduous service to Mason's Chapel, he resigns to begin work in a larger field to which he has recently been called. To those who have had the privilege of contact with Dr. McKinney and his accomplished wife, this announcement will occasion a deep and genuine regret. Both Bro. McKinney and his wife are of that rare type whose gentle manners and kindly dispositions, coupled with a genuine Christian culture, grip you and invariably inspire you to nobler and better living.

We extend all a cordial invitation to be present at the final services Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10th, at 3 p.m.

We all profoundly regret to lose Dr. McKinney, yet we are glad to see him go to larger fields where his talents will have wider range and he can be of larger service.

SECOND A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. E. R. Johnson, Pastor

The services were well attended Sunday and much interest manifested. Bros. Wm. Gray and Ira Mill were read into full membership.

The pastor appointed the following brothers to the Steward's Board: Milton Hicks, Wm. Gray, and Ira Mill.

The Quilt Contest last week was spirited and exciting. Mrs. M. Druish was the victor, bringing in $16.05. The total amount realized on the quilt was $24.35. Next Sunday is Quarterly Meeting. Rev. J. H. Wilson will be with us at night.

Our rally netted us $70.00, hence we will be able to report over $150,000 raised this quarter, despite the high cost of living.

SACRED CONCERT AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday at the Christian church Miss Bertha Miller, organist, arranged an appropriate concert for the Sunday evening services and it was carried out perfectly. Besides numbers rendered by the choir, the following were announced

"The Holy City," by Messrs. Coleman and Miller; "The Miser Punished," by Mrs. Lees; vocal solo, Miss Elnora Lambert; piano solo, Naomi Turnage; instrumental duet, Thelma and Odessa Rose; a sermonette, "More Than These," Miss Susie J. Lynch; song, "A Perfect Day," Mr. Robert Keith. Each played his part well and the program as a whole was very good. The pastor, Rev. Latouche, preached as usual in the morning. Though the weather was inclement a goodly number was out to hear him.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, A.M., S.T.B., Pastor

Last Sunday though showery and slightly disagreeable, the members turned out in goodly numbers, because it was rally day, not a rally day to pay off a big debt, but a rally to settle up one of their small debts for recent repairs. Their pledges were nobly fulfilled as Zionites are proverbially known to be true to their trust, then too, under the leadership of their capable and inspired pastor, they receive so much encouragement that it is impossible to do anything other than great things.

The heating system has been changed, no longer icy pews and bleak aisles. Now on the rainiest and bitterest day you may sit and feast on the sermon and suffer not in the least from the cold. Zion is at last awakening and a new zeal manifest in this temple. The public is aware of this fact evidently, as shown by the ever increasing number of strangers and other visiting church coming into its own. There is an members at our regular Sunday morning service. To all, be not the least timid, you are welcome.

The Daughters of Judea will be with us next Sunday. We will serve lunch in the basement. Don't cook. Come with us and have dinner after service. The pastor's text at 11 a.m. will be, "Progress the Demand of the Hour." At 8 p.m., "Are You too Proud to Fight?" You will be both spiritually and mentally benefited. Referring to the pastor's sermon at Thanksgiving service held at the Second Baptist Church, one able critic of another denomination said, "It was way above the average." This is saying much in Los Angeles. Come out and be convinced.

Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. You and your children come on time.

Rev. N. P. Greggs of the Independent Church will preach for us at 3 p.m. The famed choir will sing.

MOUNT ZION BAPTIST

Rev. F. H. Davis will preach Sunday morning, subject, "Christian Watchfulness." A big "High Cost of Living" meeting will be held on third Sunday afternoon. Some of the prominent people of Los Angeles will take part. Everybody will be welcome. A great Emancipation Proclamation celebration will be held at the church on Monday evening, Jan. 1st. Prof. C. A. Biggers will be in charge. Rev. Archie Williams, the assistant pastor, will preach Sunday evening.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH

The services at this church were up to the usual high standard on the Sabbath and a very good congregation was out to greet the pastor, who preached at both the morning and evening services. The pastor began a series of sermons on the subject, "The False and the True." The two sermons on this subject were listened to with a great deal of interest by the congregation and at the close of the services a good number spoke of how helpful the discourses had been to them.

The ladies of board No. 1 gave a very delightful house social at the home of Mrs. A. E. Kinney on East 15th street on Monday night to the members and friends and quite an enjoyable evening was spent by those in attendance.

Next Sunday is rally day and the officers are expecting a full attendance of the members out to make the first rally of the year the success it ought to be. This is the first pew and organ rally and the captains of the various clubs are hard at work to make it a success.

The Thanksgiving dinner served by the ladies was a decided success and quite a neat sum was added to the funds of both the boards. them.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Rev. N. P. Gregs, Pastor

Although the weather on last Sunday was very inclement, a good representation of the loyal members and friends gathered at the services of the People's Independent Church and experienced a glorious time. The pastor preached two wonderfully inspiring sermons on the subject, "The Apostle John on the Isle of Patmos."

On next Sunday, Dec. 10, baptismal and consecration services will be held. All are made welcome at the services of this church.

MEDICO'S IN CHARGE AT SUNDAY FORUM TO ORGANIZE ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY

The public and the Physicians, Dentist, Druggist Association at the Forum Sunday afternoon at five o'clock unite in organizing an Anti-Tuberculosis Society. This new organization will have for its object immediately the study and prevention of the disease and ultimately the establishment of a sanitarium. Among other numbers are papers by Dr. Frank Gordon and John King and a vocal solo by Miss Evelyn Turner. Dr. Leonard Stovall will have charge of the meeting.

THE DOUGLAS TEMPLE

They say, give me that old-time singing. Well, it was old-time singing, but with so much melody and harmony that the congregation was spellbound.

The morning exercise opened with Bible reading. The prayer was made by Mr. Johnson. A solo by Mrs. Bolds; inspiration talk by Mr. J. Vaughn; sycomatrixing by Mrs. Snyder; selection by the choir; messages by Mrs. E. Green; sermon by Dr. George Shields; closing prayer.

The Evening Exercises

Bible reading by Mrs. Wyatt; prayer by Mr. Streets; solo by Mr. Atkinson; sermon by Dr. Shields; messages by Mrs. Snyder; anthem by the choir; sycomatrixing by Mrs. E. Green; messages, Mr. Edwards; prayer by Mr. Sandusky; closing ode by Mrs. Shields.

At both meetings there were a great many present, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The meeting next Sunday promises to be very interesting.

PASADENA

SCOTT CHAPEL NOTES

In spite of the rain on last Sabbath there was not much falling off in congregations nor in the offerings for the day. Holy Communion was administered on last Sabbath and very impressive services were conducted. The sermons delivered by Pastor Kinchen were helpful to all the people and each one went away with a new inspiration. In the afternoon Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth and Mr. Theo. Troy held a very enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the economic development of our people.

All departments of the church are showing unusual interest and the leaders of each department are pushing their work with much zeal. Pastor Kinchen will preach at both services on next Sunday and the choir under Madam Beavers will render special music. The Epworth League will have a great program at 6:30, opening with a Bible reading by Sister Wilson and a special literary program conducted by Miss Arbezine Lee.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH NOTES

Sunday next will be a general rally at Metropolitan church. The pastors and congregations of other churches in the city are invited to join in Sunday's services. The pastor will preach morning and evening on the subjects, "The Blessedness of Giving," and "Reward After Labor," respectively.

At the recent cornerstone laying of the Old Folk's Home, Rev. and Mrs. Hughes and Mr. C. Garner represented Metropolitan church. The Harvest concert of last Thursday evening was very successful, the children of the Sunday school as "Pilgrims" presenting a historical treat. During the day Mrs. Maples managed a turkey dinner under the auspices of the 20th Century Club.

The Social Hall is open any evening to clubs or any social gatherings without charge save enough to cover light and heat. Likewise the Day Nursery with a competent matron in charge, is opened daily to the services of the public.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions a large attendance was noted at the morning and evening services last Sunday. The missionary meeting in the afternoon and the communion service at night, in addition to two sermons by the pastor, served to attract. At 3 p.m. next Sabbath the choir, under the direction of Capt. Reynolds, will appear at the First Baptist church in a sacred concert under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood Class. The pastor is recovering from his recent illness and will assume complete charge of services. He announces the subject of the morning sermon, "Christ the Refiner and Purifier." In the evening Rev. Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, will present an illustrated sermon. Subject, "Daniel's Purpose."

A. M. E. CHURCH ACTIVITIES

In spite of rain last Sunday good congregations attended services. The evening meeting was conducted by the young people and proved profitable to those in attendance. The boys 'concert on Thanksgiving evening proved a splendid treat and was greatly appreciated as well as largely rewarded. During Sundays' services two persons were received into full membership and numbers partook of the sacrament.

Sunday evening next the Endeavor Society will be led by Miss Mary Perry. The program includes an address by Mrs. J. R. Wright on "Defying Evil," a reading by Miss Alberta Clagett and solos by Miss Brownlee and Mrs. Shaw. The pastor will preach morning and evening.

The Tennessee State Social Club meets every first and third Thursday of each month; C. H. Rogers, Pres., G. W. Waller, Secy.

Y. M. C. A. Wallops Jefferson High School 21 to 0.

By Hilbert L. Rozier.

In order to work up an appetite for that big Thanksgiving dinner, the Y. M. C. A. Team journed out to Jefferson High and did battle with the footballers of that school.

It would have been a perfectly good game but Bill Pillows had to spoil it by breaking away to long runs, scoring three touch-downs which with the goals netted the neat little sum of 21 points, all of which were made in the first half.

Tom Patterson tried to imitate a German-Franco-English machine gun bullet and came pretty nearly doing so by smashing through the green and goal lines at any time he felt that way and some times when he felt the other way.

Captain Black also played the imitation stunt—in fact the entire line played the role of a stone wall.

Baker played a stellar game in spite of the fact there were a number of his lady friends present.

Little Dickie Temple was the only man who was always in the way — that is of the Jefferson team. Receiving and intercepting forward passes being his individual specialty, with star tackling as a suppliment.

Considering everything, it looks like our little boys in blue are as good as the rest of 'em—Pasadena included.

The referee, linesmen, and timers were all of the Jefferson faculty, and expressed the pleasurable impression made by the beautiful spirit displayed by our boys throughout the contest.

No man or woman should fear the consequence of standing up for righteousness, and the things akin to the same.

With the Yuletide season fast approaching it is to be hoped that the sadness occasioned by having thrust upon us, four more years of Wilson and Democracy will vanish like an irredescent dream.

The efficiency meeting on last Sunday was a high credit and Mrs. Eloise Bibb Thompson sounded the key note in her address which has been pronounced by all as the best ever delivered before that body.

A HARD LOSER

Poor old Governor Hunt of Arizona is a hard loser, and has asked for a recount. This same recount is more apt to increase Governor Elect Campbell's majority than to reduce it. The people have soured on Hunt and everybody seems wise to this fact except the Governor himself.

RIGHT IN LINE

Regarding the fling of the New Age questioning the premises and propriety of the Methodist ministers in forming an alliance of their own, we certainly can see no merit in its criticism, on the contrary we think they, the Methodist ministers, are right in line with real progress. One of the greatest drawbacks to racial progress is lack of organization, and then who is it that would question the right of these ministers of the Methodist faith to organize their own alliance to get together on their very own problems; get their own house in order and become better qualified to be of service in their Interdenominational Alliance To cope with the problems which confront us each and every denomination has its part to play and in their own way working for the same goal, they would seriously err should they neglect as an organization of their kith and kin to do their part for a common cause along with the other church organizations. Therefore The Eagle commends the ministers of this faith for their organization and hope as a result of the same that it will be helpful not alone for that faith but for the entire citizenship and community as well.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION

Those who are in touch with matters locally relating to our public schools, know that the reason given for some of the discriminations is that some of the Colored children are rude, rough and boisterous. The Eagle would suggest, however, that there should be no line of demarcation between an unruly rough and boisterous Colored or white child. If such should be the case with either, they should be punished and those who are not of this ilk and kind should not be humiliated on account of the same. We understand that conditions are improving and that no general discrimination is to be put in vogue.

The London dispatches say the Roumanians made a masterly retreat and that the evacuation of Bucharest was a stellar piece of strategy, in that it left the population on the hands of their foes to feed. The Eagle can find real solace now for our defeat in November. It was indeed a brilliant strategic move to let the Democratic party solve the problems of this country for the next four years.

ONE FRIEND AT COURT

Noah D. Thompson will always be appreciated by the Race journals for the reason that he never hesitates to speak a good word for them, and can always be found boosting for their success. His remarks at the efficiency meeting last Sunday struck a responsive chord, and if we, ourselves, will only live up to the proposition our Colored journals will thrive and grow like the proverbial green bay tree.

NOT WITHOUT REASON

It is contended—not without some show of reason—that by the result of the late election the voters of the United States have indorsed for the next two years at least:

1. Legislation by intimidation and surrender to the labor unions.
2. Continued abandonment of the policy of protection to American industries.
3. Peace at the price of submission without other than wordy protest to Mexican invasion, British censorship of our mails and destruction by German submarines of American life and property.

Maybe after two years more of this sort of thing the people will change their minds. In the meantime the people can quote Longfellow:

"Oh, fear not in a world like this,
And thou shalt know ere long,
Know how sublime a thing it is
To suffer and be strong."

Or they can say with Shakespeare:

"And if the king like not the comedy
Why then belike he likes it not."

The following article appeared in last Sunday's Times magazine.

We highly appreciate what the Times has to say concerning Booker Washington, and the others among us who are directing their efforts along the upward trend, but as to Mr. J. Goodman Braye, we feel that this gentleman should at least come before the Negro public of this section with his propaganda if he hopes to even have Negro patronage for his great industrial enterprise after it shall have been completed.

If Mr. Braye is on the square we are eager to get behind him, but we have already had too many industrial "Judases," several I might mention, but even mention would be tinged with unpleasant thought. We have inquired of most of the clergy and citizenry of this community, and they seem to have little or no knowledge of Mr. Braye other than his connection with a few land projects racial in name, that have come and gone like a passing gust of wind.

Now the position that we maintain is, we desire to ascertain from Braye as to whether or not he has inquired into the real need of such an industrial institution in this section from the people for whom he proposes to build it, or is it a case of leading a horse to water or sending a fool to college?

Following Booker Washington

The people of the United States owe a heavy debt to those of aAfrican descent living in this country. The forefathers of these Africans were nearly all kidnaped, wrenched away from their old homes and all their old associations, and brought here as slaves by our forefathers. As greed lies at the basis of most wars, so it was in our Civil War Lincoln's statement: "This country cannot be part slave and part free, but must be all slave or all free," is the keynote of that gigantic struggle.

In freeing the negroes of the South we were far from discharging all our debt to that race. They came out of slavery ignorant and degraded, as slave races always are. We owe it to them and to ourselves to give them an uplifting hand to elevate them from their ignorance and degradation. When the English abolitionists raised the slogan, "He is a man and a brother," they put the matter on the right basis. We gave the negro not only freedom but the elective franchise. And here arises the American slogan, "Liberty has for its price eternal watchfulness." Now watchfulness and liberty can never go together withouth high intelligence.

Booker T. Washington was the real apostle to the American negro. Of African blood himself, he did a noble work for his race. The work of this negro educator has been recognized by every American statesman of any standing in the last quarter of a century.

With these facts in view, we hil with delight a movement to establish a negro industrial schohol in California modeled after the Booker T. Washington school in Alabama. This work is being undertaken by a negro, too, J. Goodman Braye. He represents a society to build a school after the Booker T. Washington model. H eplaces the number of negroes in Los Angeles at 35000.

He has a form of subscription toward raising the necessary funds for the establishment of this school. With the best of testimonials from prominent citizens, his honesty is further evidenced by the fact that the subscriptions are to be paid into a bank of the subscriber's choosing, and not a cent will be called for until $100.000 is secured in bona fide subscriptions within one year from date.

If a man should write to Santa Clause with the simple faith that his children do, he would probably say something like this:

DEAR OLD MAN:

For all these years you have been filling the stockings of the universe. You have got a heap of glory out of it, and I don't begrudge you a bit.

The folks are going to give me something this year, of course. They always do. But tell 'em, won't you that I am not collecting curios.

I Do Not Want

a new collar for the dog, a box of flowers, a box of candy, a bottle of perfume, or some nickel cigar.

But there "are" things I do want.

Some of them I must have. If I get them, they will save me money.

Others I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to to me, it would be great!

So will you kindly give this list your attention old friend.

I Should Like—

some new neckties; nobody ever has quite enough ties (50c to $3). And some SILK SHIRTS—every man likes to have a few, ($5 to $10).

I could use a good sweater, ($3 to $10) or a knitted vest, ($5 to $6). A wooly auto scarf, ($1 to $5).

I really need some linen handkerchiefs It looks as though we will Soon have to use cotton handkerchiefs, so while they are still obtainable and reasonable, I could use a couple of dozen nice sheer ones (25c to 75c each).

I am a candidate for admission into some new pajamas ($1 50 to $3.50). As I sleep in a sleeping porch, I prefer the flannelette sort, ($1.50 to $3).

A HOUSE COAT would be a big improvement on the old coat I wear around the house, ($5 to $20).

My SILK HAT is a little behind the times, ($6 to $8).

It is about time I had a new pair of GLOVES, but unless someone gives them to me, I shall probably go on wearing my soiled ones, ($1 to $5).

Everybody thinks he is harder on SOCKS than anybody else. I am. Some silk socks would certainly come in handy, ($50c to $2.50).

And if anybody wants to save me a nice bit of money as well as improve my appearance, I am a candidate for a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES or a NEW OVERCOAT, (suits $15 to $40; overcoats $15 to $40).

Yours hopefully,
A MAN.

P. S—And as you love me, fail not to tell 'em to buy the things in a MAN'S Store.

With the original bridal party were Dr. Harry J. Williams of Washington, D. C., and Miss Julia Loving of New York. Dr. Williams has returned East, but Miss Loving is still with the party in this city.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Second Baptist Church, held last Monday evening, it was voted and ordered that the right hand of fellowship be withdrawn from P. J. Anderson. This mandate excommunicates Mr. Anderson from communion with his brethren, and severs his social and spiritual connection with his church.

When P. J. Anderson does a sufficient amount of pennance and seeks absolution from his sin, and the forgiveness of his fellowmen, then, and not until then, the church will, on his solicitation, reinstate him to full membership.

Mme. Ella J. Hughley, the noted soprano, was tendered a brilliant reception on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of her marriage at her residence, 1325 Central avenue, Dec. 3. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers and fancy napkins. There were five courses served and there were more than five who partook of the sumptuous repast. Among the many presents that Mme. Hughley received the one she prized the most was the beautiful cut glass flower basket presented by her husband. It was a very, very brilliant reception, indeed.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO REVISE MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS SUNDAY

A most important meeting of the Southern California Alumni Association will be held at Wesley Chapel Sunday at 4 o'clock. Every member should be present as matters of vital importance, including amendments to the constitution will be voted upon at that meeting.

KANSAS-MISSOURI CLUB MET TUESDAY EVENING

The far-famed Kansas-Missouri Club met Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Dora Gamble, 814½ Central avenue, where it was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bass. Despite the threatening weather the house was filled with members and friends and a very enthusiastic gathering it proved to be. The club is going forth with a new zeal, such as the former residents of the States of Kansas and Missouri are wont to do. After the business of the evening had been contracted, a splendid program was presented, in which the participants all acquitted themselves with high credit. Miss Young as a vocalist was superb; Mr. J. R. Manning with his basso solo was a revelation. Little Miss Catherine Bass recited to the edification of all. After a sumptuous repast the club voted a special vote of thanks. The host and hostesses all responded briefly and the club adjourned by saying it was hell to be here.

THE HIAWATHA CHORUS ABOUT TO CHANGE ITS NAME

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Allen Allensworth Club this week it was suggested that the great Hiawatha Chorus that presented the Wedding Feast of Hiawatha at Trinity Auditorium last September, be changed into a permanent organization, and be known as the Coleridge Taylor Choral Society.

Ladies, Listen! Stop!!
Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

THANKSGIVING DANCE AN IMMENSE SUCCESS

The Thanksgiving dance given by the Black and Tan Orchestra last Thanksgiving evening was indeed an immense success. A very large number were present and in spite of being weighted down with Thanksgiving turkey everyone seemed to enjoy dancing to the excellent music of the Black and Tan. But there are a few things we can't just understand—why certain three young ladies sat on the table almost the entire evening. Maybe they were watching the fashion show or learning some new steps. How should we know.

We are also in doubt why Mr. Al. Ramsey insisted on having Mrs. E— teach him the one-step. We have understood in the past that he was the original "one-steppist." Oh! How do they do it?

Mr. Stevens, as usual, was out with bells.

Just why did Mr. Cobs play wallflower on this particular night? what's the matter, feet hurt?

Someone has said:

It was worth the price of admission to lose
To hear Mr. B. Ferris play those weary Blues:
—"Don't Fool Me."

Mr. Moore sure did put on that floor manager "stuff." Vernon Castle has offered him $5000 to tell him his secret.

Mr. Kennedy, the "star" of the "Lone Star" State, since Mr. Bob Susky arrived is losing some of his popularity. Mr. Susky plans on taking Spanish for future purposes.

Miss Elmore, on the request of Mrs. Stansel, refused to dance with a certain party. She should have let her dance with him, he was a stranger. She wouldn't have been any more embarrassed than when a mouse came between her and Mr. "Blackie" Williams.

The latest was that "Painless" had a pain.

Mr. Monteyhouse, the "speed" bug, seems to have the greatest respect for Keno.

Seldom heard of, seldom seen;
A fair lady, all in green.

"Speed" Brooks, from Los Angeles, was out, but he could buy his suits a little larger.

If you are hungry and broke do not pass 746 Third street, where the sign on the door says "Walk In," as a magnet from those delicious dinners that Mrs. De Tracey cooks will stop a camel on the Sahara desert the second day out. "Yum yum" is the pass word as you pass.

An invitation to Mr. Jackson: If you love your wife and flowers at home, you may do the same here, for I want you to feel perfectly at home while stopping——?

Coronado headed the list of elites last Thursday evening. The Silver Strand seemed to have been deserted until the hour of 12.

Mrs. G. W. Thompson was out and seemingly enjoyed herself.

Miss Edith Thompson seems to have joined the Heartbreakers' Club. Well, it isn't her fault, it is her good looks that tease them so.

During this conversation a young man says, if you want to see the good-looking "browns" you should go to L. A.—but he was told the buds of San Diego can hold their own.

Speaking further, out of a town of 100,000 I ask him, why should he oppose her beauty.

Mrs. Carter should come early and stay late to accommodate her many dancing friends. Anyway, she is dearly loved by someone, and she knows him not.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of East San Diego, came early and left early from the dance, to the sorrow of Mr. Leon.

One cannot tell that Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are married when they are out enjoying themselves.

Mrs. McDonald was out looking like a little wax doll and one of those dreamy waltzes with her makes you want to be the baby.

Mrs. Hedrick certainly was a loving picture to lay your eyes upon. It seems as if the nature mole must have been existing near Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Melvin White is out looking the picture of health, while "Papa" Melvin stayed home walking the floor with his big baby boy.

Mrs. Nicholson certainly did look teasing at the dance, and what's more, she knew it.

Mrs. M. T. Laws is very ill at this writing, but is expected to be up and around again soon.

Mrs. Havis is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Norwood is reported very ill, but we hope she will be up and around again soon.

Mr. Berdie Wilson, of San Bernardino, is visiting in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meade, of Oakland, spent ten days of their honeymoon in San Diego, guests of Mrs. A. V. Burton, Mrs. Meade's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Belt, of 30th street, entertained, at a Thanksgiving dinner, Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. S. Freeman, Rev. C. Williams and wife, and Mr. C. Reed. The table was laden with everything imaginable, and who could refrain from being thankful!

Mrs. Ethel Hornsby was the lucky one to find the bug under the chip, at the Carnation Club entertainment, Thursday night. She received as a prize a large box of chocolates.

Mr. Synagogue is in town again, so the girls on Logan Heights are all smiles again. We hope he will stay this time.

ISSUES CHALLENGE

The decision rendered at the Literary Society last meeting, viz.: "Women shall not vote," has been challenged by the Eagle Staff of San Diego, Messrs. Laws, Brooks, and Mrs. C. E. Norwood.

Mr. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Lofton, Mrs. Reed returned home Sunday morning. They visited all points of interest while here.

LITERARY SOCIETY HAS INTERESTING DEBATE

"Women shall not vote" was the decision rendered by the Supreme Bench of Mt. Zion Baptist Carnation Club, Tuesday evening. Miss Sama Mason and Miss Emma Mulholland and Mr. Reed proved themselves the orators of the day, while Miss Anna Mulholland, Miss Eyonice Mulholland, Mr. Synagogue deserve much credit for the noble fight they made for the women. The pastor was much pleased to know that he had such fine material within his reach.

The judges were Mrs. Mulholland, Mrs. Hershey, Mrs. Wilkins, and Mr. Dodge, who, against their own opinions, rendered a decision in accordance with points, which resulted in favor of the negative.

These debates will be held each month on the second Tuesday at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Come out and witness the ability of your boys and girls. Our church is on Greeley avenue, No. 3045, Logan Heights, San Diego.

REAL EXPERIENCE

We must first say that Rev. C. Williams, pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, was delegated to the Executive Board of the Western Baptist Association by the church, and was given his round-trip ticket and spending money. He went up on the train, but on returning he thought it would be a little change, so he decided to come back with his son-in-law, daughter and his wife in the automobile. So on leaving Los Angeles Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock, everything seemed to be all O. K., but when they had traveled about one-third of the way, one of the back tires came off, the machine commenced to bang-a-de-bang, and when they were just about half way, one of the front tires blew up, and of course the noise was made double. They were then among high mountains and from the yells of the coyotes and the bang-a-de-bang and bump of the automobile, anyone in the distance would surely have declared that war was on, and, alas! when they had journeyed a few miles farther, the lights went out, a final signal that the gasoline was also out, and the machine came to a standstill in the road. It was now the wee-wee hours of the morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, and all of the occpants of the machine had to get out and push, and roll the old machine. They all ran as much as they could to keep from freezing to death. Mrs. C. Williams says that she had been suffering with rheumatism, but ran so hard to keep up that she thinks she is entirely cured of it now. Mrs. I. Haywood ran along in front, trying to guide the way by her skirts, as it was so darx and no lights to be seen. They walked and ran, and walked and ran, until Mrs. Williams was about to give out, so they had her get in the machine, while the rest pulled and pushed it. So Mrs. Williams, feeling ashamed of having them work so hard at the load they were trying to carry, resumed the walk. Leaving the machine in the road, they walked into La Jolla, which was about 8 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Williams, in order to keep up the spirits of the crowd, began to sing to the old familiar tune, "I'll never turn back no more," but he said: "I'll never come this way no more." At La Jolla Mrs. Haywood went to the first telephone she could find and called up Mrs. C. E. Norwood, of San Diego, to find out how to reach Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, who are the owners of a Ford, to come out to La Jolla and bring the crowd in home. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden responded to the emergency call, but were a few minutes too late, as they were all cold and hungry, so they took the train as it came La Jolla and came into San Diego, looking at each other, and each one realizing how bad they looked, they all decided to either travel on rail or by boat or in a Ford. Never again in that automobile. Mr. Chas. Reed was also in the crowd.

OUR CHRISTMAS NUMBER

The California Eagle will present a Christmas number to its readers of which no paper west of the Mississippi will in any way compare as to size, matter or advertising matter, all except the press work of which is put out in our own shop by a full colored crew of workmen. Owing to the size of the Eagle and the large number that we publish, we are compelled to have our work done on one of the largest and speediest presses in this great city, but for all that the Christmas Eagle will be a thing of beauty and joy forever.

Mr. John C. Wood, better known as Professor, the noted printer, who was so many years with the New Age, is now with the California Eagle, where he is willing to meet his many friends who have printing of any kind to be figured on, as to prices, he is the lowest of the low. So don't fail to give him a call. 814 Central avenue.

NOVEL AFFAIR

The West Side Tennis Club entertained Thanksgiving evening with a dance. The "Bells" of the city were out in gala attire, and a most enjoyable evening was spent, and prizes were awarded to Miss Fern Caldwell—a silver medal "Girl's Fingles," and a loving cup between Messrs. Philip Davis and Clarence Brooks.

The West Side Club gave a dance last Friday evening and some of the buds of this season pronounced it a most enjoyable affair. This club is giving very nice affairs and catering to nothing but standard bearers of good morals among our young people.

ROBINSON'S NOVELTY STORE

A neat little store under the management of Mrs. T. R. Robinson and daughter, Miss Clifford, will be opened up with a full line of ladies' and gent's furnishings with a grocery in connection and fresh vegetables and fruits.

There will also be a department of public stenography under the direct supervision of Miss Clifford.

Already they have in a complete line of Christmas toys, candies and other novelties.

Miss Clifford is a graduate of the L. A. High School and a very competent young woman and we wish for her and her mother great success in their new undertaking.

FUNERAL OF MISS BRIGHT

On last Monday afternoon, at the Christian Church, 14th and Birch streets, a most beautiful eulogy was solemnized over the remains of Miss Gertrude Bright, who died at her home on Newton street, Nov. 27, 1916. Revs. Latouche and Greegs had charge of the services and the latter most beautifully portrayed the sweet life and character of the deceased and those who heard him received a wonderful lesson how to live upright. His discourse was not for the dead. No, for the dead need no advice. It was for the living, and feeling more buoyant and that there was something still in life left to live for.

Messrs. Turnage, Booth, and Coleman acted as pall-bearers and Misses Bertha Miller, Rose Rickman, Cornelia Leggett, Susie Lynch, Carrie Brown, and Ethel Wasnington were honorary pall-bearers. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Those who came with heads bowed down in grief and sore at heart, left a grand message it was indeed.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Clarence Brooks of Alpha Tennis Club doubled with Phil Davis of Three Boys Club won the championship doubles and the first leg of the silver cup offered by the West Side Tennis Club Thanksgiving day at L. A. High School courts. Brooks and Davis defeated Maloney and Ray Matthews of the West Side Club in the finals which was the best match of the day. The final score was 3-6, 7-5, 7-5. Maloney and Matthews looked like sure winners, taking the first set 6-3 and the third set stood 5-3, with one point to win, when the West Side boys weakened and Brooks and Davis deuced the set and then took two more games and won the match. Brooks showed up exceptionally well on the net and overhead volleying.

Alva Garrot's dope was upset early in the first round. He picked Williams brothers as winners, but Matthews and Maloney took the match from them in two straight sets, 6-4, 6-2 Davis and Brooks defeated McNeil and Peters in a hard fought match. The score was 6-7, 6-2, 6-1. Maloney and Matthews defeated Tyler, attorney a law, and Roscoe Broyles of Santa Monica in two sets, 6-4, 6-4. A very interesting match was played between the Rev. Dr. Robeson and Prof. Banks and Brooks and Davis, the latter winning 6-4, 7-5 These two gentlemen of Pico and Paloma have a very nice stroke and showed up wonderfully well for a new team. In the mixed doubles which were scarce, Peters and Fern Caldwell defeated Broyles and Lottie Bolds, 6-4, 6-2. This leaves Brooks and Miss Young to play off the finals with Peters and Caldwell Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10th, at Alpha Courts, 14th and Paloma, at 2 p. m.

The ladies' singles which were not finished in Pasadena Labor Day, were played off between Miss Fern Caldwell and Miss Williams, Miss Caldwell defeating her opponent in two sets 6-1, 6-1. Miss Caldwell (petite) is an exceptionally good tennis player and it will probably be a long time before we can find a hope to wrest the championship from her. She was presented with the silver medal at Normandie Hall, where the West Side Boys had made arrangements for a jolly good time. Dr. W. C. Gordon presented the medal to Miss Fern and she responded with a very interesting speech.

Smith Cafe Changes Hands

For upwards of one year, Smith's cafe, located at 1013 Central Ave., has run under the management of Mr. Smith, but within the past week, this conveniently located cafe has changed fron Smith to Daniels, with the famous Allen as chief cook.

Under the management of Mr. Daniels as proprietor, and Mr. Allen as cook, this cafe is prepared to give service and good cooking, as Mr. Allen has had experience as a cook, and has established his reputation as one of th best on the market.

Mr. Daniels is a splendid gentleman, whose influence as a churchman and a social worker, recommends him for your consideration in the cafe business.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE ON URBAN CONDITIONS AMONG NEGROES

Dear Editor: We write this letter for publication in your next issue because we feel that it touches upon a situation of vital importance to every member of the Race.

Negroes in large numbers are leaving the South for the North. Many are securing good positions. Those that are sober and responsible and know how to give an honest day's toil are holding their positions. The indolent, inefficient men, however, are soon discharged, become a burden to the Northern communities and bring reproach and humiliation to thrifty Colored citizens in communities where white people have not hitherto considered Negroes undesirables.

The National League on Urban Conditions among Negroes urges the right-thinking Negroes of the South and everyhewere to discourage the wholesale migration of shiftless people between any two points, be they North or South. The League also warns Negroes against fraudulent agents who are collecting employment efes and who disappear soon afterwards.

Negro labor is in demand. Use that fact to improve the efficiency of that labor by demanding: First, better wages where the wages of Colored men are below the current wage; second, better working conditions so that your health will not be impaired by the work you do; third, better living conditions both for yourself and family, so that your efficiency as a worker will not be impaired by living conditions which prevent proper rest and recreation to fit you for the day's labor, and base these demands on the facts that all these things will make your work more valuable to yourself and to your employer and make for better feeling between the Races.

The National Urban League urges Negroes everywhere to take advantage of this grat industrial opportunity to work in co-operation with their local neighbors whether North or South, for the improvement of conditions which will affect both Races.

Very truly yours,
E. K. JONES, Executive Secretary.

SAN BERNARDINO

E. Muckelroy is in Los Angeles to restock his furniture store with a few hundred dollars worth of goods. While there he will enjoy a visit with his sister, Mrs. Turner.

A number of strange faces are seen on our streets, and yet the Rev. Redd says that he is unable to meet the demand for help.

The junior member of the Merchant Transportation Co. had to be piloted in from Los Angeles last Tuesday by H. D. Ingram. There was some fear that he could not land under the condition, but Grandpa broke the news that it was a daughter and mother would return from New York soon. All are well.

Miss Holliway, of Los Angeles, passed away at the State Hospital. Rev. Redd was called to Highland to assist in arranging the funeral to take place at the A. M. E. Church, this city.

W. T. Hendrey reports enjoying splendid business with his new two-ton truck.

The St. Paul A. M. E. people are preparing for the coming of Rev. E. W. Kenchion, of Pasadena, in a revival effort during the holidays. The Rev. seems to always have something up his sleeve for his flock and they are begining to look for things now.

San Bernardino cannot account for the way the Thanksgiving service, which was held at the A. M. E. Church, appeared in last week's Eagle. It is just a matter of being up to date.

Our townsman, Mr. Byron T. Rowan, the proprietor of the I Street Feed Store, has spent a few days in Los Ange'es and other places, laying in a few carloads of feed and coal.

The popularity of the Eagle is accounted for from the fact that Mr. John Woods from Missouri is connected with it now, and if all who read the paper in San Bernardino are subscribers then the Eagle has a very large circulation. If you are not one, subscribe now.

Mr. P. C. Redd is expecting his wife and boys soon, and grandma is happy for she has a smile.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Hurd and daughter Ethel left Sunday night for Texas, where they will spend the holidays.

Mrs. M. E. Andrews and Mrs. O. V. Harrison attended the cornerstone laying of the Old Folks' Home as delegates from New Hope Baptist Missionary Society.

Miss Ruth Whiteside, of Redlands, was the guest of Miss Florence Harrison, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. J. H. Mabra has been suffering with the grippe for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ingraham are the proud parents of a baby daughter, which was born Nov. 28.

Miss Lucy Mendennall, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is able to be out again.

Miss Hannah Miller, of Colton, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. Cora B. Overr, of Allensworth, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Bee, of Colton, has gone to Pasadena.

Mrs. M. E. Ivery, of Colton, who was in Los Angeles visiting friends, reports having a good time.

The Thanksgiving dinner given by New Hope Baptist Church was a splendid success. A large crowd partook of the opossum and turkey dinner. About $125 was taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander will entertain with a dinner Sunday, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Miss lorence Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mabra and sons James and Clifford Mabra.

DUARTE NEWS

Mrs. Perry gave to the church, through the Missionary Society, a beautiful stove, for which the pastor and members returned to her a unanimous vote of thanks.

Mr. Floyd Petty and Miss Alice Huston, of Pomona, have decided to try their lots together. Sh! not so loud. It's a secret, but they can't keep it for joy. That's all for this time.

WATTS NEWS

Rev. Kelly and wife of Los Angeles were down Sundsy and uhe Rv. filled the pulpit at both service, at the Baptist Churdh.

The Odd Fellows of Watts are planning to increase their membership by taking in several new nembers.

Sunday was a gloomy day but this did not stop the religous pilgaims from wending their way to the house of woosnip where they listened with interest to two excellent discurses by pastor Trigg,each of which seemed to draw some one from the stormy deep. Rev Trigg's theme fot Sunday night will be "A Thorn In The Flesh."

Sunday school was well attended, the little tots were seen in every direction. The teachers were in their places on time, and inspiring in their instruction to the little folk.

The Junior Indeavor is a drawing card for our young people and we wander how many actually appreciate the benefit being derived by them.

The choir meets Friday evenings and Mrs Gordon deserves credit as a leader.

Mrs. Bergers expects to take a vacation soon.

Thankggiviug was a treat to everyoneas turkey and pumpkin pies were the order of the day everywhere. Many poor persons recived their dinners free.

Mr. Jack Woods and Carrie Coleman were married recently by Rev. Trigg.

Mrs. P. D. Mason of 35th Place was the gust of Mrs. R. D. Jones, on Compton Ave.

The Industrial Art Club meets at the home of it's president every Thursday.

Mrs. Martin's brother came up from the Imperial Valley on last Thursday.

Miss Grace Owens has called the children together for Christmas exercises to be held at the A. M. E. Church.

The Watts Christian Aid Society meets from house to house each week. Four more names were added to the list at the last meeting The next meeting will be with Mrs. Shaw on Ramsey Ave.

Prof. Wilkins and wife were guests of Mrs. Weaver' Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson dined at Mrs. Halvey's Thanksgiving. So charmed were they with our city that they have decided to buy here.

Mrs. Beeks on Compton avenue is very low.

Mr. Curtis of Manhattan St., was badly hurt in a runaway last Saturday.

Mrs. Gordon on Villa entertaiud Rev. Trigg and family and Mr. Scroggins from Pasadena, Thursday at dinner.

Mrs. Jones on Jones Ave. is ill of la grippe.

The S. M. T's held an election of officers on the 7th in t.

RIVERSIDE

Sunday was home coming day at the Secoad Baptist church despite the inclement weather quite a number were present both moruing and evening. An old fashioned covenant meeting was enjoyed, the pastor preached a fitting sermon for the occassion, text John 14: 1 2 "Abide In Me" it is needless to say the sermon was a great effort

Thanksgiving day was fittingly observed, at the Second Baptist church, revival services began on last Sunday evening conducted by the pastor assisted by the ministers of the city.

The A. M. E. church was very successfull in the service of their Thanksgiving dinner everybody who was served expressed themselves as having been very much pleased with the dinner.

The ladias aid society of the second Baptist church met at the residence of Mrs. Jerry Wiley, on last Friday afternoon a very pleasant meeting is reported, quite a few ladies joined Refreshments were served.

The "Twentieth Century literary society," held it's Toanksgiving meeting at Mercantile hall: A large crowd was present a splendid program was rendered by the Juvenile branch of the society, Mr. George Gordon is acquiting himself with credit, as Presiding officer of the society.

BUNK INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL SCORED.

THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL ENIGMA LOOMS UPON THE HORIZON—J. GOODMAN BRAYE, EXPONENT.

By Walt. L. Gordon
(Special Contributor)

It has been an annual or biennial occurrance for Los Angeles black citizenry to be disturbed by these itinerant industrial school promoters. Several years ago there was one Simms, a local grocery keeper, then a Mr. O. Overr, of Allensworth, peace justice and a farmer of that locality, who aimed at having the state to found a polytechnic school under Negro management and for Negro patronage. Then the Rev. G. W. Reed, of Stockton, who came to Los Angeles anticipating the possibility of his being called to the pastorate of Providential Baptist Church, and incidentally to preach segregation and separate schools.

Sunday, Dec. 3, 1916, the Los Angeles Times introduces to us another of these misguided creatures by the name of J. Goodman Braye. This man Braye wants some body or bodies to put $100,000 in the bank for him. When the full amount is there he wants to start a school out in the hills somewhere for Negro children. No one knows how it's going to be supported or anything about it's being patronized. That's of little or no concern. The $100,000 will bear the burden of the effort for the present.

California ranks fourth as to quality and quantity of schools; its school system includes polytechnic or industrial schools, as they are commonly called by our people down South. Black children have access to all of these schools—though sometimes an occasional preference or slight is aimed at them (as attested by students), but on the whole our children get fair and equal treatment. The best teachers, new ideas, new buildings, and contact with children of every clime, is our children's fortune. Contact and association is the best and only antidote for prejudice. It begets toleration and it's through tolerance we are to come into possession of any rights or privileges that are our due by law or suffrage. But isolate us, keep us away from the races, whether in the schools or in the city's environs, we will be a more scorned, more despised and crippled people.

Jim Crow schools mean at best poor schools and many times no schools.

The Presbyterian Banner, the official organ of the Presbyterian Church, tells of a town in Alabama ,where there are 2300 Negro children of school age, and the officials (white) provide a school for only 300 of these.

These latter day industrial prophets are certainly needed in a country such as this—to plead for just what is the Negro's due, not for a big or bigger school—not an industrial school, but an elementary graded school, where these and other black children can get the common rudiments of an education. Mr. Braye, you are needed down there in Alabama, not to mention Louisiana or South Carolina, but not out in California or the West, or any place in the North, for that matter, because these good and generous-hearted white people have provided schools plentifully and efficiently taught for all mankind, and the Negro child is not excepted.

Dr. Booker T. Washington, in an interview shortly before he died, said in reference to Negro education: "As yet that experiment is but half completed. No one can yet say what Negro education can accomplish for the Negro and the South, because Negro education has never been thoroughly tried."

Mr. Braye, a Southern Negro, leaves the South, comes west to establish schools for Negroes where they are plentifully provided, and leaving a people who are prayerfully, tearfully begging—not for industrial schools in particular, but for any school—a slight chance to learn the bare rudiments.

Just think of it, Mr. Braye! Ask yourself, ask your friends, ask all of the people where you are most needed.

Of 3,422,157 Negro children of school age, only 56.34 per cent, or in round numbers, 1,712,137, are enrolled in school. Why not you, Mr. Braye, beg us and all for $100,000 with which to start a school in the Southland for some of these 1,710,020 children who are out of school in utter despair, imploring a chance to get in?

Arizona, a western state, once had mixed schools, then how nicely everything went. She came up for statehood. Negroes implored the authorities for separate schools, primarily because it offered an opportunity for some to teach, not considering the fact that schools were primarily created to train the young and not created to make jobs.

Again, is it not better to have an efficient teacher of any other race to train your children than to have one of your own, who is absolutely unfit? So Arizona offered separate schools as a part of its constitution. Those days in small towns all went to one common school. Now in the small towns, where the colored population is practically nil, their children have no school, as no provision is made for such a small number. They have threatened suit, but to no avail. Yet, foreigners or aliens, Japs, Mexicans, Chinese, and Hindoos—people incapable of citizenship—their children are admitted into all and any school of the commonwealth of Arizona.

The Negroes' pet—the "Jim Crow school law"—has slammed the door in his face. Ask our citizens and those who visit Arizona what shameful huts at best the Negro has for schools, and when he tells you all,—well, never, never while you live, will your anguish cease.

Much of the exodus of our people from the Southland is because of the school question, along with other disagreeable conditions.

Whether in Los Angeles or in any other part of the North or West, any person who attempts to set up barriers between the races in the matter of separate schools solely for Negroes, or asking for certain districts for Negroes, or division of public positions or work on racial lines—every Negro should frown upon him and consider him an enemy of the race.

TOM MILLER A RAVING MANIAC

Word reaches us that Thomas Miller, who was convicted of first degree murder at San Diego last spring and sentenced to life imprisonment and confined at San Quentin, is now a raving maniac and that he must soon be removed to an asylum.

FROM THE SCRAP BOOK

Many Anxious Children Are Waiting and Red Stockings Are Unfilled.

Impatient Demands Are Constantly Coming in From Little Ones.

It isn't rumor; it's fact. Christmas is almost here.

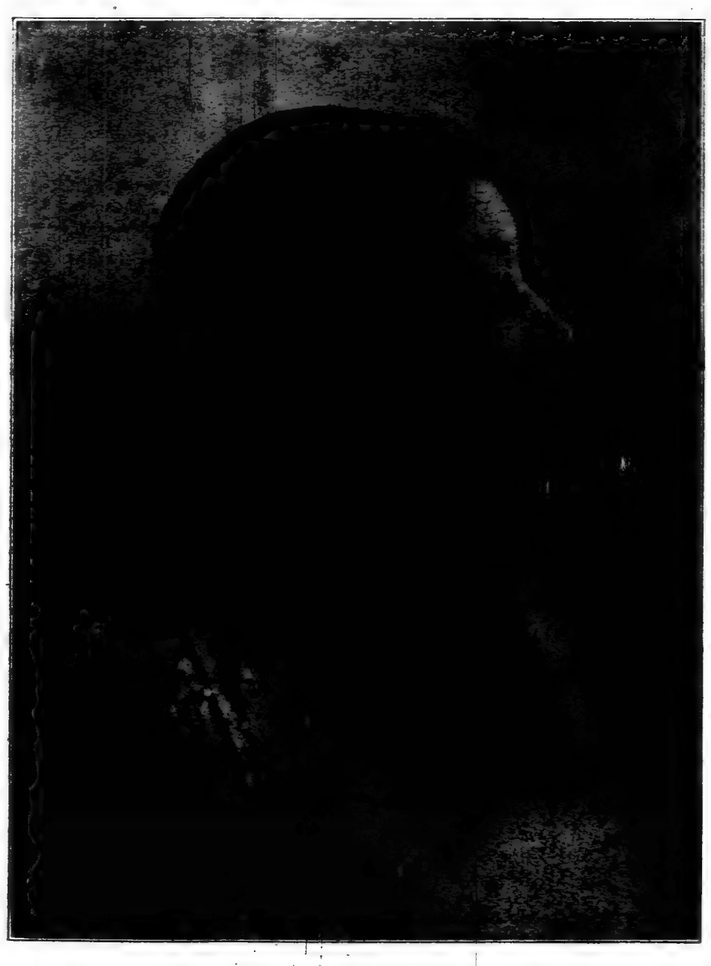
The real news of the day is not the Hopp trial or the war in Europe or the fluctuation of "warbrides" on the stock exchange.

The real news of the hour is that Christmas is coming. If you don't believe it, slip into the house next door and see what little Dorothy Brown and little Benny Brownson are talking about.

Up on the Hill, where the population is nine-tenths babies and dogs, the dogs are almost the only living creatures that can be induced to discuss anything else. Annie, who comes breathlessly bounding up the steps about breakfast time, has made Christmas the paramount topic of conversation for a week now, and Annie's big, bright, brown eyes are shining more brilliantly than ever. Annie has absolute faith in the magic and joy of Christmas. She and Santa Claus are on the best of terms, and it would never occur to her to suspect that he might pass her by. As a matter of fact he won't, because she happens to be our little friend, and we have personally interceded for her; but there are a lot of other children next door to Annie and across the street and in the flat below and in the shack at the rear who are equally bright-eyed over the prospect of Christmas. As yet they haven't any friends to intercede with Santa Claus in their behalf. Some of them are not so pretty and winsome and otherwise endowed with those sweet qualities that make friends for one. They are just that much more in need of your help if their faith and hope is to be preserved.

The children of North Beach who will receive stockings have been chosen from lists submitted by Miss Adams of People's Place Miss Ash of Telegraph Hill Settlement and all other organizations administtering relief in that district. A meeting of the nurses and other settlement workers was called and the lists gone over. It is impossible to give them even a meager Christmas. The list, as it was finally decided upon, contained only those children whose parents are absolutely unable to supply any sort of Christmas.

Some of the women in the tenement known as the Cueno Flats called at the Associated Charities headquarters the other day to ask for stockings. When the situation was explained to them and they admitted that their husbands, who are most of them fishermen, could probably succeed in getting some small gifts for the children, they said they would be satisfied to go without them if we would give stockings to Mrs. B——, "whose man is dead."



Mrs. B—— is far from being the only one on our list "whose man is dead." Dozens—I think I may even say hundreds—of these Red Stockings are destined (with our permission and help) to find their way into homes where some poor woman is struggling to be both the man and the woman of the family.

Only those who have stood by and watched some such struggle know the agony through which they go; know the bravery of the fight; know the gallant way they meet the day's tragedy.

It is little that we can do to help them. If we can save them from the added heartache of the Christmas morning questionings of the child with an empty stocking, surely it is not too much to ask.

There are 2500 children on the Red Stocking lists who are absolutely dependent upon us for all that they will know of Christmas.

I don't want to disappoint them. Do you? The only way I know to avert the catastrophe is to induce you to come and take these empty stockings away and fill them with all the things the children love.

MME. FLORENCE COLE-TALBERT

Appearing next month in this city with Hahn Jubilee Singers.

WHY SPIRITUALISM HAS ALWAYS BEEN CONDEMNED

By Florence E. Snyder

First of all, kind reader, "ism" seems to be the greatest kind of a stumbling block to the name "Spiritualism." Have you ever stopped to think that "ism" is added to all religions, such as Baptism, Catholicism, and so on, in the name of all religions, and it seems quite a few Spiritualists who have not reached the higher plains as yet, or in other words, have not thoroughly gone through the old Book, which is known as the Bible, and found these words recorded there: "If you are ashamed to own me before men I will be ashamed to own you before my Father in heaven," and it is the general characteristic of the human family if one go astray in the family they are all condemned—for the one they must all be spurned, which is wrong, and very wrong.

The same thing applies to mediums or seers of the day. As I have stated in former writings, there is high and low in all things. As soon as some people are able to see any spirit or a loved one return, they get in a hurry and out goes a card: "Fortune telling; bring about speedy wedding," and so on, for monetary purposes and not for the good they can do for mankind, and to help fallen humanity, or help suffering humanity. It is that big round dollar with "In God we trust" on it. "I love the people, but the dollar first."

Naturally, no one can be on a very high plain who cannot see any farther than the almighty dollar. When you fail a would-be medium going from door to door, or advertising themselves, they do not respect the old Book in which you find, "Seek ye the Kingdom of God and its righteousness and all things will be added." That means material as well as spiritual—all things.

Then, I have often heard mediums cannot get anything for themselves. Then pray tell me, how can they get anything for you?

Jesus was the greatest medium the world has ever known. He healed the sick, foretold the past, present and future, which was the only religion handed down to man, and its name is "Spiritualism."

Kind reader, in the old Book we read: "What is the letter without the spirit?" How plain. No wonder we read again in said book: "The way is so plain that a fool or wayfaring man need not err." Spirit is never credited, but all is recorded to man and without spirit what would man be? Without the spirit the body is lifeless, and the spirit never dies, only the body. Whenever the spirit leaves the body at the hour of transition, the body goes back to earth, from whence it came, and the spirit back to God, who gave it. So you see, kind reader, the spirit is the real man and also the God part in all mankind.

(To be continued.)

BLOSSOMS

Let us strive to be a light in this world of care;
Let us estrew flowers of love everywhere.
Let us elevate our thoughts to a higher plain,
Where sweet peace and harmony shall always reign.

Like the roses let us drop petals here and there;
Let us cultivate our garden with the greatest of care;
Let us prune out the weeds as we go
each day,
That our blossom may send its perfume on the way.

At the day of harvest a boquet grand and rare
Will add like jewels to a crown over there,
Where we will sing praises among the kings on high,
And watch through ages with that all-seeing eye.

—Florence E. Snyder.

Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary or Silver Wedding of Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Driver was celebrated in their home at 1527 East 22nd street, last evening. Rev. Wm. A. Washington, pastor of Bethel Church of Christ, master of ceremonies, opened by reading the 15th chapter of St. John. Rev. Dr. J. D. Gordon, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, offered a most fervent prayer, which stirred the hearts of all.

After prayer Dr. Washington reviewed the life of Rev. and Mrs. Driver from his personal knowledge, having known them for nearly 18 years. Dr. Washington in his address made all to know Dr. Driver and wife from a different view. His address was a masterly one.

Dr. Gordon followed Dr. Washington and as all Los Angeles knows Dr. Gordon's ability to say things, it goes without saying that his address was filled with wisdom and sound advice. Dr. Gordon made all to laugh when he told of the secret of how Mrs. Driver had succeeded in raising her boys.

Mrs. Driver followed Dr. Gordon.

Mrs. Driver came forward with a smiling face, telling of how and why she had enjoyed 25 years of married life with her devoted husband. Her story sank into the hearts of all who heard her. Her talk brought new thoughts to the wives, as well as to the husbands.

A beautiful paper was read by Mrs. Roda Daniels on behalf of the W. H. B. Workers, and Mrs. Henrietta Maxie presented the presents.

Rev. Dr. Driver was then called upon to say a word, and as all are aware of the ability of Dr. Driver to speak, the whole audience with marked attention was turned toward him, and his words sounded on our ears and in our hearts as one wielding heavy steel.

What the Churches are Doing

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
Cor. 8th and Towne Ave.

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

Christmas services will be held with extraordinary services Sunday. At 9:30 o'clock the Sunday school will hold forth with appropriate songs, recitations and the such. The Christmas distributions will be made promptly at 10:30 a.m. to the Sunday school scholars. At 11 o'clock sharp the pastor and choir will open the regular order of worship and the pastor will deliver the Christmas sermon from the subject, "Christmas Gifts." At 7:30 o'clock the choir will render their grand Christmas concert. All who would enjoy the Christmas eve Sabbath Day services are welcome to worship with us all day Sunday. Come early if you desire to get a good pew.

Get ready for the old fashioned union revival services that will begin at First church on Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m., Jan. 2, 1917, and continue until Friday night, the 19th of January. These meetings will be conducted under the auspices of the Methodist Preachers' Alliance. A great revival awakening is expected. All are welcome.

"Open Door" courtesies will be shared to the public of Los Angeles and neighboring community at First church on New Year's Day under the auspices of the Woman's Mite Missionary Society. Beautiful booths in the Sunday school rooms with handsomely gowned ladies serving free refreshments to all who call from 2 to cal selection will intersperse the af- 8 p.m. will be enjoyed. Grand musiternoon's pleasantries and First A. M. E. church invites the public to delight in the courtesies extended by her in "Open Door" on New Year's

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday our pastor, Rev. F. H. Davis, preached masterful sermons, both morning and evening, to appreciative congregations. The pastor's theme for Sunday morning will be, "Heaven's Great Gift." Come out and hear him. His sermons are very instructive and show much study. The Daniel Band under Mrs. M. R. Caviness' instruction will furnish music. It is really a treat to hear these Junior Gospel singers. The captains will also report on our pledge rally. All departments of the church are making ready their yearly reports to the church.

The Emancipation program under Prof. Biggers promises to be one of the grand affairs of the season.

The Parents Association are preparing an elaborate program for the fifth Sunday evening. Attorney Darden will address them.

PHILLIP'S CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH, 1406 NEWTON ST.
Rev. J. C. Anderson, Pastor

The services at this church on the past Sabbath were very helpful and inspiring to the two nice and appreciative congregations that greeted the pastor at the morning and evening services.

Rev. Edmonds of the A. M. E. Z. church and the pastor of the Boyle Heights Mission, was present and preached for us on Sunday night. His discourse was helpful and logical and he was listened to with a great deal of pleasure.

The services on next Sunday are going to be a high order and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable celebration of Christmas that we have ever held at this church.

The Pastor will preach a special sermon on Sunday morning and the choir will render a special sacred concert on Sunday night. This concert promises to be the very best of the concerts which have been given by the choir from time to time and the officers are preparing to care for the largest congregation we have had to attend any of these concerts.

The children of the Sunday school will have their Christmas tree and will render their program on Saturday night. Supt. Maxey and his corps of teachers are planning big things for the children.

The public is invited to our Christmas services.

WARD A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor

Services Sunday, December 24th.

Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. S. E. Mann, Supt.

Allen Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p.m. Mrs. B. F. Bryant, President.

Sunday will be our second quarterly meeting, and we anticipate a great time as the Presiding Elder, the Rev. J. . Wilson, will be with us both at the morning hour, 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. as well as some of the citys pastors, who have promised to be with us at 3. p.m.

The public is invited to be with us on this Lord's day and enjoy this great Spiritual feast that awaits us.

The exercises and Christmas tree will be Monday night, Dec. 25th. All should come and bring their presents for their relatives and friends and have an enjoyable evening.

Please keep in mind above all things, Sunday, Dec. 31st, on which date Mrs. J. C. Slaughter will have here the crowning event of the season, in the nature of a great rally and Sunday school review, all the Sunday schools of the city are invited to participate.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th St. and Central Ave.

E. E. Lightner, Minister

All the services on last Sunday were well attended and helpful to all who worshiped with us. The pastor occupied the pulpit at both services, bringing a message at the morning service on, "Suffering and Glory," and in the evening on, "Finding One's Self." The Bible Study each Wednesday night n connection with the mid-week service is proving very interesting and helpful.

Special services on next Sunday, Christmas Lesson in the Sunday school at 10 a.m. and the Christmas message at 11:15 a.m. by the pastor.

At 6:30 p.m. a program will be rendered in the Christian Endeavor meeting. The Christmas exercises with the Christmas tree will be held Monday night, December 25. You are cordially invited to all services.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Gordon will preach his Christmas sermon on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

On Sunday night the B. Y. P. U. will render an excellent program and the vestured choir will sing two beautiful selections.

Our Christmas exercises and tree will be on Saturday night.

The public is cordially invited.

THE PEOPLES INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor

The gates of Wesley M. E. church were flung wide on last Sunday morning when Rev. Greggs and congregation joined the Wesleyites and friends in praise to God. An excellent sermon was preached by Rev. Greggs. The evening service held as usual at the hall, and the mantle of truth was unrolled, and the blessings fell upon all present. Three persons joined the church. On next Sunday morning the children of the Sunday School will have their Christmas exercises. And in the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Christmas sermon will be preached by the pastor. A welcome to all.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. Christmas address will be delivered by Dr. B. E. Robeson, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church, Sunday, Dec. 24th, 3 p. m. This meeting is for both the men and boys, as there will be no boys' meeting at 4 p. m. Ladies are also welcome. Sunday, January 14, a memorial service will be held for International Secretary W. A. Hunton, who died in Brooklyn, New York, Nov. 29. Many of Mr. Hunton's old friends will be invited to take part on the program. These services are being held throughout the country, as Mr. Hunton was an international character.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The Christmas services will be held Sunday, Dec. 24th. The choir is preparing special Christmas music. We are still hopeful that the pastor will reach us in time for that occasion. In the event he does not, Dr. E. P. Ryland, our chief pastor, will deliver the message at the morning services and Rev. M. Rosier will preach in the evening. The Christmas tree and exercises by the Sunday school Saturday evening, Dec. 23rd, should be attended by the entire membership of the school and church. Please send flowers and ferns Saturday afternoon for decorating.

THE EIGHTH STREET CHRIS-

Brother Latouche offers resignation.

All day last Sunday, the regular services were held as usual at the Christian church and preaching by the pastor was enjoyed by those who heard him.

At the evening service the pastor took for his subject, "The Midnight Friend." In his discourse, he spoke of those friends we have in the day time, those we have when all is running smothly, and those we have at all times and on all occasions. "Christ is always our friend," he said, "even in the midst of the night when all others have forsaken us, He is with us still, always ready and willing to help those in need, those who will let Him help."

At that hour, Brother Latouche offered his resignation. It to take effect next Sunday evening, Dec. 24. The reason he gave was that he thought he could do better in some other place. He intends to preach his farewell sermon next Sunday night.

GREAT PROGRAM AT THE FORUM SUNDAY

The Progressive Educational Association will hold forth at the Forum on Sunday afternoon. A splendid program has been arranged which will be in charge of Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass. Rev. Dr. J. D. Gordon will be the principal speaker and a crowded house is anticipated to hear the merits of this organization presented.

The program which has been arranged assures the fact that there will not be one dull moment so all are invited to be present on this occasion.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

Two very excellent sermons were given by the pastor last Sunday. An increase of attendance at the Sunday school session was also noticed. This department is holding practices frequently to perfect the annual Christmas program. Owing to the fact that Christmas even is on Sunday this year the regular custom of observing same with a program and Christmas tree will be dispensed with. Instead, Saturday evening of this week will be used. It is planned to begin at 8 o'clock sharp and a cordial invitation is extended to anyone to come and enjoy themselves. Special Christmas sermons will be offered by the pastor in addition to new music by the choir. The secretaries of all auxiliaries of the church will please see that the annual financial record of their respective organizations are in the hands of the church financial secretary by or before December 31.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT THURSDAY EVENING

At eight o'clock Thursday night young ladies of the Metropolitan church will present a Christmas program of unusual merit. The public is cordially invited to enjoy this novel treat at the church on Waverly Drive.

Sunday morning the pastor's Christmas theme will be "The Birth of the Christian Religion." At the evening hour his subject is "The Growth of the Christian Religion."

A. M. E. CHRISTMAS TREE MONDAY NIGHT

Christmas night instead of Christmas eve as usual the Sunday school of the A. M. E. church will give its annual Christmas concert. A large tree ladened with candies and gifts will be a feature of the occasion. Sunday evening the choir will present a special program of literary and musical numbers. The Allen League meeting will be in charge of the girls who will seek to outdo the boys in charge of last Sunday evening's meeting. Mrs. Lulu Bunch will lead the discussion of the lesson. Rev. Dyett at morning service will preach a Christmas sermon. The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Bussy on Mountain street last Thursday and enjoyed a profitable session. Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Fouche and Mrs. Hopkins are in charge of preparing baskets which the Aid Society will distribute Christmas morning to the needy and shut in folks. One accession to the membership of the church was noted last Sunday.

SCOTT CHAPEL NOTES

The first three months of the Conference year marks great things in the history of this splendid little church. Under the leadership of the new pastor, E. W. Kinchen, Scott Chapel has come into her own and is commanding a position of vital help to the community. This help does not come alone from the active life of the pastor, but from the energy and service of every member of the church. Unusual numbers attend each service and the collections are way above the average for a church of its size. The church is bending every effort to make the rally on the fourth Sunday of January a great success and everything indicates that success will be had.

On New Years day Scott Chapel has rented a restaurant near the corner of Fair Oaks and Colorado streets to serve the people who will crowd the Crown City on the day of the floral parade. The Sunday school will have Christmas exercises on the evening of Christmas day. Pastor Kinchen will preach at both services on the Sabbath bringing a Christmas message in each sermon. The Epworth League will have a special program Sunday evening. The first part of the evening Bible readings will be conducted by Sister Wilson and the special musical and literary program under the direction of Misses Arbezine Lee and Louise Beavers.

There were four ministers' sons in the game Tuesday, and every one played brilliant football, which goes to show that football ability is not inherited. They were J. Riddle, A. Kinchen, H. Rozier, and W. Dyett.

THE DOUGLAS CENTENNIAL

Rochester proposes to celebrate the one hundredth birthday of Frederick Douglas, which occurs on February 15, 1917.

Rochester should not be alone in honoring the memory of the great dead. The entire country should join in the movement and fittingly celebrate the centennial of one who was not only a great colored man but a great American. Few of America's sons have handed down to posterity so high a conception of the ideals of real Americanism as has this dark-skinned son who was born in the bonds of slavery, but burst those bonds to make a name for himself, and uncessatingly while he lived to battle for his enslaved race.

Arriving in Rochester a fugitive Frederick Douglas won the esteem of the multitude, rose to honor and lived to adorn the city of his adoption.

Rochester, recognizing his worth, has erected a statue to his memory in the heart of that city. Now she proposes to further honor herself by honoring him and, through him the race he represented. Will Rochester be alone?

Frederick Douglas was a great American, but there are few great Americans today, except perhaps in Rochester. The small Americans are still inclined to judge ability by the color of its shell. The Douglas Centennial Celebration should be a nation-wide event, but there are still localities —both South and North—that have not yet reached that point on the intellectual compass that would guide them to such catholic action. But recognition of this deplorable fact, should not deter the colored millions and those whites, broad-minded enough to recognize worth and ability in any guise from celebrating the centennial of one worthy of the highest honors.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON MEMORIAL DAY AT THE FORUM, DEC. 31.

Sunday, Dec. 31, 1916, the citizens of Los Angeles will hold memorial services in honor of our late lamented Dr. Washington ,who died Nov. 14, 1915. Prominent members will make the program replete with interest. No city west of the Rockies has given anything toward the $500,000 fund which is to be raised by our people. It is because of this reason, out of pride and because of the respect we hold for the deceased, and the desire to see the school go forward, that the people of Los Angeles are going to raise a fund. When New York City gives $5000, Baltimore $2500 and even Dallas, Tex., $625, Los Angees shoud give $250.

This movement is to extend to every church, lodge, men's and women's club and association to make this fund assured. The amounts will be published as they given.

With his lovely wife and two dear girl babies to cheer him along, he will without a doubt make good. He was so skilled in the art of carpentering, that he got the nick name of "fix-it" Barnes, with the railroad company, and has been offerred a job at any time that he wants it, by them. He feels better being his own employer, and we hope that other young men will see the point as he does.

SAN BERNARDINO

Sunday was quarterly meeting at St. Paul A. M. E. church. The presiding elder, Rev. J. H. Wilson, was present and preached in the morning. Rev. C. A. Harris, of Redlands, preached in the afternoon, and Rev. Redd in the evening. The attendance at each service was good. Rev. F. W. Cooper, of the Baptist church, was present in the afternoon.

Lee A. Williams and wife, Mrs. Indiana Dobbs, of Riverside, were over Friday to attend the entertainment. Mr. Williams would like to make this his home.

Mr. Clarence James, late of Los Angeles, has employment with the Santa Fe, and Miss R. has smiles.

Rev. Wilson held Quarterly Conference Tuesday evening. There was the largest number in attendance for some time. The Trustees reported the indebtedness at $3480.00, and a large part of this they are paying 12 per cent. interest. The church was reported in good spiritual condition. Each department had its report showing marked progress along all lines. Those who know Rev. Red and wife would expect nothing less among the people of San Bernardino.

DOING THINGS

It cannot be gainsaid but that the present city administration is really doing things aside from the power question, which it has ably handled, the lining up of the Civil Service, the reign of terror they have inaugurated among the Chinese crooks and lottery sharks, truly puts the present city administration in the class that DOES THINGS!

CHRISTMAS SEASON

The fact that this is the Yuletide Season brings to mind no doubt to any the thoughts of years gone by in other climes and other environments, when the people really imbibed the spirit of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Man, and each one vied with the other to, on these occasions, make their fellowman happy.

Christmas was an open house occasion; the people went from house to house always bringing away good cheer, and now looking back over that period, we really think it was that spirit which made it possible for us to surmount the barrier which confronted us and to reach the station we have, and with the season upon us now we verily believe that if all would but put in practice the good old time Christmas cheer that it would do much to set anew the great principle of Love, Joy, Comfort and Peace on Earth.

A WORTHY APPEAL.

Galveston, Texas, Dec. 9, 1916

To the Negro Press of America and the Citizenship of America:

We wish to review the Texas City outrage and false imprisonment case of August 18, 1915. The case was filed in the United States Court, June Term, 1916, for damages in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars. On account of an error in the petition as to jurisdiction the Court held that the case should be brought in the District State Court of the County in which the wrongs were committed and not originally in the Federal Court.

Facts about the case: In August, 1915, General J. Franklin Bell, the Board of Trade and the Mayor of Texas City ordered seven thousand United States soldiers and all of the city policemen to round up the whole of the Negro population in Texas City. This order did not include any other nationality. This shameful and disgraceful act was obeyed to the letter and the spirit in which it was given. After having driven men, women and children through the streets under guards on horseback armed with pistols and army guns, like cattle to a selected place, there they separated husbands from wives and children from parents. The organized the men in squads of ten and placed United States soldiers over each squad, making them work the streets all day and jailed them at night. There were about two hundred men, three hundred women and two hundred childen.

Often the men were forced to get into water waist deep without pay in cleaning up the streets of Texas City. Many of the men were beat over the head with pistols. At night they were compelled to sleep on a cement floor without bedding of any kind.

Treatment accord the women: Our women were separated from their husbands and placed in another building sixteen blocks away unprotected. Many of them were insulted by the soldiers. One old lady was carried there on a cot. She was very much excited and shocked by the treatment and did not live very long after the prison camp closed. The prison camp lasted for the long period of five days and nights. This concerns the whole Negro race throughout the world. The following committee asks the public for a donation of from ten to twenty-five cents each to push our case in the courts to a final determination. Secretary Garrison has had it investigated.

SIDNEY P. DONES
one of our Premier
REAL ESTATE BROKERS

To those who have made the Sidney P. Dones Company a real issue among the real estate dealers, as well as the public in general in the County of Los Angeles during the year of 1916, I offer my hearty thanks.

While our Company has many things to be thankful for, we especially thank our many clients who have bought and rented houses through our Company. Our agents are men of ability and character, among whom are Dr. J. E. Asbury, Rev. V. M. Cole, Attorney J. H. Kelly.

Our Loan Department, under the directions of our Manager, Sidney P. Dones, has saved the homes of many who were about to give up.

Our motto for 1917 shall be "Honesty, Exactness, Promptness." Again, to those who have contributed their business to our firm, we, out of hearts filled with Race love and loyalty, thank you.

If a man should write to Santa Clause with the simple faith that his children do, he would probably say something like this:

DEAR OLD MAN:

For all these years you have been filling the stockings of the universe. You have got a heap of glory out of it, and I don't begrudge you a bit.

The folks are going to give me something this year, of course. They always do. But tell 'em, won't you that I am not collecting curios.

I Do Not Want

a new collar for the dog, a box of flowers, a box of candy, a bottle of perfume, or some nickel cigar.

But there "are" things I do want.

Some of them I must have. If I get them, they will save me money.

Others I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to to me, it would be great!

So will you kindly give this list your attention old friend.

I Should Like—

some new neckties; nobody ever has quite enough ties (50c to $3). And some SILK SHIRTS—every man likes to have a few, (5 to $10).

I could use a good sweater, ($3 to $10) or a knitted vest, ($5 to $6). A wooly auto scarf, ($1 to $5).

I really need some linen handkerchiefs It looks as though we will soon have to use cotton handkerchiefs, so while they are still obtainable and reasonable, I could use a couple of dozen nice sheer ones (25c to 75c each).

I am a candidate for admission into some new pajamas ($1 50 to $8.50). As I sleep in a sleeping porch, I prefer the flannelette sort, ($1.50 to $3).

A HOUSE COAT would be a big improvement on the old coat I wear around the house, ($5 to $20).

My SILK HAT is a little behind the times, ($6 to $8).

It is about time I had a new pair of GLOVES, but unless someone gives them to me, I shall probably go on wearing my soiled ones, ($1 to $5).

Everybooy thinks he is harder on SOCKS than anybody else. I am. Some silk socks would certainly come in handy, ($50c to $2.50).

And if anybody wants to save me a nice bit of money as well as improve my appearance, I am a candidate for a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES or a NEW OVERCOAT, (suits $15 to $40; overcoats $15 to $40).

Yours hopefully,
A MAN.

P. S—And as you love me, fail not to tell 'em to buy the things in a MAN'S Store.

Local Happenings

You are fortunate indeed to have an invitation to the social event of the season at Blanchard Hall on New Year's night, given by the Cosmopolitan Club.

Mrs. Albert Reed, 708 East 8th St., will spend the holidays with her relatives in Oakland.

Mr. Edward Carrington, of West 37th Place, who has has been on the sick list, is reported as much improved.

Miss Blanch Taylor was severely burned by a near gas explosion at her home with Mrs. Dora Gamble on last Wednesday. Mrs. Gamble was also slightly burned.

Mr. Charles Pickens, from San Diego, is in town for a few days.

Mr. Chas. Townsend, of San Diego, is still in the city looking after his various interests, which are many.

Mr John Watts, of Balboa Beach, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. R. T. Frazier has just returned from an extended trip to New York and New Haven

Mr John Perry is Jack-of-all-trades. How nice, John.

Invitations are out for the grand New Years ball at Blanchard Hal, to be given by the members of the Cosmopolitan Club. It will no doubt be the event of the season. Society is all agog in anticipation of the affair.

The Jefferson musicians are doing well again.

Mr. J. B Murray is about, but that face is still in bandages.

Mr John Brooks is out again. Will he look after that big 5? Nothing can prevent it; that is his hobby. It shines like a new quarter. Why the big 5 car? It's the pride of the Santa Fe made so by the attention of Mr. John Brooks.

Mr L. Henderson has that same old smile.

Mr Geo. Ellerby is the man that they all know. Who? The fans. People look to the Black and Tan for dances now. Say, they are popular.

The city has an addition in the way of new business. There has opened on Central Avenue a metropolitan Smoke House and Barber shop.

Mr Anderson, of the Angelus barber shop, is a person to have everything in order and so clean. That is why he is doing so well.

Julius Baker and Wm. Pillows, Los Angeles football players, were seriously injured during practice at Exposition Park last Thursday.

Prepare to meet all of your friends at the big Pasadena-L. A. Pleiades football game next Friday at Exposition Park.

FOR RENT

4-room apartment, $10 per month; can pay $5 down, move in, and $5 every 15 days, if desired. Talk with STOKES, Broadway 3130.

Mrs. C. D. Conner, 2716 Glasseil St., has been confined to her bed since last Thursday, sluffering with ptomaine poisoning.

There was a banquet given in honor of J. E. Lewis at corner of 14th and Long Beach streets, at which time C. J. Darough announced the wedding of Miss Johnson and Mr. J. E. Lewis.

They are all getting ready for the Grand New Years Ball to be given by the Cosmopolitan Club on New Years night.

Miss Louisa Phillips, of 816½ Parker Drive, met with an accident this morning at about 6:30. She was dressing by an gas stove when her night dress caught fire. Had it not been for sister, Mrs. Valley, she would have been burned to death. However, she is in a rather critical condition, but the doctor says she will pull through.

Mrs. P Hubert is on the sick list this week.

Partner Wanted in Undertaking Business.

Wanted man or woman with ability and influence as active or silent partner in the undertaking business with a thoroughly experienced and capable man who is a licensed embalmer and funeral director in state of California. Amount required $500; part cash, balance from month to month. Address "X," care of California Eagle.

Mr. Chas. Pickens, from San Diego, is in town for a few days.

Mr. T. R. Simpson, of Winslow, is in town, enjoying himself, for you know it is all work at Winslow, where he has been for the past 14 years in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad system.

Mr. H. J. Turner, of St. Louis, is looking the picture of health. He is at the St. Francis hotel, which he praises highly.

Mr. J. Price, of St. Louis, the friend of Mr. L. Henderson, the popular tailor, is in town, looking as if he came out of a bandbox.

The Keystone has opened in the old Franklyn quarters, corner of Stephenson and Third streets. The Keystone, as you know, is the new name for the De Luxe, so long ran by Mrs. Davis, who is known for her fancy dinners.

The Triangle rooming house has the following guests: Mr. W. Gordon, Chicago; Mr. L. Hiddeburg, Denver; Mr. G W. McDoreal, Mr. L. M. Green, Mr. W. J. Allen, Minn.; Mr. G. W. Shannon, St. Louis.

Miss Darling E. Nesty gave a recital at San Diego on December 21st.

Mr. W. M. Smiley, the gent with the winsome smile, dines at all the cafes now, but "be careful with the soup, please," he never forgets to say.

The society event of the season will be at Blanchard Hall on the evening of Jan. 1st, the Grand Ball by the Cosmopolitan Club.

Mr. Walter Dobbs, last Tuesday night, had not done anything, was told to move on. Well, he was taken to jail, just the same. And whilst in jail, he was beaten up by the prisoners. When he was taken to the hospital, it was said two of his ribs were broken. So you see if you are in jail, you are in danger.

Everybody who visits the Cadillac Christmas night will receive a beautiful Christmas present.

Monday, January 1, 1917, there will be open house for all S. M. T. at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Shores, 936 East 11th St. All S. M. T and U. B. F and their friends are cordially invited.

At the residence of little Lillian Goodwin, of Ceres Ave., Thursday afternoon, Lillian Ernestine Jones and Cleo May Thompson received at a Christmas tree. More than twelve little guests were present and a jolly affair it was.

The Cadillac had a large crowd of fashionable people at the tables on Sunday night, eating of the various tasty dishes which were prepared by that fastidious cook. The remarks heard at a nearby table were: "He knows how to cook, and he knows how to season as well as garnish his dishes. Yes, he must have learned his art in New Orleans, for those are the only cooks who can please us people." Say, they say he is going to prepare some chickens next week. We will have to come. What say you?

The last week's of the Fair at San Diego promises to be very interesting and all who have not visited this magnificent display should avail themselves of this, their last opportunity, as there are to be many special atractions.

The Angelus theatre has done a fair business during the last few weeks. Now there is one small affair that they should give their attention to and that immediately: they should see that the little boys observe better order and decorum whilst in theatre. It has been said they are too boisterous and run in and out too often during the entertainments, which should and must be stopped, and that at once.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and everyone who assisted us during our recent bereavement of our dear daughter and niece, Mrs. Grace Roberts Carter, and we wish to thank them for the many beautiful floral offerings presented.

(Signed)

Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guatantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

Your subscription would be a nice Christmas gift to the Eagle and all would profit thereby.

Mrs. Al. Ramsey is enjoying herself in the afternoons by spending her leisure hours in Golden Hill Park. She says that she is living in the neighborhood of the ne'er-do-wells.

Not as you like it, but as they do it in San Diego. A young man called at the Eagle office and inquired of the reporter "what's best to give a lady friend to retain her." He was informed that the girls nowadays are like a horse in a selling stake. If they win they are bid up, but may be retained by the owner with an additional "five;" if they lose, any one "in the race," with te additional 300 can claim her, in which you have no recompense.

Mr. A. A. has a habit of using the Eagle phone every Sunday morning because he is a free privileged character, trying to make good with the other fellow's girl. Oh, well let him go; he's talking to a stranger.

Members and friends of Mt. Zion Baptist church surprised their pastor, Rev. Williams, on his 52nd birthday and he received some very useful presents, which he praised highly.

SAN DIEGO DRY AS BONES OF JOB'S TURKEY

Clubs and Cafes in City Without Liquor Licenses.

Since December 11, there have been no liquor licenses issued to any clubs or cafes, pending the decision of the court as to appointing a Chief of Police on whose shoulders shall rest the responsibility of licensing the cafes and clubs. Cafes will be dry Christmas and no doubt New Year's Day. There is no favoritism shown in this decision. The Grant Grill, The Cabrillo at our Exposition, and all the leading clubs are equally affected.

The old saying is "Yesterday never existed and tomorrow never will be," won't do to tell a certain married man who stayed out until 2 a. m. before Christmas when he looks at that self-rising mole on his eye and hears the cry of the little ones in the adjoining room.

COLORED MANN'S GOAL IN THE PANAMA

Providing he is a British subject from the West Indies, as a sailor on one of the battleships stated, who had just arrived from that port. There is a penalty of $20 to any man who strikes one of those subjects, regardless of whether you are in the right or wrong. Soldiers, sailors or policemen on duty are not exempted from this penalty. A sailor tells of giving one the whole railroad track ad he came down in the ditch and he (the sailor) struck him. What did he do that for? He just struck out $20.

The L. A. White Sox were defeated by the local men, 7 to 3 last week. "Lonnie" should give his men more training, as they seem to be subject to errors, and remember, that first baseman is not the California Tower.

We want you to see our Fair before it closes that through your life you may be able to speak about it intelligently. So, why not arrange to spend your vacation in San Diego? People here always welcome you. You are no stranger and the law protects all law-abiding citizens. We want you all and the children to see the Fair.

All of those present at the literary society enjoyed a very pleasant evening last Tuesday. A goodly number were present; a very fine rectation was rendered by Mrs. Wiliams. The remainder of the evening was spent in a debate in regard to mixed schools, in which Mrs. C. E. Norwood brought out many fine points. We hope that you will come out next meeting, January 2. A very interesting debate and program will be held. Come one, come all and enjoy the evening

Off days will be Wednesdays instead of Mondays at the Tia Juana race tracks, in order to give the Los Angeles and other people Monday in the city. However, Tuesdays and Fridays will continue to be ladies' days, which are free to all ladies throught the courtesy of Mr. James J. Croffroth, President; "Sunny Jim," as they call him. He always has a pleasant smile for every everyone.

It has been "Casey at the bat," but in this case, it has been our Colored boy Casey at the bit. True to his Irish name, Tuesday unconsciously he killed the long shot kid on Plume. If you don't follow him, you will have an aching heart.

Mr. Will Evans says he is through with the Casey mount, but he is through to his sorrow. Roy Orfort laid $5000 against the Casey mount; he laid it to his sorrow. They bid the Casey mount up to $3200. Wing-

Everybody is busy in San Diego buying Christmas presents. We meet and greet them, but they are too busy to have any news. However, the M. E. church is planning a big rally for Christmas Eve. night. Mt. Zion Baptist Church, with the leading young people of the city, always has something new to put before the public. The Second Baptist church is also planning for Christmas Eve Day.

If the Black and Tan doesn't quit playing that teasing music every Wednesday night at the Kastle Hall, they will have everybody doing that "measly glide." Even Old Man Jackson, from Spring Valley, was trying it a few nights ago. Mr. White, of Loma Portal, sets down on that one string violin. When a man's music is so soothing that it makes wife smile, you know that the other girls can't help but make those eyes. A lady sat across the hall and wanted everybody to move so that she could always see the strands and what Mr. Harris blows from that cornet makes your dancing partner press you close up to her breast.

You cannot afford to miss the Christmas and New Year's ball. What place? Why, Kastle Hall. field said they bid it to their sorrow. About 3000 people say that "N" Casey couldn't ride; they saaid it to their sorrow. But Sunday, 5000 people cheered Casey and said he is one he is one of the greatest apprentices in the country.

Mr. Will Collins is all smiles nowadays. Mr. Stakes seems to be holding his own.

The different lodges are planning many functions for the holidays. The B. Y. P. U. seems to have the city by storm.

The uplift clubs, also the sewing circle is on the firing line for the social week.

Even the Eagle reporter has been too busy to find any news this week. As the old saying goes: "Christmas is coming," but we say Christmas is here.

Remember, dear friends, I do not profess to be any Hearst, but I've been trying to do the best in furnishing news for the many Eagle readers. Anyway, yesterday never existed and tomorrow never will be in paper light. You should write for today. As I sit here and look upon this white paper between these fixed walls that I have my liberty to pass to and from, I often wonder what I amount to. What do you amount to? What do any of us amount to?

ALLENSWORTH

Much praise is being given Allensworth by the papers of the County and Valley for its part played in the fair recently held in Visalia.

The Allensworth Booth was a model of neatness and industry. Decorated in the fair colors, orange and green, with the stars and stripes in the background, it formed a fitting setting for the pictures of Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Col. Allensworth, Paul Lawrence Dunbar and other race heroes.

Allensworth contributed its exhibits under Products of the Home, including quilts, needle work, rugs, pillows, canned fruit, pastry, etc. Products of the Farm, including alfalfa, barley, rice, beets, turnips, citron, pomegranates, beet and turnip seed, onions, eggs, cream, potatoes, etc.; Products of the School, including drawings, maps, booklets, outlines, writing, posters, etc. Another feature was about forty books on display, books by Negro authors; music by Negro composers, and through the courtesy of Mr. Harold Prince of Pasadena, a copy of nearly every Negro newspaper published in the U. S. The exhibits and display were viewed and commented upon by vast throngs.

Perhaps the crowning compliment paid Allensworth was the invitation by the Fair Committee to the Girls' Glee Club of the Public School to render a program Monday afternoon. Press and other announcements had prepared the public to expect a musical treat. A crowd that filled the Municipal Auditorium greeted the young people. The vociferous applause that followed each number rendered by the chorus, a quartet composed of Misses Smith and Archer, and solos by Miss Margaret and Miss Ruth Prince, showed that the audience was not disappointed. This is but the beginning of a splendid career for this aggregation of youthful singers.

Allensworth was not satisfied with the above showing but insisted on prizes. The following prizes were awarded:

The Public Schools, Special Award of Merit.

W. Oscar Wells, Alfalfa, First Prize.

Pacific Farms Land Co., Rice, First Prize.

W. A. Carter, Barley, Second Prize.

W. A. Carter, Citron, Second Prize.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

Renewal of the Railroad Labor War

The grim possibility of an enormous labor war this winter that will dislocate industry and transportation and bring distress to the entire country is seen by some in the general mobilization of the forces of labor and capital behind the leaders of railroad labor and railroad capital in their pending battle over the enforcement of the Adamson Eight-hour Law. Thus, on the one hand, we have the railroads of the United States, which represent a paper value of twenty billions of dollars and employ more than one and a half million persons, combining to fight the new law by injunction and supported by a new eight-billion dollar organization of capitalists called the National Industrial Conference Board, whose factories give employment to nearly seven million persons; and, on the other hand, the four hundred thousand members of four great railroad brotherhoods, backed by nearly three hundred thousand other organized railroad workers and by the two million members of the American Federation of Labor. The railroad companies, according to one of their official spokesmen, "are agreed to fight to the end" against the enforcement of the Adamson Law, which they are attacking in the courts as unconstitutional, indefinite, and unjust. But "a strike vote is still in effect," retorts W. G. Lee, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, "and if the railroads do not live up to the very spirit of the law, there is no reason why the brotherhoods should not take advantage of their strongest card." And Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor declares that "whatever steps the railroads may take to kill the Adamson Law, that law is going into effect January 1, and it will be enforced." Mr. Gompers goes on to say, with a rap at the Republican party and a dip into Shakespeare:

"When the money power of the United States failed in the attempt to corrupt the electorate, and when their plans were upset by the votes of the citizenship of the United States, the capitalists showed their colors. They met and gave out a declaration that they were going to antagonize every effort put forth by organized labor.

"But, men of wealth, I say to you, be careful how far you go. There is a limit even to human endurance. You throw down the gauntlet and we accept the challenge. When the time comes, it will be another case of 'Lay on, Macduff, and damn'd be him that first cries 'Hold, enough!'"

In addition to this promise of a direct trial of strength between capital and labor in the railroad world, we have the assurance of W. S. Carter, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, that organized labor will fight with every legal means at its command any attempt by Congress to enact legislation providing for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes. Some editors interpret this as meaning that labor will bitterly oppose any curtailment of its right to strike. If this view is correct, there may be serious opposition in Congress to the completion of President Wilson's program of labor-legislation of which the Adamson Law was only a part. One clause in this uncompleted program, the Washington correspondents remind us, would make it illegal to call a strike or a lockout on a common carrier before a complete Government investigation had made public the merits of the dispute.

Thus are "the dragon's teeth, sown so recklessly when the Adamson Law was jammed through Congress," producing their expected crop, remarks the Brooklyn Times, which sees the President confronted by "a tremendous task." For a "wide-spread breach between capital and labor must not be allowed to tear up the fabric of the Republic." "A memorable battle is in prospect," thinks the Brooklyn Eagle, and the Chicago Tribune admonishes the public not to shut its eyes to the gravity of the situation. Says this influential Chicago paper:

"The problem is a difficult one, complicated by the power of the organized railway men to paralyze business for a time. This power is the crux of the whole problem. The public and Congress must deal with it. Quite naturally the brotherhoods and their backers in the Federation have determined to prevent any limitation of this power. They will fight it, just as capital fights any restriction of its power. The public, which is vitally interested to defend itself from uncurbed power, whether that of labor or that of capital, must express itself in the solution of the railway problem. That the public shall remain defenseless between the alternative of railroad paralysis and the indefinite increase of transportation cost is not to be tolerated. Its present predicament is a case of 'heads you win, tails I lose.'"

Here is President Wilson's opportunity to confound those critics who accuse him of lacking "backbone," remarks the Richmond Evening Journal, which urges him to renew in his forthcoming message to Congress "those recommendations" which were ignored in the rush legislation of painful memory.

We all have our weaknesses. Vacations is mine. However, vacations cannot be afforded this time of year, so you can look for "Wise and Otherwise" regular until further notice."

The girls are asked not to read the following article:

This is the time to be humored by the girls. No danger of being "shaken" this near Chr— Ahem' I mean, this time of year.

Speaking of football, well, it seems that as in everything else, "the Negro has to be in it."

There are enough of our boys playing on the various H. S. teams of Southern California to make up a team that would "paint California red," if given the chance afforded other boys.

The fact that we were beaten Tuesday is just the reason why we are going to win Friday.

You'll have to admit that seven men can't beat eleven doing anything except losing.

Pasadena has a good team, but we have a better. If you don't believe it come out to Exposition Park Friday and watch our boys regain lost honors.

The L. A. Pleiades was formerly the Y. M. C. A. team, but has been organized into an athletic club. The game with Pasadena Friday is going to be a hum-dinger (whatever that means) and with no admission, you can't afford to miss it.

There will be no game Christmas, but there will be SOME game Friday after.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Q. A reliable gentleman told me that since the re-election of Wilson every bank will be closed up four months after inauguration day. Do you think he is right?

A. I have no doubts that he is, since the banks usually close on the Fourth of July. (Ahem'—deep stuff)

PASADENA WINS FROM FAST L. A. PLEIADES CLUB, 20-12

Hilberte L. Rozier

After playing all season without a single defeat or even being scored upon, the fast Pleiades Athletic Club, formerly the Y. M. C. A. team, was defeated by a streak of ill luck, by the Pasadena team, Tuesday, at Pasadena H. S. grounds.

With only seven men, the Los Angeles boys fought, but without the other four men they were no match for the Crown City lads.

Baker and Patterson were the stars for the Angel City boys and although they were battling against terrible odds, these two gridiron comets played rings around their opponents.

Davis and Dyett played a brilliant game for the Pasadenans, both hitting the line (such as was left) for substantial gains.

This was a good game—a battle from start to finish, but the best is yet to come. Next Friday, at Exposition Park the final contest will be waged, and if you want to see a heart-breaker be there at 1:30 sharp.

DESERVES CREDIT

Much credit is due Officer McDuff and his detail, consisting of Officers Scott and Kimbrough, for the good work they have accomplished on the Metropolitan squad in throttling the Chinese lottery sharks.

Your subscription would be a nice Christmas gift to the Eagle and all would profit thereby.

Mrs. Al. Ramesy is enjoying herself in the afternoons by spending her leisure hours in Golden Hill Park. She says that she is living in the neighborhood of the ne'er-do-wells.

Not as you like it, but as they do it in San Diego. A young man called at the Eagle office and inquired of the reporter "what's best to give a lady friend to retain her." He was informed that the girls nowadays are like a horse in a selling stake. If they win they are bid up, but may be retained by the owner with an additional "five;" if they lose, any one "in the race," with te additional 300 can claim her, in which you have no recompense.

Mr. A. A. has a habit of using the Eagle phone every Sunday morning because he is a free privileged character, trying to make good with the other fellow's girl. Oh, well let him go; he's talking to a stranger.

Members and friends of Mt. Zion Baptist church surprised their pastor, Rev. Williams, on his 52nd birthday and he received some very useful presents, which he praised highly.

SAN DIEGO DRY AS BONES OF JOB'S TURKEY

Clubs and Cafes in City Without Liquor Licenses.

Since December 11, there have been no liquor licenses issued to any clubs or cafes, pending the decision of the court as to appointing a Chief of Police on whose shoulders shall rest the responsibility of licensing the cafes and clubs. Cafes will be dry Christmas and no doubt New Year's Day. There is no favoritism shown in this decision. The Grant Grill, The Cabrillo at our Exposition, and all the leading clubs are equally affected.

The old saying is "Yesterday never existed and tomorrow never will be," won't do to tell a certain married man who stayed out until 2 a. m. before Christmas when he looks at that self-rising mole on his eye and hears the cry of the little ones in the adjoining room.

COLORED MANN'S GOAL IN THE PANAMA

Providing he is a British subject from the West Indies, as a sailor on one of the battleships stated, who had just arrived from that port. There is a penalty of $20 to any man who strikes one of those subjects, regardless of whether you are in the right or wrong. Soldiers, sailors or policemen on duty are not exempted from this penalty. A sailor tells of giving one the whole railroad track ad he came down in the ditch and he (the sailor) struck him. What did he do that for? He just struck out $20.

The L. A. White Sox were defeated by the local men, 7 to 3 last week. "Lonnie" should give his men more training, as they seem to be subject to errors, and remember, that first baseman is not the California Tower.

We want you to see our Fair before it closes that through your life you may be able to speak about it intelligently. So, why not arrange to spend your vacation in San Diego? People here always welcome you. You are no stranger and the law protects all law-abiding citizens. We want you all and the children to see the Fair.

All of those present at the literary society enjoyed a very pleasant evenng last Tuesday. A goodly number were present; a very fine rectatioin was rendered by Mrs. Williams. The remainder of the evening was spent in a debate in regard to mixed schools, in which Mrs. C. E. Norwood brought out many fine points. We hope that you will come out next meeting, January 2. A very interesting debate and program will be held. Come one, come all and enjoy the evening

Off days will be Wednesdays instead of Mondays at the Tia Juana race tracks, in order to give the Los Angeles and other people Monday in the city. However, Tuesdays and Fridays will continue to be ladies' days, which are free to all ladies throught the courtesy of Mr. James J. Croffroth, President; "Sunny Jim," as they call him. He always has a pleasant smile for every everyone.

It has been "Casey at the bat," but in this case, it has been our Colored boy Casey at the bit. True to his Irish name, Tuesday unconsciously he killed the long shot kid on Plume. If you don't follow him, you will have an aching heart.

Mr. Will Evans says he is through with the Casey mount, but he is through to his sorrow. Roy Orfort laid $5000 against the Casey mount; he laid it to his sorrow. They bid the Casey mount up to $3200. Wingfield said they bid it to their sorrow. About 3000 people say that "N" Casey couldn't ride; they saaid it to their sorrow. But Sunday, 5000 people cheered Casey and said he is one he is one of the greatest apprentices in the country.

Mr. Will Collins is all smiles nowadays. Mr. Stakes seems to be holding his own.

The different lodges are planning many functions for the holidays. The B. Y. P. U. seems to have the city by storm.

The uplift clubs, also the sewing circle is on the firing line for the social week.

Even the Eagle reporter has been too busy to find any news this week. As the old saying goes: "Christmas is coming," but we say Christmas is here.

Remember, dear friends, I do not profess to be any Hearst, but I've been trying to do the best in furnishing news for the many Eagle readers. Anyway, yesterday never existed and tomorrow never will be in paper light. You should write for today. As I sit here and look upon this white paper between these fixed walls that I have my liberty to pass to and from, I often wonder what I amount to. What do you amount to? What do any of us amount to?

Everybody is busy in San Diego buying Christmas presents. We meet and greet them, but they are too busy to have any news. However, the M. E. church is planning a big rally for Christmas Eve. night. Mt. Zion Baptist Church, with the leading young people of the city, always has something new to put before the public. The Second Baptist church is also planning for Christmas Eve Day.

If the Black and Tan doesn't quit playing that teasing music every Wednesday night at the Kastle Hall, they will have everybody doing that "measly glide." Even Old Man Jackson, from Spring Valley, was trying it a few nights ago. Mr. White, of Loma Portal, sets down on that one string violin. When a man's music is so soothing that it makes wife smile, you know that the other girls can't help but make those eyes. A lady sat across the hall and wanted everybody to move so that she could always see the strands and what Mr. Harris blows from that cornet makes your dancing partner press you close up to her breast.

You cannot afford to miss the Christmas and New Year's ball. What place? Why, Kastle Hall.

ALLENSWORTH

Much praise is being given Allensworth by the papers of the County and Valley for its part played in the fair recently held in Visalia.

The Allensworth Booth was a model of neatness and industry. Decorated in the fair colors, orange and green, with the stars and stripes in the background, it formed a fitting setting for the pictures of Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Col. Allensworth, Paul Lawrence Dunbar and other race heroes.

Allensworth contributed its exhibits under Products of the Home, including quilts, needle work, rugs, pillows, canned fruit, pastry, etc. Products of the Farm, including alfalfa, barley, rice, beets, turnips, citron, pomegranates, beet and turnip seed, onions, eggs, cream, potatoes, etc.; Products of the School, including drawings, maps, booklets, outlines, writing, posters, etc. Another feature was about forty books on display, books by Negro authors; music by Negro composers, and through the courtesy of Mr. Harold Prince of Pasadena, a copy of nearly every Negro newspaper published in the U. S. The exhibits and display were viewed and commented upon by vast throngs.

Perhaps the crowning compliment paid Allensworth was the invitation by the Fair Committee to the Girls' Glee Club of the Public School to render a program Monday afternoon. Press and other announcements had prepared the public to expect a musical treat. A crowd that filled the Municipal Auditorium greeted the young people. TOPICS OF THE DAY

The grim possibility of an enormous labor war this winter that will dislocate industry and transportation and bring distress to the entire country is seen by some in the general mobilization of the forces of labor and capital behind the leaders of railroad labor and railroad capital in their pending battle over the enforcement of the Adamson Eight-hour Law. Thus, on the one hand, we have the railroads of the United States, which represent a paper value of twenty billions of dollars and employ more than one and a half million persons, combining to fight the new law by injunction and supported by a new eight-billion dollar organization of capitalists called the National Industrial Conference Board, whose factories give employment to nearly seven million persons; and, on the other hand, the four hundred thousand members of four great railroad brotherhoods, backed by nearly three hundred thousand other organized railroad workers and by the two million members of the American Federation of Labor. The railroad companies, according to one of their official spokesmen, "are agreed to fight to the end" against the enforcement of the Adamson Law, which they are attacking in the courts as unconstitutional, indefinite, and unjust. But "a strike vote is still in effect," retorts W. G. Lee, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, "and if the railroads do not live up to the very spirit of the law, there is no reason why the brotherhoods should not take advantage of their strongest card." And Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor declares that "whatever steps the railroads may take to kill the Adamson Law, that law is going into effect January 1, and it will be enforced." Mr. Gompers goes on to say, with a rap at the Republican party and a dip into Shakespeare:

"When the money power of the United States failed in the attempt to corrupt the electorate, and when their plans were upset by the votes of the citizenship of the United States, the capitalists showed their colors. They met and gave out a declaration that they were going to antagonize every effort put forth by organized labor.

"But, men of wealth, I say to you, be careful how far you go. Ther is a limit even to human endurance. You throw down the gauntlet and we accept the challenge. When the time comes, it will be another case of 'Lay on, Macduff, and damn'd be him that first cries 'Hold, enough!'"

In addition to this promise of a direct trial of strength between capital and labor in the railroad world, we have the assurance of W. S. Carter, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, that organized labor will fight with every legal means at its command any attempt by Congress to enact legislation providing for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes. Some editors interpret this as meaning that labor will bitterly oppose any curtailment of its right to strike. If this view is correct, there may be serious opposition in Congress to the completion of President Wilson's program of labor legislation of which the Adamson Law was only a part. One clause in this uncompleted program, the Washington correspondents remind us, would make it illegal to call a strike or a lockout on a common carrier before a complete Government investigation had made public the merits of the dispute.

Thus are "the dragon's teeth, sown so recklessly when the Adamson Law was jammed through Congress," producing their expected crop, remarks the Brooklyn Times, which sees the President confronted by "a tremendous task." For a "wide-spread breach between capital and labor must not be allowed to tear up the fabric of the Republic." "A memorable battle is in prospect," thinks the Brooklyn Eagle, and the Chicago Tribune admonishes the public not to shut its eyes to the gravity of the situation. Says this influential Chicago paper:

"The problem is a difficult one, complicated by the power of the organized railway men to paralyze business for a time. This power is the crux of the whole problem. The public and Congress must deal with it. Quite naturally the brotherhoods and their backers in the Federation have determined to prevent any limitation of this power. They will fight it, just as capital fights any restriction of its power. The public, which is vitally interested to defend itself from uncurbed power, whether that of labor or that of capital, must express itself in the solution of the railway problem. That the public shall remain defenseless between the alternative of railroad paralysis and the indefinite increase of transportation cost is not to be tolerated. Its present predicament is a case of 'heads you win, tails I lose.'"

Here is President Wilson's opportunity to confound those critics who accuse him of lacking "backbone," remarks the Richmond Evening Journal, which urges him to renew in his forthcoming message to Congress "those recommendations which were ignored in the rush legislation of painful memory."

THOUGHTS WISE AND OTHERWISE

Hilbert L. Rozier

We all have our weaknesses. Vacations is mine. However, vacations cannot be afforded this time of year, so you can look for "Wise and Otherwise" regular until further notice.

The girls are asked not to read the following article:

This is the time to be humored by the girls. No danger of being "shaken" this near Chr— Ahem! I mean, this time of year.

Speaking of football, well, it seems that, as in everything else, "the Negro has to be in it."

There are enough of our boys playing on the various H. S. teams of Southern California to make up a team that would "paint California red," if given the chance afforded other boys.

The fact that we were beaten Tuesday is just the reason why we are going to win Friday.

You'll have to admit that seven men can't beat eleven doing auything except losing.

Pasadena has a good team, but we have a better. If you don't believe it come out to Exposition Park Friday and watch our boys regain lost honors.

The L. A. Pleiades was formerly the Y. M. C. A. team, but has been organized into an athletic club. The game with Pasadena Friday is going to be a hum-dinger (whatever that means) and with no admission, you can't afford to miss it.

There will be no game Christmas, but there will be SOME game Friday after.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Q. A reliable gentleman told me that since the re-election of Wilson every bank will be closed up four months after inauguration day. Do you think he is right?

A. I have no doubts that he is, since the banks usually close on the Fourth of July. (Ahem!—deep stuff.)

PASADENA WINS FROM FAST L. A. PLEIADES CLUB, 20-12

Hilberte L. Rozier

After playing all season without a single defeat or even being scored upon, the fast Pleiades Athletic Club, formerly the Y. M. C. A. team, was defeated by a streak of ill luck, by the Pasadena team, Tuesday, at Pasadena H. S. grounds.

With only seven men, the Los Angeles boys fought, but without the other four men they were no match for the Crown City lads.

Baker and Patterson were the stars for the Angel City boys and although they were battling against terrible odds, these two gridiron comets played rings around their opponents.

Davis and Dyett played a brilliant game for the Pasadenans, both hitting the line (such as was left) for substantial gains.

This was a good game—a battle from start to finish, but the best is yet to come. Next Friday, at Exposition Park the final contest will be waged, and if you want to see a heart-breaker be there at 1:30 sharp.

DESERVES CREDIT

Much credit is due Officer McDuff and his detail, consisting of Officers Scott and Kimbrough, for the good work they have accomplished on the Metropolitan squad in throttling the Chinese lottery sharks.

Officer McDuff has served the department faithfully and well and is very deserving of a promotion, which no doubt will be his at no distant date.

THEY SHOULD WORRY

Jakie Peyton relates to us that thirty or more prisoners, of all nationalities, were being brought from Tucson to McNeil's Island. They were all chained together. The whites, Mexicans, Japs, and Chinese all sat with their heads in their hands, dejected, with gloom all around them, except the six Negro prisoners, who formed a quartet and were harmonizing to their own delectation, and such was the contrast that all wished themselves of the same characteristics as the Negro prisoners at this time.

A MEXICAN STAND-OFF

Although Attorney W. O. Tyler battled valiantly in the Superior Court before Judge York in the case of S. B. Battey vs. the Hippodrome Theatre, the best he could get was what might be called a Mexican stand-off. While winning his suit for his client, the amount awarded, $10, was insignificant.

The Eagle fails to see why the judge could find the defendant guilty at all, if he was not to give damages commensurate with the indignity and beating that Batty took at the hands of the bouncers at the Hippodrome, simply because he insisted on his God-given rights as an American citizen.

With this case and others which daily are handed us, is it any wonder that we look heavenward and say, "O, Lord! how long must we endure this until Thy salvation comes?"

A Happy New Year

THE AFTERMATH

The Golden State's Golden Gift to the Nation. California Placed on the Map an Example for Human Progress. Re-Action Politically Must Go. Who Had the Bow and Arrow That Killed Cock Robin? The Blame for Woodrow Wilson Placed. U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson "The Voice of the People"

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 30, 1916.
(Special for California Eagle)

This is the period of "question marks:" "Who killed Cock Robin?" There is no question but that Mr. Hughes' candidacy was "killed off" or that Wilson's victory was made on the 7th day of November last when the people of the various sections of this common country of ours visited their special voting places, and again, there is no question but that hereafter and for some time to come "the party lash" is an impotent weapon to herd voters.

Aside from the "solid South," which persistently and stupidly remains "solid," everybody politically appeared to "carry their own brains under their own hats," for instance vide the very close decisions in Minnesota, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Ohio, New Mexico, Rhode Island and still more States, where Republicanism was comfortably established, and also California. Ah, there's the rub—California!

Why Not California

And why not California, whose people are by a large majority red-blooded and progressive in practice if not always in name? In California as it appears largely throughout the Nation, it was the War Fright vs. the Dinner Pail and the people failed to see it that way. The War Fright won largely because the oratorical education was confined to fright and the Dinner Pail was feverishly avoided. Wilson was "the white-winged angel of Peace," Hughes was literally the man of war, if not figuratively, and nobody paid any noticeable attention to the Dinner Pail, which just stood there getting emptier, with 400,000,000 bushels shortage in the wheat crop, and the American dollar of yesterday getting closer to the "30 cent" valuation. Preparedness, preparedness for everything but starvation at home. This is the reason that the economic policies of the Nation are just now "at sixes and sevens."

Shall we permit the European belligerents to starve, or shall we starve at home? Well, we guess not—Which? Shall we continue "to sneer at Freedom and send arms to tyrants." The victorious Mr. Wilson asks for the agriculturalist the privilege of raising more $2.50 wheat, increase the acreage in cereals. Good for the farmer, too bad for the empty cupboard. Failing "to educate" on the empty Dinner Pail, we have no economic policies for the industrials.

Republicans Missed an Opportunity

We do know though what the Republicans would have done with all of the German shipping within American ports; we know a little about Naval and Army Reserves. But we have still a heap to learn about the Adamson Law, and nothing at all about the necessary processes of filling the Dinner Pail. The Republican Party's spellbinders had "an opportunity" and passed it up. With food stuffs stiffening in price; each day the people confronted with a sickening high cost of living at home, at times it appeared cheaper to go to Europe and get shot, while the frenzied orators talked and talked of the National honor.

Efficiency might have been, but it was not "a battle cry." That sort of humanity that starts off at home in a true neighborly way might have been advocated and it was not. Have we commercialized crime—the European bloodshed? Have we built up munition war supply plants that are working overtime? Have we despoiled the home to supply all Europe with instruments of hate? Have we founded an effervescing prosperity on the urgent needs of alien people?

The people wanted peace apparently at "any old price;" the orators pro and con Wilson fairly panted for peace; both parties agreed we wanted peace and each had a different method of attaining it and maintaining it. The people became befuddled and forgot all about the dinner pail, except the lady voters, who were sure they were not bringing up their boys to be soldiers. Bless their hearts, it takes a woman to figure out home comforts.

It was the omnipresent William Jennings Bryan when in one of his moments of lucidity said: "Roosevelt was making votes for Wilson." Our national honor calls for scrapping, and when President Wilson used German war boats to take American citizens out of Vera Cruz, and was not a stickler for the mere incident of flag-saluting; when the Lusitania settled itself at the bottom of the sea, and American troops failed to capture Villa and withdraw from unhealthy surroundings, and Mr. Wilson because of the bottom of the sea settlement, refused to interfere with German ships taking out of this country $2.50 wheat and more deadly munitions of war, he declared himself a man of peace, and peace, it appears, is what a majority of the voters want, especially the lady voters.

In all probability there were managerial blunders, there usually are on the part of the Republican National Committee, but the biggest blunder was when the Republican nomination was thrust upon Hughes. Julius Caesar thrice refused the kingly crown, and when he at last wilted he retired to his own slaughter-house. And Mr. Hughes when he, at last, became a candidate, he entrusted his campaign to the hands of his "friends," and that was suicide, vide returns from California. His "friends" in California were resentful and too high-toned to break bread with the dominant majority, the plain people.

"His friends," Messrs. Otis, Spreckles, Keesling, Fredricks, Crocker and camp followers, were avowedly out for the scalp of Hiram Johnson, and lost Hughes in the shuffle, and missed the scalp of Governor Johnson by a very large majority. These gentlemen spent more time condemning the Republican National organization for the appointment of Chester Rowell and the conscientious gentlemen who served with him, than they did looking out for "the main chance" to elect Mr. Hughes. All this coterie of statesmen really accomplished, was to saw off $4,000 worth of several years old campaign expenses on to the Hughes Campaign Committee. At least they re-established their credit with the Western Union Telegraph Co.

The Wilson Majority Could Have Been Larger

It would appear ridiculous to ask the question: "Who killed Cock Robin," because everybody worth while in California know who has the "bow and arrow" pointed at everything recommended by Governor Johnson, and there is no doubt in the minds of the thousands that heard the Governor speak throughout the length and breadth of California, that he urged the selection of Mr. Hughes for President.

And right here it might be well to state, had not Governor Johnson earnestly espoused the cause of Mr. Hughes with the all-convincing argument that "Mr. Hughes when Governor of New York had the same reactionary forces to contend with that Johnson had in California, and that he, Hughes, had stood by the people," Hughes instead of being defeated by a measly 4000 vote, would have been snowed under by a majority of at least 100,000.

I challenge any man to say there was ever a Republican party in California until Governor Hiram W. Johnson got at the helm of State. There was a Southern Pacific organization that masqueraded as such, but it bore as much resemblance to the party of Lincoln as a hunk of Swiss cheese does to an aeroplane. And there is where Mr. Hughes and his friends made a fatal mistake, they mistook the shadow for the substnace. The

GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON, SENATOR-ELECT

Republican party is historically the party of "manhood rights," and there you have the Dinner Pail again. Owing to the prominence of Messrs. Otis, Crocker, Fredericks and the rest of the bunch, the people of California saw the shadow and consequently they "did not enthuse."

The Reactionaries Manipulated the Bow and Arrow

In the language of the San Francisco Argonaut, Governor Johnson is no sneak, his success "lies rather in his courage. Whatever his judgments and policies may be—however inspired— he is BOLD in declaring them. He looks the public fairly in the face, and speaks his mind, or purpose, without fear." The people of California believe in Hiram W. Johnson and WITHOUT the Republican nomination he would have been elected United States Senator. Vide the gubernatorial majority of Johnson in 1914, of nearly 200,000. In 1916 Governor Johnson received his normal vote.

Hiram W. Johnson went before the people of California for election to the United States Senate on his record of six years as governor of the State. And twice at the polls the people of California have endorsed that record with its usual 200,000, and Mr. Hughes, probably because he was instructed by Messrs. Otis, Crocker, Keesling, Fredericks and camp followers, during his itinerary in this State, did not say one single word in praise of "a record of reform legislation which has put California in the forefront of political advance." On the other hand he did permit himself to become an instrument in the hands of men who literally hate human progress, to place a cow-

HOLLAND LODGE F. AND A. M. MAKES REMARKABLE SHOWING

Holland Lodge Holds Election of Officers. Secretary Greatly Surprises the Entire Craft With Astonishing Report. Gives Brief History of Each Worshipful Master of the Lodge Since its Existence. The Most Worshipful Grand Master was Present and Paid High Tribute to Work of Secretary

On Dec. 4, 1916, Holland Lodge No. 20, F. & A. M., met in its regular monthly communication and elected the following officers for the ensuing year.

Wm. G. Roberts, Worshipful Master; James M. Busby, Senior Warden; D. B. Floyd, Junior Warden; S. M. Maddox, Treasurer; W. L. Martin, Secretary; F. L. Wilson, Senior Deacon; J. O. Hosmon, Junior Deacon; H. H. Simpson, Senior Steward; James McIntyre, Junior Steward; Daniel Welch, Chaplain; J. B. Loving, Marshal; L. J. Jackson, Tyler.

The Secretary's report shows that Holland Lodge was organized Sept. 25, 1911, and dedicated July 8, 1912. Since the lodge's existence it has had 81 enrollments, 2 deaths, 18 members standing under suspension and 60 financial members on roll and 2 Fellow Crafts.

The deceased: Brother Nobie Allen, died, Oct. 4, 1912; Brother William Strother, died Dec. 2, 1914. Both died financial with the lodge and were buried with Masonic honors.

The lodge, though organized little more than five years, has risen to a height that it takes the third place of honor upon the Grand Lodge Roster of lodges throughout the State of California and Masonic Jurisdiction.

The membership is composed of lawyers, doctors and business men from almost every walk of life.

Fraternally,
W. L. MARTIN, Secretary.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WORSHIPFUL MASTERS OF HOLLAND LODGE NO. 20, F. & A. M., FROM SEPTEMBER, 1911, TO DECEMBER, 1916

To the Officers and Members of Holland Lodge No. 20, F. & A. M., Brethren:

Complying with my annual custom, which is to offer some information that will prove helpful to the craft, I have endeavored to give herein, some facts pertaining to the history of the lives of the brethren that you have honored, by electing them to the position of Worshipful Master of the lodge. This information dates back to September, 1911, the first existence of the lodge, and follows up to the present time.

The Grand Lodge proceedings of the 58th annual communication of the Most Worshipful Sovereign Grand Lodge of the State of California and its Masonic Jurisdiction will show that Brother Morgan Thomas White was appointed to the position of Worshipful Master of Holland Lodge No. 20, Free and Accepted Masons of this city, September 25, 1911.

Brother White was born in the State of Texas, October 6, 1859. It was there that he was educated in the common schools. He afterwards taught in the public schools of that state for ten years. In 1903 he came to California. For many years he was engaged in the undertaking business. He has held many responsible positions: A school teacher, letter carrier, undertaker, groceryman and Grand Master of the U. B. F. Lodge for the State of Texas, also California.

As a teacher he has given instructions to 750 pupils, and employment to 15. He has also held the position of Grand Secretary of the U. B. F. Lodge of the State of California.

Brother White's Masonic career dates back over a period of more than 30 years. He was made a Mason in the State of Texas, after which he was elevated from one position to another until he was elected next to the highest position in the gift of his lodge, Senior Warden. He then left Texas and came to California. Since, he has affiliated with the B. F. Talbot Lodge No. 8, F. & A. M., this city. It was through his efforts that a petition was signed and forwarded to the Honored G. W. Wilson, of Marysville, Calif., in 1911, who was then the Masonic Grand Master for the State of California and Masonic Jurisdictions. It was through this petition he sought authority to organize the Masonic Club, which later was converted into what is now known as Holland Lodge. This was the largest club that has ever been converted into a Masonic Lodge in the history of the State. More than forty members were in the organization of the lodge.

By reason of Brother White's activities and known ability, he was appointed the first Master of the lodge, a position he served with great credit from September, 1911, to December, 1912. He is known for his constructive ability. It was during his term as Master of the lodge that Holland lodge subscribed for 500 shares in the Masonic Temple Association of this city, all of which have been paid for.

He has been married for 24 years, and is the father of 10 children. He is a property owner and resides at 1016 South Mariposa street, this city. He is the first and oldest Past Master of Holland Lodge. He thus styles himself as the father of the lodge. It is to him that the lodge owes credit for its existence. As to his Christian faith, he affiliates with Wesley Chapel M. E. church.

JOHN BENJAMIN BOWMAN, HOLLAND LODGE'S SECOND WORSHIPFUL MASTER, FROM DECEMBER, 1913, TO DECEMBER, 1914

The subject of this sketch was born in 1863, in Harrisburg, Ky. He received his education in the public school of that city. During his past life he has traveled very extensively. Leaving his home town, he made prospecting trips throughout the country of Mexico. In 1883, he came to California. He spent eight years experimenting as a farmer in this state, two years experimenting in the mines of Mexico, California, Montana, Canada and Alaska. As a teaming contractor he has given employment to more than 700 men. He has also held many responsible posi-

A. M. E. Zion

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. B. C. Robeson, A.B., S.T.B. Pastor

Sunday, December 31st, will be pew filling day for Zion, it's a unique effort without coming under the name of rally. The church will be divided according to groups, those who sit on the right side of the church will be known as the "Right Group," those sitting in the center will come under the "Center Group," and those sitting on the left will be styled the "Left Group." All visitors and friends will be the "Allies of the group as determined by the seat they take. Sisters Chaney Jones and Louise Bynum will lead left group, Brother Lyons and Mattox will lead center group, and Sisters Constance Lewis and Ella Johnson will be at the head of right group. Each group will have its own table and collectors for their respective collections, and all are striving for supremacy by inviting visiting church members and the public in general.

Wherever this method has been tried out it has been tremendously successful. Our able pastor is due the credit for the introduction of this method to our church and city, as well as other new ideas in the conduct of our church. Prominent among them is the order of service cards. By reference to them a late comer into the church can tell just how far the service has progressed and does not feel awkward in joining in. The Junior Choir is famed for its harmony and melody, trained under the very successful Prof. H. C. Wheaton, will sing for us Sunday. It's worth a half day's journey to hear them. The pastor's text at 11 a.m. will be, "The Past Is No Barrier to Progress."

The annual watch night services will be held at night, beginning at 9:30 p.m. Rev. J. H. Miller will at this time deliver an appropriate message. Don't miss this meeting. Come and watch with us the outgoing of the old year and the incoming of the new.

Next week let us not forget the Union Revival Services under the auspices of the Methodist Ministers' Alliance, beginning Tuesday night at the A. M. E. church with Dr. Logan Craw.

THE PEOPLES INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows Hall, corner 8th and Wall streets. Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Although the weather on last Sunday was very disagreeable, some of the loyal members of friends of this church greeted the pastor at the regular services and experienced a glorious time.

On last Monday evening the Sunday School held its Christmas program in the auditorium of the Christian church. Because of the postponement of Sunday's program the children played two cantatas, one entitled, "A Good Time With Santa Claus," which showed Santa Claus being trapped by the children. The second was entitled, "The Coming of the King," which was a beautiful story of the birth of Christ. Both were real good and elicited much applause.

In addition to the regular services on next Sunday, watch meeting will be held, beginning immediately after the close of the regular evening service. God has wonderfully blessed this congregation with many blessings during the year, so a great time is expected at this watch service. Brother Emanuel Hall will deliver his initial sermon on this occasion. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

ST. PHILLIPS CHURCH

Episcopal

Several communicants have not made their Christmas communion. There will be the same service on Sunday, Dec. 31 as on Christmas day, this day being within the octave. This will be the last Christmas celebration. Any communicant desiring confession can have one by making an appointment.

After Sunday, December 31, the evening vespers will be discontinued at St. Phillips church till Ash Wednesday.

We are grateful this year at St. Phillip's church to Mr. Emmett Mattison for the construction of the Bethlehem manger. Thank you, sir.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Rev. D. G. Robinson will fill the pulpit at Wesley, Sunday morning, Dec. 31st. In the evening the services will be conducted by Mr. J. A. Warren. At the close of the regular services, watch night prayer service will begin and continue until 12 o'clock.

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

In spite of the inclement weather, the services were well attended morning and evening.

The pastor will speak Sunday morning from subject, "Marking Time."

At 2:30 o'clock the women's state board will hold its quarterly meeting at this place. The Parent-Teachers' Association will render a program in the evening and Zion's junior choir will furnish music.

Don't forget the Emancipation program, Monday evening, Jan. 1, 1917. Prominent speakers and special music.

Christian Church Notes

Last Sunday, although the weather was extremely inclement an appreciative audience attended the services both morning and evening to hear Bro. Latouche preach for the last time in the church here. As stated in last week's issue of the Eagle, Bro. Latouche offered his resignation two weeks ago, the same to take effect on last Sunday night. He left Wednesday for Texas.

The Xmas exercises rendered by the children of the Sunday school on Tuesday night was a success.

CHURCH AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES IN CROWN CITY

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH

Attractive music will be features of both morning and evening services at the church Sunday. At 11 o'clock the pastor will speak on "Passing Out of the Wilderness, or Crossing the Jordan," and at night, "Entering Into the New Home or Canaan." The Xmas entertainment was very pleasing and well attended. The pastor was especially well treated in the gift of a suit and overcoat beside other valuable presents for himself and family.

SCOTT CHAPEL NOTES

The loyalty and devotion of the members of Scott Chapel to their pastor and the church is working great good in a larger ministry for both the pastor and the church. Pastor Kinchens' family says that this was the best Christmas they have had in California. They are very grateful to the members of the chapel for the fine way they were treated.

Next Sunday will be a great day for the church. Pastor Kinchen will deliver the Christmas message at 11 a.m. In the evening beginning at 9 p.m., the choir, directed by Mrs. E. Beavers, will render the oratorio, "Emmanuel." The watch night service will follow.

A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Lowe last Thursday in a very enjoyable session. The exercises of the Sunday School Monday night pleased a large audience. A large tree laden with gifts and goodies interested young and old alike. The pastor and his family were recipients of many valued gifts and tokens on Christmas. The Aid Society distributed 16 baskets among the aged and sick of the church, likewise Mrs. L. E. Williams and her class of Junior boys with bags of Christmas fruits and candies carried cheer into a number of sickrooms and to the aged of the congregation. Quarterly meeting will be held on the second Sunday in January. Preparations for the Rally and for a week of Anniversary celebration will be pushed from now on.

Sunday the pastor will preach at morning service. At night the Young People's Society will meet from 6 to 8 and enjoy a program by the girls of the Society. At 8:00 and until 9:30 the choir will render a sacred concert, postponed from last Sunday. Between 9:30 and 10:30 cocoa and wafers will be served and from 10:30 until 2:00 the watchnight services will be observed.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

The holiday special programs arranged by the Church and Sunday School were somewhat marred by the weather conditions. The annual Christmas program and presentation of gifts by the Sunday School held on Saturday night was more than a success, taking into consideration the preparedness of those taking part. Mesdames Fields, Solomon and Reynolds had charge of this event. The Christmas sermon by the Pastor was good and thoroughly enjoyed by those braving the storm to be present. Next Sunday's announcements include a sermon by the pastor at 11 a. m., subject, "The Last Day of the Year and the Last Day of My Life Compared in Retrospection." Sunday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 a special program is being prepared. At 10:30 the watch meeting service will begin and continue until 12. The annual meeting of the board is scheduled to take place on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, unless an announcement to the contrary is made from the pulpit on Sunday. Tuesday evening the pastor is anxious to meet the members of and those wishing to join the Teachers' Training Class at 7:30 p. m. The annual covenant meeting will be held on Wednesday evening and the annual business meeting of the church will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock commencing with the first Sunday of the year a week of prayer and revival will be held. Meetings each evening except Saturday at 7:30.

Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. Fannie Sublett of El Paso, Texas, entertained at dinner in honor of J. R. Manring, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Zion, 157 Glorietta St. Pasadena, the occasion being Mr. Manning's anniversary, Christmas day. Covers were laid for ten. The home was beautifully decorated with orange blossoms, holly and mistletoe and a delightful time was had. The dinner was served in five courses by Mrs Zion, Mrs. E. W. Small was toastmistress and performed that duty to the satisfaction of all present.

Making Good.

J. L. S. Zion, who has been employed by the Pasadena Star since last July reports a merry Christmas indeed, with a raise in salary of $15 per month and an abundance of rememberances from the firm, thus demonstrating that he is making good with this company. Mr. Zion is one of Pasadena's wide-awake and foremost citizens and his friends are much pleased at his success.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of the emancipation will be celebrated in Pasadena at Scott Chapel, Monday evening, Jan. 1st. The committee has secnred Rev. Greggs of Los Angeles, to deliver the address on this occasion, and Master George Gatliff will deliver President Lincoln's famous Gettysburg address. All Union soldiers and Spanish-American war veterans are welcome. The old soldiers from Sawtelle have promised to be present. A fine program at 8 o'clock, doors open a 7 o'clock. Take the short line and get off at California St,

S. B. CARR, Chmn. of Com.

New Year's Dinner in Pasadena

To accomodate the people who will be in Pasadena on the occasion of the flower parade New Year's day, the members of Scott Chapel have secured the premises at 56 South Fair Oaks Avenue, where they will be prepared to serve the people no matter how many may come. A good wholesome dinner at a reasonable price.

A PACK OF CARDS.

A private soldier by the name of Richard Lee was taken before the magistrate of Glasgow, Scotland, for playing cards during divine services.

A sergeant commanded the soldiers at the church, and when the parson had read the prayers he took the ttt tttaoitaoitaoetao he took the text. Those who had Bibles took them out, but this soldier had neither Bible nor common prayer book, and, pulling out a pack of cards, he spread them before him. He first looked at one card and then another. The sergeant of the company saw him and said:

"Richard, put up the cards. This is no place for them."

"Never mind that," said Richard.

When the services were over a constable took Richard prisoner and brought the magistrate.

"Well," said the magistrate, "what have you brought the soldier for?"

"For playing cards in the church."

"Well, soldier, what have you to say for yourself?"

"Much, sir, I hope."

"Very good. If not, I will punish you severely."

"I havebeen," said the soldier, "almost six weeks on the march. I have neither Bible nor common prayer book. I have nothing but a pack of cards, and I hope to satisfy your worship of the purity of my intention."

Then, spreading the cards before the magistrate, he began with the ace:

"When I see the ace, it reminds me that there is but one God.

"When I see the deuce, it reminds me of Father and Son.

"When I see the trey, it reminds me of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

"When I see the four, it reminds me of the four evangelists that preached — Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

"When I see the five, it reminds me of the wise virgins that trimmed their lamps; there were ten, but five were wise and five were foolish, and were shut out.

"When I see the six, it reminds me that in six days the Lord made heaven and earth.

"When I see the seven, it reminds me that on the seventh day God rested from the great work He had made and hallowed it.

"When I see the eight, it reminds me of the eight reighteous persons, who were saved when God destroyed the world, viz.: Noah and his wife, his three sons and their wives.

"When I see the nine, it reminds me of the nine lepers that were cleansed by our Savior; there were nine of them that returned thanks.

"When I see the ten, it reminds me of the Ten Commandments which God handed down to Moses on the tables of stone.

"When I see the king, it reminds me of the great King of Heaven, which is God Almighty.

"When I see the queen, it reminds me of the Queen of Sheba, who visited Solomon, for she was as wise a woman as he was a man. She brought with her fifty boys and fifty girls, all dressed in boys' apparel, for King Solomon to tell which were boys and which were girls. The King sent for them to wash. The girls washed to the elbows, the boys to the wrists. So King Solomon told by that."

"Well," said the magistrate, "you have described every card in the pack except one."

"What is that?"

"The knave," said the magistrate.

"I will give your honor a description of that, too, if you will not be angry."

"I will not," said the magistrate, "if you do not term me to be the knave."

"The greatest knave I know is the constable who has brought me here."

"I do not know," said the magistrate, "if he is the greatest knave, but I know he is the greatest fool."

"When I count how many spots there are in a pack of cards, I find 365, as many as there are days in the year. When I count the number of cards in a pack, I find 52—the number of weeks in a year.

"I find there are twelve picture cards in a pack, representing the number of months in a year, and on counting the tricks I find thirteen, the number of weeks in a quarter. So, you see, a pack of cards serves for a Bible, an almanac and a common prayer book."

IN SOCIETY

BY MISS VIVIAN CAMPBELL

The Anti-Can'ts proved themselves par excellent entertainers at their matinee dance Christmas day. All the city young sets were out, each and every one claiming a grand time.

Miss Angelita Williams and Dr. E. Nelson were quietly married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother. The wedding, though quiet, being attended by the family and close friends only, was beautiful in its simplicity. It is needless to say the bride was most becomingly gowned. Who would blame the Doctor for being all smiles?

Miss Vivian Campbell entertained about 30 young friends, Christmas day, after the matinee dance, with a Dutch luncheon, after which the jolly bunch were the guests of Misses Beulah Hall and Lottie Bolds at the home of the latter. Dainty refreshments were served and the close of the evening Mr. Bolds surprised the young people with old-fashioned egg nog. Whether the "surprise" prompted Mr. Claude Neil to give a representation of the Grecian dancer Nadia, we dare not say; nevertheless, the dance was a "bear."

Mrs. Noguchi, daughter of Mrs. Kelso; Mr. Vernie Kelso and Miss Lucas were the honored guests at a party given by Mrs. S. E. Lewis, Thursday night.

The Bachelor Boy dance at Blanchard Hall, Wednesday, was a splendid success.

The daughters of Mrs. Helena Smith were honored by having Mrs. Vernon Castle, world renowned dancer, decorate their Xmas tree and surprise them with an extra amount of Santa Claus.

Mrs. Helena Smith has a new position, as personal maid for Mrs. Vernon Castle, now at the Alexandria Hotel.

Friends of Miss Della Dogins are very sorry to know that she is very ill at her home on East 39th street.

ANGEL OF MERCY

Make Merry Christmas for Little Folks.

Mrs. Vernon Castle, who is perhaps one of the most talked-of movie stars on the American continent today, is in Los Angeles working on her own production, "Patri," which no doubt will create a big sensation when it is flashed on the curtain in the near future.

Even though she is working with all haste to complete the picture as early as possible, Mrs. Castle finds time to visit and play Santa Claus for many poor children in Los Angeles. About twelve families where there were little children were included in her Christmas crusade, among whom were the ten children, orphans in part or wholly, who make their home with Mrs. Harris, the mother of Mrs. Helena Smith, of West 35th street.

With her own hands Mrs. Castle went forth, dressing Christmas trees, and if we are to judge all of the twelve trees dressed by her by the one at Mrs. Smith's, they were most beautiful.

Mrs. Castle was assisted in her effort at Mrs. Smith's by the leading man in "Patri," Mr. Milton Fills, who took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and went in for about six hours' work in the neatly arranged and well kept colored home. Both Mrs. Castle and Mr. Fills enjoyed their stay in this pleasant home and when the little tree, which was the most beautiful in design and heavily loaded with all sorts and kinds of toys, had been completed many beautiful colored lights made a brilliant scene, and ten little brown tots frolicked beneath its bowers to the great satisfaction of Mrs. Castle, who seems to get great satisfaction out of this sort of philanthropy. Aside from providing for twelve families in this city she provided for 69 orphans in New York City.

While in the city, Mrs. Helena Smith is maid for Mrs. Castle.

Mrs. Smith is one of the most industrious little women of the race in this section. Her thrift and activity is amply demonstrated in the general surroundings of her little home on West 35th street.

A happy and prosperous New Year for all, is our greeting.

As we ring out the old and ring in the new, let's all hope for a stronger bond of union for 1917.

SHALL WE HAVE TWO STATES

After all Mayor Woodman's endorsement of the proposition to have two states is apt to gather momentum in its wake from many angles. It is worthy at least of serious consideration.

The ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE'S annual conclave for 1917 promises to be the greatest affair of its kind ever brought forward in the entire western country, even now the officers of the same are making preparations to put on the greatest exposition of the progress of a people that has ever been brought forth.

IN MEXICO

From the news gleaned from the daily papers it seems as though the scene is shifting again in Mexico and that Villa's star is in the ascendency, and so the story goes in Mexico, one day cannot indicate what the next one will bring forth. It is only another problem which confronts both Mexico and the countries contingent thereto.

FOR MORE POLICE PROTECTION

The members of the City Council who balk at, and find insurmountable difficulties to protect the citizens from thugs, hold-up men, burglars, lottery sharks, etc., will do so at their peril. They should put their ears to the grass roots and note the rumblings of discontent and then perhaps they would get wise.

GETTING MORE LIKE THE BLACKS EVERY DAY

There used to be a saying among the colored folks in the course of their rapid progress and advancement that "We are getting more like white folks every day." But we are sure that in the face of recent events, that this phrase should be reversed and the white folks can say they are getting like black folks every day. For instance the failure of the progressives and the old liners to get together for common weal, and the futille efforts of the Republicans to get together for the chance to elect one of their number as speaker of the incoming national house of representatives.

LOCAL NEGRO JOURNALS

Both activity and inactivity mark the closing of the year with our local Negro journals. The Age passes out as a weekly and takes a forward step and will issue a semi-weekly henceforth; the Citizens' Advocate is taking a recess; the Post is still on the job, the Soaring Eagle as the premier colored weekly of the West aspires only to serve with credit in its humble way, as a weekly visitor to the homes of its readers with the latest and most diversified news; a staunch defender and an advocate for progress all along the line. We have no time to recess, but feel that we want to be on the job every minute of the time.

The Aftermarth

ardly slight upon the governor of the State.

When you come to think of it there is no question but that "the bow and arrow" that killed Cock Robin was manipulated in the camp following of Mr. Hughes, the camp followers of his own advised selection. Four thousand majority for Wilson, it might have been worse; it might have been 100,000, had it not been for the fact that Governor Johnson was too large a man, too public spirited a man to sulk.

The Golden State's Golden Gift to the Nation

Governor Johnson's platform when a candidate for the United States Senate was engraven on the hearts and the conscience of his fellow-citizens in California, and the Statutes of the State and its revised Constitution are but an index of his actual accomplishments in behalf of Humanity. His record of six years as the Chief Executive of the State has changed the political map of the Nation, for what California has accomplished under the guidance of Hiram W. Johnson can and will be established throughout the Nation. This great country of ours is a democracy—a republic—and there must come the reign of the people, or else the republic is bound to go the way of political parties, the way the Whig party went when it no longer appealed to the conscience of the people, and the way the Republican party is bound to go, if it does not find its way back to the fundamental principles of Manhood Rights.

During the Johnson "Reign of Terror" to the subsidized press and "statesmen" of California who masqueraded under the title of "the Republican organization of California," we have the record in fact of the following long list of progressive achievements:

Political Progress

State Civil Service, Shorter Ballot, Australian Ballot restored, a Non-Partisan Judiciary, Non-Partisan County Officers, Presidential Primary and the Election of United States Senators by popular vote. For Women, Equal Suffrage, Eight Hour Law, Full Civil Rights, Minimum Wage and the Teachers' Retirement Fund. And the following important laws: Workmen's Compensation and State Insurance, Agricultural Credits, Alien Land Act, Water Conservation Law, Blue Sky Law, Free Text Books, Race Track Gambling Abolished, Red-Light Abatement, Advanced Labor Laws, Penal Reforms, First Offenders' Law, State School for Girls, Laws for State Highway development and scores of other laws looking to the protection and comfort of the "plain people." A State Railroad Commission that has saved millions of dollars to the coffers of the State and fairly and justly regulated all of the public utilities of the State, until watering stock is ended, and legitimate business and the people are protected.

California's State Board of Control ended the reign of the "political business man," and started for California the sane administration of the business affairs of the State, placing the State's business on a business basis; and ending "graft," reorganizing all State institutions, open bidding for State supplies, uniform accounting and demanding efficiency in the discharge of public service. At the head of this Board is the right-hand of the Governor, John Francis Neylan, who has a perfect genius for figures, figures "that don't lie," the "right hand" of Johnson that found the State facing a deficit of $300,000 in the State Treasury, and has placed to the credit of the State in six years' time, the handy sum of $4,500,000. Who found "graft" regnant, ink, as an instance, costing the State $2.70 per pound, and he was able to purchase the same identical ink for the State at 60 cents a pound, this with a purchasing department that does not misplace a dollar, and pays a fair price for all of the supplies of the State. It was Mr. Neylan who inaugurated what is known as the "budget system" for the State, which if inaugurated in the affairs of the Nation would net $300,000,000 annually and in time wipe out the National debt, practically do away with costly deficiency bills, and so-called emergency measures, and give the people of the Nation an opportunity to survive periods of hard times. U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson will live up to his record in the wider field of National politics. He will be found there safe-guarding the very best interest of the people, and rendering to the Nation at large the beneficence of humane and patriotic legislation, and doing for the people of the United States what he has done so effectively and lastingly for the people of California.

Senator Johnson will be the voice in the United States Senate of the nation's conscience, and Hiram W. Johnson is the Golden Gift of the West Coast Country to the people of the United States, who believe in humanity and patriotism founded on right.

December 27th, 1916.

Editor Eagle, and All Your Readers:

Through some inadvertance the major portion of our letter in your issue of the 16th inst. did not appear; owing, we presume to an oversight somewhere along the line. In it we especially requested that all readers that were interested in the land proposition, as clearly set forth in the powers and scope of the Progressive Educational Association, preserve the same for future reference, as we should from time to time discuss the various topics, and take them up separately as they were demanded for consideration.

The formation and incorporation of the Progressive Educational Association was the result of careful and prayerful thought on the part of a few individuals who, without any desire for emolument or financial gain, were imbued solely with a great humanitarian project which would be destined to extend a helping hand to the race and place them in a position where they would be independent and rise to heights heretofore unattained.

The sessions of the few (nine in number), among them the writer of this letter, were attended and marked with much concern, and it was the earnest desire that a colony should be founded and endowed second to none in the country.

With this thought ever uppermost, the Colony was incorporated, and we then began looking around for a garden spot, large and ample enough to accommodate a million people, if necessary, and worthy of our best efforts.

A tract of land consisting of about 40,000 acres South of Elsinore, was visited with this aim in view, but for various reasons it was not favorably considered, chief among which was the lack of water supply.

Such a plan as this could not long remain under cover from those interested in land deals, and it came to the notice of Edward S. Shank, with offices in the Citizens National Bank Bldg., who immediately communicated with Bro. H. H. Williams, whom he informed that he could furnish the company with all the land desired, located in Arizona, not far from Phoenix, and which could be secured for the purpose.

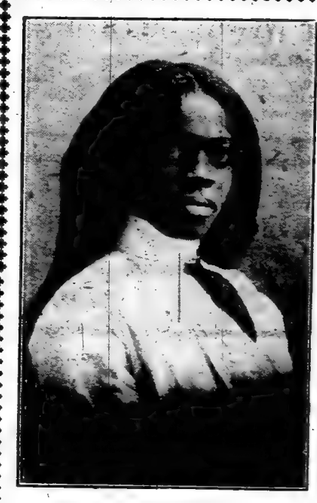
Such a vast and important undertaking could not be considered until the land had been actually visited and inspected. Then it was that a trip to the lands in question was planned, and on the 17th of July a party consisting of four members of the incorporators, accompanied by Mr. Shank, left Los Angeles bound for the tract of land that a definite and satisfactory decision could be reached.

We went by automobile, and the trip across the Mojave Desert was certainly fraught with all the dangers and romances that the most hazardous could wish; but we eventually reached the "promised land" and viewed one of the grandest and most prolific areas of land it would be possible to imagine—100,000 acres—and a greater number if we desired. The purchase was made, and the future hope of a struggling race was realized, and now, just at the threshold of a new year, with all the dreams of ages past about to be made possible, we make new resolves that the colored race must and shall be raised to the place in the world for which God intended them.

Next week we shall discuss in detail the fertility and resources of the land, with some side-lights on questions that may airse in regard to the corporation.

Wishing you and all of your many readers a very happy and prosperous 1917, we remain,

Sincerely,



JAMES H. LONGDEN,
Legal Adviser, Progressive Educational Association.

With the announcement of the All-American League that its Second Annual Conclave will be held February 22, 1917, at Exposition Park beginning early in the morning and lasting throughout the day, all interest is focusing itself on that day. While the details of the program have not been announced it is asserted by those in charge that the Second Annual Conclave will surpass even that of last February. It will be recalled by the citizens of Los Angeles and vicinity that the First Annual Conclave of the All-American League, held in Exposition Park February 22, 1916, was the biggest thing of its kind ever given in this part of the country. In addition to the tremendous free barbecue given by the League, the program rendered was of a higher and different order than anything ever attempted heretofore.

This year's conclave will include reports of the progress of the race and of inter-racial progress throughout California during the past year. There will be exhibits of the handiwork and achievements of colored citizens throughout California. Gold medals will be given to those making the best exhibits along particular lines. Certificates of Honorable Mention will be given those meritorious exhibitors in the order of their merit. The free barbecue promises to be more unique than anything of its kind ever given. All of the meat given in the barbecue will be raised entirely by colored citizens in California and all of the preparation and serving work will be done by colored citizens of the State of California and even the eating for the most part will be the work of colored citizens of the State of California. The program will include addresses by the leading colored, white and Japanese American citizens of the State. The one distinguishing feature of all the addresses will be a complete obliteration of the color line.

Every organization among the race in the State will be invited to participate in the exhibits. All individuals and organizations interested in making exhibits along either of the followng lines are invited to address their communications to the conclave Committee of the All-American League, care of 221 Lissner Bldg., 524 S. Spring St., Los Angeles, Calif. The exhibits will include the following range: Domestic Arts—pastry, cooking, and general house-wifery; Industrial Arts—business and commercial activities, tailoring, carpentry work, machinery, sculpturing, metal work, mining, fisheries, agriculture, horticulture, viticulture; Fine Arts and Miscellaneous. A special department of exhibits will provide for sworn statements shown the progress made by various race institutions, such as Lodges, Churches, Societies, Clubs and the like. These articles should be carefully typewritten and accompanied by pictures illustrating the same. To use the words of the Conclave Committee, February 22nd has been set aside as a day of feast and triumph for all of the colored citizens of California. All eyes and faces will be turned in the direction of Exposition Park early in the morning of February 22nd.

Detailed announcements of the classification of the exhibits and medals will be made in next week's paper. In the meantime all prospective exhibitors are urged to communicate with the Conclave Committee by letter immediately, requesting reservation of space for exhibits.
